(d) "Successor supplier" means a primary source of supply, a brewer, or an importer that acquires rights to a product from a predecessor supplier.

(e) "Successor wholesaler" means one or more wholesalers designated by a successor supplier to replace the existing wholesaler, for all or part of the existing wholesaler's territory, in the distribution of the existing product or products.

(f) "Supplier" means any person, partnership, corporation, association, or other business enterprise that is engaged in the manufacturing or importing of products.

(g) "Wholesaler" means the holder of a Colorado wholesaler's beer license or wholesaler's license to sell fermented malt beverages.

12-47-407. Retail liquor store license. (1) A retail liquor store license shall be issued to persons selling only malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors in sealed containers not to be consumed at the place where sold. Malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors in sealed containers shall not be sold at retail other than in retail liquor stores except as provided in section 12-47-408. In addition, retail liquor stores may sell nonfood items related to the consumption of such liquors, liquor-filled candy, and food items approved by the state licensing authority that are prepackaged, labeled, directly related to the consumption of such liquors, and sold solely for the purpose of cocktail garnish in containers up to sixteen ounces. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the sale of food items that could constitute a snack, a meal, or a portion of a meal. Nothing in this section or in section 12-47-103 (31) shall be construed to prohibit the sale of items by a retail liquor store on behalf of or to benefit a charitable organization, as defined in section 39-26-102, C.R.S., or a nonprofit corporation subject to the "Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporation Act", articles 121 to 137 of title 7, C.R.S., and determined to be exempt from federal income tax by the federal internal revenue service, if the retail liquor store does not receive compensation for any such sale. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a retail liquor store licensee, at the option of the licensee, from displaying promotional material furnished by a manufacturer or wholesaler, which material permits a customer to purchase other items from a third person if the retail liquor store licensee does not receive payment from the third person and if the ordering of the additional merchandise is done by the customer directly from the third person. Nothing in this subsection (1) shall prohibit a retail liquor store licensee from allowing tastings to be conducted on his or her licensed premises if an authorization for the tastings has been granted pursuant to section 12-47-301.

(2) Every person selling malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors in a retail liquor store shall purchase such malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors only from a wholesaler licensed pursuant to this article.

(3) A person licensed to sell at retail who complies with this subsection (3) and rules promulgated pursuant thereto may deliver malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors to a person of legal age if such person is at a place that is not licensed pursuant to this section. The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules as are necessary for the proper delivery of malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors and shall have the authority to issue a permit to any person who is licensed to sell at retail and delivers such liquors pursuant to this subsection (3). Such permits shall be subject to the same suspension and revocation provisions as are set forth in section 12-47-601 for other licenses granted pursuant to this article.

(4) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a retail liquor store to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article; except that such a person may have an interest in an arts license or an airline public transportation system license granted under this article, or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

(5) A licensee under the provisions of section 12-47-408 with a valid license in effect on July 1, 2000, may apply to a local licensing authority to convert or transfer such license to a retail liquor store license issued under the provisions of this section and may continue to operate as a retail liquor store licensee notwithstanding the limitations with respect to location within five hundred feet from any public or parochial school or the principal campus of any college, university, or seminary pursuant to the provisions of section 12-47-313 (1) (d) (I). The local licensing authority may, but shall not be required to, consider the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood pursuant to section 12-47-312 in making a determination on the conversion or transfer to a retail liquor store license.

12-47-408. Liquor-licensed drugstore license. (1) A liquor-licensed drugstore license shall be issued to persons selling malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors in sealed containers not to be consumed at the place where sold. Nothing in this subsection (1) shall prohibit a liquor-licensed drugstore licensee from allowing tastings to be conducted on his or her licensed premises if an authorization for the tastings has been granted pursuant to section 12-47-301.

(2) Every person selling malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors as provided in this section shall purchase such malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors only from a wholesaler licensed pursuant to this article.

(3) A liquor-licensed drugstore licensee who complies with this subsection (3) and rules promulgated pursuant thereto may deliver malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors to a person of legal age if such person is at a place that is not licensed pursuant to this section. The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules as are necessary for the proper delivery of malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors and shall have the authority to issue a permit to any liquor-licensed drugstore licensee that will allow such licensee to deliver such liquors pursuant to such rules and this subsection (3). Such permits shall be subject to the same suspension and revocation provisions as are set forth in sections 12-47-306 and 12-47-601 for other licenses granted pursuant to this article.

(4) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a liquor-licensed drugstore to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article; except that such a person may have an interest in an arts license or an airline public transportation system license granted under this article, or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

(5) A licensee under the provisions of this section with a valid license in effect on July 1, 2000, may apply to a local licensing authority to convert or transfer such license to a retail liquor store license issued under the provisions of section 12-47-407 and may continue to operate as a retail liquor store licensee notwithstanding the limitations with respect to location within five hundred feet from any public or parochial school or the principal campus of any college, university, or seminary pursuant to the provisions of section 12-47-313 (1) (d) (I). The local licensing authority may, but shall not be required to, consider the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood pursuant to section 12-47-312 in making a determination on the conversion or transfer to a retail liquor store license.

12-47-409. Beer and wine license. (1) A beer and wine license shall be issued to persons selling malt and vinous liquors and fermented malt beverages for consumption on the premises. Beer and wine licensees shall have sandwiches and light snacks available for consumption on the premises during business hours, but need not have meals available for consumption.

(2) (a) Every person selling malt and vinous liquors and fermented malt beverages as provided in this section shall purchase malt and vinous liquors and fermented malt beverages only from a wholesaler licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title; except that, during a calendar year, any person selling malt and vinous liquors and fermented malt beverages as provided in this section may purchase not more than two thousand dollars' worth of:

(I) Malt and vinous liquors from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408; and

(II) Fermented malt beverages from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (c).

(b) A beer and wine licensee shall retain evidence of each purchase of malt and vinous liquors from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408 and each purchase of fermented malt beverages from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (c), in the form of a purchase receipt showing the name of the licensed retailer, the date of purchase, a description of the malt or vinous liquor or fermented malt beverages purchased, and the price paid for the purchase. The beer and wine licensee shall retain the receipt and shall make it available to the state and local licensing authorities at all times during business hours.

(3) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a beer and wine license to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title; except that such a person may have an interest in a license described in section 12-46-104 (1) (c), 12-47-401 (1) (j) to (1) (t), or 12-47-410 (1) or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Separate classification for "hotel and restaurant" and "beer and wine" licenses. A license permitting hotels and restaurants to sell spirituous liquors in addition to beer and wine to their patrons is an entirely separate class of permit from a "beer and wine" license. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The need for separate classification is obvious in that an exclusively beer and wine license in a restaurant situation will serve a different clientele than that of a license which also provides for the service of spirituous liquors. Huerta v.

Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Provision for the separate classifications of hotel and restaurant license and beer and wine license was not an arbitrary or unreasonable act on the part of the general assembly. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license, if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by existing licenses. Huerta v. Canjar, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

12-47-410. Bed and breakfast permit. (1) In lieu of a hotel and restaurant license, a person operating a bed and breakfast with not more than twenty sleeping rooms that offers complimentary alcohol beverages for consumption only on the premises and only by overnight guests may be issued a bed and breakfast permit. A bed and breakfast permittee shall not sell alcohol beverages by the drink and shall not serve alcohol beverages for more than four hours in any one day.

(2) An applicant for a bed and breakfast permit is exempt from any fee otherwise assessable under section 12-47-501 (2) or 12-47-505 (4) (a), but is subject to all other fees and all other requirements of this article.

(3) A local licensing authority may, at its option, determine that bed and breakfast permits are not available within its jurisdiction.

(4) A bed and breakfast permit may be suspended or revoked in accordance with section 12-47-601 if the permittee violates any provision of this article or any rule adopted pursuant to this article or fails truthfully to furnish any required information in connection with a permit application.

(5) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a bed and breakfast permit to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title; except that a person regulated under this section may have an interest in other bed and breakfast permits, in a license described in section 12-46-104 (1) (c) or 12-47-401 (1) (j) to (1) (t), or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-118.5 as it existed prior to 1997.

12-47-411. Hotel and restaurant license - definition - rules. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a hotel and restaurant license shall be issued to persons selling alcohol beverages in the place where the alcohol beverages are to be consumed, subject to the following restrictions:

(a) Restaurants shall sell alcohol beverages as provided in this section only to customers of the restaurant and only if meals are actually and regularly served and provide not less than twenty-five percent of the gross income from sales of food and drink of the business of the licensed premises over any period of time of at least one year.

(b) Hotels shall sell alcohol beverages as provided in this section only to customers of the hotel and, except in hotel rooms, only on the licensed premises where meals are actually and regularly served and provide not less than twenty-five percent of the gross income from sales of food and drink of the business of the licensed premises over any period of time of at least one year.

(c) Any hotel and restaurant licensee who is open for business and selling alcohol beverages by the drink shall serve meals between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. and meals or light snacks and sandwiches after 8 p.m.; except that nothing in this paragraph (c) shall be construed to require a licensee to be open for business between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m.

(d) A hotel may be designated as a resort complex if it has at least fifty sleeping rooms and has related sports and recreational facilities located contiguous or adjacent to the hotel for the convenience of its guests or the general public. For purposes of a resort complex only, "contiguous or adjacent" means within the overall boundaries or scheme of development or regularly accessible from the hotel by its members and guests.

(2) (a) A resort complex shall designate its principal licensed premises and additional separate, related facilities that are located contiguous or adjacent to the licensed premises of the resort complex. Each related facility shall be identified by the resort complex at the time of initial licensure or upon license renewal. Each related facility shall also be clearly identified by its geographic location within the overall boundaries of the licensed premises of the resort complex. A resort complex may apply for a resort-complex-related facility permit for each related facility at the time of initial licensure, upon license renewal, or at any time upon application by the resort complex.

(b) Customers and guests who purchase alcohol beverages at one related facility are permitted to carry such beverages to other related facilities within the overall licensed premises boundaries of the resort complex.

(c) Each related facility shall remain at all times under the ownership and control of the resort complex licensee. Any subletting or transfer of ownership or change of control of a related facility without proper notification and approval by state and local licensing authorities shall be considered a violation of this article and will be cause for the denial, suspension, revocation, or cancellation of the license of the entire resort complex, including all of its related facilities, pursuant to section 12-47-601.

(d) Except as provided in this subsection (2), for violations of section 12-47-307, and for violations of this article and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article that are intentionally authorized by the ownership or management of a resort complex, each related facility shall be considered separately licensed or permitted for the purpose of application of the sanctions imposed under section 12-47-601.

(e) For purposes of this section, "related facility" means those areas, as approved by the state and local licensing authorities, that are contiguous or adjacent to the resort hotel and that are owned by or under the exclusive possession and control of the resort complex licensee. Related facilities shall include:

(I) Those indoor areas or facilities contiguous or adjacent to the licensed premises of the resort complex that are operated under a separate trade name and are used by resort complex patrons;

(II) Related outdoor sports and recreation facilities located contiguous or adjacent to the resort complex that are used by patrons of the resort complex for a fee; and

(III) Distinct areas or facilities contiguous or adjacent to the resort complex that are directly related to the resort complex use.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of this article to the contrary, a hotel, licensed pursuant to this article, may:

(a) Furnish and deliver complimentary alcohol beverages in sealed containers for the convenience of its guests;

(b) Sell alcohol beverages provided by the hotel in sealed containers, at any time, by means of a minibar located in hotel guest rooms, to adult registered guests of the hotel for consumption in guest rooms if the price of the alcohol beverages is clearly posted. For purposes of this section, "minibar" means a closed container, either nonrefrigerated or refrigerated in whole or in part, access to the interior of which is restricted by means of a locking device that requires the use of a key, magnetic card, or similar device or which is controlled at all times by the hotel.

(c) Enter into a contract with a lodging facility for the purpose of authorizing the lodging facility to sell alcohol beverages pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) if the lodging facility and hotel share common ownership and are located within one thousand feet of one another. The alcohol beverages that may be sold pursuant to this paragraph (c) must be provided by and subject to the control of the licensed hotel. For purposes of this paragraph (c), "common ownership" means a controlling ownership interest that is held by the same person or persons, whether through separate corporations, partnerships, or other legal entities. To determine whether the distance limitation referred to in this paragraph (c) is met, the distance from the property line of the land used for the lodging facility to the portion of the hotel licensed under this article shall be measured using the nearest and most direct routes of pedestrian access.

(3.5) Repealed.

(4) The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules that prohibit the placement of a container of alcohol beverages in a minibar if the container has a capacity of more than five hundred milliliters.

(5) It is the intent of this section to require hotel and restaurant licensees to maintain a bona fide restaurant business and not a mere pretext of such for obtaining a hotel and restaurant license.

(6) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), every person selling alcohol beverages as provided in this section shall purchase alcohol beverages only from a wholesaler licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title.

(b) (I) During a calendar year, a person selling alcohol beverages as provided in this section may purchase not more than two thousand dollars' worth of:

(A) Malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408; and

(B) Fermented malt beverages from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (c).

(II) A hotel and restaurant licensee shall retain evidence of each purchase of malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408 and each purchase of fermented malt beverages from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (c), in the form of a purchase receipt showing the name of the licensed retailer, the date of purchase, a description of the alcohol beverages purchased, and the price paid for the alcohol beverages. The licensee shall retain the receipt and make it available to the state and local licensing authorities at all times during business hours.

(7) Each hotel and restaurant license shall be granted for specific premises, and optional premises approved by the state and local licensing authorities, and issued in the name of the owner or lessee of the business.

(8) Each hotel and restaurant licensee shall manage or have a separate and distinct manager and shall register the manager of each liquor-licensed premises with the state and the local licensing authority. No person shall be a registered manager for more than one hotel and restaurant license.

(9) The registered manager for each hotel and restaurant license or the hotel and restaurant licensee shall purchase alcohol beverages for one licensed premises only, and the purchases shall be separate and distinct from purchases for any other hotel and restaurant license.

(10) When a person ceases to be a registered manager of a hotel and restaurant license, for whatever reason, the hotel and restaurant licensee shall notify the licensing authorities within five days and shall designate a new registered manager within thirty days.

(11) Either the state or the local licensing authority may refuse to accept any person as a registered manager unless the person is satisfactory to the respective licensing authorities as to character, record, and reputation. In determining a registered manager's character, record, and reputation, the state or local licensing authority may have access to criminal history record information furnished by a criminal justice agency subject to any restrictions imposed by such agency.

(12) The hotel and restaurant licensee shall pay a registration fee not to exceed seventy-five dollars to the state and to the local licensing authority for actual and necessary expenses incurred in establishing the character, record, and reputation of each registered manager.

(13) (a) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a hotel and restaurant license to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (13), an owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a hotel and restaurant license may conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in a license described in section 12-46-104 (1) (c), 12-47-401 (1) (j) to (1) (t), or 12-47-410 (1) or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Section 12-47-411 is similar to §§ 12-47-103 and 12-47-119 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions. Relevant cases construing § 12-47-119 have been included in the annotations to this section. Relevant cases construing § 12-47-103 have been included in the annotations to § 12-47-103.

Separate classification for "hotel and restaurant" and "beer and wine" licenses. A license permitting hotels and restaurants to sell spirituous liquors in addition to beer and wine to their patrons is an entirely separate class of permit from a "beer and wine" license. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The need for separate classification is obvious in that an exclusively beer and wine license in a restaurant situation will serve a different clientele than that of a license which also provides for the service of spirituous liquors. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Provision for the separate classifications of hotel and restaurant license and beer and wine license was not an arbitrary or unreasonable act on the part of the general assembly. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The requirement that a licensee maintain a bona fide restaurant business does not impose a reasonable man standard of what constitutes a conventional restaurant. The fact that the licensee has a lack of tables in the facility and has late hours of operation does not support a conclusion that the licensee was not a bona fide restaurant. Kantara, Inc. v. State of Colo., 991 P.2d 332 (Colo. App. 1999).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license, if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by existing licenses. Huerta v. Canjar, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Regulation prohibiting employees from mingling and soliciting drinks proper. Regulation of department of revenue, prohibiting liquor establishment licensee from employing a person to "mingle with patrons" and personally solicit the purchase or sale of drinks for use of one soliciting, was a proper exercise of authority delegated by the general assembly. People v. Wilson, 187 Colo. 141, 528 P.2d 1315 (1974).

Applied in Nobel, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 652 P.2d 1084 (Colo. App. 1982); Mountain's Shadow Inn, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Labor & Emp., 672 P.2d 522 (Colo. 1983).

12-47-412. Tavern license. (1) A tavern license shall be issued to persons selling alcohol beverages by the drink only to customers for consumption on the premises. A tavern licensee shall have sandwiches and light snacks available for consumption on the premises during business hours, but need not have meals available for consumption.

(2) (a) Every person selling alcohol beverages as provided in this section shall purchase alcohol beverages only from a wholesaler licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title; except that, during a calendar year, a person selling alcohol beverages as provided in this section may purchase not more than two thousand dollars' worth of:

(I) Malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408; and

(II) Fermented malt beverages from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (c).

(b) A tavern licensee shall retain evidence of each purchase of malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408 and each purchase of fermented malt beverages from a retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (c), in the form of a purchase receipt showing the name of the licensed retailer, the date of purchase, a description of the alcohol beverages purchased, and the price paid for the alcohol beverages. The tavern licensee shall retain the receipt and make it available to the state and local licensing authorities at all times during business hours.

(3) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in tavern licenses to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title; except that such a person may have an interest in a license described in section 12-46-104 (1) (c), 12-47-401 (1) (j) to (1) (t), or 12-47-410 (1) or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

(4) Each tavern licensee shall manage or have a separate and distinct manager for each licensed premises and shall register the manager of each licensed premises with both the state and the local licensing authority. No person shall be a registered manager for more than one tavern license.

(5) The registered manager for each tavern license or the tavern licensee shall purchase alcohol beverages for one licensed premises only, and the purchases shall be separate and distinct from purchases for any other tavern license.

(6) When a person ceases to be a registered manager for a tavern license, for whatever reason, the tavern licensee shall notify the licensing authorities within five days and shall designate a new registered manager within thirty days.

(7) The state licensing authority or the local licensing authority may refuse to accept any person as a registered manager unless the person is satisfactory to the respective licensing authorities as to character, record, and reputation. In determining a registered manager's character, record, and reputation, the state or local licensing authority may have access to criminal history record information furnished by a criminal justice agency subject to any restrictions imposed by such agency.

(8) The tavern licensee shall pay a registration fee not to exceed seventy-five dollars for actual and necessary expenses incurred in determining the character, record, and reputation of each registered manager. Such fee shall be paid to both the state and the local licensing authority.

12-47-422. Art gallery permit - definition. (1) A person operating an art gallery that offers complimentary alcohol beverages for consumption only on the premises may be issued an art gallery permit, which shall be renewed annually. An art gallery permittee shall not, directly or indirectly, sell alcohol beverages by the drink, shall not serve alcohol beverages for more than four hours in any one day, and shall not serve alcohol beverages more than fifteen days per year of licensure.

(2) (a) The state or local licensing authority may reject the application for an art gallery permit if the applicant fails to establish that the applicant is able to offer complimentary alcohol beverages without violating this section or creating a public safety risk to the neighborhood.

(b) Upon initial application, and for each renewal, the applicant shall list each day that alcohol beverages will be served, which days shall not be changed without a minimum of fifteen days' written notice to the state and local licensing authority.

(3) An art gallery shall not be denied an art gallery permit based solely on the art gallery's proximity to any public or private school or the principal campus of a college, university, or seminary.

(4) An art gallery shall not charge an entrance fee or a cover charge in connection with offering complimentary alcohol beverages for consumption only on the premises.

(5) An art gallery permit may be suspended or revoked in accordance with section 12-47-601 if the permittee violates any provision of this article or any rule adopted pursuant to this article or fails to truthfully furnish any required information in connection with a permit application.

(6) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in an art gallery permit to conduct, own either in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in any other business licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title; except that a person regulated under this section may have an interest in other art gallery permits, in a license described in section 12-46-104 (1) (c), 12-47-401 (1) (j) to (1) (t), or 12-47-410 (1), or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4).

(7) As used in this section, "art gallery" means an establishment whose primary purpose is to exhibit and offer for sale works of fine art as defined in section 6-15-101, C.R.S., or precious or semiprecious metals or stones as defined in section 18-16-102, C.R.S.

(8) An art gallery issued a permit shall not intentionally allow more than two hundred fifty people to be on the premises at one time when alcohol beverages are being served.

(9) Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate any insurance coverage required by law; to authorize a licensed art gallery to violate section 12-47-901, including, without limitation, serving a visibly intoxicated person and taking an alcohol beverage off the licensed premises; or to violate any zoning or occupancy ordinances or laws.

PART 5

LICENSE FEES AND EXCISE TAXES

12-47-501. State fees. (1) The following license fees shall be paid to the department of revenue annually in advance:

- (a) For each resident and nonresident manufacturer's license, the fee shall be:
- (I) For each brewery, three hundred dollars;
- (II) For each winery, three hundred dollars;
- (III) For each distillery or rectifier, one thousand fifty dollars;
- (IV) For each limited winery, seventy dollars;
- (b) For each importer's license, three hundred dollars;
- (c) For each wholesaler's liquor license, one thousand fifty dollars;
- (d) For each wholesaler's beer license, five hundred fifty dollars;
- (e) For each retail liquor store license, one hundred dollars;
- (f) For each liquor-licensed drugstore license, one hundred dollars;
- (g) For each beer and wine license, seventy-five dollars;
- (h) For each hotel and restaurant license, seventy-five dollars;
- (h.5) For each resort-complex-related facility permit, seventy-five dollars per related facility as defined in section 12-47-411 (2) (e);
- (i) For each tavern license, seventy-five dollars;
- (j) For each optional premises license, seventy-five dollars;
- (k) For each retail gaming tavern license, seventy-five dollars;
- (l) For each brew pub or vintner's restaurant license, three hundred twenty-five dollars;
- (m) For each club license, seventy-five dollars;
- (n) For each arts license, seventy-five dollars;

- (o) For each racetrack license, seventy-five dollars;
- (p) For each public transportation system license, seventy-five dollars for each dining, club, or parlor car; plane; bus; or other vehicle in which such liquor is sold. No additional license fee shall be required by any municipality, city and county, or county for the sale of such liquor in dining, club, or parlor cars; planes; buses; or other conveyances.
- (q) For each bed and breakfast permit, fifty dollars;
- (r) For each art gallery permit, fifty dollars.

(1.5) Notwithstanding the amount specified for any fee in subsection (1) of this section, the executive director of the department of revenue by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of one or more of the fees if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of one or more of the fees is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the executive director by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of one or more of the fees as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(2) (a) The state licensing authority shall establish fees for processing the following types of applications, notices, or reports required to be submitted to the state licensing authority:

(I) Applications for new liquor licenses pursuant to section 12-47-304 and rules adopted pursuant to that section;

(II) Applications to change location pursuant to section 12-47-301 (9) and rules adopted pursuant to that section;

(III) Applications for transfer of ownership pursuant to section 12-47-303 (1) (c) and rules adopted pursuant to that section;

(IV) Applications for modification of licensed premises pursuant to section 12-47-301 and rules adopted pursuant to that section;

(V) Applications for alternating use of premises pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (a), 12-47-402 (2.5), 12-47-403 (2) (a), or 12-47-415 (1) (b) and rules adopted pursuant to those sections;

(VI) Applications for branch warehouse permits pursuant to section 12-47-406 and rules adopted pursuant to that section;

(VII) Applications for approval of a contract to sell alcohol beverages pursuant to section 12-47-411 (3) (c);

(VIII) Applications for warehouse storage permits pursuant to section 12-47-202 and rules adopted pursuant to that section;

(IX) Applications for duplicate licenses;

(X) Applications for wine shipment permits pursuant to section 12-47-104;

(XI) Sole source registrations or new product registrations pursuant to section 12-47-901 (3) (b);

(XII) Hotel and restaurant optional premises registrations;

(XIII) Expired license renewal applications pursuant to section 12-47-302; and

(XIV) Notice of change of name or trade name pursuant to section 12-47-301 and rules adopted pursuant to that section.

(b) The amounts of such fees, when added to the other fees transferred to the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund pursuant to sections 12-46-105, 12-47-502 (1), and 12-48-104, shall reflect the direct and indirect costs of the liquor enforcement division and the state licensing authority in the administration and enforcement of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title.

(c) The state licensing authority may charge corporate applicants and limited liability companies licensed under articles 46 and 47 of this title a fee for the cost of each fingerprint analysis and background investigation undertaken to qualify new officers, directors, stockholders, members, or managers pursuant to the requirements of section 12-47-307 (1); however, the state licensing authority shall not collect such a fee if the applicant has already undergone a background investigation by and paid a fee to a local licensing authority.

(d) At least annually, the amounts of the fees shall be reviewed and, if necessary, adjusted to reflect the direct and indirect costs of the liquor enforcement division and the state licensing authority.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the state licensing authority shall establish a basic fee which shall be paid at the time of service of any subpoena upon the state licensing authority or upon any employee of the division, plus a fee for meals and a fee for mileage at the rate prescribed for state officers and employees in section 24-9-104, C.R.S., for each mile actually and necessarily traveled in going to and returning from the place named in the subpoena. If the person named in the subpoena is required to attend the place named in the subpoena for more than one day, there shall be paid, in advance, a sum to be established by the state licensing authority for each day of attendance to cover the expenses of the person named in the subpoena.

(4) The subpoena fee established pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall not be applicable to any state or local governmental agency.

12-47-502. Fees and taxes - allocation. (1) (a) All state license fees and taxes provided for by this article and all fees provided for by section 12-47-501 (2) and (3) for processing applications, reports, and notices shall be paid to the department of revenue, which shall transmit the fees and taxes to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall credit eighty-five percent of the fees and taxes to the old age pension fund and the balance to the general fund.

(b) An amount equal to the revenues attributable to fifty dollars of each state license fee provided for by this article and the processing fees provided for by section 12-47-501 (2) and (3) for processing applications, reports, and notices shall be transferred out of the general fund to the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund. Such transfer shall be made by the state treasurer as soon as possible after the twentieth day of the month following the payment of such fees.

(c) The expenditures of the state licensing authority and the liquor enforcement division shall be paid out of appropriations from the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund as provided in section 24-35-401, C.R.S.

(2) Eighty-five percent of the local license fees shall be paid to the department of revenue, which shall transmit the fees to the state treasurer to be credited to the old age pension fund.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Antitrust", see 55 Den. L.J. 415 (1978).

12-47-503. Excise tax - records. (1) (a) An excise tax at the rate of 8.0 cents per gallon, or the same per unit volume tax applied to metric measure, on all malt liquors, fermented malt beverages, and hard cider, 7.33 cents per liter on all vinous liquors except hard cider, and 60.26 cents per liter on all spirituous liquors is imposed, and such taxes shall be collected on all such respective beverages, not otherwise exempt from the tax, sold, offered for sale, or used in this state; except that, upon the same beverages, only one such tax shall be paid in this state. The manufacturer thereof, the holder of a winery direct shipper's permit, or the first licensee receiving alcohol beverages in this state if shipped from without the state, shall be primarily liable for the payment of any tax or tax surcharge imposed pursuant to this section; but, if such beverage is transported by a manufacturer or wholesaler to a point outside of the state and there disposed of, then such manufacturer or wholesaler, upon the filing with the state licensing authority of a duplicate bill of lading, invoice, or affidavit showing such transaction, shall not be subject to the tax provided in this section on such beverages, and, if such tax has already been paid, it shall be refunded to said manufacturer or wholesaler. For purposes of this section, "manufacturer" includes brew pub licensees and vintner's restaurant licensees.

(b) (I) Repealed.

(II) Effective July 1, 2000, a wine development fee at the rate of 1.0 cent per liter is imposed on all vinous liquors except hard cider sold, offered for sale, or used in this state. An amount equal to one hundred percent of the wine development fee collected pursuant to this subparagraph (II) shall be transferred from the general fund to the Colorado wine industry development fund created in section 35-29.5-105, C.R.S. Such transfers shall be made by the state treasurer as soon as possible after the twentieth day of the month following the collection of such wine development fee.

(III) In addition to the excise tax imposed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) and the excise tax surcharge imposed pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), an additional excise tax surcharge at the rate of 5.0 cents per liter for the first nine thousand liters, 3.0 cents per liter for the next thirty-six thousand liters, and 1.0 cent per liter for all additional amounts, is imposed on all vinous liquors except hard cider produced by Colorado licensed wineries and sold, offered for sale, or used in this state. An amount equal to one hundred percent of the excise tax surcharge collected pursuant to this subparagraph (III) shall be transferred from the general fund to the Colorado wine industry development fund created in section 35-29.5-105, C.R.S. Such transfers shall be made by the state treasurer as soon as possible after the twentieth day of the month following the collection of such excise tax surcharge.

(c) An excise tax of ten dollars per ton of grapes is imposed upon all grapes of the vinifera varieties or other produce used in the production of wine in this state by a licensed Colorado winery or vintner's restaurant, whether true or hybrid. The excise tax imposed pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be paid to the department of revenue by the licensed winery or vintner's restaurant at the time of purchase of the product by the winery or vintner's restaurant or of importation of the product, whichever is later. An amount equal to one hundred percent of such excise tax shall be transferred from the general fund to the Colorado wine industry development fund created in section 35-29.5-105, C.R.S. Such transfers shall be made by the state treasurer as soon as possible after the twentieth day of the month following the collection of such excise tax.

(d) The policy of this state is that alcoholics and intoxicated persons may not be subjected to criminal prosecution because of their consumption of alcohol beverages, but rather should be afforded a continuum of treatment in order that they may lead normal lives as productive members of society. The general assembly finds that the cost of implementing a statewide treatment plan is greater than originally estimated. By increasing the excise tax on alcohol beverages in Colorado, it is the intent of this general assembly that the increased revenues derived from this subsection (1) be viewed as one of the sources of funding for the future development of alcoholism treatment programs under the statute enacted in 1973 and for the payment of other related direct and indirect costs caused by the consumption of alcohol beverages.

(2) The state licensing authority shall make and publish such rules and regulations to secure and enforce the collection and payment of such tax as it may deem proper if such rules and regulations are not inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

(3) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, the excise taxes and excise tax surcharges provided for in this section shall be paid to the department of revenue upon the filing of the return provided for in subsection (4) of this section and shall be delivered to the department on or before the twentieth day of the month following the month in which such alcohol beverages are first sold in this state. As used in this subsection (3), "first sold" means the sale or disposal that occurs when a licensed wholesaler sells, transfers, or otherwise disposes of a product, when a manufacturer sells to a licensed wholesaler or a consumer, or when a holder of a winery direct shipper's permit ships to a personal consumer in this state.

(4) Each licensed manufacturer and wholesaler of alcohol beverages within this state shall file, on or before the twentieth day of each month, an exact, verified return with the state licensing authority showing for the preceding calendar month the quantities of alcohol beverages:

- (a) Constituting the licensee's beginning and ending inventory for such month;
- (b) Manufactured by the licensee in this state;
- (c) Shipped to the licensee from within this state and received by the licensee in this state;
- (d) Shipped to the licensee from outside this state and received by the licensee in this state;
- (e) Sold or disposed of by the licensee to persons or purchasers in this state;
- (f) Sold or disposed of by the licensee to persons or purchasers outside this state, separately indicating those sales or transactions of alcohol beverages to which the excise tax is not applicable; and
- (g) For persons licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (a), 12-47-402 (2.5), 12-47-403 (2) (a), or 12-47-415 (1) (b), a separate report of vinous liquors, malt liquors, or fermented malt beverages, as applicable, that were manufactured or inventoried in, or transferred from, an alternating proprietor licensed premises.

(5) The return, on forms prescribed by the state licensing authority, shall also show the amount of excise tax payable, after allowances for all proper deductions, for alcohol beverages sold by the manufacturer, wholesaler, or holder of a winery direct shipper's permit in this state and shall include such additional information as the state licensing authority may require for the proper administration of this article. The payment of the excise tax provided for in this section, in the amount disclosed by the return, shall accompany the return and shall be paid to the department of revenue. Each manufacturer, wholesaler, or holder of a winery direct shipper's permit required to file a return shall keep complete and accurate books and records, accounts, and other documents as may be necessary to substantiate the accuracy of his or her return and the amount of excise tax due and shall retain such records for a period of three years.

(6) The state licensing authority, after public hearing of which the licensee shall have due notice as provided in this article, shall suspend or revoke any license or winery direct shipper's permit issued pursuant to this article for a failure to pay any excise tax required by this article and may suspend or revoke such license or permit for a violation of or failure to comply with the rules promulgated by said authority.

(7) If the excise tax is not paid when due, there shall be added to the amount of the tax as a penalty a sum equivalent to ten percent thereof and, in addition thereto, interest on the tax and a penalty at the rate of one percent a month or fraction of a month from the date the tax became due until paid. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve any person otherwise liable from liability for payment of the excise tax.

(8) The department of revenue shall make a refund or allow a credit to the manufacturer, the wholesaler, or the holder of a winery direct shipper's permit, as the case may be, of the amount of the excise tax paid on alcohol beverages sold in this state when, after payment of the excise tax, such alcohol beverages are rendered unsalable by reason of destruction or damage upon submission of evidence satisfactory to the state licensing authority that such excise tax has actually been paid. Such refund or credit shall be made by the department within sixty days after the submission of evidence satisfactory to the department.

(9) (a) In order to economize and to simplify administrative procedures, the state licensing authority may authorize a procedure whereby a manufacturer or wholesaler of alcohol beverages or holder of a winery direct shipper's permit entitled by law to a refund of the tax provided in this section may instead receive a credit against the tax due on other sales by claiming said credit on the next month's return and attaching a duplicate bill of lading, invoice, or affidavit showing such transaction.

(b) To the extent and so long as federal law precludes this state from collecting its excise tax on vinous and spirituous liquors sold and delivered on ceded federal property, any manufacturer or wholesaler of such liquors making any such sales and deliveries on such federal property within the boundaries of this state may receive a refund of or a credit for the excise tax paid this state on such liquors.

12-47-504. Lien to secure payment of taxes - exemptions - recovery. (1) (a) The state of Colorado and the department of revenue shall have a lien, to secure the payment of the taxes, penalties, and interest imposed pursuant to section 12-47-503 upon all the assets and property of the wholesaler or manufacturer owing such tax, including the stock in trade, business fixtures, and equipment owned or used by the wholesaler or manufacturer in the conduct of business, as long as a delinquency in the payment of such tax continues. Such lien shall be prior to any lien of any kind whatsoever, including existing liens for taxes.

(b) Any wholesaler and manufacturer or person in possession shall provide a copy of any lease pertaining to the assets and property described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) to the department of revenue within ten days after seizure by the department of such assets and property. The department shall verify that such lease is bona fide and notify the owner that such lease has been received by the department. The department shall use its best efforts to notify the owner of the real or personal property that might be subject to the lien created in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). The real or personal property of an owner who has made a bona fide lease to a wholesaler or manufacturer shall be exempt from the lien created in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) if such property can reasonably be identified from the lease description or if the lessee is given an option to purchase in such lease and has not exercised such option to become the owner of the property leased. This exemption shall be effective from the date of the execution of the lease. Such exemption shall also apply if the lease is recorded with the county clerk and recorder of the county where the property is located or based or a memorandum of the lease is filed with the department of revenue on such forms as may be prescribed by said department after the execution of the lease at a cost for such filing of two dollars and fifty cents per document.

Motor vehicles that are properly registered in this state, showing the lessor as owner thereof, shall be exempt from the lien created in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); except that said lien shall apply to the extent that the lessee has an earned reserve, allowance for depreciation not to exceed fair market value, or similar interest which is or may be credited to the lessee. Where the lessor and lessee are blood relatives or relatives by law or have twenty-five percent or more common ownership, a lease between such lessee and such lessor shall not be considered as bona fide for the purposes of this section.

(2) (a) Any wholesaler or manufacturer who files a return pursuant to section 12-47-503 but who fails to accompany it with payment of the excise tax disclosed on the return shall be sent a notice by the executive director of the department of revenue. Such notice shall state that the excise tax is due and unpaid and shall state the amount of the tax, penalty, and interest owed pursuant to section 12-47-503. The notice shall be sent by first-class mail and shall be directed to the last address of such wholesaler or manufacturer on file with the department of revenue.

(b) (I) If a wholesaler or manufacturer fails to file both the return and the payment required by section 12-47-503, the executive director of the department of revenue shall make an estimate, based upon such information as may be available, of the amount of taxes due for the period for which the wholesaler or manufacturer is delinquent and shall add any penalty and interest authorized in section 12-47-503. The executive director shall give the delinquent taxpayer written notice of such estimated tax, penalty, and interest, which notice shall be sent by first-class mail, and shall be directed to the last address of such person on file with the department of revenue.

(II) The remedies available to a taxpayer pursuant to article 21 of title 39, C.R.S., shall be available to any wholesaler or manufacturer who seeks to contest the estimated tax, penalty, or interest specified in the notice mailed pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b).

(3) If any taxes, penalties, or interest imposed pursuant to section 12-47-503 are not paid within ten days after the notice is mailed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the executive director of the department of revenue may seek to enforce collection of the unpaid amounts in accordance with the provisions of article 21 of title 39, C.R.S., to the extent that such provisions are not in conflict with or inconsistent with the provisions of this article.

12-47-505. Local license fees. (1) The following license fees shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipality, city and county, or county where the licensed premises is located annually in advance:

(a) (I) For each retail liquor store license for premises located within any municipality or city and county, one hundred fifty dollars;

(II) For each retail liquor store license for premises located outside the municipal limits of any municipality or city and county, two hundred fifty dollars;

(b) (I) For each liquor-licensed drugstore license for premises located within any municipality or city and county, one hundred fifty dollars;

(II) For each liquor-licensed drugstore license for premises located outside the municipal limits of any municipality or city and county, two hundred fifty dollars;

(c) (I) For each beer and wine license for premises located within any municipality or city and county, except as provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), three hundred twenty-five dollars;

(II) For each beer and wine license for premises located outside the municipal limits of any municipality or city and county, except as provided in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), four hundred twenty-five dollars;

(III) For each beer and wine license issued to a resort hotel, three hundred seventy-five dollars;

(d) For each hotel and restaurant license, five hundred dollars;

(e) For each tavern license, five hundred dollars;

- (f) For each optional premises license, five hundred dollars;
 - (g) For each retail gaming tavern license, five hundred dollars;
 - (h) For each application for approval of a contract to sell alcohol beverages pursuant to section 12-47-411 (3) (c), three hundred twenty-five dollars;
 - (i) For each brew pub or vintner's restaurant license, five hundred dollars;
 - (j) For each club license, two hundred seventy-five dollars;
 - (k) For each arts license, two hundred seventy-five dollars;
 - (l) For each racetrack license, five hundred dollars;
 - (m) For each bed and breakfast permit, twenty-five dollars;
 - (n) For each resort-complex-related facility permit, one hundred dollars per related facility as defined in section 12-47-411 (2) (e);
 - (o) For each art gallery permit, twenty-five dollars.
- (2) No rebate shall be paid by any municipality, city and county, or county of any alcohol beverage license fee paid for any such license issued by it except upon affirmative action by the respective local licensing authority rebating a proportionate amount of such license fee.
- (3) Eighty-five percent of the local license fees provided for in this article and article 46 of this title shall be paid to the department of revenue, which shall transmit said fees to the state treasurer to be credited to the old age pension fund.
- (4) (a) Each application for a license provided for in this article and article 46 of this title filed with a local licensing authority shall be accompanied by an application fee in an amount determined by the local licensing authority to cover actual and necessary expenses, subject to the following limitations:
- (I) For a new license, not to exceed the following:
 - (A) On or before July 1, 2008, six hundred twenty-five dollars;
 - (B) After July 1, 2008, and before July 2, 2009, seven hundred fifty dollars;
 - (C) After July 1, 2009, and before July 2, 2010, eight hundred seventy-five dollars;
 - (D) After July 2, 2010, one thousand dollars;
 - (II) For a transfer of location or ownership, not to exceed the following for each:
 - (A) On or before July 1, 2008, six hundred twenty-five dollars;
 - (B) After July 1, 2008, seven hundred fifty dollars;
 - (III) For a renewal of license, not to exceed the following; except that an expired license renewal fee shall not exceed five hundred dollars:
 - (A) On or before July 1, 2008, seventy-five dollars;
 - (B) After July 1, 2008, one hundred dollars;
 - (IV) For a new license or renewal application for an art gallery permit, not to exceed one hundred dollars.
- (b) No fees or charges of any kind, except as provided in this article or article 46 of this title, may be charged by the local licensing authority to the license holder or applicant for the purposes of granting or renewing a license or transferring ownership or location of a license.
- (5) The local licensing authority may charge corporate applicants and limited liability companies up to one hundred dollars for the cost of each fingerprint analysis and background investigation undertaken to qualify new officers, directors, stockholders, members, or managers pursuant to the requirements of section 12-47-307 (1); however, no local licensing authority shall collect such a fee if the applicant has already undergone a background investigation by and paid a fee to the state licensing authority.

Annotator's note. Section 12-47-505 is similar to § 12-47-135 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions. Relevant cases construing § 12-47-135 have been included in the annotations to § 12-47-309.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

12-47-601. Suspension - revocation - fines. (1) In addition to any other penalties prescribed by this article or article 46 or 48 of this title, the state or any local licensing authority has the power, on its own motion or on complaint, after investigation and public hearing at which the licensee shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard, to suspend or revoke any license or permit issued by such authority for any violation by the licensee or by any of the agents, servants, or employees of such licensee of the provisions of this article, or any of the rules or regulations authorized pursuant to this article or of any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of the license or permit issued by such authority. Any licensing authority has the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and the production of papers, books, and records necessary to the determination of any hearing that the licensing authority is authorized to conduct.

(2) Notice of suspension or revocation, as well as any required notice of such hearing, shall be given by mailing the same in writing to the licensee at the address contained in such license or permit. No such suspension shall be for a longer period than six months. If any license or permit is suspended or revoked, no part of the fees paid therefor shall be returned to the licensee. Any license or permit may be summarily suspended by the issuing licensing authority without notice pending any prosecution, investigation, or public hearing. Nothing in this section shall prevent the summary suspension of such license or permit for a temporary period of not more than fifteen days.

(3) (a) Whenever a decision of the state or any local licensing authority suspending a license or permit for fourteen days or less becomes final, whether by failure of the licensee to appeal the decision or by exhaustion of all appeals and judicial review, the licensee may, before the operative date of the suspension, petition for permission to pay a fine in lieu of having the license or permit suspended for all or part of the suspension period. Upon the receipt of the petition, the state or the local licensing authority may, in its sole discretion, stay the proposed suspension and cause any investigation to be made which it deems desirable and may, in its sole discretion, grant the petition if it is satisfied:

(I) That the public welfare and morals would not be impaired by permitting the licensee to operate during the period set for suspension and that the payment of the fine will achieve the desired disciplinary purposes;

(II) That the books and records of the licensee are kept in such a manner that the loss of sales of alcohol beverages that the licensee would have suffered had the suspension gone into effect can be determined with reasonable accuracy therefrom; and

(III) That the licensee has not had his or her license or permit suspended or revoked, nor had any suspension stayed by payment of a fine, during the two years immediately preceding the date of the motion or complaint which has resulted in a final decision to suspend the license or permit.

(b) The fine accepted shall be the equivalent to twenty percent of the licensee's estimated gross revenues from sales of alcohol beverages during the period of the proposed suspension; except that the fine shall be not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars.

(c) Payment of any fine pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (3) shall be in the form of cash or in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made payable to the state or local licensing authority, whichever is appropriate.

(4) Upon payment of the fine pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the state or the local licensing authority shall enter its further order permanently staying the imposition of the suspension. If the fine is paid to a local licensing authority, the governing body of the authority shall cause such moneys to be paid into the general fund of the local licensing authority. Fines paid to the state licensing authority pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer who shall credit the same to the general fund.

(5) In connection with any petition pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the authority of the state or local licensing authority is limited to the granting of such stays as are necessary for it to complete its investigation and make its findings and, if it makes such findings, to the granting of an order permanently staying the imposition of the entire suspension or that portion of the suspension not otherwise conditionally stayed.

(6) If the state or the local licensing authority does not make the findings required in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section and does not order the suspension permanently stayed, the suspension shall go into effect on the operative date finally set by the state or the local licensing authority.

(7) The provisions of subsections (3) to (6) of this section shall be effective and may be implemented by the state licensing authority upon its decision to accept and adopt the optional procedures set forth in said subsections. The provisions of subsections (3) to (6) of this section shall be effective and may be implemented by a local licensing authority only after the governing body of the municipality, the governing body of the city and county, or the board of county commissioners of the county chooses to do so and acts, by appropriate resolution or ordinance, to accept and adopt the optional procedures set forth in said subsections. Any such actions may be revoked in a similar manner.

(8) Each local licensing authority shall report all actions taken to impose fines, suspensions, and revocations to the state licensing authority in a manner as required by the state licensing authority. No later than January 15 of each year, a report of the preceding year's actions in which fines, suspensions, or revocations were imposed by local licensing authorities and by the state licensing authority shall be compiled by the state licensing authority. One copy of said report shall be filed with the chief clerk of the house of representatives, one copy shall be filed with the secretary of the senate, and six copies shall be filed in the joint legislative library.

(9) When penalizing a vendor who has violated section 12-47-901 (1) (a) by serving a minor during an underage compliance check, state and local licensing authorities shall consider it a mitigating factor if the vendor is a responsible alcohol beverage vendor as defined by part 10 of this article.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Due process standard applicable. The test of whether a liquor licensee's procedural due process rights have been violated is one of "fundamental fairness". Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

The holder of a liquor license has sufficient interest therein to require procedural due process protection. Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

Promulgation of rules is not necessary to ensure due process rights for a license suspension under this section because judicial review adequately protects those rights. Brownlee v. Dept. of Rev., 686 P.2d 1372 (Colo. App. 1984).

This section is constitutional on its face when a hearing is provided as soon as possible within the 15-day limitation set out in the statute. New Safari Lounge, Inc. v. City of Colo. Springs, 193 Colo. 428, 567 P.2d 372 (1977).

This section prescribes procedures to revoke a license to sell intoxicating liquors with an alcoholic content in excess of 3.2 percent. Bunzel v. City of Golden, 151 Colo. 352, 378 P.2d 208 (1963).

This section has no application to a license to sell 3.2 percent beer. Bunzel v. City of Golden, 151 Colo. 352, 378 P.2d 208 (1963).

Though not technically property, a liquor license is a valuable right and possesses some of the characteristics of property, and it may be revoked for breach of the conditions upon which it was issued. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

A liquor license can be recalled with all other similar licenses during the year only by legislative action, otherwise, it is revocable during the year only for breach of the conditions upon which it was issued, and as thus viewed, it is property within the meaning of the due process clause of the federal constitution. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Boards of county commissioners have power to revoke licenses to sell intoxicating liquors whenever the board is satisfied that the licensee has abused the privilege of the license or violated the general law, and for the purpose of determining whether or not a license should be revoked the board may hear evidence and determine for itself whether or not the law has been violated and it is not necessary that the licensee should first have been tried and proven guilty of violating the law in a court of competent jurisdiction before his license can be revoked. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Mayr, 31 Colo. 173, 74 P. 458 (1903) (decided prior to earliest source, L. 35, p. 612, § 10).

Basis for revocation. Licenses may be revoked by the licensing authority, after notice and hearing, for any violation by the licensee or by any of the agents, servants, or employees of such licensee of the provisions of this article, or any of the rules or regulations authorized hereunder, or of any of the terms, conditions or provisions of the license issued by such authority. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Sanctions criteria set forth in this section do not govern a decision not to renew under § 12-47-302 (1). Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

Licensee presumed to know regulations. Having applied for and received a license pursuant to the state liquor code, a licensee is presumed to know the regulations governing use of that license. Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

The test of the sufficiency of notice is whether charges are described with reasonable certainty so that licensee can prepare a defense. Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

This section does not require in a county license suspension hearing that the notice of hearing identify the specific statute or regulation that the licensee is alleged to have violated. Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

Governed by liquor code on local level. Since the general assembly has not adopted legislation requiring that license suspension proceedings by a county be conducted pursuant to the state administrative procedure act and since a county does not have statewide jurisdiction, the notice requirements, suspension of a liquor license, are governed by the state liquor code. Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

Director could move court to release documents in custodia legis. Where director initiated proceedings to determine possible revocation or suspension of license, but the district court had possession of the necessary documents for use by the grand jury, and the district court could not be subpoenaed, the director could properly move, in the alternative, for the court to release the documents in custodia legis. Granbery v. District Court, 187 Colo. 316, 531 P.2d 390 (1975).

License suspended for sale of wine to minor. DiManna v. Kalbin, 646 P.2d 403 (Colo. App. 1982).

Forty-five days suspension for gambling is reasonable for a violation of § 12-47-128 (5)(n). Brownlee v. Dept. of Rev., 686 P.2d 1372 (Colo. App. 1984).

Applied in Continental Liquor Co. v. Kalbin, 43 Colo. App. 438, 608 P.2d 353 (1977); Chroma Corp. v. Campbell, 44 Colo. App. 387, 619 P.2d 74 (1980).

PART 7

INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

12-47-701. Inspection procedures. Each licensee shall keep a complete set of books of account, invoices, copies of orders, shipping instructions, bills of lading, weigh bills, correspondence, and all other records necessary to show fully the business transactions of such licensee, all of which shall be open at all times during business hours for the inspection and examination of said state licensing authority or its duly authorized representatives. The state licensing authority may require any licensee to furnish such information as it considers necessary for the proper administration of this article, and may require an audit to be made of such books of account and records on such occasions as it may consider necessary by an auditor to be selected by said state licensing authority who shall likewise have access to all books and records of such licensee, and the expense thereof shall be paid by said licensee.

Director has authority to issue subpoenas compelling production of documents. Granbery v. District Court, 187 Colo. 316, 531 P.2d 390 (1975).

Director could move court to release documents in custodia legis. Where director initiated proceedings to determine possible revocation or suspension of license, but the district court had possession of the necessary documents for use by the grand jury, and the district court could not be subpoenaed, the director could properly move, in the alternative, for the court to release the documents in custodia legis. *Granbery v. PART 8

JUDICIAL REVIEW AND CIVIL LIABILITY

12-47-801. Civil liability - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that this section shall be interpreted so that any common law cause of action against a vendor of alcohol beverages is abolished and that in certain cases the consumption of alcohol beverages rather than the sale, service, or provision thereof is the proximate cause of injuries or damages inflicted upon another by an intoxicated person except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) As used in this section, "licensee" means a person licensed under the provisions of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title and the agents or servants of such person.

(3) (a) No licensee is civilly liable to any injured individual or his or her estate for any injury to such individual or damage to any property suffered because of the intoxication of any person due to the sale or service of any alcohol beverage to such person, except when:

(I) It is proven that the licensee willfully and knowingly sold or served any alcohol beverage to such person who was under the age of twenty-one years or who was visibly intoxicated; and

(II) The civil action is commenced within one year after such sale or service.

(b) No civil action may be brought pursuant to this subsection (3) by the person to whom the alcohol beverage was sold or served or by his or her estate, legal guardian, or dependent.

(c) In any civil action brought pursuant to this subsection (3), the total liability in any such action shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(4) (a) No social host who furnishes any alcohol beverage is civilly liable to any injured individual or his or her estate for any injury to such individual or damage to any property suffered, including any action for wrongful death, because of the intoxication of any person due to the consumption of such alcohol beverages, except when:

(I) It is proven that the social host knowingly served any alcohol beverage to such person who was under the age of twenty-one years or knowingly provided the person under the age of twenty-one a place to consume an alcoholic beverage; and

(II) The civil action is commenced within one year after such service.

(b) No civil action may be brought pursuant to this subsection (4) by the person to whom such alcohol beverage was served or by his or her estate, legal guardian, or dependent.

(c) The total liability in any such action shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(4.5) An instructor or entity that complies with section 18-13-122 (3) (c), C.R.S., shall not be liable for civil damages resulting from the intoxication of a minor due to the minor's unauthorized consumption of alcohol beverages during instruction in culinary arts, food service, or restaurant management pursuant to section 18-13-122 (3) (c), C.R.S.

(5) (a) The limitations on damages set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection (3) and paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section shall be adjusted for inflation as of January 1, 1998, and January 1, 2008. The adjustments made on January 1, 1998, and January 1, 2008, shall be based on the cumulative annual adjustment for inflation for each year since the effective date of the damages limitations in paragraph (c) of subsection (3) and paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section. The adjustments made pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall be rounded upward or downward to the nearest ten-dollar increment.

(b) As used in this subsection (5), "inflation" means the annual percentage change in the United States department of labor, bureau of labor statistics, consumer price index for Denver-Boulder, all items, all urban consumers, or its successor index.

(c) The secretary of state shall certify the adjusted limitation on damages within fourteen days after the appropriate information is available, and:

(I) The adjusted limitation on damages as of January 1, 1998, shall be the limitation applicable to all claims for relief that accrue on or after January 1, 1998, and before January 1, 2008; and

(II) The adjusted limitation on damages as of January 1, 2008, shall be the limitation applicable to all claims for relief that accrue on and after January 1, 2008.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-801 is similar to §§ 12-46-112.5 and 12-47-128.5 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Employer that made alcohol beverages available to an employee on its premises after work hours was acting as a social host and not liable for injuries sustained by third parties as a result of the employee's operation of a motor vehicle after consuming the alcohol beverages. Rojas v. Engineered Plastic Designs, Inc., 68 P.3d 591 (Colo. App. 2003).

A victim need not show his or her injuries were a reasonable foreseeable consequence of licensed alcohol vendor serving a visibly intoxicated person. It suffices that the vendor's improper service of alcohol caused the patron's intoxication and patron's intoxication caused the victim's injuries. Strauch v. Build It, 226 P.3d 1235 (Colo. App. 2009), aff'd, 253 P.3d 302 (Colo. 2011).

This section is not intended to apply retroactively and does not apply to claims which accrued prior to its effective date. Jenkins v. Wine & Dine, Inc., 784 P.2d 854 (Colo. App. 1989).

One-year statute of limitation period within which to file a claim under this section is not unreasonably limited in duration. Estate of Stevenson v. Hollywood Bar, 832 P.2d 718 (Colo. 1992).

One-year limitation period established by this section is constitutional. Estate of Stevenson v. Hollywood Bar, 832 P.2d 718 (Colo. 1992).

"Willfully and knowingly served" as used in subsection (3)(a)(I) occurs only when a social host has control over or takes an active part in supplying a minor with alcohol. Providing a home at which alcohol is consumed by minors, without more, does not create social host liability. Forrest v. Lorrigan, 833 P.2d 873 (Colo. App. 1992).

The fact that the host collected money for the purchase of beer was not enough to permit a finding of social host liability, absent evidence that he also bought or exercised control over the beer. Forrest v. Lorrigan, 833 P.2d 873 (Colo. App. 1992).

Social host liability for injuries to third party under this section not established where parent provided home where minors could consume alcoholic beverages and helped collect money to purchase alcoholic beverages unless it could be shown that parent willfully and knowingly served alcoholic beverages to minors. Forrest v. Lorrigan, 833 P.2d 873 (Colo. App. 1992).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-47-128.5.

Law reviews. For comment, "Crespin v. Largo Corporation and the Legislative Response: The Turbulent State of Dram Shop Liability in Colorado", see 57 U. Colo. L. Rev. 419 (1986). For article, "1986 Colorado Tort Reform Legislation", see 15 Colo. Law. 1363 (1986). For article, "Recovery of Interest: Part I — Personal Injury", see 18 Colo. Law. 1063 (1989).

This statute found constitutional in that it does not violate due process by being unconstitutionally vague, does not violate equal protection rights of heirs of intoxicated person because the statute is rationally related to the legitimate state purpose of preventing negligence by consumers of alcohol, does not unconstitutionally limit access to courts, and is not constitutionally-prohibited special legislation. Sigman v. Seafood Ltd. P'ship I, 817 P.2d 527 (Colo. 1991).

Subsection (4) does not deny equal protection. The classification is based on a previously established distinction between minors and adults with respect to alcohol consumption and the state has a legitimate interest in deterring alcohol-related injuries caused by minors. Charlton v. Kimata, 815 P.2d 946 (Colo. 1991).

Under the plain language of this section, a licensee may be held civilly liable only if the licensee knows that he or she is serving alcohol to a person under twenty-one years of age and willfully does so. Dickman v. Jackalope, Inc., 870 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1994).

The terms "willfully and knowingly" in this section apply both to the words "sold or served" and to the phrase "to such person who was under the age of twenty-one years", and a different interpretation would render the "willful and knowing" language meaningless since it is difficult to imagine any sales or service of alcohol by a licensee which are not deliberate. Dickman v. Jackalope, Inc., 870 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1994).

Whether a licensee "willfully and knowingly" sold or served alcohol to a visibly intoxicated person is generally a question of fact which may be proved by either direct or circumstantial evidence. Christoph v. Colo. Comm. Corp., 946 P.2d 519 (Colo. App. 1997).

The addition of the words "willfully and knowingly" to this section relating to imposition of civil liability, together with the fact that the civil liability section does not include the good-faith defense contained in § 12-47-128 (5)(a)(I), buttresses the conclusion that the general assembly did not intend that this be a strict liability provision, but rather one requiring a plaintiff to prove knowledge and intention on the part of the vendor. Dickman v. Jackalope, Inc., 870 P.2d 1261 (Colo. App. 1994).

Heirs of fatally injured intoxicated person may not maintain wrongful death action against vendor of alcoholic beverages because this statute abolishes such actions by the consumers of alcohol and the wrongful death statute permits heirs to maintain such actions only if the deceased could have done so had the deceased's injuries not been fatal. Sigman v. Seafood Ltd. P'ship I, 817 P.2d 527 (Colo. 1991).

One-year statute of limitation period within which to file a claim under this section is not unreasonably limited in duration. Estate of Stevenson v. Hollywood Bar, 832 P.2d 718 (Colo. 1992).

Social host liability for injuries to third party under this section not established where parent provided home where minors could consume alcoholic beverages and helped collect money to purchase alcoholic beverages unless it could be shown that parent willfully and knowingly served alcoholic beverages to minors. Forrest v. Lorrigan, 833 P.2d 873 (Colo. App. 1992).

Section imposes no duty on employer who is neither an innkeeper nor a social host to prevent an employee from becoming intoxicated at work where employer did not know employee had consumed, on the day in question or at any other time, wine employer kept for business purposes nor was employer aware if employee had a history of alcohol-related problems. Biel v. Alcott, 876 P.2d 60 (Colo. App. 1993).

Trial court did not err in determining that two plaintiffs' combined recovery against two separate establishments was limited to $150,000. This section describes the civil action as one in which a single licensee is civilly liable to an injured individual. If the statute required plaintiffs to maintain separate actions against each licensee, each plaintiff would have been required to file separate actions against both licensees, a waste of judicial resources not intended by the general assembly. Brown v. Hollywood Bar and Cafe, 942 P.2d 1363 (Colo. App. 1997).

Plaintiff entitled to interest and costs insofar as those amounts exceed the statutory cap. This section makes clear that the total liability is specified for any injury to an individual, thus only damages for the injury are covered by the statutory cap. Brown v. Hollywood Bar and Cafe, 942 P.2d 1363 (Colo. App. 1997).

12-47-802. Judicial review. Any person applying to the courts for a review of the state or any local licensing authority's decision shall apply for review within thirty days after the date of decision of refusal by a local licensing authority or, in the case of approval by a local licensing authority, within thirty days after the date of decision by the state licensing authority and shall be required to pay the cost of preparing a transcript of proceedings before the licensing authority when such a transcript is demanded by the person taking the appeal or when such a transcript is furnished by the licensing authority pursuant to court order.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-802 is similar to §§ 12-46-118 and 12-47-141 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-46-118.

No unbridled authority. Licensing authority's power to act is not a completely unbridled one because their action is subject to judicial review. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Nat'l Tea Co., 149 Colo. 80, 367 P.2d 909 (1962).

Three principles of review pervade all pertinent decisions of the supreme court: (1) The licensing authorities are vested with a very wide discretion; (2) all reasonable doubts as to the correctness of the board's rulings are to be resolved in favor of the board; (3) the determination of the board will not be disturbed by the courts unless it appears that the board has "abused its discretion". La Junta Easy Shops, Inc. v. Hendren, 164 Colo. 55, 432 P.2d 754 (1967); Kerr v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 170 Colo. 227, 460 P.2d 235 (1969).

A reviewing court is concerned only with the question of whether the decision of the licensing authority was supported by competent evidence, and not whether the trial court or the reviewing court would have arrived at a different conclusion were they the licensing authority. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

Abuse of discretion grounds for disturbing determination. The determination of the board of county commissioners will not be disturbed by the courts unless it appears that the board has abused its discretion. Bailey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 151 Colo. 115, 376 P.2d 519 (1962).

Arbitrary and capricious refusal basis for order to issue license. Since the licensing authority's rulings are subject to review by the courts, if its action in refusing to grant a license is found to be arbitrary or capricious, then a court has the authority, and the duty, to order the license to issue. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957); Adams County Golf, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 199 Colo. 423, 610 P.2d 97 (1980).

Findings of fact sufficient for review. It is not required that the licensing authority make findings of fact equivalent to that of a trial court, but they must be sufficient to furnish a basis for judicial review if the statutory requirements are to be fulfilled. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Findings of fact should be sufficient in content to apprise the parties and a reviewing court of the factual basis of an action of the administrative agency, so that the parties and the reviewing tribunal may determine whether the decision has support in the evidence and in the law. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957).

Reversal because of imperfect and contradictory findings. Where the findings and determination of the board are so imperfect and contradictory as to preclude a trial court from basing a considered judgment thereon, the supreme court, being in no better position than a trial judge, has but one course to pursue, reversal. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-47-141.

Special proceedings. The proceedings provided for reviewing the action of the state licensing authority in refusing a license is a special proceeding, and is subject to, and controlled by, the special provisions, if any, contained in this section and article. Saunders v. Norton, 98 Colo. 537, 58 P.2d 482 (1936).

If the local licensing authority denies the license, appeal therefrom to the district court would lie because the state alone could not authorize the issuance. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

Such review predicated on exhaustion of administrative remedies. Before one protesting issuance of a license may seek review in the district court, he must first exhaust his administrative remedies before the state licensing authority. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

Evidence before authority and arbitrary and capricious nature of action subject to review. The question before the supreme court is not as to whether there was any evidence to support the decision of the trial court, but rather whether there was any evidence to support the decision of the licensing authority, or whether he acted arbitrarily and capriciously. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

The findings and conclusions of the licensing authority should not be too uncertain for judicial interpretation, and administrative hearings should be decided according to the evidence and the law. Geer v. Presto, 135 Colo. 536, 313 P.2d 980 (1957).

Even where the final order rests in whole or in part upon judicial notice of facts, specific findings must appear in sufficient detail to enable the court on appeal to determine whether proper limits, in supplementing the testimony by judicial knowledge, have been observed. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

A determination on review cannot be made unless the basis for denial is disclosed, and if the court fails to require disclosure it cannot properly perform its function of review, and thereby the statute is circumvented. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

Basis must appear on record for review. When a court is called upon to review the action of an administrative agency, it should be placed in the same position as such agency, and if the administrative agency has knowledge of some fact and acts upon such knowledge, the agency should see to it that what it knows becomes part of the record in order to permit the reviewing court to evaluate the matter so known, only then can the court be in the same position as the agency in a consideration of the problem successively confronting agency and court. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

In a proceeding to review the granting of a liquor license, the reviewing court is limited to the proceedings before the licensing officer, and it is error to consider matters outside the record and for the trial court to substitute its judgment for that of the licensing officer. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

The reviewing court is only concerned as to whether or not the decision of the licensing authority was supported by competent evidence. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950); MacArthur v. Sanzalone, 123 Colo. 166, 225 P.2d 1044 (1950); Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

The reviewing court may not substitute its opinion for the determination made by the local licensing authority in granting or denying a license, nor interfere with the exercise of its discretion where its action is based on evidence from which reasonable men might draw different conclusions. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

Neither the supreme court nor the trial court may substitute its opinion for the determination made by the local licensing authority in granting or denying a license nor interfere with the exercise of its discretion where its action is based on evidence from which reasonable men might honestly draw different conclusions. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

If there is evidence to support the board's determination, it is the duty of the trial court and it is the duty of the supreme court to affirm the action of the board. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

If there is evidence to support the determination of the board of county commissioners, it is the duty of the trial court to affirm the action of the board. Jennings v. Hoskinson, 152 Colo. 276, 382 P.2d 807 (1963).

All reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the findings of the licensing authority and unless it clearly appears that under the whole record an action of that authority is arbitrary and capricious the supreme court may not order a different result. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959); Quedens v. J. S. Dillon Co., 146 Colo. 161, 360 P.2d 984 (1961).

Where the courts review the decisions of a licensing authority regarding the issuance of licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors all reasonable doubts must be resolved in favor of the licensing authority. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950); MacArthur v. Sanzalone, 123 Colo. 166, 225 P.2d 1044 (1950); Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

Arbitrary and capricious actions subject to change on review. The various licensing authorities have discretionary power in granting or denying licenses and their actions will not be disturbed on review unless arbitrary or capricious. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bonicelli, 151 Colo. 308, 377 P.2d 124 (1962).

The refusal of a local licensing authority to grant a license may be reviewed by the court, as in the case of a refusal of license by the state licensing authority, by writ of certiorari or otherwise, and if the court having jurisdiction shall determine that such action was capricious or arbitrary it shall order the issuance of the license. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950); MacArthur v. Sanzalone, 123 Colo. 166, 225 P.2d 1044 (1950).

Capricious or arbitrary exercise of discretion by an administrative board can arise in only three ways: (a) By neglecting or refusing to use reasonable diligence and care to procure such evidence as it is by law authorized to consider in exercising the discretion vested in it; (b) by failing to give candid and honest consideration of the evidence before it on which it is authorized to act in exercising its discretion; (c) by exercising its discretion in such manner after a consideration of evidence before it as clearly to indicate that its action is based on conclusions from the evidence such that reasonable men fairly and honestly considering the evidence must reach contrary conclusions. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

Where there is no showing in the record that a city council has abused its discretion or exceeded its authority in a refusal to grant a liquor license, and it seems to have acted in the premises according to law and its own conception of right and duty, a decree of the district court directing the city council forthwith to issue a liquor license to the plaintiff is wrong. Heuston v. Gilman, 98 Colo. 301, 56 P.2d 40 (1936).

Mandamus. In harmony with the rule that resort may be had to mandamus to compel the exercise of authority or discretion vested in an administrative body or board, courts cannot control or direct how such authority or discretion shall be exercised unless it appears clearly that its action has been capricious or arbitrary. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Mandamus to compel issuance of license must be brought in county where application was made. See Saunders v. Norton, 98 Colo. 537, 58 P.2d 482 (1936).

The rule ordinarily applicable to writs of error before the supreme court is that the supreme court must approach the facts of a case by constantly keeping in mind the exclusive vantage point of the trial judge in that he was able in the trial to use his eyes, ears, and intelligence to discern wherein was truth, and wherein credit and weight should be given to the testimony of witnesses. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

Granting of license to other applicant while review proceeding. Where a party applied for a liquor license which was denied, a proceeding to review such denial under this section does not operate to stay the hand of the licensing officer in receiving and acting upon the application of another party for a license to operate at the same location. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

Order to republish notice and hold hearing proper. In an action to compel a board of county commissioners to issue a liquor license, where it is shown that the board refuses to issue the license but held no hearing and gave no reasons for such refusal, an order requiring the applicant to republish his notice and directing the board to hold a regular hearing thereon with a court reporter present is proper, since a liquor license cannot be secured by default. Sheeley v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 137 Colo. 350, 325 P.2d 275 (1958).

No court order available to interfere with issuance, etc. Since the statutes give the liquor licensing authority the exclusive jurisdiction in the matter of issuing, transferring, or revocation of a liquor license, the superior court does not have by injunctive proceedings or any other court order, jurisdiction to interfere with the functions of the manager of safety in his capacity as the Denver liquor licensing authority. Hilst v. Bennett, 175 Colo. 78, 485 P.2d 880 (1971).

The actions of the Denver liquor licensing authority are subject to judicial review, but until he has exercised his authority, the courts do not have jurisdiction to interfere with the administrative authority vested in the manager. Hilst v. Bennett, 175 Colo. 78, 485 P.2d 880 (1971).

Competitor may not appeal issuance of license. An operator of a competing liquor store does not have standing to appeal a decision of a local licensing authority granting issuance of a liquor license, either under this section or as a person "substantially aggrieved" by the disposition of a case in the lower court, pursuant to Rule 106, C.R.C.P., since economic injury from lawful competition does not confer standing to question the legality of a competitor's operations. Norris v. Grimsley, 41 Colo. App. 231, 585 P.2d 925 (1978).

PART 9

UNLAWFUL ACTS - ENFORCEMENT

12-47-901. Unlawful acts - exceptions. (1) Except as provided in section 18-13-122, C.R.S., it is unlawful for any person:

(a) To sell, serve, give away, dispose of, exchange, or deliver, or permit the sale, serving, giving, or procuring of, any alcohol beverage to a visibly intoxicated person or to a known habitual drunkard;

(a.5) (I) To sell, serve, give away, dispose of, exchange, or deliver or permit the sale, serving, giving, or procuring of any alcohol beverage to or for any person under the age of twenty-one years.

(II) If a person is convicted of an offense pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a.5) for serving, giving away, disposing of, exchanging, or delivering or permitting the serving, giving, or procuring of any alcohol beverage to a person under the age of twenty-one years, the court shall consider the following in mitigation:

(A) After consuming the alcohol, the underage person was in need of medical assistance as a result of consuming alcohol; and

(B) Within six hours after the underage person consumed the alcohol, the defendant contacted the police or emergency medical personnel to report that the underage person was in need of medical assistance as a result of consuming alcohol.

(b) To obtain or attempt to obtain any alcohol beverage by misrepresentation of age or by any other method in any place where alcohol beverages are sold when such person is under twenty-one years of age;

(c) To possess alcohol beverages in any store, in any public place, including public streets, alleys, roads, or highways, or upon property owned by the state of Colorado or any subdivision thereof, or inside vehicles while upon the public streets, alleys, roads, or highways when such person is under twenty-one years of age;

(d) To knowingly, or under conditions that an average parent or guardian should have knowledge of, suffer or permit any person under twenty-one years of age, of whom such person may be a parent or guardian, to violate the provisions of paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection (1);

(e) To buy any vinous or spirituous liquor from any person not licensed to sell at retail as provided by this article except as otherwise provided in this article;

(f) To sell at retail any malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors in sealed containers without holding a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore license, except as permitted by section 12-47-301 (6) (b) or any other provision of this article;

(g) To manufacture, sell, or possess for sale any alcohol beverage unless licensed to do so as provided by this article or article 46 or 48 of this title and unless all licenses required are in full force and effect;

(h) (I) To consume malt, vinous, or spirituous liquor in any public place except on any licensed premises permitted under this article to sell such liquor by the drink for consumption thereon; to consume any alcohol beverage upon any premises licensed to sell liquor for consumption on the licensed premises, the sale of which is not authorized by the state licensing authority; to consume alcohol beverages at any time on such premises other than such alcohol beverage as is purchased from such establishment; or to consume alcohol beverages in any public room on such premises during such hours as the sale of such beverage is prohibited under this article.

(II) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (h), it is not unlawful for a person who is at least twenty-one years of age to consume malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors while the person is a passenger aboard a luxury limousine or a charter bus, as those terms are defined in section 40-10.1-301, C.R.S. Nothing in this subparagraph (II) authorizes an owner or operator of a luxury limousine or charter bus to sell or distribute alcohol beverages without obtaining a public transportation system license pursuant to section 12-47-419.

(III) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (h), it shall not be unlawful for adult patrons of a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee to consume malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors on the licensed premises when the consumption is conducted within the limitations of the licensee's license and is part of a tasting if authorization for the tasting has been granted pursuant to section 12-47-301.

(IV) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (h), it is not unlawful for adult patrons of an art gallery permittee to consume alcohol beverages on the premises when the consumption is conducted within the limitations of a valid permit granted pursuant to section 12-47-422.

(V) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (h), it is not unlawful for adult patrons of the Colorado state fair to consume malt, vinous, or spirituous liquor upon unlicensed areas within the designated fairgrounds of the Colorado state fair authority or at a licensed premises on the fairgrounds when not purchased at the licensed premises, but this subparagraph (V) does not authorize a patron to remove an alcohol beverage from the fairgrounds.

(VI) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (h), it is not unlawful for adult patrons of a licensed premises that is attached to a common consumption area to consume alcohol beverages upon unlicensed areas within a common consumption area, but this subparagraph (VI) does not authorize a patron to remove an alcohol beverage from the common consumption area.

(i) To regularly provide premises, or any portion thereof, together with soft drinks or other mix, ice, glasses, or containers at a direct or indirect cost or charge to any person who brings alcohol beverages upon such premises for the purpose of consuming such beverages on said premises during the hours in which the sale of such beverages is prohibited or to consume such beverages upon premises operated in the manner described in this paragraph (i);

(j) To possess any package, parcel, or container on which the excise tax has not been paid;

(k) With knowledge, to permit or fail to prevent the use of his or her identification, including a driver's license, by a person who is under twenty-one years of age, for the unlawful purchase of any alcohol beverage;

(l) Who is a common carrier regulated under article 10 or 11 of title 40, C.R.S., or is an agent or employee of such common carrier, to deliver alcohol beverages for any person who has not been issued a license or permit pursuant to this article;

(m) To remove an alcohol beverage from a licensed retail gaming facility where the liquor license for such facility allows only on-premises consumption of alcohol beverages.

(1.5) An underage person shall be immune from criminal prosecution under paragraph (b) or (c) of subsection (1) of this section if he or she establishes the following:

(a) The underage person called 911 and reported that another underage person was in need of medical assistance due to alcohol consumption;

(b) The underage person who called 911 provided his or her name to the 911 operator;

(c) The underage person was the first person to make the 911 report; and

(d) The underage person who made the 911 call remained on the scene with the underage person in need of medical assistance until assistance arrived and cooperated with medical assistance or law enforcement personnel on the scene.

(2) It is unlawful for any person licensed as a manufacturer, limited winery, or brew pub pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title to manufacture alcohol beverages except in the permanent location specifically designated in the license for such manufacture, except as allowed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (a), 12-47-402 (2.5), 12-47-403 (2) (a), or 12-47-415 (1) (b).

(3) (a) It is unlawful for any person to import or sell any imported alcohol beverage in this state unless such person is the primary source of supply in the United States for the brand of such liquor to be imported into or sold within this state and unless such person holds a valid importer's license issued under the provisions of this article.

(b) If it is determined by the state licensing authority, in its discretion, as not constituting unfair competition or unfair practice, any importer may be authorized by said state licensing authority to import and sell under and subject to the provisions of such importer's license any brand of alcohol beverage for which he or she is not the primary source of supply in the United States if such licensee is the sole source of supply of that brand of alcohol beverage in the state of Colorado and such authorization is determined by the state licensing authority as not constituting a violation of section 12-47-308.

(c) Any such manufacturer or importer shall, at least thirty days before the importation or sale of any such alcohol beverage in this state, file with the state licensing authority notice of intent to import one or more specified brands of such beverage, together with a statement that such manufacturer or importer is the primary source of supply in the United States for any such brand, unless exempted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), in which case, a statement that such manufacturer or importer is the sole source of supply of that brand of beverage in the state of Colorado, and, upon the request of the state licensing authority, a copy of the manufacturer's federal brand label approval form as required by the federal bureau of alcohol, tobacco, and firearms or any of its successor agencies. Thereafter, said licensee shall file with the state licensing authority a copy of each sales invoice with a monthly sales report as required by section 12-47-503 (4) and (5).

(d) As used in this subsection (3), the term "primary source of supply in the United States" means the manufacturer, the producer, the owner of such alcohol beverage at the time it becomes a marketable product, the bottler in the United States, or the exclusive agent within the United States, or any of the states, of any such manufacturer, producer, owner, or bottler outside the United States. To be the "primary source of supply in the United States", the said manufacturer or importer must be the first source, such as the manufacturer or the source closest to the manufacturer, in the channel of commerce from which the product can be secured by Colorado alcohol beverage wholesalers.

(e) It is unlawful for any person licensed as an importer of alcohol beverages pursuant to this article to deliver any such beverages to any person not in possession of a valid wholesaler's license.

(4) It is unlawful for any person licensed to sell at wholesale pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title:

(a) To peddle malt, vinous, or spirituous liquor at wholesale or by means of a truck or other vehicle if the sale is consummated and delivery made concurrently, but nothing in this paragraph (a) shall prevent delivery from a truck or other vehicle of orders previously taken;

(b) To deliver fermented malt beverages or malt liquors to any retail licensee located outside the geographic territory designated on the license application filed with the state licensing authority if such person holds a wholesaler's beer license;

(c) To purchase or receive any alcohol beverage from any person not licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title, unless otherwise provided in this article;

(d) To sell or serve any alcohol beverage to consumers for consumption on or off the licensed premises during any hours retailers are prohibited from selling or serving such liquors pursuant to subsection (5) of this section.

(5) It is unlawful for any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article:

(a) (I) To sell an alcohol beverage to any person under the age of twenty-one years, to a habitual drunkard, or to a visibly intoxicated person, or to permit any alcohol beverage to be sold or dispensed by a person under eighteen years of age, or to permit any such person to participate in the sale or dispensing thereof. If a person who, in fact, is not twenty-one years of age exhibits a fraudulent proof of age, any action relying on such fraudulent proof of age shall not constitute grounds for the revocation or suspension of any license issued under this article or article 46 of this title. Notwithstanding any provision in this subparagraph (I) to the contrary, no person under twenty-one years of age shall be employed to sell or dispense malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors unless he or she is supervised by another person who is on premise and has attained twenty-one years of age. No employee of a tavern licensed pursuant to section 12-47-412, that does not regularly serve meals as defined in section 12-47-103 (20), or a retail liquor store shall sell malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors unless such person is at least twenty-one years of age.

(II) (A) If a licensee or a licensee's employee has reasonable cause to believe that a person is under twenty-one years of age and is exhibiting fraudulent proof of age in an attempt to obtain any alcohol beverage, the licensee or employee shall be authorized to confiscate such fraudulent proof of age, if possible, and shall, within seventy-two hours after the confiscation, turn it over to a state or local law enforcement agency. The failure to confiscate such fraudulent proof of age or to turn it over to a state or local law enforcement agency within seventy-two hours after the confiscation shall not constitute a criminal offense, notwithstanding section 12-47-903 (1) (a).

(B) If a licensee or a licensee's employee believes that a person is under twenty-one years of age and is exhibiting fraudulent proof of age in an attempt to obtain any alcohol beverage, the licensee or the licensee's employee or any peace or police officer, acting in good faith and upon probable cause based upon reasonable grounds therefor, may detain and question such person in a reasonable manner for the purpose of ascertaining whether the person is guilty of any unlawful act under this section. Such questioning of a person by a licensee or a licensee's employee or a peace or police officer does not render the licensee, the licensee's employee, or a peace or police officer civilly or criminally liable for slander, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, or unlawful detention.

(III) Each licensee shall display a printed card that contains notice of the provisions of this paragraph (a).

(IV) Any licensee or licensee's employee acting in good faith in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a) shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal; except that a licensee or employee acting willfully or wantonly shall not be immune from liability pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a).

(b) To sell, serve, or distribute any malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors at any time other than the following:

(I) For consumption on the premises on any day of the week, except between the hours of 2 a.m. and 7 a.m.;

(II) In sealed containers, beginning at 8 a.m. until 12 midnight each day; except that no malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors shall be sold, served, or distributed in a sealed container on Christmas day;

(c) Except as provided in section 18-13-122, C.R.S., for any person to sell fermented malt beverages to any person under the age of twenty-one years or to any person between the hours of 12 midnight and 5 a.m.;

(d) To offer for sale or solicit any order for vinous or spirituous liquors in person at retail except within the licensed premises;

(e) To have in possession or upon the licensed premises any alcohol beverage, the sale of which is not permitted by said license;

(f) To buy any alcohol beverages from any person not licensed to sell at wholesale as provided by this article except as otherwise provided in this article;

(g) To sell at retail alcohol beverages except in the permanent location specifically designated in the license for such sale;

(h) To fail to display at all times in a prominent place a printed card with a minimum height of fourteen inches and a width of eleven inches with each letter to be a minimum of one-half inch in height, which shall read as follows:

WARNING

IT IS ILLEGAL TO SELL WHISKEY, WINE, OR BEER TO ANY PERSON UNDER TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE AND IT IS ILLEGAL FOR ANY PERSON UNDER TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE TO POSSESS OR TO ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE THE SAME.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS WHICH APPEAR TO BE FRAUDULENT WHEN PRESENTED BY PURCHASERS MAY BE CONFISCATED BY THE ESTABLISHMENT AND TURNED OVER TO A LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY.

IT IS ILLEGAL IF YOU ARE TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER FOR YOU TO PURCHASE WHISKEY, WINE, OR BEER FOR A PERSON UNDER TWENTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE.

FINES AND IMPRISONMENT MAY BE IMPOSED BY THE COURTS FOR VIOLATION OF THESE PROVISIONS.

(i) (I) To sell malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors or fermented malt beverages in a place where the alcohol beverages are to be consumed, unless the place is a hotel, restaurant, tavern, racetrack, club, retail gaming tavern, or arts licensed premises or unless the place is a dining, club, or parlor car; plane; bus; or other conveyance or facility of a public transportation system.

(II) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (i), it shall not be unlawful for a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee to allow tastings to be conducted on his or her licensed premises if authorization for the tastings has been granted pursuant to section 12-47-301.

(j) To display or cause to be displayed, on the licensed premises, any exterior sign advertising any particular brand of malt liquors or fermented malt beverages unless the particular brand so designated in the sign is dispensed on draft or in sealed containers within the licensed premises wherein the sign is displayed;

(k) (I) To have on the licensed premises, if licensed as a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore, any container that shows evidence of having once been opened or that contains a volume of liquor less than that specified on the label of such container; except that a person holding a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore license may have upon the licensed premises malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors in open containers, when the open containers were brought on the licensed premises by and remain solely in the possession of the sales personnel of a person licensed to sell at wholesale pursuant to this article for the purpose of sampling malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors by the retail licensee only. Nothing in this paragraph (k) shall apply to any liquor-licensed drugstore where the contents, or a portion thereof, have been used in compounding prescriptions.

(II) Notwithstanding subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (k), it shall not be unlawful for a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee to allow tastings to be conducted on his or her licensed premises if authorization for the tastings has been granted pursuant to section 12-47-301.

(l) To employ or permit, if such person is licensed to sell alcohol beverages for on-premises consumption or is the agent or manager of said licensee, any employee, waiter, waitress, entertainer, host, hostess, or agent of said licensee to solicit from patrons in any manner, for himself or herself or for any other employee, the purchase of any food, beverage, or any other thing of value;

(m) To require a wholesaler to make delivery to any premises other than the specific hotel and restaurant premises where the alcohol beverage is to be sold and consumed if the person is a hotel and restaurant licensee or the registered manager of a hotel and restaurant license requires the delivery;

(n) (I) To authorize or permit any gambling, or the use of any gambling machine or device, except as provided by the "Bingo and Raffles Law", article 9 of this title. The provisions of this paragraph (n) shall not apply to those activities, equipment, and devices authorized and legally operated pursuant to articles 47.1 and 60 of this title.

(II) Any person who violates any provision of this paragraph (n) is guilty of a class 5 felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(o) To authorize or permit toughperson fighting as defined in section 12-10-103.

(6) It is unlawful for any importer, manufacturer, or brewer to sell or to bring into this state for purposes of sale any fermented malt beverage or any malt liquor without causing the same to be unloaded and placed in the physical possession of a licensed wholesaler at the wholesaler's licensed premises in this state and to be inventoried for purposes of tax collection prior to delivery to a retailer or consumer.

(7) (a) It is unlawful for any person licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title to give away fermented malt beverages for the purpose of influencing the sale of any particular kind, make, or brand of any malt beverage and to furnish or supply any commodity or article at less than its market price for said purpose, except advertising material and signs.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (7), it shall not be unlawful for a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee to allow tastings to be conducted on his or her licensed premises if authorization for the tastings has been granted pursuant section 12-47-301.

(8) It is unlawful for any manufacturer or wholesaler licensed pursuant to article 46 of this title to sell, deliver, or cause to be delivered to any person licensed pursuant to section 12-47-407 or 12-47-408 any beverage containing alcohol in excess of three and two-tenths percent by weight or four percent by volume, or for any fermented malt beverage retailer licensed pursuant to article 46 of this title to sell, possess, or permit the consumption on the premises of any of the beverages containing alcohol in excess of three and two-tenths percent by weight or four percent by volume, or for any fermented malt beverage retail licensee licensed pursuant to article 46 of this title to hold or operate under any license for the sale of any beverages containing alcohol in excess of three and two-tenths percent by weight or four percent by volume for the same premises. Any violation of this subsection (8) by any fermented malt beverage licensee licensed pursuant to article 46 of this title immediately invalidates the license granted under article 46 of this title.

(9) It is unlawful for a retail gaming licensee who holds a license issued by the limited gaming commission to knowingly permit the removal of an alcohol beverage from a licensed premises that is licensed only for on-premises consumption of alcohol beverages. A retail gaming licensee who holds a license issued by the limited gaming commission shall not be charged with permitting the removal of an alcohol beverage from the licensed premises when the licensee has either:

(a) Stationed personnel at each exit used by the public in order to prevent the removal of an alcohol beverage from the premises; or

(b) Posted a sign at least twelve inches wide and eighteen inches high by each exit used by the public that contains the following notice in type that is at least one-half inch in height:

WARNING

DO NOT LEAVE THE PREMISES OF THIS ESTABLISHMENT WITH AN ALCOHOL BEVERAGE.

IT IS ILLEGAL TO CONSUME AN ALCOHOL BEVERAGE IN A PUBLIC PLACE.

A FINE OF UP TO $250 MAY BE IMPOSED BY THE COURTS FOR A VIOLATION OF THIS PROVISION.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-901 is similar to §§ 12-46-112 and 12-47-128 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Subsection (1)(a) requires a showing of constructive knowledge. It is not a strict liability offense. Constructive knowledge means "knowledge that one using reasonable care or diligence should have and, therefore, that is attributed by law to a given person". The holder of a liquor license and the licensee's agents have an affirmative responsibility to reasonably conduct the business with a view to compliance with the law. Full Moon Saloon, Inc. v. City of Loveland, 111 P.3d 568 (Colo. App. 2005) (decided under former law); Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

The word "permit" requires a showing of actual or constructive knowledge. Full Moon Saloon, Inc. v. City of Loveland, 111 P.3d 568 (Colo. App. 2005); Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

"Habitual drunkard" has a common meaning. Whether a person is a habitual drunkard is an issue of fact based upon the circumstances of each case. The knowledge of the vendor may be shown by direct or circumstantial evidence and does not require a formal notice or prior court adjudication. K & S Corp. v. Greeley Liquor Licensing Auth., 183 P.3d 710 (Colo. App. 2008).

Affirmative defense set forth in subsection (5) only available when minor presents a currently valid form of identification. A license shall not be revoked or suspended for the sale of alcohol to a person under the age of 21 if the person presents a fraudulent proof of age. Nevertheless, the department may revoke or suspend a license if the fraudulent proof of age is not currently valid. "Currently valid identification" includes being facially valid, not expired, and valid as to form. Minh Le v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 198 P.3d 1247 (Colo. App. 2008).

Paper tickets that contain a coupon on one side and a cash prize game on the other and the machine that dispenses them are gambling devices that are illegal under this section. Accordingly, the trial court did not err in declaring that the machine, tickets, and money were subject to confiscation and forfeiture. Sniezek v. Dept. of Rev., 113 P.3d 1280 (Colo. App. 2005).

No legislative intent to assume exclusive control of hours. A resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners prohibiting the sale of malt or vinous liquors and fermented malt beverages between the hours of 12:00 midnight on Saturday and 8:00 A.M. on Monday is valid as there is not evident a legislative intent in this section to assume exclusive control of the hours of establishment dispensing alcoholic beverages. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

This section merely prohibits the sale of 3.2 fermented malt beverages between the specified hours and does not by implication create any right under the statute to sell such at all other times. Kelly v. City of Fort Collins, 163 Colo. 520, 431 P.2d 785 (1967).

For actions arising prior to legislation enacted in 1985 and 1986, if it is ascertained that a tavern owner violated this section and that the violation proximately caused injury, this section may be the basis for a claim of negligence per se. Lyons v. Nasby, 770 P.2d 1250 (Colo. 1989).

Tavern owner has both a statutory and common-law duty to exercise due care not to serve alcoholic beverages to a visibly intoxicated patron and a tavern owner who breaches that duty will be liable in tort to third persons who are harmed as a result of the owner's breach of duty. Observatory Corp. v. Daly, 780 P.2d 462 (Colo. 1989).

It was incumbent upon plaintiff to establish a legal duty on the part of the tavern to protect him from the bodily harm caused to him by the act of a tavern patron. The foreseeability element of legal duty required the plaintiff to establish that the employees of the tavern had some notice, either actual or constructive, that the tavern patron posed an unreasonable risk of harm to the plaintiff or other persons legitimately on the tavern premises. Observatory Corp. v. Daly, 780 P.2d 462 (Colo. 1989).

A city cannot enlarge on the state-provided hours of sale. Kelly v. City of Fort Collins, 163 Colo. 520, 431 P.2d 785 (1967).

However, where local conditions have been found to require reasonably fewer hours of dispensing fermented malt beverage, such action does not infringe upon the state's legislative prerogative or objectives. Kelly v. City of Fort Collins, 163 Colo. 520, 431 P.2d 785 (1967).

It is not necessary for the holder of a 3.2 beer license to surrender the same before making application for a broader license to dispense alcoholic beverages. Bacher v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 67, 314 P.2d 607 (1957).

Where at the time a party applies for a three-way license he holds a 3.2 beer license, he cannot hold two licenses for the same establishment at the same time, but it would only be necessary for him to surrender the limited license in order to hold the broader three-way privilege, should it be granted. Bacher v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 67, 314 P.2d 607 (1957).

Insufficient evidence to sustain suspension of license. Dennis, Inc. v. Office of Dir. of Excise & Licenses, 620 P.2d 53 (Colo. App. 1980).

Applied in People v. Sherman, 197 Colo. 442, 593 P.2d 971 (1979).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-47-128.

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Unlawful to Sell to Drunkard or Person under Twenty-one.
- III. Sale Only at Permanent Location.
- IV. Gambling.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Legal sale activities. Sales activities which are not restricted, limited, or otherwise regulated by art. 47 of title 12 are not illegal. People v. Kagan, 195 Colo. 76, 575 P.2d 416 (1978).

Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) (now paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (5)) of this section is constitutional. McClain v. People, 111 Colo. 271, 141 P.2d 685 (1943).

Subsection (5)(l), which prohibited any liquor licensee's employee from soliciting patrons to purchase "any alcoholic beverage or any other thing of value" for the soliciting employee or other employee, was not unconstitutionally vague or overbroad and was rationally related to a legitimate state interest. People v. Becker, 759 P.2d 26 (Colo. 1988) (decided under law in effect prior to 1986 amendment).

Licensee's affirmative responsibility to see business not conducted in violation of law. The holder of a license for the sale of alcoholic beverages has an affirmative responsibility to see that his business is not conducted by his employees or by his employees in concert with other persons in violation of the law. Clown's Den, Inc. v. Canjar, 33 Colo. App. 212, 518 P.2d 957 (1974).

The prohibition against selling without a license being first secured is one of the conditions imposed by this article. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

A contract to buy or sell liquor in violation of this condition is illegal and unenforceable, and, upon breach of the contract by the seller, the buyer may not recover a part payment made on the purchase price. Potter v. Swinehart, 117 Colo. 23, 184 P.2d 149 (1947).

Where the statute makes the character of beverages sold the substance of the offense, such character must be proved by the state. Woods v. People, 156 Colo. 212, 397 P.2d 871 (1964).

Consumption at social club not violative. Where members of a social club would purchase liquor at a licensed establishment, and then would bring the liquor to the club premises to be consumed by all members, the consumption was permissible even though the club had no liquor license, because there is no prohibition against consuming liquor where no sale is involved.

Action as basis for defense to antitrust action. See Adolph Coors Co. v. A & S Whsles., Inc., 561 F.2d 807 (10th Cir. 1977).

II. UNLAWFUL TO SELL TO DRUNKARD OR PERSON UNDER TWENTY-ONE.

Law reviews. For comment, "Crespin v. Largo Corporation and the Legislative Response: The Turbulent State of Dram Shop Liability in Colorado", see 57 U. Colo. L. Rev. 419 (1986). For article, "1986 Colorado Tort Reform Legislation", see 15 Colo. Law. 1363 (1986).

The prohibition under this section is primarily directed against the employer or owner. Hershorn v. People, 108 Colo. 43, 113 P.2d 680 (1941).

The employer or owner cannot escape guilt by attempting to shift the crime to his employee, and he is liable for an unlawful sale made by his agent or servant within the scope of his authority. Hershorn v. People, 108 Colo. 43, 113 P.2d 680 (1941).

A licensed liquor dealer must see that his customer is not within a proscribed class, proceeding otherwise, he does so at his peril. People v. Wilson, 106 Colo. 437, 106 P.2d 352 (1940).

To make unlawful the sale of intoxicants to minors and inebriates, regardless of intent, is a reasonable legislative regulation of the liquor traffic, so long as the proscribed act amounts only to a misdemeanor. Hershorn v. People, 108 Colo. 43, 113 P.2d 680 (1941).

This section is a penal law and bears no relationship to liability under statutes commonly known as "civil damage acts" or "dram-shop acts". Hull v. Rund, 150 Colo. 425, 374 P.2d 351 (1962).

Where plaintiffs claimed damages from tavern owner for assault from intoxicated person, their remedy is under the common law and not under the statutes. Hull v. Rund, 150 Colo. 425, 374 P.2d 351 (1962).

Violation of this section may constitute negligence per se and, thus, may be a breach of the duty of due care. Whether it was foreseeable that the breach by defendant would cause damage to plaintiff's legally protected interest is one of fact and must be submitted to a fact-finder. Bartley v. Floyd, 695 P.2d 781 (Colo. App. 1984), aff'd, 727 P.2d 1109 (Colo. 1986); Largo Corp. v. Crespin, 727 P.2d 1098 (Colo. 1986).

While this section is not a civil damage act or dram shop act, a violation of this section may be used as evidence of negligence under the common law. Crespin v. Largo Corp., 698 P.2d 826 (Colo. App. 1984), aff'd, 727 P.2d 1098 (Colo. 1986); Thomas v. Pete's Satire, Inc., 717 P.2d 509 (Colo. App. 1985) (decided prior to 1986 enactment of § 12-47-128.5).

Criminal statute may be relied upon to establish negligence per se, even though statute is silent on issue of civil liability. Largo Corp. v. Crespin, 727 P.2d 1098 (Colo. 1986) (decided prior to 1986 enactment of § 12-47-128.5).

Intentionally tortious or criminal act of third party does not break causal chain of defendant's negligence, where third party's act is reasonably foreseeable by defendant. Largo Corp. v. Crespin, 727 P.2d 1098 (Colo. 1986) (decided prior to 1986 enactment of § 12-47-128.5).

This section's prohibition of the sale of liquor to intoxicated persons was designed to protect widow from type of injury she suffered when husband was struck by intoxicated motorist, so that bar owner's violation of statute could be relied upon by widow to conclusively establish bar owner's negligence in wrongful death action arising out of collusion. Largo Corp. v. Crespin, 727 P.2d 1098 (Colo. 1986) (decided prior to 1986 enactment of § 12-47-128.5).

Finding that commercial seller of alcohol had not exercised reasonable care to avoid selling alcoholic beverages to intoxicated patron was sufficiently supported by evidence that seller's employees continued to serve ten to thirteen beers to patron over four to five-hour period, even though patron stumbled over chairs and tables and periodically blacked out. Largo Corp. v. Crespin, 727 P.2d 1098 (Colo. 1986) (decided prior to 1986 enactment of § 12-47-128.5).

Tavern owner has both a statutory and common-law duty to exercise due care not to serve alcoholic beverages to a visibly intoxicated patron, and a tavern owner who breaches that duty will be liable in tort to third persons who are harmed as a result of the owner's breach of duty. Observatory Corp. v. Daly, 780 P.2d 462 (Colo. 1989).

It was incumbent upon plaintiff to establish a legal duty on the part of the tavern to protect him from the bodily harm caused to him by the act of a tavern patron. The foreseeability element of legal duty required the plaintiff to establish that the employees of the tavern had some notice, either actual or constructive, that the tavern patron posed an unreasonable risk of harm to the plaintiff or other persons legitimately on the tavern premises. Observatory Corp. v. Daly, 780 P.2d 462 (Colo. 1989).

Foreseeability of harm is a prominent, but not exclusive, element in determining a tavern proprietor's legal duty to patrons and other persons legitimately on the tavern premises. A court must also consider, in addition to the foresee-ability of harm, the social utility of the proprietor's conduct, the magnitude of the burden of guarding against the injury, the consequences of placing that burden upon the defendant, and any other relevant factors implicated by the facts of the case. Observatory Corp. v. Daly, 780 P.2d 462 (Colo. 1989).

While the foreseeability element of legal duty does not require a tavern proprietor to foresee the specific type of harm which a tavern patron will perpetrate against another or the manner in which that harm will likely be caused, it does require that the proprietor have actual or constructive notice that the patron poses an unreasonable risk of physical harm to other persons legitimately on the premises. Only then, when the tavern proprietor has such notice, is the proprietor under a duty to exercise reasonable measures to protect others legitimately on the premises from harm. Observatory Corp. v. Daly, 780 P.2d 462 (Colo. 1989).

For actions arising prior to legislation enacted in 1985 and 1986, if it is ascertained that a tavern owner violated this section and that the violation proximately caused injury, this section may be the basis for a claim of negligence per se. Lyons v. Nasby, 770 P.2d 1250 (Colo. 1989).

This section is not a bar to the defense of contributory negligence. Thomas v. Pete's Squire, Inc., 717 P.2d 509 (Colo. App. 1985).

License suspended for sale of wine to minor. DiManna v. Kalbin, 646 P.2d 403 (Colo. App. 1982).

Ignorance or mistake as to minor's age is no defense in a criminal prosecution for the sale of liquor to a minor. Hershorn v. People, 108 Colo. 43, 113 P.2d 680 (1941).

Minor who transfers intoxicants to other minor qualifies as "person", for purpose of statute making it unlawful for any "person" to deliver intoxicants to minor, though transfer is made without consideration and in furtherance of joint undertaking to obtain alcoholic beverages. Floyd v. Bartley, 727 P.2d 1109 (Colo. 1986).

Where accused manager of a night club was charged with selling liquor to an intoxicated minor, an instruction that a corporation can only act through its agents, officers, or employees, and that if the accused was president and general manager, having control of its employees and policies, he would be responsible for the violation of this section by a waiter acting as agent or employee of the corporation within the general scope of his employment, correctly stated the law. Hershorn v. People, 108 Colo. 43, 113 P.2d 680 (1941).

General assembly's reenactment of criminal code provisions do not supersede provisions of the liquor code, and person violating liquor code must be prosecuted for those violations and not provisions of the criminal code. People v. O'Donnell, 926 P.2d 114 (Colo. App. 1996).

III. SALE ONLY AT PERMANENT LOCATION.

Personal license right restricted to certain place. A liquor license vests a personal right in the licensee and confers the right to do that which without the license would be unlawful, such right being coextensive with the duration of the license and is restricted to a certain location, unless change thereof is granted upon application to, and after a hearing by, the licensing authority. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

There is no vested right in a licensee to move the location of his license, and, upon application so to do, the court may, and should, consider the same as in case of application for a new license because the statute requires it be given like consideration. MacArthur v. Martelli, 127 Colo. 308, 255 P.2d 969 (1953).

The requirements for change of license location are the same as those for obtaining a license, and the duties and authority of the licensing official are the same. MacArthur v. Martelli, 127 Colo. 308, 255 P.2d 969 (1953).

A city council is required to consider two things under this section: (1) The requirement of the neighborhood; and (2) the desires of the inhabitants. Page v. Blunt, 126 Colo. 324, 248 P.2d 1074 (1952).

Before there can be any issuance of a liquor license, or a transfer thereof at the local level, the state authority must approve the action of the local authority. Moschetti v. Liquor Licensing Auth., 176 Colo. 281, 490 P.2d 299 (1971).

Since the concurrent action of the two authorities is mandatory, if the local authority denies a license, appeal therefrom to the district court under § 24-4-106 would lie because the state alone cannot authorize the issuance, but, where there is approval at the local level, it is of no force and effect without also the state approval, for absent the latter administrative procedure, the entire administrative process is not complete. Moschetti v. Liquor Licensing Auth., 176 Colo. 281, 490 P.2d 299 (1971).

This section permits removal to another location of a hotel and restaurant license upon a proper showing. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Contract to the contrary is not violative. While the section permits removal to another location of a hotel or restaurant license upon a proper showing, a contract by which the parties agree that the licensee will not exercise this privilege, but upon termination of the tenancy will surrender the license to the licensing authority, is not in violation of the law since it is not an agreement for the transfer of the license. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Refusal of application for permission to transfer location of liquor license from 3015 East Colfax Avenue to 3018 East Colfax Avenue, Denver, held not arbitrary. MacArthur v. Martelli, 127 Colo. 308, 255 P.2d 969 (1953).

IV. GAMBLING.

Application of "gambling" definitions in §§ 18-10-102, 18-10-103, 18-10-105, and 18-10-107 by hearing officer to determine a violation of subsection (5)(n) of this section was not in excess of his authority. Brownlee v. Dept. of Rev., 686 P.2d 1372 (Colo. App. 1984).

Nonprofit corporation's fund-raising on hotel premises which involved casino-type gambling with play money violated this section because participants were risking a thing of value for gain contingent in whole or in part upon chance and the gambling, although incidental to a social relationship, was participated in by persons other than natural persons and was conducted under circumstances in which persons participated in professional gambling as intended by the statute. Charnes v. Central City Opera House, 773 P.2d 546 (Colo. 1989).

To determine whether a game is incidental to a bona fide social relationship and thus excluded from the definition of gambling, the critical inquiry is whether the participants came together for any shared purpose other than gambling; where a basketball pool was entered into only by devoted patrons of a neighborhood bar and liquor authority inspectors, it was incidental to a bona fide social relationship. Leichliter v. State Liquor Licensing Auth., 9 P.3d 1153 (Colo. 1999).

12-47-902. Testing for intoxication by law enforcement officers - when prohibited.

(1) No person who is patronizing a licensed premises as defined in sections 12-47-103 (14) and 12-46-103 (3) shall be required or solicited by any law enforcement officer to submit to any mechanical test for the purpose of determining the alcohol content of such person's blood or breath while such person is upon such licensed premises except to determine if there is a violation of section 42-4-1301, C.R.S., by a driver of a motor vehicle unless the law enforcement officer is acting pursuant to a court order obtained in the manner described in subsection (2) of this section. No such test may be performed upon any licensed premises to obtain evidence of alleged intoxication, except pursuant to a court order as provided in this section or in case of a medical emergency, regardless of whether such alleged intoxication is a violation of any provision of this article.

(2) An ex parte order to permit any law enforcement officer to solicit any person who is patronizing a licensed premises as defined in sections 12-47-103 (14) and 12-46-103 (3) to submit to any mechanical test for the purpose of determining the alcohol content of such person's blood or breath while such person is upon such licensed premises may be issued by any judge of competent jurisdiction in the state of Colorado, including a district, county, or municipal court judge, upon application of a district attorney or a law enforcement agency showing probable cause to believe that evidence will be obtained of the commission of the crime of providing any alcohol beverage to a visibly intoxicated person or minor in violation of section 12-47-901 (1) (a) or (5) (a) (I).

(3) Each application for an ex parte order as described in subsection (2) of this section shall be made in writing upon oath or affirmation to a judge of competent jurisdiction, including a district, county, or municipal court judge, and shall state the applicant's authority to make such application. Each application shall include the following information:

(a) The identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application, and the officer authorizing the application;

(b) A complete statement of the facts and circumstances relied upon by the applicant to justify his or her belief that an order should be issued, which shall include, but not be limited to:

(I) A sufficient description of the licensed premises that is proposed to be the subject of the court order;

(II) Evidence that shows probable cause to believe that there have been frequent and continuing violations of section 12-47-901 (1) (a) or (5) (a) (I) regarding the crime of providing any alcohol beverage to a visibly intoxicated person or minor; and

(III) A complete statement as to whether or not other investigative procedures have been tried and failed, or why other investigative procedures reasonably appear to be impractical for economic or other reasons or unlikely to succeed if tried.

(4) Upon an application being made in accordance with subsection (3) of this section, the judge may enter an ex parte order, as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving testing as described in subsection (2) of this section in a particular licensed premises located within the territorial jurisdiction of the court in which the judge is sitting, and within the jurisdiction of the district attorney or law enforcement agency making the request, if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:

(a) There is probable cause to believe that there have been frequent and continuing violations of section 12-47-901 (1) (a) or (5) (a) (I) regarding the crime of providing an alcohol beverage to a visibly intoxicated person or minor; and

(b) Normal investigative procedures have been tried and failed, or reasonably appear impractical for economic or other reasons or unlikely to succeed if tried.

(5) Any order issued pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, the application for such order, and any information or evidence submitted to the court in support of such order, shall not be disclosed to any person other than the law enforcement officer or agency that applied for the order until the order has been executed at the licensed premises to which the order applies.

(6) Any evidence obtained through any violation of this section shall not be admissible in any court of this state or in any administrative proceeding in this state.

12-47-902.5. Alcohol-without-liquid devices - legislative declaration - unlawful acts. (1) (a) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(I) Alcohol-without-liquid (AWOL) devices create alcohol vapor by pouring alcohol into a diffuser capsule connected to an oxygen pipe;

(II) AWOL devices enable individuals to inhale or snort the alcohol vapor created from certain alcohol beverages through a tube into the nose or mouth rather than drink the alcohol beverage in its liquid form through the mouth;

(III) Alcohol vapor ingested from an AWOL device bypasses the stomach and the filtering capabilities of the liver and is absorbed through blood vessels in the nose or lungs creating a faster and more intense "high" or intoxicating effect on the brain;

(IV) The popularity of AWOL devices is increasing in the nightclub and bar businesses throughout the nation; and

(V) AWOL devices are being marketed as a way to become intoxicated without a hangover and as a "dieter's dream" because there are no calories associated with inhaling or snorting alcohol vapor.

(b) The general assembly, therefore, determines that:

(I) AWOL devices will substantially increase the economic costs of alcohol abuse in Colorado;

(II) AWOL devices are not conducive to the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of Colorado; and

(III) The possession, sale, purchase, and use of AWOL devices in this state should be prohibited.

(2) For purposes of this section, "AWOL device" means a device, machine, apparatus, or appliance that mixes an alcohol beverage with pure or diluted oxygen to produce an alcohol vapor that an individual can inhale or snort. "AWOL device" does not include an inhaler, nebulizer, atomizer, or other device that is designed and intended by the manufacturer to dispense a prescribed or over-the-counter medication.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, it is unlawful for a person to possess, purchase, sell, offer to sell, or use an AWOL device in this state. A person who violates this section shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of section 12-47-903 (2).

(4) In addition to the penalty imposed by this section, if a person that violates subsection (3) of this section is a licensee, the state or local licensing authority may suspend or revoke the license of the licensee in accordance with the provisions of section 12-47-601.

(5) (a) Subsection (3) of this section shall not apply to a hospital, as defined in section 25.5-1-503 (3), C.R.S., that operates primarily for the purpose of conducting scientific research, a state institution conducting bona fide research, a private college or university, as defined in section 23-2-102 (11), C.R.S., conducting bona fide research, or to a pharmaceutical company or biotechnology company conducting bona fide research and that complies with the provisions of this subsection (5).

(b) A hospital, state institution, private college or university, pharmaceutical company, or biotechnology company that possesses an AWOL device or that intends to acquire an AWOL device, shall, by September 1, 2005, or within thirty days prior to the acquisition, whichever is later, file with the Colorado department of public health and environment or its designee a notice of possession of AWOL device or a notice of acquisition of AWOL device, as appropriate.

12-47-903. Violations - penalties. (1) (a) Any person violating any of the provisions of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title or any of the rules and regulations authorized and adopted pursuant to such articles is guilty of a class 2 petty offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars for each offense.

(b) The penalties provided in this section shall not be affected by the penalties provided in any other section of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title but shall be construed to be in addition to any other penalties.

(2) Any person violating any of the provisions of section 12-47-901 (1) (a), (1) (f), (1) (g), (1) (i), (1) (k), (1) (l), (5) (a) (I), or (5) (b) or section 12-47-902.5 commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(2.5) A person violating the provisions of section 12-47-901 (1) (a.5) commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(3) Any person violating any of the provisions of section 12-47-901 (1) (b) or (1) (c) commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. For the second conviction and for all subsequent convictions of violating the provisions of section 12-47-901 (1) (b) or (1) (c), the court shall impose at least the minimum fine and shall have no discretion to suspend any fine so imposed; except that the court may provide for the payment of such fine as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) At the discretion of the court, the fines provided for violations of section 12-47-901 (1) (b) and (1) (c) may be ordered to be paid by public work only at a reasonable hourly rate to be established by the court who shall designate the time within which such public work is to be completed.

(5) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of section 12-47-901 (1) (a.5), (1) (d), or (1) (k) or any person who knowingly induces, aids, or encourages a person under the age of eighteen years to violate the provisions of section 12-47-901 (1) (a.5), (1) (b), or (1) (c) may be proceeded against pursuant to section 18-6-701, C.R.S., for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "One Year Review of Agency, Partnerships, Corporations, and Municipal Corporations", see 41 Den. L. Ctr. J. 61 (1964).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-903 is similar to § 12-47-130 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, and laws antecedent thereto, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

General assembly intended subsection (5) to apply to violations of § 12-47-901 (1)(a.5). The time between the 2005 and 2007 amendment when paragraph (a.5) was not listed in subsection (5) did not manifest an intent to exclude application. People v. Davis, 218 P.3d 718 (Colo. App. 2008).

Authority granted to director to define criminal conduct is not an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority. Although the general assembly may not delegate to an administrative agency the power to define criminal conduct, it may authorize the agency to adopt rules carrying criminal sanctions as long as the statutory scheme provides sufficient standards and safeguards to protect against the unreasonable exercise of discretionary power and offers adequate notice of the penalties applicable to a violator. People v. Lowrie, 761 P. 2d 778 (Colo. 1988).

12-47-904. Duties of inspectors and police officers. (1) The inspectors of the liquor enforcement division and their supervisors, while actually engaged in performing their duties and while acting under proper orders or regulations, shall have and exercise all the powers vested in peace officers of this state. In the exercise of their duties, such inspectors and their supervisors shall have the power to arrest. Such inspectors and their supervisors shall also have the authority to issue summons for violations of the provisions of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title.

(2) It is the duty of all sheriffs and police officers to enforce the provisions of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title and the rules and regulations made pursuant to said articles and to arrest and complain against any person violating any of the provisions of this article or rules and regulations pertaining thereto. It is the duty of the district attorney of the respective judicial districts of this state to prosecute all violations of said articles in the manner and form as is now provided by law for the prosecution of crimes and misdemeanors, and it is a violation of said articles for any such person, knowingly, to fail to perform any duties pursuant to this section.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-131 as it existed prior to 1997.

Due to general assembly's specification. The general assembly has specifically directed that revocation of the license under this section cannot be effected in the absence of a conviction of an offense described as a misdemeanor by this section. Bunzel v. City of Golden, 151 Colo. 352, 378 P.2d 208 (1963).

Procedures for the revocation by a city of a license to sell 3.2 percent beer are controlled by this section. Bunzel v. City of Golden, 151 Colo. 352, 378 P.2d 208 (1963).

In the absence of a conviction of violation of this section a city is without power to revoke license to sell 3.2 beer. Bunzel v. City of Golden, 151 Colo. 352, 378 P.2d 208 (1963).

Applicability of liquor code. The provisions of this article do not apply to third persons who are not applicants of licensees and whose conduct does not violate specific provisions of this article but does violate specific provisions of the criminal code. People v. Eckley, 775 P.2d 566 (Colo. 1989).

Prosecutorial discretion for violations of the liquor code is limited to the specific punishment provisions of the code unless otherwise indicated. People v. Bagby, 734 P.2d 1059 (Colo. 1987).

Applied in C.V. Enters., Inc. v. State, Dept. of Rev., 42 Colo. App. 337, 593 P.2d 984 (1979); People v. Luciano, 662 P.2d 480 (Colo. 1983).

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-47-904 is similar to § 12-46-116 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 46, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The authority of a liquor enforcement officer does not exceed that of his principal. Fouquet v. State Comp. Ins. Fund, 144 Colo. 240, 355 P.2d 943 (1960).

Authority only within specified territory. The assignment to a liquor enforcement officer of a specified territory in which to perform his duties carries a clear implication that he was to perform his duties within such territory and not elsewhere, and no presumption arises that he had authority beyond the boundaries of his allotted territory. Fouquet v. State Comp. Ins. Fund, 144 Colo. 240, 355 P.2d 943 (1960).

No authority to participate in private business. It is no part of the legal authority of the liquor license division or of a liquor enforcement officer to promote, facilitate, or assist in the purchase and sale of any business and premises, whatever its nature. Fouquet v. State Comp. Ins. Fund, 144 Colo. 240, 355 P.2d 943 (1960).

Nor travel for such purpose. Even though the answering of questions and supplying of information are generally within a liquor enforcement officer’s implied authority, such authority, however, cannot be extended to embrace a trip to a distant city to assist in the promotion of a private transaction in which neither he nor his employer had an official interest. Fouquet v. State Comp. Ins. Fund, 144 Colo. 240, 355 P.2d 943 (1960).

Applied in Adams County Golf, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 199 Colo. 423, 610 P.2d 97 (1980).

12-47-905. Warrants - searches and seizures. (1) If any person makes an affidavit before the judge of any county or district court stating that he or she has reason to and does believe that alcohol beverages are being sold, bartered, exchanged, divided, or unlawfully given away, or kept for such purposes, or carried in violation of this article and article 46 of this title within the jurisdiction of such court, and describing in such affidavit the premises, wagon, automobile, truck, vehicle, contrivance, thing, or device to be searched, the judge of such court shall issue a warrant to any officer, which the complainant may designate, having power to serve original process commanding such officer to search the premises (other than a home), wagon, automobile, truck, vehicle, contrivance, thing, or device described in such affidavit.

(2) Such warrant shall be substantially as follows:

STATE OF COLORADO) ) ss.
County of.....)

The People of the State of Colorado to.....
Greeting:

Whereas, there has been filed with the undersigned an affidavit of which the following is a copy:

(Here copy of affidavit)

Therefore you are hereby commanded, in the name of the people of the State of Colorado, forthwith, together with the necessary and proper assistance to enter into

of the said situated in the county of aforesaid and there diligently search for the said alcohol beverages and that you bring the same or any part thereof found in such search, together with such vessels in which such beverages are found and the implements and furniture used in connection therewith, and the wagon, automobile, truck, vehicle, contrivance, thing, or device in which carried, forthwith before me, to be disposed of and dealt with according to law.

Given under my hand and seal this day of, Judge of the Court

(3) The officer charged with the execution of said warrant, when necessary to obtain entrance or when entrance has been refused, may break open any premises (other than a home), wagon, automobile, truck, vehicle, contrivance, thing, or device which by said warrant the officer is directed to search and may execute said warrant any hour of the day or night.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

There must be strict compliance with any law which provides for its own enforcement by means of search, seizure, and disposition of or forfeiture of property. People ex rel. Protective Fin. Corp. v. Kinnison, 94 Colo. 350, 30 P.2d 249 (1934).

Proceedings for issuance of a search warrant must be in strict conformity with the statute, and every constitutional and statutory requirement must be observed. People ex rel. Protective Fin. Corp. v. Kinnison, 94 Colo. 350, 30 P.2d 249 (1934).

In proceeding under a search warrant there must be a strict compliance with formalities required by statute. People ex rel. Protective Fin. Corp. v. Kinnison, 94 Colo. 350, 30 P.2d 249 (1934).

If the search is illegal the seizure will also be illegal. People ex rel. Protective Fin. Corp. v. Kinnison, 94 Colo. 350, 30 P.2d 249 (1934).

Every officer making an unconstitutional search or advising or conniving at such conduct, is in violation of the law. Massantonio v. People, 77 Colo. 392, 236 P. 1019 (1925).

Consent vitiates illegality. A defendant in a prosecution under the prohibition act, who has consented to a search of his premises, cannot thereafter complain that he was deprived of his constitutional protection against such a search, and intoxicating liquor found in the search and what defendant said regarding it, are admissible in evidence. Smuk v. People, 72 Colo. 97, 209 P. 636 (1922).

12-47-906. Return on warrant - sale of liquor seized. (1) If any alcohol beverages are there found, said officer shall seize the same and the vessels in which they are contained and all implements and furniture used or kept in connection with such beverages in the illegal selling, bartering, exchanging, giving away, or carrying of same, and any wagon, automobile, truck, vehicle, contrivance, thing, or device used in conveying the same, and safely keep them and make immediate return on such warrant. Such property shall not be taken from the custody of any officer seizing or holding the same by writ of replevin or other process while the proceedings relating thereto are pending.

(2) Final judgment of conviction in such proceedings shall be a bar to any suit for the recovery of any such property so seized or the value of same or for damages alleged to arise by reason of such seizure and detention. The judgment entered shall find said alcohol beverages to be unlawful and shall direct its destruction or sale forthwith, in the manner provided by subsection (7) of this section. The wagon, automobile, truck, vehicle, contrivance, thing, or device, vessels, implements, and furniture shall likewise be ordered disposed of in the same manner as personal property is sold under execution, and the proceeds therefrom applied, first in the payment of the cost of the prosecution and of any fine imposed, and the balance, if any, paid into the general school fund of the county in which such conviction is had.

(3) The officer serving the warrant shall forthwith proceed in the manner required for the institution of a criminal action in the court issuing the warrant, charging such violation of law as the evidence in the case justifies. If such officer refuses or neglects to so proceed, then the person filing the affidavit for the search warrant, or any other person, may so proceed.

(4) If, during the trial of a person charged with a violation of this article, the evidence presented discloses that fluids were poured out, or otherwise destroyed, manifestly for the purpose of preventing seizure, said fluids shall be held to be prima facie alcohol beverages and intended for unlawful use, sale, barter, exchange, or gift.

(5) If no person is in possession of the premises where illegal alcohol beverages are found, the officer seizing such beverages shall post in a conspicuous place on said premises a copy of the warrant, and if at the time fixed for any hearing concerning the beverages seized, or within thirty days thereafter, no person appears, the court in which the hearing was to be held shall order such beverages destroyed or sold in the manner provided in subsection (7) of this section.

(6) No warrant issued pursuant to this article shall authorize the search of any place where a person may lawfully keep alcohol beverages as provided in this article. No warrant shall be issued to search a home occupied as such, as provided in this section, unless it or some part of it is used in connection with or as a store, shop, hotel, boardinghouse, rooming house, or place of public resort.

(7) Any sale of alcohol beverages conducted upon order of court pursuant to this section shall be conducted in the following manner:

(a) The officer ordered by the court to conduct the sale shall give notice of the time and place of the sale by posting a notice in a prominent place in the county for a period of five consecutive days prior to the day of the sale. The notice shall describe as fully as possible the property to be sold and shall state the time and place of the sale.

(b) The sale shall be conducted as a public auction in some suitable public place on the specified day at some time between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., and the time chosen for the sale shall be indicated in the notice.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-906 is similar to § 12-47-133 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

plished within the letter and spirit of law. Walker v. City of Denver, 720 P.2d 619 (Colo. App. 1986).

A criminal conviction is a condition precedent to forfeiture under this section. Walker v. City of Denver, 720 P.2d 619 (Colo. App. 1986).

12-47-907. Loss of property rights. There shall be no property rights of any kind in any alcohol beverages, vessels, appliances, fixtures, bars, furniture, implements, wagons, automobiles, trucks, vehicles, contrivances, or any other things or devices used in or kept for the purpose of violating any of the provisions of this article or article 46 of this title.

12-47-908. Colorado state fair or common consumption area - consumption on premises. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a person who purchases an alcohol beverage for consumption from a vendor licensed under this article that is either attached to a common consumption area or licensed for the fairgrounds of the Colorado state fair authority may leave the licensed premises with the beverage and possess and consume the beverage at any place within the common consumption area or fairgrounds if the person does not remove the beverage from the common consumption area or fairgrounds. This section does not authorize a person to bring into the common consumption area or fairgrounds an alcohol beverage purchased outside of the common consumption area or fairgrounds.

12-47-909. Common consumption areas. (1) A promotional association or attached licensed premises shall not:

(a) Employ a person to serve alcohol beverages or provide security within the common consumption area unless the server has completed the server and seller training program established by the director of the liquor enforcement division of the department of revenue;

(b) Sell or provide an alcohol beverage to a customer for consumption within the common consumption area but not within the licensed premises in a container that is larger than sixteen ounces;

(c) Sell or provide an alcohol beverage to a customer for consumption within the common consumption area but not within the licensed premises unless the container is disposable and contains the name of the vendor in at least twenty-four-point font;

(d) Permit customers to leave the licensed premises with an alcohol beverage unless the beverage container complies with paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection (1);

(e) Operate the common consumption area during hours the licensed premises cannot sell alcohol under this article or the limitations imposed by the local licensing authority;

(f) Operate the common consumption area in an area that exceeds the maximum authorized by this article or by the local licensing authority;

(g) Sell, serve, dispose of, exchange, or deliver, or permit the sale, serving, giving, or procuring of, an alcohol beverage to a visibly intoxicated person or to a known habitual drunkard;

(h) Sell, serve, dispose of, exchange, or deliver, or permit the sale, serving, or giving of an alcohol beverage to a person under twenty-one years of age; or

(i) Permit a visibly intoxicated person to loiter within the common consumption area.

(2) The promotional association shall promptly remove all alcohol beverages from the common consumption area at the end of the hours of operation.

(3) A person shall not consume alcohol within the common consumption area unless it was purchased from an attached, licensed premises.

(4) This section does not apply to a special event permit issued under article 48 of this title or the holder thereof unless the permit holder desires to use an existing common consumption area and agrees in writing to the requirements of this article and the local licensing authority concerning the common consumption area.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-47.1-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Limited Gaming Act of 1991".

ANNOTATION

The Limited Gaming Act provides clear standards and specific guidance to the commission by (1) Directing the agency to establish rules and regulations; (2) providing for an inquiry into the criminal history of an applicant to determine whether a threat to the public interest or to controlled gaming exists; (3) squarely placing the burden of establishing qualification for licensing upon the applicant; and (4) providing for effective judicial review. Moya v. Colo. Gaming Comm'n, 870 P.2d 620 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-47.1-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares it to be the public policy of this state that:

(a) The success of limited gaming is dependent upon public confidence and trust that licensed limited gaming is conducted honestly and competitively; that the rights of the creditors of licensees are protected; and that gaming is free from criminal and corruptive elements;

(b) Public confidence and trust can be maintained only by strict regulation of all persons, locations, practices, associations, and activities related to the operation of licensed gaming establishments and the manufacture or distribution of gaming devices and equipment;

(c) All establishments where limited gaming is conducted and where gambling devices are operated and all manufacturers, sellers, and distributors of certain gambling devices and equipment must therefore be licensed, controlled, and assisted to protect the public health, safety, good order, and the general welfare of the inhabitants of the state to foster the stability and success of limited gaming and to preserve the economy and policies of free competition of the state of Colorado;

(d) No applicant for a license or other affirmative commission approval has any right to a license or to the granting of the approval sought. Any license issued or other commission approval granted pursuant to the provisions of this article is a revocable privilege, and no holder acquires any vested right therein or thereunder.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that, to achieve the goals set forth in subsection (1) of this section, the commission should place great weight upon the policies expressed in said subsection (1) in construing the provisions of this article.

ANNOTATION

License conditions and revocation authorized by law and constitution. The gaming commission was within its statutory authority in conditioning a key employee license on payment of back child support and taxes and revoking such license for failure to comply with such conditions. The gaming commission did not abuse its discretion or violate due process in so revoking the license where the licensee was given a reasonable opportunity to comply with such conditions, failed to provide requested income tax returns, and made false statements of material fact to the investigator regarding the filing of tax returns and where the gaming commission provided the licensee with substantial evidentiary leeway, allowed the licensee to cross-examine and impeach the investigator, and gave the licensee the opportunity to argue the proper standard for license revocation. Feeney v. Colo. Ltd. Gaming Control Comm'n, 890 P.2d 173 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-47.1-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Adjusted gross proceeds”, except with respect to games of poker, means the total amount of all wagers made by players on limited gaming less all payments to players; and payment to players shall include all payments of cash premiums, merchandise, tokens, redeemable game credits, or any other thing of value. With respect to games of poker, “adjusted gross proceeds” means any sums wagered in a poker hand which may be retained by the licensee as compensation which must be consistent with the minimum and maximum amounts established by the Colorado limited gaming control commission.

(2) “Applicant” means any person who has applied for a license or registration under this article or who has applied for permission to engage in any act or activity which is regulated by this article.

(3) “Bet” means an amount placed as a wager in a game of chance.

(4) “Blackjack” means a banking card game commonly known as “21” or “blackjack” played by a maximum of seven players in which each player bets against the dealer. The object is to draw cards whose value will equal or approach twenty-one without exceeding that amount and win amounts bet, payable by the dealer, if the player holds cards more valuable than the dealer’s cards.

(4.5) "Certified local government" means any local government certified by the state historic preservation officer pursuant to the provisions of 16 U.S.C. sec. 470a (c) (1).

(5) "Commission" means the Colorado limited gaming control commission.

(5.5) "Crane game" means an amusement machine that, upon insertion of a coin, bill, token, or similar object, allows the player to use one or more buttons, joysticks, or other controls to maneuver a crane or claw over a nonmonetary prize, toy, or novelty, none of which shall have a cost of more than twenty-five dollars, and then, using the crane or claw, to attempt to retrieve the prize, toy, or novelty for the player.

(5.7) "Craps" means a game played by one or more players against a casino using two dice, in which players bet upon the occurrence of specific combinations of numbers shown by the dice on each throw.

(6) "Department" means the Colorado department of revenue.

(7) "Director" means the director of the division of gaming.

(8) "Division" means the division of gaming.

(9) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of revenue.

(10) "Gaming device" or "gaming equipment" means any equipment or mechanical, electromechanical, or electronic contrivance, component, or machine used remotely or directly in connection with gaming or any game. The term includes a system for processing information which can alter the normal criteria of random selection which affects the operation of any game, or which determines the outcome of a game. The term includes a slot machine, poker table, blackjack table, craps table, roulette table, dice, and the cards used to play poker and blackjack.

(11) "Gaming employee" means any person employed by an operator or retailer hosting gaming to work directly with the gaming portion of such operator's or retailer's business, which person shall be twenty-one years of age or older and hold a support license. Persons deemed to be gaming employees shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(a) Dealers;

(b) Change and counting room personnel;

(c) Cashiers;

(d) Floormen;

(e) Cage personnel;

(f) Slot machine repairmen or mechanics;

(g) Persons who accept or transport gaming revenues;

(h) Security personnel;

(i) Shift or pit bosses;

(j) Floor managers;

(k) Supervisors;

(l) Slot machine and slot booth personnel;

(m) Any person involved in the handling, counting, collecting, or exchanging of money, property, checks, credit, or any representative of value, including, without limitation:

(I) Any coin, token, chip, cash premium, merchandise, redeemable game credits, or any other thing of value; or

(II) The payoff from any game, gaming, or gaming device;

(n) Craps table personnel and roulette table personnel; and

(o) Such other persons as the commission shall by rule determine.

(12) "Gaming license" means any license issued by the commission pursuant to this article which authorizes any person to engage in gaming within the cities of Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek.

(13) "Immediate family" means a person's spouse and any children actually living with the person.

(14) "Key employee" means any executive, employee, or agent of a gaming licensee having the power to exercise a significant influence over decisions concerning any part of the operation of a gaming licensee.

(15) "Licensed gaming establishment" means any premises licensed pursuant to this article for the conduct of gaming.

(16) "Licensed premises" means that portion of any premises licensed for the conduct of limited gaming. Nothing pursuant to this subsection (16) shall be construed to prohibit the affected local governing authority from otherwise determining the size of any building. In no event shall the licensed premises exceed thirty-five percent of the square footage of any building and no more than fifty percent of any one floor of such building.

(17) "Licensee" means any person licensed under this article.

(18) "Licensing authority" means the Colorado limited gaming control commission.

(19) "Limited card games and slot machines", "limited gaming", or "gaming" means slot machines, craps, roulette, and the card games of poker and blackjack, which are authorized by this article and defined and regulated by the commission, each game having a maximum single bet of one hundred dollars.

(20) "Operator" means any person who places slot machines upon such person's business premises or any person who, individually or jointly, pursuant to an agreement whereby consideration is paid for the right to place slot machines on another's business premises, engages in the business of placing and operating slot machines on retail premises within the cities of Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek.

(21) "Person" means an individual, partnership, business trust, government or governmental subdivision or agency, estate, association, trust, for profit corporation, nonprofit corporation, organization, or any other legal entity or a manager, agent, servant, officer, or employee thereof.

(22) (a) "Poker" means a card game played by a player or players who are dealt cards by a dealer. The object of the game is:

(I) For each player to bet the superiority of such player's hand and win the other players' bets by either making a bet no other player is willing to match or proving to hold the most valuable cards after all the betting is over; or

(II) For each player, whether by reason of the skill of the player or application of the element of chance, or both, to hold a poker hand entitled to a monetary or premium return based upon a publicly available pay schedule.

(b) In a variation of poker in which there can be more than one winning hand and the dealer's participation is necessary or desirable to improve the game for players other than the dealer, the dealer may play, but under no circumstances may the dealer place a wager in any game in which he or she is dealing. A game in which the player holding the highest-scoring hand splits his or her winnings with the player holding the lowest-scoring hand does not qualify as a "variation of poker in which there can be more than one winning hand" for purposes of this paragraph (b).

(23) "Repeating gambling offender" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 18-10-102 (9), C.R.S.

(24) "Retailer" means any licensee who maintains gaming at his place of business within the cities of Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek for use and operation by the public.

(25) "Retail space" means the area where a retailer's business is principally conducted.

(25.5) "Roulette" means a game in which a ball is spun on a rotating wheel and drops into a numbered slot on the wheel, and bets are placed on which slot the ball will come to rest in.

(26) (a) "Slot machine" means any mechanical, electrical, video, electronic, or other device, contrivance, or machine which, after insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, or upon payment of any required consideration whatsoever by a player, is available to be played or operated, and which, whether by reason of the skill of the player or application of the element of chance, or both, may deliver or entitle the player operating the machine to receive cash premiums, merchandise, tokens, or redeemable game credits, or any other thing of value other than unredeemable free games, whether the payoff is made automatically from the machines or in any other manner.

(b) "Slot machine" does not include:

(I) Vintage slot machine models which were introduced on the market prior to 1984 and are not used for gambling purposes or in connection with limited gaming; or

(II) Crane games.

(27) “Slot machine distributor” means any person who imports into this state, or first receives in this state, slot machines, or who sells, leases, for a fixed or flat fee, or distributes slot machines in this state; except that “slot machine distributor” does not include operators licensed in this state.

(28) “Slot machine manufacturer” means any person who designs, assembles, fabricates, produces, constructs, or otherwise prepares a complete or component part of a slot machine, other than tables or cabinetry; except that “slot machine manufacturer” does not include licensed operators performing incidental repairs on their own slot machines or slot machines leased or distributed by them. A licensed slot machine manufacturer may sell slot machines, or components of slot machines, of its own manufacture to licensed slot machine distributors or operators. A licensed manufacturer may also import those slot machine parts or components necessary for its manufacturing operations.

(29) “Suitability” or “suitable” means, in relation to a person, the ability to be licensed by the commission and, in relation to acts or practices, lawful acts or practices.

(30) “Unsuitability or unsuitable” means, in relation to a person, the inability to be licensed by the commission because of prior acts, associations, or financial conditions, and, in relation to acts or practices, those which violate or would violate the statutes or rules or are or would be contrary to the declared legislative purposes of this article.

(31) “Within the cities of Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek” means within the commercial district of any of those cities as specified in section 12-47.1-105.

ANNOTATION

License conditions and revocation authorized by law and constitution. The gaming commission was within its statutory authority in conditioning a key employee license on payment of back child support and taxes and revoking such license for failure to comply with such conditions. The gaming commission did not abuse its discretion or violate due process in so revoking the license where the licensee was given a reasonable opportunity to comply with such conditions, failed to provide requested income tax returns, and made false statements of material fact to the investigator regarding the filing of tax returns and where the gaming commission provided the licensee with substantial evidentiary leeway, allowed the licensee to cross-examine and impeach the investigator, and gave the licensee the opportunity to argue the proper standard for license revocation. Feeney v. Colo. Ltd. Gaming Control Comm’n, 890 P.2d 173 (Colo. App. 1994).

Commission did not err in concluding that 21 Superbucks does not constitute a legally permissible slot machine. Subsection (26) de-finer “slot machine” to mean a mechanical device which, upon the insertion of a coin, may entitle a player to cash. 21 Superbucks relies, however, not only on a coin or token, but also on the deal of a traditional blackjack hand. Furthermore, there is no indication that the numerous express controls placed on slot machines under the detailed regulations in Colorado gaming control commission rule 12 are a part of the operation of 21 Superbucks. Purcell v. Colo. Div. of Gaming, 924 P.2d 1203 (Colo. App. 1996).

Limited gaming control commission acted properly and within its authority in promulgating regulation defining otherwise undefined term “payment to players”. Tivolino Teller House, Inc. v. Fagan, 926 P.2d 1208 (Colo. 1996).

Casino’s promotional slot club payouts are not deductible as “payments to players” for computing taxable adjusted gross proceeds where a player receives a bonus point for every dollar he or she spends on a machine that may then be redeemed in 200 point increments and player receives one dollar for every 200 points redeemed. Tivolino Teller House, Inc. v. Fagan, 926 P.2d 1208 (Colo. 1996).

12-47.1-104. Limited gaming - authorization - regulation. Limited gaming is hereby authorized and may be operated and maintained subject to the provisions of this article. All limited gaming authorized by this article shall be regulated by the Colorado limited gaming control commission.

DIVISION OF GAMING

12-47.1-201. Division of gaming - creation. There is hereby created, within the department of revenue, the division of gaming, the head of which shall be the director of the division of gaming. The director shall be appointed by, and shall be subject to removal by, the executive director of the department of revenue. The division of gaming, the Colorado limited gaming control commission created in section 12-47.1-301, and the director of the division of gaming shall exercise their respective powers and perform their respective duties and functions as specified in this article under the department of revenue as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.; except that the commission shall have full and exclusive authority to promulgate rules and regulations related to limited gaming without any approval by, or delegation of authority from, the department.

12-47.1-203. Director - qualification - powers and duties. (1) The director shall:
(a) Be qualified by training and experience to direct the work of the division;

(b) Be of good character and shall not have been convicted of any felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(c) Not be engaged in any other profession or occupation that could present a conflict of interest to the director's duties as director of the division; and

(d) Direct and supervise the administrative and technical activities of the division.

(2) In addition to the duties imposed upon the director elsewhere in this part 2, the director shall:

(a) Supervise and administer the operation of the division and limited gaming in accordance with the provisions of this article and the rules of the commission;

(b) Attend meetings of the commission or appoint a designee to attend in the director's place;

(c) (I) Employ and direct such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this article, but no person shall be employed who has been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(II) The director, with the approval of the commission, may enter into agreements with any department, agency, or unit of state government to secure services which the director deems necessary and to provide for the payment for such services and may employ and compensate such consultants and technical assistants as may be required and as otherwise permitted by law.

(d) Confer with the commission as necessary or desirable, but not less than once each month, with regard to the operation of the division;

(e) Make available for inspection by the commission or any member of the commission, upon request, all books, records, files, and other information and documents in the director's office;

(f) Advise the commission and recommend to the commission such rules and other procedures as the director deems necessary and advisable to improve the operation of the division and the conduct of limited gaming;

(g) With the concurrence of the commission or pursuant to commission requirements and procedures, enter into contracts for materials, equipment, and supplies to be used in the operation of the division;

(h) Make a continuous study and investigation of the operation and the administration of similar laws which may be in effect in other states or countries; of any literature on gaming which from time to time may be published or available; and of any federal laws which may affect the operation of the division, the conduction of limited gaming, or the reaction of Colorado citizens to limited gaming with a view to recommending or effecting changes that would serve the purposes of this article;

(i) (I) Furnish to the commission a monthly report which contains a full and complete statement of the division's revenue and expenses for each month.

(II) All reports required by this paragraph (i) shall be public, and copies of all such reports shall be sent to the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the minority leaders of both houses, and the executive director of the department of revenue.

(j) Annually prepare and submit to the commission, for its approval, a proposed budget for the next succeeding fiscal year, which budget shall set forth a complete financial plan for all proposed expenditures and anticipated revenues of the division;

(k) Take such action as may be determined by the commission to be necessary to protect the security and integrity of limited gaming; and

(l) Perform any other lawful acts which the commission may consider necessary or desirable in order to carry out the purposes and provisions of this article.

12-47.1-204. Investigator - peace officers. (1) All investigators of the division of gaming, and their supervisors, including the director and the executive director, shall have all the powers of any peace officer to:

(a) Make arrests, with or without warrant, for any violation of the provisions of this article, article 20 of title 18, C.R.S., or the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article, any other laws or regulations pertaining to the conducting of limited gaming in this state, or any criminal law of this state, if, during an officer's exercise of powers or performance of duties under this section, probable cause is established that a violation of any said law or rule or regulation has occurred;

(b) Inspect, examine, investigate, hold, or impound any premises where limited gaming is conducted, any devices or equipment designed for or used in limited gaming, and any books and records in any way connected with any limited gaming activity;

(c) Require any person licensed pursuant to this article, upon demand, to permit an inspection of such person's licensed premises, gaming equipment and devices, or books or records; and to permit the testing and the seizure for testing or examination purposes of all such devices, equipment, and books and records;

(d) Serve all warrants, notices, summonses, or other processes relating to the enforcement of laws regulating limited gaming;

(e) Serve distraint warrants issued by the department of revenue pertaining to limited gaming;

(f) Conduct investigations into the character, record, and reputation of all applicants for limited gaming licenses, all licensees, and such other persons as the commission may determine pertaining to limited gaming;

(g) Investigate violations of all the laws pertaining to limited gaming and limited gaming activities;

(h) Assist or aid any sheriff or other peace officer in the performance of his duties upon such sheriff's or peace officer's request or the request of other local officials having jurisdiction.

(2) Criminal violations of this article discovered during an authorized investigation or discovered by the commission shall be referred to the appropriate district attorney.

(3) The investigators of the division, including the director of the division, shall be considered peace officers, as described in sections 16-2.5-101 and 16-2.5-123, C.R.S. The executive director of the department of revenue shall be considered a peace officer as described in sections 16-2.5-101 and 16-2.5-121, C.R.S.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit local sheriffs, police departments, and other local law enforcement agencies from enforcing the provisions of this article, and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article, or from performing their other duties to the full extent permitted by law. All such sheriffs, police officers, district attorneys, and other local law enforcement agencies shall have all the powers set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

COLORADO LIMITED GAMING CONTROL COMMISSION

12-47.1-301. Colorado limited gaming control commission - creation. (1) There is hereby created, within the division of gaming, the Colorado limited gaming control commission. The commission shall consist of five members, all of whom shall be citizens of the United States and residents of this state who have been residents of the state for the past five years. The members shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent and approval of the senate. No member shall have been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S. No more than three of the five members shall be members of the same political party and no more than one member shall be from any one congressional district. At the first meeting of each fiscal year, a chairman and vice-chairman of the commission shall be chosen from the membership by a majority of the members. Membership and operation of the commission shall additionally meet the following requirements:

(a) One member of the commission shall have had at least five years' law enforcement experience as a peace officer certified pursuant to section 24-31-305, C.R.S.; one member shall be an attorney admitted to the practice of law in Colorado for not less than five years and who has experience in regulatory law; one member shall be a certified public accountant or public accountant who has been practicing in Colorado for at least five years and who has a comprehensive knowledge of the principles and practices of corporate finance; one member shall have been engaged in business in a management-level capacity for at least five years; and one member shall be a registered elector of the state who is not employed in any profession or industry otherwise described in this paragraph (a).

(b) Initial members shall be appointed to the commission by the governor as follows: One member to serve until July 1, 1992, one member to serve until July 1, 1993, one member to serve until July 1, 1994, and two members to serve until July 1, 1995. All subsequent appointments shall be for terms of four years. No member of the commission shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms.

(c) Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment. The member appointed to fill such vacancy shall be from the same category described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) as the member vacating the position.

(d) Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor at any time.

(e) The term of any member of the commission who misses more than two consecutive regular commission meetings without good cause shall be terminated and such member's successor shall be appointed in the manner provided for appointments under this section.

(f) Commission members shall receive as compensation for their services one hundred dollars for each day spent in the conduct of commission business and shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The maximum annual compensation for each member of the commission, including reimbursement for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties, shall not exceed ten thousand dollars per year.

(g) Prior to confirmation by the senate, each member shall file with the secretary of state a financial disclosure statement in the form required and prescribed by the executive director. Such statement shall be renewed as of each January 1 during the member's term of office.

(h) The commission shall hold at least one meeting each month and such additional meetings as may be prescribed by rules of the commission. In addition, special meetings may be called by the chairman, any two commission members, or the director, if written notification of such meeting is delivered to each member at least seventy-two hours prior to such meeting. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-6-402, C.R.S., in emergency situations in which a majority of the commission certifies that exigencies of time require that the commission meet without delay, the requirements of public notice and of seventy-two hours' actual advance written notice to members may be dispensed with, and commission members as well as the public shall receive such notice as is reasonable under the circumstances.

(i) A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum, but the concurrence of a majority of the members appointed to the commission shall be required for any final determination by the commission.

(j) The commission shall keep a complete and accurate record of all its meetings.

12-47.1-302. Commission - powers and duties. (1) In addition to any other powers and duties set forth in this part 3, and notwithstanding the designation of the Colorado limited gaming control commission under section 12-47.1-201 as a type 2 transfer, the commission shall nonetheless have the following powers and duties:

(a) To promulgate such rules and regulations governing the licensing, conducting, and operating of limited gaming as it deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this article. The director shall prepare and submit to the commission written recommendations concerning proposed rules and regulations for this purpose.

(b) To conduct hearings upon complaints charging violations of this article or rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article, and to conduct such other hearings as may be required by rules of the commission;

(c) To enter into agreements with the Colorado bureau of investigation and state and local law enforcement agencies for the conduct of investigation, identification, or registration, or any combination thereof, of licensed operators and employees in licensed premises or in premises containing licensed premises in accordance with the provisions of this article, which conduct shall include, but not be limited to, performing background investigations and criminal records checks on an applicant applying for licensure pursuant to the provisions of this article and investigating violations of any provision of this article or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the commission pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) discovered as a result of such investigatory process or discovered by the department of revenue or the commission in the course of conducting its business. Nothing in this section shall prevent or impair the Colorado bureau of investigation or state or local law enforcement agencies from engaging in the activities set forth in this paragraph (c) on their own initiative.

(d) To conduct a continuous study and investigation of limited gaming throughout the state for the purpose of ascertaining any defects in this article or in the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article in order to discover any abuses in the administration and operation of the division or any violation of this article or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this article;

(e) To formulate and recommend changes to this article or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this article for the purpose of preventing abuses and violations of this article or any of the rules or regulations promulgated pursuant to this article; to guard against the use of this article and such rules and regulations as a cloak for the conducting of illegal activities; and to ensure that this article and such rules and regulations shall be in such form and be so administered as to serve the true purpose and intent of this article;

(f) To report immediately to the governor, the attorney general, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the minority leaders of both houses, and such other state officers as the commission deems appropriate concerning any laws which it determines require immediate amendment to prevent abuses and violations of this article or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this article or to remedy undesirable conditions in connection with the administration or the operation of the division or limited gaming;

(g) To require such special reports from the director as it considers necessary;

(h) To issue temporary or permanent licenses to those involved in the ownership, participation, or conduct of limited gaming;

(i) Upon complaint, or upon its own motion, to levy fines and to suspend or revoke, licenses which the commission has issued;

(j) To establish and collect fees and taxes upon persons, licenses, and gaming devices used in, or participating in, limited gaming;

(k) To obtain all information from licensees and other persons and agencies which the commission deems necessary or desirable in the conduct of its business;

(l) To issue subpoenas for the appearance or production of persons, records, and things in connection with applications before the commission or in connection with disciplinary or contested cases considered by the commission;

(m) To apply for injunctive or declaratory relief to enforce the provisions of this article and any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article;

(n) To inspect and examine without notice all premises wherein limited gaming is conducted or devices or equipment used in limited gaming are located, manufactured, sold, or distributed, and to summarily seize, remove, and impound, without notice or hearing from such premises any equipment, devices, supplies, books, or records for the purpose of examination or inspection;

(o) To enter into contracts with any governmental entity to carry out its duties without compliance with the provisions of the "Procurement Code", articles 101 to 112 of title 24, C.R.S. Such contracts or formal agreements, or both, are to be based on preestablished commission criteria specifying minimum levels of cooperation and conditions for payment.

(p) To exercise such other incidental powers as may be necessary to ensure the safe and orderly regulation of limited gaming and the secure collection of all revenues, taxes, and license fees;

(q) To establish internal control procedures for licensees, including accounting procedures, reporting procedures, and personnel policies;

(r) To establish and collect fees for performing background checks on all applicants for licenses and on all persons with whom the commission or division may agree with or contract with for the providing of goods or services, as the commission deems appropriate;

(s) To establish and collect fees for performing, or having performed, tests on equipment and devices to be used in limited gaming;

(t) To establish a field office in Black Hawk, Central City, or Cripple Creek, as deemed necessary by the commission;

(u) To demand, at any time when business is being conducted, access to and inspection, examination, photocopying, and auditing of all papers, books, and records of applicants and licensees, on their premises or elsewhere as practicable and in the presence of the licensee or his agent, pertaining to the gross income produced by any licensed gaming establishment and to require verification of income, and all other matters affecting the enforcement of the policies of the commission or any provision of this article; and to impound or remove all papers, books, and records of applicants and licensees, without hearing, for inspection or examination; and

(v) To prescribe voluntary alternative methods for the making, filing, signing, subscribing, verifying, transmitting, receiving, or storing of returns or other documents.

(2) Rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(a) The types of limited gaming activities to be conducted and the rules for those activities;

(b) The requirements, qualifications, and grounds for the issuance, revocation, suspension, and summary suspension of all types of permanent and temporary licenses required for the conduct of limited gaming;

(c) Qualifications of persons to hold limited gaming licenses;

- (d) Restrictions upon the times, places, and structures where limited gaming shall be authorized;
- (e) The ongoing operation of limited gaming activities;
- (f) The scope and conditions for investigations and inspections into the conduct of limited gaming, the background of licensees and applicants for licenses, the premises where limited gaming is authorized, all premises where gaming devices are located, the books and records of licensees, and the sources and maintenance of limited gaming devices and equipment;
- (g) Activities which constitute fraud, cheating, or illegal or criminal activities;
- (h) The percentage of the adjusted gross proceeds to be paid by each licensee to the commission, in addition to license fees and taxes;
- (i) The seizure without notice or hearing of gaming equipment, supplies, or books and records for the purpose of examination and inspection;
- (j) The disclosure of the complete financial interests of applicants for licenses or of licensees;
- (k) The issuance or denial of support licenses by the director;
- (l) The granting of certain licenses with special conditions or for limited periods, or both;
- (m) The establishment of procedures for determining suitability or unsuitability of persons, acts, or practices;
- (n) The payment of costs incurred in the operation and administration of the division, and the costs resulting from any contract entered into for consulting or operational services;
- (o) The payment of costs incurred by the Colorado bureau of investigation and any other agencies for investigations or background checks, which shall be paid by applicants for licenses or by licensees;
- (p) The levying of fines for violations of this article or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this article;
- (q) The amount of license fees for all types of licenses issued by the commission and the division;
- (r) The conditions and circumstances which constitute suitability of persons, locations, and equipment for gaming;
- (s) The types and specifications of all equipment and devices used in or with limited gaming; and
- (t) All other provisions necessary to accomplish the purposes of this article.

ANNOTATION

Section 9 of article XVIII of the Colorado Constitution prohibits the general assembly from enacting limitations on revenues collected by the Colorado limited gaming commission in order to comply with section 20 of article X of the Colorado Constitution, and insofar as revenues generated by limited gaming might tend in a given year to violate the spending limits imposed by that section, the general assembly may comply by decreasing revenues collected elsewhere, or if that is impossible after the fact, by refunding the surplus to taxpayers. Submission of Interrogatories on Senate Bill 93-74, 852 P.2d 1 (Colo. 1993).

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

12-47.1-401. Conflict of interest. (1) Members of the commission and employees of the division are declared to be in positions of public trust. In order to ensure the confidence of the people of the state in the integrity of the division, its employees, and the commission, the following restrictions shall apply:

(a) No member of the commission, an ancestor or descendant of a member, including a natural child, child by adoption, or stepchild, or a brother or sister of the whole or half blood of a member, or an uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece of the whole blood of a member, shall have any interest of any kind in a license issued pursuant to this article or own or have any interest in property in any county where limited gaming is permitted. The provisions of this paragraph (a) shall apply to spouses of commission members in like fashion as to members.

(b) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, and no member of the immediate family of a member or employee of the division, shall have any interest, direct or indirect, in any licensee, licensed premises, establishment, or business involved in or with limited gaming. Further, no such person shall own, in whole or in part, property in the cities of Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek; except that employees of the division assigned to work regularly in Gilpin or Teller county may live with their families in those counties, and may own private property therein for residential purposes, with commission approval.

(c) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, and no member of the immediate family of a member of the commission or employee of the division, shall receive any gift, gratuity, employment, or other thing of value from any person, corporation, association, or firm that contracts with or that offers services, supplies, materials, or equipment used by the division in the normal course of its operations, or which is licensed by the division or the commission; except that such persons may accept on an infrequent basis in the normal course of business such nonpecuniary items of insignificant value as shall be allowed by the director and as shall be specified by the commission by rule and regulation.

(d) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, and no member of their immediate families, shall participate in limited gaming.

(e) No member of the commission or employee of the division, including the director, shall have been convicted of a felony or any gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(1.5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the commission may, by rule, determine that an ownership interest of no more than five percent held by or through an institutional investor fund does not constitute an interest under paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(2) For purposes of investigating violations of this article, the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to an employee of the division acting in his official capacity while on duty.

LICENSING

12-47.1-501. Licenses - types. (1) The commission may issue five types of licenses as follows:

(a) Slot machine manufacturer or distributor. A slot machine manufacturer or distributor license is required for all persons who import, manufacture, or distribute slot machines in this state, or who otherwise act as a slot machine manufacturer or distributor. Each license issued pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall expire two years from the date of its issuance but may be renewed upon the filing and approval of an application for renewal. The fee for the initial license and all renewals thereof shall be determined by the commission pursuant to rule.

(b) Operator license. (1) An operator license is required for all persons who permit slot machines on their premises or who engage in the business of placing and operating slot machines on the premises of a retailer. Each license issued pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall expire two years from the date of its issuance but may be renewed upon the filing and approval of an application for renewal. The fee for the initial license and all renewals thereof shall be determined by the commission pursuant to rule. A licensed operator shall obtain slot machines only from, and shall return or sell slot machines only to, a licensed manufacturer or distributor.

(II) This paragraph (b) shall not apply to persons holding retail gaming licenses issued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (1).

(c) Retail gaming license. A retail gaming license is required for all persons permitting or conducting limited gaming on their premises. A retail gaming license may only be granted to a retailer. Each person licensed as a retailer shall have and maintain sole and exclusive legal possession of the entire premises for which the retail license is issued. Each license issued pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall expire two years from the date of its issuance but may be renewed upon the filing and approval of an application for renewal. The fee for the initial license and all renewals thereof shall be determined by the commission pursuant to rule. A licensed retailer shall obtain slot machines only from, and shall return or sell slot machines only to, a licensed manufacturer or distributor. Slot machine transfers between licensed retailers directly and completely owned by the same person are allowed, if proper notification is given to the division.

(d) Support license. A support license is required for all persons employed in the field of limited gaming and by all gaming employees. No person required to hold a support license shall be an employee of, or assist, any licensee until such person obtains a valid support license. Persons licensed as key employees need not obtain support licenses. The commission may deny a support license to any person discharged for cause from employment by any licensed gaming establishment in this or any other country. Each license issued pursuant to this paragraph (d) shall expire two years from the date of its issuance but may be renewed upon the filing and approval of an application for renewal. The fee for the initial license and all renewals thereof shall be determined by the commission pursuant to rule.

(e) Key employee license. Every retail gaming licensee shall have a person in charge of all limited gaming activities available at all times when limited gaming is being conducted. Such person in charge shall hold a key employee license. Each license issued pursuant to this paragraph (e) shall expire two years from the date of its issuance but may be renewed upon the filing and approval of an application for renewal. The fee for the initial license and all renewals thereof shall be determined by the commission pursuant to rule.

12-47.1-503. Key employee - determination of status. If, in the determination of the commission, an employee of a licensee for limited gaming is a key employee and as such is subject to licensure, the commission shall serve notice of such determination upon the licensee who employed such key employee. In determining whether or not an employee is a key employee, the commission is not restricted by the title of the job performed by such employee but may consider the functions and responsibilities of such employee in making its decision. The licensee shall, within thirty days following receipt of the notice of the commission's determination, present the application for licensing of such employee to the commission or provide documentary evidence that such employee is no longer employed by the licensee. Failure of the licensee to respond as required by this section is grounds for disciplinary action. A person subject to application for licensing as a key employee may make written request to the commission to review its determination of such person's status within the gaming organization. If the commission determines that the person is not a key employee, such person shall be allowed to withdraw his application and continue in his employment. The request by an employee for review of his employment status does not stay the obligation of the licensee to present such employee's application to the commission within the thirty-day period prescribed by this section.

12-47.1-504. Licenses - revocable - nontransferable. Every license issued pursuant to this article is revocable and nontransferable. No licensee acquires any vested interest or property right in a license. The gaming licenses issued pursuant to this article are only for the particular location initially authorized. The revocable privilege for any license issued or other approval granted is conditioned upon the proper and continuing qualification of the licensee or registrant and upon the discharge of the affirmative responsibility of each such licensee or registrant to provide to the regulatory, investigatory, and law enforcement authorities any assistance and information necessary to assure that the policies and requirements of this article are achieved.

ANNOTATION

License conditions and revocation authorized by law and constitution. The gaming commission was within its statutory authority in conditioning a key employee license on payment of back child support and taxes and revoking such license for failure to comply with such conditions. The gaming commission did not abuse its discretion or violate due process in so revoking the license where the licensee was given a reasonable opportunity to comply with such conditions, failed to provide requested income tax returns, and made false statements of material fact to the investigator regarding the filing of tax returns and where the gaming commission provided the licensee with substantial evidentiary leeway, allowed the licensee to cross-examine and impeach the investigator, and gave the licensee the opportunity to argue the proper standard for license revocation. Feeney v. Colo. Ltd. Gaming Control Comm'n, 890 P.2d 173 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-47.1-505. Operator, slot machine manufacturer or distributor, key employee, support licensee, or retailer - qualifications for licensure. Prior to a person's licensure as an operator, slot machine manufacturer or distributor, key employee, support licensee, or retailer, such person shall, in addition to meeting any other requirements imposed by this article, the commission, or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this article, show that he is of good moral character. Such person has the burden of proving his qualifications to the satisfaction of the commission. Such person shall submit to and pay for any background investigations as may be ordered by the commission. All such payments shall be deposited into the limited gaming fund.

ANNOTATION

Commission has statutory authority to consider any criminal history of an applicant that could be inimical to the purposes of the Limited Gaming Act, including an examination of a criminal record of seven arrests, conviction of three misdemeanors, and deferred sentences on two other misdemeanors. Moya v. Colo. Gaming Comm'n, 870 P.2d 620 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-47.1-506. Considerations for licensure. In considering whether a person is of good moral character for purposes of issuing any license pursuant to this article, or for any other purposes, the commission may, in addition to all other information, consider whether that person has been denied a gaming license by this or any other jurisdiction, city, state, or country, or whether the person has ever had a gaming license in this or any other jurisdiction, city, state, or country suspended or revoked. The commission may also consider whether a person has ever withdrawn an application for any type of gaming license anywhere and the reasons for such withdrawal.

12-47.1-508. Delegation of authority to issue certain licenses. The commission may delegate to the division the authority to issue permanent and temporary support and key employee licenses, but the commission shall review and approve the issuance of all other licenses issued pursuant to this article.

12-47.1-509. Licensed premises - retail floor plan - definitions. (1) For purposes of this section, "retail floor plan" means a physical layout of the inside of the building in which limited gaming will take place, which shall show the location of the licensed premises within the building.

(2) The retail floor plan shall be submitted to the commission with an applicant's application for a retail gaming license. Approval of the retail floor plan is subject to commission rules and those rules pertaining to the public health, safety, good order, and general welfare of the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek. All gaming devices shall be located within the licensed premises of a business.

(3) A licensed retailer may change the physical location of the licensed premises with the approval of the commission, the director, or the director's designee; however, in no event shall the licensed premises as modified violate any provision of this article or consist of more than two noncontiguous areas on one floor. Failure of the commission, the director, or the director's designee to deny an application to relocate the licensed premises in a building, within thirty days of such application, shall be deemed an approval thereof.

12-47.1-510. License - disqualification - criteria. (1) The commission shall deny a license to any applicant who is disqualified for licensure on the basis of any of the following criteria:

(a) Failure of the applicant to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the applicant is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this article;

(b) Failure of the applicant to provide information, documentation, and assurances required by this article or requested by the commission, failure of the applicant to reveal any fact material to qualification, or the supplying of information which is untrue or misleading as to a material fact pertaining to the qualification criteria;

(c) Conviction of the applicant, or any of its officers or directors, or any of its general partners, or any stockholders, limited partners, or other persons having a financial or equity interest of five percent or greater in the applicant, of any of the following:

(I) Service of a sentence upon conviction of a felony in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department within ten years prior to the date of the application, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(II) Service of a sentence upon conviction of any misdemeanor gambling-related offense or misdemeanor theft by deception in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department within ten years prior to the date of the application, notwithstanding section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(III) Service of a sentence upon conviction of any misdemeanor involving fraud or misrepresentation in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department within ten years prior to the date of the application, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(IV) Service of a sentence upon conviction of any gambling-related felony or felony involving theft by deception in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(V) Service of a sentence upon conviction of any felony involving fraud or misrepresentation in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(d) Current prosecution or pending charges in any jurisdiction against the applicant, or against any person listed in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), for any of the offenses enumerated in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1); except that, at the request of the applicant or the person charged, the commission shall defer decision upon such application during the pendency of such charge;

(e) The identification of the applicant or any person listed in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1) as a career offender or a member of a career offender cartel or an associate of a career offender or a career offender cartel in such a manner which creates a reasonable belief that the association is of such a nature as to be inimical to the policy of this article and to gaming operations. For purposes of this section, "career offender" means any person whose behavior is pursued in an occupational manner or context for the purpose of economic gain, utilizing such methods as are deemed criminal violations of the public policy of this state. For purposes of this section, "career offender cartel" means any group of persons who operate together as career offenders.

(f) Refusal to cooperate by the applicant or any person who is required to be qualified under this article with any legislative investigatory body or other official investigatory body of any state or of the United States when such body is engaged in the investigation of crimes relating to gaming, official corruption, or organized crime activity;

(g) The applicant, or any of its officers or directors, or any of its general partners, or any stockholders, limited partners, or other persons having a financial or equity interest of five percent or greater in the applicant is or has been a professional gambler as that term is defined in article 10 of title 18, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Constitutional. Gambling is a privilege, not a right, so federal due process rights are not affected. Assuming that an applicant has a sufficient property or liberty interest in the license so that a due process claim can be asserted, the restrictions to licensing in this section are reasonably related to the proper goal of assuring both honest gaming and the public perception that the gaming is honest. In addition, this reasonable relationship to a legitimate state interest is sufficient to result in the statute withstanding a claim that it is unconstitutional on its face as a violation of equal protection. DeMarco v. Gaming Control Comm'n, 855 P.2d 23 (Colo. App. 1993).

Commission has statutory authority to consider any criminal history of an applicant that could be inimical to the purposes of the Limited Gaming Act, including an examination of a criminal record of seven arrests, conviction of three misdemeanors, and deferred sentences on two other misdemeanors. *Moya v. 12-47.1-511. Applicants and licensees - providing information. (1) All applicants for licenses issued by the commission, and all persons holding such licenses, including all persons interested, directly or indirectly, in the gaming business or license held by an applicant or licensee, shall upon request by the commission or division provide handwriting exemplars, and each such person shall allow himself or herself to be photographed in accordance with procedures established by the commission.

(2) Upon issuance of a formal request or subpoena by the commission to answer or produce information, evidence, or testimony, each applicant and licensee shall comply with the request or subpoena. Where an applicant or licensee, or any employee or person interested, directly or indirectly, in either refuses or fails to comply with a commission request or subpoena, then that person's license or application may be suspended, revoked, or denied, based solely upon such failure or refusal.

(3) With the submission of an application for a license or an application for a finding of suitability pursuant to this article, each applicant shall submit a set of fingerprints to the commission. The commission shall forward such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Nothing in this subsection (3) shall preclude the commission from making further inquiries into the background of the applicant.

12-47.1-512. Application - fee - waiver of confidentiality. (1) The commission may establish investigation and application fees for the purpose of paying for the administrative costs of the commission and for paying for any background investigations of applicants and others. These fees may vary depending on the type of application, the complexity of the investigation, or the costs of the commission in reviewing the matters involved.

(2) The application form created by the commission shall include a waiver of any right of confidentiality and a provision which allows the information contained in the application to be accessible to law enforcement agents of this or any other state, the government of the United States, any foreign country, or any Indian tribe. The waiver of confidentiality shall extend to any financial or personnel record, wherever maintained.

12-47.1-513. Supplier of licensee - licensure requirements. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, any person supplying goods, equipment, devices, or services to any licensee in return for payment of a percentage, or calculated upon a percentage, of limited gaming activity or income must obtain an operator license or must be listed on the retailer's license where such limited gaming will take place.

(2) A licensed slot machine manufacturer or distributor need not obtain an operator's license or be listed on a retailer's license for purposes of establishing and administering a fund associated with a multiple-property, linked, progressive slot machine system as defined by the commission, so long as all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The manufacturer or distributor shall deposit in the fund and shall account, subject to supervision by the commission, for those moneys derived from wagering in machines linked to the system which are due to the manufacturer or distributor pursuant to its agreement with the retail licensee.

(b) The manufacturer or distributor shall maintain a separate account for the fund associated with each progressive system.

(c) The manufacturer or distributor shall retain as compensation only a flat, predetermined fee per machine. Operating costs of the system, including payment of prizes, may be disbursed from the fund.

(d) Machines linked to the system shall be placed only in premises controlled by a licensed operator or retailer.

12-47.1-514. Application - authorization for background investigations. By signing and filing an application for a license, which is hereby made subject to the perjury laws of this state, the applicant authorizes the commission to obtain information from any source, public or private, in this or any other country, regarding the background or conduct of the applicant and, if the applicant is a partnership or corporation, any of its shareholders, officers, directors, partners, agents, or employees.

12-47.1-515. License - grounds for approval or denial. The commission may approve or deny any application for a license, in addition to all other conditions and requirements set forth in this article and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, on the basis of whether it deems the applicant a suitable person to hold the license applied for and whether it considers the proposed location, retail floor plan, or any other conditions suitable. Refusal of an applicant to provide all information requested by the commission or to allow investigation into the applicant's background is grounds for denial of a license. Information requested from the applicant by the commission shall include the applicant's date of birth in addition to other information necessary to identify and investigate fully the record and relevant history of the applicant.

ANNOTATION

Commission has statutory authority to consider any criminal history of an applicant that could be inimical to the purposes of the Gaming Act, including an examination of a criminal record of seven arrests, conviction of three misdemeanors, and deferred sentences on two other misdemeanors. Moya v. Colo. Gaming Comm'n, 870 P.2d 620 (Colo. App. 1994).

Commission acted within its discretion and properly determined the applicant's unsuitability due to evidence presented of the applicant's propensity to steal based on applicant's several theft convictions. Moya v. Colo. Gaming Comm'n, 870 P.2d 620 (Colo. App. 1994).

Commission's order adequately specified both the statutory authority and the facts it relied on when making its decision to deny applicant a license, as the order stated that applicant had failed to meet the burden to prove applicant's qualification to hold a license and that applicant was not a suitable person to hold a license and as the Commission determined that applicant's criminal history established a pattern of disregard for lawful conduct. Moya v. Colo. Gaming Comm'n, 870 P.2d 620 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-47.1-516. Licensed premises - safety conditions - fire and electrical.

(1) (a) The building in which limited gaming will be conducted and the areas where limited gaming will occur shall meet safety standards and conditions for the protection of life and property as determined by the local fire official and the local building official. In making such determinations, the codes adopted by the director of the division of fire prevention and control within the department of public safety pursuant to section 24-33.5-1203.5, C.R.S., constitute the minimum safety standards for limited gaming structures; except that, in connection with structures licensed for limited gaming and operating as such on or before July 1, 2011, any newly adopted building codes shall not be applied retroactively to structures that were newly constructed or remodeled to accommodate licensed limited gaming.

(b) The local building official and the local historical preservation commission shall work together to ensure that neither historical preservation of existing buildings nor the safety of life are compromised.

(2) A certificate of compliance shall be issued to an applicant for a premises license by the local fire and building officials, and approved by the division of fire prevention and control. A copy of the local inspection report shall be filed with the state division of fire prevention and control. Once the division has deemed that the minimum requirements for fire prevention and control have been met, the division shall approve the certificate of compliance within five working days from receipt of the inspection report. If not acted upon within five days, the certificate of compliance shall be considered approved. Such certificate shall be current and valid and shall cover the entire building where limited gaming is conducted.

(4) In advance of any structural or significant change to the building or areas where limited gaming is conducted, the plans for such a change shall be submitted by the licensee holding a premises license to the local fire official and the local building official for their review. No changes may be made to the building or areas where limited gaming is conducted until the plans are approved by the local fire official and the local building official.

(5) The state division of fire prevention and control and the state historical society shall provide technical assistance to the local building officials, the local fire officials, the local historical preservation commissions, and the commission upon request.

(6) The commission shall act as an appeals board for any owner, fire official, building official, or the division of fire prevention and control who feels aggrieved by fire and life safety requirements or the lack of fire and life safety standards in buildings in which limited gaming will be conducted. If the commission fails to act upon an appeal within fourteen days after its receipt by the commission, the certificate of compliance shall be considered approved.

12-47.1-519. Renewal of licenses. (1) Subject to the power of the commission to deny, revoke, or suspend licenses, any license in force shall be renewed by the commission for the next succeeding license period upon proper application for renewal and payment of license fees and taxes as required by law and the regulations of the commission. The license period for a renewed license shall be the same period as the initial license period pursuant to section 12-47.1-501. In addition, the commission shall reopen licensing hearings at any time at the request of the director, the Colorado bureau of investigation, or any law enforcement authority. The commission shall act upon any such application prior to the date of expiration of the current license.

(2) An application for renewal of a license may be filed with the commission up to one hundred twenty days prior to the expiration of the current license, and all license fees and taxes as required by law shall be paid to the commission on or before the date of expiration of the current license. The commission shall set the manner, time, and place at which an application is made.

(3) Upon renewal of any license, the commission shall issue an appropriate renewal certificate or validating device or sticker which shall be attached to each license.

(4) Renewal of a license may be denied by the commission for any violation of this article or article 20 of title 18, C.R.S., or the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, for any reason which would or could have prevented its original issuance, or for any good cause shown.

12-47.1-525. Suspension or revocation of license - grounds - penalties. (1) (a) Any license granted pursuant to this article may be revoked for any cause that would have prevented its issuance, including those causes set forth in sections 12-47.1-510 and 12-47.1-801.

(b) Any license granted pursuant to this article may be suspended or revoked for any violation by the licensee or any officer, director, agent, member, or employee of a licensee of this article, any rule promulgated by the commission, any provision of part 6 of article 35 of title 24, C.R.S., or any rule promulgated by the executive director of the department of revenue pursuant to section 24-35-607 (3), C.R.S., or for conviction of a crime, after notice to the licensee and a hearing upon proof by a preponderance of the evidence as determined by the commission. In addition to revocation or suspension, or in lieu of revocation or suspension, the commission may impose a reprimand or a monetary penalty not to exceed the following amounts:

- (I) If the licensee is a slot machine manufacturer or distributor, the amount of one hundred thousand dollars;
- (II) If the licensee is an operator, the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars;
- (III) If the licensee is a retailer, the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars;
- (IV) If the licensee is a key employee, the amount of five thousand dollars;
- (V) If the licensee holds a support license, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars.

(2) Any monetary penalty received by the commission pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the limited gaming fund established in section 12-47.1-701.

(3) The civil penalties set forth in this section shall not be a bar to any criminal prosecution or to any civil or administrative prosecution.

ANNOTATION

License conditions and revocation authorized by law and constitution. The gaming commission was within its statutory authority in conditioning a key employee license on payment of back child support and taxes and revoking such license for failure to comply with such conditions. The gaming commission did not abuse its discretion or violate due process in so revoking the license where the licensee was given a reasonable opportunity to comply with such conditions, failed to provide requested income tax returns, and made false statements of material fact to the investigator regarding the filing of tax returns and where the gaming commission provided the licensee with substantial evidentiary leeway, allowed the licensee to cross-examine and impeach the investigator, and gave the licensee the opportunity to argue the proper standard for license revocation. *Feeney v. 12-47.1-527. Records - confidentiality - exceptions. (1) Information and records of the commission enumerated by this section are confidential and may not be disclosed except pursuant to a court order. No person may by subpoena, discovery, or statutory authority obtain such information or records. Information and records considered confidential include:

- (a) Tax returns of individual licensees;
- (b) Credit reports and security reports and procedures of applicants for licenses and other persons seeking or doing business with the commission;
- (c) Audit work papers, worksheets, and auditing procedures used by the commission, its agents, or employees; and
- (d) Investigative reports concerning violations of law or concerning the backgrounds of licensees, applicants, or other persons prepared by division investigators or investigators from other agencies working with the commission and any work papers related to such reports; except that the commission may in its sole discretion disclose so much of said reports or work papers as it deems necessary and prudent.

(2) This section does not apply to requests for such information or records from the governor, attorney general, state auditor, any of the respective district attorneys of this state, or any federal or state law enforcement agency, or for the use of such information or records by the executive director, director, or commission for official purposes, or by employees of the division of gaming or the department of revenue in the performance of their authorized and official duties.

(3) This section may not be construed to make confidential the aggregate tax collections during any reporting period, the names and businesses of licensees, or figures showing the aggregate amount of money bet during any reporting period.

(4) (a) Any person who discloses confidential records or information in violation of the provisions of this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. Any criminal prosecution pursuant to the provisions of this section must be brought within five years from the date the violation occurred.

(b) If the person who violates this section is an officer or employee of the state, in addition to any other penalties or sanctions, such person shall be subject to dismissal if the procedures in section 24-50-125, C.R.S., are followed.

(c) If the person violating such provisions is a present employee or officer of the state who obtained the confidential records or information during such employment, then in any civil action, the subject of which includes the release of such confidential records or information, such person shall be liable for treble damages to any injured party.

(d) If the person violating such provisions is a former employee or officer of the state who obtained the confidential records or information during such employment, and if such person executed a written statement with the state agreeing to be held to the confidentiality standards expressed in this subsection (4), then in any civil action, the subject of which includes the release of such records or information after leaving state employment, the former employee or officer shall be liable for treble damages to any injured party.

GAMING TAX

12-47.1-601. Gaming tax. (1) There is hereby imposed a gaming tax on the adjusted gross proceeds of gaming allowed by this article. The tax shall be set by rule promulgated by the commission. In no event shall the tax exceed forty percent of the adjusted gross proceeds. In setting the tax rate the commission shall consider the need to provide moneys to the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek for historic restoration and preservation; the impact on the communities and any state agency including, but not limited to, infrastructure, law enforcement, environment, public health and safety, education requirements, human services, and other components due to limited gaming; the impact on licensees and the profitability of their operations; the profitability of the other "for-profit" forms of gambling in this state; the profitability of similar forms of gambling in other states; and the expenses of the commission and the division for their administration and operation. The commission shall also consider the following:

(a) The amount shall never exceed the percentage provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution;

(b) The amount shall be established in conformity with the spirit and interest of this article so as to encourage business growth and investment in the gaming industry and to permit licensed operations, under normal business conditions and operation procedures, to realize a fair and just profit;

(c) The amount shall take into account unreimbursed local financial burdens associated with limited gaming-related operations;

(d) The amount shall take into account profit levels after expenses of other "for profit" gaming in Colorado and similar forms of gaming in other states;

(e) The amount shall take into account capital costs required to comply with local, state, or federal requirements; financial reserves required by the commission for payments to winners; and investments necessitated by regulatory requirements of the commission;

(f) The amount shall permit the licensed operator a reasonable profit after expenses, including:

(I) Capital costs associated with the licensed premises;

(II) Capital costs associated with limited gaming equipment;

(III) Capital costs required to comply with local or state requirements;

(IV) Extraordinary operating costs, including the provision of housing or transportation, or both, for employees;

(V) Initial costs associated with commencement of limited gaming;

(VI) Financial reserves required by the commission for payment to winners;

(VII) Investments necessitated by regulatory requirements of the commission; and

(g) If local voters in one or more cities revise any limits on gaming as provided in section 9 (7) (a) of article XVIII of the state constitution:

(I) Any commission action that increases the percentage of gaming taxes from the percentages imposed as of July 1, 2008, shall be effective only if approved by voters at a statewide election held under section 20 (4) (a) of article X of the state constitution; and

(II) Gaming tax revenues attributable to such locally approved revisions shall be collected and spent as a voter-approved revenue change without regard to any limitation contained in section 20 of article X of the state constitution or any other law.

(1.5) When adopting or amending any rule affecting the applicable tax rate or any other attribute or policy relating to application of the gaming tax authorized by subsection (1) of this section, the commission shall consider the impact on recipients of limited gaming tax proceeds, including those from extended limited gaming.

(2) (a) The department of revenue shall collect the amount of gaming tax on adjusted gross proceeds determined pursuant to subsection (1) of this section from the licensed retailer and shall have all of the powers, rights, and duties provided in articles 20, 21, and 26 of title 39, C.R.S., to carry out such collection. The commission shall authorize reimbursement to the department of revenue of the costs associated with collection of gaming tax on adjusted gross proceeds from licensed operators pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, upon documentation of such costs satisfactory to the commission.

(b) All moneys collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the limited gaming fund created by subsection (5) (a) of section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution.

12-47.1-602. Return and remittance. Not later than fifteen days following the end of each retail month, each licensed retailer shall make a return and remittance to the director on forms prescribed and furnished by the director. The director may grant an extension of not more than five days for filing a return and remittance; except that the director shall not grant more than two extensions during any one-year period. Unless an extension is granted, a penalty or interest under section 12-47.1-604 shall be paid if a return or remittance is not made on time.

12-47.1-603. Violations of taxation provisions - penalties. (1) Any person who:

(a) Makes any false or fraudulent return in attempting to defeat or evade the tax imposed by this article commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.;

(b) Fails to pay tax due under this article within thirty days after the date the tax becomes due commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.;

(c) Fails to file a return required by this article within thirty days after the date the return is due commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.;

(d) Violates either paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection (1) two or more times in any twelve-month period commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.;

(e) Willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under or in connection with any matter arising under any title administered by the commission or a return, affidavit, claim, or other document which is fraudulent or is false as to any material fact, whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(2) For purposes of this section, "person" includes corporate officers having control or supervision of, or responsibility for, completing tax returns or making payments pursuant to this article.

12-47.1-604. Returns and reports - failure to file - penalties. (1) (a) Any person who fails to file a return or report required by this article, which return or report includes taxable transactions, on or before the date the return or report is due as prescribed in section 12-47.1-602 is subject to the payment of an additional amount assessed as a penalty equal to fifteen percent of the tax or ten dollars, whichever is greater; except that, for good cause shown, the executive director may reduce or eliminate such penalty.

(b) Any person subject to taxation under this article who fails to pay the tax within the time prescribed is subject to an interest charge of two percent per month or portion thereof for the period of time during which the payment is late or five dollars, whichever is greater.

(c) (I) Penalty and interest are considered the same as a tax for the purposes of collection and enforcement, including liens, distraint warrants, and criminal violations.

(II) Any payment received for taxes, penalties, or interest is applied first to the tax, beginning with the oldest delinquency, then to interest and then to penalty.

(d) The executive director may, upon application of the taxpayer, establish a maximum interest rate of twenty-four percent upon delinquent taxes if the executive director determines that the delinquent payment was caused by a mistake of law and was not caused by an intent to evade the tax.

(2) The procedures for collection of any taxes and penalties due under this article and the authority of the department of revenue to collect such taxes and penalties shall be the same as those provided for the collection of sales taxes pursuant to articles 20, 21, and 26 of title 39, C.R.S.

PART 7

LIMITED GAMING FUND

12-47.1-701. Limited gaming fund - created. (1) There is hereby created in the office of the state treasurer the limited gaming fund. The fund shall be maintained and operated as follows:

(a) All revenues of the division shall be paid into the limited gaming fund. All expenses of the division and the commission, including the expenses of investigation and prosecution relating to limited gaming, shall be paid from the fund.

(b) (I) All moneys paid into the limited gaming fund shall be available immediately, without further appropriation, for the purposes of the fund. From the moneys in the limited gaming fund, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay all ongoing expenses of the commission, the department, the division, and any other state agency from whom assistance related to the administration of this article is requested by the commission, director, or executive director. Such payment shall be made upon proper presentation of a voucher prepared by the commission in accordance with other statutes governing payments of liabilities incurred on behalf of the state. Such payment shall not be conditioned on any appropriation by the general assembly. Receipt of such payment shall constitute spending authority by the division of gaming in the department of revenue.

(II) No claim for the payment of any expense of the commission, department, division, or other state agency shall be made unless it is against the limited gaming fund. No other moneys of the state shall be used or obligated to pay the expenses of the division or commission.

(III) The division shall be operated so that it shall be self-sustaining.

(c) The state treasurer shall invest the moneys in the limited gaming fund so long as said moneys are readily available to pay the expenses of the division. Investments shall be those otherwise permitted by state law, and interest or any other return on the investments shall be paid into the limited gaming fund.

(d) Pursuant to section 9 (5) (b) (II) of article XVIII of the state constitution, except for amounts required to be transferred to the extended limited gaming fund pursuant to section 12-47.1-701.5, and except for an amount equal to all expenses of the administration of this article for the preceding two-month period, at the end of each state fiscal year, the state treasurer shall distribute the balance remaining in the limited gaming fund as follows:

(I) Fifty percent shall be referred to in this section as the “state share” and shall be transferred to the state general fund or such other fund as the general assembly shall provide in subsection (2) of this section;

(II) Twenty-eight percent shall be transferred to the state historical fund created in section 9 (5) (b) (II) of article XVIII of the state constitution and distributed as specified in section 9 (5) (b) (III) of article XVIII of the state constitution and section 12-47.1-1201;

(III) Twelve percent shall be distributed to the governing bodies of Gilpin county and Teller county in proportion to the gaming revenues generated in each county; and

(IV) The remaining ten percent shall be distributed to the governing bodies of the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek in proportion to the gaming revenues generated in each respective city.

(2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), at the end of the 2010-11 state fiscal year and at the end of each state fiscal year thereafter, the state treasurer shall distribute the state share as follows:

(I) The first nineteen million two hundred thousand dollars of the state share shall be transferred to the state general fund;

(II) Any amount of the state share that is greater than nineteen million two hundred thousand dollars but less than or equal to forty-eight million five hundred thousand dollars shall be transferred as follows:

(A) Fifty percent to the Colorado travel and tourism promotion fund created in section 24-49.7-106, C.R.S.;

(B) Eighteen percent to the bioscience discovery evaluation cash fund for the implementation of the bioscience discovery evaluation grant program, created in section 24-48.5-108, C.R.S.;

(C) Fifteen percent to the local government limited gaming impact fund created in section 12-47.1-1601;

(D) Seven percent to the innovative higher education research fund created in section 23-19.7-104, C.R.S.;

(E) Five percent to the new jobs incentives cash fund created in section 24-46-105.7, C.R.S.;

(F) Four percent to the creative industries cash fund, created in section 24-48.5-301, C.R.S., for purposes of the council on creative industries, including the administration of the council; and

(G) One percent to the Colorado office of film, television, and media operational account cash fund, created in section 24-48.5-116, C.R.S., for the operation of the Colorado office of film, television, and media, for the performance-based incentive for film production in Colorado as specified in section 24-48.5-116, C.R.S., and for the Colorado office of film, television, and media loan guarantee program as specified in section 24-48.5-115, C.R.S.

(III) Any amount of the state share that is greater than forty-eight million five hundred thousand dollars shall be transferred to the state general fund.

(b) If a transfer specified in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) provides moneys for a purpose or program that is repealed or otherwise discontinued as of the date of the transfer, then the transfer shall not be made to that particular fund but shall instead be transferred to the state general fund.

12-47.1-701.5. Revenues attributable to local revisions to gaming limits - extended limited gaming fund - identification - separate administration - distribution - definitions. (1) (a) Immediately after the limited gaming tax revenues attributable to extended limited gaming are determined, the state treasurer shall transfer such revenues, together with any associated interest, to the extended limited gaming fund, also referred to in this section as the "fund", which is hereby created in the state treasury.

(b) The commission shall annually determine the amount of gaming tax revenues generated in each city from extended limited gaming and shall report such amounts to the state treasurer.

(2) Interest earned on moneys in the fund shall remain in the fund, and moneys remaining in the fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund or to any other fund. Interest earnings shall be distributed annually in accordance with paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section.

(3) From the fund, the state treasurer shall pay:

(a) First, that portion of the ongoing expenses of the commission and other state agencies that are related to the administration of extended limited gaming, as determined in accordance with rules of the commission. When making annual lump-sum distributions from the fund as described in subsection (5) of this section, the state treasurer may withhold an amount reasonably anticipated to be sufficient to pay such expenses until the next annual distribution.

(b) Second, annual adjustments, in connection with distributions to limited gaming fund recipients listed in section 9 (5) (b) (II) of article XVIII of the state constitution, to reflect the lesser of six percent, or the actual percentage, of annual growth in extended limited gaming tax revenues. As used in this paragraph (b), "annual adjustment" means an annual payment to limited gaming fund recipients listed in section 9 (5) (b) (II) of article XVIII of the state constitution, calculated as follows:

(I) For revenues collected in fiscal year 2009-10, the payment shall equal six percent of the first year's limited gaming revenues attributable to extended limited gaming.

(II) For each fiscal year after 2009-10, the annual payment shall be increased or decreased as follows and shall constitute the annual adjustment:

(A) For any year in which the annual growth of limited gaming revenues attributable to extended limited gaming exceeds or equals six percent, add an amount equal to six percent of said revenues;

(B) For any year in which the annual growth in limited gaming revenues attributable to extended limited gaming is between zero and six percent, add an amount equal to the actual percentage growth of said revenues;

(C) For any year in which limited gaming tax revenues experience a decline, subtract an amount equal to the actual percentage decline of said revenues.

(III) Nothing in this paragraph (b) shall be construed to permit compounding or accumulation of the annual adjustment.

(c) Of the remaining gaming tax revenues, distributions in the following proportions:

(I) Seventy-eight percent to the state's public community colleges, junior colleges, and local district colleges to supplement existing state funding for student financial aid programs and classroom instruction programs, including workforce preparation to enhance the growth of the state economy, to prepare Colorado residents for meaningful employment, and to provide Colorado businesses with well-trained employees. Such revenue shall be distributed to colleges that were operating on and after January 1, 2008, in proportion to their respective full-time equivalent student enrollments in the previous fiscal year. For purposes of such distribution, the state treasurer shall use the most recent available figures on full-time equivalent student enrollment calculated by the Colorado commission on higher education in accordance with paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section.

(II) Ten percent to the governing bodies of the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek to address local gaming impacts. Such revenue shall be distributed based on the proportion of extended limited gaming tax revenues that are paid by licensees operating in each city.

(III) Twelve percent to the governing bodies of Gilpin and Teller counties to address local gaming impacts. Such revenue shall be distributed based on the proportion of extended limited gaming tax revenues that are paid by licensees operating in each county.

(4) Definitions. As used in this section:

(a) "Colleges that were operating on and after January 1, 2008" means: Aims community college, Arapahoe community college, Colorado mountain college, Colorado North-western community college, the community college of Aurora, the community college of Denver, Front Range community college, Lamar community college, Morgan community college, Northeastern junior college, Otero junior college, Pikes Peak community college, Pueblo community college, Red Rocks community college, Trinidad state junior college, the two-year role and mission of Colorado Mesa university, currently referred to as Western Colorado community college division of Colorado Mesa university, the two-year academic role and mission of Adams state university, and the state board for community colleges and occupational education, for so long as each such college or board continues operating.

(b) "Extended limited gaming" means the extension of hours, games, or bet limits by a local vote in accordance with section 9 (7) (a) of article XVIII of the state constitution.

(c) (I) "Full-time equivalent student enrollment" means the number of in-state, full-time equivalent students enrolled at a college, as determined in accordance with article 7 of title 23, C.R.S., and the eligibility parameters contained in the "Policy for Reporting Full-Time Equivalent Student Enrollment" published as of January 1, 2008, by the Colorado commission on higher education, pursuant to its authority under section 23-1-105, C.R.S. The Colorado commission on higher education shall determine the full-time equivalent student enrollment for each college no later than August 15 of each year. For purposes of calculating a college's in-state, full-time equivalent student enrollment for any fiscal year, the number of students enrolled in certificate, AA, AS, AGS, or AAS degree courses and programs, as well as the nondegree-seeking students who are included as part of the community college role and mission for purposes of application to the department of higher education and enrollments in developmental courses by any students, regardless of degree intent, reported by the college to the department of higher education in its final student FTE report for that fiscal year shall be presumed correct; except that the following students shall be excluded:

(A) Students who are admitted to a college on a competitive basis and are not enrolled in certificate, AA, AS, AGS, or AAS developmental or vocational courses;

(B) Students who are admitted pursuant to the Colorado commission on higher education's undergraduate admissions standard index for a college or within the Colorado commission on higher education's admissions window for a college and are not enrolled in certificate, AA, AS, AGS, or AAS developmental or vocational courses; and

(C) Students who are enrolled in classes that are not supported by state general fund moneys.

(II) With respect to the two-year mission at Adams state university, full-time equivalent student enrollment shall be limited to enrollment in the associate's degree programs that existed as of November 4, 2008.

(d) "Limited gaming tax revenues attributable to extended limited gaming" means all limited gaming tax revenue in excess of the amount collected during fiscal year 2008-09, adjusted as follows:

(I) For revenues collected in fiscal year 2009-2010, reduced by a three percent growth factor on the 2008-2009 base of limited gaming tax revenues, which amount shall be added to the base and shall constitute the adjusted base; and

(II) Thereafter:

(A) Reduced by a three percent per fiscal year growth factor on the previous year's adjusted base, which growth factor shall be added to the previous fiscal year's adjusted base and shall constitute the new adjusted base; or

(B) If growth in limited gaming tax revenues is between zero and three percent in any fiscal year, the growth factor on the previous fiscal year's adjusted base shall be the actual percentage growth in limited gaming tax revenues, which shall be added to the previous fiscal year's adjusted base; or

(C) If limited gaming tax revenues decline from year to year, the previous fiscal year's adjusted base shall be reduced by the actual percentage decline in limited gaming tax revenue.

(e) "Other state moneys appropriated or otherwise allocated for similar programs or purposes" means all moneys distributed from the general fund of the state by the general assembly for higher education or for the support of any institution of higher education, including without limitation the colleges listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4). If the total amount of spending described in this paragraph (e) is reduced from one state fiscal year to the next, the percentage of such reduction for the colleges listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) shall not exceed the percentage of reduction in total general fund operating funding, including college opportunity fund stipends and fee-for-service funds, for all institutions of higher education during the same state fiscal year.

(f) “Previous fiscal year” means, with respect to a college receiving moneys under this section, the fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which moneys are made available to the college pursuant to this section.

(5) Method of distribution - distribution to colleges - relationship to funding from other sources. (a) On or before September 1 of each year, the state treasurer shall distribute all moneys from the fund to the recipients identified in paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section in the form of lump-sum payments. Distribution to colleges listed in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section shall be to the state board for community colleges and occupational education for those colleges listed in section 23-60-205, C.R.S., and to the respective governing boards of the colleges that are not so listed.

(b) Moneys distributed under this section to colleges listed in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section, and any interest or income earned on a college’s deposit of such moneys, shall supplement and shall not supplant any other state moneys appropriated or otherwise allocated for similar programs or purposes. As used in this subsection (5), “state moneys” means general fund operating funding, including college opportunity fund stipends and fee-for-service funds, adjusted for inflation to the same degree as the inflation adjustment received by other institutions of higher education.

(c) Any higher education funding formula that allocates state-appropriated moneys shall not use moneys distributed under this section to supplant state moneys otherwise allocated by such formula.

(d) Moneys distributed from the fund are hereby continuously appropriated to the governing boards of the colleges listed in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section. Such moneys shall be included for informational purposes in the annual general appropriation bill or in supplemental appropriation bills for the purpose of complying with any applicable constitutional and statutory limits on state fiscal year spending.

(6) Bonding authority. In addition to any other powers conferred by law, the governing body of each college listed in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section may issue bonds refundable from revenues received pursuant to this section.

12-47.1-703. Enforcement. It is the duty of all sheriffs and police officers in this state to enforce the provisions of this article, or article 20 of title 18, C.R.S., and the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission, either on their own motion or upon complaint of any person, including any authorized agent of the commission. Such sheriffs and police officers may exercise any authority of inspection and examination specified in this article. The district attorneys of the respective judicial districts of this state shall prosecute all violations of this article in the same manner as provided for other crimes and misdemeanors.

12-47.1-704. Attorney general - duties. (1) The attorney general shall provide legal services for the division and the commission at the request of the executive director, director, or the commission. The attorney general shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that there is continuity in the legal services provided and that the attorneys providing legal services to the division and the commission have expertise in such field.

(2) The commission, the executive director, or the director may request the attorney general to make civil investigations and enforce civil violations of rules and regulations of the commission, on behalf of and in the name of the division, and to bring and defend civil suits and proceedings for any of the purposes necessary and proper for carrying out the functions of the division.

(3) Expenses of the attorney general incurred in the performance of the responsibilities under this section shall be paid from the limited gaming fund.

UNLAWFUL ACTS

12-47.1-801. Limited gaming equipment manufacturers or distributors, operators, retailers, key employees, support licensees, persons contracting with the commission or division - criteria. (1) This section applies to the following persons:

- (a) All persons licensed pursuant to this article;
 - (b) With respect to privately held corporations licensed pursuant to this article, the officers, directors, and stockholders of such corporations;
 - (c) With respect to publicly traded corporations licensed pursuant to this article, all officers, directors, and stockholders holding either five percent or greater interest or a controlling interest;
 - (d) With respect to partnerships licensed pursuant to this article, all general partners and all limited partners;
 - (e) With respect to any other organization licensed pursuant to this article, all those persons connected with the organization having a relationship to it similar to that of an officer, director, or stockholder of a corporation;
 - (f) All persons contracting with or supplying any goods or service to the commission or the division;
 - (g) All persons supplying financing or loaning money to any licensee, when such financing or loan is connected with the establishment or operation of limited gaming;
 - (h) All persons having a contract, lease, or other ongoing financial or business arrangement with any licensee, where such contract, lease, or arrangement relates to limited gaming operations, equipment, devices, or premises.
- (2) Each of the persons described in subsection (1) of this section shall be:
- (a) A person of good moral character, honesty, and integrity notwithstanding section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;
 - (b) A person whose prior activities, criminal record, reputation, habits, and associations do not pose a threat to the public interests of this state or to the control of gaming or create or enhance the dangers of unsuitable, unfair, or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gaming or the carrying-on of the business or financial arrangements incidental to the conduct of gaming;
 - (c) A person who has not served a sentence upon conviction of any felony, misdemeanor gambling-related offense, misdemeanor theft by deception, or misdemeanor involving fraud or misrepresentation in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department within ten years prior to the date of applying for a license pursuant to this article, notwithstanding section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;
 - (d) A person who has not served a sentence upon conviction of any gambling-related felony, felony involving theft by deception, or felony involving fraud or misrepresentation in a correctional facility, city or county jail, or community correctional facility or under the supervision of the state board of parole or any probation department, notwithstanding section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(e) A person who has not been found to have seriously or repeatedly violated this article or any rule promulgated pursuant to this article; and has not knowingly made a false statement of material facts to the commission, its legal counsel, or any employee of the division.

ANNOTATION

License conditions and revocation authorized by law and constitution. The gaming commission was within its statutory authority in conditioning a key employee license on payment of back child support and taxes and revoking such license for failure to comply with such conditions. The gaming commission did not abuse its discretion or violate due process in so revoking the license where the licensee was given a reasonable opportunity to comply with such conditions, failed to provide requested income tax returns, and made false statements of material fact to the investigator regarding the filing of tax returns and where the gaming commission provided the licensee with substantial evidentiary leeway, allowed the licensee to cross-examine and impeach the investigator, and gave the licensee the opportunity to argue the proper standard for license revocation. Feeney v. Colo. Ltd. Gaming Control Comm'n, 890 P.2d 173 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-47.1-802. False statement on application - violations of rules or provisions of article as felony. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in any application for a license or in any statement attached to the application, or who provides any false or misleading information to the commission or the division, or who fails to keep books and records to substantiate the receipts, expenses, or uses resulting from limited gaming conducted under this article as prescribed in rules promulgated by the commission, or who falsifies any books or records that relate to any transaction connected with the holding, operating, and conducting of any limited gaming activity, or who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this article or any rule adopted by the commission or any terms of any license granted under this article, commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

This section is neither unconstitutionally overbroad nor unconstitutionally vague. People v. Luke, 948 P.2d 87 (Colo. App. 1997).

This section does not require that a "false or misleading" statement be material. People v. Luke, 948 P.2d 87 (Colo. App. 1997).

Where the defendant's capacity as chief executive officer for applicant was such that he could speak for the applicant, it is not necessary that the defendant have an individual key employee application pending or that the applicant be a licensee at the time the false statement is made or the misleading information is provided. People v. Luke, 948 P.2d 87 (Colo. App. 1997).

12-47.1-803. Slot machines - shipping notices. (1) (a) (I) Any slot machine manufacturer or distributor shipping or importing a slot machine into the state of Colorado shall provide to the commission at the time of shipment a copy of the shipping invoice which shall include, at a minimum, the destination, the serial number of each machine, and a description of each machine.

(II) Any person within the state of Colorado receiving a slot machine shall, upon receipt of the machine, provide to the commission upon a form available from the commission information showing at a minimum the location of each machine, its serial number, and description. Such report shall be provided regardless of whether the machine is received from a manufacturer or any other person.

(III) Any machine licensed pursuant to this section shall be licensed for a specific location, and movement of the machine from that location shall be reported to the commission in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

(b) Any person violating any provision of this section commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(c) Any slot machine that is not in compliance with this article is declared contraband and may be summarily seized and destroyed after notice and hearing.

(d) The commission shall promulgate rules setting the time and manner for reporting the movement of any slot machine.

(2) Slot machines which because of age and condition bear no manufacturer serial number shall be assigned a serial number by a remanufacturer of slot machines. Such new serial number shall be duly recorded as required by federal regulations.

(3) The director may approve a change to the registration of a slot machine under circumstances constituting an emergency. If the director approves such an emergency change, the registration of the slot machine shall not be suspended pending the filing of a supplemental application.

12-47.1-804. Persons prohibited from interest in limited gaming. (1) None of the following persons shall have any interest, direct or indirect, in any license involved in or with limited gaming:

(a) Officers, reserve police officers, agents, or employees of any law enforcement agency of the state of Colorado with the authority to investigate or prosecute crime in Teller or Gilpin counties or of any local law enforcement agency or detention or correctional facility within Teller or Gilpin counties;

(b) District, county, or municipal court judges whose jurisdiction includes all or any portion of Teller or Gilpin counties;

(c) Elected municipal officials or county commissioners of the counties of Teller and Gilpin and of the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek;

(d) Central, Black Hawk, or Cripple Creek city manager or planning commission member.

(2) No licensee may employ any person in any capacity while that person is in the employment of the commission or is in the employment of, or has a reserve police officer position with, a law enforcement agency of the state of Colorado with the authority to investigate or prosecute crime in Teller or Gilpin counties, any local law enforcement agency or detention or correctional facility within Teller or Gilpin counties, or any other county that may later be an authorized gaming location under section 12-47.1-105.

ANNOTATION

Subsection (1) did not impose unconstitutional restrictions on ballot access, the right to hold public office, and the right to vote where the state's substantial interest in avoiding corruption and the appearance of corruption in both the gaming industry and local government outweighed the limited burden that subsection (1) placed on ballot access, the right to hold public office, or on the right to vote. Lorenz v. State, 928 P.2d 1274 (Colo. 1996).

Prospective political candidates lacked standing to challenge subsection (1) on vagueness grounds where candidates owned a personal interest in gaming licenses or owned corporations that held gaming licenses. Lorenz v. State, 928 P.2d 1274 (Colo. 1996).

12-47.1-805. Responsibilities of operator. Every licensed operator and retailer having slot machines on his premises shall provide audit and security measures relating to slot machines, as prescribed by this article and by rules of the commission. Every licensed operator and retailer having slot machines on his premises shall ensure that the slot machines in his establishment comply with the specifications set forth in this article and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article.

12-47.1-809. Age of participants - violation as misdemeanor - applicability.

(1) (a) It is unlawful for any person under twenty-one years of age to:

(I) Linger in the gaming area of a casino;

(II) Sit on a chair or be present at a gaming table, slot machine, or other area in which gaming is conducted; or

(III) Participate, play, be allowed to play, place wagers, or collect winnings, whether personally or through an agent, in or from any limited gaming game or slot machines.

(b) Subparagraphs (I) and (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall not apply to a person employed by the casino in which the person is present.

(c) Nothing in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) shall prevent any person under twenty-one years of age from passing through a casino to nongaming areas.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to engage in limited gaming with, or to share proceeds from limited gaming with, any person under twenty-one years of age.

(3) (a) It is unlawful for any licensee to permit any person who is less than twenty-one years of age to:

- (I) Linger in the gaming area of a casino;
 - (II) Sit on a chair or be present at a gaming table, slot machine, or other area in which gaming is conducted; or
 - (III) Participate, play, place wagers, or collect winnings, whether personally or through an agent, in or from any limited gaming game or slot machine.
- (b) Subparagraphs (I) and (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall not apply to a person employed by the casino in which the person is present.
- (c) Nothing in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall prevent any person under twenty-one years of age from passing through a casino to nongaming areas.
- (4) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.
- (5) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section with a person under eighteen years of age may also be proceeded against pursuant to section 18-6-701, C.R.S., for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

12-47.1-823. Fraudulent acts. (1) It is unlawful for any person:

(a) To alter or misrepresent the outcome of a game or other event on which wagers have been made after the outcome is made sure but before it is revealed to the players;

(b) To place, increase, or decrease a bet or to determine the course of play after acquiring knowledge, not available to all players, of the outcome of the game or any event that affects the outcome of the game or which is the subject of the bet or to aid anyone in acquiring such knowledge for the purpose of placing, increasing, or decreasing a bet or determining the course of play contingent upon that event or outcome;

(c) To claim, collect, or take, or attempt to claim, collect, or take, money or anything of value in or from a limited gaming activity with intent to defraud and without having made a wager contingent thereon, or to claim, collect, or take an amount greater than the amount won;

(d) Knowingly to entice or induce another to go to any place where limited gaming is being conducted or operated in violation of the provisions of this article, with the intent that the other person play or participate in that limited gaming activity;

(e) To place or increase a bet after acquiring knowledge of the outcome of the game or other event which is the subject of the bet, including past-posting and pressing bets;

(f) To reduce the amount wagered or to cancel a bet after acquiring knowledge of the outcome of the game or other event which is the subject of the bet, including pinching bets;

(g) To manipulate, with the intent to cheat, any component of a gaming device in a manner contrary to the designed and normal operational purpose for the component, including, but not limited to, varying the pull of the handle of a slot machine, with knowledge that the manipulation affects the outcome of the game or with knowledge of any event that affects the outcome of the game;

(h) To, by any trick or slight of hand performance, or by fraud or fraudulent scheme, cards, or device, for himself or another, win or attempt to win money or property or a representative of either or reduce a losing wager or attempt to reduce a losing wager in connection with limited gaming;

(i) To conduct any limited gaming operation without a valid license;

(j) To conduct any limited gaming operation on an unlicensed premises;

(k) To permit any limited gaming game or slot machine to be conducted, operated, dealt, or carried on in any limited gaming premises by a person other than a person licensed for such premises pursuant to this article;

(l) To place any limited gaming games or slot machines into play or display such games or slot machines without the authorization of the commission;

(m) To employ or continue to employ any person in a limited gaming operation who is not duly licensed or registered in a position whose duties require a license or registration pursuant to this article; or

(n) To, without first obtaining the requisite license or registration pursuant to this article, be employed, work, or otherwise act in a position whose duties would require licensing or registration pursuant to this article.

(2) Any person issued a license pursuant to this article violating any provision of this section commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S., and any other person violating any provision of this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. If the person is a repeating gambling offender, the person commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-47.1-825. Use of counterfeit or unapproved chips or tokens or unlawful coins or devices - possession of certain unlawful devices, equipment, products, or materials.

(1) It is unlawful for any licensee, employee, or other person to use counterfeit chips in any limited gaming activity.

(2) It is unlawful for any person, in playing or using any limited gaming activity designed to be played with, to receive, or to be operated by chips or tokens approved by the commission or by lawful coin of the United States of America:

(a) Knowingly to use anything other than chips or tokens approved by the commission or lawful coin, legal tender of the United States of America, or to use coin not of the same denomination as the coin intended to be used in that limited gaming activity; or

(b) To use any device or means to violate the provisions of this article.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to possess any device, equipment, or material which he knows has been manufactured, distributed, sold, tampered with, or serviced in violation of the provisions of this article.

(4) It is unlawful for any person, not a duly authorized employee of a licensee acting in furtherance of his or her employment within an establishment, to have on his or her person or in his or her possession any device intended to be used to violate the provisions of this article.

(5) It is unlawful for any person, not a duly authorized employee of a licensee acting in furtherance of his or her employment within an establishment, to have on his or her person or in his or her possession while on the premises of any licensed gaming establishment any key or device known to have been designed for the purpose of and suitable for opening, entering, or affecting the operation of any limited gaming activity, drop box, or electronic or mechanical device connected thereto, or for removing money or other contents therefrom.

(6) Possession of more than one of the devices, equipment, products, or materials described in this section shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that the possessor intended to use them for cheating.

(7) It is unlawful for any person to use or possess while on the premises any cheating or thieving device, including but not limited to, tools, drills, wires, coins, or tokens attached to strings or wires or electronic or magnetic devices, to facilitate the alignment of any winning combination or to facilitate removing from any slot machine any money or contents thereof, unless the person is a duly authorized gaming employee acting in the furtherance of his or her employment.

(8) Any person violating any provision of this section commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.; except that, if the person is a repeating gambling offender, the person commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

In adopting the Limited Gaming Act of 1991, including the specific offenses included in this section, the general assembly intended that offenses defined in this section be prosecuted under the specific provisions of the act or under article 20 of title 18, C.R.S., rather than under the general offenses specified in other portions of title 18. Therefore, the district attorney had no discretion to charge the defendant with the broader offenses of burglary and possession of burglary tools for actions that violated the specific provisions of this section. People v. Warner, 930 P.2d 564 (Colo. 1996).

12-47.1-826. Cheating game and devices. (1) It is unlawful for any person playing any licensed game in licensed gaming premises to:

(a) Knowingly conduct, carry on, operate, or deal or allow to be conducted, carried on, operated, or dealt any cheating or thieving game or device; or

(b) Knowingly deal, conduct, carry on, operate, or expose for play any game or games played with cards or any mechanical device, or any combination of games or devices, which have in any manner been marked or tampered with or placed in a condition or operated in a manner the result of which tends to deceive the public or tends to alter the normal random selection of characteristics or the normal chance of the game which could determine or alter the result of the game.

(2) Any person violating any provision of this section commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.; except that, if the person is a repeating gambling offender, the person commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-47.1-827. Unlawful manufacture, sale, distribution, marking, altering, or modification of equipment and devices associated with limited gaming - unlawful instruction. (1) It is unlawful to manufacture, sell, or distribute any cards, chips, dice, game, or device which is intended to be used to violate any provision of this article.

(2) It is unlawful to mark, alter, or otherwise modify any associated equipment or limited gaming device in a manner that:

(a) Affects the result of a wager by determining win or loss; or

(b) Alters the normal criteria of random selection, which affects the operation of a game or which determines the outcome of a game.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to instruct another in cheating or in the use of any device for that purpose, with the knowledge or intent that the information or use so conveyed may be employed to violate any provision of this article.

(4) Any person issued a license pursuant to this article violating any provision of this section commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S., and any other person violating any provision of this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. If the person is a repeating gambling offender, the person commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-47.1-829. Detention and questioning of person suspected of violating article - limitations on liability - posting of notice. (1) Any licensee or an officer, employee, or agent thereof may question any person in the licensee's establishment suspected of violating any of the provisions of this article. A licensee or any officer, employee, or agent thereof is not criminally or civilly liable:

(a) On account of any such questioning; or

(b) For reporting to the division, commission, or law enforcement authorities the person suspected of the violation.

(2) Any licensee or any officer, employee, or agent thereof who has probable cause to believe that there has been a violation of this article in the licensee's establishment by any person may take that person into custody and detain him in the establishment in a reasonable manner and for a reasonable length of time. Such a taking into custody and detention does not render the licensee or the officer, employee, or agent thereof criminally or civilly liable unless it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the taking into custody or detention is unreasonable under all the circumstances.

(3) A licensee or any officer, employee, or agent thereof is not entitled to the immunity from liability provided for in subsection (2) of this section unless there is displayed in a conspicuous place in the licensee's establishment a notice in bold-face type clearly legible and in substantially this form:

Any gaming licensee, or any officer, employee, or agent thereof who has probable cause to believe that any person has violated any provision prohibiting cheating in limited gaming may detain that person in the establishment.

12-47.1-831. Authority, duties, and powers - department of revenue and department of public safety. (1) The gaming commission, the department of revenue, and the division shall regulate the gaming industry and enforce the gaming laws. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or limit the authority of local sheriffs or police officers to enforce all the provisions of this article or the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article.

(2) The Colorado bureau of investigation shall have authority for the following:

(a) Conduct criminal investigations and law enforcement oversight relating to violations of the "Colorado Organized Crime Control Act" article 17 of title 18, C.R.S., as these violations are reported by law enforcement officials, the gaming commission, the governor, or as discovered by the Colorado bureau of investigation.

(b) In cooperation with local law enforcement officials and the commission, the Colorado bureau of investigation shall develop and collect information with regard to organized crime in an effort to identify criminal elements or enterprises which might infiltrate and influence limited gaming and report such information to appropriate law enforcement organizations and the limited gaming commission.

(c) Prepare reports concerning any activities in, or movements into, this state of organized crime for use by the commission or the governor in their efforts to prevent and thwart criminal elements or enterprises from infiltrating or influencing limited gaming as defined in this article.

(d) Inspect or examine, during normal business hours, premises, equipment, books, records, or other written material maintained at gaming establishments as required by this article, in the course of performing the activities of the Colorado bureau of investigation as set forth in this section.

(3) The commission shall, in cooperation with the Colorado bureau of investigation, conduct background investigations of gaming license applicants, licensees, owners or tenants of property or premises upon which gaming is permitted or conducted, and key employees of such gaming establishments as defined in this article or by commission rule or regulation.

(4) Criminal violations of this article discovered during an authorized investigation or discovered by the limited gaming commission shall be referred to the appropriate district attorney.

(5) The director of the Colorado bureau of investigation shall employ such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities set forth in this article. The commission shall authorize payment to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the cost involved. Costs for activities relating to limited gaming shall be paid from the limited gaming fund pursuant to preestablished contracts or formal agreements, or both, including contracts or formal agreements on specific activities the department of public safety will complete for the commission and conditions for payment, the manner in which the commission and the department of public safety will review budgets and project resource needs in the future, and the level of cooperation established between the division, the Colorado bureau of investigation for conducting background investigations, and the Colorado state patrol for contracted services.

PART 9

CHARITABLE GAMING

12-47.1-901. Events sponsored by charitable organizations. (1) Any person licensed as a retailer, or as both a retailer and operator, may choose to allow a charitable organization to sponsor limited gaming at that retailer's licensed premises, if the following conditions are met:

(a) The organization is a charitable organization, which for purposes of this section means any organization, not for pecuniary profit, which is operated for the relief of poverty, distress, or other condition of public concern within this state and which has been so engaged for five years prior to making application to sponsor limited gaming under this article;

(b) The licensed operator or retailer and the charitable organization agree in writing upon all the terms and conditions of the sponsorship, and a copy of the written agreement is filed with the commission at least fourteen days prior to the day of the sponsored event;

(c) All sponsored events shall take place on licensed retail premises, and all requirements of this article shall apply to such events, unless specifically modified by this part 9; and

(d) Criminal violations of this article discovered during an authorized investigation or discovered by the commission shall be referred to the appropriate district attorney.

12-47.1-902. Terms of sponsorship. (1) All limited gaming events sponsored by charitable organizations pursuant to this part 9 shall, in addition to all the other requirements of this article, meet the following conditions:

(a) The agreement between the licensed operator or retailer and the charitable organization shall provide for the payment by the charitable organization to the retailer or operator of a flat fee or no fee; in return, the charitable organization shall receive one hundred percent of the adjusted gross proceeds, less the amount of taxes due on those proceeds as determined by the commission from gaming for each day of the sponsored event, or during all the hours of a sponsored event if less than a full day. The licensed operator or retailer shall report and pay taxes on the full amount of the adjusted gross proceeds from gaming sponsored by any charitable organization.

(b) A one-day sponsored event shall, for purposes of this part 9, begin at 8 a.m. on one day and end at 2 a.m. on the following day. For purposes of this section, no event shall be considered as less than a one-day event; except that a retailer may devote less than one full day to a charitable event.

(c) No retailer shall permit a single charitable organization to sponsor more than three days of limited gaming at that retailer's licensed premises during any calendar year; and no retailer shall permit more than thirty total days of sponsored events on its premises during any calendar year;

(d) No charitable organization shall sponsor more than three days of limited gaming during any calendar year;

(e) The charitable organization shall file notice of its intent to sponsor limited gaming at least fourteen days in advance with the commission, upon forms provided by the commission.

PART 10

EXCLUDED PERSONS

12-47.1-1001. Persons excluded or ejected - factors considered - legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that the exclusion or ejection of certain persons from licensed gaming establishments is necessary to carry out the policies of this article and to maintain effectively the strict regulation of licensed gaming.

(2) The commission may by rule or regulation provide for the establishment of a list of persons who are to be excluded or ejected from any licensed gaming establishment, including any person whose presence in the establishment is determined to pose a threat to the interest of the state of Colorado or to licensed gaming, or both. In making the determination for exclusion, the commission may consider any of the following:

(a) Prior conviction of a felony, a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a violation of the gaming laws of any state, the United States, or any of its possessions or territories, including Indian tribes;

(b) A violation, attempt to violate, or conspiracy to violate the provisions of this article relating to the failure to disclose an interest in a gaming establishment for which the person must obtain a license or make disclosures to the commission, or intentional evasion of fees or taxes;

(c) A reputation that would adversely affect public confidence and trust that the gaming industry is free from criminal or corruptive influences;

(d) Prior exclusion or ejection under the gaming regulations of any other state, the United States, any of its possessions or territories, or an Indian tribe which regulates gaming;

(e) Career or professional offenders or associates of career or professional offenders, and such others as defined by regulation of the commission.

(3) If the name and description of any person is placed on the exclusion list, the commission shall serve notice of that action upon the person by at least one of the following means:

(a) By personal service;

(b) By certified mail to the last-known address of the person; or

(c) By publication in one or more official newspapers in Teller and Gilpin Counties, Colorado. A person placed upon the exclusion list may contest that action by filing a written protest with the commission, and the protest shall be heard by the commission as a contested case.

(4) The commission may impose sanctions upon any licensee in accordance with the provisions of this article if such licensee fails to exclude or eject from the licensed premises any person placed by the commission on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected from licensed gaming establishments, which sanctions may include, but not be limited to, suspension, revocation, limitation, modification, denial, or restriction of any license.

12-47.1-1002. Emergency listing of persons to be excluded or ejected. (1) The commission, by rule and regulation, and notwithstanding the provisions of section 12-47.1-1001, may list persons to be excluded or ejected from any licensed gaming establishment, effective October 1, 1991, if the commission finds that listing such persons on an emergency basis is necessary to avoid danger to the public safety and if the public confidence and trust would be maintained only if such persons were listed on such an emergency basis.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-4-103 (6), C.R.S., the listing of persons to be excluded or ejected pursuant to this section expires one year after the adoption of the list, unless the provisions of section 12-47.1-1001 are followed for permanent listing.

(3) With respect to the finding of danger to public safety, the commission shall consider whether the persons have been listed on the list of persons excluded or ejected under the laws and regulations of the states of Nevada, New Jersey, South Dakota, and any other states, the United States, its territories or possessions, or any Indian tribe regulating gaming.

(4) Any rule adopted pursuant to this section shall be followed within thirty days after such emergency listing by the procedures set forth in section 12-47.1-1001. A listing pursuant to this section must be vacated upon the conclusion of the rule-making proceeding initiated under section 12-47.1-1001 if a determination is made by the commission that a person should not have been placed on the list of persons to be excluded or ejected.

PART 12

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Cross references: For additional information regarding the state historical society, see part 2 of article 80 of title 24.

12-47.1-1201. State historical fund - administration - legislative declaration - state museum cash fund - capitol dome restoration fund. (1) The state treasurer shall make annual distributions, from the state historical fund created by subsection (5) (b) (II) of section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (5) (b) (III) of said section 9. As specified in said subsection (5) (b) (III), twenty percent of the moneys in the state historical fund shall be used for the preservation and restoration of the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek. The remaining eighty percent of the fund shall be administered by the state historical society. Expenditures from the fund shall be subject to the provisions of section 12-47.1-1202. The society shall make grants from the eighty percent portion of said fund administered by the society for the following historic preservation purposes:

(a) The identification, evaluation, documentation, study, and marking of buildings, structures, objects, sites, or areas important in the history, architecture, archaeology, or culture of this state, and the official designation of such properties;

(b) The excavation, stabilization, preservation, restoration, rehabilitation, reconstruction, or acquisition of such designated properties;

(c) Education and training for governmental entities, organizations, and private citizens on how to plan for and accommodate the preservation of historic and archaeological structures, buildings, objects, sites, and districts;

(d) Preparation, production, distribution, and presentation of educational, informational, and technical documents, guidance, and aids on historic preservation practices, standards, guidelines, techniques, economic incentives, protective mechanisms, and historic preservation planning.

(2) (a) The society shall make grants primarily to governmental entities and to non-profit organizations; except that the society may make grants to persons in the private sector so long as the person requesting the grant makes application through a governmental entity. The selection of recipients and the amount granted to a recipient shall be determined by the society, which determination shall be based on the information provided in the applications submitted to the society.

(b) As used in this subsection (2), "governmental entity" means the state and any state agency or institution, county, city and county, incorporated city or town, school district, special improvement district, authority, and every other kind of district, instrumentality, or political subdivision of the state organized pursuant to law. "Governmental entity" shall include any county, city and county, or incorporated city or town, governed by a home rule charter.

(3) The society may expend a portion of the state historical fund administered by the society to cover such reasonable costs as may be incurred in the selection, monitoring, and administration of grants for historic preservation purposes. The society may employ such personnel in accordance with section 13 of article XII of the state constitution as may be necessary to fulfill its duties in accordance with this section.

(4) The society shall promulgate rules for the purpose of administering the state historical fund, which rules may include criteria for consideration in awarding grants from such fund and standards for preservation which are acceptable to the society and which shall be employed by grant recipients.

(5) (a) (I) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(A) The state historical society, which was founded in 1879, has a unique role as the state educational institution charged with collecting, preserving, and interpreting the history of Colorado and the west. The state formally recognized the state historical society as a state agency by statute in 1915, and the general assembly has continuously made appropriations for the society since that time.

(B) The state historical fund created by subsection (5) (b) (II) of section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution has grown significantly since its inception in 1991. In accordance with subsection (5) (b) (III) of section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution, the general assembly hereby determines that it is appropriate to provide funding for the state historical society through the state historical fund.

(C) The use of a portion of the state historical fund for the support needs of the state historical society is consistent with the preservation purposes of the fund and of the society.

(D) Grants from the state historical fund by the society pursuant to subsection (1) of this section serve the state and its people well in promoting preservation purposes and economic development throughout the state.

(II) Accordingly, it is the intent of the general assembly that the majority of the gaming revenues deposited in and available for distribution from the eighty percent portion of the state historical fund administered by the society shall continue to be used for such grants.

(b) Subject to annual appropriation, the society may make expenditures for reasonable costs incurred by the society in connection with fulfilling the society's mission as a state educational institution to collect, preserve, and interpret the history of Colorado and the west and carrying out other activities and programs authorized by statute or rule. Such reasonable costs may include capital construction and controlled maintenance expenditures relating to properties owned, managed, or used by the society.

(c) (I) All moneys received by the society shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the state historical fund or other funds authorized by law. Such moneys include, but are not limited to, grants, admission fees, user charges, concessionaire fees, rentals, commissions, store sales, service fees, program fees, membership fees, publications income, exhibit fees, special event fees, donations, and gifts.

(II) Except as otherwise specified in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), all interest and income derived from the deposit and investment of moneys in the state historical fund or other funds authorized by law shall remain in such fund or funds and shall not be transferred or revert to the general fund or any other fund at the end of any fiscal year; except that, for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2008, and for each fiscal year thereafter through the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2045, the society may direct the state treasurer to transfer any unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the state historical fund from the portion not reserved for the statewide grant program for preservation pursuant to subparagraph (B) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (5) at the end of the fiscal year to the state museum cash fund created pursuant to section 24-80-214, C.R.S. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of such funds pursuant to section 24-80-209, C.R.S.

(III) (A) For the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2010, the state treasurer shall transfer four million dollars from the state historical fund, from the portion reserved for the statewide grant program for preservation pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (5), at the beginning of the fiscal year to the capitol dome restoration fund, also referred to in this subparagraph (III) as the "fund", which is hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the fund are subject to appropriation by the general assembly for repairs and safety improvements to the state capitol dome and supporting structures and for no other purpose, and any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund as of June 30, 2011, shall not revert to the state historical fund or any other fund. The four million dollar transfer specified in this sub-subparagraph (A) shall be reduced, dollar for dollar, by moneys deposited into the capitol dome restoration trust fund as specified in section 2-3-1304.3 (6) (b), C.R.S., if any. This dollar-for-dollar reduction shall not reduce the authorized fees and expenses of any fundraising firm selected by the capital development committee for cause-related marketing for capitol dome repairs.

(B) For the fiscal years commencing July 1, 2011, and July 1, 2012, the state treasurer shall transfer up to four million dollars from the state historical fund, from the portion reserved for the statewide grant program for preservation pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (5), at the beginning of the fiscal year to the capitol dome restoration fund; except that the said four-million-dollar maximum amount shall be reduced, dollar for dollar, by the combined total of moneys deposited into the capitol dome restoration trust fund as specified in section 2-3-1304.3 (6) (b), C.R.S., if any, and grants for repairs and safety improvements to the state capitol dome and supporting structures made by the state historical society under the grants process set forth in subsection (1) of this section. This dollar-for-dollar reduction shall not reduce any authorized fees and expenses of any fundraising firm selected by the capital development committee for cause-related marketing for capitol dome repairs.

(C) For the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2013, the state treasurer shall transfer up to five million dollars from the state historical fund, from the portion reserved for the statewide grant program for preservation pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (d) of this subsection (5), at the beginning of the fiscal year to the capitol dome restoration fund; except that the said five-million-dollar maximum amount shall be reduced, dollar for dollar, by the combined total of moneys deposited into the capitol dome restoration trust fund as specified in section 2-3-1304.3 (6) (b), C.R.S., if any, and grants for repairs and safety improvements to the state capitol dome and supporting structures made by the state historical society under the grants process set forth in subsection (1) of this section. This dollar-for-dollar reduction shall not reduce the authorized fees and expenses of any fund-raising firm selected by the capital development committee for cause-related marketing for capitol dome repairs.

(D) In the event of an emergency contingency expenditure deemed necessary by the state architect and approved by the office of state planning and budgeting and the capital development committee, supplemental appropriations out of the capitol dome restoration trust fund created in section 2-3-1304.3 (6) (b), C.R.S., and the capitol dome restoration fund created in sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (III) may be made from any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the specified funds at any time.

(E) Prior to the end of the 2014-15 state fiscal year and after a complete accounting is available of the total in-kind and monetary donations received through the fundraising program established in section 2-3-1304.3, C.R.S., an end-of-project accounting shall occur based on the final total cost of the dome restoration construction project to ensure, through the annual general appropriations act, supplemental appropriations acts, or transfers between funds, as necessary, that all of the transfers from the state historical fund specified in sub-subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of this subparagraph (III) are reduced, dollar for dollar, by the combined total of moneys deposited into the capitol dome restoration trust fund as specified in section 2-3-1304.3 (6) (b), C.R.S., grants for repairs and safety improvements to the state capitol dome and supporting structures made by the state historical society under the grants process set forth in subsection (1) of this section, any money received for the recycling of salvaged building materials from the state capitol dome during the construction period, and any in-kind gifts and donations, such as materials or labor, that resulted in the reduction of the total cost of the construction. The total value of any in-kind gifts and donations for purposes of the dollar-for-dollar reduction specified in this sub-subparagraph (E) shall be calculated by the department of personnel and approved by the capital development committee as specified in section 2-3-1304.3 (6) (a) (II), C.R.S.

(F) Until completion of the capitol dome restoration project as reported by the state architect pursuant to section 2-3-1304.5, C.R.S., the Colorado historical society shall submit an annual report to the capital development committee on or before December 15 of each year concerning all grants awarded from the state historical fund.

(d) (I) The general assembly finds and declares that:

(A) To better preserve, study, and restore historical sites and objects throughout the state, it is in the best interest of the state to construct a new Colorado state museum and offices for the state historical society; and

(B) Construction of a new Colorado state museum and offices for the state historical society will provide improved historic preservation, education, planning, and interpretation of Colorado's heritage, including the identification, evaluation, study, and marking of buildings, structures, objects, sites, or areas important in the history, architecture, archeology, or culture of the state; the official designation of such properties as appropriate for preservation; and other activities described in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section.

(II) The general assembly reaffirms its intent that:

(A) The majority of the eighty percent portion of the state historical fund administered by the society shall continue to be used for the statewide grants for historic preservation purposes as described in subsection (1) of this section and may also be used to pay the administrative cost of the society in administering the grant program; and

(B) Costs associated with the new Colorado state museum shall be from the portion of the state historical fund not reserved for the statewide grant program for preservation, or from other moneys as designated by the general assembly.

(III) On or before October 1, 2008, the state treasurer shall transfer from the state historical fund to the state museum cash fund created pursuant to section 24-80-214, C.R.S., the sum of three million dollars. On or before October 1, 2009, the state treasurer shall transfer from the state historical fund to the state museum cash fund the sum of two million dollars. On or before October 1, 2010, the state treasurer shall transfer from the state historical fund to the state museum cash fund the sum of two million dollars.

(IV) For the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2011, and for each fiscal year thereafter through the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2045, so long as there are payments due on an agreement entered into pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of Senate Bill 08-206, as enacted at the second regular session of the sixty-sixth general assembly, the general assembly shall appropriate to the state historical society from the state historical fund an amount equal to the annual aggregate rentals or other payments due from state funds; except that the amount shall not exceed four million nine hundred ninety-eight thousand dollars in any given fiscal year.

12-47.1-1202. Expenditures from the state historical fund - legislative declaration.

(1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that when the voters approved the conduct of limited gaming in the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek they believed that all moneys expended from the state historical fund would be used to restore and preserve the historic nature of those cities and other sites and municipalities throughout the state. Together with the limitations contained in section 12-47.1-1201 on the expenditure of moneys in the fund that are subject to administration by the state historical society, this section is intended to assure that expenditures from the fund by the society and by the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek are used for historic restoration and preservation.

(2) The state historical society shall not expend moneys from the eighty percent portion of the state historical fund administered by the society unless they have adopted standards for distribution of grants from that portion of the fund. The standards shall allow for the appropriate use of sustainable solutions such as environmentally sensitive and energy efficient windows, window assemblies, insulating materials, and heating and cooling systems, as long as the use of such sustainable solutions does not adversely affect the appearance or integrity of a historic property. The standards shall further include requirements that assure compliance with the secretary of the interior's standards for treatment of historic properties.

(3) The governing bodies of the cities of Central, Black Hawk, and Cripple Creek shall not expend moneys from their twenty percent portion of the state historical fund unless they have adopted standards for distribution of grants from that portion of the fund. At a minimum, such standards shall include the following:

(a) Requirements that assure compliance with the secretary of the interior's standards for treatment of historic properties;

(a.5) A requirement that the city is a certified local government, as defined in section 12-47.1-103 (4.5), and that the city's historic preservation commission review and recommend grant awards to the governing body;

(b) A provision that prohibits a private individual from receiving more than one grant for the restoration or preservation of the same property within any one-year period;

(c) A provision that limits grants to property that is located within a national historic landmark district or within an area listed on the national register of historic places;

(d) A provision that limits grants for restoration or preservation to structures that have historical significance because they were originally constructed more than fifty years prior to the date of the application;

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 743, § 1, effective May 12, 2004.)

(f) A provision that prohibits issuing a grant to a private individual who does not own the residential property that is to be restored or preserved;

(g) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 743, § 1, effective May 12, 2004.)

(h) A provision that prohibits making grants for more than one year at a time;

(i) A provision that requires a member of the governing body to disclose any personal interest in a grant before voting on the application;

(j) A provision requiring the award of any grant in excess of fifty thousand dollars for any single residential property to be conditioned upon an agreement to repay the grant upon any sale or transfer of the property within five years of the date the grant is awarded. The amount to be repaid shall equal the amount of the grant less an amount equal to one-sixtieth of the amount of the grant for each full month occurring between the date the grant is awarded and the date of the sale or transfer of the property.

(k) A provision allowing for the appropriate use of sustainable solutions such as environmentally sensitive and energy efficient windows, window assemblies, insulating materials, and heating and cooling systems, as long as the use of such sustainable solutions does not adversely affect the appearance or integrity of a historic property.

(4) The provision contained in paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section that requires that the governing bodies of the specified cities not expend moneys from the state historical fund unless they adopt standards that include a provision that limits grants to property that is located within a national historic landmark district or within an area listed on the national register of historic places is not intended to affect the status of the cities as approved sites for limited gaming under section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution in the event that the status as a historical landmark district or listing on the national register of historic places is not maintained.

(5) The governing body of a city that is not a certified local government pursuant to paragraph (a.5) of subsection (3) of this section and that receives moneys from the state historical fund for historic preservation purposes shall not expend such moneys but instead shall create an independent restoration and preservation commission for the purpose of expending the moneys in accordance with part 17 of this article.

PART 16

LOCAL GOVERNMENT LIMITED GAMING IMPACT FUND

12-47.1-1601. Local government limited gaming impact fund - repeal.

(1) (a) There is hereby created in the office of the state treasurer the local government limited gaming impact fund, referred to in this part 16 as the "fund", and within the fund, there is created the limited gaming impact account and the gambling addiction account. Of the moneys transferred to the fund pursuant to section 12-47.1-701 (2) (a) (II) (C), ninety-eight percent shall be allocated to the limited gaming impact account and two percent shall be allocated to the gambling addiction account. Moneys in the limited gaming impact account shall be used to provide financial assistance to designated local governments for documented gaming impacts, and moneys in the gambling addiction account shall be used to award grants for the provision of gambling addiction counseling, including prevention and education, to Colorado residents. For the purposes of this part 16, "documented gaming impacts" means the documented expenses, costs, and other impacts incurred directly as a result of limited gaming permitted in the counties of Gilpin and Teller and on Indian lands.

(b) and (c) Repealed.

(4) (a) (I) After considering the recommendations of the local government limited gaming impact advisory committee created in section 12-47.1-1602, the moneys from the limited gaming impact account shall be distributed at the authority of the executive director of the department of local affairs to eligible local governmental entities upon their application for grants to finance planning, construction, and maintenance of public facilities and the provision of public services related to the documented gaming impacts. At the end of any fiscal year, all unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the limited gaming impact account shall remain available for expenditure in any subsequent fiscal year without further appropriation by the general assembly.

(II) Notwithstanding any provision of this paragraph (a) to the contrary, on April 15, 2010, the executive director of the department of local affairs shall distribute the moneys from the limited gaming impact account that were transferred in the 2008-09 state fiscal year for use in the 2009-10 state fiscal year.

(a.5) (I) For the 2008-09 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the executive director of the department of human services shall use the moneys in the gambling addiction account to award grants for the purpose of providing gambling addiction counseling services to Colorado residents. The department of human services may use a portion of the moneys in the gambling addiction account, not to exceed ten percent in the 2008-09 fiscal year and five percent in each fiscal year thereafter, to cover the department's direct and indirect costs associated with administering the grant program authorized in this paragraph (a.5). Grants shall be awarded to state or local public or private entities or programs that provide gambling addiction counseling services and that have or are seeking nationally accredited gambling addiction counselors. For the 2008-09 through 2011-12 fiscal years, the executive director of the department of human services shall award ten percent of the moneys in the gambling addiction account in grants to addiction counselors who are actively pursuing national accreditation as gambling addiction counselors. In order to qualify for an accreditation grant, an addiction counselor applicant shall provide sufficient proof that he or she has completed at least half of the counseling hours required for national accreditation. The executive director of the department of human services shall adopt rules establishing the procedure for applying for a grant from the gambling addiction account, the criteria for awarding grants and prioritizing applications, and any other provision necessary for the administration of the grant applications and awards. Neither the entity, program, or gambling addiction counselor providing the gambling addiction counseling services nor the recipients of the counseling services need to be located within the jurisdiction of an eligible local governmental entity in order to receive a grant or counseling services. At the end of any fiscal year, all unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the gambling addiction account shall remain in the account and shall not revert to the general fund or any other fund or account.

(II) By January 1, 2009, and by each January 1 thereafter, the department of human services shall submit a report to the health and human services committees of the senate and house of representatives, or their successor committees, regarding the grant program. The report shall detail the following information for the fiscal year in which the report is submitted:

(A) The amount of moneys allocated to the gambling addiction account pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section;

(B) The number of grant applications received and the total amount of grant moneys requested by grant applicants;

(C) The total amount of moneys in the gambling addiction account that was awarded as grants to applicants; and

(D) The entities or programs that received grants and the amount of grant moneys each grant recipient received.

(III) This paragraph (a.5) is repealed, effective July 1, 2013. Any moneys remaining in the gambling addiction account on June 30, 2013, shall be transferred to the limited gaming impact account.

(b) For the purposes of this part 16, the term "eligible local governmental entity" means the following local governmental entities:

(I) The counties of Boulder, Clear Creek, Grand, Jefferson, El Paso, Fremont, Park, Douglas, Gilpin, Teller, La Plata, Montezuma, and Archuleta;

(II) Any municipality located within the boundaries of any county set forth in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), except the City of Central, the City of Black Hawk, and the City of Cripple Creek; and

(III) Any special district providing emergency services within the boundaries of any county set forth in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b).

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of this section, neither the City of Woodland Park nor the City of Victor shall be eligible local governmental entities prior to July 1, 2002.

(6) (a) (I) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, moneys accruing to the fund on and after July 1, 2002, and any previously transferred unencumbered moneys in the fund on July 1, 2003, shall be transferred to the general fund. Transfers to the fund shall resume as otherwise provided in this section for any state fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 2004.

(II) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, on April 20, 2009, the state treasurer shall deduct nine hundred fifty thousand dollars from the fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

(b) If the total amount of revenues collected by the department for state taxes paid pursuant to the tax amnesty program established in section 39-21-201, C.R.S., exceeds the amount of five million dollars, then an amount equal to the amount of any such excess shall be transferred from the general fund to the fund on or before September 1, 2003. In no event shall the amount transferred pursuant to this paragraph (b) exceed the amount transferred to the general fund pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6).

(7) Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, on June 1, 2009, the state treasurer shall deduct one hundred thousand dollars from the fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

(8) Notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary, on June 30, 2010, the state treasurer shall deduct two million dollars from the fund and transfer such sum to the general fund.

12-47.1-1602. Local government limited gaming impact advisory committee - creation - duties. (1) There is hereby created within the department of local affairs a local government limited gaming impact advisory committee, referred to in this section as the "committee". The committee shall be composed of the following thirteen members:

- (a) The executive director of the department of local affairs;
- (b) Two members, one of whom shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the executive director of the department of public safety and one who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the executive director of the department of revenue;
- (c) Three members representing the counties eligible to receive moneys from the fund pursuant to section 12-47.1-1601 (4) who shall serve at the pleasure of the boards and who shall be appointed as follows:
 - (I) One member shall be appointed by the chairs of the boards of county commissioners from the counties impacted by gaming in the City of Cripple Creek who shall serve a term of four years, except the initial appointee who shall serve a term of two years;
 - (II) One member shall be appointed by the chairs of the boards of county commissioners from the counties impacted by gaming in the City of Central and the City of Black Hawk who shall serve a term of four years; and
 - (III) One member shall be appointed by the chairs of the boards of county commissioners from the counties impacted by tribal gaming who shall serve a term of four years.
- (d) Two members representing the municipalities eligible to receive moneys from the fund pursuant to section 12-47.1-1601 (4) to be appointed by the mayors of the municipalities and who shall serve at the pleasure of the mayors for terms of four years; except that one of the initial appointees shall serve a term of two years. Not more than one member shall be selected pursuant to this paragraph (d) from each of the groups of counties described in subparagraphs (I) to (III) of paragraph (c) of this subsection (1).
- (e) One member representing the special districts providing emergency services that are eligible to receive moneys from the fund pursuant to section 12-47.1-1601 (4) to be appointed by and who shall serve at the pleasure of the director of the division in the department of public health and environment responsible for statewide emergency medical and trauma services management;
- (f) One member of the Colorado house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and who shall serve at the pleasure of the speaker;
- (g) One member of the Colorado senate to be appointed by the president of the senate and who shall serve at the pleasure of the president; and
- (h) Two members representing the governor, to be appointed by the governor and who shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

(1.5) The terms of the members appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate who are serving on March 22, 2007, shall be extended to and expire on or shall terminate on the convening date of the first regular session of the sixty-seventh general assembly. As soon as practicable after such convening date, the speaker and the president shall each appoint or reappoint one member in the same manner as provided in paragraphs (f) and (g) of subsection (1) of this section. Thereafter, the terms of the members appointed or reappointed by the speaker and the president shall expire on the convening date of the first regular session of each general assembly, and all subsequent appointments and reappointments by the speaker and the president shall be made as soon as practicable after such convening date. The person making the original appointment or reappointment shall fill any vacancy by appointment for the remainder of an unexpired term. Members appointed or reappointed by the speaker and the president shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority and shall continue in office until the member's successor is appointed.

(2) The executive director of the department of local affairs shall convene the first meeting of the committee. The committee shall select a chair of the committee, from among the committee members, who shall convene the committee from time to time as the committee deems necessary.

(3) The committee shall have the following duties:

(a) To establish a standardized methodology and criteria for documenting, measuring, assessing, and reporting the documented gaming impacts upon eligible local governmental entities;

(b) To review the documented gaming impacts upon eligible local governmental entities on a continuing basis;

(c) To review grant applications from eligible local governmental entities, individually or in cooperation with other eligible local governmental entities, based upon the needs of the entities and the documented gaming impacts on the entities;

(d) To make funding recommendations on a continuing basis to be considered by the executive director in making funding decisions for grant applications submitted by eligible local governmental entities pursuant to section 12-47.1-1601 (4) (a).

PART 17

INDEPENDENT RESTORATION AND PRESERVATION COMMISSION

12-47.1-1701. Definitions. As used in this part 17, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “City” means a city that is not a certified local government as defined in section 12-47.1-103 (4.5) and that receives moneys from the state historical fund for historic preservation purposes.

(2) “Commission” means an independent restoration and preservation commission created pursuant to section 12-47.1-1202 (5).

Source: L. 2009: Entire part added, (SB 09-101), ch. 433, p. 2400, § 4, effective August 1.

12-47.1-1702. Independent restoration and preservation commission - appointments - qualifications - new appointments - appointments without nominations.

(1) Pursuant to section 12-47.1-1202 (5), the governing body of a city shall create an independent restoration and preservation commission. The governing body shall appoint seven members to the commission as follows:

(a) Two persons who are architects shall be appointed from nominees submitted by the Colorado chapter of the American institute of architects or any successor organization.

(b) Two persons who are experts in historic preservation shall be appointed from nominees submitted by the Colorado historical society.

(c) Two persons who shall each have a degree in either urban planning or landscape architecture shall be appointed from nominees submitted by the Colorado chapter of the American planning association or any successor organization.

(d) One person who is a member of the community shall be appointed directly by the governing body of the city.

(2) In making appointments to the commission, the governing body of the city shall give due consideration to maintaining a balance of interests and skills in the composition of the commission and to the individual qualifications of the candidates, including their training, experience, and knowledge in the areas of architecture, landscape architecture, the history of the community, real estate, law, and urban planning.

(3) At any time that the term of office of a member of the commission is due to expire or when a member resigns, the governing body of the city shall request at least two nominees for each such opening from the appropriate entity listed in subsection (1) of this section; except that no such requirement shall apply to the member of the community appointed directly by the governing body. The governing body shall make the appointments from the appropriate list of nominations.

(4) If the nominations required to make appointments or to fill vacancies have not been received by the governing body of the city within forty-five days after a written request for the required list has been sent to the nominating entity, the governing body may appoint members of the commission without nominations. However, the governing body shall give consideration to the qualifications of the appointee as if such appointee were nominated by the designated nominating entity.

(5) Members of the commission shall be appointed by and shall serve at the pleasure of the governing body of the city. Each member shall continue to serve until the member's successor has been duly appointed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and is acting, but no such period shall extend more than ninety days past the expiration of the first member's term. The governing body shall determine the length of terms and whether the terms are staggered.

12-47.2-102. Effective date of compact. The tribal-state compact entered into between the governor and an Indian tribe governing gaming activities on the Indian lands of the Indian tribe shall take effect when notice of approval of such compact by the secretary of the federal department of the interior has been published by said secretary in the federal register.

12-47.2-103. Provisions of compact. (1) Any tribal-state compact entered into pursuant to section 12-47.2-101 may include, but shall not be limited to, the following provisions:

- (a) The application of the criminal and civil laws and regulations of the Indian tribe or of this state that are directly related to, and necessary for, the licensing and regulation of such activity;
 - (b) The allocation of criminal and civil jurisdiction between this state and the Indian tribe necessary for the enforcement of such laws and regulations;
 - (c) The assessment by this state of such activities in such amounts as are necessary to defray the costs of regulating such activity;
 - (d) Taxation by the Indian tribe of such activity in amounts comparable to amounts assessed by this state for comparable activities;
 - (e) Remedies for breach of contract;
 - (f) Standards for the operation of such activity and maintenance of the gaming facility, including licensing; and
 - (g) Any other subjects that are directly related to the operation of gaming activities.
- (2) It is the intent of the general assembly that the restrictions set forth in section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution shall apply to limited gaming activities on tribal lands.

Editor's note: The provisions in this section were renumbered in 1999 for ease of location.

12-48-103. Grounds for issuance of special permits.

(1) Repealed.

(2) (a) A special event permit may be issued under this section notwithstanding the fact that the special event is to be held on premises licensed under the provisions of section 12-47-403, 12-47-403.5, 12-47-416, 12-47-417, or 12-47-422. The holder of a special event permit issued pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be responsible for any violation of article 47 of this title.

(b) If a violation of this article or of article 47 of this title occurs during a special event wine festival and the responsible licensee can be identified, such licensee may be charged and the appropriate penalties may apply. If the responsible licensee cannot be identified, the state licensing authority may send written notice to every licensee identified on the permit applications and may fine each the same dollar amount. Such fine shall not exceed twenty-five dollars per licensee or two hundred dollars in the aggregate. No joint fine levied pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall apply to the revocation of a limited wineries license under section 12-47-601.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit the sale or dispensing of malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors on any closed street, highway, or public byway for which a special event permit has been issued.

12-48-104. Fees for special permits. (1) Special event permit fees are:

(a) Ten dollars per day for a malt beverage permit;

(b) Twenty-five dollars per day for a malt, vinous, and spirituous liquor permit.

(2) All fees are payable in advance to the department of revenue for applications for special event permits submitted to the state licensing authority for approval.

Source: L. 71: p. 867, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 75-3-4. L. 2011: (2) amended, (SB 11-066), ch. 206, p. 880, § 3, effective August 10.

12-48-105. Restrictions related to permits. (1) Each special event permit shall be issued for a specific location and is not valid for any other location.

(2) A special event permit authorizes sale of the beverage or the liquors specified only during the following hours:

(a) Between the hours of five a.m. of the day specified in a malt beverage permit and until twelve midnight on the same day;

(b) Between the hours of seven a.m. of the day specified in a malt, vinous, and spirituous liquor permit and until two a.m. of the day immediately following.

(3) The state or a local licensing authority shall not issue a special event permit to any organization for more than fifteen days in one calendar year.

(4) No issuance of a special event permit shall have the effect of requiring the state or local licensing authority to issue such a permit upon any subsequent application by an organization.

(5) Sandwiches or other food snacks shall be available during all hours of service of malt, spirituous, or vinous liquors, but prepared meals need not be served.

Source: L. 71: p. 867, § 1. C.R.S. 1963: § 75-3-5. L. 76: (3) and (4) amended and (5) added, p. 508, § 3, effective April 30. L. 2011: (3) amended, (SB 11-066), ch. 206, p. 880, § 4, effective August 10.

12-48-106. Grounds for denial of special permit. (1) The state or local licensing authority may deny the issuance of a special event permit upon the grounds that the issuance would be injurious to the public welfare because of the nature of the special event, its location within the community, or the failure of the applicant in a past special event to conduct the event in compliance with applicable laws.

(2) Public notice of the proposed permit and of the procedure for protesting issuance of the permit shall be conspicuously posted at the proposed location for at least ten days before approval of the permit by the local licensing authority.

12-48-107. Applications for special permit. (1) Applications for a special event permit shall be made with the appropriate local licensing authority on forms provided by the state licensing authority and shall be verified by oath or affirmation of an officer of the organization or of the political candidate making application.

(2) In addition to the fees provided in section 12-48-104, an applicant shall include payment of a fee established by the local licensing authority, not to exceed one hundred dollars, for both investigation and issuance of a permit. Upon approval of any application, the local licensing authority shall notify the state licensing authority of the approval, except as provided by subsection (5) of this section. The state licensing authority shall promptly act and either approve or disapprove the application. In reviewing an application, the local licensing authority shall apply the same standards for approval and denial applicable to the state licensing authority under this article.

(3) The local licensing authority shall cause a hearing to be held if, after investigation and upon review of the contents of any protest filed by affected persons, sufficient grounds appear to exist for denial of a permit. Any protest shall be filed by affected persons within ten days after the date of notice pursuant to section 12-48-106 (2). Any hearing required by this subsection (3) or any hearing held at the discretion of the local licensing authority shall be held at least ten days after the initial posting of the notice, and notice thereof shall be provided the applicant and any person who has filed a protest.

(4) The local licensing authority may assign all or any portion of its functions under this article to an administrative officer.

(5) (a) A local licensing authority may elect not to notify the state licensing authority to obtain the state licensing authority's approval or disapproval of an application for a special event permit. The local licensing authority is required only to report to the liquor enforcement division, within ten days after it issues a permit, the name of the organization to which a permit was issued, the address of the permitted location, and the permitted dates of alcohol beverage service.

(b) A local licensing authority electing not to notify the state licensing authority shall promptly act upon each application and either approve or disapprove each application for a special event permit.

(c) The state licensing authority shall establish and maintain a web site containing the statewide permitting activity of organizations that receive permits under this article. In order to ensure compliance with section 12-48-105 (3), which restricts the number of permits issued to an organization in a calendar year, the local licensing authority shall access information made available on the web site of the state licensing authority to determine the statewide permitting activity of the organization applying for the permit. The local licensing authority shall consider compliance with section 12-48-105 (3) before approving any application.

ANNOTATION

The Colorado Massage Parlor Code is not unconstitutionally vague so as to violate due process of law; nor is it in violation of equal protection of the laws or the principle of constitutional overbreadth. Regency Servs. v. Bd. of Co. Comm’rs, 819 P. 2d 1049 (Colo. 1991).

There is no fundamental right to operate a massage parlor; therefore, a rational basis standard of review is applied to determine the validity of massage parlor regulations. Regency Servs. v. Bd. of Co. Comm’rs, 819 P. 2d 1049 (Colo. 1991).

Applied in R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm’rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

12-48.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “License” means a grant to a licensee to operate a massage parlor.

(2) “Licensed premises” means the premises specified in an approved application for a license under this article which are owned or in the possession of the licensee and within which such licensee is authorized to carry on the practice of massage.

(3) “Local licensing authority” means the governing body of a municipality or city and county, the board of county commissioners of a county, or any authority designated by municipal or county charter, municipal ordinance, or county resolution.

(4) “Location” means a particular parcel of land that may be identified by an address or by other descriptive means.

(5) "Massage" means a method of treating the body for remedial or hygienic purposes, including but not limited to rubbing, stroking, kneading, or tapping with the hand or an instrument or both.

(6) "Massage parlor" means an establishment providing massage, but it does not include training rooms of public and private schools accredited by the state board of education or approved by the division charged with the responsibility of approving private occupational schools, training rooms of recognized professional or amateur athletic teams, and licensed health care facilities. A facility that is operated for the purpose of massage therapy performed by a massage therapist is not a massage parlor. For purposes of this subsection (6), "massage therapist" has the meaning set forth in section 12-35.5-103. For the purposes of this subsection (6), a massage therapy school may include an equivalency program approved by the state educational board or division charged with the responsibility of approving private occupational schools.

(7) "Person" means a natural person, partnership, association, company, corporation, organization, or managing agent, servant, officer, or employee of any of them.

(8) "Premises" means a distinct and definite location which may include a building, a part of a building, a room, or any other definite area contiguous thereto.

12-48.5-104. Licensing - general provisions. (1) All licenses granted pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of their issuance unless revoked or suspended pursuant to section 12-48.5-107.

(2) Application for the renewal of an existing license shall be made to the local licensing authority not less than forty-five days prior to the date of expiration. The local licensing authority may cause a hearing on the application for renewal to be held. No such renewal hearing shall be held by the local licensing authority until a notice of hearing has been conspicuously posted on the licensed premises for a period of ten days and notice of the hearing has been provided the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing. The local licensing authority may refuse to renew any license for good cause, subject to judicial review.

(3) Upon receipt of an application for a license to operate a massage parlor, the local licensing authority shall, at its next regular meeting, set the boundaries of the neighborhood to be considered pursuant to subsection (4) of this section in determining whether or not to grant said license. At such time the applicant or any other interested party may attend and present evidence regarding said boundaries.

(4) Before granting any license, the local licensing authority shall consider, except where this article specifically provides otherwise, the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood, the desires of the inhabitants as evidenced by petitions, remonstrances, or otherwise, and all other reasonable restrictions which are or may be placed on the neighborhood by the local licensing authority.

(5) Each license issued under this article is separate and distinct, and no person shall exercise any of the privileges granted under any license other than that which he holds. A separate license shall be issued for each specific business or business entity and each geographical location.

(6) No license granted under the provisions of this article shall be transferable as to ownership except as provided in subsection (9) of this section.

(7) No changes of location for licensed premises shall be allowed.

(8) When a license has been issued to a husband and wife or to general or limited partners, the death of a spouse or partner shall not require the surviving spouse or partner to obtain a new license. All rights and privileges granted under the original license shall continue in full force and effect as to such survivors for the balance of the license.

(9) For any other transfer of ownership, application shall be made to the local licensing authority on forms prepared and furnished by the local licensing authority. In determining whether to permit a transfer of ownership, the local licensing authority shall consider only the requirements of section 12-48.5-108. The local licensing authority may cause a hearing on the application for transfer of ownership to be held. No such hearing shall be held by the local licensing authority until the notice of hearing has been conspicuously posted on the licensed premises for a period of ten days and notice of the hearing has been provided the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing.

(10) The licenses provided pursuant to this article shall specify the date of issuance, the period which is covered, the name of the licensee, and the premises licensed. Said license shall be conspicuously placed at all times in the massage parlor thereby licensed.

ANNOTATION

Councilman's actions not violative of due process. Where a councilman helps organize a petition drive in opposition to a proposed massage parlor and disqualifies himself from voting on the license application, then appears at, and participates in, the public hearing on the massage parlor license, such actions, while they create the appearance of impropriety, do not bias the quasi-judicial proceeding in violation of procedural due process. Soon Yee Scott v. City of Englewood, 672 P.2d 225 (Colo. App. 1983).

Appropriate guidelines for determining reasonable requirements of neighborhood. County commissioners regulations establishing fees and location of massage parlors, requirements that employees possess identity cards, and restrictions on the transfer of a license were appropriate guidelines for determining the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and were consistent with subsection (4). *JRM, Inc. v. 12-48.5-105. Application to local licensing authority - issuance. (1) Application for a license under the provisions of this article shall be made to the local licensing authority on forms prepared and furnished by the local licensing authority which shall set forth such information as the local licensing authority may require to enable the authority to determine whether a license should be granted. Such information shall include the name and address of the applicant and, if a partnership, also the names and addresses of all the partners and, if a corporation, association, or other organization, also the names and addresses of the president, vice-president, secretary, and managing officer, together with all other information deemed necessary by the local licensing authority. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such persons as the local licensing authority may prescribe.

(2) (a) Before granting any license for which application has been made, the local licensing authority or one or more of its inspectors may visit and inspect the premises or property in which the applicant proposes to conduct his business and investigate the fitness to conduct such business of any person or officers and directors of any corporation applying for a license. In investigating the fitness of any applicant, licensee, or employee or agent of the licensee or applicant, the local licensing authority may have access to criminal history record information furnished by criminal justice agencies subject to any restrictions imposed by such agencies. In the event the local licensing authority takes into consideration information concerning the applicant's criminal history record, the local licensing authority shall also consider any information provided by the applicant regarding such criminal history record, including but not limited to evidence of rehabilitation, character references, and educational achievements, especially those items pertaining to the period of time between the applicant's last criminal conviction and the consideration of his application for a license.

(b) As used in this subsection (2), "criminal justice agency" means any federal, state, or municipal court or any governmental agency or subunit of such agency which performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order and which allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.

(3) No application to have a massage parlor at a particular location by or on behalf of the same person shall be received or acted upon concerning a location for which, within two years preceding, the local licensing authority has refused to approve a license on the ground, in whole or in part, that the licenses already granted for the particular locality were adequate for the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants at the time of such refusal.

(4) Every applicant, licensee, or agent or employee of said applicant or licensee shall, prior to commencing work in or upon the licensed premises, obtain an identity card from the law enforcement agency within the licensing jurisdiction in a form prescribed by the local licensing authority and shall carry said identity card at all times while in or upon the licensed premises.

ANNOTATION

Applied in R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

12-48.5-106. Refusal of license by local licensing authority. The local licensing authority shall refuse a license if the premises on which the applicant proposes to conduct its business do not meet the requirements of this article, or if the character of the applicant or its officers or directors is such that violations of this article would be likely to result if a license were granted, or if, in its opinion, licenses already granted for the particular locality are adequate for the reasonable needs of the neighborhood.

12-48.5-107. Suspension and revocation. In addition to any other penalties prescribed by this article, the local licensing authority has the power, on its own motion or on complaint, after investigation and public hearing at which the licensee shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard, to suspend or revoke any license issued by such authority for any violation by the licensee or by any of its agents, servants, or employees of the provisions of this article, or of any of the rules or regulations authorized pursuant to this article, or of any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of the license issued by such authority. In addition, the local licensing authority, in its discretion, may revoke or elect not to renew a license if it determines that the licensed premises have been inactive for at least three months or, in the case of a license approved for a facility which has not been constructed, such facility has not been constructed and placed in operation within one year of approval of the license application or construction of the facility has not been commenced within one year of such approval. The local licensing authority has the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and production of papers, books, and records necessary to the determination of any hearing which the local licensing authority conducts.

12-48.5-108. Persons prohibited as licensees. (1) No license provided by this article shall be issued to or held by:

(a) Any corporation, any of whose officers, directors, or stockholders holding over ten percent of the outstanding initial capital stock thereof are not of good moral character;

(b) Any partnership, association, or company, any of whose officers, or any of whose members holding more than ten percent interest therein, are not of good moral character;

(c) Any person employing, assisted by, or financed in whole or in part by any other person who is not of good moral character satisfactory to the local licensing authority;

(d) A peace officer or any of the local licensing authority's inspectors or employees;

(e) Any person unless such person is of moral character and has a record that is satisfactory to the local licensing authority.

ANNOTATION

Standard of conduct in this section is sufficiently defined to provide adequate notice to license applicants and their employees. R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

Local government must state standards for determining whether an applicant's character and reputation is satisfactory for the granting of a license under the Colorado Massage Parlor Code. Hide-A-Way Massage Parlor, Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 198 Colo. 175, 597 P.2d 564 (1979).

"Reputation", is unconstitutionally vague and cannot suffice as standard of conduct since it connotes merely an "opinion of the community". R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

Meaning of "good moral character", "good character", or "character" includes the applicant's, or his employees', propensities toward criminal conduct and a criminal record, if any, taking into account such record as ameliorated by any rehabilitation. The criminal conduct referred to is limited to felonies or other offenses involving moral turpitude. R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

"Record", as used in the Massage Parlor Code, refers to the criminal record of the applicant, or that of his employee when determining the "good character" of the employee. R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

Employee who engaged in act of prostitution is "not of good character" within the meaning of this section. R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

Appropriate guidelines for determining reasonable requirements of neighborhoods. County commissioners regulations establishing fees and location of massage parlors, requirements that employees possess identity cards, and restrictions on the transfer of a license were appropriate guidelines for determining the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and were consistent with § 12-48.5-104 (4). Board of county commissioners is not restricted to inquiring into prior felony convictions in making an examination of an applicant for a massage parlor license. JRM, Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 200 Colo. 384, 615 P.2d 31 (1980).

12-48.5-109. License fees. (1) The following license fees shall be paid to the local licensing authority annually in advance:

(a) For the issuance of a new license, an amount to be set by the local licensing authority, but in no event to exceed three hundred fifty dollars;

(b) For each renewal of a license, an amount to be set by the local licensing authority, but in no event to exceed one hundred fifty dollars.

12-48.5-110. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful for any person:

(a) To operate a massage parlor without holding a validly issued local license;

(b) To work in or upon the licensed premises of a massage parlor without obtaining and carrying a valid identity card pursuant to section 12-48.5-105 (4);

(c) To obtain the services provided in a massage parlor by misrepresentation of age or by any other method in any place where massage is practiced when such person is under eighteen years of age, unless such person is accompanied by his parent or has a physician's prescription for massage services;

(d) To allow the sale, giving, or procuring of any massage services to any person under the age of eighteen years, unless such person is accompanied by his parent or has a physician's prescription for massage services;

(e) To permit any person under the age of eighteen years to be employed as an employee in a massage parlor. If any person who, in fact, is not eighteen years of age exhibits a fraudulent proof of age, any action relying on such fraudulent proof of age shall not constitute grounds for the revocation or suspension of any license issued under this article unless the person employing such person knew or should have known that said proof of age was fraudulent.

(f) To operate a massage parlor while failing to display at all times in a prominent place on the licensed premises a printed card with a minimum height of fourteen inches and a width of eleven inches with each letter a minimum of one-half inch in height, which shall read as follows:

WARNING

IT IS ILLEGAL FOR ANY PERSON UNDER EIGHTEEN YEARS OF AGE TO BE IN OR UPON THESE PREMISES AT ANY TIME, UNLESS HE OR SHE IS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS OR HER PARENT OR HAS A PHYSICIAN'S PRESCRIPTION FOR MASSAGE SERVICES.

IT IS ILLEGAL FOR ANY PERSON TO ALLOW A PERSON UNDER EIGHTEEN YEARS OF AGE TO BE IN OR UPON THESE PREMISES AT ANY TIME, UNLESS HE OR SHE IS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS OR HER PARENT OR HAS A PHYSICIAN'S PRESCRIPTION FOR MASSAGE SERVICES.

FINES OR IMPRISONMENT MAY BE IMPOSED BY THE COURTS FOR VIOLATION OF THESE PROVISIONS UNDER ARTICLE 48.5 OF TITLE 12, COLORADO REVISED STATUTES.

(g) To operate a massage parlor while failing to display at all times in a prominent place on the licensed premises a printed card with a minimum height of fourteen inches and a width of eleven inches with each letter a minimum of one-half inch in height, which provides the name and contact information of a state or local organization that provides services or other assistance to victims of human trafficking.

12-48.5-111. Violations and penalty. (1) Any person violating any of the provisions of this article or any of the rules and regulations authorized and adopted pursuant thereto is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars for each offense, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The court trying such offense may decree that any license theretofore issued under the provisions of this article or of any law relating to the operation of massage parlors where such offense was committed be suspended or revoked and may decree that no license for the operation of a massage parlor shall thereafter be issued to any such person for a period not to exceed five years.

(2) The penalties provided in this section shall not be affected by the penalties provided in any other section of this article but shall be construed to be an addition to any other penalties.

(3) Any adult who causes a violation of the provisions of section 12-48.5-110 (1) (d) to (1) (f) may be proceeded against pursuant to section 18-6-701, C.R.S., for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

12-48.5-114. Public notice - posting and publication. (1) Upon receipt of an application, except an application for renewal or for transfer of ownership, the local licensing authority shall schedule a public hearing upon the application not less than thirty days from the date of the application and shall post and publish the public notice thereof not less than ten days prior to such hearing. Public notice shall be given by the posting of a sign in a conspicuous place on the premises for which application has been made and by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality or county in which the premises are located.

(2) Notice given by posting shall include a sign of suitable material, not less than twenty-two inches wide and twenty-six inches high, composed of letters not less than one inch in height and stating the type of license applied for, the date of the application, the date of the hearing, the name and address of the applicant, and such other information as may be required to fully apprise the public of the nature of the application. If the applicant is a partnership, the sign shall contain the names and addresses of all partners, and, if the applicant is a corporation, association, or other organization, the sign shall contain the names and addresses of the president, vice-president, secretary, and manager or other managing officers.

(3) Notice given by publication shall contain the same information as that required for signs.

(4) If the building in which the massage parlor is to be operated is in existence at the time of the application, any sign posted as required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be placed so as to be conspicuous and plainly visible to the general public. If the building is not constructed at the time of the application, the applicant shall post the premises upon which the building is to be constructed in such a manner that the notice shall be conspicuous and plainly visible to the general public.

(5) (a) At the public hearing held pursuant to this section, any party in interest shall be allowed to present evidence and cross-examine witnesses.

(b) As used in this subsection (5), "party in interest" includes the applicant, a resident of the neighborhood under consideration, or the owner or manager of a business located in the neighborhood under consideration.

(6) The local licensing authority, in its discretion, may limit the presentation of evidence and cross-examination so as to prevent repetitive and cumulative evidence or examination.

12-48.5-115. Results of investigation - decision of authorities. (1) Not less than five days prior to the date of the hearing, the local licensing authority shall make known its findings based upon its investigation, in writing, to the applicant and other interested parties.

The local licensing authority has authority to refuse to issue any license for good cause, subject to judicial review.

(2) Before entering any decision approving or denying the application, the local licensing authority shall consider, except where this article specifically provides otherwise, the facts and evidence produced as a result of its investigation, including the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood for the license for which application has been made, the desires of the inhabitants, the number, type, and availability of other massage parlors located in or near the neighborhood under consideration, and any other pertinent matters affecting qualifications of the applicant for the conduct of the business proposed.

(3) Any decision of a local licensing authority approving or denying an application shall be in writing stating the reasons therefor and shall be made within thirty days after the date of the public hearing, and a copy of such decision shall be sent by certified mail to the applicant at the address shown in the application.

(4) No license shall be issued by any local licensing authority after approval of an application until the building in which the business is to be conducted is ready for occupancy with such furniture, fixtures, and equipment in place as are necessary to comply with the provisions of this article, and then only after inspection of the premises has been made by the licensing authority to determine that the applicant has complied with the architect's drawing and plans and specifications submitted upon application.

12-48.5-116. Restrictions for applications for new licenses. (1) No application for the issuance of any license authorized by this article shall be received or acted upon:

(a) If, within two years next preceding the date of the application, the local licensing authority has denied an application at the same location for the reason that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants were satisfied by the existing outlets;

(b) Until it is established that the applicant is, or will be, entitled to possession of the premises for which application is made under a lease, rental agreement, or other arrangement for possession of the premises or by virtue of the ownership thereof;

(c) For a location in an area where the operation of a massage parlor as contemplated is not permitted under the applicable zoning laws of the municipality, city and county, or county.

12-48.5-117. Local option. The application of this article shall be statewide unless any city, city and county, county, or incorporated town by a majority of the registered electors of any of them, voting at any regular election or special election called for that purpose in accordance with the election laws of this state or of the political subdivision concerned, decides against the right to operate massage parlors as provided by this article within its limits. Said local option question shall be submitted only upon a petition signed by not less than fifteen percent of the registered electors in said political subdivision; otherwise, the procedure with reference to the calling and holding of such election shall be substantially in accordance with the election laws of the state or of any of said local subdivisions. The expenses of such election shall be borne by the local subdivision in which said election is held. The question of the prohibition of the operation of massage parlors shall not be submitted to the voters more than once in any four-year period. If the question is passed in the election, licenses issued shall remain in effect but shall not be renewed after the effective date of prohibition according to the local option election.

12-48.5-118. Local government regulation. This article is intended to provide minimum standards for the licensing of massage parlors. Nothing in this article shall prohibit a local government from enacting an ordinance or resolution providing more stringent standards for such licensing, but such ordinance shall meet the minimum standards established by this article.

ANNOTATION

Local government must define and give notice of standards. While a local government may apply, in massage parlor cases, more stringent standards than those required by the Colorado Massage Parlor Code, it may not do so without clearly defining those standards and giving fair notice of what evidence it will consider in determining whether its requirements have been met. *Hide-A-Way Massage Parlor, Inc. v. This article is not one for revenue only. Downes v. McClellan, 72 Colo. 204, 210 P. 397 (1922).

It is one related to the exercise of the police power and to regulate the businesses enumerated. Downes v. McClellan, 72 Colo. 204, 210 P. 397 (1922).

The power to license in such cases includes the power to refuse a license, even where statutory or preliminary requirements are complied with. Downes v. McClellan, 72 Colo. 204, 210 P. 397 (1922).

The power to refuse a license necessarily means having a discretion to grant or refuse, and mandamus will not lie to compel the granting of a license where it is not alleged and shown that the exercise of such discretion was arbitrary. Downes v. McClellan, 72 Colo. 204, 210 P. 397 (1922); Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

12-51-103. License shall authorize. Such license shall authorize the person receiving it to vend, sell, and retail goods, wares, and merchandise within said county for one year from the time of granting the same.

12-51-104. Clerk may grant permit - when. If the board of county commissioners is not in session when the application is made, the clerk of the county may grant a written permission to the applicant to vend, sell, and retail goods, wares, and merchandise until the end of the next session of the board of county commissioners, or if said board takes no action upon the case, for the term provided in section 12-51-103. At the time of granting such license the clerk may assess the amount to be paid by the applicant, which shall be paid into the county treasury.

12-51-105. County board to examine permits. When a permit is granted by the clerk, in vacation, it is the duty of the board of county commissioners, at their next meeting thereafter, to examine such permit and, if approved, to proceed forthwith to assess the amount to be paid for licenses as in the case of original applications. If the board of county commissioners does not approve the same, the license shall be vacated, and no other sum shall be required to be paid than fixed by the clerk.

ANNOTATION

In this article, as originally enacted, no mention was made therein of theaters, circuses, menageries, or the like. Godfrey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 53 Colo. 196, 124 P. 190 (1912).

A later statute not expressly amending the former, imposed a fine upon any person who, without a license, should assume to carry on a business for which a license is required "by any law of this territory", and this was followed by a provision in these words, "This act shall extend to theaters, circuses, and shows where an admission fee is charged", therefore the county was authorized thereby to exact a license fee, though no statute prescribed the fee or rate to be charged for such an exhibition. Godfrey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 53 Colo. 196, 124 P. 190 (1912).

Former section did not forbid the opening of a theater on the Sabbath or Lord's day. People v. Mooney, 87 Colo. 567, 290 P. 271 (1930).

12-51-108. Officials to report fines. Every official to whom any fines or penalties imposed by this article shall be paid for the use of the county, at the next meeting of the board of county commissioners, shall make a report of the amount thereof and pay the same into the county treasury.

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-52-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Money Transmitters Act".

Source: L. 59: p. 703, § 2. CRS 53: § 125-8-2. C.R.S. 1963: § 125-7-2. L. 2004: Entire section amended, p. 525, § 10, effective April 21.

12-52-102. Legislative declaration. It is declared to be the policy of this state that checks, drafts, money orders, or other instruments for the transmission or payment of credit or money are widely used by the people of this state as a process of settling accounts or debts and that sellers and issuers of such instruments receive, in the aggregate, large sums of money from the people of this state and it is therefore imperative that the integrity, experience, and financial responsibility and reliability of those engaged in the various types of businesses dealing in such instruments be above reproach. In order that the people of this state may be safeguarded from default in the payment of these instruments, it is necessary that proper regulatory authority be established through the banking board. Any person who sells or issues such instruments without complying with the provisions of this article endangers the public interest.

12-52-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Banking board" or "board" means the banking board created in section 11-102-103, C.R.S.

(1.5) "Commissioner" means the state bank commissioner appointed and serving pursuant to section 11-102-101 (2), C.R.S.

(1.7) "Engagement letter" means a letter that sets the scope and terms of an independent audit.

(2) "Exchange" means any check, draft, money order, or other instrument for the transmission or payment of money or credit. It does not mean money or currency of any nation.

(3) "Issuing" means the act of drawing any instrument of exchange by a person who engages in the business of drawing such instruments as a service or for a fee or other consideration.

(4) "Licensee" means any person duly licensed by the banking board pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(4.1) “Management letter” means a letter, written by the auditor to the management of a licensee, reporting the auditor’s findings and suggestions resulting from an independent audit.

(4.2) “Managing official” means a person who has significant oversight duties over a licensee or applicant as determined by the board.

(4.3) “Money transmission” means the sale or issuance of exchange or engaging in the business of receiving money for transmission or transmitting money within the United States or to locations abroad by any and all means including but not limited to payment instrument, wire, facsimile, or electronic transfer.

(4.5) “Outstanding payment instrument” means any exchange sold or issued by a licensee or any exchange issued by the licensee which has been sold by an agent of the licensee in the United States, which has been reported to the licensee as having been sold and which has not yet been paid by or for the licensee.

(4.7) “Owner” means a person with an ownership interest in a licensee or applicant that is a sole proprietorship or partnership.

(5) “Person” means any natural person, firm, association, partnership, registered limited liability partnership, syndicate, joint stock company, unincorporated company or association, limited liability company, common law trust, or any corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state or territory of the United States or of any foreign country.

(6) “Principal member” means a person who has a significant ownership interest in a licensee or applicant that is an association, trust, or limited liability company or similar entity, as determined by the board.

(7) “Principal shareholder” means a person who has a significant ownership interest in a corporate licensee or applicant.

(8) “Significant ownership interest” means an ownership interest that causes the owner to have significant control of a licensee or applicant as determined by the board.

L. 2004: (1) amended and (1.7), (4.1), (4.2), (4.7), and (6) to (8) added, p. 524, § 9, effective April 21.

12-52-103.5. Applicability of powers of banking board and bank commissioner to money orders. The powers, duties, and functions of the banking board and the commissioner contained in article 102 of title 11, C.R.S., and the declaration of policy contained in section 11-101-102, C.R.S., shall apply to the provisions of this article. For the purposes of this section and section 11-102-104, C.R.S., the banking board shall have the same powers, duties, and functions concerning a violation of this article or a rule issued pursuant to this article as the board has concerning a violation of the “Colorado Banking Code”, a statute, or a rule issued pursuant to that code.

12-52-104. License required. A person shall not engage in the business of selling or issuing exchange or in the business of money transmission without first procuring a license from the banking board; except that no license under this article shall be required of any agent, subagent, or representative of a licensee or employee of such agent, subagent, or representative who acts on behalf of such licensee in the sale of exchange issued by the licensee.

12-52-105. Exemptions. Nothing in this article shall apply to: Departments or agencies of the United States of America, or to any state or municipal government, or to corporations organized under the general banking, savings and loan, or credit union laws of this state or of the United States, or to the receipt of money by an incorporated telegraph or cable company at any office or agency thereof for immediate transmission by telegraph or cable.

12-52-106. Application for license. (1) Application for a license shall be made in writing, under oath, to the banking board on such form as it may prescribe. The application shall:

(a) State the name of the applicant and the address of his principal office;

(b) Contain evidence that the applicant possesses qualifications and experience as required by the banking board pursuant to rule. If the applicant is a joint stock association, common law trust, unincorporated company or association, limited liability company, or corporation, the secretary or any assistant secretary thereof shall certify the name and address of each of the officers, directors, trustees, or other managing officials together with a designation of the office or offices held by each and evidence that each such individual possesses the qualifications and experience required by the banking board pursuant to rule and shall submit such certificate to the banking board with the application.

(c) State the date and place of incorporation;

(d) If the applicant has one or more branches, subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, or other locations at or through which the applicant proposes to engage in the business of issuing checks, drafts, money orders, or other instruments for the transmission or payment of money or credit, state the name and address of each such location;

(d.5) Contain a set of fingerprints for each of the owners, principal shareholders, principal members, directors, trustees, officers, or other managing officials. The commissioner shall forward the fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of obtaining a fingerprint-based criminal history record check. Upon receipt of fingerprints and payment for the costs, the Colorado bureau of investigation shall conduct a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. The board shall be the authorized agency to receive information regarding the result of any national criminal history record check. Only the actual costs of such record check shall be borne by the applicant.

(e) Contain such other data, financial statements, and pertinent information as the banking board may require from time to time with respect to the applicant or its directors, trustees, officers, members, branches, subsidiaries, affiliates, or agents.

(2) Each application for a license shall be accompanied by financial statements of the applicant and a bond in the form and the amount specified in this article.

12-52-107. Bond - condition - amount. (1) (a) Each approved applicant shall furnish a corporate surety bond in the principal sum of one million dollars, except as otherwise provided in this subsection (1), by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in this state, in which the applicant is named as obligor, to be approved by the banking board, which shall run to the state of Colorado for the use and benefit of the state and of any creditor of the licensee for any liability incurred on any exchange issued by the licensee. The bond shall be conditioned that the obligor will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of this article and will honestly and faithfully apply all funds received for the performance of all obligations and undertakings for exchange issued and sold under this article and will pay to the state and to any person all money that becomes due and owing to the state or to such person under the provisions of this article because of any exchange sold or issued by such licensee. The bond shall remain in force and effect until the surety is released from liability by the banking board or until the bond is cancelled by the surety, which cancellation may be had only upon ninety days' written notice to the banking board. Such cancellation shall not affect any liability incurred or accrued prior to the termination of the ninety-day period. If the banking board finds, at any time, any bond to be exhausted, a replacement bond in an equal amount shall be filed by the licensee within thirty days after written demand therefor.

(b) The banking board shall by rule establish financial standards by which to evaluate the financial condition or solvency of licensees and for the bond amount set under paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) to be decreased to not less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, following application by the licensee and an opportunity for hearing before the banking board, in such amounts as necessary up to the amount provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) to protect purchasers of exchange.

(c) The banking board shall by rule establish financial standards by which to evaluate the financial condition or solvency of licensees and for the bond amount to be increased above the amount provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) if the banking board determines, following notice to the licensee and an opportunity for hearing before the banking board, that the customers of such licensees are at undue risks, but in no case shall the total bond required of a licensee be greater than two million dollars. In promulgating such rules, the banking board shall utilize and adopt generally accepted accounting principles for the evaluation and determination of the financial condition of licensees.

(2) In lieu of such surety bond, the licensee may deposit with the banking board securities with a par value equal to the amount of any such surety bond. Such securities shall consist of: General obligations of, or securities fully guaranteed by, the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality of or corporation wholly owned by the United States of America directly or indirectly; or direct general obligations of the state of Colorado, or of any county, town, city, village, school district, or other political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state of Colorado. Such securities shall be held by the banking board to secure the same obligations as would any surety bond required by this article. The securities so deposited may be exchanged from time to time for other securities which qualify as aforesaid. All said securities shall be subject to sale and transfer and the disposal of the proceeds by said banking board only on the order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Such licensee shall be permitted to receive the interest or dividends on such securities unless prohibited by a court of competent jurisdiction. The banking board may provide for custody of such securities by any qualified trust company or bank located in the state of Colorado. The compensation of any custodian for acting as such under this section shall be paid by the depositing licensee.

(3) In addition to the bond required under subsection (1) of this section, the commissioner, pursuant to rules promulgated by the banking board, may require a licensee to possess investments having an aggregate market value at least equal to the amount of outstanding payment instruments issued or sold by the licensee. For the purposes of this subsection (3), permissible investments shall be:

(a) Cash;

(b) Certificates of deposit or other debt obligations of a financial institution, either domestic or foreign;

(c) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by federally insured financial depository institutions;

(d) Any investment bearing a rating of one of the three highest grades as defined by a nationally recognized organization that rates such securities;

(e) Investment securities that are obligations of the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, or obligations that are guaranteed fully as to principal and interest of the United States, or any obligations of any state, municipality, or any political subdivision thereof;

(f) Shares in a money market mutual fund, interest-bearing bills or notes or bonds, debentures, or stock traded on any national securities exchange or on a national over-the-counter market;

(g) Such other investments as may be approved by the banking board.

(4) It is the intent of the general assembly that in applying the provisions of this section the purpose of the required bond and permissible investments is to protect the Colorado purchasers of exchange, and the amount of the bond and investments that are required of any licensee should not be more than is necessary to afford such protection given the financial condition of the licensee as determined under generally accepted accounting principles.

(5) Permissible investments, even if commingled with other assets of the licensee, shall be deemed by operation of law to be held in trust for the benefit of the purchasers and holders of the licensee's outstanding payment instruments in the event of the bankruptcy of the licensee.

L. 2004: (1)(a) amended, p. 523, § 6, effective April 21.

12-52-108. Issuance of license. (1) Upon the filing of an application, the commissioner shall investigate the applicant. If the banking board finds that the applicant is of good moral character and financially responsible and can comply with this article, the banking board shall approve the application and notify the applicant in writing, who shall within ninety days post the required bond and pay the license fee, whereupon the banking board shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business of selling or issuing exchange subject to the provisions of this article.

(2) No license shall be issued to an applicant, if a natural person, unless he is over twenty-one years of age; or if a partnership or syndicate, unless each of the partners is over twenty-one years of age; or if a joint stock association, common law trust, unincorporated company or association, or corporation, unless each of the officers, directors, trustees, or other managing officials is over twenty-one years of age.

(3) No application shall be denied unless the applicant has had notice of a hearing on said application and an opportunity to be heard thereon. If the application is denied, the banking board shall, within thirty days thereafter, prepare and file in its office a written order of denial which shall contain the banking board's findings and reasons supporting the denial and, within ten days after the filing of such order, shall notify the applicant and send him a copy of such order.

(4) A license shall not be issued to an applicant if an owner, principal shareholder, principal member, director, trustee, officer, or other managing official:

(a) Submitted a license application under this article that was false or misleading as a result of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact unless the applicant did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care should not have known, of the untruth or omission;

(b) Willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with this article or a rule promulgated or order issued under this article;

(c) Within the past ten years, entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, or was convicted of, a felony or misdemeanor involving a breach of fiduciary duty or fraud; or

(d) Is subject to a temporary or permanent injunction for violating a state or federal law regulating the financial services industry, including, but not limited to, federal provisions regarding money laundering, record-keeping, and registration.

12-52-109. Issuance of license - renewal - fee. (1) Before any license is issued, and annually thereafter on or before January 1 of each succeeding year, the applicant or licensee shall pay to the banking board a license fee in an amount set by the banking board pursuant to section 11-102-104 (11), C.R.S. For each license originally issued between July 1 and December 31 of any year, the applicant shall pay one-half the annual fee required in this section. Each license shall expire on January 1 unless the annual fee for the year has been paid prior to such date.

(2) Beginning July 1, 1977, before any license may be renewed, the licensee shall be required to provide the same amount of bond coverage or securities for deposit as an initial applicant under section 12-52-107.

12-52-110. Examination - fee - financial statements and reports to commissioner.

(1) (a) The commissioner may examine the books and records of a licensee using risk-based criteria and considering other available regulatory mechanisms as directed by the banking board; shall make and file in the office of the commissioner a correct report in detail disclosing the results of such examination; and shall mail a copy of such report to the licensee examined. If the licensee's records are located outside this state, the licensee shall, at the option of such licensee, either make them available to the commissioner at a convenient location within this state or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the commissioner or the commissioner's representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. The commissioner may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on behalf of the commissioner. For such examination, the commissioner shall charge a fee in an amount set by the banking board pursuant to section 11-102-104 (11), C.R.S. If any licensee refuses to permit the commissioner to make an examination, such licensee shall be subject to such penalty as the commissioner may assess, not in excess of one hundred dollars for each day any such refusal shall continue.

(b) In lieu of any examination required by this section to be made by the commissioner, the commissioner may accept the audit of an independent certified public accountant or an independent registered accountant, but the cost of such audit shall be borne by the licensee.

(2) (a) Every licensee shall file an annual financial statement with the commissioner, audited by an independent certified public accountant or an independent registered accountant, within one hundred fifty days following the close of the licensee's fiscal year. Such financial statements shall include a balance sheet, a profit and loss statement, and a statement of retained earnings of the licensee and the licensee's agents and subagents resulting from selling or issuing exchange under this article. The financial statements shall be accompanied by copies of the engagement and management letters issued by the independent auditor.

(b) Every licensee shall make and file with the commissioner not less than three reports during each calendar year according to the form which may be prescribed by the commissioner. Each such report shall exhibit in detail, as may be required by the commissioner, the resources and liabilities of the licensee at the close of business on the day past to be specified by said commissioner in writing.

(c) If any licensee fails to submit any statement or report to the commissioner as required by this subsection (2), such licensee shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars for each additional day of delinquency as set by the banking board pursuant to section 11-102-104 (11), C.R.S.; except that, if in the opinion of the banking board the delay is excusable for good cause shown, no penalty shall be paid.

12-52-110.5. Compliance with federal law. Each licensee shall comply with state and federal money laundering laws, including, but not limited to, the federal "Bank Secrecy Act", 12 U.S.C. sec. 1951 et seq.

12-52-111. Multiple locations. (1) Each licensee may conduct business at such locations within this state as such licensee may desire and through such agents and subagents as such licensee may from time to time appoint. Each licensee shall notify the banking board within ten days, by certified mail, of any increase in the number of locations at which it conducts its business and shall provide proof that the bond or securities required have been increased accordingly.

(2) Each licensee may, without violating section 5-2-212, C.R.S., notwithstanding whether or not a facility or mode only accepts credit cards, conduct business through physical and electronic facilities, including by telephone and internet, and may charge a different price for the provision of services based upon the type of facility or mode of services used in such transaction so long as the price for such service within a single such facility or mode is not greater for a credit card than for other forms of payment.

12-52-112. Revocation or surrender of license. (1) The banking board may, upon ten days' notice served personally upon the licensee stating the contemplated action and the grounds therefor, hold a hearing at which the licensee shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard, for the purpose of determining whether a license should be revoked.

(2) After such hearing the banking board may revoke any license issued under this article if it finds that:

- (a) The licensee has failed to maintain the required bond; or
- (b) The licensee has failed to comply with any order, decision, or finding of the banking board or the commissioner made pursuant to this article; or
- (c) The licensee has violated any provision of this article; or
- (d) Facts exist which would have warranted the banking board's refusal to issue the original license; or
- (e) The licensee is engaged in a business a substantial portion of which involves the processing, manufacture, or purchase and sale of commodities or articles of tangible personal property and such licensee has failed to maintain constantly a separate bank deposit account or accounts for the exclusive payment of exchange issued by such licensee; or

(f) The licensee has sold or issued exchange without receiving payment for the face value of the exchange prior to the time of such sale or issuance.

(3) A licensee may surrender any license by delivering to the banking board written notice that he surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to the surrender, or affect the liability on any bond, or entitle the licensee to a return of any part of any license fee.

12-52-114. Review. Any person aggrieved and directly affected by an order of the banking board issued under this article may seek a review in the district court of Colorado in and for the county in which the principal place of business of the licensee or applicant is located. The filing of such a petition for review shall not, of itself, stay enforcement of an order, but the court may order a stay upon such terms as it deems proper.

12-52-115.5. Civil remedies - restraining orders - injunctions. (1) (a) If the board has cause to believe that a person has sold or issued exchange or transmitted money without a license issued under this article 52, the board may obtain from the district court of the city and county of Denver a temporary restraining order or a preliminary or permanent injunction prohibiting the person from violating this article. In such action, the board shall not be required to plead or prove irreparable injury or the inadequacy of the remedy at law.

(b) The court shall not require the board to post a bond.

(c) The district court may issue any orders or judgments necessary to prevent a violation of this article. The district court may award to the board the costs and attorney fees incurred in enforcing this article.

(2) A person who violates a district court order or injunction entered pursuant to this section shall be subject to the contempt powers of the district court and shall pay a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each such violation. Each day a person continues to violate the district court order shall be a separate violation; except that the aggregate total of civil penalties shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars for a related series of violations.

(3) The civil remedies imposed by this section shall be in addition to any other penalty or remedy for a violation of this article.

12-52-116. Notice - banking board - consumers. (1) The licensee or such licensee's agents or subagents shall give notice to the banking board, by certified mail, of any legal action which shall be brought against the licensee and of any judgment which shall be entered against such licensee, by any creditor or claimant, relating to selling or issuing exchange or transmitting money under this article, together with details sufficient to identify the action or judgment, within ten days after the commencement of any such action or notice to the licensee of entry of any such judgment. Within ten days after it pays any claim of judgment to any such creditor or such claimant, the corporate surety shall give notice to the banking board, by certified mail, of such payment, together with details sufficient to identify the claimant or creditor and the claim or judgment so paid.

(2) The licensee or such licensee's affiliates, agents, or subagents shall immediately give notice to the banking board, by certified mail, of any information in their possession with regard to money orders issued by them that have been returned to purchasers unpaid.

(3) (a) Except for a money exchange or transmission conducted at a branch of a federally insured depository institution, a licensee shall post and maintain at its establishment a notice advising the customer that the selling or issuing of exchange is regulated by the division of banking and that the customer may report alleged violations of the law to the division of banking. Such notice shall be created and furnished to the licensee by the commissioner.

(b) Such notice shall be posted conspicuously in a well-lighted place visible to customers.

PART 2

MONEY TRANSMITTER AGENTS

12-52-201. Agent information - rules. (1) A money transmitter licensed pursuant to part 1 of this article shall annually send the following information to the banking board on such form as it may prescribe:

(a) The name of each agent and the address and telephone number of each of the agent's offices that engage in the business of money transmission;

(b) The name, address, and telephone number of each of the owners of the agent holding more than a ten percent interest in the business if the agent is a partnership or an entity created pursuant to title 7, C.R.S.;

(c) The services concerning money transmission that are offered by the agent and the locations where such services are offered;

(d) Such other pertinent information that the banking board may require concerning the agent or its directors, trustees, officers, members, branches, subsidiaries, affiliates, or agents as promulgated by rule.

(2) The banking board may promulgate rules necessary to implement this section.

12-52-203. Notice of laws. (1) The banking board shall promulgate rules to create a form containing a notice of the contents of section 18-5-309, C.R.S., and other state and federal laws concerning money laundering.

(2) (a) An agent of a business licensed pursuant to part 1 of this article shall require each employee who performs money transmission services to either:

(I) Understand and sign the form, created under subsection (1) of this section, affirming knowledge of the money laundering laws prior to the employee performing such services; or

(II) Receive training that covers the money laundering laws within thirty days before the employee performs such services.

(b) The agent shall maintain a record of each employee along with the signed notice or evidence of training in compliance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) so long as the employee provides such services. The records may be maintained in an electronic or digital format that reproduces the signature on the documents by the agent.

12-54-104. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful:

(a) To disinfect or preserve or to make final disposition of human remains with knowledge sufficient to arouse a reasonable suspicion of a crime in connection with the cause of death of the deceased until the permission of the coroner, deputy coroner, or district attorney, if there is no coroner, has been first obtained;

(b) To discriminate because of race, creed, color, religion, disability, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, or ancestry in the provision of funeral services;

(c) For any public officer or employee or any other person having a professional relationship with the decedent to approve or cause the final disposition of human remains in violation of this article;

(d) For a person in the business of paying for or providing death benefits, funerals, funeral ceremonies, final dispositions, or preneed contracts to pay or provide benefits in a manner that deprives the next of kin or legal representative of the right to use those payments or benefits at a funeral establishment of his or her choice;

(e) For a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, embalmer, funeral establishment, or facility in which people regularly die or such person's or facility's agent to engage in a business practice that interferes with the freedom of choice of the general public to choose a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, embalmer, or funeral establishment;

(f) For a county coroner to violate section 30-10-619, C.R.S.;

(g) To transport or otherwise transfer by common carrier human remains unless:

(I) A funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, or embalmer has embalmed or hermetically sealed the body for transportation and complies with applicable common carrier law; or

(II) The transport or transfer is to a funeral establishment, funeral director, or embalmer within the state of Colorado;

(h) To advertise as holding a degree, a certificate of registration, a professional license, or a professional certification issued by a state, political subdivision, or agency unless the person holds such degree, registration, license, or certification and it is current and valid at the time of advertisement;

(i) For a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, or embalmer to admit or permit any person to visit the embalming, cremation, or preparation room during the time a body is being embalmed, cremated, or prepared for final disposition, unless such person:

(I) Is a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, cremationist, or embalmer;

(II) Is an authorized employee of a funeral establishment;

(III) Has the written consent of the next of kin of such deceased person or of a person having legal authority to give such permission in the absence of any next of kin;

(IV) Enters by order of a court of competent jurisdiction or a peace officer level I, Ia, II, III, or IIIa;

(V) Is a student enrolled in a mortuary science program;

(VI) Is a registered or licensed nurse with a medical reason to be present;

(VII) Is a licensed physician or surgeon with a medical reason to be present;

(VIII) Is a technician representing a procurement organization as defined in section 12-34-102 for purposes of an anatomical gift; or

(IX) Is the director or the director's designee;

(j) To refuse to properly and promptly release human remains or cremated remains to the custody of the person who has the legal right to effect such release whether or not any costs have been paid;

(k) To tell a person that a casket is required when the expressed wish is for immediate cremation;

(l) To embalm or cremate human remains without obtaining permission from the person with the right of final disposition unless otherwise required by section 12-54-105;

(m) To prohibit, hinder, or restrict or to attempt to prohibit, hinder, or restrict the following:

(I) The offering or advertising of immediate cremation, advance funeral arrangements, or low-cost funerals;

(II) Arrangements between memorial societies and funeral industry members; or

(III) A funeral service industry member from disclosing accurate information concerning funeral merchandise and services;

(n) To engage in willfully dishonest conduct or commit negligence in the practice of embalming, funeral directing, or providing for final disposition that defrauds or causes injury or is likely to defraud or cause injury;

(o) To fail to include in a contract for funeral services the following statement: "INQUIRIES REGARDING YOUR FUNERAL AGREEMENT MAY BE DIRECTED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF REGULATORY AGENCIES", along with the current address or telephone number of the department of regulatory agencies.

(2) For purposes of this section only, "next of kin" shall not include any person who is arrested on suspicion of having committed, is charged with, or has been convicted of, any felony offense specified in part 1 of article 3 of title 18, C.R.S., involving the death of the deceased person. If charges are not brought, charges are brought but dismissed, or the person charged is acquitted of the alleged crime before final disposition of the deceased person's body, this subsection (2) shall not apply.

12-54-106. Consumer protection. (1) A funeral establishment whose services are purchased shall make every reasonable attempt to fulfill the expressed needs and desires of the person with the right of final disposition, and shall make a full disclosure of all its available services and merchandise to the arrangers prior to selection of the casket.

(2) Before a person selects the funeral, the funeral establishment shall provide a written itemized list of the prices of all available merchandise and individual services at that funeral establishment. Full disclosure shall also be made in the case of a memorial service and as to use of funeral merchandise and facilities. In no event shall such person be required to purchase services or products contained on the itemized list that are not desired for the funeral unless such services or goods are required by law.

(3) Any statements of legal or practical requirements shall be complete and accurate, including the conditions under which embalming is required or advisable. Representations as to the use or necessity of a casket or alternative container in connection with a funeral or alternatives for final disposition shall be truthful and shall disclose all pertinent information.

(4) When quoting funeral prices, either orally, by use of a disclosure statement, or by a final bill, the funeral establishment shall only list those items as cash advances or accommodation items that are paid for or could be paid for by the next of kin in the same amount that is paid by the funeral home.

12-54-108. Exceptions - safe harbor. (1) This part 1 shall not apply to, or in any way interfere with, the duties of the following persons:

- (a) An officer of a public institution;
- (b) An officer of a medical college, county medical society, anatomical association, or college of embalming; or

(c) A person acting under the authority of part 2 of article 34 of this title.

(2) (a) This part 1 shall not apply to, nor in any way interfere with, any custom or rite of any religious sect in the burial of its dead, and the members and followers of the religious sect may continue to provide memorial services for, care for, prepare, and bury the bodies of deceased members of the religious sect, free from any term or condition, or any provision of this part 1, and are not subject to this part 1, so long as the human remains are refrigerated, frozen, embalmed, interred, or cremated within seven days after death.

(b) If human remains are refrigerated or embalmed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the body must be interred, frozen, or cremated within thirty days after death unless the coroner authorizes otherwise in writing. The coroner shall not permit an exception to this paragraph (b) unless the applicant can demonstrate a legitimate delay caused by unforeseen uncontrollable circumstances or by a criminal investigation.

(c) Notwithstanding this subsection (2), upon the receipt of evidence that the human remains likely contained a serious contagious disease, the state department of public health and environment, the state board of health, or a local department of health may issue an order overruling this subsection (2).

(3) A person who sells or offers to sell caskets, urns, or other funeral goods, but does not provide funeral services, shall not be subject to this article.

(4) If a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, or embalmer has acted in good faith, the funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, or embalmer may rely on a signed statement from a person with the right of final disposition under section 15-19-106, C.R.S., that:

(a) The person knows of no document expressing the deceased's wishes for final disposition that qualifies to direct the final disposition under section 15-19-104, C.R.S.;

(b) The person has made a reasonable effort under section 15-19-106, C.R.S., to contact each person with the right of final disposition and to learn his or her wishes; and

(c) The person knows of no objections to the final disposition.

(5) (a) (I) A funeral establishment, funeral director, or mortuary science practitioner may dispose of cremated remains at the expense of the person with the right of final disposition one hundred eighty days after cremation if the person was given clear prior notice of this paragraph (a) and a reasonable opportunity to collect the cremated remains, the exact location of the final disposition and the costs associated with the final disposition are recorded, and the recovery of the cremated remains is possible. Recovery of costs is limited to a reasonable amount of the costs actually expended by the funeral establishment, funeral director, or mortuary science practitioner.

(II) A funeral establishment, funeral director, or mortuary science practitioner may comply with this paragraph (a) by transferring the cremated remains and the records showing the funeral establishment and the deceased's name, date of birth, and next of kin for final disposition to a facility or place normally used for final disposition if the new custodian can comply with this paragraph (a).

(III) If cremated remains are not claimed by the person with the right of final disposition within three years after cremation, a funeral establishment, funeral director, or mortuary science practitioner may dispose of the remains in an unrecoverable manner by placing the remains in an ossuary or by scattering the remains in a dedicated cemetery, scattering garden, or consecrated ground used exclusively for these purposes.

(IV) The custodian is not liable for the loss or destruction of records required to be kept by this paragraph (a) if the loss or destruction was not caused by the custodian's negligence.

(b) If the person was cremated prior to July 1, 2003, and the funeral director or mortuary science practitioner reasonably attempts to notify the person with the right of final disposition of the provisions of this subsection (5), the cremated remains may be disposed of in accordance with this subsection (5) notwithstanding a failure to provide the notice of the provisions of this subsection (5) to the person with the right of final disposition prior to disposing of the remains.

12-54-110. Registration required. (1) Unless practicing at a registered funeral establishment pursuant to this section, a person shall not practice as, or offer the services of, a mortuary science practitioner, funeral director, or embalmer, nor shall the funeral establishment sell or offer to sell funeral goods and services to the public.

(2) (a) Each funeral establishment shall register with the director using forms as determined by the director. The registration shall include, without limitation, the following:

(I) The specific location of the funeral establishment;

(II) The full name and address of the designee appointed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section;

(III) The date the funeral establishment began doing business; and

(IV) A list of each of the following services provided at each funeral establishment location:

(A) Refrigerating or holding human remains;

(B) Embalming human remains;

(C) Transporting human remains to or from the funeral establishment or the place of final disposition; and

(D) Providing funeral goods or services to the public.

(b) Each funeral establishment registration shall be renewed, according to a schedule established by the director, in a form as determined by the director.

(c) If, after initial registration, the funeral establishment provides a service listed in subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) that was not included in the initial registration, the funeral establishment shall submit an amended registration within thirty days after beginning to provide the new service.

(d) If, after initial registration, the funeral establishment appoints a new designee, the funeral establishment shall submit an amended registration within thirty days after appointing the designee.

(e) The director may establish registration fees, renewal fees, and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a funeral establishment fails to renew the registration in accordance with the schedule established by the director, the registration shall expire.

(3) Each funeral establishment shall appoint an individual as the designee of the funeral establishment. A designee shall:

(a) Be at least eighteen years of age;

(b) Have at least two years' experience working for a funeral establishment;

(c) Be employed by the registered funeral establishment that the designee represents;

(d) Have the authority within the funeral establishment's organization to require that personnel comply with this article; and

(e) Not be designated for more than one funeral establishment unless the additional establishment is operated under common ownership and management and no funeral establishment is more than sixty miles from another establishment held under the same ownership conditions.

(4) The designee shall require each person employed at the funeral establishment to demonstrate evidence of compliance with section 12-54-111. The designee shall retain the records of such evidence so long as the person is employed at the funeral establishment.

(5) This section shall not require the registration of a nonprofit organization that only provides education or support to an individual who intends to provide for final disposition of human remains.

12-54-111. Title protection. (1) A person shall not advertise, represent, or hold oneself out as or use the title of a mortuary science practitioner unless the person:

(a) Has at least two thousand hours practicing or interning as a mortuary science practitioner, including, without limitation, experience in cremation and embalming;

(b) Has graduated with a certificate, diploma, or degree in mortuary science from:

(I) A program accredited by the American board of funeral service education or its successor, if the successor is approved by the director, and the program is part of a school of higher education; or

(II) A school of higher education accredited by the American board of funeral service education or its successor, if the successor is approved by the director; and

(c) Has taken the mortuary science test, known as the national board examination, administered by the international conference of funeral service examining boards or its successor, if the successor is approved by the director, and received a passing score.

(2) A person shall not advertise, represent, or hold oneself out as or use the title of a funeral director unless the applicant:

- (a) Has at least two thousand hours practicing or interning as a funeral director; and
- (b) Has directed at least fifty funerals or graveside services.

(3) A person shall not advertise, represent, or hold oneself out as or use the title of an embalmer unless the applicant:

- (a) Has at least four thousand hours practicing or interning as an embalmer; and
- (b) Has embalmed at least fifty human remains.

(4) For purposes of this section, intern or practice hours from Colorado or any other state shall meet the standards set by this section.

12-54-112. Standards of practice - embalming - transporting. (1) A funeral establishment that performs embalming shall:

(a) Maintain a sanitary preparation room with sanitary flooring, drainage, and ventilation;

(b) Employ universal biological hazard precautions;

(c) Employ reasonable care to minimize the risk of transmitting communicable diseases from human remains;

(d) Be equipped with instruments and supplies necessary to protect the health and safety of the public and employees of the funeral establishment; and

(e) Transport human remains in a safe and sanitary manner.

(2) A funeral establishment that transports human remains shall:

(a) Use a motor vehicle that is appropriate for the transportation of human remains; and

(b) Transport human remains in a safe and sanitary manner.

(3) A funeral establishment shall remove any implanted device in human remains before transporting the body to a crematory.

PART 2

ASSESSMENT OF MORTUARIES

12-54-201. Mortuaries in cemeteries not exempt. No person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation engaged in the ownership, operation, or management of a cemetery or mausoleum in this state which is exempt from payment of general property taxes, shall, either directly or indirectly, own, manage, conduct, or operate a funeral home or mortuary in such cemetery or mausoleum, or adjacent thereto and in connection therewith, unless said cemetery or mausoleum and funeral home or mortuary is listed for assessment purposes. The attorney general, county attorney, or any interested party may maintain injunction proceedings to prevent any violation of this section.

CREMATION

12-54-301. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful for a cremationist:

(a) To discriminate because of race, creed, color, religion, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, or national origin in the provision of funeral services;

(b) To approve or cause the final disposition of human remains in violation of this article;

(c) To engage in a business practice that interferes with the freedom of choice of the general public to choose a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, cremationist, embalmer, or funeral establishment;

(d) To advertise as holding a degree, a certificate of registration, a professional license, or a professional certification issued by a state, political subdivision, or agency unless the person holds such degree, registration, license, or certification and it is current and valid at the time of advertisement;

(e) To admit or permit any person to visit the crematory or preparation room during the time a body is being cremated or prepared for final disposition unless such person:

(I) Is a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, or cremationist;

(II) Is an authorized employee of a crematory;

(III) Has the written consent of the next of kin of the deceased person or of a person having legal authority to give consent in the absence of any next of kin;

(IV) Enters by order of a court of competent jurisdiction or a peace officer level I, Ia, II, III, or IIIa;

(V) Is a student or intern enrolled in a mortuary science program;

(VI) Is a registered or licensed nurse with a medical reason to be present;

(VII) Is a licensed physician or surgeon with a medical reason to be present;

(VIII) Is a technician representing a procurement organization as defined in section 12-34-102 for purposes of an anatomical gift; or

(IX) Is the director or the director's designee;

(f) To refuse to properly and promptly release human remains to the custody of the person who has the legal right to effect the release, whether or not any costs have been paid, unless there is a good faith dispute over who controls the right of final disposition;

(g) To cremate human remains without obtaining permission from the person with the right of final disposition;

(h) To prohibit, hinder, or restrict, or attempt to prohibit, hinder, or restrict, the following:

(I) The offering or advertising of immediate cremation, advance funeral arrangements, low-cost funerals, or low-cost cremations;

(II) Arrangements between memorial societies and funeral industry members; or

(III) A funeral service industry member from disclosing accurate information concerning funeral merchandise and services;

(i) To cremate human remains in a facility unless the facility is registered pursuant to section 12-54-303;

(j) To refuse to accept human remains that are not in a casket or to require human remains to be placed in a casket at any time;

(k) To perform services beyond a cremationist's competency, training, or education;

(l) To engage in willfully dishonest conduct or commit negligence in the practice of cremation or providing for final disposition that defrauds or causes injury or is likely to defraud or cause injury.

(2) For purposes of this section only, "next of kin" shall not include any person who is arrested on suspicion of having committed, is charged with, or has been convicted of, any felony offense specified in part 1 of article 3 of title 18, C.R.S., involving the death of the deceased person. This subsection (2) shall not apply if charges are not brought, charges are brought but dismissed, or the person charged is acquitted of the alleged crime before final disposition of the deceased person's body.

12-54-302. Exceptions - safe harbor. (1) If a cremationist has acted in good faith, the cremationist may rely on a signed statement from a person with the right of final disposition under section 15-19-106, C.R.S., that:

(a) The person knows of no document expressing the deceased person's wishes for final disposition that qualifies to direct the final disposition under section 15-19-104, C.R.S.;

(b) The person has made a reasonable effort under section 15-19-106, C.R.S., to contact each person with the right of final disposition and to learn his or her wishes; and

(c) The person knows of no objections to the final disposition.

(2) (a) (I) A cremationist may dispose of cremains at the expense of the person with the right of final disposition one hundred eighty days after cremation if the person was given clear prior notice of this paragraph (a) and a reasonable opportunity to collect the cremains, the exact location of the final disposition and the costs associated with the final disposition are recorded, and the recovery of the cremains is possible. Recovery of costs is limited to a reasonable amount of the costs actually expended by the cremationist.

(II) A cremationist may comply with this paragraph (a) by transferring the cremated remains and the records showing the funeral establishment and the deceased's name, date of birth, and next of kin for final disposition to a facility or place normally used for final disposition if the new custodian can comply with this paragraph (a).

(III) If cremated remains are not claimed by the person with the right of final disposition within three years after cremation, a cremationist may dispose of the remains in an unrecoverable manner by placing the remains in an ossuary or by scattering the remains in a dedicated cemetery, scattering garden, or consecrated ground used exclusively for these purposes.

(IV) The custodian is not liable for the loss or destruction of records required to be kept by this paragraph (a) if the loss or destruction was not caused by the custodian's negligence.

(b) If the deceased was cremated prior to July 1, 2003, and the cremationist reasonably attempts to notify the person with the right of final disposition of the provisions of this subsection (2), the cremains may be disposed of in accordance with this subsection (2), notwithstanding a failure to provide the notice of the provisions of this subsection (2) to the person with the right of final disposition prior to disposing of the remains.

(3) (a) This part 3 shall not apply to, nor interfere with, any custom or rite of a religious sect in the final disposition of its dead, and the members and followers of the religious sect may continue to provide memorial services for, care for, prepare, and cremate the bodies of deceased members of the religious sect if the human remains are refrigerated, frozen, or cremated within seven days after death.

(b) If human remains are refrigerated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the body must be cremated within thirty days after death unless the coroner authorizes otherwise in writing. The coroner shall not permit an exception to this paragraph (b) unless the applicant can demonstrate a legitimate delay caused by unforeseen, uncontrollable circumstances or by a criminal investigation.

12-54-303. Registration required. (1) Unless practicing at a registered crematory pursuant to this section, a person shall not practice as, or offer the services of, a cremationist, nor shall the crematory sell or offer to sell funeral goods and services to the public.

(2) (a) Each crematory shall register with the director using forms as determined by the director. The registration shall include, without limitation, the following:

(I) The specific location of the crematory;

(II) The full name and address of the designee appointed pursuant to subsection (3) of this section;

(III) The date the crematory began doing business; and

(IV) A list of each of the following services provided at each crematory location:

(A) Refrigerating or holding human remains;

(B) Transporting human remains to or from the crematory or the place of final disposition;

(C) Providing funeral goods or services to the public; and

(D) Cremating human remains.

(b) Each crematory registration shall be renewed, according to a schedule established by the director, in a form as determined by the director.

(c) If, after initial registration, the crematory provides a service listed in subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) that was not included in the initial registration, the crematory shall submit an amended registration within thirty days after beginning to provide the new service.

(d) If, after initial registration, the crematory appoints a new designee, the crematory shall submit an amended registration within thirty days after appointing the designee.

(e) The director may establish registration fees, renewal fees, and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a crematory fails to renew the registration in accordance with the schedule established by the director, the registration shall expire.

(3) Each crematory shall appoint an individual as the designee of the crematory. A designee shall:

(a) Be at least eighteen years of age;

(b) Have at least two years' experience working for a crematory;

(c) Be employed by the registered crematory that the designee represents;

(d) Have the authority within the crematory's organization to require that personnel comply with this article; and

(e) Not be designated for more than one crematory unless the additional establishment is operated under common ownership and management and no crematory is more than sixty miles from another establishment held under the same ownership conditions.

(4) The designee shall require each person employed at the crematory to demonstrate evidence of compliance with section 12-54-304. The designee shall retain the records of such evidence so long as the person is employed at the crematory.

(5) This section shall not require the registration of a nonprofit organization that only provides education or support to an individual who intends to provide for final disposition of human remains.

12-54-305. Records and receipts. (1) The crematory shall furnish to a person who delivers human remains to the crematory a receipt, which shall be signed by both the crematory's representative and the person who delivers the human remains. The crematory shall retain a copy of the receipt in its records pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. The receipt shall include the following:

(a) The date and time of the delivery;

- (b) The type of casket or alternative container that was delivered;
 - (c) The name of the person who delivered the human remains;
 - (d) The name of any business with which the person delivering the human remains is affiliated;
 - (e) The name of the person who received the human remains on behalf of the crematory; and
 - (f) The name of the decedent.
- (2) Upon release of cremains, the crematory shall furnish to the person who receives the cremains a receipt, signed by both the crematory's representative and the person who receives the cremains. The crematory shall retain a copy of the receipt in its records pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The receipt shall include the following:
- (a) The date and time of the release;
 - (b) The name of the person to whom the cremains were released;
 - (c) The name of the person who released the cremains on behalf of the crematory; and
 - (d) The name of the decedent.
- (3) A crematory shall maintain, for at least five years and available at the registered location, a permanent record of each cremation occurring at the facility and copies of the receipts required by this section.

12-54-307. Standards of practice - cremating. (1) A crematory shall:

- (a) Maintain a retort or crematory chamber that is operated at all times in a safe and sanitary manner;
 - (b) Employ reasonable care to minimize the risk of transmitting communicable diseases from human remains;
 - (c) Be equipped with instruments and supplies necessary to protect the health and safety of the public and employees of the crematory; and
 - (d) Transport human remains in a safe and sanitary manner.
- (2) (a) A crematory shall not cremate human remains unless the crematory has obtained a statement containing the following from a funeral establishment, funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, or the person with the right of final disposition:
- (I) The identity of the decedent;
 - (II) The date of death;
 - (III) Authorization to cremate the human remains;
 - (IV) The name of the person authorizing cremation and an affidavit or other document in compliance with article 19 of title 15, C.R.S., that the authorization complies with article 19 of title 15, C.R.S.;
 - (V) A statement that the human remains do not contain an implanted device;
 - (VI) The name of the person authorized to receive the cremains;
 - (VII) A list of items delivered to the crematory along with the human remains;
 - (VIII) A statement as to whether the next of kin has made arrangements for a viewing or service before cremation and the date and time of any viewing or service;
 - (IX) A copy of the disposition permit; and
 - (X) A signature of a representative of any funeral establishment or the next of kin making arrangements for cremation that the representative has no actual knowledge that contradicts any information required by this paragraph (a).

(b) A person who signs the statement required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall warrant the truthfulness of the facts contained therein. A person who signs the statement with actual knowledge to the contrary shall be civilly liable.

(3) (a) The crematory shall hold human remains in a cremation container and shall not remove the remains.

(b) The crematory shall cremate the human remains in a cremation container.

(c) A cremation container must:

(I) Be composed of materials suitable for cremation;

(II) Be able to be closed in order to provide a complete covering for the human remains;

(III) Be resistant to leaking or spilling;

(IV) Be rigid enough to handle with ease;

(V) Provide reasonable protection for the health and safety of crematory employees; and

(VI) Be used exclusively for the cremation of human remains.

(4) A crematory shall not cremate the human remains of more than one person within the same cremation chamber or otherwise commingle the cremains of multiple human remains unless the next of kin has signed a written authorization. No crematory is civilly liable for commingling the cremains of human remains if the next of kin has signed the written authorization.

(5) (a) A crematory shall use a tag to identify human remains and cremains. The tag must be verified, removed, and placed near the cremation chamber control panel prior to cremation. The tag must remain next to the cremation chamber until the cremation is complete.

(b) After cremation is complete, all of the cremains and reasonable recoverable residue shall be removed from the cremation chamber and processed as necessary. Anything other than the cremains shall be disposed of unless the next of kin authorizes otherwise.

(c) The processed cremains shall be placed in a temporary container or urn. Any cremains that do not fit within such enclosure shall be placed in a separate temporary container or urn. Each container shall be marked with the decedent's identity and the name of the crematory. If a temporary container is used, the crematory shall disclose that the temporary container should not be used for permanent storage.

(d) If cremated remains are shipped, the crematory shall use a method that employs an internal tracking system and obtains a signed receipt from the person accepting delivery.

(6) Cremains shall not be commingled with other cremains in final disposition or scattering without written authorization from the next of kin unless the disposition or scattering occurs within a dedicated cemetery or consecrated grounds used exclusively for such purposes.

(7) (a) A crematory shall not cremate human remains containing an implanted device. If the funeral establishment that had control of the human remains failed to ensure that a device was removed, the funeral establishment is responsible for removing the device.

(b) If the person authorizing cremation fails to inform the crematory of the presence of an implanted device, the person shall be solely liable for any resulting damage to the crematory.

PART 4

ADMINISTRATION

12-54-401. Powers and duties of the director - rules. (1) The director may deny, suspend, refuse to renew, issue a letter of admonition or confidential letter of concern to, revoke, place on probation, or limit the scope of practice of the registration of a funeral establishment or crematory under this article that has:

(a) Filed an application with the director containing material misstatements of fact or has omitted any disclosure required by this article;

(b) Had a registration issued by Colorado, or an equivalent license, registration, or certification issued by another state, to practice mortuary science or to embalm or cremate human remains revoked; or

(c) Violated this article or any rule of the director adopted under this article.

(2) (a) The director may deny or revoke a registration if the funeral establishment, crematory, or the designee thereof has been convicted of a felony related to another activity regulated under this article or a felony of moral turpitude. The director shall promptly notify the funeral establishment or crematory of such revocation.

(b) A crematory or funeral establishment whose registration has been revoked shall not be eligible for a registration for two years after the effective date of the revocation.

(3) The director may investigate the activities of a funeral establishment or crematory upon his or her own initiative or upon receipt of a complaint or a suspected or alleged violation of this article.

(4) The director or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., shall conduct disciplinary hearings concerning a registration issued under this article. Such hearings shall conform to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) (a) The director or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing or investigation conducted by the director or an administrative law judge.

(b) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or service of process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed witness resides or conducts business may issue an order requiring the witness to appear before the director or administrative law judge and produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, testimony, or materials in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished as a contempt of court. The director or an administrative law judge may apply for such order.

(6) The director shall keep records of registrations and disciplinary proceedings. The records kept by the director shall be open to public inspection in a reasonable time and manner determined by the director.

(7) When the director or administrative law judge deems it appropriate and useful, the director or administrative law judge may consult with or obtain a written opinion from an appropriate professional organization or association of businesses who offer services requiring registration under this article for the purpose of investigating possible violations or weighing the appropriate standard of care to be applied to specific events or the facts in a hearing being held under this article.

(8) (a) The director may promulgate reasonable rules necessary to implement this section, sections 12-54-110, 12-54-111, 12-54-303, and 12-54-304, and this part 4.

(b) Before promulgating rules, the director shall seek input and advice from a person, or any state professional organization of persons, offering services that require registration pursuant to this article.

(c) Before promulgating rules, the director may seek input and advice from a consumer representative who advocates for consumers affected by this article.

12-54-402. Fees. (1) The director shall establish and collect the fees for a registration issued under this article pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(2) All fees collected by the director shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations for expenditures of the director required to perform his or her duties under this article, which expenditures shall be made from such appropriations upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law. The division shall employ, subject to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, such clerical or other assistants as are necessary for the proper performance of its work.

12-54-403. Immunity. The director, any member of the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action for acts occurring while acting within the scope of the person's capacity as director, staff, consultant, witness, or complainant respectively, if the person was acting in good faith, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which the person acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken was warranted by the facts. A person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil liability that may result from such participation.

12-54-404. Letters of concern. The director may issue and send a confidential letter of concern to the funeral establishment or crematory when a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the funeral establishment or crematory that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected.

12-54-405. Letters of admonition - funeral homes and crematories. (1) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent to a person by certified mail.

(2) When a letter of admonition is sent by the director, the subject shall be advised of the right to request that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based. The subject shall make the request in writing within twenty days after receipt of the letter.

(3) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

12-54-406. Cease-and-desist orders - procedure. (1) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint, that a person is acting in a manner that creates an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unauthorized practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether the alleged acts or practices have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint, that a person has violated this article or rules promulgated under this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from such violations.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration or has engaged in acts or practices constituting violations of this article or rules promulgated under this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further violations.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in an act or practice constituting a violation of this article, a rule promulgated pursuant to this article, an order issued pursuant to this article, or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(4) If a person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order.

12-54-407. Civil penalty - fine. (1) On motion of the director, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for a violation of this article or a rule promulgated under this article. The penalty shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund.

(2) In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this section, a funeral establishment or crematory violating this article or a rule promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined no less than one hundred dollars and no more than five thousand dollars for each violation proven by the director. All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

12-54-408. Enforcement - injunctions. (1) The director may forward to a district attorney or a state or federal law enforcement agency any information concerning possible violations of statute or rule under this article committed by any person or complaints filed against a funeral director, mortuary science practitioner, cremationist, or embalmer.

(2) The director may request that an action be brought in the name of the people of the state of Colorado by the attorney general or the district attorney of the district in which the violation is alleged to have occurred to enjoin a person from engaging in or continuing the violation or from doing any act that furthers the violation. In such an action, an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as is deemed proper by the court. The notice, hearing, or duration of an injunction or restraining order shall be made in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

12-55-104. Application - rules. (1) Every applicant for appointment and commission as a notary public shall complete an application form furnished by the secretary of state to be filed with the secretary of state, stating:

(a) That the applicant is a resident of Colorado who is at least eighteen years of age;

(b) That the applicant is able to read and write the English language;

(c) The addresses and telephone numbers of the applicant's business and residence in this state;

(d) That the applicant's commission as a notary public has never been revoked;

(e) That the applicant has not been convicted of a felony or, in the prior five years, a misdemeanor that disqualifies him or her from being a notary public pursuant to section 12-55-107 (1) (b).

(2) The application shall include a sample of the applicant’s official signature, the applicant’s typed legal name, and the affirmation as provided in section 12-55-105.

(3) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the secretary of state shall ensure, at the earliest practicable time, that an application pursuant to this article may be delivered electronically. All such applications shall be stored by the secretary of state in a medium that is retrievable by the secretary of state in perceivable form.

(4) On and after July 1, 2009, the secretary of state shall verify the lawful presence in the United States of each applicant through the verification process outlined in section 24-76.5-103 (4), C.R.S.

(5) In accordance with section 24-21-111 (1), C.R.S., the secretary of state may require, at the secretary of state’s discretion, the application required by this section, and any renewal of the application, to be made by electronic means designated by the secretary of state. The secretary of state may promulgate rules for use of the electronic filing system in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(6) In accordance with section 42-1-211, C.R.S., the department of state and the department of revenue shall allow for the exchange of information between the systems used by the departments to collect information on legal names and signatures of all applicants for driver’s licenses or state identification cards.

12-55-106.5. Notary’s electronic signature - secretary of state. (1) In every instance, the electronic signature of a notary public shall contain or be accompanied by the following elements, all of which shall be immediately perceptible and reproducible in the electronic record to which the notary's electronic signature is attached: The notary's name; the words "NOTARY PUBLIC" and "STATE OF COLORADO"; a document authentication number issued by the secretary of state; and the words "my commission expires" followed by the expiration date of the notary's commission. A notary's electronic signature shall conform to any standards promulgated by the secretary of state.

(2) The secretary of state shall promulgate rules necessary to establish standards, procedures, practices, forms, and records relating to a notary's electronic signature.

(3) To the extent the provisions of this part 1 differ from the requirements of the federal "Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 7001 et seq., the provisions of this part 1 are intended to modify, limit, or supercede the requirements of such act, as provided for in section 7002 (a) of such act.

12-55-107. Revocation of commission. (1) The secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee may deny the application of any person for appointment or reappointment or take disciplinary or nondisciplinary action against a notary public if the notary public:

(a) Submits an application for commission and appointment that contains substantial and material misstatement or omission of fact;

(b) Is convicted of official misconduct under this part 1 or any felony or, in the prior five years, a misdemeanor involving dishonesty;

(c) Fails to exercise the powers or perform the duties of a notary public in accordance with this part 1;

(d) Knowingly uses false or misleading advertising in which such notary represents that such notary has powers, duties, rights, or privileges that such notary does not possess by law;

(e) Is found by a court of this state to have engaged in the unauthorized practice of law;

(f) Ceases to fulfill the requirements applicable to such notary's most recent appointment;

(g) Notarizes any blank document;

(h) Knowingly uses false or misleading advertising to represent a level of authority not permitted to a notary public by law;

(i) Fails to comply with any term of suspension imposed under this section; or

(j) Performs any notarial act when the notary public's commission is suspended.

(1.5) Whenever the secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee believes that a violation of this article has occurred, the secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee may investigate any such violation. The secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee may also investigate possible violations of this article upon a signed complaint from any person.

(2) For the purposes of this section, disciplinary action may include the following:

(a) Revocation of the notary public's commission;

(b) Suspension of the notary public's commission for a specified period of time, or until the fulfillment of a condition, such as notary retraining, or both.

(2.5) For the purposes of this section, nondisciplinary action includes the issuance of a letter of admonition, which may be placed in the notary public's file. The secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee may issue a letter of admonition to a notary public when a complaint or investigation results in a finding of misconduct that, in the secretary of state's discretion, does not warrant initiation of a disciplinary proceeding.

(3) After a notary public receives notice from the secretary of state or the secretary of state's designee that such notary's commission has been revoked, and unless such revocation has been enjoined, such notary shall immediately send or have delivered to the secretary of state such notary's journal of notarial acts, all other papers and copies relating to such notary's notarial acts, and such notary's official seal.

(4) A person whose notary commission has been revoked pursuant to this part 1 may not apply for or receive a commission and appointment as a notary.

12-55-108. Reappointment - failure to be reappointed. Every notary public, before or at the expiration of the notary's commission, may submit an application for reappointment along with only the information and documentation necessary to reflect any changes to the information submitted in the notary's original application, filed pursuant to sections 12-55-104 and 12-55-105, for the initial application. The secretary of state shall then determine whether or not to reappoint the person as a notary public. If the secretary of state determines not to reappoint the applicant, the applicant may appeal the determination pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

12-55-109. Certificate of appointment - recording. (1) If a person meets the application requirements of sections 12-55-104 and 12-55-105, the secretary of state may issue a certificate of authority qualifying the person as a notary public. The certificate must state the date of expiration of the commission and any other fact concerning the notary public that is required by the laws of this state.

(2) A notary public may record his or her certificate of authority in any county of this state and, after the recording, the county clerk and recorder of the county may issue a certificate that the person is a notary public, the date of expiration of his or her commission, and any other fact concerning the notary public that is required by the laws of this state.

(3) A notary public may exhibit to the judge or clerk of any court of record his or her certificate of authority, and the judge or clerk may thereupon issue a certificate that the person is a notary public, the date of expiration of his or her commission, and any other fact concerning the notary that is required by the laws of this state.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Curative Statutes of Colorado Respecting Titles to Real Estate", see 26 Dicta 281 (1949).

12-55-110. Powers and limitations. (1) Every notary public is empowered to:

(a) Take acknowledgments and other unsworn statements, proof of execution, and attest documents and electronic records;

(b) Administer oaths and affirmations;

(c) Give certificates or other statements as to a notarial act performed by such notary. Such acts shall include, but are not limited to, the giving of certificates as to, or certified copies of, any record or other document relating to a notarial act performed by such notary and certifying that a copy of a document is a true copy of another document or that a facsimile is a true facsimile of another document in accordance with section 12-55-120.

(d) Take depositions, affidavits, verifications, and other sworn testimony or statements;

(d.5) Perform any other act that is recognized or otherwise given effect under the law, rules, or regulations of another jurisdiction, including the United States, provided such other law, rule, or regulation authorizes a notary in this state to perform such act. However, no notary is empowered to perform an act under this paragraph (d.5) if such performance is prohibited by the law, rules, or regulations of this state.

(e) Perform any other act authorized by law, rules, or regulations;

(f) Present and give notice of dishonor and protest notes and other negotiable instruments as provided in part 5 of article 3 of title 4, C.R.S., or the corresponding laws of another jurisdiction.

(2) A notary public who has a disqualifying interest in a transaction may not legally perform any notarial act in connection with such transaction. For the purposes of this section, a notary public has a disqualifying interest in a transaction in connection with which notarial services are requested if he:

(a) May receive directly, and as a proximate result of the notarization, any advantage, right, title, interest, cash, or property exceeding in value the sum of any fee properly received in accordance with this part 1; or

(b) Is named, individually, as a party to the transaction.

(3) In no case shall a notary public notarize any blank document.

(4) No notary shall sign a certificate or other statements as to a notarial act to the effect that a document or any part thereof was attested by an individual, unless:

(a) Such individual has attested such document or part thereof while in the physical presence of such notary; and

(b) Such individual is personally known to such notary as the person named in the certificate, statement, document, or part thereof, or such notary receives satisfactory evidence that such individual is the person so named. For purposes of this paragraph (b), "satisfactory evidence" includes but is not limited to the sworn statement of a credible witness who personally knows such notary and the individual so named, or a current identification card or document issued by a federal or state governmental entity containing a photograph and signature of the individual who is so named.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Signatures on Documents Affecting Title to Colorado Real Property — Parts I and II", see 12 Colo. Law. 61 and 258 (1983).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-55-110 is similar to § 12-55-102 as it existed prior to the 1981 repeal and reenactment of this part 1, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotation to this section.

A notary may perform certain functions with respect to legal papers by virtue of his office. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Bennett, 101 Colo. 403, 74 P.2d 671 (1937).

A notary will not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court for practicing law without a license because he publishes his name in a business directory under the classification "notary" and in juxtaposition to the words, "legal documents". People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Kimsey, 101 Colo. 392, 74 P.2d 663 (1937).

Because the advertisement, "legal papers made", is not sufficient nor indeed any proof that the respondent intended to exceed his authority in the making of legal papers other than those which he was authorized by statute to make. People ex rel. Attorney Gen. v. Wicks, 101 Colo. 397, 74 P.2d 665 (1937).

12-55-110.3. Advertisements for services - unauthorized practice of law - prohibited conduct - penalties. (1) (a) A notary public who is not a licensed attorney in the state of Colorado and who advertises, including by signage, his or her services in a language other than English shall include in the advertisement the following notice, both in English and in the language of the advertisement:

I AM NOT AN ATTORNEY LICENSED TO PRACTICE LAW IN THE STATE OF COLORADO AND I MAY NOT GIVE LEGAL ADVICE OR ACCEPT FEES FOR LEGAL ADVICE.

(b) All written advertisements shall include the language exactly as written in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). Such language shall be clearly visible. Oral advertisements or solicitations, including those on radio or television, shall contain the same message but shall not be required to use the exact language.

(2) A notary public who advertises in a language other than English shall post a list of fees permitted by law for notarial services. Such list shall be written in English and in the language of the advertisement and shall be posted in a highly visible location at the notary's place of business. Such list shall include the notice included in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (a) A notary public who is not a licensed attorney in the state of Colorado shall not represent or advertise himself or herself as an immigration consultant or an expert on immigration matters.

(b) A notary public who is not an attorney licensed to practice law in Colorado is prohibited from:

(I) Providing any service that constitutes the unauthorized practice of law;

(II) Stating or implying that he or she is an attorney licensed to practice law in this state;

(III) Soliciting or accepting compensation to prepare documents for or otherwise represent the interest of another in a judicial or administrative proceeding, including a proceeding relating to immigration to the United States, United States citizenship, or related matters;

(IV) Soliciting or accepting compensation to obtain relief of any kind on behalf of another from any officer, agency, or employee of the state of Colorado or of the United States; or

(V) Using the phrase "notario" or "notario publico" to advertise the services of a notary public, whether by sign, pamphlet, stationery, or other written communication or by radio, television, or other nonwritten communication.

This section is broad enough to cover affidavits taken and certified by notaries in criminal cases upon applications for change of venue, continuances, and the like, and also affidavits on which an information is based. Walker v. People, 22 Colo. 415, 45 P. 388 (1896).

Signing another's name and notarizing the forged signature violates this section. Willey v. Mayer, 862 P.2d 959 (Colo. App. 1993).

Signing a petition as an elector does not make a notary a named party to the transaction unless the petition itself names the notary as the subject of the petition, such as where a candidate notarizes his or her own nomination petition. The same person can sign and notarize a single petition section without thereby creating a disqualifying interest in the transaction. Therefore, a city clerk abused her discretion in invalidating the petitions that the notary signed as both a notary and an elector. Griff v. City of Grand Junction, 262 P.3d 906 (Colo. App. 2010).

(4) Knowing and willful violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute a deceptive trade practice pursuant to section 6-1-105, C.R.S., and shall also constitute official misconduct pursuant to section 12-55-116.

12-55-110.5. Accommodation of physical limitations. (1) A notary public may certify as to the subscription or signature of an individual when it appears that such individual has a physical limitation that restricts such individual's ability to sign by writing or making a mark, pursuant to the following:

(a) The name of an individual may be signed, or attached electronically in the case of an electronic record, by another individual other than the notary public at the direction and in the presence of the individual whose name is to be signed and in the presence of the notary public.

(b) The words "Signature written by" or "Signature attached by" in the case of an electronic record, "(name of individual directed to sign or directed to attach) at the direction and in the presence of (name as signed) on whose behalf the signature was written" or "attached electronically" in the case of an electronic record, or words of substantially similar effect shall appear under or near the signature.

(2) A notary public may use signals or electronic or mechanical means to take an acknowledgment from, administer an oath or affirmation to, or otherwise communicate with any individual in the presence of such notary public when it appears that such individual is unable to communicate verbally or in writing.

12-55-111. Journal. (1) Every notary public shall keep a journal of every notarial act of the notary and, if required, give a certified copy of or a certificate as to any such journal or any of the notary's acts, upon payment of the notary's fee.

(2) For each notarial act, a notary's journal shall contain the following information:

(a) The type and date of the notarial act;

(b) The title or type of document or proceeding that was notarized and the date of such document or proceeding, if different than the date of the notarization;

(c) The name of each person whose oath, affirmation, acknowledgment, affidavit, declaration, deposition, protest, verification, or other statement is taken;

(d) The signature and address of each person whose oath, affirmation, acknowledgment, affidavit, declaration, deposition, protest, verification, or other statement is taken;

(e) The signature, printed name, and address of each witness to the notarization;

(f) Any other information the notary considers appropriate to record that concerns the notarial act.

(3) (a) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any document or electronic record where the original or a copy of such document or electronic record contains the information otherwise required to be entered in the notary's journal and such original or copy or electronic record is retained by the notary's firm or employer in the regular course of business.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this subsection (3) to the contrary, no firm, employer, or professionally licensed person shall prohibit an employee who is a notary from maintaining a journal of his or her notarial acts in the regular course of business of such firm, employer, or professionally licensed person.

(c) For purposes of this subsection (3), "firm" includes but is not limited to an office where the business of a real estate broker, lawyer, title insurance company, title insurance agent, or other licensed professional is regularly carried on and the records of such business are regularly maintained.

(4) Except as otherwise exempted by paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section or by another law of this state, for each electronic record or document signed by the notary public, the notary public shall record the document authentication number issued by the secretary of state for each document authenticated in the journal pursuant to this section.

12-55-112. Official signature - rubber stamp seal - seal embosser - notary's electronic signature. (1) At the time of notarization, a notary public shall sign his or her official signature on every notary certificate or, in the case of an electronic record, a notary public shall affix his or her electronic signature.

(2) Under or near his or her official signature on every notary certificate, a notary public shall clearly and legibly stamp his or her official seal. The official notary seal must be rectangular. The official notary seal shall contain only the outline of the seal and the following information contained within the outline of the seal:

- (a) The printed legal name of the notary;
- (b) The notary's identification number, the notary's commission expiration date, the words "STATE OF COLORADO"; and
- (c) The words "NOTARY PUBLIC".

(2.3) The fact that a notary attests to an instrument relating to real property by affixing a notary seal that is not in compliance with this section does not render the instrument or the attestation invalid or ineffective, nor does it render a title unmarketable.

(2.5) A notary who obtained an official seal before August 8, 2012, may continue to use his or her seal until renewal of his or her notary commission.

(3) Repealed.

(4) A notary public shall not provide, keep, or use a seal embosser.

(4.5) In the case of notarization of an electronic record, the application of a notary's electronic signature in lieu of a handwritten signature and rubber stamp seal is sufficient. A notary shall not use an electronic signature unless:

(a) The notary uses a journal if maintaining the journal is required by section 12-55-111; and

(b) The notary attaches to the document a document authentication number issued by the secretary of state.

(5) The illegibility of any of the information required by this section does not affect the validity of a document or transaction.

(6) For purposes of this section, "notary certificate" means a certificate or other statement of a notary relating to a notarial act performed by the notary.

12-55-113. Lost journal or official seal. Every notary public shall send or have delivered notice to the secretary of state within thirty days after the notary loses or misplaces such notary's journal of notarial acts, or official seal, or the notary becomes aware that any other person has electronic control of his or her electronic signature. The fee payable to the secretary of state for recording notice of a lost journal, or seal, or that another person has electronic control of a notary's electronic signature shall be determined and collected pursuant to section 24-21-104 (3), C.R.S.

12-55-115. Death - resignation - removal from state. (1) If a notary public dies during the term of the notary's appointment, the notary's heirs or personal representative, as soon as reasonably possible after the notary's death, shall send or have delivered to the secretary of state the deceased notary's journal of notarial acts and the notary's seal, if available.

(2) If a notary public no longer desires to be a notary public or has ceased to have a business or residence address in this state, the notary shall send or have delivered to the secretary of state a letter of resignation, the notary's journal of notarial acts, and all other papers and copies relating to the notary's notarial acts, including the notary's seal. The notary's commission shall thereafter cease to be in effect.

12-55-116. Official misconduct by a notary public - liability of notary or surety. (1) A notary public who knowingly and willfully violates the duties imposed by this part 1 commits official misconduct and is guilty of a class 2 misdemeanor.

(2) A notary public and the surety or sureties on his bond are liable to the persons involved for all damages proximately caused by the notary's official misconduct.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to deny a notary public the right to obtain a surety bond or insurance on a voluntary basis to provide coverage for liability.

12-55-119. Affirmation procedures - form. (1) If an affirmation is to be administered by the notary public in writing, the person taking the affirmation shall sign his name thereto, and the notary public shall write or print under the text of the affirmation the fact that the document has been subscribed and affirmed, or sworn to before me in the county of _____, state of Colorado, this _____ day of _____, 20____.
(official signature, seal, and commission expiration date of notary) _____.

(2) If an affirmation is to be administered by the notary public in an electronic record, the person taking the affirmation shall attach his or her electronic signature thereto. Within the affirmation, the notary shall add the fact that the document has been subscribed and affirmed, or sworn to before me in the county of _____, state of Colorado, this _____ day of _____, 20____.
(notary's electronic signature) _____.

12-55-120. Certified facsimiles of documents - procedure and form. (1) A notary public may certify a facsimile of a document if the original of the document is exhibited to him, together with a signed written request stating that:

(a) A certified copy or facsimile of the document cannot be obtained from the office of any clerk and recorder of public documents or custodian of documents in this state; and

(b) The production of a facsimile, preparation of a copy, or certification of a copy of the document does not violate any state or federal law.

(2) The certification of a facsimile shall be substantially in the following form:

"State of _____, County (or City) of _____, I, (name of notary) _____, a Notary Public in and for said state, do certify that on _____ (date), I carefully compared with the original the attached facsimile of _____ (type of document) _____ and the facsimile I now hold in my possession. They are complete, full, true, and exact facsimiles of the document they purport to reproduce.

12-55-121. Fees. (1) The fees of notaries public may be, but shall not exceed, five dollars for each document attested by a person before a notary, except as otherwise provided by law. The fee for each such document shall include the following incidental services of such notary:

(a) Receiving evidence of such person’s identity as enumerated in section 12-55-110 (4);

(b) Administering an oath or affirmation to such person; and

(c) Signing and sealing a certificate or statement of such notary that is included in or attached to such document and evidences that the document was attested before such notary.

(2) In lieu of the fee authorized in subsection (1) of this section, a notary public may charge a fee, not to exceed ten dollars, for the notary’s electronic signature.

PART 2

UNIFORM RECOGNITION OF ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

12-55-201. Short title. This part 2 shall be known and may be cited as the “Uniform Recognition of Acknowledgments Act”.

12-55-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Notarial acts” means acts which the laws and regulations of this state authorize notaries public of this state to perform, including, but not limited to, the administering of oaths and affirmations, taking proof of execution and acknowledgments of instruments, and attesting documents.

12-55-203. Recognition of notarial acts performed outside this state. (1) Notarial acts may be performed outside this state for use in this state with the same effect as if performed by a notary public of this state by the following persons authorized pursuant to the laws and regulations of other governments, in addition to any other person authorized by the laws and regulations of this state:

(a) A notary public authorized to perform notarial acts in the place in which the act is performed;

(b) A judge, clerk, or deputy clerk of any court of record in the place in which the notarial act is performed;

(c) An officer of the foreign service of the United States, a consular agent, or any other person authorized by regulation of the United States department of state to perform notarial acts in the place in which the act is performed;

(d) A commissioned officer in active service with the armed forces of the United States and any other person authorized by regulation of the armed forces to perform notarial acts if the notarial act is performed for one of the following or his dependents: A merchant seaman of the United States, a member of the armed forces of the United States, or any other person serving with or accompanying the armed forces of the United States; or

(e) Any other person authorized to perform notarial acts in the place in which the act is performed.

ANNOTATION

Additional evidence of authenticity not required for admissibility. An out-of-state affidavit of indigency, once sworn before and acknowledged by a notary, requires no further evidence of authenticity as a condition precedent to its admissibility. Otani v. District Court, 662 P.2d 1088 (Colo. 1983).

12-55-204. Authentication of authority of officer. (1) If the notarial act is performed by any of the persons described in section 12-55-203 (1) (a) to (1) (d), other than a person authorized to perform notarial acts by the laws or regulations of a foreign country, the signature, rank, or title and serial number, if any, of the person are sufficient proof of the authority of a holder of that rank or title to perform the act. Further proof of his authority is not required.

(2) If the notarial act is performed by a person authorized by the laws or regulations of a foreign country to perform the act, there is sufficient proof of the authority of that person to act if:

(a) Either a foreign service officer of the United States resident in the country in which the act is performed or a diplomatic or consular officer of the foreign country resident in the United States certifies that a person holding that office is authorized to perform the act;

(b) Either the official seal of the person performing the notarial act is affixed to the document, or, in the case of an electronic record, such information that is required in lieu of a notary seal by the laws of the place granting notarial authority to the person performing the notarial act is attached to or logically associated with the document; or

(c) The title and indication of authority to perform notarial acts of the person appears either in a digest of foreign law or in a list customarily used as a source of such information.

(3) If the notarial act is performed by a person other than one described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, there is sufficient proof of the authority of that person to act if the clerk of a court of record in the place in which the notarial act is performed certifies to the official character of that person and to his authority to perform the notarial act.

(4) The signature and title of the person performing the act are prima facie evidence that he is a person with the designated title and that the signature is genuine.

12-55-205. Certificate of person taking acknowledgment. (1) The person taking an acknowledgment shall certify that:

(a) The person acknowledging appeared before him and acknowledged he executed the instrument; and

(b) The person acknowledging was known to the person taking the acknowledgment or that the person taking the acknowledgment had satisfactory evidence that the person acknowledging was the person described in and who executed the instrument.

12-55-206. Recognition of certificate of acknowledgment. (1) The form of a certificate of acknowledgment used by a person whose authority is recognized under section 12-55-203 shall be accepted in this state if:

(a) The certificate is in a form prescribed by the laws or regulations of this state; or

(b) The certificate is in a form prescribed by the laws or regulations applicable in the place in which the acknowledgment is taken; or

(c) The certificate contains the words "acknowledged before me", or their substantial equivalent.

12-55-207. Certificate of acknowledgment. (1) "Acknowledged before me" means:

(a) That the person acknowledging appeared before the person taking the acknowledgment; and

(b) That he acknowledged he executed the instrument; and

(c) That, in the case of:

(I) A natural person, he executed the instrument for the purposes therein stated;

(II) A corporation, the officer or agent acknowledged he held the position or title set forth in the instrument and certificate, he signed the instrument on behalf of the corporation by proper authority, and the instrument was the act of the corporation for the purpose therein stated;

(III) A partnership, the partner or agent acknowledged he signed the instrument on behalf of the partnership by proper authority and he executed the instrument as the act of the partnership for the purposes therein stated;

(IV) A person acknowledging as principal by an attorney in fact, he executed the instrument by proper authority as the act of the principal for the purposes therein stated;

(V) A person acknowledging as a public officer, trustee, administrator, guardian, or other representative, he signed the instrument by proper authority and he executed the instrument in the capacity and for the purposes therein stated; and

(d) That the person taking the acknowledgment either knew or had satisfactory evidence that the person acknowledging was the person named in the instrument or certificate.

12-55-208. Short forms of acknowledgment. (1) The forms of acknowledgment set forth in this section may be used and are sufficient for their respective purposes under any law of this state. The forms shall be known as "Statutory Short Forms of Acknowledgment" and may be referred to by that name. The authorization of the following forms does not preclude the use of other forms:

(a) For an individual acting in his own right:

"State of

County of

The foregoing instrument was acknowledged before me this (date) by (name of person acknowledged).

(signature of person taking acknowledgment)
(title or rank)
(serial number, if any)";

(b) For a corporation:

"State of

County of

The foregoing instrument was acknowledged before me this (date) by (name of officer or agent, title of officer or agent) of (name of corporation acknowledging) a (state or place of incorporation, corporation, on behalf of the corporation).

(signature of person taking acknowledgment)
(title or rank)
(serial number, if any)";

(c) For a partnership:

"State of

County of

The foregoing instrument was acknowledged before me this (date) by (name of acknowledging partner or agent), partner (or agent) on behalf of (name of partnership), a partnership.

(signature of person taking acknowledgment)
(title or rank)
(serial number, if any)";

(d) For an individual acting as principal by an attorney in fact:

"State of

County of

The foregoing instrument was acknowledged before me this (date) by (name of attorney-in-fact) as attorney in fact on behalf of (name of principal).

(signature of person taking acknowledgment)
(title or rank)
(serial number, if any)";

(e) By any public officer, trustee, or personal representative:

12-55-209. Acknowledgments not affected by this part 2. A notarial act performed prior to July 1, 1969, is not affected by this part 2. This part 2 provides an additional method of proving notarial acts. Nothing in this part 2 diminishes or invalidates the recognition accorded to notarial acts by other laws or regulations of this state.

PART 3

UNIFORM UNSWORN FOREIGN DECLARATIONS ACT

OFFICIAL COMMENT

UNIFORM UNSWORN FOREIGN DECLARATIONS ACT

PREFATORY NOTE

Declarations of persons abroad are routinely received in state and federal courts and agencies. Many of the declarations are affidavits and other documents sworn to by declarants before authorized officials in United States embassies and consulate offices. Affiants in foreign countries with information relevant to U.S. proceedings or transactions could visit the U.S. consular office to finalize their affidavit or statement in a manner similar to a person within the U.S. visiting a notary public.

In recent years, though, particularly after the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, access to U.S. embassies and consulates has become more difficult because of closings or added security. Thus, obtaining appropriately sworn foreign declarations for court or agency use is much more difficult in the post-9/11 environment.

The Uniform Unsworn Foreign Declarations Act (UUFDA) was promulgated by the Uniform Law Commission at its Annual Meeting in 2008 to address this situation and to harmonize state and federal law.

UUFDA affirms the use in state legal proceedings of unsworn declarations made by declarants who are physically outside the boundaries of the United States when making the declaration. Under the UUFDA, if an unsworn declaration is made subject to penalties for perjury and contains the information in the model form provided in the act, then the statement may be used as an equivalent of a sworn declaration. The UUFDA excludes use of unsworn declarations for depositions, oaths of office, oaths related to self-proved wills, declarations recorded under certain real estate statutes, and oaths required to be given before specified officials other than a notary.

The UUFDA will extend to state proceedings the same flexibility that federal courts have employed for over 30 years. Since 1976, federal law (28 U.S.C. 1746) has allowed an unsworn declaration executed outside the United States to be recognized and valid as the equivalent of a sworn affidavit if it contained an affirmation substantially in the form set forth in the federal act.

Several states also allow the use of foreign declarations (e.g., Cal. Civ. Proc. Code 2015.5), but the state procedures are not uniform. Further, courts have ruled that 28 U.S.C. § 1746 is inapplicable to state court proceedings.

Enactment of the UUFDA harmonizes state and federal treatment of unsworn declarations. The act alleviates foreign affiants' burden in providing important information for state proceedings, while at the same time helping to reduce congestion in U.S. consular offices and allowing consular officials to increase focus on core responsibilities. Further, UUFDA will reduce aspects of confusion abroad regarding differences in federal and state litigation practice and help prevent potential negative connotations about cumbersome and inconsistent legal proceedings in the U.S. It should be enacted in every state.

12-55-301. Short title. This part 3 may be cited as the “Uniform Unsworn Foreign Declarations Act”.

12-55-302. Definitions. In this part 3:

(1) “Boundaries of the United States” means the geographic boundaries of the United States, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, and any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(2) “Law” includes the federal or a state constitution, a federal or state statute, a judicial decision or order, a rule of court, an executive order, and an administrative rule, regulation, or order.

(3) “Record” means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(4) “Sign” means, with present intent to authenticate or adopt a record:

(A) To execute or adopt a tangible symbol; or

(B) To attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic symbol, sound, or process.

(5) “State” means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(6) “Sworn declaration” means a declaration in a signed record given under oath. The term includes a sworn statement, verification, certificate, and affidavit.

(7) “Unsworn declaration” means a declaration in a signed record that is not given under oath, but is given under penalty of perjury.

Source: L. 2009: Entire part added, (HB 09-1190), ch. 115, p. 483, § 1, effective August 5.

OFFICIAL COMMENT

1. The District of Columbia is included in the definition of “boundaries of the United States” to eliminate any potential ambiguity.

2. The definition of “law” is drafted in an open-ended manner to give it the widest possible application. The term is not ordinarily defined in uniform acts but in this context it is important that judges applying the act be in no doubt about its breadth. The wording is taken from the definition contained in the Revised Model State Administrative Procedure Act.

3. A “record” includes information that is in intangible form (e.g., electronically stored) as well as tangible form (e.g., written on paper). It is consistent with the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act and the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq.).

4. The definition of “sign” is broad enough to cover any writing containing a traditional signature and any record containing an electronic signature. It is consistent with the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act and the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (15 U.S.C. § 7001 et seq.).

12-55-303. Applicability. This part 3 applies to an unsworn declaration by a declarant who at the time of making the declaration is physically located outside the boundaries of the United States whether or not the location is subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. This part 3 does not apply to a declaration by a declarant who is physically located on property that is within the boundaries of the United States and subject to the jurisdiction of another country or a federally recognized Indian tribe.

OFFICIAL COMMENT

In keeping with the limited scope of the act, an unsworn declaration made within the geographical boundaries of the United States, even if the location is under the control of another sovereign, such as foreign embassies or consulates or federally recognized Indian lands, should not be deemed “outside the boundaries of the United States” for the purposes of this act. The act, so limited, meets the immediate needs addressed by the act. Moreover, notaries and officials authorized to administer oaths are more readily available in the United States.

12-55-304. Validity of unsworn declaration. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, if a law of this state requires or permits use of a sworn declaration, an unsworn declaration meeting the requirements of this part 3 has the same effect as a sworn declaration.

- (b) This part 3 does not apply to:
 - (1) A deposition;
 - (2) An oath of office;
 - (3) An oath required to be given before a specified official other than a notary public;
 - (4) A declaration to be recorded pursuant to article 35 of title 38, C.R.S., for the purposes of conveying and recording title to real property or a declaration required to be recorded for purposes of registering title to real property pursuant to article 36 of title 38, C.R.S.; or
 - (5) An oath required by section 15-11-504, C.R.S., for a self-proved will.

Source: L. 2009: Entire part added, (HB 09-1190), ch. 115, p. 484, § 1, effective August 5.

OFFICIAL COMMENT

The use of unsworn declarations is not limited to litigation. Unsworn declarations would be usable in civil, criminal, and regulatory proceedings and settings. However, there are certain contexts in which unsworn declarations should not be used, and these contexts are listed in this section.

Except as provided in section 4 of this act, pursuant to this section, an unsworn declaration meeting the requirements of this act may be used in a state proceeding or transaction whenever other state law authorizes the use of a sworn declaration. Thus, if other state law, permits the use of either sworn testimony or an affidavit, an unsworn declaration meeting the requirements of this act would also suffice. Additionally, if other state law authorizes other substitutes for a sworn declaration, such as an affirmation, then as provided in subsection (a) of this section, an unsworn declaration meeting the requirements of this act could serve as a substitute for an affirmation.

12-55-305. Required medium. If a law of this state requires that a sworn declaration be presented in a particular medium, an unsworn declaration must be presented in that medium.

Source: L. 2009: Entire part added, (HB 09-1190), ch. 115, p. 484, § 1, effective August 5.

OFFICIAL COMMENT

Courts and agencies often restrict the medium in which pleadings, motions, and other documents may be filed. This section recognizes that such a restriction is binding on a person seeking to introduce a foreign unsworn declaration.

12-55-306. Form of unsworn declaration. An unsworn declaration under this part 3 must be in substantially the following form:

Executed on the _____ day of _____,
(date) (month) (year)

at _____ (city or other location, and state) (country)

OFFICIAL COMMENT

Section 3 of this act authorizes the use of unsworn declarations made outside the boundaries of the United States as defined in Section 2(1). The formal declaration in this section recites the areas defined as within the boundaries and does not rely on the definition in Section 2(1) because the person making the formal declaration might believe, and therefore declare that he or she is outside the boundaries of the United States even though at the time of the declaration the person making the declaration is in the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, or one of the other territories or insular possessions of the United States. The form of the declaration lessens the opportunity for mistake or fraud.

12-55-307. Uniformity of application and construction. In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

Source: L. 2009: Entire part added, (HB 09-1190), ch. 115, p. 485, § 1, effective August 5.

OFFICIAL COMMENT

This section recites the importance of uniformity among the adopting states when applying and construing the act.

12-55-308. Relation to “Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act”. This part 3 modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal “Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede section 101 (c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. sec. 7001 (c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in section 103 (b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. sec. 7003 (b).

Source: L. 2009: Entire part added, (HB 09-1190), ch. 115, p. 485, § 1, effective August 5.

OFFICIAL COMMENT

This section responds to the specific language of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act and is designed to avoid preemption of state law under that federal legislation.

12-55.5-101. Legislative declaration. It is the intent of the general assembly to promote and encourage residents and nonresidents alike to participate in the enjoyment and use of the mountains, rivers, and streams of Colorado and the state's fish and game and, to that end, in the exercise of the police power of this state for the purpose of safeguarding the health, safety, welfare, and freedom from injury or danger of such residents and nonresidents, to register and regulate those persons who, for compensation, provide equipment or personal services to such residents and nonresidents for the purpose of hunting and fishing. It is neither the intent of the general assembly to interfere in any way with the business of livestock operations or to prevent livestock owners from loaning or leasing buildings or animals to persons, nor is it intended to prevent said owner from accompanying a person or persons on land that such person owns, nor is it the intent of the general assembly to interfere in any way with the general public's ability to enjoy the recreational value of Colorado's mountains, rivers, and streams when the services of commercial outfitters are not utilized nor to interfere with the right of the United States to manage the public lands under its control.

12-55.5-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Compensation" means making, or attempting to make, a profit, salary, or increase in business or financial standing, or supporting any part of other programs or activities, to include receiving fees, charges, dues, service swaps, or something which is not strictly a sharing of actual expenses incurred from amounts received from or for outfitting services rendered or to be rendered.

(1.5) "Consultant" means a person who is hired by the director to assist in any investigation initiated under this article or any member of an advisory committee appointed pursuant to section 12-55.5-111.

(2) "Director" means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(3) "Division" means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(3.5) "Entity" means an entity authorized by Colorado law to conduct business, including, but not limited to, a corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, or limited liability company.

(4) "Guide" means any individual who:

(a) Accompanies an outfitter's client to assist the client in the taking or attempted taking of wildlife; and

(b) Either:

(I) Is employed for compensation by an outfitter; or

(II) Has independently contracted with an outfitter.

(5) "Outfitter" means any individual soliciting to provide or providing, for compensation, outfitting services for the purpose of hunting or fishing on land that such individual does not own.

(5.5) "Outfitting services" means providing transportation of individuals, equipment, supplies, or wildlife by means of vehicle, vessel, or pack animal, facilities including but not limited to tents, cabins, camp gear, food, or similar supplies, equipment, or accommodations, and guiding, leading, packing, protecting, supervising, instructing, or training persons or groups of persons in the take or attempted take of wildlife.

(6) "Peace officer" means a peace officer as described in section 16-2.5-101, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Soliciting a person to hunt on land the solicitor leases is not providing outfitting services. Since authorizing a person to hunt on land owned by the solicitor is expressly excepted from this article, soliciting such an arrangement is not providing outfitting services. Therefore, the solicitation does not require registration. McCool v. Sears, 186 P.3d 147 (Colo. App. 2008).

12-55.5-103. Registration required - fees. (1) No individual shall engage in activities as an outfitter or advertise in any publication or represent himself as an outfitter unless he first obtains a certificate of registration from the division and unless such certificate of registration is in full force and effect and in such individual's immediate possession. No individual shall continue to act as an outfitter if such registration has been suspended or revoked or has expired.

(2) An applicant for registration as an outfitter shall follow the procedures provided in section 12-55.5-105 and any other procedures required by the director. All applicants shall pay a nonrefundable registration fee to be determined by the director, which fee shall be adequate to cover the direct and indirect expenses incurred for implementation of the provisions of this article. Such registration shall be renewable pursuant to the provisions of this article and upon payment of said fee.

ANNOTATION

Acting as a booking agent is not solicitation to provide outfitting services. Soliciting to provide outfitting services does not require registration unless the person who solicits the services intends to provide the services. McCool v. Sears, 186 P.3d 147 (Colo. App. 2008).

Soliciting a person to hunt on land the solicitor leases is not providing outfitting services. Since authorizing a person to hunt on land owned by the solicitor is expressly excepted from this article, soliciting such an arrangement is not providing outfitting services. Therefore, the solicitation does not require registration. McCool v. Sears, 186 P.3d 147 (Colo. App. 2008).

12-55.5-103.5. Guide qualifications. (1) A person who works as a guide shall be eighteen years of age or older and shall hold either a valid first aid or first aid instructor's card issued by the American red cross or evidence of equivalent training credentials as approved by the director. A person who violates this subsection (1) is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars.

(2) It is a violation of this article for any person whose outfitter registration has been revoked or suspended to work as a guide.

12-55.5-104. Powers and duties of the director. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the director by this article or by any other law, the director:

(a) May promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-103, C.R.S., to govern the registration of outfitters to carry out the purposes of this article;

(b) (I) May administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to perform the functions of this subparagraph (I) and to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the director.

(II) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(c) Is authorized to apply for injunctive relief, in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure, to enforce the provisions of this article or to restrain any violation thereof. In such proceedings, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof.

ANNOTATION

Rules that were expressly or impliedly authorized by the enabling legislation included rules allowing disciplinary action against an outfitter who consistently and intentionally failed to perform promised obligations; rules requiring outfitters to provide clients with a written contract within 30 days of the receipt and acceptance of a deposit from a client; and rules requiring an outfitter to disclose any material condition in his or her written agreement. Sears v. Romer, 928 P.2d 745 (Colo. App. 1996).

12-55.5-105. Issuance of certificate of registration - violations. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this article, the director shall issue an initial or renewed certificate of registration as an outfitter to any individual who pays the required fee and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the director that such individual:

- (a) Is eighteen years of age or older;
- (b) Holds a valid instructor's card in first aid or a standard first aid card issued by the American red cross or evidence of equivalent training;
- (c) Possesses minimum liability insurance coverage in the amount of fifty thousand dollars for bodily injury to one person in any single accident and one hundred thousand dollars for bodily injury to all persons in any single accident;
- (d) Has submitted to the director a surety bond in the minimum sum of ten thousand dollars, executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company qualified and authorized to do business in this state as surety. Such bond shall be conditioned upon compliance with the provisions of this article and with the rules and regulations promulgated under this article.
- (e) Holds a valid first aid or first aid instructor's card issued by the American red cross or evidence of equivalent training credentials as approved by the director; and
- (f) Has, or will have before providing outfitting services, all the required permits or written permission on the land where the outfitter provides outfitting services.

(2) and (3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 93, p. 1490, § 3, effective July 1, 1993.)

(4) An individual or entity may register as an outfitter. An application for registration of an entity shall include the names of all officers, directors, members, partners, owners of at least ten percent of the entity, and other persons who have managing or controlling authority in the entity. The entity shall designate on the application for outfitter registration one of its officers, directors, members, partners, or other controlling or managing individuals to be the responsible party and agent for the entity for all communications with the division. If the entity changes its responsible party and agent, it shall notify the division within ten working days after the name change and provide contact information for the new responsible party and agent. If such responsible party and agent does not provide guide services, he or she shall not be required to comply with paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(5) Renewals and reinstatement of certificates shall be pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her certification pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such certificate shall expire. Any person whose certificate has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-55.5-106. Disciplinary actions - grounds for discipline. (1) The director may deny, suspend, revoke, or place on probation an outfitter's registration if the applicant or holder:

- (a) Violates any order of the division or the director or any provision of this article or the rules and regulations established under this article;
- (b) Fails to meet the requirements of section 12-55.5-105 or uses fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in applying for or attempting to apply for registration;
- (c) Violates any local, state, or federal law related to public land management, wildlife, health, or cruelty to animals, including, but not limited to, section 33-6-113, C.R.S.;

(d) Is convicted of or has entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to a felony; except that the director shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., in considering such conviction or plea;

(e) Uses false, deceptive, or misleading advertising;

(f) Misrepresents his services, facilities, or equipment to a client or prospective client;

(g) Is addicted to or dependent upon alcohol or any controlled substance or is a habitual user of a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(h) Has incurred disciplinary action related to the practice of outfitting in another jurisdiction. Evidence of such disciplinary action shall be prima facie evidence for denial of registration or other disciplinary action if the violation would be grounds for such disciplinary action in this state.

(i) Has been convicted of second or third degree criminal trespass pursuant to section 18-4-503 or 18-4-504, C.R.S.; except that the director shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., in considering such conviction;

(j) Hires any person as a guide who fails to meet the requirements of section 12-55.5-103.5, unless such hiring is a result of an emergency situation, as defined by rules promulgated by the director, in which case the outfitter may hire a guide who does not possess a valid first aid card or first aid instructor's card;

(k) Serves or consumes alcohol while engaged in the activities of an outfitter, if the applicant or holder is under twenty-one years of age; or

(l) Violates section 18-4-503 or 18-4-504, C.R.S., resulting in two or more second or third degree criminal trespass convictions within any three- to five-year period while acting as an outfitter or guide.

(2) Any proceeding to deny, suspend, revoke, or place on probation a registration shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S. The director may use an administrative law judge employed by the office of administrative courts in the department of personnel to conduct hearings. Any person whose registration is denied, suspended, placed on probation, or revoked shall pay for the costs incurred in bringing and conducting such proceeding.

(3) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the registrant.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the director, by certified mail, to a registrant, such registrant shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the director may deny an initial or renewal application for registration if:

(a) The applicant is an individual who was previously listed as participating in an entity pursuant to section 12-55.5-105 (4), and such entity was subjected to discipline under this article;

(b) The applicant is an entity, the entity lists an individual as participating in the entity pursuant to section 12-55.5-105 (4), and that individual was previously listed as a participating person in an entity that was subjected to discipline under this article; or

(c) The applicant is an entity, the entity lists an individual as a participating person pursuant to section 12-55.5-105 (4), and that individual was previously subjected to discipline under this article.

(5) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

ANNOTATION

Provision for payments of costs does not violate equal protection guarantees in that it has a rational basis and is reasonably related to the state's legitimate governmental purpose of protecting the public safety. The statute discourages statutory violations and encourages settlement of meritorious claims against outfitters while also encouraging the agency to bring only meritorious claims and deterring alleged violators from raising frivolous claims or defenses. Sears v. Romer, 928 P.2d 745 (Colo. App. 1996).

Director's interpretation of the term "costs" to include the amount billed by the division of administrative hearings for an administrative law judge and his or her legal assistant and the appearance fee of the court reporter was reasonable. Sears v. Romer, 928 P.2d 745 (Colo. App. 1996).

12-55.5-107. Penalties - distribution of fines. (1) Any person who violates the provisions of this article or the rules of the director promulgated under this article may be penalized by the director upon a finding of a violation subject to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., as follows:

(a) In the first administrative proceeding against any person, a fine of not less than one hundred dollars but not more than five hundred dollars per violation;

(b) In any subsequent administrative proceeding against any person for transactions occurring after a final agency action determining that a violation of this article has occurred, a fine of not less than one thousand dollars but not more than two thousand dollars per violation;

(c) In an administrative proceeding against a person for a violation of section 12-55.5-103 (1), a fine of not less than one thousand dollars but not more than five thousand dollars per violation.

(1.5) Repealed.

(2) In addition to the penalties provided in subsection (1) of this section, the director, upon a finding of a violation, may deny, suspend, revoke, or place on probation an outfitter's registration or take other disciplinary action as provided in section 12-55.5-106 (3).

(3) Any person who engages in activities as an outfitter shall maintain all applicable documents, records, and other items, for the current year and the preceding four years at the address listed on the registration, required to be maintained by this article or by the rules or regulations of the director when requested to do so by any peace officer. Any such person who refuses to permit the inspection of such documents, records, or items is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars.

(5) All fines collected pursuant to this article shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Fifty percent divided by the court between any federal, state, or local law enforcement agency assisting with an investigation;

(b) Fifty percent to the division for the cost of administering this article.

Editor's note: Subsection (2) was relocated to § 12-55.5-107 (5) in 2006.

12-55.5-108. Cease-and-desist orders - unauthorized practice - penalties.

(1) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom such order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(4) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in section 12-55.5-115.

(6) Any person who engages or offers or attempts to engage in activities as an outfitter without an active registration issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Statute grants authority to regulate "guides". Sears v. Romer, 928 P.2d 745 (Colo. App. 1996).

12-55.5-109. Contracts for outfitting services - writing required. (1) Prior to engaging in any activity as an outfitter, an outfitter shall provide a written contract to the client signed by both the outfitter and the client, stating at least the following terms:

- (a) Type of services to be provided;
- (b) Dates of service;
- (c) Transportation arrangements;
- (d) Costs of the services;
- (e) Ratio of clients to guides; and
- (f) The outfitter's policy regarding cancellation of the contract and refund of any deposit.

(2) No action may be maintained by an outfitter for breach of a contract or agreement to provide outfitting services or for the recovery of compensation for services rendered under such contract or agreement if the outfitter has failed to comply with the provisions of this article.

(3) Any written contract provided pursuant to this section shall also contain a written statement that pursuant to section 12-55.5-105 (1) (c) and (1) (d) outfitters are bonded and required to possess the minimum level of liability insurance and that the activities of outfitters are regulated by the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

12-55.5-110. Other remedies - contracts void - public nuisance - seizure of equipment. (1) Every agreement or contract for the services of an outfitter shall be void and unenforceable by the outfitter unless such outfitter is duly registered with the division under the provisions of this article when such services are contracted for and performed.

(2) Every motor vehicle, trailer, vessel, firearm, weapon, trap, equipment, livestock, or other personal property used in outfitting services in violation of the provisions of this article is declared to be a class 2 public nuisance. Unless in conflict with the specific provisions of this section, the provisions of article 13 of title 16, C.R.S., shall apply to any action taken pursuant to this section.

(3) (a) Any personal property subject to seizure under this section which is seized as a part of or incident to a criminal proceeding for violation of this article and for which disposition is not provided by another statute of this state shall be disposed of as provided in this section.

(b) The court may order any such property sold by the director in the manner provided for sales on execution.

(c) The proceeds of such sale shall be applied as follows:

(I) To the fees and costs of removal and sale;

(II) To the payment of any costs the state has incurred from such action; and

(III) The balance, if any, to the office of the district attorney who has brought such action.

ARTICLE 56

Pawnbrokers

Editor’s note: This article was numbered as article 58 of chapter 139, C.R.S. 1963. The provisions of this article were repealed and reenacted in 1984, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this article prior to 1984, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

Law reviews: For article, “Constitutional Law” which discusses a recent Tenth Circuit decision dealing with due process rights of a pawnbroker in consigned property, see 64 Den. U. L. Rev. 202 (1987).

12-56-102.	Local authority to license and regulate.	12-56-104.	kers. Prohibited acts - penalties.

(1) “Contract for purchase” means a contract entered into between a pawnbroker and a customer pursuant to which money is advanced to the customer by the pawnbroker on the delivery of tangible personal property by the customer on the condition that the customer, for a fixed price and within a fixed period of time, to be no less than thirty days, has the option to cancel said contract.

(2) “Fixed price” means the amount agreed upon to cancel a contract for purchase during the option period. Said fixed price shall not exceed:

- (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 392, § 1, effective August 4, 2004.)
- (b) One-fifth of the original purchase price for each month, plus the original purchase price.

(3) “Fixed time” means that period of time, to be no less than thirty days, as set forth in a contract for purchase, for an option to cancel said contract.

(4) “Local law enforcement agency” means any marshal’s office, police department, or sheriff’s office with jurisdiction in the locality in which the customer enters into a contract for purchase or a purchase transaction.

(5) “Local licensing authority” means the governing body of a municipality or city and county in any incorporated area of the state and the board of county commissioners of a county in any unincorporated area of the state.

(6) “Option” means the fixed time and the fixed price agreed upon by the customer and the pawnbroker in which a contract for purchase may be but does not have to be rescinded by the customer.

(7) “Pawnbroker” means a person regularly engaged in the business of making contracts for purchase or purchase transactions in the course of his business.

(8) “Purchase transaction” means the purchase by a pawnbroker in the course of his business of tangible personal property for resale, other than newly manufactured tangible personal property which has not previously been sold at retail, when such purchase does not constitute a contract for purchase.

(9) “Tangible personal property” means all personal property other than choses in action, securities, or printed evidences of indebtedness, which property is deposited with or otherwise actually delivered into the possession of a pawnbroker in the course of his business in connection with a contract for purchase or purchase transaction.

ANNOTATION

Bankruptcy court determined that under this section a pawn transaction is not a conveyance of title but is a secured transaction, and therefore can be dealt with in the debtor's chapter 13 plan. In re Lopez, 163 Bankr. 189 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1994).

12-56-102. Local authority to license and regulate. Local licensing authorities may license pawnbrokers and require that pawnbrokers be bonded and insured and may enact regulations governing pawnbrokers, which regulations shall be at least as restrictive as the provisions of this article; except that the regulations shall be no more restrictive than this article with respect to fixed time and fixed price.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "Colorado Interest Law", see 34 Dicta 398 (1957).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-56-102 is similar to former § 139-58-1, C.R.S. 1963, and laws antecedent thereto, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Cities and towns administer scheme regulating pawnbrokers. The general assembly has provided a comprehensive scheme for the regulation of pawnbrokers to be administered through its cities and towns. Lakewood Pawnbrokers, Inc. v. City of Lakewood, 183 Colo. 370, 517 P.2d 834 (1973).

Municipality may exact additional requirements. The mere fact that the state, in the exercise of the police power, has made certain regulations does not, however, prohibit a municipality from exacting additional requirements. Provident Loan Soc'y v. City and County of Denver, 64 Colo. 400, 172 P. 10 (1918).

So long as there is no conflict between state and municipality requirements, and the requirements of the municipality bylaws are not in themselves pernicious, as being unreasonable or discriminatory, both will stand. Provident Loan Soc'y v. City and County of Denver, 64 Colo. 400, 172 P. 10 (1918).

An ordinance of a city council regulating the licensing of pawnbrokers to be valid must be subordinate to and in harmony with the provisions of this article. Solomon v. City of Denver, 12 Colo. App. 179, 55 P. 199 (1898).

12-56-103. Required acts of pawnbrokers. (1) A pawnbroker shall keep a numerical register or other tangible or electronic record in which the pawnbroker shall record the following information: The name, address, and date of birth of the customer, and the driver's license number or other identification number from any other form of identification that is allowed for the sale of valuable articles pursuant to section 18-16-103, C.R.S., or for the sale of secondhand property pursuant to section 18-13-114, C.R.S.; the date, time, and place of the contract for purchase or purchase transaction; and an accurate and detailed account and description of each item of tangible personal property, including, but not limited to, any trademark, identification number, serial number, model number, brand name, or other identifying marks on such property. The pawnbroker shall also obtain a written declaration of the customer's ownership, which shall state that the tangible personal property is totally owned by the customer, or shall have attached to such declaration a power of sale from the partial owner to the customer, how long the customer has owned the property, whether the customer or someone else found the property, and, if the property was found, the details of the finding.

(2) The customer shall sign the register or other tangible or electronic record and the declaration of ownership and shall receive a copy of the contract for purchase or a receipt of the purchase transaction.

(3) The register or other tangible or electronic record, as well as a copy of the contract for purchase or a receipt of the purchase transaction, shall be made available to any local law enforcement agency for inspection at any reasonable time.

(4) The pawnbroker shall keep each register or other tangible or electronic record for at least three years after the date of the last transaction entered in the register.

(5) A pawnbroker shall hold all contracted goods within his jurisdiction for a period of ten days following the maturity date of the contract for purchase, during which time such goods shall be held separate and apart from any other tangible personal property and shall not be changed in form or altered in any way.

(6) A pawnbroker shall hold all property purchased by him through a purchase transaction for thirty days following the date of purchase, during which time such property shall be held separate and apart from any other tangible personal property and shall not be changed in form or altered in any way.

(7) (a) Every pawnbroker shall provide the local law enforcement agency, on a weekly basis, with two records, on a form to be provided or approved by the local law enforcement agency, of all tangible personal property accepted during the preceding week and one copy of the customer's declaration of ownership. The form shall contain the same information required to be recorded in the pawnbroker's register or other tangible or electronic record pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. The local law enforcement agency shall designate the day of the week on which the records and declarations shall be submitted.

(b) A local law enforcement agency is not required to use the information submitted pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) to provide a benefit to the general public. The state and local governments may enact no further fees, charges, or taxes related to the use of the information provided to local law enforcement.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Discharge of Security Transactions", see 26 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 115 (1954).

Person who knowingly provides false information with respect to any item of information required in this section is punishable pursuant to § 12-56-104 (5). Use of word "and" does not require a person to knowingly provide false information with respect to each and every item of information required in this section to be guilty of such charge. People v. Richards, 23 P.3d 1223 (Colo. 2000).

12-56-104. Prohibited acts - penalties. (1) No pawnbroker shall enter into a contract for purchase or purchase transaction with any individual under the age of eighteen years.

(2) With respect to a contract for purchase, no pawnbroker may permit any customer to become obligated on the same day in any way under more than one contract for purchase agreement with the pawnbroker which would result in the pawnbroker obtaining a greater amount of money than would be permitted if the pawnbroker and customer had entered into only one contract for purchase covering the same tangible personal property.

(3) (a) No pawnbroker shall violate the terms of the contract for purchase.

(b) A pawnbroker who violates the terms of a contract for purchase involving a fixed price as set forth in section 12-56-101 (2) commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section, any pawnbroker who violates any of the provisions of this article commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., and upon a second or subsequent conviction of a violation of this article within three years after the date of a prior conviction, a pawnbroker commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(5) Any customer who knowingly gives false information with respect to the information required by section 12-56-103 (1) commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-58-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds that:

(a) Improper plumbing can adversely affect the health of the public and that faulty plumbing is potentially lethal and can cause widespread disease and an epidemic of disastrous consequences;

(b) To protect the health of the public, it is essential that plumbing be installed by persons who have proven their knowledge of the sciences of pneumatics and hydraulics and their skill in installing plumbing.

(2) Consistent with its duty to safeguard the health of the people of this state, the general assembly hereby declares that individuals who plan, install, alter, extend, repair, and maintain plumbing systems should be individuals of proven skill. To provide standards of skill for those in the plumbing trade and to authoritatively establish what shall be good plumbing practice, the general assembly hereby provides for the licensing of plumbers and for the promulgation of a model plumbing code of standards by the examining board of plumbers, and this article is therefore declared to be essential to the public interest.

12-58-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Board" means the examining board of plumbers.

(1.5) "Gas piping" means any arrangement of piping used to convey fuel gas, supplied by one meter, and each arrangement of gas piping serving a building, structure, or premises, whether individually metered or not. "Gas piping" or "gas piping system" does not include the installation of gas appliances where existing service connections are already installed, nor does such term include the installations, alterations, or maintenance of gas utilities owned by a public utility certified pursuant to article 5 of title 40, C.R.S., or a public utility owned or acquired by a city or town pursuant to article 32 of title 31, C.R.S.

(2) "Journeyman plumber" means any person other than a master plumber, residential plumber, or plumber's apprentice who engages in or works at the actual installation, alteration, repair, and renovation of plumbing in accordance with the standards, rules, and regulations established by the board.

(3) "Master plumber" means a person who has the necessary qualifications, training, experience, and technical knowledge to properly plan, lay out, and install and repair plumbing apparatus and equipment including the supervision of such in accordance with the standards, rules, and regulations established by the board.

(4) "Colorado plumbing code" means a code established by the board that consists of standards for plumbing installation, plumbing materials, conservation, medical gas, sanitary drainage systems, and solar plumbing that could directly affect the potable water supply.

(4.5) (a) "Conservation" means efficiency measures that meet national guidelines and standards and are tested and approved by a nationally recognized testing laboratory, including:

(I) Water-efficient devices and fixtures; and

(II) The use of locally produced materials, when practicable, to reduce transportation impacts.

(b) When conservation conflicts with safety, the board shall give primary consideration to safety.

(c) Nothing in this subsection (4.5) affects the board's authority to establish the Colorado plumbing code as specified in section 12-58-104.5.

(5) (a) "Plumbing" includes the following items located within the building or extending five feet from the building foundation, excluding any service line extending from the first joint to the property line: All potable water supply and distribution pipes and piping; all plumbing fixtures and traps; all drainage and vent pipes; all building drains, including their respective joints and connections, devices, receptacles, and appurtenances; all multi-purpose residential fire sprinkler systems in one- and two-family dwellings and townhouses that are part of the potable water supply; and all medical gas and vacuum systems in health care facilities. "Plumbing" does not include:

(I) The installation, extension, alteration, or maintenance, including the related water piping and the indirect waste piping therefrom, of domestic appliances equipped with backflow preventers, including lawn sprinkling systems, residential ice makers, humidifiers, electrostatic filter washers, water heating appliances, water conditioning appliances not directly connected to the sanitary sewer system, building heating appliances and systems, fire protection systems except for multipurpose residential fire sprinkler systems in one- and two-family dwellings and townhouses that are part of the potable water supply, air conditioning installations, process and industrial equipment and piping systems, or indirect drainage systems not a part of a sanitary sewer system; or

(II) The repair and replacement of garbage disposal units and dishwashers directly connected to the sanitary sewer system, including the necessary replacement of all tail pipes and traps, or the repair, maintenance, and replacement of sinks, faucets, drains, showers, tubs, and toilets.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), the following is not included within the definition of “plumbing”:

(I) Installations, extensions, improvements, remodeling, additions, and alterations in water and sewer systems owned or acquired by counties pursuant to article 20 of title 30, C.R.S., cities and towns pursuant to article 35 of title 31, C.R.S., or water and sanitation districts pursuant to article 1 or article 4 of title 32, C.R.S.; or

(II) Installations, extensions, improvements, remodeling, additions, and alterations performed by contractors employed by counties, cities, towns, or water and sewer districts which connect to the plumbing system within a property line; or

(III) Performance, location, construction, alteration, installation, and use of on-site wastewater treatment systems pursuant to article 10 of title 25, C.R.S., which are located within a property line.

(6) “Plumbing apprentice” means any person other than a master, journeyman, or residential plumber who, as his principal occupation, is engaged in learning and assisting in the installation of plumbing.

(7) “Plumbing contractor” means any person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization who undertakes or offers to undertake for another the planning, laying out, supervising, installing, or making of additions, alterations, and repairs in the installation of plumbing. In order to act as a plumbing contractor, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization must either be or employ full-time a master plumber.

(8) “Potable water” means water which is safe for drinking, culinary, and domestic purposes and which meets the requirements of the department of health.

(9) “Residential plumber” means any person other than a master or journeyman plumber or plumbing apprentice who has the necessary qualifications, training, experience, and technical knowledge, as specified by the board, to install plumbing and equipment in one-, two-, three-, and four-family dwellings, which shall not extend more than two stories aboveground.

12-58-103. Examining board of plumbers - repeal of article. (1) There is hereby established within the division of professions and occupations of the department of regulatory agencies the examining board of plumbers. The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions in the department of regulatory agencies as if it were transferred to the department by a type 1 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the “Administrative Organization Act of 1968”, article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.

(2) (a) The board shall consist of seven appointed members as follows, one a journeyman plumber, one a master plumber, two engaged in the construction of residential or commercial buildings as plumbing contractors, one engaged in the construction of residential or commercial buildings as a general contractor, one a member or employee of a local government agency conducting plumbing inspections, and one appointed from the public at large. A representative of the department of public health and environment shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member. At least one member shall be a resident of the western slope of the state, defined as that western part of the state separated from the eastern part of the state by the continental divide.

(b) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

(3) (a) The governor, with power of removal, shall appoint the members of the board, subject to confirmation by the senate; except that the five members serving on June 30, 1982, shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms of office. The governor shall appoint one additional member to serve until July 1, 1983, and another additional member to serve until July 1, 1986. Thereafter, members shall be appointed for four-year terms. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the board shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term of such member.

(b) The governor may remove any member of the board for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

(4) No major political party shall be represented on the board by more than one member more than the other major political party.

(5) This article is repealed, effective July 1, 2013. Prior to such repeal, the examining board of plumbers shall be reviewed as provided for in section 24-34-104, C.R.S.

12-58-104. Powers of board - fees - rules. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the board by this article, the board is authorized and empowered to:

(a) Elect its own officers and prescribe their duties;

(b) Conduct examinations as required by this article;

(c) Grant the licenses of duly qualified applicants for residential plumbers, journeymen plumbers, and master plumbers as provided in this article and pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.;

(c.5) Establish fees for the issuance of a new registration and for each renewal of registration, pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.;

(d) Promulgate, adopt, amend, and repeal such rules, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as may be necessary for the orderly conduct of its affairs and for the administration of this article, pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.;

(e) In accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., prescribe, enforce, amend, and repeal rules and regulations governing the plumbing, drainage, sewerage, and plumbing ventilation of all buildings in this state;

(f) Employ inspectors and charge fees for making inspections of plumbing work covered by the Colorado plumbing code in those areas where the local jurisdiction has not adopted its own plumbing code and where that jurisdiction has requested such inspections;

(g) (I) Administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to perform the functions of this paragraph (g) and to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(II) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(h) Conduct hearings in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.; except that the board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct such hearings;

(i) Cause the enjoinder, in any court of competent jurisdiction, of all persons violating this article. When seeking an injunction, the board shall not be required to prove that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damages would result if an injunction is not granted.

(j) Inspect gas piping installations pursuant to the provisions of section 12-58-114.5;

(k) Establish minimum requirements and standards for the inspection of multipurpose residential fire sprinkler systems in one- and two-family dwellings and townhouses that are part of the potable water supply, by requiring inspectors of multipurpose residential fire sprinkler systems in one- and two-family dwellings and townhouses to be certified by the division of fire prevention and control in the department of public safety pursuant to section 24-33.5-1206.4, C.R.S.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, the board may, with regard to manufactured housing which is subject to part 7 of article 32 of title 24, C.R.S.:

(a) Promulgate, adopt, amend, and repeal such rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., as may be necessary for the inspection of manufactured housing water and sewer hookups;

(b) Employ inspectors and charge fees for making inspections of manufactured housing water and sewer hookups.

ANNOTATION

The provisions of this article are constitutional and do not violate the natural rights of a person to engage in a lawful occupation. People v. Rogers, 74 Colo. 184, 219 P. 1076 (1923).

The plumbing trade is subject to regulation in the interest of public health. People v. Rogers, 74 Colo. 184, 219 P. 1076 (1923).

12-58-104.5. Colorado plumbing code - amendments - variances. (1) In accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., the board shall establish a Colorado plumbing code, as defined in section 12-58-102 (4). Such code shall represent the minimum standards for installation, alteration, and repair of plumbing equipment and systems throughout the state.

(2) Local governments shall be permitted to amend the code when adopting a plumbing code for their jurisdictions as long as such amendments are at least equal to the minimum requirements set forth in the Colorado plumbing code.

(3) If petitioned, the board shall annually hold public hearings to consider amendments to the Colorado plumbing code.

(4) The board is authorized to review and approve or disapprove requests for exceptions to the code in unique construction situations where a strict interpretation of the code would result in unreasonable operational conditions or unreasonable economic burdens as long as public safety is not compromised.

12-58-105. Plumber must have license - control and supervision. (1) No person shall engage in or work at the business, trade, or calling of a residential, journeyman, or master plumber in this state until he has received a license from the division of professions and occupations, upon written notice from the board or its authorized agent, or a temporary permit from the board or its authorized agent.

(2) (a) All plumbing apprentices working for plumbing contractors pursuant to this article and all apprentices working under the supervision of any licensed plumber pursuant to section 12-58-117 shall, within thirty days after the date of initial employment, be registered with the board.

(b) The employer of a plumbing apprentice shall be responsible for such apprentice's registration with the board.

(c) No apprentice shall be registered until payment of a registration or registration renewal fee, as determined by the board, has been made.

(3) No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or association shall operate as a plumbing contractor until such contractor has obtained registration from the board. The board shall register a plumbing contractor upon payment of the fee as provided in section 12-58-104 and presentation of evidence that the applicant has complied with the applicable workers' compensation and unemployment compensation laws of this state. In order to act as a plumbing contractor, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization must either be, or employ full-time, a master plumber, who shall be in charge of the supervision of all plumbing work performed by such contractor. A master plumber shall be responsible for no more than one plumbing contractor at a time. The master plumber shall be required to notify the board within fifteen days after his or her termination as a master plumber for that plumbing contractor. The master plumber is responsible for all plumbing work performed by the plumbing contractor. Failure to comply with a notification may lead to suspension or revocation of the master plumber license as provided in section 12-58-110.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-58-105 is similar to § 12-58-104 as it existed prior to the 1982 repeal and reenactment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision and laws antecedent thereto have been included in the annotations to this section.

In the prosecution of one for working as a plumber without a license, the contention that as the ordinance applied to helpers and apprentices as well as master plumbers, it was unconstitutional, is overruled, it appearing that it did not so apply. Evans v. City and County of Denver, 79 Colo. 533, 247 P. 173 (1926).

Contracts for services by one who is required by statute to have a license to engage in the particular profession, trade, or calling, and who does not have such a license are generally unenforceable. Carter v. Thompkins, 133 Colo. 279, 294 P.2d 265 (1956).

It is no defense that one charged with the violation of city ordinance concerning the licensing of plumbers was acting as the employee of another. Evans v. City and County of Denver, 79 Colo. 533, 247 P. 173 (1926).

Although one convicted of working as a plumber without a license was an apprentice of a licensed plumber, it appeared that he worked so independently of his master as to be acting as a journeyman. Evans v. City and County of Denver, 79 Colo. 533, 247 P. 173 (1926).

12-58-106. Unauthorized use of title of plumber. No person shall advertise in any manner or use the title or designation of master plumber, journeyman plumber, or residential plumber unless he is qualified and licensed under this article.

12-58-107. License issuance - examination. (1) (a) The board shall issue licenses to persons who have by examination and experience shown themselves competent and qualified to engage in the business, trade, or calling of a residential plumber, journeyman plumber, or master plumber. The board shall establish the minimum level of experience required for an applicant to receive a residential, journeyman, or master plumber's license. The maximum experience the board may require for an applicant to qualify to receive a residential plumber's license is two years or three thousand four hundred hours of practical experience. The maximum experience the board may require for an applicant to qualify to receive a journeyman plumber's license is four years or six thousand eight hundred hours of practical experience. An applicant for a master plumber's license shall furnish evidence that he has five years of practical experience.

(b) Any applicant for such license shall be permitted to substitute for required practical experience evidence of academic training in the plumbing field, which shall be credited as follows:

(I) If he is a graduate of a community college or trade school plumbing program approved by the board, he shall receive one year of work experience credit.

(II) If he has academic training, including military training, in the plumbing field which is not sufficient to qualify under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), the board shall provide work experience credit for such training according to a uniform ratio established by rule and regulation.

(c) No license shall be issued until the applicant has paid a license fee set by the board pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(2) An applicant for a license under this section shall file an application on forms prepared and furnished by the board, together with the examination fee. The time and place of examination shall be designated in advance by the board, and examinations shall be held at least four times each calendar year and at such other times as, in the opinion of the board, the number of applicants warrants.

(3) The contents of the examinations provided for in this section shall be determined by the board. The examination shall be administered by the board or its authorized agent pursuant to rules prescribed by the board. Each examination shall be designed and given in such a manner as to fairly test the applicant's knowledge of plumbing and rules and regulations governing plumbing. Examinations may include written tests and applied tests of the practices which the license will qualify the applicant to perform and such related studies or subjects as the board may determine are necessary for the proper and efficient performance of such practices. Such examinations shall be consistent with current practical and theoretical requirements of the practice of plumbing and shall be reviewed, revised, and updated on an annual basis by the board. The board shall ensure that the examination passing grade reflects a minimum level of competency.

12-58-107.5. Credit for experience not subject to supervision of a licensed plumber. For all applicants seeking work experience credit toward licensure, the board shall give credit for plumbing work that is not required to be performed by or under the supervision of a licensed plumber if the applicant can show that the particular experience received or the supervision under which the work has been performed is adequate. Work experience credit awarded under this section shall not exceed one-half of the applicable experience requirement for a license issued under this article.

12-58-108. License renewal - reinstatement. (1) All license renewal and renewal fees shall be in accordance with the provisions of sections 24-34-102 and 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(2) Any license that has lapsed shall be deemed to have expired. Prior to reinstatement, the board is authorized to require the licensee to demonstrate competency. Licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-58-110. Disciplinary action by board - licenses or registrations denied, suspended, or revoked - cease-and-desist orders. (1) The board may deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any license or registration issued or applied for under the provisions of this article or place a licensee or a registrant on probation for any of the following reasons:

- (a) Violation of any of the provisions of this article;
- (b) Violation of the rules and regulations or orders promulgated by the board in conformity with the provisions of this article or aiding or abetting in such violation;
- (c) Failure or refusal to remove within a reasonable time the cause for disapproval of any plumbing installation as reported on the notice of disapproval, but such reasonable time shall include time for appeal to and a hearing before the board;
- (d) Any cause for which the issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the board;
- (e) Commitment of any act or omission that does not meet generally accepted standards of plumbing practice;
- (f) Conviction of or acceptance of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere by a court to a felony. In considering the disciplinary action, the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

- (g) Advertising by any licensee or registrant which is false or misleading;
- (h) Deception, misrepresentation, or fraud in obtaining or attempting to obtain a license;
- (i) Failure of any such licensee to adequately supervise an apprentice who is working at the trade pursuant to section 12-58-117;
- (j) Failure of any licensee to report to the board:
 - (I) Known violations of this article;
 - (II) Civil judgments and settlements which arose from such licensee's work performance;
- (k) Employment of any person required by this article to be licensed or to obtain a permit who has not obtained such license or permit;
- (l) Habitual intemperance with respect to or excessive use of any habit-forming drug, any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or any alcoholic beverage;
- (m) Any use of a schedule I controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-203, C.R.S.;
- (n) Disciplinary action against a plumber's license in another jurisdiction. Evidence of such disciplinary action shall be prima facie evidence for denial of licensure or other disciplinary action if the violation would be grounds for such disciplinary action in this state.
- (o) Practicing as a residential, journeyman, or master plumber during a period when the person's license has been suspended or revoked;
- (p) Selling or fraudulently obtaining or furnishing a license to practice as a residential, journeyman, or master plumber or aiding or abetting in such activity;
- (q) In connection with a construction or building project requiring the services of a person regulated by this article, willfully disregarding or violating:
 - (I) Any building or construction law of this state or any of its political subdivisions;
 - (II) Any safety or labor law;
 - (III) Any health law;
 - (IV) Any workers' compensation insurance law;
 - (V) Any state or federal law governing withholdings from employee income, including, but not limited to, income taxes, unemployment taxes, or social security taxes; or
 - (VI) Any reporting, notification, or filing law of this state or the federal government.
- (2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.
- (b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.
- (c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.
- (2.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee or registrant that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee or registrant.
- (3) Any disciplinary action taken by the board and judicial review of such action shall be in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to said article by the board or an administrative law judge at the board's discretion.
- (4) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(5) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(6) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (6) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (6) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (6), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(7) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(8) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(9) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-58-110.4.

12-58-110.3. Immunity. Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-58-111. License by endorsement. The board may issue a plumber's license by endorsement in this state to any person who is licensed to practice in another jurisdiction if such person presents proof satisfactory to the board that, at the time of application for a Colorado license by endorsement, the person possesses credentials and qualifications which are substantially equivalent to requirements in Colorado for licensure by examination. The board may specify by rule and regulation what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications and may further require a waiting period of six months after the issuance of a license in another state before issuing a license in Colorado.

12-58-112. Temporary permits. (1) The board or its authorized agent may issue a temporary permit to engage in the work of a journeyman plumber or a residential plumber to any applicant who has furnished satisfactory evidence to the board that he has the required experience to qualify for the examination, as provided in the rules and regulations promulgated by the board, and who has applied for an examination to entitle him to such license.

(2) Such permits shall be issued only upon payment of a fee established by the board and may be revoked by the board at any time.

(3) Any permit issued pursuant to this section shall expire no later than thirty days after the date of the examination for which the applicant has applied or upon written notice by the board of the results of the examination, whichever date is earlier. No permit shall be issued pursuant to this section to any person who has twice previously failed an examination or who has received two temporary permits.

(4) Notwithstanding the requirements set forth in section 12-58-107 (1), a temporary master permit may be issued to an existing plumbing contractor who has lost the services of his master plumber for completion of a current project underway as long as he has a journeyman plumber in his full-time employ. This shall only be valid until the next regularly scheduled examination.

12-58-113. Exemptions. (1) Any person selling or dealing in plumbing materials or supplies, but not engaged in the installation, alteration, repairing, or removal of plumbing, shall not be required to employ or have a licensed plumber in charge.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any individual to hold a license to perform plumbing work on his own property or residence, nor shall it prevent a person from employing an individual on either a full- or a part-time basis to do routine repair, maintenance, and replacement of sinks, faucets, drains, showers, tubs, toilets, and domestic appliances and equipment equipped with backflow preventers; except that, if such property or residence is intended for sale or resale by a person engaged in the business of constructing or remodeling such facilities or structures or is rental property which is occupied or is to be occupied by tenants for lodging, either transient or permanent, or is a commercial or industrial building, the owner shall be responsible for and the property shall be subject to all of the provisions of this article pertaining to licensing, unless specifically exempted therein.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to apply to the manufacture of housing which is subject to the provisions of part 7 of article 32 of title 24, C.R.S., or the installation of individual residential or temporary construction units of manufactured housing water and sewer hookups inspected pursuant to section 12-58-104.

(4) Persons who are engaged in the business of inspecting, testing, and repairing backflow prevention devices shall be exempt from licensure under this article, except when such persons engage in the installation and removal of such devices.

(5) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require either that employees of the federal government who perform plumbing work on federal property shall be required to be licensed before doing plumbing work on such property or that the plumbing work performed on such property shall be regulated pursuant to this article.

12-58-114.2. State plumbing inspectors. (1) The director of the division of professions and occupations is authorized to appoint or employ competent persons as state plumbing inspectors.

(2) Such inspectors may be employed either on a full-time or on a part-time basis as the circumstances in each case warrant. State plumbing inspectors have the right of ingress and egress to and from all public and private premises during reasonable working hours where this article applies for the purpose of making plumbing inspections or otherwise determining compliance with the provisions of this article.

12-58-114.5. Inspection - application - standards. (1) Any plumbing or gas piping installation in any new construction or remodeling or repair, other than manufactured units inspected in accordance with the provisions of part 7 of article 32 of title 24, C.R.S., except in any incorporated town or city, any county, or any city and county having its own plumbing code equal to the minimum standards provided in this article, shall be inspected by a state plumbing inspector in those areas where a local jurisdiction has requested such inspections. A state plumbing inspector shall inspect any new construction, remodeling, or repair subject to the provisions of this subsection (1) within three working days after the receipt of the application for inspection. If the inspection is not performed within five working days, work may resume on any such construction, repair, or remodeling. Prior to the commencement of any such plumbing or gas piping installation, the person making such installation shall make application for inspection and pay the required fee therefor. Every mobile home or movable structure owner shall have the plumbing and gas piping hookup for such mobile home or movable structure inspected prior to obtaining new or different plumbing or gas service.

(2) A state plumbing inspector shall inspect the work performed, and, if such work meets the minimum standards set forth in the Colorado plumbing code referred to in section 12-58-104.5, a certificate of approval shall be issued by the inspector. If such installation is disapproved, written notice thereof together with the reasons for such disapproval shall be given by the inspector to the applicant. If such installation is hazardous to life or property, the inspector disapproving it may order the plumbing or gas service thereto discontinued until such installation is rendered safe. The applicant may appeal such disapproval to the board and shall be granted a hearing by the board within seven days after notice of appeal is filed with the board. After removal of the cause of such disapproval, the applicant shall make application for reinspection in the same manner as for the original inspection and pay the required reinspection fee.

(3) (a) All inspection permits issued by the board shall be valid for a period of twelve months, and the board shall cancel the permit and remove it from its files at the end of the twelve-month period, except in the following circumstances:

(I) If an applicant makes a showing at the time of application for a permit that the plumbing or gas piping work is substantial and is likely to take longer than twelve months, the board may issue a permit to be valid for a period longer than twelve months, but not exceeding three years.

(II) If the applicant notifies the board prior to the expiration of the twelve-month period of extenuating circumstances, as determined by the board, during the twelve-month period, the board may extend the validity of the permit for a period not to exceed six months.

(b) If an inspection is requested by an applicant after a permit has expired or has been cancelled, a new permit must be applied for and granted before an inspection is performed.

(4) Each application, certificate of approval, and notice of disapproval shall contain the name of the property owner, if known, the location and a brief description of the installation, the name of the general contractor if any, the name of the plumbing contractor or licensed plumber and state license number in the case of any plumbing installation, the name of the installer in the case of any liquefied petroleum gas piping installation, the state plumbing inspector, and the inspection fee charged for the inspection. The original of a notice of disapproval and written reasons for disapproval and corrective actions to be taken shall be mailed to the board, and a copy of such notice shall be mailed to the plumbing contractor in the case of any plumbing installation or the installer in the case of any liquefied petroleum gas piping installation, within two working days after the date of inspection, and a copy of the notice shall be posted at the installation site. Such forms shall be furnished by the board, and a copy of each application, certificate, and notice made or issued shall be filed with the board.

(5) Notwithstanding the fact that any incorporated town or city, any county, or any city and county in which a public school is located or is to be located has its own plumbing code and inspection authority, any plumbing or gas piping installation in any new construction or remodeling or repair of a public school shall be inspected by a state plumbing inspector.

(6) In the event that any incorporated town or city, any county, or any city and county intends to commence or cease performing plumbing or gas piping inspections in its respective jurisdiction, written notice of such intent shall be given to the board.

(7) (a) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by the failure of a state plumbing inspector to inspect his property after proper application or by notice of disapproval without setting forth the reasons for denying the inspection permit may request the program administrator to review the actions of the plumbing inspector or the manner of the inspection. Such request may be made by his authorized representative and shall be in writing.

(b) Upon the filing of such a request, the program administrator shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the state plumbing inspector complained of, together with an order requiring such inspector to answer the allegations of said request within a time fixed by the program administrator.

(c) If the request is not granted within ten days after it is filed, it may be treated as rejected. Any person aggrieved by the action of the program administrator in refusing the review requested or in failing or refusing to grant all or part of the relief requested may file a written complaint and request for a hearing with the board, specifying the grounds relied upon.

(d) Any hearing before the board shall be held pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-58-115 is similar to § 12-58-120 as it existed prior to the 1982 repeal and reenactment of this article, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

In the prosecution of one for working as a plumber without a license, the contention that as the ordinance applied to helpers and apprentices as well as master plumbers, it was unconstitutional, is overruled, it appearing that it did not so apply. Evans v. City and County of Denver, 79 Colo. 533, 247 P. 173 (1926).

It is no defense that one charged with the violation of city ordinance concerning the licensing of plumbers was acting as the employee of another. Evans v. City and County of Denver, 79 Colo. 533, 247 P. 173 (1926).

12-58-116. Unauthorized practice - penalties.

(1) Repealed.

(2) Any person who engages in or works at or offers or attempts to engage in or work at the business, trade, or calling of a residential, journeyman, master, or apprentice plumber without an active license, permit, or registration issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-58-116.5. Violation - fines - rules. (1) (a) If the board concludes that any licensee, registrant, or applicant for licensure has violated any provision of section 12-58-110 and that disciplinary action is appropriate, the program administrator or the program administrator's designee may issue a citation in accordance with subsection (2.5) of this section to such licensee, registrant, or applicant.

(b) (I) The licensee, registrant, or applicant to whom a citation has been issued may make a request to negotiate a stipulated settlement agreement with the program administrator or the program administrator's designee, if such request is made in writing within ten working days after issuance of the citation which is the subject of the settlement agreement.

(II) All stipulated settlement agreements shall be conducted pursuant to rules adopted by the board pursuant to section 12-58-104 (1) (d). The board shall adopt a rule to allow any licensee, registrant, or applicant unable, in good faith, to settle with the program administrator to request an administrative hearing pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (1).

(III) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(c) (I) The licensee, registrant, or applicant to whom a citation has been issued may request an administrative hearing to determine the propriety of such citation if such request is made in writing within ten working days after issuance of the citation which is the subject of the hearing or within a reasonable period after negotiations for a stipulated settlement agreement pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) have been deemed futile by the program administrator.

(II) For good cause the board may extend the period of time in which a person who has been cited may request a hearing.

(III) All hearings conducted pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c) shall be conducted in compliance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(d) Any action taken by the board pursuant to this section shall be deemed final after the period of time extended to the licensee, registrant, or applicant to contest such action pursuant to this subsection (1) has expired.

(2) (a) The board shall adopt a schedule of fines pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) as penalties for violating section 12-58-110. Such fines shall be assessed in conjunction with the issuance of a citation, pursuant to a stipulated settlement agreement, or following an administrative hearing. Such schedule shall be adopted by rule in accordance with section 12-58-104 (1) (d).

(b) In developing the schedule of fines, the board shall:

(I) Provide that a first offense may carry a fine of up to one thousand dollars;

(II) Provide that a second offense may carry a fine of up to two thousand dollars;

(III) Provide that any subsequent offense may carry a fine of up to two thousand dollars for each day that any provision of section 12-58-110 is violated;

(IV) Consider how the violation impacts the public, including any health and safety considerations;

(V) Consider whether to provide for a range of fines for any particular violation or type of violation; and

(VI) Provide uniformity in the fine schedule.

(2.5) (a) (I) Any citation issued pursuant to this section shall be in writing, shall adequately describe the nature of the violation, and shall reference the statutory or regulatory provision or order alleged to have been violated.

(II) Any citation issued pursuant to this section shall clearly state whether a fine is imposed, the amount of such fine, and that payment for such fine must be remitted within the time specified in such citation if such citation is not contested pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(III) Any citation issued pursuant to this section shall clearly set forth how such citation may be contested pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, including any time limitations.

(b) A citation or copy of a citation issued pursuant to this section may be served by certified mail or in person by a program administrator or the administrator's designee upon a person or the person's agent in accordance with C.R.C.P. 4.

(c) If the recipient fails to give written notice to the board that the recipient intends to contest such citation or to negotiate a stipulated settlement agreement within ten working days after service of a citation by the board, such citation shall be deemed a final order of the board.

(d) The board may suspend or revoke a license or registration or may refuse to renew any license or registration issued or may place on probation any licensee or registrant if the licensee or registrant fails to comply with the requirements set forth in a citation deemed final pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (2.5).

(e) The failure of an applicant for licensure to comply with a citation deemed final pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (2.5) is grounds for denial of a license.

(f) No citation may be issued under this section unless the citation is issued within the six-month period following the occurrence of the violation.

(3) All fines shall be imposed in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(4) (a) Any fine collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit one-half of the amount of any such fine to the general fund, and one-half of the amount of any such fine shall be shared with the appropriate city, town, county, or city and county, which amounts shall be transmitted to any such entity on an annual basis.

(b) Any fine assessed in a citation or an administrative hearing or any amount due pursuant to a stipulated settlement agreement that is not paid may be collected by the program administrator through a collection agency or in an action in the district court of the county in which the person against whom the fine is imposed resides or in the county in which the office of the program administrator is located.

(c) The attorney general shall provide legal assistance and advice to the program administrator in any action to collect an unpaid fine.

(d) In any action brought to enforce this subsection (4), reasonable attorney fees and costs shall be awarded.

12-58-117. Apprentices. (1) Any person may work as a plumbing apprentice for a licensed plumber but shall not do any plumbing work for which a license is required pursuant to this article except under the supervision of a licensed plumber. Supervision requires that the licensed plumber supervise apprentices at the jobsite. One licensed journeyman plumber, master plumber, or residential plumber shall not supervise more than three apprentice plumbers at the same jobsite.

(2) Any master, journeyman, or residential plumber who is the supervisor of any plumbing apprentice shall be responsible for the work performed by such apprentice. The license of any plumber may be revoked, suspended, or denied under the provisions of section 12-58-110 for any improper work performed by a plumbing apprentice while under the supervision of such licensee.

12-58.5-104. Voluntary license - title protection - penalty. (1) (a) By July 1, 2012, a private investigator conducting private investigations in this state who meets the requirements of section 12-58.5-105 may obtain a license from the director. Only a private investigator who obtains a license pursuant to section 12-58.5-105 shall hold himself or herself out as, or use the title of, a "licensed private investigator".

(b) Nothing in this article requires a private investigator engaging in private investigations in this state to obtain a license under this article, but a private investigator who is not so licensed shall not refer to himself or herself as a "licensed private investigator".

(2) Any person who holds himself or herself out as or uses the title "licensed private investigator" without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

12-58.5-105. Private investigator voluntary license - qualifications - fees - renewal.

(1) Upon application in the form and manner determined by the director, payment of the required fee, submission of business registration documentation as required by subsection (3) of this section, and satisfaction of the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, the director shall issue an initial or renewal license to an applicant who provides evidence satisfactory to the director that he or she:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) Is lawfully present in the United States;
- (c) (I) Has at least four thousand hours of verifiable, applicable experience, as determined by the director within the five years immediately preceding the date of application; or
(II) Has at least two thousand hours of verifiable, applicable experience, as determined by the director, within the five years immediately preceding the date of application plus an amount of postsecondary education determined by the director; and
- (d) Has knowledge and understanding of the statutes and rules affecting the ethics and activities of licensed private investigators in this state.

(2) In addition to the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, each license applicant shall have his or her fingerprints taken by a local law enforcement agency for the purpose of obtaining a fingerprint-based criminal history record check. The applicant is required to submit payment by certified check or money order for the fingerprints and for the actual costs of the record check at the time the fingerprints are submitted to the Colorado bureau of investigation. Upon receipt of fingerprints and receipt of the payment for costs, the Colorado bureau of investigation shall conduct a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation and shall forward the results of the criminal history record check to the director.

(3) If an applicant has registered as a business entity with the secretary of state, at the time of application for a license the applicant shall provide documentation to the director that the applicant's business registration is current and in good standing with the secretary of state.

(4) An applicant for licensure shall pay license, renewal, and reinstatement fees established by the director pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. All licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director and pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the license expires and the person shall not hold himself or herself out as a licensed private investigator until he or she pays the appropriate fees to reinstate the license.

12-58.5-107. Disciplinary actions - grounds for discipline. (1) The director may deny, suspend, revoke, or place on probation a private investigator's license if the applicant:

- (a) Violates any order of the director or any provision of this article or of rules established under this article;

(b) Fails to meet the requirements of section 12-58.5-105 or uses fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in applying for or attempting to apply for a license;

(c) Is convicted of or has entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony, to an offense, the underlying factual basis of which has been found by the court to involve unlawful sexual behavior, domestic violence, as defined in section 18-6-800.3 (1), C.R.S., or stalking, as defined in section 18-3-602, C.R.S.; or to violation of a protection order, as defined in section 18-6-803.5, C.R.S. In considering the disciplinary action, the director shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., in considering the conviction or plea;

(d) Has been subject to discipline related to the practice of private investigations in another jurisdiction. Evidence of disciplinary action in another jurisdiction is prima facie evidence for denial of a license or other disciplinary action if the violation would be grounds for disciplinary action in this state.

(2) The director may adopt rules establishing fines that he or she may impose on a licensee, which rules must include a graduated fine structure, with a maximum allowable fine of not more than three thousand dollars per violation. The director shall transmit any fines he or she collects from a licensee to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

(3) The director need not find that the actions that are grounds for discipline were willful but may consider whether the actions were willful when determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to be imposed.

(4) (a) The director may commence a proceeding to discipline a licensee when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that the licensee has committed an act enumerated in this section.

(b) In any proceeding held under this section, the director may accept as evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a licensee in another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in the other jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(5) The director shall conduct disciplinary proceedings in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the director or administrative law judge appointed by the director pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (6) of this section shall conduct the hearing and opportunity for review pursuant to that article. The director has the authority to exercise all powers and duties conferred by this article during the disciplinary proceedings.

(6) (a) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin a person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (a), the attorney general is not required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(b) (I) The director may investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director.

(II) In order to aid the director in any hearing or investigation instituted pursuant to this section, the director or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6) may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant records, papers, books, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the director or an administrative law judge.

(III) Upon failure of any witness or licensee to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring the person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. If the person or licensee fails to obey the order of the court, the court may hold the person or licensee in contempt of court.

(c) The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct hearings, take evidence, make findings, and report such findings to the director.

(7) (a) The director, the director's staff, a person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, or a person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article is immune from liability in a civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person participating in good faith in making a complaint or report or in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result by reason of the participation.

(8) A final action of the director is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. The director may institute a judicial proceeding in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S., to enforce an order of the director.

(9) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the director shall not resolve the complaint by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(10) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is holding himself or herself out as or is using the title "licensed private investigator" without having obtained a license, the director may issue an order to cease and desist the activity. The director shall set forth in the order the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. The director or administrative law judge, as applicable, shall conduct the hearing pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(11) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unregistered practice.

(b) The director shall promptly notify the person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) of the issuance of the order and shall include in the notice a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. The director may serve the notice on the person against whom the order has been issued by personal service, by first-class, postage-prepaid United States mail, or in another manner as may be practicable. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this paragraph (b) constitutes notice of the order to the person.

(c) (I) The director shall hold the hearing on an order to show cause no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11). The director may continue the hearing by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the director hold the hearing later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served on the person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (11) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order becomes final as to that person by operation of law. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, the director may issue a final cease-and-desist order directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) is effective when issued and is a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(12) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of this article, a rule promulgated pursuant to this article, or an order issued pursuant to this article; or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(13) If a person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested the attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(14) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in subsection (8) of this section.

(15) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensed private investigator.

(b) When the director sends a letter of admonition to a licensed private investigator, the director shall advise the private investigator that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the licensed private investigator timely requests adjudication, the director shall vacate the letter of admonition and process the matter by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(16) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensed private investigator that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, the director may send the licensed private investigator a confidential letter of concern.

12-59-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Administrative law judge” means a person, appointed by the authority from a list provided by the attorney general, who shall conduct hearings on any matter which is within the jurisdiction of the division and which is referred to such administrative law judge by the division.

(1.5) “Agent” means any person owning any interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration or other consideration a private occupational school located within or without this state who enrolls or who, in places other than the principal school premises, offers or attempts to secure the enrollment of any person within this state for education in a school.

(2) “Agent’s permit” means a nontransferable written authorization issued to an agent pursuant to the provisions of this article by the division upon approval by the executive director.

(2.5) “Associate degree” means a degree offered by a school on the successful completion of the degree requirements as established by the division.

(2.6) “Board” means the private occupational school board created in section 12-59-105.1.

(2.7) “Ceasing operation” means the voluntary discontinuation of operation by a private occupational school or the discontinuation of operation by a private occupational school due to the denial, expiration, revocation, or suspension of such school’s certificate of approval by the division.

(2.8) “Certificate” means an award for the successful completion of a specific course or program objective.

(3) "Certificate of approval" means a written authorization issued by the division, upon approval by the executive director, to the principal owners of a school in the name of such school, pursuant to the provisions of this article, to operate a school in this state.

(3.5) "Diploma" means an award for the successful completion of an approved prescribed program of study in a particular field of endeavor.

(3.6) "Director" means the director of the private occupational school division created pursuant to section 12-59-104.1.

(3.7) "Division" means the private occupational school division created pursuant to section 12-59-104.1.

(4) "Educational credentials" means certificates, diplomas, associate degrees, transcripts, reports, numbers, or words which signify or are generally taken to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements for education at a school.

(5) "Educational services" or "education" includes, but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study which is designed or is purported to meet all or part of the requirements for employment in an agricultural, trade, industrial, technical, business, office, sales, service, or health occupation and which constitutes occupational education.

(6) "Entity" includes, but is not limited to, any person, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of higher education appointed pursuant to section 23-1-110 (2), C.R.S.

(8) "New school" means a private occupational school that does not hold an existing certificate of approval as of June 30, 1981, or a school holding an existing certificate of approval as of June 30, 1981, which subsequently expires pursuant to the provisions of section 12-59-108 (4) or is revoked or denied pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(8.5) "Occupational education" means any education designed to facilitate the vocational, technical, or occupational development of individual persons including, but not limited to, vocational or technical training or retraining which is given in schools or classes, including field or laboratory work incident thereto, which is conducted as a part of a program designed to fit individuals for gainful employment as semiskilled or skilled workers or technicians in recognized occupations requiring less than a four-year baccalaureate degree. The term also includes instruction related to the occupation for which the person is being trained or which is necessary for him to benefit from such training.

(9) "Offer" or "offering" includes, in addition to its usual meaning, advertising, publicizing, soliciting, or encouraging any person in any manner to perform the act described.

(10) "Operate" or "operating", when used with respect to a school, means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location in this state where, from, or through which educational services are offered or educational credentials are offered or granted.

(11) "Private occupational school" or "school" means any entity or institution for profit or not for profit located within or without this state which offers educational credentials or educational services that constitute occupational education in this state and which is not specifically exempt from the provisions of this article.

(12) Repealed.

(13) "Train-out" means the opportunity for a student of a private occupational school ceasing operation to meet such student's educational objectives through training provided by another approved private occupational school, a community college, an area vocational school, or any other training arrangement acceptable to the division.

12-59-104. Exemptions. (1) The following educational institutions and educational services are exempt from the provisions of this article:

(a) A public school or public educational institution funded wholly or in part by a local school district or school districts or by direct appropriation from the state to a school, public educational institution, or board;

(b) A nonprofit school owned, controlled, operated, and maintained by a bona fide parochial or denominational institution exempt from general property taxation under the laws of this state;

(c) A school offering education solely avocational, supplementary, or ancillary in nature;

(d) A college or university which:

(I) Confers four-year baccalaureate or higher degrees; and

(II) Offers programs or courses in this state, the majority of which are not occupational in nature, as defined by the division, or are at the graduate level;

(e) Repealed.

(f) A private school providing a basic academic education comparable to that provided in public elementary and secondary schools of this state;

(g) A school offering only educational services for which no money or other consideration is paid;

(h) A school offering only educational services to an employer for the training of its employees;

(i) Education offered by a bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organization solely for that organization's membership;

(j) Educational services offered by an employer for the training of its own employees;

(k) Apprenticeship training registered pursuant to state or federal law;

(l) Educational services offered by an approved school which:

(I) Do not require the payment of money or other consideration;

(II) Are avocational, supplementary, or ancillary in nature; or

(III) Are offered only to an employer for the training and preparation of his employees;

(m) Nurse aide training programs approved pursuant to section 12-38.1-108 (1);

(n) Flight schools that are approved and regulated by the federal aviation administration;

(o) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1033), ch. 17, p. 93, § 1, effective August 5, 2009.)

(p) Educational programs, continuing education programs, and training programs offered or conducted by an organization which is listed as an exempt organization in 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (c) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended. Any such program, in order to qualify for the exemption created in this paragraph (p), shall be consistent with the purposes or requirements of the organization offering or conducting the program.

(q) A private educational institution that is accredited by an agency recognized by the United States department of education, that confers post-graduate degrees, and that offers programs or courses that are not defined as occupational education pursuant to section 12-59-103 (8.5).

12-59-104.1. Private occupational school division - creation. There is hereby created the private occupational school division in the department of higher education and the office of director of the division. The division and the director shall exercise their powers and perform their duties and functions specified in this article under the department of higher education and the executive director thereof as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer as such transfer is defined in the “Administrative Organization Act of 1968”, article 1 of title 24, C.R.S. The director shall be appointed by the executive director. The director, with the approval of the executive director, shall employ such professional and clerical personnel as deemed necessary to carry out the duties and function of the division. The director and professional personnel are declared to hold educational offices and to be exempt from the state personnel system.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 23-60-703 as it existed prior to 2008.

12-59-105. Powers and duties of division. (1) The division shall have, in addition to the powers and duties now vested therein by law, the following powers and duties:

(a) to (c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 36, § 8, effective March 17, 1998.)

(d) To publish a list of schools and maintain a list of agents authorized to operate in this state under the provisions of this article;

(e) To receive or cause to be maintained as a permanent file, in conformity with section 12-59-119, copies of educational, financial, and other records;

(f) to (j) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 36, § 8, effective March 17, 1998.)

(k) To negotiate and enter into interstate reciprocity agreements with similar agencies in other states whenever, in the judgment of the division and the board, such agreements are or will be helpful in effectuating the purposes of this article; except that nothing contained in any such reciprocity agreement shall be construed as limiting the division’s powers, duties, and responsibilities with respect to investigating or acting upon any application for a certificate of approval for a private occupational school or an application for issuance of or renewal of any agent’s permit or with respect to the enforcement of any provision of this article or any of the rules promulgated under this article.

12-59-105.1. Proprietary postsecondary education board - established - membership. (1) Effective June 30, 1998, the private occupational school policy advisory committee is abolished, and the terms of members of the advisory committee serving as such immediately prior to June 30, 1998, are terminated.

(2) Effective July 1, 1998, there is established, in the private occupational school division, the private occupational school board that shall advise the director on the administration of this article and shall have the powers and duties specified in section 12-59-105.3. The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions specified in this article as if the same were transferred to the department of higher education by a type 1 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the “Administrative Organization Act of 1968”, article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) The board shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, as follows:

(a) Three members shall be owners or operators of private occupational schools that receive Title IV funds;

(b) Four members shall be representatives of the general public, at least one of whom is employed by a lending institution located in Colorado and is familiar with the Colorado student loan program and at least two of whom are owners or operators of businesses within Colorado that employ students who are enrolled in schools that are subject to administration by the division.

(4) No appointed member shall be an employee of any junior college, community or technical college, school district, or public agency that receives vocational funds allocated by any state agency.

(5) (a) The board members shall serve four-year terms; except that, of the members first appointed to the board, three members to be selected by the governor shall serve two-year terms. A member shall not serve more than two consecutive four-year terms.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), of the three members appointed to replace persons whose terms expire on June 30, 2012, one member selected by the governor shall serve a two-year term, one member selected by the governor shall serve a three-year term, and one member selected by the governor shall serve a four-year term. Subsequent appointments to the positions identified in this paragraph (b) shall serve four-year terms.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), of the four members appointed to replace persons whose terms expire on June 30, 2014, one member selected by the governor shall serve a one-year term, one member selected by the governor shall serve a two-year term, one member selected by the governor shall serve a three-year term, and one member selected by the governor shall serve a four-year term. Subsequent appointments to the positions identified in this paragraph (c) shall serve four-year terms.

(6) The board shall hold regular meetings at such times as it may deem appropriate, but it shall not meet less than four times per year.

(7) Board members shall be paid a per diem of thirty-five dollars for each day on which the board meets and their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the conduct of official business.

(8) The division shall provide any necessary staff assistance for the board.

12-59-105.3. Powers and duties of board. (1) The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To establish minimum criteria in conformity with section 12-59-106, including quality of education, ethical business practices, and fiscal responsibility, which an applicant for a certificate of approval shall meet before such certificate of approval may be issued and continued in effect. The criteria to be developed under this section shall be such as will effectuate the purposes of this article.

(b) To establish minimum criteria in conformity with section 12-59-106 which an applicant for an agent's permit shall meet before such agent's permit may be issued and continued in effect. The criteria to be developed under this section shall be such as will effectuate the purposes of this article.

(c) To consult with the division regarding interstate reciprocity agreements;

(d) To receive, investigate, and evaluate, as it deems necessary, and act upon applications for certificates of approval, agents' permits, and changes of ownership;

(e) To require the posting of appropriate notices on the school premises notifying students of any school closure by operation of law or otherwise;

(f) To investigate, as it deems necessary, any entity subject to, or reasonably believed by the board to be subject to, the jurisdiction of this article and, in connection therewith, to subpoena any persons, books, records, or documents pertaining to such investigation, to require answers in writing, under oath, to questions propounded by the board, and to administer an oath or affirmation to any person in connection with any such investigation. Such investigation may include the physical inspection of school facilities and records. Said subpoena shall be enforceable by any court of record of this state.

(g) To deny or revoke the agent's permit of an agent of an out-of-state school determined not to be in compliance with this article;

(h) To appoint administrative law judges to conduct hearings on any matter within the jurisdiction of the board, which shall include the conduct of hearings in aid of any investigation or inquiry pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection (1);

(i) To grant accreditation to schools that make application and that meet the standards of accreditation established by the board, which shall include at least the standards of accreditation required for recognition of an accrediting authority for private occupational schools by the United States office of education. Accreditation shall be voluntary and shall not affect, in any manner, a certificate of approval issued by the board as provided in this article. A school making application for accreditation shall pay all reasonable expenses incurred by the board, including any payments to evaluators, in the performance of the accreditation evaluation or in connection with the continuation of any accreditation received under this paragraph (i).

(j) To promulgate rules and to adopt procedures necessary or appropriate for the conduct of its work and the implementation of this article;

(k) To establish educational standards and requirements for the awarding of appropriate educational credentials by private occupational schools;

(l) To exercise other powers and duties implied, but not enumerated, in this section which, in the judgment of the board, are necessary in order to carry out the provisions of this article;

(m) To designate, by category of instruction, those schools that teach students under sixteen years of age for which instructional staff and prospective instructional staff, as defined by board rule, shall be required to submit a complete set of fingerprints pursuant to section 12-59-105.7;

(n) To prescribe uniform academic reporting policies and procedures to which a private occupational school shall adhere.

12-59-105.4. Duties of private occupational schools. A private occupational school shall provide the division with such data as the board deems necessary upon written request of the board. Data pertaining to individual students or personnel shall not be divulged or made known in any way by a member of the board, by the director, or by any division or school employee, except in accordance with judicial order or as otherwise provided by law. A person who violates this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. In addition, such person shall be subject to removal or dismissal from public service on grounds of malfeasance in office.

12-59-105.5. Occupational credentials for instructors of barbering and cosmetology. The holder of a valid current Colorado license to practice as an instructor of barbering or cosmetology prior to November 1, 1990, shall be awarded a current occupational credential by the board as prescribed by the rules concerning private occupational schools promulgated pursuant to section 12-59-105.3 (1) (j). All persons awarded such occupational credential pursuant to this section shall meet the requirements of the board for renewal of the credential.

12-59-105.7. Submittal of fingerprints for persons teaching at designated schools - criminal history record check - prerequisite for commencing or continuing employment. (1) (a) Instructional staff or prospective instructional staff who may be teaching students in a school designated by the board pursuant to section 12-59-105.3 (1) (m) shall, beginning July 1, 2006, in order to commence or continue employment at a designated school, submit a set of his or her fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Nothing in this section shall preclude the board from making further inquiries into the background of instructional staff or prospective instructional staff. Instructional staff or prospective instructional staff shall pay the fee established by the Colorado bureau of investigation for conducting the fingerprint-based criminal history record check. Upon completion of the criminal history record check, the bureau shall forward the results to the board. The board shall conduct a review of the results of the criminal history record check forwarded by the bureau and consider the results in assessing whether instructional staff or prospective instructional staff meet minimum standards of qualification, as established by the board pursuant to section 12-59-106, necessary to commence or continue employment at the designated school.

(b) Instructional staff or prospective instructional staff shall be required to resubmit a set of his or her fingerprints pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) even if he or she previously submitted his or her fingerprints pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1).

(2) In addition to any other requirements established by the board for the necessary qualifications of instructional staff or prospective instructional staff, the submittal of fingerprints pursuant to subsection (1) of this section and results consistent with the minimum standards of qualification established by the board pursuant to section 12-59-106 shall be a prerequisite to commencing or continuing employment as instructional staff who may be teaching students in a school designated by the board pursuant to section 12-59-105.3 (1) (m).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 23-60-705 as it existed prior to 2008.

12-59-106. Minimum standards. (1) In establishing the criteria required by section 12-59-105.3 (1) (a), (1) (b), and (1) (k), the board shall observe and require compliance with at least the following minimum standards for all schools:

- (a) That the school can demonstrate that it has sufficient financial resources to:
 - (I) Fulfill its commitments to students;
 - (II) Make refunds of tuition and fees to the extent and in the manner set forth in this article; and
 - (III) Meet the school's financial obligations;
- (b) That the school shall furnish and maintain surety bonds as required by this article;
- (c) That the educational services are such as will adequately achieve the stated objectives for which the educational services are offered;
 - (I) to (V) (Deleted by amendment, L. 81, p. 844, § 6, effective July 1, 1981.)
- (d) That the school has adequate facilities, equipment, instructional materials, instructional staff, and other personnel to provide educational services necessary to meet the stated objectives for which the educational services are offered;
- (e) That the education and experience qualifications of administrators, instructional staff, and other personnel are such as will adequately ensure that the students will receive educational services consistent with the stated objectives for which the educational services are offered;

(f) That the school provides each prospective student with a school catalog and other printed information describing the educational services offered and describing entrance requirements, program objectives, length of programs, schedule of tuitions, fees, all other charges and expenses necessary for the completion of the program of study, cancellation and refund policies, and such other material facts concerning the school and the program of instruction that are likely to affect the decision of a student to enroll therein as required by the board and that such information is provided to a prospective student prior to the commencement of classes and the execution of any enrollment agreement or contract;

(g) That, upon satisfactory completion of training, the student is given appropriate educational credentials by said school; except that the school may require the payment of all tuition and fees due at the time of completion;

(h) That adequate educational, financial, and other records are maintained by the school;

(i) That the school adheres to procedures, standards, and policies set forth in the school catalog and other printed materials;

(j) That the school is maintained and operated in compliance with all pertinent ordinances and laws, including rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, relative to the health and safety of all persons upon the premises;

(k) That neither the school nor its agents have violated the prohibitions as set forth in section 12-59-107 or have engaged in deceptive trade or sales practices as set forth in section 12-59-117;

(l) That the principal owners, officers, agents, administrators, and instructors are of good reputation and free from moral turpitude;

(m) That the school provides the student with a copy of the executed enrollment agreement or contract, at the time of enrollment, which complies with this article;

(n) That the school adheres to a policy for the cancellation, settlement, and refund of tuition and fees which complies with this article;

(o) That an out-of-state school shall maintain records which include, but are not limited to, a list of the name and address of each student enrolled from within this state and that such records shall be made available to the board upon request;

(p) That the school shall submit to the board the name and Colorado address of a designated agent upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served and that such agent shall be maintained continuously. Nothing contained in this section shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a foreign corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

(q) That the school or agent shall have paid any restitution required by section 12-59-118 and any civil penalties assessed pursuant to section 12-59-121;

(r) That an agent shall represent only a school that meets the minimum standards set forth in this section and the criteria established pursuant to section 12-59-105.3;

(s) That the school shall not deny enrollment of a student or make any distinction or classification of students on account of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, or marital status.

(2) A school that is accredited by an accrediting association officially recognized by the United States education department or by the board may fulfill the requirements of paragraphs (c) to (o) and (s) of subsection (1) of this section by maintaining its accreditation with its appropriate accrediting association as long as the accrediting standards meet or exceed the minimum standards set forth in this article.

12-59-107. Prohibitions. (1) No entity of whatever kind, alone or in concert with others, shall:

(a) Operate in this state a school not exempt from the provisions of this article unless said school holds a valid certificate of approval issued pursuant to the provisions of this article;

(b) Offer educational services in or grant educational credentials from a school located within or without this state unless said agent holds a valid agent's permit issued pursuant to the provisions of this article; except that the board may promulgate rules to permit the rendering of legitimate public information services without such permit;

(c) Accept contracts or enrollment agreements from an agent who does not hold a valid agent's permit issued pursuant to the provisions of this article;

(d) Award educational credentials without requiring the completion of any education.

12-59-108. Application for certificate of approval. (1) Any entity desiring to operate a private occupational school in this state shall make application for a certificate of approval to the board upon forms to be provided by the board. Said application shall include at least the following:

(a) A catalog published or proposed to be published by the school containing the information specified in the criteria promulgated by the board;

(b) A description of the school's placement assistance, if any;

(c) A current balance sheet, income and expense statement, and other supportive financial documentation incidental thereto, prepared by an independent public accountant or certified public accountant using a format which reflects accepted accounting principles and procedures;

(d) Copies of media advertising and promotional literature;

(e) Copies of all student enrollment agreement or contract forms and instruments evidencing indebtedness;

(f) A surety bond as required by this article;

(g) A fee as required by this article;

(h) The name and Colorado address of a designated agent upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served.

(2) Each application shall be signed and certified to under oath by the owner or his authorized designee.

(3) The board shall not be required to act upon an application until such time as an application is submitted as set forth in this section.

(4) An application submitted by a school which holds a valid certificate of approval shall be submitted on or before February 15 immediately prior to the expiration of said certificate of approval. If such application as set forth in subsection (1) of this section is not submitted as set forth in this section, the school's existing certificate of approval shall expire on June 30 by operation of law, and any such application submitted after February 15 shall be treated as an application submitted by a new school.

(5) The board shall not be required to act upon an application submitted by a school whose certificate of approval has been revoked or denied by a final nonappealable order of the board for a period of twelve months subsequent to said revocation or denial. Notwithstanding that an order of revocation or denial may be subject to judicial review, said school shall otherwise comply with and be subject to the provisions of this article; except that said school shall not be required to submit an application as required by this section.

ANNOTATION

No opportunity for a hearing prior to the expiration of private occupational school's certificate of approval was required by a plain reading of the statute where school's financial documents remained inadequate. Nat'l Camera, Inc. v. Sanchez, 832 P.2d 960 (Colo. App. 1991).

12-59-109. Issuance of certificate of approval. (1) Following the review and evaluation of an application for a certificate of approval and any further information required by the board to be submitted by the applicant and such investigation and appraisal of the applicant as the board deems necessary or appropriate, the board shall either grant or deny a certificate of approval to the applicant. A certificate of approval shall be issued to the applicant in the name of the school and shall state in clear and conspicuous language the name and address of the school, the date of issuance, and the term of approval.

(2) The term for which a certificate of approval is issued shall be for three years commencing on July 1 and expiring on June 30 of the third year thereafter or upon the cessation of operation of the school. New schools shall be issued a provisional certificate of approval which shall expire on June 30 of the second year following the date of issuance or upon the cessation of operation of the school.

(3) At any time within the period of a certificate of approval, the board may require the school to submit supplementary documentation or information deemed necessary to enable the board to determine whether said school is continuing to be operated in compliance with the provisions of this article.

12-59-110. Application for change of ownership. (1) In the event of a change of ownership of a school, the seller, prior to the effective date of the change of ownership, shall notify the board in writing, and the buyer, prior to or within thirty days after the change of ownership, shall make application for approval of the change of ownership upon forms to be provided and in a manner prescribed by the board. In the event of a failure to do so, the school's certificate of approval shall be suspended by operation of law until such application has been received and approved by the board as provided in this section.

(2) Following the review and evaluation of an application and any further information required by the board to be submitted by the applicant and such investigation and appraisal of an applicant as the board deems necessary or appropriate, the board shall either grant or deny the application. Denial of an application shall be in the same manner as set forth in section 12-59-112 for a denial of an application for a certificate of approval; except that the board shall not be required to submit a notice of noncompliance.

(3) "Ownership", for the purpose of this section, means ownership of a controlling interest in the school or, in the event the school is owned or controlled by a corporation or other legal entity other than a natural person, ownership of a controlling interest in the legal entity owning or controlling such school.

12-59-111. Agent's permits. (1) In-state schools. (a) Any person desiring to engage in the performance of the duties of an agent for a school located within this state shall be registered by the school upon forms to be provided by the division. Said registration shall include the following:

(I) A statement signed by said applicant that he has read the provisions of the "Private Occupational Education Act of 1981" and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto;

(II) A fee as required by this article.

(b) An agent representing more than one school must obtain a separate agent's permit for each school represented; except that an agent holding a valid agent's permit to represent a school shall not be required to obtain a separate permit to represent another school owned by the same entity to the same extent and having the same name as the first school.

(c) An agent's permit shall be issued to the agent and shall state in a clear and conspicuous manner the name of the agent, the name and location of the school he represents, and the date of issuance and term of such permit.

(d) An agent's permit shall expire on the same date as the certificate of approval for the school which such agent represents expires.

(2) Out-of-state schools. (a) Any person desiring to engage in the performance of the duties as an agent within this state, for a school located outside this state, shall make application through the school to the board upon forms to be provided by the division. Said application shall include the following:

(I) A statement signed by said applicant that he has read the provisions of the "Private Occupational Education Act of 1981" and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto;

(II) A surety bond as required in this article;

(III) A fee as required by this article.

(b) An application submitted by an applicant who intends to represent a school located outside this state shall not be acted upon until any information regarding said school which is required to be submitted by the board, including the name and Colorado address of a designated agent upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served, has been received.

(c) An agent representing more than one school must obtain a separate agent's permit for each school represented; except that an agent holding a valid agent's permit to represent a school shall not be required to obtain a separate permit to represent another school owned by the same entity to the same extent and having the same name as the first school.

(d) Following the review and evaluation of an application and any further information required by the board to be submitted by the applicant and such investigation and appraisal of an applicant as the board deems necessary or appropriate, the board shall recommend to the executive director either a grant or denial of an agent's permit to the applicant.

(e) An agent's permit shall be issued to the agent and shall state in a clear and conspicuous manner the name of the agent, the name and location of the school he represents, and the date of issuance and term of such permit.

(f) An agent's permit shall expire annually on June 30. An agent's permit shall also expire upon termination of his employment with the school named on said permit.

(g) An agent's permit issued for the purpose of representing a school located outside this state shall be suspended by operation of law when said school fails to maintain in this state an agent upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served.

(h) At least sixty days prior to the expiration of an agent's permit, the agent shall complete and file with the board an application form and fee for renewal of said permit. Said application shall be reviewed and acted upon as provided in this article. If such application is not submitted as set forth in this section, the agent's existing permit shall expire on July 1.

(i) The board shall not be required to act upon an application submitted by an agent whose permit has been revoked or denied by a final nonappealable order of the board for a period of twelve months subsequent to said revocation or denial. Notwithstanding that an order of revocation or denial shall be subject to judicial review, said agent shall otherwise comply with and be subject to the provisions of this article; except that said agent shall not be required to submit an application as required by this section.

12-59-112. Denial of application for certificate of approval or agent's permit.

(1) If the board, upon review of an application for a certificate of approval or for an agent's permit, determines upon reasonable belief that the applicant fails to meet any one or more of the criteria established pursuant to this article, the board shall submit to the applicant a notice of noncompliance setting forth the reasons therefor in writing. The notice shall set forth a period of time within which the applicant may submit written data, arguments, views, or information with respect to the reasons set forth in the notice and during which time the applicant shall also be afforded the opportunity to eliminate the reason for said notice.

(2) The board shall consider such written data, arguments, views, or information submitted and the steps taken by the applicant to comply and shall thereafter determine upon reasonable belief whether a hearing shall be conducted for the purpose of denying said application.

(3) An application for a certificate of approval or an agent's permit may also be denied by the board if the applicant has furnished false or misleading written or oral statements, documents, or other representations to the board with the intent to mislead or conceal the truth of any matter to be considered by the board as a factor in approving the application.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, the provisions of the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., shall apply to the denial of an application for a certificate of approval submitted by a new school and to the denial of an initial application for an agent's permit.

12-59-113. Revocation of certificate of approval and agent's permit. (1) If the board determines upon reasonable belief that the holder of a certificate of approval or an agent's permit has violated or is violating any one or more of the criteria established pursuant to this article, the board or its authorized designee shall submit to such holder or a school's designated agent for service of process a notice of noncompliance setting forth the reasons therefor in writing. The notice shall set forth a period of time within which the applicant may submit written data, views, arguments, or information with respect to the reasons set forth in the notice and during which time such holder shall also be afforded the opportunity to eliminate the reason for said notice.

(2) The board shall consider such written data, arguments, views, or information submitted and the steps taken by such holder to comply and shall thereafter determine upon reasonable belief whether a hearing shall be conducted for the purpose of revoking the certificate of approval or an agent's permit.

(3) If the board has reasonable grounds to believe and finds that such holder has willfully and deliberately violated the criteria established pursuant to this article or that the public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action and incorporates such findings in its order, it may summarily suspend the certificate of approval or agent's permit pending a hearing, which shall be promptly instituted and determined.

(4) A certificate of approval or an agent's permit may also be revoked by the board if the holder thereof has furnished false or misleading written or oral statements, documents, or other representations to the board with the intent to mislead or conceal the truth of any matter considered by the board as a factor in approving the application for a certificate of approval or an agent's permit or for continuing in effect the certificate of approval or an agent's permit.

(5) A certificate of approval may be revoked by the board if the holder thereof has had its surety bond cancelled and has not replaced it within fifteen days prior to the effective date of such bond termination.

12-59-114. Refund policy. (1) As a condition for granting a certificate of approval or an agent's permit to represent a school located outside this state, a school shall maintain a policy for the refund of tuition and fees in the event, and within thirty days of the date, a student fails to enter the course, withdraws, or has been discontinued therefrom at any time prior to completion, and such policy shall provide for at least the following:

(a) A full refund of all moneys paid if the applicant is not accepted by the school;

(b) A full refund of tuition and fees paid if the applicant withdraws within three days after signing the contract or making an initial payment if the applicant has not commenced training;

(c) A full refund of tuition and fees paid in the event that the school discontinues a course or program of education during a period of time within which a student could have reasonably completed the same; except that this provision shall not apply in the event that the school ceases operation;

(d) That the school use a method of determining the official termination date of the student which complies with the established criteria of the state board for community colleges and occupational education;

(e) That except for retention of a cancellation charge not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars or twenty-five percent of the contract price, whichever is less, the policy for cancellation, settlement, and refund of tuition and fees provides for at least the following:

(I) For a student terminating his training within the first ten percent of his program, the student shall be entitled to a refund of ninety percent of the contract price of the program exclusive of books, tools, and supplies.

(II) For a student terminating his training after ten percent but within the first twenty-five percent of his program, the student shall be entitled to a refund of seventy-five percent of the contract price of the program exclusive of books, tools, and supplies.

(III) For a student terminating his training after twenty-five percent but within the first fifty percent of his program, the student shall be entitled to a refund of fifty percent of the contract price of the program exclusive of books, tools, and supplies.

(IV) For a student terminating his training after fifty percent but within the first seventy-five percent of his program, the student shall be entitled to a refund of twenty-five percent of the contract price of the program exclusive of books, tools, and supplies.

(VI) A student who has completed seventy-five percent of his program and has entered the final twenty-five percent shall not be entitled to any refund and shall be obligated for the full price of the program, which constitutes the maximum obligation.

(2) (a) A school offering education using an individualized instruction method shall:

(I) Establish a time period during which a student should complete the training;

(II) Outline school policies relative to satisfactory progress including an average rate of assignment completion;

(III) Establish a policy for termination in the event that a student does not maintain said rate of assignment completion.

(b) Under these conditions, a refund of tuition and fees required by this section may be computed based on said time period or on assignments completed in accordance with the policy previously adopted by the school.

(3) The board may require a school to submit to the board a notice of each tuition refund paid or contract cancelled in the manner and to the extent determined by the board.

12-59-115. Bonds. (1) Schools located within this state shall file as a part of their application for a certificate of approval evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or one bond as set forth in this section covering said school and its agents. Schools located outside this state shall file evidence of a savings account, deposit, or certificate of deposit meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S., or bonds as set forth in this section covering said school's agents.

(2) At the time application is made for a certificate of approval, the board shall require an applicant to file with the division a surety bond in such sum as determined pursuant to subsection (3) of this section. Said bond shall be executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be conditioned to provide indemnification to any student or enrollee or to any parent or guardian of such student or enrollee determined by the board to have suffered loss of tuition or any fees as a result of any act or practice that is a violation of any minimum standard as set forth in this article or any criterion established pursuant thereto by a school or its agents and to provide train-out for students enrolled in an approved school ceasing operation as provided in subsection (7) of this section. The bond shall be continuous unless said surety is released as set forth in this section.

(3) The amount of the bond to be submitted with an application for a certificate of approval shall be equal to a reasonable estimate of the maximum prepaid, unearned tuition and fees of the school for a period or term during the applicable school training year for which programs of instruction are offered including, but not limited to, on a semester, quarter, monthly, or class basis; except that the period or term of greatest duration and expense shall be utilized for this computation where a school's training year consists of one or more such periods or terms. Following the initial filing of the surety bond with the division, the amount of the bond shall be recalculated annually based upon a reasonable estimate of the maximum prepaid, unearned tuition and fees received by the school for such period or term. In no case shall the amount of the bond be less than five thousand dollars.

(5) Repealed.

(6) (a) A student, enrollee, or parent or guardian of the student or enrollee claiming loss of tuition or fees may file a claim with the board if the claim results from an act or practice that violates a minimum standard or criterion established pursuant to section 12-59-106. Such claims that are filed with the board shall constitute public records and are subject to the provisions of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.; except that no such claims records shall be made public if such release would violate any federal privacy law.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), the board shall not consider any claim that is filed more than two years after the date the student discontinues his or her training at the school.

(7) (a) In the event that a private occupational school ceases operation, the board shall be authorized to make demand on the surety of such school upon the demand for a refund by a student or the implementation of a train-out for the students of such school, and the surety shall pay the claim due in a timely manner. To the extent practicable, the board shall use the amount of the bond to provide train-out for students of the private occupational school ceasing operation through a contract with another approved private occupational school, a community college, an area vocational school, or any other training arrangement acceptable to the board. The train-out provided to a student shall replace the original enrollment agreement or contract between the student and the private occupational school ceasing operation; except that tuition and fee payments shall be made by the student as required by the original enrollment agreement or contract.

(b) Any student enrolled in a private occupational school ceasing operation who declines the train-out required to be offered pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) may file a claim with the board for the student's prorated share of the prepaid, unearned tuition and fees paid by such student subject to the limitations of paragraph (c) of this subsection (7). No subsequent payment shall be made to a student, unless proof of satisfaction of any prior debt to a financial institution is submitted in accordance with the board rules concerning the administration of this section.

(c) If the amount of the bond is less than the total prepaid, unearned tuition and fees which have been paid by students at the time the private occupational school ceased operation, the amount of the bond shall be prorated among such students.

(d) The provisions of this subsection (7) shall be applicable only to those students enrolled in the private occupational school at the time it ceases operation, and, once a school ceases operation, no new students shall be enrolled therein.

(e) The board shall be designated as the trustee for all prepaid, unearned tuition and fees, student loans, Pell grants, and other student financial aid assistance in the event that an approved private occupational school ceases operation.

(f) The board shall determine whether the offering of a train-out for students enrolled in an approved private occupational school ceasing operation is practicable without federal government designation of the board as trustee for student loans, Pell grants, and other student financial aid assistance pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subsection (7).

(8) At the time that application is made for an agent's permit to represent a school located outside this state, said application shall be accompanied by a surety bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars. Said bond shall be executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be conditioned to provide indemnification to any student or enrollee or his or her parent or guardian determined by the board to have suffered loss of tuition or any fees as a result of any act or practice that is a violation of any deceptive trade or sales practice as set forth in this article or any criteria established pursuant thereto by said agent. Regardless of the number of years that said bond is in force, the aggregate liability of the surety thereon shall in no event exceed the penal sum of the bond. The bond shall be continuous, unless said surety is released as set forth in this section, and may be blanket in form. Any student or enrollee or his or her parent or guardian claiming loss of tuition or any fees as a result of any deceptive trade or sales practice shall file a notarized claim with the board. In no event, however, shall the board consider any such complaint filed one hundred eighty days after the date the student discontinued his or her training at said school.

(9) Except with respect to a claim for tuition and fees made by a student enrolled in an approved private occupational school ceasing operation, the board shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining any loss of tuition or fees, and, if any claim is found to be correct and due the claimant, the board shall make demand upon the principal and the surety on the bond. If the principal or surety fails or refuses to pay the claim due, the board shall commence an action on such bond in any court of competent jurisdiction; except that no such action may be filed more than six years subsequent to the date of any violation that gives rise to the right to file a claim pursuant to this section. A claim for tuition and fees made by a student enrolled in an approved private occupational school ceasing operation shall be handled in the manner provided in subsection (7) of this section.

(10) A certificate of approval or an agent's permit shall be suspended by operation of law when said school or agent is no longer covered by a surety bond as required by this section. The board shall give written notice to said school or agent, or both, at the last-known address, at least forty-five days prior to the release of said surety, to the effect that said certificate of approval or agent's permit shall be suspended by operation of law until another surety bond is filed in the same manner and like amount as the bond being released.

(11) A surety on any bond filed under the provisions of this section shall be released therefrom after such surety serves written notice thereof to the board at least sixty days prior to such release. Said release shall not discharge or otherwise affect any claim filed by any student or enrollee or his or her parent or guardian for loss of tuition or any fees that occurred while said bond was in effect or which occurred under any note or contract executed during any period of time when said bond was in effect, except when another bond is filed in a like amount and provides indemnification for any such loss.

(12) (a) The board shall allow, at a reasonable price, alternate surety methods in lieu of the bonding requirements of this section. The alternate sureties shall be conditioned to provide indemnification to any student or enrollee or to any parent or guardian of such student or enrollee for any loss of tuition or any fees as a result of any act or practice that is a violation of this article and to provide train-out for students enrolled in an approved school ceasing operation as provided in subsection (7) of this section. In the event that a school covered by an alternate surety ceases operation, the board shall act in the manner provided in subsection (7) of this section.

(b) Prior to September 1, 1991, and each year thereafter, any alternate surety allowed by the board shall be required to contract for an independent financial audit. Such audit shall be included in a report to the board due by January 1 of the following year. The board may disapprove an alternate surety if it deems that such surety is not able to provide students with the indemnification and train-out required by this section.

(13) For the purposes of this section, "school" and "private occupational school" shall include a for-profit private college or university, as defined in section 23-2-102 (11), C.R.S., in which the majority of students are enrolled in courses and programs that are occupational in nature, as defined by the board.

12-59-116. Fees - private occupational schools fund - annual adjustment. (1) The board by rule shall establish fees for the direct and indirect costs of the administration of this article, which fees shall accompany any application for a certificate of approval for a new school or for a school other than a new school, for an in-state or out-of-state agent's permit, or for a change of ownership. All fees collected shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the private occupational schools fund, which fund is hereby created. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the direct and indirect costs of the administration of this article. All moneys credited to the fund shall be used for the direct and indirect costs of the administration of this article and shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of this state or to any other fund.

(2) In addition to the fees specified in subsection (1) of this section, the board by rule shall establish and receive fees for reviewing the qualifications of and for issuing appropriate credentials to instructors and administrators pursuant to section 12-59-106 (1) (e). Such fees shall be collected and administered in the same manner as the fees specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (a) The board shall propose, as part of the division's annual budget request, an adjustment in the amount of the fees that it is authorized to collect pursuant to this section. The budget request and the adjusted fees shall reflect the direct and indirect costs of administering this article.

(b) Based upon the appropriation made and subject to the approval of the Colorado commission on higher education, the board shall adjust its fees so that the revenue generated from said fees approximates the direct and indirect costs of administering this article. The adjusted fees shall remain in effect for the fiscal year for which the budget request applies.

(c) Beginning July 1, 1995, and each July 1 thereafter, whenever moneys appropriated to the division for its activities for the prior fiscal year are unexpended, said moneys shall be made a part of the appropriation to the division for the next fiscal year, and such amount shall not be raised from fees collected by the division. If a supplemental appropriation is made to the division for its activities, the division's fees shall be adjusted in the following fiscal year by an additional amount that is sufficient to compensate for the supplemental appropriation. Funds appropriated to the division in the annual general appropriations bill shall be designated as cash funds and shall not exceed the amount anticipated to be raised from fees collected by the division.

12-59-117. Deceptive trade or sales practices. (1) It is a deceptive trade or sales practice for:

(a) A school or agent to make or cause to be made any statement or representation, oral, written, or visual, in connection with the offering of educational services if such school or agent knows or reasonably should have known the statement or representation to be false, substantially inaccurate, or misleading;

(b) A school or agent to represent falsely, directly or by implication, through the use of a trade or business name or in any other manner, including the use of "help wanted" or other employment columns in a newspaper or other publication, that it is an employment agency or agent or authorized training facility for another industry or member of such industry or to otherwise deceptively conceal the fact that it is a school;

(c) A school or agent to represent falsely, directly or by implication, that any of its educational services have been approved by a particular industry or that successful completion thereof qualifies a student for admission to a labor union or similar organization or for the receipt of a state license to perform certain functions;

(d) A school or agent to represent falsely, directly or by implication, that the lack of a high school education, prior training, or experience is not a handicap or impediment to completing successfully a course or program of study or for gaining employment in the field for which the educational services were designed;

(e) A school or agent to adopt a name, trade name, or trademark which represents falsely, directly or by implication, the quality, scope, nature, size, or integrity of the school or its educational services;

(f) A school or agent to represent falsely, directly or by implication, that students completing a course or program of instruction successfully may transfer credit therefor to any institution of higher education;

(g) A school or agent to represent falsely, directly or by implication, in its advertising or promotional materials or in any other manner, the size, location, facilities, or equipment of the school, the number or educational experience qualifications of its faculty, the extent or nature of any approval received from any state agency, or the extent or nature of any accreditation received from any accrediting agency or association;

(h) A school or agent to provide prospective students with any testimonials, endorsements, or other information which has the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding current practices of the school, current conditions for employment opportunities, or probable earnings in the industry or occupation for which the educational services were designed or as a result of the completion of any such educational service;

(i) A school or agent to enroll a student when it is reasonably obvious that the student is unlikely to complete successfully a program of study or is unlikely to qualify for employment in the field for which the education is designed, unless this fact is affirmatively disclosed to the student;

(j) An agent representing an out-of-state school to represent directly or by implication that said school is approved or accredited by the state of Colorado;

(k) A school or agent to designate or refer to its sales representatives as “counselors” or “advisors” or to use words of similar import which have the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding the authority or qualifications of such sales representatives or agents.

12-59-118. Complaints of deceptive trade or sales practices. (1) A person claiming pecuniary loss as a result of a deceptive trade or sales practice, pursuant to section 12-59-117, by a school or agent shall first exhaust all complaint and appeals processes available at the school. If the person’s complaint is not resolved to the person’s satisfaction, the person may file with the board a written complaint against the school or agent. The complaint shall set forth the alleged violation and such other relevant information as may be required by the board. A complaint filed under this section is a public record subject to the provisions of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be filed within two years after the student discontinues his or her training at the school or at any time prior to the commencement of training.

(2) The board shall investigate any such complaint and thereafter may consider such complaint at a hearing. If, upon all the evidence at a hearing, the board finds that a school or agent has engaged in or is engaging in any deceptive trade or sales practice, the board may issue and cause to be served upon such school, such agent, or the designated agent for service of process, notice, or demand an order requiring such school or agent to cease and desist from such practice. The board may obtain an order for enforcement of its order in the district court pursuant to section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(3) If the board finds that the complainant or class of complainants has suffered pecuniary loss as a result of such practice, the board, at its discretion, may award the complainant or class of complainants full restitution for such loss. The board may also commence a civil action against a school or agent believed by the board to have caused a complainant or class of complainants to suffer pecuniary loss as a result of any deceptive trade or sales practice. Upon a finding that such complainant or class of complainants has suffered pecuniary loss as a result of any deceptive trade or sales practice, the court shall order the school or agent to pay to the complainant or class of complainants full restitution for such loss.

(4) Any person filing a complaint alleging a deceptive trade or sales practice pursuant to this section shall exhaust the remedies provided in this section prior to filing a complaint with the district court alleging a deceptive trade or sales practice.

12-59-119. Preservation of records. (1) In the event that a school located within this state ceases operation, the owner or such owner’s authorized designee shall deposit with the department of personnel the original or legible true copies of all educational, financial, or other records of said school.

(2) In the event that it appears to the board that any such records of a school ceasing operation are in danger of being destroyed, secreted, mislaid, or otherwise made unavailable to the board, the board may seize and take possession of such records upon making application to any court of competent jurisdiction for an appropriate order. The board shall maintain or cause to be maintained in the department of personnel a permanent file of any such records.

(3) Any person desiring copies of any such records shall pay a fee as may be established by the board.

12-59-121. Violations - civil - penalty. The board may commence a civil action against any entity believed by the board to have violated the provisions of section 12-59-107 or who fails or refuses to deposit with the department of personnel the records required by section 12-59-119. Upon a finding that such entity has violated the provisions of section 12-59-107 or has failed or refused to deposit with the department of personnel the records required by section 12-59-119, the court shall order such entity to pay to the division a civil penalty not to exceed one hundred dollars for each violation. Each day's failure by an entity to comply with the provisions of said section shall be a separate violation.

ANNOTATION

It is less than certain that the APA requires the state board for community colleges and occupational education to conduct a predeprivation hearing since it is not clear that a revocation results when an existing certificate merely expires because the renewal application is not sufficient in form or substance as prescribed by section 12-59-108, C.R.S. Nat'l Camera, Inc. v. Sanchez, 832 P.2d 960 (Colo. App. 1991) (decided under law in effect prior to 1990 amendment).

12-59-124. Jurisdiction of courts - service of process. Any school located within or without this state which offers to provide educational services to any person in this state, whether such educational services are provided in person or by correspondence, or which offers to award any educational credentials to any person in this state submits such school to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state concerning any cause of action arising therefrom and for the purpose of enforcement of this article by injunction pursuant to section 12-59-125. Service of process upon any such school subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state may be made by personally serving the summons upon the defendant within or without this state in the manner prescribed by the Colorado rules of civil procedure, which shall have the same force and effect as if the summons had been personally served within this state. Nothing contained in this section shall limit or affect the right to serve any process as prescribed by the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

12-59-125. Enforcement - injunction - fines. (1) Whenever it appears to the board that any entity is or has been violating any of the provisions of this article or any of the lawful rules or orders of the board, the board, on its own motion or on the written complaint of any person, may apply for and obtain a temporary restraining order or injunction, or both, in the name of the board in any district court in this state against said entity for the purpose of restraining or enjoining such violation or for an order directing compliance with the provisions of this article and all rules and orders issued pursuant to this article. It shall not be necessary that the board allege or prove that it has no adequate remedy at law. The right of injunction provided in this section shall be in addition to any other legal remedy which the board has and shall be in addition to any right of criminal prosecution provided by law. The existence of board action with respect to alleged violations of this article shall not operate as a bar to any action for injunctive relief pursuant to this section.

(2) The board shall have the authority to promulgate rules and adopt procedures to establish, impose, and collect fines from an entity that is in violation of the provisions of this article or the lawful rules or orders of the board. The board may impose a fine, pursuant to said rules, in addition to or in lieu of seeking a temporary restraining order or an injunction pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the state general fund.

(3) In determining whether to impose a fine or to seek a temporary restraining order or an injunction, the board shall consider whether the entity has engaged in a pattern of noncompliance.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-60-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly declares that the provisions of this article are enacted in the exercise of the police powers of this state for the protection of the health, peace, safety, and general welfare of the people of this state; for the purpose of promoting racing and the recreational, entertainment, and commercial benefits to be derived therefrom; to raise revenue for the general fund; to establish high standards of sport and fair play; for the promotion of the health and safety of the animals involved in racing events; and to foster honesty and fair dealing in the racing industry. To these ends, this article shall be liberally construed.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-60-100.2 as it existed prior to 1993, and the former § 12-60-101 was relocated to § 12-60-102.

12-60-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Breakage" means the odd cents by which the amount payable on each dollar wagered in a pari-mutuel pool exceeds a multiple of ten cents.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1583, § 1, effective May 21, 2009.)

(3) (a) "Class A track" means a track, located within the state of Colorado, at which a race meet of horses is conducted and which is not a class B track.

(b) "Class A track" includes a reopening class A track that has not run a meet within the past three years. Such class A track may begin to operate as a simulcast facility after the commission has approved its application for simulcasting and its application for race dates to hold a race meet within the following twelve months. Applications submitted to the commission shall include a provision for the establishment of a purse fund that complies with this article and the rules of the commission.

(4) (a) (I) "Class B track" means a track, located within the state of Colorado, at which a race meet of horses, consisting of thirty or more race days, is being conducted or was being conducted during the immediately preceding twelve months.

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1583, § 1, effective May 21, 2009.)

(5) "Commission" means the Colorado racing commission created in part 3 of this article.

(6) "Cross simulcasting" means either the receipt of a simulcast race of horses by a simulcast facility which is located on the premises of a track which is licensed to race greyhounds or the receipt of a simulcast race of greyhounds by a simulcast facility which is located on the premises of a track which is licensed to race horses.

(7) "Director" means the director of the division of racing events.

(8) "Division" means the division of racing events created in part 2 of this article.

(9) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of revenue organized as provided in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.

(10) "Greyhound track" means a track, located within the state of Colorado, at which a race meet of greyhounds is conducted.

(11) "Horse track" means either a class A track or a class B track.

(12) "Host track" means either an in-state host track or an out-of-state host track.

(13) "In-state host track" means a track, located within the state of Colorado, at which a race meet of either horses or greyhounds is conducted.

(14) (a) "In-state simulcast facility" means:

(I) A class A or class B horse track at which a licensee has held within the preceding twelve months or is licensed and scheduled to hold within the following twelve months a race meet of at least the duration required of a class A or class B track;

(II) A greyhound track at which a licensee has held within the preceding twelve months or is licensed and scheduled to hold within the following twelve months a greyhound race meet of at least sixty race days;

(III) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1583, § 1, effective May 21, 2009.)

(IV) An additional facility that is operated by and is the responsibility of the licensee of a class B horse track or greyhound track, located in Colorado, and used for the handling of wagers placed on simulcast races received by such track or facility. The number of such additional facilities shall not exceed the total number of facilities licensed to hold a race meet in 2003 plus one additional facility per licensee as authorized under this article. Such additional facilities shall be licensed in accordance with section 12-60-504 and shall not be located within fifty miles of any class B horse track or greyhound track operated by another licensee without the written consent of such other licensee. The commission shall establish by rule the means of obtaining such consent.

(b) If an additional facility is jointly owned or operated as a simulcast facility by two or more licensees, such additional facility shall be deemed to be one of the additional simulcast facilities of only one of such licensees, as designated in writing to the commission.

(c) The commission, for good cause, may grant a licensed class A horse track permission to receive simulcast races at an alternate location within five miles of its track during the times when the track is not in operation.

(15) "Interstate common pool" means a pari-mutuel pool established at one location, usually but not necessarily at a host track, within which pool are combined comparable pari-mutuel pools of one or more simulcast facilities upon a race run at the host track for purposes of establishing payoff prices in the various states. There may be simulcast facilities in more than one state simultaneously combining pari-mutuel pools into the common pool of the host track. Where permitted by the laws and rules of the states in which the host track and the simulcast facilities are located and with the concurrence of the host track, the combined pari-mutuel pool may be established on a regional or other basis between two or more simulcast facilities and need not involve a merger into the host track's pari-mutuel pool. In such instances, one of the simulcast facilities shall serve as if it were the host track for the purposes of holding the common pool and calculating payoffs. The interstate common pool shall be as specified in the written simulcast racing agreement between the host track and the person operating the simulcast facility receiving such simulcast races.

(16) "Intrastate common pool" means a pari-mutuel pool, established for an in-state host track, which includes wagers made at the in-state host track as well as wagers made at in-state simulcast facilities on simulcast races of live races run at the in-state host track.

(17) "Licensee" means any person holding a current, valid race meet license issued pursuant to section 12-60-505 and any person holding a current, valid license or registration issued by the commission pursuant to section 12-60-503 and section 12-60-504. The commission, by rule, shall determine which occupational categories shall be licensed and which shall be registered. Except in connection with the licensing of race meets, the term "license" includes a registration and "applicant" includes an applicant for a registration.

(18) "Out-of-state host track" means a track, located within a state other than Colorado, which is licensed or otherwise properly authorized under the laws of such state to conduct live races of horses or greyhounds and to broadcast such races as simulcast races and which broadcasts such simulcast races to an in-state simulcast facility.

(19) "Out-of-state simulcast facility" means a track or other facility, located within a jurisdiction other than Colorado, at which pari-mutuel wagers are placed or accepted, either in person or electronically, on simulcast races pursuant to proper authorization under the laws of such jurisdiction.

(20) "Pari-mutuel pool" means a wagering pool into which pari-mutuel wagers on a live race or on a simulcast race are taken.

(20.5) “Pari-mutuel wagering” means a form of wagering on the outcome of horse and greyhound races in which those who wager purchase tickets of various denominations on one or more horses or greyhounds from one or more pools and all like wagers from each race are pooled and the winning ticket holders are paid prizes from such pool in amounts proportional to the total receipts in the pool minus deductions authorized by statute.

(21) “Person” means any individual, partnership, firm, corporation, or association.

(22) “Race meet” means any live exhibition of racing involving horses registered within their breed or greyhounds, conducted at a track located within the state of Colorado and operated by a licensee under a license granted pursuant to section 12-60-505, where the pari-mutuel system of wagering is used.

(23) “Simulcast facility” means either an in-state simulcast facility or an out-of-state simulcast facility.

(24) “Simulcast race” means a live, audio-visual broadcast, transmitted simultaneously with the performance of a live race of horses or greyhounds by either an out-of-state host track or an in-state host track, which is received by a simulcast facility.

(25) Repealed.

(25.5) “Source market fee” means a licensing fee, assessed by the director pursuant to section 12-60-202 (3) (h), in lieu of taxes and fees otherwise payable under this article, payable by persons outside of Colorado who conduct pari-mutuel wagering on simulcast races and who accept wagers from Colorado residents at out-of-state simulcast facilities.

(26) “Track” or “racetrack” means a track which is located within the state of Colorado and at which a race meet of either horses or greyhounds is conducted under a license granted pursuant to section 12-60-505.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-60-102 is similar to § 12-60-101 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Colorado’s racing act as a whole is not a revenue measure, but such portions thereof as provide for the collection of revenue to be paid into the general fund of the state are revenue measures. Centennial Turf Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm’n, 129 Colo. 529, 271 P.2d 1046 (1954).

Because the Colorado statute is almost word for word the same as the Oregon statute, it would appear that the general assembly followed the Oregon statute in preparing the act. Centennial Turf Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm’n, 129 Colo. 529, 271 P.2d 1046 (1954).

12-60-103. Division and commission subject to termination. The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the division of racing events created by section 12-60-201 and the Colorado racing commission created by section 12-60-301.

DIVISION OF RACING EVENTS

12-60-201. Division of racing events - creation - representation. (1) There is hereby created, within the department of revenue, the division of racing events, the head of which shall be the director of the division of racing events. The director shall be appointed by, and shall be subject to removal by, the executive director of the department of revenue. The division of racing events, the Colorado racing commission created in section 12-60-301, and the director of the division of racing events shall exercise their respective powers and perform their respective duties and functions as specified in this article under the department of revenue as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 2 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.; except that the commission shall have full and exclusive authority to promulgate rules related to racing without any approval by, or delegation of authority from, the department of revenue.

(2) The division shall make investigations and shall request the commission or the district attorney of any district, as appropriate, to prosecute, on behalf of and in the name of the division, suits and proceedings for any of the purposes necessary and proper for carrying out the functions of the division.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-60-102 (1) as it existed prior to 1993.

12-60-202. Director - qualifications - powers and duties. (1) The director shall be qualified by training and experience to direct the work of the division; and, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S., shall be of good character and shall not have been convicted of any felony or gambling-related offense.

(2) The director shall not engage in any other profession or occupation that could present a conflict of interest with the director's duties as director of the division.

(3) The director, as administrative head of the division, shall direct and supervise all administrative and technical activities of the division. In addition to the duties imposed upon the director elsewhere in this article, it shall be the director's duty:

(a) To investigate, supervise, and administer the conduct of racing in accordance with the provisions of this article and the rules of the commission;

(b) To attend meetings of the commission or to appoint a designee to attend in the director's place;

(c) To employ and direct such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this article, but no person shall be employed who has been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S. The director by agreement may secure and provide payment for such services as the director may deem necessary from any department, agency, or unit of the state government and may employ and compensate such consultants and technical assistants as may be required and as otherwise permitted by law. Personnel employed by the director shall include but shall not be limited to a sufficient number of veterinarians, as defined in the "Colorado Veterinary Practice Act", article 64 of this title, so that at least one veterinarian employed by the director, or by the operator, as provided in section 12-60-705 (1), shall be present at every racetrack during weighing in of animals and at all times that racing is being conducted; and the director shall by rule authorize any such veterinarian to conduct physical examinations of animals, including without limitation blood and urine tests and other tests for the presence of prohibited drugs or medications, to ensure that the animals are in proper physical condition to race, to prohibit any animal from racing if it is not in proper physical condition to race, and to take other necessary and proper action to ensure the health and safety of racing animals and the fairness of races.

(d) To confer, as necessary or desirable and not less than once each quarter, with the commission on the conduct of racing;

(e) To make available for inspection by the commission or any member of the commission, upon request, all books, records, files, and other information and documents of the director's office;

(f) To advise the commission and recommend such rules and such other matters as the director deems necessary and advisable to improve the conduct of racing;

(g) To make a continuous study and investigation of the operation and the administration of similar laws which may be in effect in other states or countries, any literature on the subject which from time to time may be published or available, any federal laws which may affect the conduct of racing, and the reaction of Colorado citizens to existing and potential features of racing events in Colorado with a view to recommending or effecting changes that will tend to serve the purposes of this article;

(h) To establish and adjust fees for all licenses and registrations issued pursuant to this article in an amount sufficient to generate revenue that approximates the direct and indirect cost of administering this article; except that an increase of more than ten percent in the fee for an occupational license or registration shall be subject to ratification by the commission. Such fees shall be credited to the racing cash fund created in section 12-60-205.

(i) To perform any other lawful acts which the director and the commission may consider necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes and provisions of this article.

(4) Repealed.

(5) If so directed by the commission, the director may, on behalf of this state:

(a) Negotiate, enter into, and participate in one or more interstate compacts that enable party states to act jointly and cooperatively to create more uniform, effective, and efficient practices, programs, and rules relating to:

(I) Live horse and greyhound racing; and

(II) Pari-mutuel wagering activities, both on-track and off-track, that occur in or affect a party state;

(b) Serve as this state's authorized representative on a commission to negotiate one or more interstate compacts as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5). If the compact commission undertakes to promulgate rules to be adopted by party states, the director shall endeavor to ensure that the process by which the rules are promulgated conforms substantially to the model state administrative procedure act of 1981, as amended, insofar as the terms of the model act are appropriate to the actions and operations of the compact commission.

12-60-203. Investigators - peace officers. (1) All investigators of the division of racing events, including the director and the executive director, shall for purposes of enforcement of this article be considered peace officers as described in sections 16-2.5-101 and 16-2.5-126, C.R.S.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit local sheriffs, police departments, and other local law enforcement agencies or the Colorado bureau of investigation from enforcing the provisions of this article or rules promulgated pursuant to this article, or from performing their other duties to the full extent permitted by law. All such sheriffs, police officers, district attorneys, other local law enforcement agencies, or the Colorado bureau of investigation shall have all the powers set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

12-60-204. Board of stewards or judges. The division shall establish a board of three stewards or judges to assist in supervising the conduct of any race meet. Two members of the board of stewards or judges shall be employees of the division. The remaining member shall be an employee of the track at which the race meet is held, shall be subject to the approval of the commission, and may be removed by the commission at any time for any reason which the commission deems good and sufficient.

COLORADO RACING COMMISSION

12-60-301. Racing commission - creation. (1) There is hereby created, within the division of racing events, the Colorado racing commission. The commission shall consist of five members, all of whom shall be citizens of the United States and shall have been residents of this state for the past five years. The members shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent and approval of the senate. No member shall have been convicted of a felony or gambling-related offense, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S. No more than three of the five members shall be members of the same political party. At the first meeting of each fiscal year, a chair and vice-chair of the commission shall be chosen from the membership by a majority of the members. Membership and operation of the commission shall additionally meet the following requirements:

(a) Two members of the commission shall have been previously engaged in the racing industry for at least five years; one member shall be a practicing veterinarian who is currently licensed in Colorado and has been so licensed for not less than five years; one member shall have been engaged in business in a management-level capacity for at least five years; and one member shall be a registered elector of the state who is not employed in any profession or industry otherwise described in this paragraph (a); however, no more than two members of the commission shall be from the same congressional district, and one member of the commission shall be from west of the continental divide.

(b) Initial members shall be appointed to the commission by the governor as follows: One member to serve until July 1, 1993, one member to serve until July 1, 1994, one member to serve until July 1, 1995, and two members to serve until July 1, 1996. All subsequent appointments shall be for terms of four years. No member of the commission shall be eligible to serve more than two consecutive terms.

(c) Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment. The member appointed to fill such vacancy shall be from the same category described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) as the member vacating the position.

(d) Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor at any time.

(e) The term of any member of the commission who misses more than two consecutive regular commission meetings without good cause shall be terminated and such member's successor shall be appointed in the manner provided for appointments under this section.

(f) Commission members shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(g) Prior to confirmation by the senate, each member shall file with the secretary of state a financial disclosure statement in the form required and prescribed by the executive director. Such statement shall be renewed as of each January 1 during the member's term of office.

(h) The commission shall hold at least one meeting each quarter and such additional meetings as may be prescribed by rules of the commission. In addition, special meetings may be called by the chair, any two commission members, or the director, if written notification of such meeting is delivered to each member at least seventy-two hours prior to such meeting. Notwithstanding section 24-6-402, C.R.S., in emergency situations in which a majority of the commission certifies that exigencies of time require that the commission meet without delay, the requirements of public notice and of seventy-two hours' actual advance written notice to members may be dispensed with, and commission members as well as the public shall receive such notice as is reasonable under the circumstances. Any action by the commission during such emergency meetings shall be limited to those issues relating to the emergency situation for which the meeting was called.

(i) A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum, but the concurrence of a majority of the members appointed to the commission shall be required for any final determination by the commission.

12-60-302. Organization and officers - duties - representation. (1) All moneys payable to and collected by the department of revenue through the division shall be transmitted to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall credit the same to the general fund except for those moneys required by this article to be deposited in the racing commission cash fund.

(2) The commission shall maintain an office within the state and shall keep detailed records of all its meetings and of all the business transacted and of all the collections and disbursements. Publications of the commission circulated in quantity outside the executive branch shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S.

(3) The attorney general shall provide legal services for the division and the commission at the request of the executive director, the director, or the commission. The attorney general shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that there is continuity in the legal services provided and that the attorneys providing legal services to the division and the commission have expertise in such field.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

12-60-401. Director and commission members - position of trust - conflicts of interest. (1) Appointment to the commission or to the position of director or employment in the division of racing events is declared to be a position of public trust, and therefore, in order to ensure the confidence of the people of the state in the integrity of the division and the commission, the director and members of the commission and the employees of the division shall be subject to this section. While serving as director or as a member of the commission or while employed by the division, no person nor any member of such person's immediate family shall:

(a) Hold any pecuniary interest in any racetrack operating within the state of Colorado nor in any kennel, stable, compound, or farm that houses animals licensed or registered to race within the state of Colorado;

(b) Wager money or any other chattel of value on the result of any race or race meet or sweepstakes conducted within the state of Colorado or conducted outside the state and simulcast into the state;

(c) Hold any pecuniary interest in any out-of-state host track or derive any pecuniary benefit from the racing of any animal at such track;

(d) Hold more than a five percent interest in any entity doing business with a track; or

(e) Have any interest of any kind in a license issued pursuant to this article, nor have any interest, direct or indirect, including employment, in any licensee, licensed premises, establishment, or business involved in or with pari-mutuel wagering.

(2) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be grounds for removal from office.

(3) For purposes of this section, "immediate family" means a person's spouse and any children actually living with the person.

PART 5

LICENSING AND REGISTRATION

12-60-501. Regulation of race meets and racing-related businesses. (1) (a) The commission shall license and regulate all race meets with pari-mutuel wagering held in this state at which horses or greyhounds participate, and shall cause the places where such race meets are held to be visited and inspected at least once a year by its members or employees, and shall require all such places to be constructed, maintained, and operated in accordance with the laws of this state and the rules of the commission.

(b) The commission shall license and regulate all kennels and stables housing racing animals in connection with a race meet, shall cause such kennels and stables to be visited and inspected at least once a year by its members or employees, and shall require all such places to be constructed, maintained, and operated in accordance with the laws of this state and the rules of the commission.

(2) (a) In particular, the commission shall, at its own expense, regulate the operations of pari-mutuel machines and equipment, the operations of all money rooms, accounting rooms, and sellers' and cashiers' windows, and the weighing of jockeys and of greyhounds, and shall take or cause to be taken saliva, urine, blood, or other body fluid samples or biopsy or necropsy specimens from horses and greyhounds selected by the commission or its employees at race meets provided for under this article or when concerns are raised as to a particular animal, including but not limited to the winner of a race, and shall test and determine such samples or specimens or cause such samples or specimens to be tested and determined. For such purposes, the commission, at its expense and in addition to other employees, shall employ or contract with competent veterinary doctors, accountants, chemists, and other persons necessary to supervise the conduct of race meets and to ascertain that this article and the rules of the commission are strictly complied with. The commission shall also seek innovative and efficient methods of testing animals for prohibited drugs and medication, while ensuring animal safety and maintaining the integrity of racing. Through its bidding process, the commission shall invite laboratories to include proposals for testing procedures and methods that would maintain or improve the effectiveness of test results and minimize testing cost incurred by the state or the racing industry.

(b) The commission shall establish and require compliance with internal control procedures for licensees, including accounting and reporting procedures.

(c) The commission shall license and regulate persons who manufacture or operate totalisators and shall require all totalisators to be manufactured, maintained, and operated in accordance with the laws of this state and rules of the commission.

(d) The commission may license and regulate persons outside of Colorado who conduct pari-mutuel wagering on simulcast races and who accept wagers from Colorado residents at out-of-state simulcast facilities, and shall require out-of-state simulcast facilities to be maintained and operated in accordance with the laws of this state and rules of the commission. Source market fees imposed on persons licensed under this paragraph (d) shall not exceed ten percent of the gross receipts of all pari-mutuel wagering by Colorado residents conducted by such persons at out-of-state simulcast facilities.

(3) The commission shall license and regulate all in-state simulcast facilities conducting pari-mutuel wagering and shall require all such in-state simulcast facilities to be maintained and operated in accordance with the laws of this state and rules of the commission.

(4) The commission shall, at its own expense, specifically regulate the operation by in-state simulcast facilities of pari-mutuel machines and equipment, the operation of all money and accounting facilities, and the operation of sellers' and cashiers' windows and ensure that the in-state simulcast facility is handling wagering as part of the pari-mutuel system of the appropriate track or simulcast facility and as part of the appropriate pari-mutuel pool, as designated in section 12-60-703. For such purposes, the commission, at its own expense, and in addition to other employees, shall employ the competent personnel necessary to supervise the wagering through in-state simulcast facilities and to ascertain that this article and the rules of the commission are strictly complied with.

(5) A licensed track or its additional facility may be used for nonracing events upon advance notice to the commission, subject to the authority of the commission and the division to take all measures reasonably necessary to ensure that such nonracing events do not interfere with the safe and proper conduct of racing or the suitability of the track for racing.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-60-501 is similar to § 12-60-104 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Regardless of any reference to, or discussion of, the subject of racing being what formerly had been a prohibited and unlawful undertaking, the people by their vote adopted a public policy to the effect that racing such as is here involved within this state is legal. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

It is evident that the people in legalizing racing did so as a means of obtaining revenue for the general fund and the commission has no power or authority to interfere with this clearly intended purpose. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

This section requires the racing commission to maintain and operate all race tracks in accordance with the laws of the state and the rules of the commission. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Conner, 30 Colo. App. 72, 490 P.2d 75 (1971).

Under the provisions of subsection (1), the racing commission is charged with the duty of regulating and supervising all race meets involving pari-mutuel wagering that are held in the state of Colo.. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Conner, 30 Colo. App. 72, 490 P.2d 75 (1971).

Rule of the racing commission that requires race tracks to install and maintain, at their own expense, video surveillance systems in pari-mutual wagering areas is authorized by subsection (1)(a). The costs of doing business and complying with licensing rules, which include the cost of equipment necessary for the collection of information used by the commission to regulate, are the race tracks' responsibility under subsection (1)(a). Mile High Greyhound Park v. Racing Comm'n, 12 P.3d 351 (Colo. App. 2000).

Effect of "shall" in subsection (1). The general assembly, by the employment of the word "shall" in connection with the issuance of a license, unquestionably intended that such was to be put beyond the pale of permissive action on the part of the commission in cases where the applicant has met every requirement of the act in connection with its application and does not fall within the specific prohibitions of the act. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Concerning the matter of determining that it was not to the best interest of racing or to the public's interest to grant the license applied for, this was definitely beyond the function or authority of the commission, because the matter of declaration of public policy such as was here undertaken is a legislative matter, or sometimes to be found in the expression of the people by their vote on certain issues. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

It is not for the commission to say what is or is not the needs of certain localities, or what is to the interest of racing. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

So far as the interest of racing is concerned that is an economic factor which takes care of itself, and the act provides the lines of proximity within which the commission cannot encroach in granting a license. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Under the guise of "best interest of racing or the public interest", the commission would have complete control of all future racing within the state according to its own peculiar notions or grounds. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Other duties. Besides the racing commission being charged with the duty to license, regulate, and supervise all race meets, it specifically takes saliva or urine samples from the horses. Harbour v. Colo. State Racing Comm'n, 32 Colo. App. 1, 505 P.2d 22 (1973).

It is the supreme court's duty to give full respect to the findings of a commission and the discretion exercised if the discretion was exercised on matters it could lawfully consider. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

The appointment of race track stewards and the delegation to them of certain supervisory functions constitutes only an exercise by the racing commission of its right to employ supervisory personnel in accordance with the provisions of this section. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Conner, 30 Colo. App. 72, 490 P.2d 75 (1971).

The commission, by the exercise of the right to employ race track stewards, does not and cannot totally foreclose itself from discharging its duties of investigating, determining, and redressing possible acts of impropriety occurring in connection with races committed to its jurisdiction, because such duties are quasi-judicial in nature, and must remain ultimately the responsibility of the commission. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Conner, 30 Colo. App. 72, 490 P.2d 75 (1971).

Where no complaint or objection concerning the running of a race was ever made to the race track stewards by the owner, trainer, or jockey of a horse allegedly fouled, but the owner did request the racing commission to investigate the race after the results of that race were officially announced, the substantive question concerned the propriety of the manner in which a race was run and the propriety of conduct on the part of persons subject to the commission's supervision, because it was the statutory duty of the commission to investigate and resolve such question, and, if necessary, the commission could have proceeded by ordering a hearing solely on its own motion, as it has authorized itself to do in the rules governing horse racing, and since the determination of the question involved was always within the scope of its jurisdiction, any questions concerning the necessity of a prior determination by the stewards or concerning the owner's standing to object became immaterial. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Conner, 30 Colo. App. 72, 490 P.2d 75 (1971).

12-60-502. Delegation of authority to issue certain licenses and registrations. The commission shall delegate to the division the authority to issue all business and occupational licenses and registrations contemplated in this article, and shall promulgate rules containing standards for such delegation. The commission shall not delegate its duty to issue or renew race meet licenses.

12-60-503. Rules of the commission - licensing. (1) (a) The commission shall make reasonable rules for the control, supervision, fingerprinting, identification, and direction of applicants, registrants, and licensees, including rules providing for the supervising, disciplining, suspending, fining, and barring from racing of all persons required to be licensed or registered by this article and for the holding, conducting, and operating of all races, race meets, racetracks, in-state simulcast facilities, and out-of-state wagering on simulcast races conducted pursuant to this article. It shall announce the place, time, number of races per day, duration of race meets, as provided in section 12-60-603, and types of race meets.

(b) The commission may issue a temporary license or registration for up to a maximum of ninety days for any license or registration authorized under this article.

(2) (a) Every person holding a license or registration under this article, every person operating an in-state simulcast facility, and every owner or trainer of any horse or greyhound licensed to enter any racing contest under this article shall comply with all rules and orders issued by the commission. It is unlawful for any person to work upon the premises of a racetrack without first obtaining from the commission a license or registration for such activity. The commission may waive this licensing or registration requirement for such occupational categories as the commission, in its discretion, deems unnecessary to be licensed or registered. This licensing or registration requirement does not apply to the members of the commission or its employees or to persons whose only participation is individually as spectator or bettor. It is unlawful for any person who owns or leases a racing animal to allow such animal to race in this state without first obtaining an owner's license or registration from the commission, as prescribed by the rules of the commission. The commission in its discretion may extend the validity of any license issued for a period not to exceed three years, and the fee for such license shall be increased proportionately; except that no temporary license or registration shall be issued for a period longer than ninety days. It is unlawful for any person to hold any race meet with pari-mutuel wagering without obtaining a license therefor. It is unlawful for any person to operate an in-state simulcast facility unless that person is a licensee that has been licensed within the year to hold a race meet or is a licensee that has a written simulcast racing agreement with the in-state host track or out-of-state host track from which the simulcast race is broadcast and has filed a copy of the written simulcast racing agreement with the commission prior to operation as an in-state simulcast facility.

(3) No person holding a license under this article shall extend credit to another person for participation in pari-mutuel wagering.

(4) With the submission of an application for a license granted pursuant to this article, each applicant shall submit a set of fingerprints to the commission. The commission shall forward such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Only the actual costs of such record check shall be borne by the applicant. Nothing in this subsection (4) shall preclude the commission from making further inquiries into the background of the applicant.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-60-503 is similar to § 12-60-105 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The racing commission is authorized to make reasonable rules and regulations for the control, supervision, and direction of licensees, including regulations providing for suspending such licensees. Harbour v. Colo. State Racing Comm'n, 32 Colo. App. 1, 505 P.2d 22 (1973).

In view of difficulty in controlling business of horse racing and of importance of doing so in the interest of the public, state racing commission rules creating a presumption that drug found in horse was administered either by holder of owner and trainer license or with his knowledge and consent were not so arbitrary and unreasonable as to constitute a deprivation of due process. Harbour v. Colo. State Racing Comm'n, 32 Colo. App. 1, 505 P.2d 22 (1973).

The commission is required to determine the length of time allowed for race meets, and how many, and what kind are to be held in any one county. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

This section is not a grant of discretion to the commission as to the number of licenses. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

In consideration of the other provisions of the act, this is a reference to the matter of the racing season and is not, and cannot be, in anywise interpreted as being the power to limit licenses other than is authorized by provisions of the act. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Racing commission was not precluded from making financial irresponsibility grounds for discipline, even though such grounds were not enumerated in § 12-60-507 since the rule was in the interests of the public and reasonable and was fully consistent with the commission's authority to promulgate rules. Partridge v. State, 895 P.2d 1183 (Colo. App. 1995).

12-60-504. Business licenses. (1) Every application for a business license, excluding applications for initial or renewal race meet licenses pursuant to sections 12-60-505 and 12-60-511, shall be made under oath and filed with the commission and shall set forth such information as the rules of the commission may require in connection with the application.

(2) To determine whether a license shall be granted, the commission shall have the right to examine the financial and other records of the applicant and to compel the production of records and documents.

(3) The commission has discretion to grant or deny a business license if it finds that any applicant or any of the directors, officers, or original stockholders of a corporate applicant have violated any of the provisions of this article or any rules of the commission, or failed to pay any of the sums required under this article, or as it determines, from such application, the character, financial ability, and experience of each individual applicant or the officers and director of each corporate applicant to be for the best interests of the state and the racing industry.

(4) When conducting investigations pursuant to this section, to the extent possible, the commission shall utilize investigative information of other state racing jurisdictions. The commission may investigate an existing licensee who is seeking to acquire ownership of another existing license.

(5) Any unexpired license held by any person who has been convicted by the commission of violating any of the provisions of this article or any rule of the commission, or who has willfully or fraudulently made any false statement in any application for a license, or who fails to pay to the commission any and all sums required under the provisions of this article is subject to cancellation or revocation by the commission.

(6) The commission shall have the power to issue subpoenas for the appearance of persons and the production of documents and other things in connection with applications before the commission or in the conduct of investigations.

Editor's note: Section 12-60-103 (6), enacted by House Bill 93-1034, was superseded by House Bill 93-1268 and relocated to subsection (6) of this section. The provisions are identical. (See L. 93, p. 1026.)

12-60-505. Meet licenses. (1) Every initial application for a license to hold race meets under this article shall be made under oath and shall be filed with the commission on or before a day fixed by the commission and shall set forth the time, the place, and the number of days such meet shall continue; the kind of racing proposed to be conducted; the full name and address of the applicant and, if a corporation, the names and addresses of all of its officers and directors and all of the holders of each class of its stock and the amount of stock of each class so owned by each stockholder; the location of the racetrack and whether the same is owned or leased; the names and residences of the owners of all property leased by such applicant; a statement of the assets and liabilities of such applicant; a description of the qualifications and experience of the applicant if an individual or of its officers and directors if a corporation; a full disclosure of all holding or intermediary companies associated with the applicant, as well as their shareholders, all contracts that relate to the race meet, audited balance sheets of corporate applicants, excluding nonprofit associations, and the terms and conditions of all contracts by which the applicant has received credit; a description of the land uses within a radius of two miles of the establishment in which such race meet is proposed to be conducted; and such incidental information as the rules of the commission may require in connection with the application.

(2) Upon the filing of such application, the commission shall fix a date for a hearing on the application, and said applicant shall give public notice of the time and place of such hearing by publication in one issue of a daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation in the area in which it is proposed to conduct such race meet and by posting on the site of such proposed race meet a notice, in form and size to be determined by the commission, that such application has been filed and the date and place of the hearing thereon. At the time and place mentioned in said notice, the commission shall conduct a public hearing at which evidence for and against the granting of the application may be presented.

(3) Except as otherwise limited by the provisions of this article, in considering an application for a license under this section, the commission may give consideration to the number of licenses already granted, and to the location of tracks previously licensed, and to the sentiments and character of the community in which the proposed race meets are to be conducted, and to the ability, character, and experience of each individual applicant or the officers and directors of each corporate applicant. The commission may require of every applicant for a license to hold a race meet, except a public nonprofit association, nonprofit corporation, or nonprofit fair, including the Colorado state fair and all county fairs, who has not, within five years prior to making an application for a license to hold a race meet, operated a race meet in the county, city, or city and county in which it is proposed to hold such race meet, a recommendation in writing of the board of county commissioners of said county in the event the race meet is to be held in unincorporated areas of said county or of the governing board of a city or city and county if the proposed race meet is to be held within a city or city and county. The commission may take such recommendation into consideration before granting or refusing such licenses. The commission may deny a license to operate a new racetrack to a person who is already licensed to operate a racetrack within this or any other state if, in the opinion of the commission, the granting of such license would discourage legitimate competition from other qualified applicants. The commission shall investigate any applicant and shall require the applicant to pay the actual cost of investigating the application as part of the fees and costs imposed pursuant to section 12-60-506. The applicant shall advance the moneys necessary for the investigation to the commission, and the commission shall return any unused portion of such moneys to the applicant at the conclusion of the commission's investigation. The advance of such moneys may either be made directly to the commission or the moneys may be deposited into escrow in a manner approved by the commission.

(4) The commission may grant or refuse licenses to conduct race meets under this article as it determines, from such application, the character, financial ability, and experience of each individual applicant or the officers and directors of each corporate applicant, the sentiments of the community and the character of the area wherein it is proposed to conduct such race meets, and the evidence presented at such hearing, to be for the best interests of the state, the racing industry, and the area in which it is proposed to conduct such race meets.

(5) The commission has discretion to grant or deny a race meet license if it finds that any applicant has, or any of the directors, officers, or original stockholders of a corporate applicant have, violated any of the provisions of this article or any rules of the commission or failed to pay any of the sums required under this article.

(6) Every license issued under this article shall specify the number of days said licensed race meet shall continue and the number of races per day. No license shall be granted to any individual who is not a bona fide resident of Colorado nor to any foreign corporation. Every applicant shall agree that, if granted a license under this article, such applicant will not thereafter sell, mortgage, or otherwise pledge or dispose of any of the assets listed and described on the application for a license or a renewal license without thirty days' prior notice to the commission, which may approve or disapprove the disposition of assets upon good cause shown. The charter of all corporate applicants shall contain a provision that, when a cumulative ten percent or more of the voting stock of such corporation is to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise pledged or transferred, thirty days' prior notice shall be given to the commission. The corporation shall pay an investigation fee to the commission as part of the fees and costs imposed pursuant to section 12-60-506. The commission shall approve or disapprove of the disposition of such stock, upon good cause shown, within ninety days of such filing of a completed application for transfer. The commission has the power to ascertain if any capital stock of any corporate applicant or licensee is held with the intent to mislead or deceive the commission for an undisclosed principal. The involvement of an undisclosed principal shall be grounds for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license.

(7) Upon petition by the licensee and a finding by the commission that it is impossible or impractical for a licensee, because of fire or act of God or other unforeseeable emergency not caused or participated in by the licensee, to conduct a race meet upon the dates allocated or upon a racetrack designated by the commission to the licensee, other dates and locations may be substituted and granted to the licensee. A licensee so petitioning may be granted the right to lease and utilize any other licensee's facilities for the term of the petitioning licensee's annual permit or any portion thereof, but said grant shall not be construed to allow any licensee more days of racing in any year than are prescribed by this article.

(8) When conducting investigations pursuant to subsections (3) and (6) of this section, to the extent possible, the commission shall utilize investigative information of other state racing jurisdictions. The commission may investigate an existing licensee who is seeking to acquire ownership of another existing license to conduct race meets.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-60-505 is similar to § 12-60-106 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Legislative intent. The general assembly did not intend to grant licensees as a class a roving commission to police the legality of commission actions. Cloverleaf Kennel Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 620 P.2d 1051 (Colo. 1980).

Subsection (8) is intended to benefit licensees who, without fault, have been unable to utilize the full number of racing days allotted to them by their licenses. Cloverleaf Kennel Club, Inc. v.

Colo. Racing Comm'n, 620 P.2d 1051 (Colo. 1980).

It does not appear reasonable or logical that the general assembly intended to grant the commission the authority to limit licenses or to consider any other matter in connection with applications therefor, other than as set out in the act. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

The former provision, "and such application shall contain such other information as the commission may require", was an open door to a nonuniform requirement of applicants for licenses. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Licensee, not suffering direct and palpable harm from commission action, lacks standing. A licensee who has neither been denied an allotment of additional days pursuant to subsection (8) nor suffered direct and palpable economic harm as a result of the commission action, allotting additional days to another licensee under subsection (8), lacks standing to challenge the commission's action as an invasion of an interest impliedly protected by this article. Cloverleaf Kennel Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 620 P.2d 1051 (Colo. 1980).

12-60-506. Application - fee - waiver of confidentiality. (1) In connection with the issuance of licenses or registrations, the commission shall establish investigation and application fees.

(2) The application form created by the commission shall include a waiver of any right of confidentiality and a provision which allows the information contained in the application to be accessible to law enforcement agents of this or any other state or the government of the United States. The waiver of confidentiality shall extend to any financial or personnel record, wherever maintained.

12-60-507. Investigation - denial, suspension, and revocation actions against licensees - unlawful acts. (1) The commission upon its own motion may, and upon complaint in writing of any person shall, investigate the activities of any licensee or applicant within the state or any person upon the premises of any facility licensed pursuant to this article. In addition to its authority under any other provision of this article, the commission may issue a letter of admonition to a licensee, fine a licensee, suspend a license, deny an application for a license, or revoke a license, if such person has committed any of the following violations:

(a) Disregarding or violating any provision of this article or any rule promulgated by the commission in the interests of the public and in conformance with the provisions of this article;

(b) Been convicted of, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, a criminal charge under the laws of this or any other state or of the United States, or entered into a plea bargain for acts or omissions that, if committed in Colorado, would have been grounds for discipline in this state. A certified copy of the judgment of the court in which any such conviction occurred shall be presumptive evidence of such conviction in any hearing under this article. This paragraph (b) shall be applied in accordance with section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(c) Current prosecution or pending charges in any jurisdiction against the applicant, or any of its officers or directors, or any of its general partners, or any stockholders, limited partners, or other persons having a financial or equity interest of five percent or greater in the applicant, for any felony; except that, at the request of the applicant or the person charged, the commission shall defer decision upon such application during the pendency of such charge;

(d) Fraud, willful misrepresentation, or deceit in racing;

(e) Failure to disclose to the commission complete ownership or beneficial interest in a racing animal entered to be raced;

(f) Misrepresentation or attempted misrepresentation in connection with the sale of a racing animal or other matter pertaining to racing or registration of racing animals;

(g) Failure to comply with any order or rulings of the commission, the stewards, the judges, or a racing official pertaining to a racing matter;

(h) Ownership of any interest in or participation by any manner in any bookmaking, pool-selling, touting, bet solicitation, or illegal enterprise;

(i) Employing or harboring unlicensed persons on the premises of a racetrack;

(j) Being a person, employing a person, or being assisted by any person who is not of good record or good moral character;

(k) Discontinuance of or ineligibility for the activity for which the license was issued;

(l) Being currently under suspension or revocation of a racing license in another racing jurisdiction, or having been subject to disciplinary action by the racing commission or equivalent agency of another jurisdiction for acts or omissions that, if committed in Colorado, would have been grounds for discipline in this state; except that this paragraph (l) shall not furnish the basis for the imposition of fines;

(m) Possession on the premises of a racetrack of:

(I) Firearms; or

(II) A battery, buzzer, electrical device, or other appliance other than a whip which could be used to alter the speed of a racing animal in a race or while working out or schooling;

(n) Possession, on the premises of a racetrack, by a person other than a licensed veterinarian of:

(I) A hypodermic needle, hypodermic syringe, or other similar device;

(II) Any substance, compound items, or combination thereof of any medicine, narcotic, stimulant, depressant, or anesthetic which could alter the normal performance of a racing animal unless specifically authorized by the commission veterinarian;

(o) Cruelty to or neglect of a racing animal;

(p) Offering, promising, giving, accepting, or soliciting a bribe in any form, directly or indirectly, to or by a person having any connection with the outcome of a race, or failure to report knowledge of such act immediately to the stewards, the judges, or the commission;

(q) Causing, attempting to cause, or participating in any way in any attempt to cause the prearrangement of a race result, or failure to report knowledge of such act immediately to the stewards, the judges, or the commission;

(r) Entering, or aiding and abetting the entry of, a racing animal ineligible or unqualified for the race entered;

(s) Willfully or unjustifiably entering or racing of any animal in any race under any name or designation other than the name or designation assigned to such animal by and registered with the official recognized registry for that breed of animal, or willfully soliciting, instigating, engaging in or in any way furthering any act by which any racing animal is entered or raced in any race under any name or designation other than the name or designation duly assigned by and registered with the official recognized registry for that breed of animal;

(t) Aiding or abetting any person in the violation of any rule of the commission;

(u) Racing at a racetrack without having a racing animal registered to race at that racetrack;

(v) Being on the premises of a racetrack for which the licensee is required to be licensed without being able to show proof of gainful employment at that racetrack;

(w) (I) Failing to comply with the requirements of part 6 of article 35 of title 24, C.R.S., or any rule promulgated by the executive director of part of the department of revenue pursuant to section 24-35-607 (3), C.R.S.

(II) Repealed.

(1.5) The director may summarily suspend the license of any person pending a hearing concerning violation of paragraph (o) of subsection (1) of this section.

(2) Any person who fails to pay within the time period established by rule a fine imposed pursuant to this article shall pay, in addition to the fine due, a penalty amount equal to the fine. Any person who submits to the department of revenue through the division a check in payment of a fine or license fee requirement imposed pursuant to this article, which check is not honored by the financial institution upon which it is drawn, shall pay, in addition to the fine or fee due, a penalty amount equal to the fine or fee. All moneys received pursuant to a penalty amount imposed by this subsection (2) shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a final action or order of the commission may appeal such action to the Colorado court of appeals.

ANNOTATION

No denial of due process. Section does not violate due process when commission does not promulgate rules to safeguard against arbitrary applications of powers in suspending licenses because the statute itself prescribes the range of penalties which can be imposed by the commission. Petersen v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 677 P.2d 412 (Colo. App. 1983).

Racing commission was not precluded from making financial irresponsibility grounds for discipline, even though such grounds were not enumerated in this section, since the rule was in the interests of the public and reasonable and was fully consistent with the commission's authority to promulgate rules. Partridge v. State, 895 P.2d 1183 (Colo. App. 1995).

12-60-507.5. License - mandatory disqualification - criteria. (1) The commission shall deny a license to any applicant on the basis of any of the following criteria:

(a) Failure of the applicant to prove by clear and convincing evidence that the applicant is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this article;

(b) Failure of the applicant to provide information, documentation, and assurances required by this article or requested by the commission, failure of the applicant to reveal any fact material to qualification, or the supplying of information which is untrue or misleading as to a material fact pertaining to the qualification criteria;

(c) Conviction of the applicant, or any of its officers or directors, or any of its general partners, or any stockholders, limited partners, or other persons having a financial or equity interest of five percent or greater in the applicant, of any of the following:

(I) Any gambling-related offense or theft by deception;

(II) Any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation committed within ten years prior to the date of the application, notwithstanding the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(d) Current prosecution or pending charges in any jurisdiction against the applicant, or against any person listed in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), for any of the offenses enumerated in said paragraph (c); except that, at the request of the applicant or the person charged, the commission shall defer decision upon such application during the pendency of such charge.

12-60-508. Hearings - review. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all proceedings before the commission with respect to the denial, suspension, or revocation of licenses or the imposition of fines shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) Such proceedings shall be held in the county where the commission has its office or in such other place as the commission may designate. The commission shall notify the applicant or licensee by mailing by first-class mail a copy of the written notice required to the last address furnished by the applicant or licensee to the commission.

(3) (a) The commission may delegate its authority to conduct hearings and impose discipline with respect to the denial or suspension of licenses or the imposition of a fine to the division, through its board of stewards or judges, or a hearing officer. Proceedings before the division, through its board of stewards or judges, or a hearing officer shall not be governed by the procedural or other requirements of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S., but rather shall be conducted in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

(b) The commission may direct that any hearing be conducted before an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S.

(4) The commission, the division, through its board of stewards or judges, and any hearing officer shall have the authority to administer oaths and affirmations, sign and issue subpoenas and order the production of documents and other evidence, and regulate the course of the hearing, pursuant to rules adopted by the commission.

(5) Any party aggrieved by a final order or ruling issued by the division, through its board of stewards or judges, or a hearing officer shall have a right to appeal such order or ruling to the commission, pursuant to procedural rules which shall be adopted by the commission. The aggrieved party may petition the commission for a stay of execution pending appeal to the commission.

12-60-509. Liability insurance - bond for race meets. (1) For the protection of the public and the exhibitors, contestants, and visitors, every person licensed to conduct a race meet under the provisions of this article shall carry public liability insurance in the form of a contract and with a company to be approved by the commission.

(2) An organization representing the majority of the owners of racing animals participating in any race meet may require the licensee conducting such race meet to provide and deliver to the commission evidence of a bond signed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, in an amount sufficient to cover all awards and purses due to the contestants at such race meet and conditioned that said licensee will pay and discharge all obligations to said contestants in connection with the race meet.

(2.5) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, every person licensed to conduct a race meet other than a horse race meet who has been licensed in this state for five consecutive years and who, during this period, has not had any actions on the bond or other evidence demonstrating a lack of financial responsibility required in subsection (2) of this section may be exempted from the requirement to file such bond or other evidence of financial responsibility.

(b) If any actions are subsequently brought against the licensee, the commission may reinstate the requirement of a bond or any other evidence of financial responsibility meeting the requirements of section 11-35-101, C.R.S.

12-60-510. Racing of standardbred harness horses. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article to the contrary, the commission shall grant licenses to conduct the racing of standardbred harness horses pursuant to the provisions of this article and in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) The licenses granted may be issued to conduct not more than three race meets in any one year at a racetrack specifically designed and used for the racing of no animals other than standardbred harness horses, but such race meets may not be held on the same dates as race meets authorized by the commission for animals other than standardbred harness horses that are held within forty miles of the track licensed for the racing of standardbred harness horses. In addition, licenses may be issued by the commission to conduct three race meets for the racing of standardbred harness horses in any one year at any racetrack at which horse race meets are held and which is not within forty miles of any other racetrack licensed for the racing of horses or the racing of standardbred harness horses.

(3) No tracks licensed for the racing of standardbred harness horses may be located within forty miles of one another, but such tracks may be located within forty miles of any track licensed for the racing of animals other than standardbred harness horses subject to the limitations in subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) of this section shall not restrict the right of a county to conduct extended standardbred harness horse race meets, upon being licensed by the state racing commission, at a county fairground if such race meets are not within fifteen miles of any race track licensed in Colorado for the racing of horses.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-60-114 as it existed prior to 1993.

12-60-511. Eligibility to operate race meets - renewal or revocation. (1) (a) No person shall be eligible to operate a race meet under a license issued under the provisions of this article unless such person is the owner or controls the possession of a properly constructed racetrack suitable for the conduct of racing and improved with safe and suitable grandstands, equipped with reasonably sanitary accommodations and also such accommodations, including track conditions, as the commission may require for the care and control of the animals racing at such meet, and also such other improvements as, in the opinion of the commission, may be required for the protection of the public, human and animal participants, and others likely to be present at such race meet. In consideration of the location of the track and other structures and erections and the probable capacity requirements to accommodate the crowd and the number of people that will reasonably be expected to occupy such grandstands and attend such race meets, a major racing operation license shall not be issued for the racing of horses at a class A track which is within forty miles of any other major racing operation licensed under this article for the racing of horses at a class A track; nor shall a major racing operation license be issued for the racing of horses at a class B track which is within forty miles of any other major racing operation licensed under this article for the racing of horses at a class B track. In no event shall any racing operation licensed under this article for the racing of horses at a horse track located within forty miles of the Colorado state fair and industrial exposition conduct race meets of horses on the same dates as the race meets of horses at the state fair.

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), "major racing operation" means nonprofit corporations and commercial tracks conducting race meets which exceed fifteen racing days.

(2) A license shall not be issued for the racing of greyhounds within forty miles of any other racing operation licensed under this article for the racing of greyhounds. This provision shall not apply to races conducted by any state, county, or other fair association holding not more than one race meet annually for a period not exceeding six days.

(3) Applications for renewal of such license shall be filed with the commission on or before a day fixed by the commission and shall set forth the name of the applicant and if a corporation the names and addresses of its officers and directors with a list attached thereto of the names and addresses of all the holders of its stock, as of a date not more than thirty days prior to the filing of such application, and the amount of voting stock held by each stockholder. If any of its voting stock is known by any applicant to be registered in the name of a person not the actual owner thereof, such list shall also show the name and address of such actual owner.

(4) Said application shall set forth the proposed dates of race meets, the dates within such race meets on which the applicant intends to conduct racing at such meetings and the number of races intended to be run on such dates, and the address of the establishment where such meets are to be held and shall have attached thereto the most recent financial statement of the applicant as of a date not more than twelve months prior to the date of the application for renewal of such license. Such application shall also contain such other information as the rules of the commission may provide to ensure that such licensee is conducting race meets in accordance with the provisions of this article and the rules of the commission. To determine whether an application for renewal of such license to conduct race meets shall be granted, the commission shall have the right to examine the financial and other records of the licensee, to compel the production of records and documents, to conduct hearings, to summon witnesses, and to administer oaths.

(5) (a) As soon as is practicable after the date fixed for the filing of applications for renewal, the commission shall meet and determine the granting or denial thereof. If the commission finds that the applicant has fully complied with the requirements and conditions for renewal, the application for renewal shall be granted, and the commission shall allot and assign to the respective applicants, in the manner stated in this subsection (5), dates for race meets and dates for racing within the race meet and the number of races on such dates.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this article, in its sound discretion, the commission may allot different dates for race meets, different dates for racing within a race meet, and a different number of races on such dates from those requested in the application for renewal. In making such allotment of dates, the commission shall do so in its sound discretion and shall endeavor to allot to each applicant the dates requested in the respective applications so filed by the applicants, after giving due consideration to all factors involved, including the interests of the respective applicants and the public and the best interests of racing, and avoiding, whenever possible, conflicts in live greyhound race dates between greyhound tracks or a conflict in live horse race dates between class A tracks or between class B tracks located within fifty miles of each other; except that the commission may allot dates to a state, county, or other fair commission or association holding not more than one race meet annually for a period not exceeding six days, notwithstanding that such dates conflict with the dates allotted to another applicant conducting live racing of the same type animals. When the granting of requested initial or renewal race dates would result in a conflict, the commission, in its discretion, may grant race dates so as to avoid such conflict to the extent possible, giving preference to requests for race dates from license applicants whose licensed race meet in the previous year included such race dates.

(6) In the event the commission finds that any applicant for a renewal of a license to conduct race meets under this article has violated any of the provisions of this article or any rule of the commission, or has willfully or fraudulently made any false statement in an original application for a license to hold race meets or for the renewal of such license, or has failed to pay the commission any sums required by this article, or lacks the ability, experience, or finances to conduct race meets, the commission may refuse to grant a renewal of such license.

(7) Any unexpired license held by any person who has been convicted by the commission of violating any of the provisions of this article or any rule of the commission, or who has willfully or fraudulently made any false statement in any application for a license to hold a race meet or for the renewal of such license, or who fails to pay to the commission any and all sums required under the provisions of this article is subject to cancellation or revocation by the commission. Such cancellation shall be made only after a summary hearing before the commission, of which three days' notice in writing shall be given the licensee specifying the grounds for the proposed cancellation and at which hearing the licensee shall be given an opportunity to be heard in person and by counsel in opposition to the proposed cancellation. No license shall be granted or continued to any licensee for any race meet licensed under this article who has made default in any payment of any premium or prizes on any race meets held under this article or who has failed to meet any monetary obligations in connection with any race meet held in this state.

Annotator's note. Since § 12-60-511 is similar to § 12-60-108 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The primary purpose of the extensive changes made in this article was to confer upon the racing commission a broad discretionary power in granting or denying applications for race meets. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Columbine Kennel Club, Inc., 141 Colo. 497, 348 P.2d 954 (1960).

It seems a wise intendment on the part of the general assembly to forestall or prevent the commission from exercising favoritism among applicants and making it impossible for the commission to issue licenses only to such applicants as might be in the favor of the commission, and reject others for no given reason. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

By the act, the commission is told what applications to reject, and there is no room within the provisions of the act that allows an arbitrary or capricious action of the commission. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

The general assembly by the employment of the word "shall" in connection with the issuance of a license, unquestionably intended that such was to be put beyond the pale of permissive action on the part of the commission in cases where the applicant has met every requirement of the act in connection with its application, and does not fall within the specific prohibitions. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

The prohibitions specifically contained in the act are that no license shall be issued for the racing of horses or other animals within 40 miles of any other racing operation licensed under this law, and further, that the number and kind of race meets to be held in any one county in any one year shall be determined by the commission, provided that not more than two race meets for animals other than horses shall be licensed in any county in any one year, nor held for a duration longer than 30 days, and no race meets shall be conducted on any Sunday. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

The act provides not only the eligibility for applicants for a license, but distinctly sets out what may be considered ineligible applicants, and therefore, the use of the word "shall" is a clear indication that, in the consideration of applications that meet every requirement when a third person as well as the state of Colorado has an interest in the exercise of the duty of the commission, the exercise of the power is then imperative. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

So far as the commission is concerned the act provides that it is legal to have as many tracks as the 40-mile limit will not prevent, so long as there is not more than one in each county. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

If the commission can say that an application for license should be rejected because it is 45 miles from another track when it is provided in the act, not within 40 miles of another track, then there are no bounds to the discretion of the commission, and it could refuse a license on the basis of 50, 75, or 100 miles, or any other distance it might see fit to state. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Where the commission considered the "best interests" of racing, and of the state, would not be served by granting the license, there being sufficient evidence to support this finding, it should have been upheld by the trial court. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Columbine Kennel Club, Inc., 141 Colo. 497, 348 P.2d 954 (1960).

In this section it is provided that after the first year of the operation of a track, and there have been no violations committed by the operator, the commission shall renew the particular license upon application and grant the same time it had in the preceding year. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Racing Comm'n, 130 Colo. 505, 277 P.2d 226 (1954).

Licensees possess no unqualified right to allotment of equal number of racing days. Cloverleaf Kennel Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 620 P.2d 1051 (Colo. 1980).

Applied in Greyhound Racing Ass'n v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 41 Colo. App. 319, 589 P.2d 70 (1978).

12-60-512. Division of racing events - access to records. The division, for purposes of this article, shall have full authority to procure, at the expense of the division, any records furnished to or maintained by any law enforcement agency in the United States, including state and local law enforcement agencies in Colorado and other states for the purposes of carrying out its responsibilities. Upon request from the Colorado bureau of investigation, the division shall provide copies of any and all information obtained pursuant to this part 5.

12-60-602. Simulcast facilities and simulcast races - unlawful act - repeal. (1) It is unlawful for any person to accept or place wagers on any simulcast race within the state of Colorado except under the provisions of this article. It is lawful to conduct pari-mutuel wagering on simulcast races of horses or greyhounds which are received by an in-state simulcast facility authorized and operated pursuant to this article.

(2) Cross simulcasting between an in-state host track or an out-of-state host track and an in-state simulcast facility, or between an in-state host track and an out-of-state simulcast facility, is permissible.

(3) A race meet of greyhounds which is conducted at an in-state host track may be received as a simulcast race by any simulcast facility; except that, notwithstanding any consent granted pursuant to the provisions of section 12-60-102 (14), an in-state simulcast facility which is located within fifty miles of a greyhound track may not receive simulcast races of greyhounds on any day on which such greyhound track is running live greyhound races, unless the licensee of such greyhound track consents thereto.

(4) (a) (I) A race meet of horses that is conducted at an in-state host track may be received as a simulcast race by any simulcast facility; except that, notwithstanding any consent granted pursuant to section 12-60-102 (14), an in-state simulcast facility that is located within fifty miles of a horse track that has held, within the previous twelve months, or is licensed and scheduled to hold within the next twelve months, a horse race meet of no less than thirty race days, may not receive simulcast races of horses on any day on which such horse track is running live horse races unless the licensee of such horse track consents thereto.

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1586, § 6, effective May 21, 2009.)

(5) (a) (I) (A) Except as otherwise provided in sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (I), an in-state simulcast facility that is located on the premises of a greyhound track that is currently conducting a live race meet may receive up to seven days of simulcast greyhound races from out-of-state host tracks during any week in which a total of five days of live greyhound racing of at least ten races each day are conducted in Colorado by one or more licensees. Such total includes, and is not in addition to, the days on which live racing is held. Any live race day that is canceled by the division due to weather or other unusual conditions shall be credited toward the five-day minimum if at least ten races were scheduled on that day. Thanksgiving day and Christmas day shall be credited toward the five-day minimum.

(B) The commission may grant an exception to any of the requirements set forth in sub-paragraph (A) of this subparagraph (I) upon the request of a licensee authorized to conduct live greyhound racing and with the consent of the organization representing the majority of the kennel operators at that licensed greyhound track if such organization exists at the time, or the group representing the majority of greyhound operators as of January 1, 2008.

(II) On any day on which an in-state simulcast facility receives greyhound simulcast races from an out-of-state host track and on which one or more in-state host tracks are running live greyhound races, such in-state simulcast facility shall receive and conduct pari-mutuel wagering on the broadcast signal of simulcast greyhound races conducted at the in-state host tracks, if such broadcast signal is made available to it on usual and customary terms and conditions, including price.

(III) An in-state simulcast facility that is not located on the premises of a greyhound track conducting a live race meet may receive a broadcast signal of simulcast greyhound races and conduct pari-mutuel wagering on the broadcast signal of such greyhound races conducted at an out-of-state host track only through an in-state simulcast facility that is located on the premises of a greyhound track conducting a live race meet. If there is no greyhound track conducting a live race meet, an in-state simulcast facility may, to and including June 30, 2014, and subject to the commission's approval, receive the broadcast signal of greyhounds from an out-of-state host track and conduct pari-mutuel wagering on such signal through an in-state simulcast facility located on the premises of a class B track that has conducted, or is scheduled to conduct during the next twelve months, a live race meet of horses of at least the duration required for a class B track.

(IV) Five percent of the gross receipts from pari-mutuel wagers placed at an in-state simulcast facility on simulcast greyhound races shall be deposited into the purse fund at the track hosting the current live greyhound meet through which the in-state simulcast facility receives the broadcast signal and distributed consistently with section 12-60-702 (1) (d.5), (1) (e) (I), and (1) (e) (II); except that, if a signal is received through a class B track, gross receipts shall be distributed in accordance with section 12-60-701 (2).

(b) (I) (A) An in-state simulcast facility that is located on the premises of a class B track may receive simulcast horse races from an out-of-state host track as authorized by the commission. Such total includes, and is not in addition to, the days on which live racing is held.

(B) A facility which is reopening as a track pursuant to section 12-60-503 (2) (b) may receive three days of simulcast horse races from an out-of-state host track for each day of live horse racing for which the commission has granted it a race date for the subsequent year. A day of simulcast horse races, for the purposes of this paragraph (b), shall not include a day on which live horse races are conducted at the horse track at which the simulcast facility is located or a day on which the simulcast facility receives only simulcast races of horses from a race meet conducted at an in-state host track.

(I.5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1586, § 6, effective May 21, 2009.)

(II) (A) An in-state simulcast facility that is not located on the premises of a horse track that runs a horse race meet of at least thirty live race days may receive a broadcast signal of a simulcast horse race conducted at an out-of-state host track only through an in-state simulcast facility that is located on the premises of a horse track that runs a horse race meet of at least thirty live race days.

(B) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1586, § 6, effective May 21, 2009.)

(III) On any day on which an in-state simulcast facility receives simulcast horse races, either directly from an out-of-state host track or through another in-state simulcast facility or facility which is reopening as a track, and on which one or more in-state host tracks are running live horse races, such in-state simulcast facility shall receive and conduct pari-mutuel wagering on the broadcast signal of simulcast horse races from at least one such in-state host track, if such broadcast signal is made available to it on usual and customary terms and conditions, including price, as determined by the commission.

(IV) All simulcasting of horse races shall comply with the federal "Interstate Horse-racing Act of 1978", 15 U.S.C. secs. 3001-3007, as amended.

(V) (A) For purposes of administering this paragraph (b), each operating year of an in-state simulcast facility located on the premises of a class B track shall be deemed to begin on April 21 and end on the following April 20. Simulcast days allotted to such a facility pursuant to this paragraph (b) may be used at any time during the operating year, but unused days remaining as of the end of one operating year may not be carried forward to the next operating year.

(B) Repealed.

(C) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1586, § 6, effective May 21, 2009.)

(6) An in-state simulcast facility having a written simulcast racing agreement with an in-state or out-of-state host track pursuant to section 12-60-503 (2) may receive simulcast races, as specified in subsections (2) to (5) of this section, on any day, including a day not within the race meet of such in-state simulcast facility which is also a track and a day on which no live race is conducted within the race meet of such in-state simulcast facility which is also a track.

(7) Repealed.

12-60-603. Duration of meets. (1) (a) It is unlawful to conduct any race meet at which wagering is permitted except under the provisions of this article. It is lawful to conduct pari-mutuel wagering on live horse or greyhound races that are part of a race meet licensed and conducted pursuant to this article. The duration of any horse race meet at a class B track shall be as specified in section 12-60-102 (4); except that the commission may prescribe a lesser number of race days in the event of unforeseen circumstances or acts of God.

(b) A race day is any period of twenty-four hours beginning at 12 midnight Colorado time and included in the period of a race meet and upon which day live racing is held. Dark days within a race meet shall not be counted as race days. Days on which an in-state simulcast facility which is a track receives simulcast races but does not conduct live races shall not be counted as race days. Subject to the provisions of this article, the number and kind of race meets to be held at any one track shall be determined by the commission; however, race meet days for both horses and greyhounds shall be permitted on Sundays; except that no live Sunday greyhound racing shall be permitted while live horse racing is in progress at any horse track within forty miles.

(c) In order to promote live racing of both horses and greyhounds throughout the state of Colorado, the commission, when determining the number and kind of race meets held and the dates and times of races held at such race meets, may take into consideration the interests of the racing industry as a whole throughout the state but shall give particular consideration to the racing dates and times requested by or assigned to the following:

(I) In the case of greyhound tracks, other greyhound tracks;

(II) In the case of class A tracks, other class A tracks; and

(III) In the case of class B tracks, other class B tracks.

(d) The commission shall determine, consistent with all other provisions of this article, the total number of races conducted and performances held during any race meet.

(2) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1589, § 7, effective May 21, 2009.)

(b) The commission shall license greyhound tracks for race meets of a duration of up to one hundred eighty consecutive days unless the license applicant, in its application, requests nonconsecutive days or a shorter period.

(c) Each greyhound track shall be licensed by the commission to conduct only one race meet in any twelve-month period. Upon approval by the commission, a licensed greyhound track shall be permitted to contract with another licensed greyhound track to conduct part or all of the race meet days granted it at such other greyhound track; except that, unless the transferring greyhound track operates a race meet, without any transfer of race days, at its home greyhound track during the twelve-month period immediately following the last race meet day so transferred, such transferred race dates in such following twelve-month period shall be assigned by the commission to the transferee greyhound track, in addition to the race meet dates of the transferee greyhound track that are otherwise authorized pursuant to this subsection (2), upon application by the transferee greyhound track for such race dates if the transferee greyhound track otherwise meets all requirements for conducting a greyhound race meet.

(d) The commission shall schedule race meets of greyhounds so that there is a race meet, but not more than one race meet, being conducted at all times; except that race meets of greyhounds may be scheduled to run concurrently if the greyhound tracks running the concurrent meets are not closer to each other than one hundred miles.

TAXES AND FEES

12-60-701. License fees and Colorado-bred horse race requirement. (1) Subject to section 12-60-702 (1), for the privilege of conducting racing under a license issued under and of operating an in-state simulcast facility pursuant to this article, a licensee for the racing of greyhounds and an operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of greyhounds shall pay to the department of revenue through the division four and one-half percent of the gross receipts derived from pari-mutuel wagering during any such race meet or placed on such simulcast races that are received through a live greyhound track.

(2) (a) (I) For the privilege of conducting racing under a license issued under and of operating an in-state simulcast facility pursuant to this article, a licensee for the racing of horses and an operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of horses or greyhounds pursuant to section 12-60-602 (5) (a) (III) shall pay to the department of revenue through the division three-fourths of one percent of the gross receipts of the pari-mutuel wagering at any such race meet or placed on such simulcast races; except that a licensee for the racing of horses at a class B track race meet shall pay to the department of revenue through the division three-fourths of one percent of the gross receipts of the pari-mutuel wagering at any such race meet.

(II) (A) Except as otherwise provided in sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (II), in addition to the amount paid to the department of revenue through the division in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), a licensee for the racing of horses and an operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of horses or greyhounds pursuant to section 12-60-602 (5) (a) (III) shall pay to Colorado state university for allocation to its school of veterinary medicine one-fourth of one percent of the gross receipts of all pari-mutuel wagering, except on win, place, or show, at such horse race meet or placed on such simulcast races, to be used for racing-related equine research. To receive research funding under this subparagraph (II), an institution or individual must describe and report to the commission on all projects upon completion.

(B) In the case of pari-mutuel wagers on greyhound simulcast signals received by a class B track, in lieu of the amounts otherwise payable to Colorado state university pursuant to sub-subparagraph (A) of this subparagraph (II), the licensee shall instead pay an equivalent amount into a trust account for distribution in accordance with rules of the commission under section 12-60-702 (1) (e) (II).

(b) In addition to any moneys to be paid pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), a licensee for the racing of horses and an operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of horses or greyhounds pursuant to section 12-60-602 (5) (a) (III) shall pay to a trust account one-half of one percent of the gross receipts of pari-mutuel wagering on win, place, and show and one and one-half percent of the gross receipts from all other pari-mutuel wagering at any such race meet or placed on such simulcast races for the horse breeders' and owners' awards and supplemental purse fund established in section 12-60-704.

(c) (I) The operator of a simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of horses or greyhounds pursuant to section 12-60-602 (5) (a) (III) shall retain five percent of the gross receipts of pari-mutuel wagering placed on such simulcast races at that facility, to be used to cover the particular expenses incurred in operating a simulcast facility.

(II) (A) Of the five percent of gross receipts retained pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c), the operator of a simulcast facility that is not located at a class B track and that receives simulcast races of horses shall remit to the operator of the class B track from which such simulcast races were received one-fifth, representing one percent of the gross receipts of pari-mutuel wagering placed on such simulcast races at the simulcast facility.

(B) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1590, § 8, effective May 21, 2009.)

(3) For the purpose of encouraging the breeding, within the state, of race horses registered within their breeds, at least one race of each day's live horse race meet shall consist exclusively of Colorado-bred horses, if Colorado-bred horses are available. This requirement shall not apply to an in-state simulcast facility which is a horse track and which receives simulcast races of horses on any given race meet day but does not conduct a live horse race on such day.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, p. 1590, § 8, effective May 21, 2009.)

ANNOTATION

Provision of this section requiring the operator of a simulcast facility to remit a percentage of gross receipts to the operator of the track from which the races were received does not violate federal and state constitutional equal protection guarantees. Rocky Mountain Greyhound Park, Inc. v. Wembley, 992 P.2d 711 (Colo. App. 1999).

The act is in the nature of an excise tax and if there is an uncertainty or ambiguity contained therein, it must be construed in favor of the taxpayer. Centennial Turf Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 129 Colo. 529, 271 P.2d 1046 (1954) (decided under § 12-6-109 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article).

12-60-702. Unlawful to wager - exception - excess - taxes - special provisions for simulcast races. (1) (a) It is unlawful to conduct pool selling or bookmaking, or to circulate handbooks, or to bet or wager on any race meet licensed under the provisions of this article other than by the pari-mutuel method.

(b) (I) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, it is unlawful for a racing or simulcast facility licensee for the racing of greyhounds or horses to take more than the percentage of the gross receipts authorized by the commission pursuant to subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (b) of any pari-mutuel wagering on such races or simulcast races.

(II) The commission may annually determine the authorized take-out under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) by rule, but such take-out shall not exceed thirty percent of the gross receipts of any pari-mutuel wagering on races originating within Colorado.

(c) Each licensee for the racing of horses shall pay as purses for the races in any horse race meet conducted at its in-state host track fifty percent of the breakage attributable thereto, and fifty percent of the track's commission. For purposes of this paragraph (c), the track's commission means the maximum allowable percentage which may be taken, pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), by a licensee for the racing of horses from the gross receipts from all pari-mutuel wagering placed on such races at the in-state host track, after deduction of the amounts specified in sections 12-60-701 (2) (a) and (2) (b) and 12-60-704 (2).

(d) For each horse race meet it conducts, a licensee shall file with its license application with the commission an agreement between such licensee and the organization which represents the majority of the owners of horses participating at such race meet. Such agreement shall specify the purse structure which shall apply to the races conducted at such horse race meet, including minimum purses per race and any conditions relating to overpayments or underpayments.

(d.5) For each greyhound race meet it conducts, a licensee shall file with its license application with the commission an agreement between such licensee and the organization which represents the majority of kennel owners participating at such race meet. Such agreement shall specify the purse structure which shall apply to the races conducted at such greyhound race meet.

(e) (I) Each licensee for the racing of greyhounds shall pay on a weekly basis as purses for the races in any greyhound race meet conducted at its in-state host track five percent of the gross receipts from all pari-mutuel wagering on such races.

(II) Each operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of horses or greyhounds shall pay to purse funds for the racing of horses or greyhounds, respectively, depending on the animals represented by the licensee providing each simulcast race, and to such in-state or out-of-state tracks and simulcast facilities as described in the simulcast agreement filed with the commission such percentages of the gross pari-mutuel wagering on such simulcast races, after deduction of any signal fee required by an out-of-state host track or an in-state host track, paid during the current year or any previous year, and the applicable amounts specified in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of this section, in section 12-60-701 (1), (2) (a), (2) (b), and (2) (c), and in section 12-60-704 (2), as shall be specified in such simulcast agreement. In the case of pari-mutuel wagers on greyhound simulcast signals received by a class B track, the operator shall deposit the amounts payable pursuant to section 12-60-701 (2) (a) (II) (B) into a trust account for distribution, in accordance with rules of the commission, either as purses for live greyhound races in Colorado or, if there is no live greyhound racing in Colorado, to greyhound welfare and adoption organizations and other entities or organizations that promote or participate in greyhound racing or promote the welfare of racing greyhounds.

(III) (A) To defray operating expenses, the operator of a simulcast facility located at a class B track may retain up to twenty percent of the net purses earned and payable to the horse purse fund as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (e).

(B) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-174), ch. 296, § 9, effective May 21, 2009.)

(f) Horse purse funds and greyhound purse funds, including funds established in section 12-60-704, payable by a licensee or an operator pursuant to this section shall be retained by such licensee or operator in a trust account in a commercial bank located in Colorado until such date as the purse funds are paid to the horse or greyhound owners or to the host track for payment to the horse or greyhound owners; except that:

(I) The moneys deposited in any such trust account shall be invested in a fund that invests in obligations of the United States government with maturities of less than one year or that is account insured in full by an agency of the federal government; and

(II) Subject to prior approval by the commission, the operator of a horse track may withdraw moneys from such trust account to make up for shortfalls in the amounts of revenue derived from other sources which were reasonably anticipated to cover payments made on purses during a licensed race meet held at such track in the current year or a prior year.

(g) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section:

(I) It is unlawful for any licensee to compute breaks in the pari-mutuel system in excess of ten cents; and

(II) If, during any race meet conducted under this article, there are underpayments of the amount actually due to the wagerers, the amount of the excess of such underpayments over and above overpayments to wagerers, at the expiration of thirty days from the end of said meet, shall revert and belong to the state of Colorado and be paid to the department of revenue through the division and become a part of its funds, and it shall not be retained by the licensee under whose license such race meet was held.

(h) (I) Fifty percent of the breakage at any horse race meet shall be retained by the licensee under whose license such horse race meet was held and the remainder shall be paid as purses for the races conducted at such race meet.

(II) The breakage at any greyhound race meet shall be retained by the licensee under whose license such greyhound race meet was held.

(III) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (IV) of this paragraph (h) or in subsection (4) of this section, the breakage on any simulcast race of horses or greyhounds received by an in-state simulcast facility shall be retained by the operator of such in-state simulcast facility.

(IV) In the case of simulcast races of horses received from an in-state host track, fifty percent of the breakage shall be paid to the licensee of such in-state host track within sixty days after the end of the race meet from which such simulcast race was broadcast and the remainder shall be paid as purses for the races conducted at such in-state host track.

(i) The proceeds derived from all unclaimed pari-mutuel tickets for each greyhound race meet shall be retained by the licensee under whose license such greyhound race meet was held and, after a period of one year following the end of such race meet, shall revert and belong to such licensee and shall be used by the licensee for capital improvements to the track at which the race meet was held.

(j) The proceeds derived from all unclaimed pari-mutuel tickets for each simulcast race of greyhounds received by an in-state simulcast facility shall be retained by the operator of such simulcast facility and, after a period of one year following such simulcast race, shall revert and belong to such operator; except that, in the case of simulcast races received from an in-state host track, such proceeds shall be paid to the licensee of such in-state host track within sixty days after the end of the race meet from which the simulcast race was broadcast and, after a period of one year following the end of such race meet, shall revert and belong to such licensee and shall be used by the licensee for capital improvements to the track at which the race meet was held.

(2) (a) In the event the federal government or any federal governmental agency imposes a levy on said licensee by a tax on the money so wagered and upon and against its receipts, the licensee may collect, in addition to the percentage and breaks allowed in this section, the amount of the tax so levied.

(b) The tax and breaks and license fee provided for in this article shall be in lieu of all other license fees and privilege taxes or charges by the state of Colorado or any county, city, town, or other municipality or taxing body for the privilege of conducting any race meet provided for in this article and licensed by the authority of this article; except that any county, city, town, or other municipality or taxing body which imposed any fee, tax, or charge prior to July 1, 1982, on the money so wagered, or upon and against the licensee's receipts, or for the privilege of conducting any race meet provided for and licensed by authority of this article shall have the authority to amend, repeal and reenact, or repeal any such fee, tax, or charge and impose a new or different fee or tax on the money so wagered, or upon and against the licensee's receipts, or for the privilege of conducting any race meet provided for and licensed by authority of this article, and no provision of this article shall affect the authority of such county, city, town, or other municipality or taxing body with respect to such fees or taxes unless such provision specifically refers to this paragraph (b). Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, it is lawful for the licensee to take such fee or tax from the gross receipts on pari-mutuel wagering; and in such cases the licensee shall pay the fee or tax directly to the county, city, town, or other municipality or taxing body.

(3) Unless expressly authorized by this article, no person may act for consideration as an agent or courier for another person for the purpose of placing wagers or cashing or redeeming winning pari-mutuel tickets. In addition to the remedies otherwise provided for violations of this article, the commission may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for an order enjoining a violation of this subsection (3).

(4) Pursuant to a valid simulcasting agreement, an operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast signals of horse or greyhound races held in another state may:

(a) Take the percentage of the gross receipts of any pari-mutuel wagering on such simulcast races as is allowable under the laws and rules of such other state; and

(b) Adopt such procedures for computation and distribution of breakage as are allowable under the laws and rules of such other state.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-60-702 is similar to § 12-60-111 as it existed prior to the 1993 amendment of this article, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Statutes authorizing pari-mutuel betting on racing events are valid over the contention that such betting constituted a lottery. Ginsberg v. Centennial Turf Club, Inc., 126 Colo. 471, 251 P.2d 926 (1952).

Pari-mutuel betting upon horse and dog races did not offend against the former constitutional provision which provided that the general assembly "shall have no power to authorize lotteries or gift enterprises for any purpose, and shall pass laws to prohibit the sale of lottery or gift enterprise tickets in this state". Ginsberg v. Centennial Turf Club, Inc., 126 Colo. 471, 251 P.2d 926 (1952).

In an action involving the disposition of funds collected in connection with horse racing, it was held on review that a licensee shall collect and retain the breakage. Centennial Turf Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 129 Colo. 529, 271 P.2d 1046 (1954).

The general assembly took time out to specify and direct to whom the underpayments should be made, that is, to the state, and it could have easily included the breakage if such was its intention. Centennial Turf Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 129 Colo. 529, 271 P.2d 1046 (1954).

The track is not quasi-trustee of the breakage, because there is no beneficiary stated in the section and certainly it is not trustee for the wagerers because the section clearly indicates that the breakage does not go to the wagerers, but it authorizes a withholding of the odd pennies therefrom, and it cannot be trustee for the state because the section does not say that the state is entitled to this breakage. Centennial Turf Club, Inc. v. Colo. Racing Comm'n, 129 Colo. 529, 271 P.2d 1046 (1954).

12-60-703. Pari-mutuel pools for race meets and simulcast races. (1) The pari-mutuel pool for a horse race meet and for simulcast races of such race meet shall be an intrastate common pool; except that, if such simulcast races are received by an out-of-state simulcast facility, the pari-mutuel pool may be an interstate common pool, and, in that case, it shall be operated by the in-state host track conducting such horse race meet.

(2) The pari-mutuel pool for a greyhound race meet and for simulcast races of such race meet shall be an intrastate common pool; except that, if such simulcast races are received by an out-of-state simulcast facility, the pari-mutuel pool may be an interstate common pool, and, in that case, it shall be operated by the in-state host track conducting such greyhound race meet.

(3) An in-state simulcast facility receiving simulcast races from an out-of-state host track may participate either in a pari-mutuel pool into which only the pari-mutuel wagers on such simulcast races that are placed at such in-state simulcast facility are taken or in an interstate common pool. The commission shall permit an operator of an in-state simulcast facility participating in an interstate common pool to adopt the takeout percentage of the out-of-state host track for such interstate common pool.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-60-111.5 as it existed prior to 1993.

12-60-703.5. Limitations on pari-mutuel wagering. (1) Wagers on pari-mutuel horse or greyhound races conducted in or out of this state may only be placed upon the premises of a racetrack or an in-state simulcast facility licensed by the commission or such out-of-state racetrack or simulcast facility as authorized by the commission. No wagering or betting on the results of any of the races licensed under this article shall be conducted outside a licensed or approved racetrack or simulcast facility.

(2) (a) No person or agent or employee of any person shall place, receive, offer, or agree to place or receive a wager on a pari-mutuel horse or greyhound race, conducted in or broadcast in this state, by messenger, telephone, telegraph, facsimile machine, or other electronic device; except that this subsection (2) shall not apply to associations or simulcast facilities licensed by the commission. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit gambling as provided in section 18-10-102 (2) (d), C.R.S.

(b) Any person who violates paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

12-60-704. Horse breeders' and owners' awards and supplemental purse fund - awards - advisory committee. (1) There is hereby created a fund, to be known as the horse breeders' and owners' awards and supplemental purse fund, referred to in this section as the "fund", which shall consist of moneys deposited thereto by the licensee for the racing of horses and by an operator of an in-state simulcast facility that receives simulcast races of horses for the purposes of this section, to be held in a trust account, which moneys shall be paid out to owners and breeders of Colorado-bred horses as provided in this section and by rules of the commission. Such rules shall provide for an administrative fee to be paid to the Colorado horse breeder associations for registering and maintaining breeding records for the administration of the fund. Such fees shall not exceed ten percent of the total moneys generated by the unclaimed pari-mutuel tickets and such moneys provided by section 12-60-701 (2) (b).

(2) Those moneys derived pursuant to section 12-60-701 (2) (b) shall be paid to a trust account for the fund on the fifteenth day of the calendar month immediately following the month in which such sum was received. In addition, the proceeds derived from all unclaimed pari-mutuel tickets for each horse race meet and for each simulcast race of horses received by an in-state simulcast facility shall be paid to a trust account for the fund after a period of one year following the end of such race meet.

(3) (a) and (b) Repealed.

(c) After moneys from the fund have been distributed to the respective breeder associations, further distribution shall be governed by the bylaws of such associations. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the distribution of moneys from the fund to owners and breeders of Colorado-bred horses that are otherwise eligible under the bylaws of such associations and that run in races outside Colorado.

(4) Notwithstanding section 24-30-204, C.R.S., the commission may establish by rule a period for distribution of moneys in the fund which is not consistent with the state's general fiscal-year period.

(5) Any moneys credited to the fund and not distributed within three years shall be paid, as authorized by the commission, either:

(a) As purses for races held at live race meets in Colorado; or

(b) As fees required for participation in an interstate compact to which Colorado is a party pursuant to section 12-60-202 (5).

12-60-705. Payments to state - disposition. (1) (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) and in sections 12-60-701, 12-60-702 (1), and 12-60-704, all sums referred to in sections 12-60-701, 12-60-702 (1), and 12-60-704, including all sums collected for license fees and fines pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be paid to the department of revenue through the division on the tenth business day of the month immediately following the month in which each performance took place, and the licensee shall make a return as required by rules of the commission.

(b) In temporary or emergency situations, a licensed operator for the racing of animals, with the approval of and under the direction of the director of the division or the director's designee, may provide for veterinary services as described in section 12-60-202 (3), at the licensed operator's expense, and the expense thus incurred may be deducted from the payment made to the department in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); except that the amount deducted shall not exceed the amount set by the commission for such veterinary services.

(2) All moneys collected by the department of revenue through the division shall, on the next business day following the receipt thereof, be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund of the state; except that license fees established and collected by the director pursuant to section 12-60-202 (3) (h) shall be credited to the racing cash fund created in section 12-60-205. The department of revenue shall have all the powers, rights, and duties provided in article 21 of title 39, C.R.S., to carry out such collection.

(3) The general assembly shall annually appropriate from the racing cash fund created in section 12-60-205 the direct and indirect costs of administering this article.

(4) Any person who fails to make a return or pay any tax required under this article shall be liable for penalties and interest as follows:

(a) A penalty of the greater of fifteen dollars for each failure to make a return and for each failure to pay a tax when due, or ten percent thereof plus one-half percent per month from the date when due, not exceeding eighteen percent, in the aggregate; and

(b) Interest on any tax due, from the date due, at the rate specified in section 39-21-110.5, C.R.S.

ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES

12-60-801. Criminal penalties. (1) Except as provided in section 12-60-601, any person who commits any of the acts enumerated in section 12-60-507 (1) other than those which also constitute crimes under the "Colorado Criminal Code", title 18, C.R.S., commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(2) Any person who violates any rule of the commission promulgated under the authority granted in this article, other than those which also constitute crimes under the "Colorado Criminal Code", title 18, C.R.S., commits a class 2 petty offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

(3) The penalties set forth in this section are cumulative and do not preclude the imposition of civil or administrative penalties, sanctions, actions against licenses or registrations, or any other penalties otherwise authorized.

ANNOTATION

Former provision granting authority to exclude any person who shall willfully violate any federal or Colorado law was unconstitutional. Colo. Racing Comm'n v. Smaldone, 177

Colo. 33, 492 P.2d 619 (1972) (decided under a former version of § 12-60-113 prior to the 1993 amendment of this article).

12-60-803. Exclusion from licensed premises. The commission or the division may exclude from any and all licensed premises any person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this or any other state or of the United States, subject to the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S. Any person so excluded by the commission or the division has a right to a hearing before the commission as to the basis of such exclusion, subject to the provisions of section 24-4-104, C.R.S. No such person shall enter or remain upon premises owned by any licensee conducting a race meet or operating a simulcast facility under the jurisdiction of the commission, and all such persons, upon discovery or recognition, shall be forthwith excluded or ejected from such premises. Any person so ejected or excluded from the premises of any licensee shall be denied admission to its premises and the premises of all other licensees of the commission until permission for entering has thereafter been obtained from the commission. The commission may also exclude any person from such licensed premises who willfully violates any of the provisions of this article or any rule issued by the commission.

PART 1

BROKERS AND SALESPERSONS

12-61-101. Definitions. As used in this part 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Employing real estate broker" or "employing broker" means a broker who is shown in real estate commission records as employing or engaging another broker.

(1.2) "HOA" or "homeowners' association" means an association or unit owners' association formed before, on, or after July 1, 1992, as part of a common interest community as defined in section 38-33.3-103, C.R.S.

(1.3) "Limited liability company" shall have the same meaning as it is given in section 7-80-102 (7), C.R.S.

(1.5) "Option dealer" means any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation who, directly or indirectly, takes, obtains, or uses an option to purchase, exchange, rent, or lease real property or any interest therein with the intent or for the purpose of buying, selling, exchanging, renting, or leasing said real property or interest therein to another or others whether or not said option is in that person's or its name and whether or not title to said property passes through the name of said person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation in connection with the purchase, sale, exchange, rental, or lease of said real property or interest therein.

(1.7) "Partnership" includes, but is not limited to, a registered limited liability partnership.

(2) (a) "Real estate broker" or "broker" means any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation who, in consideration of compensation by fee, commission, salary, or anything of value or with the intention of receiving or collecting such compensation, engages in or offers or attempts to engage in, either directly or indirectly, by a continuing course of conduct or by any single act or transaction, any of the following acts:

(I) Selling, exchanging, buying, renting, or leasing real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon;

(II) Offering to sell, exchange, buy, rent, or lease real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon;

(III) Selling or offering to sell or exchange an existing lease of real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon;

(IV) Negotiating the purchase, sale, or exchange of real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon;

(V) Listing, offering, attempting, or agreeing to list real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon for sale, exchange, rent, or lease;

(VI) Auctioning or offering, attempting, or agreeing to auction real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon;

(VII) Buying, selling, offering to buy or sell, or otherwise dealing in options on real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon or acting as an "option dealer";

(VIII) Performing any of the foregoing acts as an employee of, or in behalf of, the owner of real estate, or interest therein, or improvements affixed thereon at a salary or for a fee, commission, or other consideration;

(IX) Negotiating or attempting or offering to negotiate the listing, sale, purchase, exchange, or lease of a business or business opportunity or the goodwill thereof or any interest therein when such act or transaction involves, directly or indirectly, any change in the ownership or interest in real estate, or in a leasehold interest or estate, or in a business or business opportunity which owns an interest in real estate or in a leasehold unless such act is performed by any broker-dealer licensed under the provisions of article 51 of title 11, C.R.S., who is actually engaged generally in the business of offering, selling, purchasing, or trading in securities or any officer, partner, salesperson, employee, or other authorized representative or agent thereof;

(X) Soliciting a fee or valuable consideration from a prospective tenant for furnishing information concerning the availability of real property, including apartment housing which may be leased or rented as a private dwelling, abode, or place of residence. Any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation or any employee or authorized agent thereof engaged in the act of soliciting a fee or valuable consideration from any person other than a prospective tenant for furnishing information concerning the availability of real property, including apartment housing which may be leased or rented as a private dwelling, abode, or place of residence, is exempt from this definition of "real estate broker" or "broker". This exemption applies only in respect to the furnishing of information concerning the availability of real property.

(b) "Real estate broker" does not apply to any of the following:

(I) Any attorney-in-fact acting without compensation under a power of attorney, duly executed by an owner of real estate, authorizing the consummation of a real estate transaction;

(II) Any public official in the conduct of his or her official duties;

(III) Any receiver, trustee, administrator, conservator, executor, or guardian acting under proper authorization;

(IV) Any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, or association acting personally or a corporation acting through its officers or regular salaried employees, on behalf of that person or on its own behalf as principal in acquiring or in negotiating to acquire any interest in real estate;

(V) An attorney-at-law in connection with his or her representation of clients in the practice of law;

(VI) Any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation, or any employee or authorized agent thereof, engaged in the act of negotiating, acquiring, purchasing, assigning, exchanging, selling, leasing, or dealing in oil and gas or other mineral leases or interests therein or other severed mineral or royalty interests in real property, including easements, rights-of-way, permits, licenses, and any other interests in real property for or on behalf of a third party, for the purpose of, or facilities related to, intrastate and interstate pipelines for oil, gas, and other petroleum products, flow lines, gas gathering systems, and natural gas storage and distribution;

(VII) A natural person acting personally with respect to property owned or leased by that person or a natural person who is a general partner of a partnership, a manager of a limited liability company, or an owner of twenty percent or more of such partnership or limited liability company, and authorized to sell or lease property owned by such partnership or limited liability company, except as provided in subsection (1.5) of this section;

(VIII) A corporation with respect to property owned or leased by it, acting through its officers or regular salaried employees, when such acts are incidental and necessary in the ordinary course of the corporation's business activities of a non-real estate nature (but only if the corporation is not engaged in the business of land transactions), except as provided in subsection (1.5) of this section. For the purposes of this subparagraph (VIII), the term "officers or regular salaried employees" means persons regularly employed who derive not less than seventy-five percent of their compensation from the corporation in the form of salaries.

(IX) A principal officer of any corporation with respect to property owned by it when such property is located within the state of Colorado and when such principal officer is the owner of twenty percent or more of the outstanding stock of such corporation, except as provided in subsection (1.5) of this section, but this exemption does not include any corporation selling previously occupied one-family and two-family dwellings;

(X) A sole proprietor, corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, acting through its officers or partners, or through regular salaried employees, with respect to property owned or leased by such sole proprietor, corporation, partnership, or limited liability company on which has been or will be erected a commercial, industrial, or residential building which has not been previously occupied and where the consideration paid for such property includes the cost of such building, payable, less deposit or down payment, at the time of conveyance of such property and building;

(XI) (A) A corporation, partnership, or limited liability company acting through its officers, partners, managers, or regularly salaried employees receiving no additional compensation therefor, or its wholly owned subsidiary or officers, partners, managers, or regular salaried employees thereof receiving no additional compensation, with respect to property located in Colorado which is owned or leased by such corporation, partnership, or limited liability company and on which has been or will be erected a shopping center, office building, or industrial park when such shopping center, office building, or industrial park is sold, leased, or otherwise offered for sale or lease in the ordinary course of the business of such corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or wholly owned subsidiary.

(B) For the purposes of this subparagraph (XI), "shopping center" means land on which buildings are or will be constructed which are used for commercial and office purposes around or adjacent to which off-street parking is provided; "office building" means a building used primarily for office purposes; and "industrial park" means land on which buildings are or will be constructed for warehouse, research, manufacturing, processing, or fabrication purposes.

(XII) A regularly salaried employee of an owner of an apartment building or complex who acts as an on-site manager of such an apartment building or complex. This exemption applies only in respect to the customary duties of an on-site manager performed for his or her employer.

(XIII) A regularly salaried employee of an owner of condominium units who acts as an on-site manager of such units. For purposes of this subparagraph (XIII) only, the term "owner" includes a homeowners' association formed and acting pursuant to its recorded condominium declaration and bylaws. This exemption applies only in respect to the customary duties of an on-site manager performed for his or her employer.

(XIV) A real estate broker licensed in another state who receives a share of a commission or finder's fee on a cooperative transaction from a licensed Colorado real estate broker;

(XV) A sole proprietor, corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, acting through its officers, partners, or regularly salaried employees, with respect to property located in Colorado, where the purchaser of such property is in the business of developing land for residential, commercial, or industrial purposes;

(XVI) Any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation, or any employee or authorized agent thereof, engaged in the act of negotiating, purchasing, assigning, exchanging, selling, leasing, or acquiring rights-of-way, permits, licenses, and any other interests in real property for or on behalf of a third party for the purpose of, or facilities related to:

- (A) Telecommunication lines;
- (B) Wireless communication facilities;
- (C) CATV;
- (D) Electric generation, transmission, and distribution lines;
- (E) Water diversion, collection, distribution, treatment, and storage or use; and
- (F) Transportation, so long as such person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation, including any employee or authorized agent thereof, does not represent any displaced person or entity as an agent thereof in the purchase, sale, or exchange of real estate, or an interest therein, resulting from residential or commercial relocations required under any transportation project, regardless of the source of public funding.

Intent of this section is to align Colorado with the majority rule which requires a finder or business broker to have a real estate broker’s license if the sale of the business includes a transfer of any interest in real estate. Broughall v. Black Forest Dev. Co., 196 Colo. 503, 593 P.2d 314 (1978).

A real estate broker is defined by this section. Cary v. Borden Co., 153 Colo. 344, 386 P.2d 585 (1963).

To be broker, one must find person to whom to sell, or from whom to buy, as case may be. Stank v. Michaelson, 32 Colo. App. 75, 506 P.2d 757 (1973).

Definition of real estate broker to be liberally construed for purposes of determining who may be reimbursed from the real estate recovery fund because of the remedial purposes of that fund. Moeller v. Colo. Real Estate Comm’n, 759 P.2d 697 (Colo. 1988).

“Real estate broker” includes one who offers to negotiate the sale of a business by transfer of stock when the business owns a leasehold interest in real estate. Barton v. Sittner, 723 P.2d 153 (Colo. App. 1986).

A real estate finder falls under the definition of a “real estate broker”. The definition of a real estate broker does not recognize a distinction between a broker and a finder. The legislative intent is to extend the definition to include the full spectrum of activities related to the sale of real estate. Amedeus Corp. v. McAllister, 232 P.3d 107 (Colo. App. 2009).

One who is merely an employee of a real estate brokerage company, and is engaged in selling the company’s property, is not a real estate broker within the meaning of this section.

Black Forest Realty & Inv. Co. v. Clarke, 86 Colo. 454, 282 P. 878 (1929).

Term "real estate broker" includes all activities related to sale of real estate. The legislative history of this section reveals a legislative intent to enlarge and extend the definition of the term "real estate broker" to include the full spectrum of activities related to the sale of real estate. Brakhage v. Georgetown Associates, 33 Colo. App. 385, 523 P.2d 145 (1974).

No distinction between finder and broker. There is no distinction between a finder who merely introduces prospective buyers and sellers and a broker who participates in the details of the transaction. Brakhage v. Georgetown Associates, 33 Colo. App. 385, 523 P.2d 145 (1974).

The phrase "real estate . . . or improvements affixed thereon" in subsection (2) (a) refers to improvements situate on real estate at the time of the sale or attempted sale. Lemler v. Real Estate Comm'n, 38 Colo. App. 489, 558 P.2d 591 (1976).

Transfer of shares of corporation which owned interest in real estate was a transaction involving a change in "ownership or interest . . . in a business . . . which owns an interest in real estate". Brakhage v. Georgetown Associates, 33 Colo. App. 385, 523 P.2d 145 (1974).

Arranging for a loan which is secured by a deed of trust on real property does not involve a transaction which is an exchange of "an interest" in real estate, for the placing of a lien against property does not constitute a sale or exchange as those terms are used in this section. Bamford v. Cope, 31 Colo. App. 161, 499 P.2d 639 (1972).

Term "negotiate" includes act of bringing two parties together for the purpose of consummating a real estate transaction. Brakhage v. Georgetown Associates, 33 Colo. App. 385, 523 P.2d 145 (1974); Am. West Motel Brokers, Inc. v. Wu, 697 P.2d 34 (Colo. 1985).

Purpose of the exemptions in subsection (4) is to permit an owner of property to sell it, or to permit one to purchase property for his own account without having to procure a real estate license. Seibel v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 34 Colo. App. 415, 530 P.2d 1290 (1974).

Mineral tailings lying on real property as waste may not properly be characterized as a severed mineral interest for purposes of subsection (4)(f). Such tailings are deemed to become annexed to the real property over time and thus do not provide justification for use of the exception to licensure requirements for selling a severed mineral interest. Kerr v. Australia Pacific Res., Ltd., 841 P.2d 401 (Colo. App. 1992).

Purpose of subsection (4)(g) exemption. The purpose of the exemption set forth in subsection (4)(g) is to allow a private owner of real estate to sell it without having to obtain a real estate license. Richards v. Income Realty & Mtg., Inc., 654 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1982).

This section was not intended to be used by a salesman or broker who also happens to own real estate as a means of subverting the purpose of the real estate recovery fund. Richards v. Income Realty & Mtg., Inc., 654 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1982).

Subsection (4) has no application to the matter of discipline of licensed real estate brokers and salesmen. Seibel v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 34 Colo. App. 415, 530 P.2d 1290 (1974).

Agency status of real estate salesmen. A licensed real estate salesman may not be employed in that capacity by a buyer or seller of real property but may only be employed by, and receive compensation from, his broker. Thus, a real estate salesman who obtains a listing contract from a seller and acts as the procuring cause in a sale, or a salesman who represents a buyer in the sale of realty functions only as an agent for the broker and acts as the broker's representative in the transaction. Becker v. Arnold, 42 Colo. App. 178, 591 P.2d 596 (1979); Olsen v. Bondurant and Co., 759 P.2d 861 (Colo. App. 1988).

Conduct of real estate salespersons employed by real estate brokerage firm constituted active competition and resulted in a breach of their duty of loyalty to conduct business activities solely on behalf of firm. Koontz v. Rosener, 787 P.2d 192 (Colo. App. 1989).

Applied in Schwartz v. Weiner, 94 Colo. 251, 30 P.2d 1110 (1934); Benham v. Heyde, 122 Colo. 233, 221 P.2d 1078 (1950); White v. Brock, 41 Colo. App. 156, 584 P.2d 1224 (1978); Backus v. Apishapa Land & Cattle Co., 44 Colo. App. 59, 615 P.2d 42 (1980).

12-61-102. License required. It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation to engage in the business or capacity of real estate broker in this state without first having obtained a license from the real estate commission. No person shall be granted a license until such person establishes compliance with the provisions of this part 1 concerning education, experience, and testing; truthfulness and honesty and otherwise good moral character; and, in addition to any other requirements of this section, competency to transact the business of a real estate broker in such manner as to safeguard the interest of the public and only after satisfactory proof of such qualifications, together with the application for such license, is filed in the office of the commission. In determining such person's character, the real estate commission shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "One Year Review of Contracts", see 41 Den. L. Ctr. J. 89 (1964). For note, "Rural Poverty and the Law in Southern Colorado", see 47 Den. L.J. 82 (1970).

This section requires one engaged in the business of real estate broker to obtain a license. Cary v. Borden Co., 153 Colo. 344, 386 P.2d 585 (1963).

The purpose of the Colorado real estate broker and salesman license law envisions an employer-employee relationship because it clothes the broker not only with the right to control his salesmen but it also charges him with a duty to do so, and it is the right, duty, and power to control that are important factors in distinguishing a servant or employee from a contractor. Faith Realty & Dev. Co. v. Indus. Comm'n, 170 Colo. 215, 460 P.2d 228 (1969).

Although the real estate licensing statutes have undergone revision, its provisions are still reflective of an employer-employee relationship between a licensed real estate broker and his licensed salesmen. Olsen v. Boudier and Co., 759 P.2d 861 (Colo. App. 1988).

The licensing statute is penal in nature because of the criminal penalties involved in violation of its terms. Lemler v. Real Estate Comm'n, 38 Colo. App. 489, 558 P.2d 591 (1976).

The provisions of the real estate broker's licensing statute are not to be extended by implication. Bamford v. Cope, 31 Colo. App. 161, 499 P.2d 639 (1972).

The fact that many real estate brokers arrange loans secured by deeds of trust on real property does not mean that only licensed real estate brokers can perform such services. Bamford v. Cope, 31 Colo. App. 161, 499 P.2d 639 (1972).

The preparation of simple real estate instruments, done without separate charge therefor by licensed real estate brokers only in connection with their established business and in behalf of their customers and in connection with a bona fide real estate transaction which they are handling as brokers should not be enjoined as unauthorized practices of law. Conway-Bogue Realty Inv. Co. v. Denver Bar Ass'n, 135 Colo. 398, 312 P.2d 998 (1957).

Where services are performed by an unlicensed person in violation of the Colorado licensing statutes, the agreement for the services is illegal and unenforceable. Manufacturer's Nat'l Bank v. Hartmeister, 411 F.2d 173 (10th Cir. 1969).

Furthermore, in construing the act, courts have held that a sale of realty made by one who acts in the capacity of a broker without a license disentitles him to compensation for his services. Cary v. Borden Co., 153 Colo. 344, 386 P.2d 585 (1963).

One who functions as a real estate broker without obtaining the necessary license cannot recover compensation for his services. Brakhage v. Georgetown Associates, 33 Colo. App. 385, 523 P.2d 145 (1974).

Where a person who was not a licensed real estate broker nor engaged in the selling of real estate undertook and did sell certain farm lands owned by the defendant, he was not allowed to recover the agreed-upon compensation from the defendant. Benham v. Heyde, 122 Colo. 233, 221 P.2d 1078 (1950).

Nonlicensed broker precluded from seeking judicial assistance to enforce contract. Since plaintiff was not licensed as a broker or real estate salesman pursuant to this statute, an agreement between owner of mining claims, plaintiff, and defendant regarding the sale of such claims constituted an illegal contract, so that plaintiff was precluded from seeking judicial assistance to enforce the contract. Reed v. Bailey, 34 Colo. App. 20, 524 P.2d 80 (1974).

One who renders services in connection with the sale of a going business and who does not have a real estate broker's license where realty comprises a part of the assets of such going business may recover a commission. Cary v. Borden Co., 153 Colo. 344, 386 P.2d 585 (1963).

Although the appellee was not a licensed real estate broker, but he acted only as an agent for appellant and only with reference to property owned by appellant or by corporations wholly owned by him, the court held that such activities as an employee were not subject to the real estate broker licensing requirements, and the agreement lawfully entitled the appellee to the five percent commission on the property sales. Manufacturer's Nat'l Bank v. Hartmeister, 411 F.2d 173 (10th Cir. 1969).

Formerly under this section, one who engaged in the business, irrespective of actual transactions, must have had a license or incurred the prescribed penalty, but one not in the business needed no license for his protection, though engaging irregularly in isolated transactions. Schwartz v. Weiner, 94 Colo. 251, 30 P.2d 1110 (1934).

There is no requirement that real estate or a leasehold be transferred from one legal entity to another to trigger the licensure requirement. Lieff v. Medco Prof'l Servs., 973 P.2d 1276 (Colo. App. 1998).

Protection of the public is the primary purpose of the commission and to further this purpose agents must use the commission's standardized forms. Albright v. McDermond, 14 P.3d 318 (Colo. 2000).

12-61-103. Application for license - rules. (1) (a) All persons desiring to become real estate brokers shall apply to the real estate commission for a license under the provisions of this part 1. Application for a license as a real estate broker shall be made to the commission upon forms or in a manner prescribed by it.

(b) (I) Prior to submitting an application for a license pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), each applicant shall submit a set of fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. The applicant shall pay the fee established by the Colorado bureau of investigation for conducting the fingerprint-based criminal history record check to the bureau. Upon completion of the criminal history record check, the bureau shall forward the results to the real estate commission. The real estate commission may acquire a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (b), "applicant" means an individual, or any person designated to act as broker for any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation pursuant to subsection (7) of this section.

(2) Every real estate broker licensed under this part 1 shall maintain a place of business within this state, except as provided in section 12-61-107. In case a real estate broker maintains more than one place of business within the state, the broker shall be responsible for supervising all licensed activities originating in such offices.

(3) The commission is authorized by this section to require and procure any such proof as is necessary in reference to the truthfulness, honesty, and good moral character of any applicant for a real estate broker's license or, if the applicant is a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, of any partner, manager, director, officer, member, or stockholder if such person has, either directly or indirectly, a substantial interest in such applicant prior to the issuance of such license.

(4) (a) An applicant for a broker's license shall be at least eighteen years of age. The applicant must furnish proof satisfactory to the commission that the applicant has either received a degree from an accredited degree-granting college or university with a major course of study in real estate or has successfully completed courses of study, approved by the commission, at any accredited college or university or any private occupational school that has a certificate of approval from the private occupational school division in accordance with the provisions of article 59 of this title or that has been approved by the commission or licensed by an official state agency of any other state as follows:

(I) Forty-eight hours of classroom instruction or equivalent correspondent hours in real estate law and real estate practice; and

(II) Forty-eight hours of classroom instruction or equivalent correspondent hours in understanding and preparation of Colorado real estate contracts; and

(III) A total of seventy-two hours of instruction or equivalent correspondence hours from the following areas of study:

(A) Trust accounts and record-keeping;

(B) Real estate closings;

(C) Current legal issues; and

(D) Practical applications.

(b) An applicant for a broker's license who has been licensed as a real estate broker in another jurisdiction shall be required to complete only the course of study comprising the subject matter areas described in subparagraphs (II) and (III) (B) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4).

(c) An applicant for a broker's license who has been licensed as a real estate salesperson in another jurisdiction shall be required to complete only the course of study required in subparagraphs (II) and (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4).

(d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 414, § 2, effective January 1, 1997.)

(6) (a) The applicant for a broker's license shall submit to and pass an examination designated to determine the competency of the applicant and prepared by or under the supervision of the real estate commission or its designated contractor. The commission may contract with an independent testing service to develop, administer, or grade examinations or to administer licensee records. The contract may allow the testing service to recover the costs of the examination and the costs of administering exam and license records from the applicant. The commission may contract separately for these functions and allow recovered costs to be collected and retained by a single contractor for distribution to other contractors. The commission shall have the authority to set the minimum passing score that an applicant must receive on the examination, and said score shall reflect the minimum level of competency required to be a broker. Said examination shall be given at such times and places as the commission prescribes. The examination shall include, but not be limited to, ethics, reading, spelling, basic mathematics, principles of land economics, appraisal, financing, a knowledge of the statutes and law of this state relating to deeds, trust deeds, mortgages, listing contracts, contracts of sale, bills of sale, leases, agency, brokerage, trust accounts, closings, securities, the provisions of this part 1, and the rules of the commission. The examination for a broker's license shall also include the preparation of a real estate closing statement.

(b) An applicant for a broker's license who has held a real estate license in another jurisdiction that administers a real estate broker's examination and who has been licensed for two or more years prior to applying for a Colorado license may be issued a broker's license if the applicant establishes that he or she possesses credentials and qualifications that are substantively equivalent to the requirements in Colorado for licensure by examination.

(c) In addition to all other applicable requirements, the following provisions apply to brokers that did not hold a current and valid broker's license on December 31, 1996:

(I) No such broker shall engage in an independent brokerage practice without first having served actively as a real estate broker for at least two years. The commission shall adopt rules requiring an employing broker to ensure that a high level of supervision is exercised over such a broker during such two-year period.

(II) No such broker shall employ another broker without first having completed twenty-four clock hours of instruction, or the equivalent in correspondence hours, as approved by the commission, in brokerage administration.

(7) (a) Real estate brokers' licenses may be granted to individuals, partnerships, limited liability companies, or corporations. A partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, in its application for a license, shall designate a qualified, active broker to be responsible for management and supervision of the licensed actions of the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation and all licensees shown in the commission's records as being in the employ of such entity. The application of the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation and the application of the broker designated by it shall be filed with the real estate commission.

(b) No license shall be issued to any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation unless and until the broker so designated by the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation submits to and passes the examination required by this part 1 on behalf of the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation. Upon such broker's successfully passing the examination and upon compliance with all other requirements of law by the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, as well as by the designated broker, the commission shall issue a broker's license to the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, which shall bear the name of such designated broker, and thereupon the broker so designated shall conduct business as a real estate broker only through the said partnership, limited liability company, or corporation and not for the broker's own account.

(c) If the person so designated is refused a license by the real estate commission or ceases to be the designated broker of such partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, such entity may designate another person to make application for a license. If such person ceases to be the designated broker of such partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, the director may issue a temporary license to prevent hardship for a period not to exceed ninety days to the licensed person so designated. The director may extend a temporary license for one additional period not to exceed ninety days upon proper application and a showing of good cause; if the director refuses, no further extension of a temporary license shall be granted except by the commission. If any broker or employee of any such partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, other than the one designated as provided in this section, desires to act as a real estate broker, such broker or employee shall first obtain a license as a real estate broker as provided in this section and shall pay the regular fee therefor.

(8) The broker designated to act as broker for any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation is personally responsible for the handling of any and all earnest money deposits or escrow or trust funds received or disbursed by said partnership, limited liability company, or corporation. In the event of any breach of duty by the said partnership, limited liability company, or corporation as a fiduciary, any person aggrieved or damaged by the said breach of fiduciary duty shall have a claim for relief against such partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, as well as against the designated broker, and may pursue said claim against the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation and the designated broker personally. The said broker may be held responsible and liable for damages based upon such breach of fiduciary duty as may be recoverable against the said partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, and any judgment so obtained may be enforced jointly or severally against said broker personally and the said partnership, limited liability company, or corporation.

(9) No license for a broker registered as being in the employ of another broker shall be issued to a partnership, a limited liability company, or a corporation or under a fictitious name or trade name; except that a married woman may elect to use her birth name.

(10) No person shall be licensed as a real estate broker under more than one name, and no person shall conduct or promote a real estate brokerage business except under the name under which such person is licensed.

(11) Repealed.

(12) A licensed attorney shall take and pass the examination referred to in this section after having completed twelve hours of classroom instruction or equivalent correspondent hours in trust accounts, record-keeping, and real estate closings.

"Fiduciary relation" is defined as an expression including both technical fiduciary relations and those informal relations which exist whenever one man trusts and relies upon another, and it exists where there is special confidence reposed in one who in equity and good conscience is bound to act in good faith and with due regard to interests of one reposing the confidence. Circle T Corp. v. Deerfield, 166 Colo. 238, 444 P.2d 404 (1968).

The foundation for the fiduciary relationship which exists between an agent and his principal is predicated on the trust or confidence which the principal reposes in the agent. Circle T Corp. v. Deerfield, 166 Colo. 238, 444 P.2d 404 (1968).

In all his dealings affecting the subject matter of his agency, it is the duty of the agent to act with the utmost good faith and loyalty in behalf of his principal. Circle T Corp. v. Deerfield, 166 Colo. 238, 444 P.2d 404 (1968).

There is no requirement that a real estate salesman hold a real estate broker's license issued in his own name. White v. Minissale, 155 Colo. 257, 394 P.2d 126 (1964).

This statute clearly does not declare unlicensed branch offices to be unlawful. Holter v. Moore & Co., 681 P.2d 962 (Colo. App. 1983).

No private cause of action may be implied under this section for recovery of commissions paid to an unlicensed real estate office. Holter v. Moore & Co., 681 P.2d 962 (Colo. App. 1983); Miami Intern. Realty Co. v. Paynter, 841 F.2d 348 (10th Cir. 1988).

12-61-103.6. Errors and omissions insurance required - rules. (1) Every licensee under this part 1, except an inactive broker or an attorney licensee who maintains a policy of professional malpractice insurance that provides coverage for errors and omissions for their activities as a licensee under this part 1, shall maintain errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under parts 1 to 8 of this article. The commission shall make the errors and omissions insurance available to all licensees by contracting with an insurer for a group policy after a competitive bid process in accordance with article 103 of title 24, C.R.S. Any group policy obtained by the commission shall be available to all licensees with no right on the part of the insurer to cancel any licensee. Any licensee may obtain errors and omissions insurance independently if the coverage complies with the minimum requirements established by the commission.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(1) Every licensee under this part 1, except an inactive broker or an attorney licensee who maintains a policy of professional malpractice insurance that provides coverage for errors and omissions for their activities as a licensee under this part 1, shall maintain errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under parts 1 to 8 of this article. The division of real estate shall make the errors and omissions insurance available to all licensees by contracting with an insurer for a group policy after a competitive bid process in accordance with article 103 of title 24, C.R.S. A group policy obtained by the division of real estate must be available to all licensees with no right on the part of the insurer to cancel a licensee. A licensee may obtain errors and omissions insurance independently if the coverage complies with the minimum requirements established by the division of real estate.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2) (a) If the commission is unable to obtain errors and omissions insurance coverage to insure all licensees who choose to participate in the group program at a reasonable annual premium, as determined by the commission, a licensee shall independently obtain the errors and omissions insurance required by this section.

(b) The commission shall solicit and consider information and comments from interested persons when determining the reasonableness of annual premiums.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (2) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(2) (a) If the division of real estate is unable to obtain errors and omissions insurance coverage to insure all licensees who choose to participate in the group program at a reasonable annual premium, as determined by the division of real estate, a licensee shall independently obtain the errors and omissions insurance required by this section.

(b) The division of real estate shall solicit and consider information and comments from interested persons when determining the reasonableness of annual premiums.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (2) is effective July 1, 2013.

(3) The commission shall determine the terms and conditions of coverage required under this section, including the minimum limits of coverage, the permissible deductible, and permissible exemptions. Each licensee shall be notified of the required terms and conditions at least thirty days prior to the annual premium renewal date as determined by the commission. Each licensee shall file a certificate of coverage showing compliance with the required terms and conditions with the commission by the annual premium renewal date, as determined by the commission.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (3) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(3) The division of real estate shall determine the terms and conditions of coverage required under this section based on rules promulgated by the commission. The commission shall notify each licensee of the required terms and conditions at least thirty days before the annual premium renewal date as determined by the commission. 12-61-105. Commission - compensation - immunity - subject to termination.

(1) There shall be a commission of five members, appointed by the governor, which shall administer parts 1, 3, and 4 of this article. This commission shall be known as the real estate commission, also referred to in this part 1 as the "commission", and shall consist of three real estate brokers who have had not less than five years' experience in the real estate business in Colorado and two representatives of the public at large. Members of the commission shall hold office for a period of three years. Upon the death, resignation, removal, or otherwise of any member of the commission, the governor shall appoint a member to fill out the unexpired term. The governor may remove any member for misconduct, neglect of duty, or incompetence.

(2) Each member of the commission shall receive the same compensation and reimbursement of expenses as those provided for members of boards and commissions in the division of professions and occupations pursuant to section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S. Payment for all such per diem compensation and expenses shall be made out of annual appropriations from the division of real estate cash fund provided for in section 12-61-111.5.

(2.5) Members of the commission, consultants, expert witnesses, and complainants shall be immune from suit in any civil action based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts they performed in good faith.

(3) No real estate broker's license shall be denied, suspended, or revoked except as determined by a majority vote of the members of the commission.

(4) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the real estate commission created by this section.

12-61-108.5. Compilation and publication of passing rates per educational institution for real estate licensure examinations - rules. (1) The commission shall have the authority to obtain information from each educational institution authorized to offer courses in real estate for the purpose of compiling the number of applicants who pass the real estate licensure examination from each educational institution. The information shall include the name of each student who attended the institution and a statement of whether the student completed the necessary real estate courses required for licensure. The commission shall have access to such other information as necessary to accomplish the purpose of this section. For the purposes of this section, an "applicant" is a student who completed the required education requirements and who applied for and sat for the licensure examination.

(2) The commission shall compile the information obtained in subsection (1) of this section with applicant information retained by the commission. Specifically, the commission shall compile whether the student applied for the licensure examination and whether the applicant passed the licensure examination. The commission shall create statistical data setting forth:

- (a) The name of the educational institution;
 - (b) The number of students who completed the necessary real estate course required for licensure;
 - (c) Whether the student registered and sat for the licensure examination; and
 - (d) The number of those applicants who passed the licensure examination.
- (3) The commission shall publish this statistical data and make it available to the public quarterly.
- (4) The commission shall retain the statistical data for three years.
- (5) Specific examination scores for an applicant will be kept confidential by the commission unless the applicant authorizes release of such information.
- (6) The commission may promulgate rules for the administration of this section.

12-61-109. Change of license status - inactive - cancellation. (1) Immediate notice shall be given in a manner acceptable to the commission by each licensee of any change of business location or employment. A change of business address or employment without notification to the commission shall automatically inactivate the licensee's license.

(2) A broker who transfers to the address of another broker or a broker applicant who desires to be employed by another broker shall inform the commission if said broker is to be in the employ of the other broker. The employing broker shall have the control and custody of the employed broker's license. The employed broker may not act on behalf of said broker or as broker for a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation during the term of such employment; but this shall not affect the employed broker's right to transfer to another employing broker or to a location where the employed broker may conduct business as an independent broker or as a broker acting for a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation.

(3) In the event that any licensee is discharged by or terminates employment with a broker, it shall be the joint duty of both such parties to immediately notify the commission. Either party may furnish such notice in a manner acceptable to the commission. The party giving notice shall notify the other party in person or in writing of the termination of employment.

(4) It is unlawful for any such licensee to perform any of the acts authorized under the license in pursuance of this part 1, either directly or indirectly, on or after the date that employment has been terminated. When any real estate broker whose employment has been terminated is employed by another real estate broker, the commission shall, upon proper notification, enter such change of employment in the records of the commission. Not more than one employer or place of employment shall be shown for any real estate broker for the same period of time.

12-61-110. License fees - partnership, limited liability company, and corporation licenses - rules. (1) Fees established pursuant to section 12-61-111.5 shall be charged by and paid to the commission or the agent for the commission for the following:

- (a) and (b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 419, § 5, effective January 1, 1997.)
- (c) Each broker's examination;
- (d) Each broker's original application and license;
- (e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 419, § 5, effective January 1, 1997.)
- (f) Each three-year renewal of a broker's license;
- (g) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 419, § 5, effective January 1, 1997.)
- (h) Any change of name, address, or employing broker requiring a change in commission records;

(i) A new application which shall be submitted when a licensed real estate broker wishes to become the broker acting for a partnership, a limited liability company, or a corporation.

(2) The proper fee shall accompany each application for licensure. The fee shall not be refundable. Failure by the person taking an examination to file the appropriate broker's application within one year of the date such person passed the examination will automatically cancel the examination, and all rights to a passing score will be terminated.

(3) Each real estate broker's license granted to an individual shall entitle such individual to perform all the acts contemplated by this part 1, without any further application on his part and without the payment of any fee other than the fees specified in this section.

(4) (a) The commission shall require that any person licensed under this part 1, whether on an active or inactive basis, renew said license on an anniversary date every three years. Renewal shall be conditioned upon fulfillment of the continuing education requirements set forth in section 12-61-110.5 and submission of fingerprints as required in section 12-61-110.8; except that any person licensed under this part 1 who maintains an inactive license and wants to renew to an active status shall only submit fingerprints as required in section 12-61-110.8 upon application to an active status and, except that, the real estate commission may acquire a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable. For persons renewing or reinstating an active license, written certification verifying completion for the previous three-year licensing period of the continuing education requirements set forth in said section shall accompany and be submitted to the commission with the application for renewal or reinstatement. For persons who did not submit certification verifying compliance with section 12-61-110.5 at the time a license was renewed or reinstated on an inactive status, written certification verifying completion for the previous three-year licensing period of the continuing education requirements set forth in said section shall accompany and be submitted with any future application to reactivate the license. The commission may by rule establish procedures to facilitate such a renewal. Until such procedures are established, every license issued under the provisions of this part 1 shall expire at 12 midnight on December 31 of the year in which issued; except that each renewal of such license shall be for three years and shall expire at 12 midnight on December 31 of the third year. In the absence of any reason or condition that might warrant the refusal of the granting of a license or the revocation thereof, the commission shall issue a new license upon receipt by the commission of the written request of the applicant and the fees therefor, as required by this section. Applications for renewal will be accepted thirty days prior to January 1. A person who fails to renew a license before January 1 of the year succeeding the year of the expiration of such license may reinstate the license as follows:

(I) If proper application is made within thirty-one days after the date of expiration, by payment of the regular three-year renewal fee;

(II) If proper application is made more than thirty-one days but within one year after the date of expiration, by payment of the regular three-year renewal fee and payment of a reinstatement fee equal to one-half the regular three-year renewal fee;

(III) If proper application is made more than one year but within three years after the date of expiration, by payment of the regular three-year renewal fee and payment of a reinstatement fee equal to the regular three-year renewal fee.

(a.5) Repealed.

(b) Any reinstated license shall be effective only as of the date of reinstatement. Any person who fails to apply for reinstatement within three years after the expiration of a license shall, without exception, be treated as a new applicant for licensure.

(c) All reinstatement fees shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit same to the division of real estate cash fund, as established by section 12-61-111.5.

(5) The suspension, expiration, or revocation of a real estate broker's license shall automatically inactivate every real estate broker's license where the holder of such license is shown in the commission records to be in the employ of the broker whose license has expired or has been suspended or revoked pending notification to the commission by the employed licensee of a change of employment.

ANNOTATION

Decisions as to whether to require previous licensee to take broker's examination rests within the sound discretion of the commission.

Howard v. Real Estate Comm'n, 35 Colo. App. 141, 531 P.2d 981 (1974).

12-61-110.5. Renewal of license - continuing education requirement. (1) Commencing January 1, 1992, except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a broker applying for renewal of a license pursuant to section 12-61-110 (4) shall include with such application a certified statement verifying successful completion of real estate courses in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) and (b) Repealed.

(c) For licensees applying for renewal in 1994 and thereafter, passage within the previous three years of the Colorado portion of the real estate exam or completion of a minimum of twenty-four hours of credit, twelve of which shall be the credits developed by the real estate commission pursuant to subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The real estate commission shall develop twelve hours of credit designed to assure reasonable currency of real estate knowledge by licensees, which credits shall include an update of the current statutes and the rules promulgated by the commission that affect the practice of real estate. If a licensee takes a course pursuant to rule 260 of the Colorado rules of civil procedure and such course concerns real property law, such licensee shall receive credit for such course toward the fulfillment of such licensee's continuing education requirements pursuant to this section. Such credits shall be taken from an accredited Colorado college or university; a Colorado community college; a Colorado private occupational school holding a certificate of approval from the state board for community colleges and occupational education; or an educational institution or an educational service described in section 12-59-104. Successful completion of such credits shall require satisfactory passage of a written examination or written examinations of the materials covered. Such examinations shall be audited by the commission to verify their accuracy and the validity of the grades given. The commission shall set the standards required for satisfactory passage of the examinations.

(3) All credits, other than the credits specified in subsection (2) of this section, shall be acquired from educational courses approved by the commission that contribute directly to the professional competence of a licensee. Such credits may be acquired through successful completion of instruction in one or more of the following subjects:

- (a) Real estate law;
- (b) Property exchanges;
- (c) Real estate contracts;
- (d) Real estate finance;
- (e) Real estate appraisal;
- (f) Real estate closing;
- (g) Real estate ethics;
- (h) Condominiums and cooperatives;
- (i) Real estate time-sharing;
- (j) Real estate marketing principles;
- (k) Real estate construction;
- (l) Land development;
- (m) Real estate energy concerns;
- (n) Real estate geology;
- (o) Water and waste management;
- (p) Commercial real estate;
- (q) Real estate securities and syndications;
- (r) Property management;
- (s) Real estate computer principles;
- (t) Brokerage administration and management;
- (u) Agency; and
- (v) Any other subject matter as approved by the real estate commission.

(4) A licensee applying for renewal of a license which expires on December 31 of the year in which it was issued is not subject to the education requirements set forth in subsection (1) of this section.

(5) The real estate commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to implement this section.

Editor's note: Amendments to this section by Senate Bill 79-119 and House Bill 79-1231 were harmonized.

12-61-111.5. Fee adjustments. (1) This section shall apply to all activities of the division under parts 1, 3, 4, and 7 of this article.

(2) (a) (I) The division shall propose, as part of its annual budget request, an adjustment in the amount of each fee that it is authorized by law to collect under parts 1, 3, 4, and 7 of this article. The budget request and the adjusted fees for the division shall reflect direct and indirect costs.

(II) The costs of the HOA information and resource center, created in section 12-61-406.5, shall be paid from the HOA information and resource center cash fund created in section 12-61-406.5. The division of real estate shall estimate the direct and indirect costs of operating the HOA information and resource center and shall establish the amount of the annual registration fee to be collected under section 38-33.3-401, C.R.S. The amount of the registration fee shall be sufficient to recover such costs, subject to a maximum limit of fifty dollars and subject to adjustment to reflect the actual direct and indirect costs of operating the HOA information and resource center pursuant to the general directive to adjust fees to avoid exceeding the statutory limit on uncommitted reserves in administrative agency cash funds as set forth in section 24-75-401 (3), C.R.S.

(b) Based upon the appropriation made and subject to the approval of the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies, the division of real estate shall adjust its fees so that the revenue generated from said fees approximates its direct and indirect costs. Such fees shall remain in effect for the fiscal year for which the budget request applies. All fees collected by the division, not including fees retained by contractors pursuant to contracts entered into in accordance with section 12-61-103 or 24-34-101, C.R.S., shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of real estate cash fund, which fund is hereby created. All moneys credited to the division of real estate cash fund shall be used as provided in this section and shall not be deposited in or transferred to the general fund of this state or any other fund.

(c) Beginning July 1, 1979, and each July 1 thereafter, whenever moneys appropriated to the division for its activities for the prior fiscal year are unexpended, said moneys shall be made a part of the appropriation to the division for the next fiscal year, and such amount shall not be raised from fees collected by the division. If a supplemental appropriation is made to the division for its activities, its fees, when adjusted for the fiscal year next following that in which the supplemental appropriation was made, shall be adjusted by an additional amount which is sufficient to compensate for such supplemental appropriation. Funds appropriated to the division in the annual long appropriations bill shall be designated as a cash fund and shall not exceed the amount anticipated to be raised from fees collected by the division.

12-61-112. Records - evidence - inspection. (1) The executive director of the department of regulatory agencies shall adopt a seal by which all proceedings authorized under parts 1, 3, and 4 of this article shall be authenticated. Copies of records and papers in the office of the commission or department of regulatory agencies relating to the administration of parts 1, 3, and 4 of this article, when duly certified and authenticated by the seal, shall be received as evidence in all courts equally and with like effect as the originals. All records kept in the office of the commission or department of regulatory agencies, under authority of parts 1, 3, and 4 of this article, shall be open to public inspection at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules and regulations formulated by the said commission.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The commission shall not be required to maintain or preserve licensing history records of any person licensed under the provisions of this part 1 for any period of time longer than seven years.

12-61-113. Investigation - revocation - actions against licensee - repeal. (1) The commission, upon its own motion, may, and, upon the complaint in writing of any person, shall, investigate the activities of any licensee or any person who assumes to act in such capacity within the state, and the commission, after the holding of a hearing pursuant to section 12-61-114, has the power to impose an administrative fine not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars for each separate offense and to censure a licensee, to place the licensee on probation and to set the terms of probation, or to temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a license when the licensee has performed, is performing, or is attempting to perform any of the following acts and is guilty of:

(a) Knowingly making any misrepresentation or knowingly making use of any false or misleading advertising;

(b) Making any promise of a character which influences, persuades, or induces another person when he could not or did not intend to keep such promise;

(c) Knowingly misrepresenting or making false promises through agents, advertising, or otherwise;

(c.5) Violating any provision of the "Colorado Consumer Protection Act", article 1 of title 6, C.R.S.;

(d) Acting for more than one party in a transaction without the knowledge of all parties thereto;

(e) Representing or attempting to represent a real estate broker other than the licensee's employer without the express knowledge and consent of that employer;

(f) In the case of a broker registered as in the employ of another broker, failing to place, as soon after receipt as is practicably possible, in the custody of that licensed broker-employer any deposit money or other money or fund entrusted to the employee by any person dealing with the employee as the representative of that licensed broker-employer;

(g) Failing to account for or to remit, within a reasonable time, any moneys coming into the licensee's possession that belong to others, whether acting as real estate brokers or otherwise, and failing to keep records relative to said moneys, which records shall contain such information as may be prescribed by the rules of the commission relative thereto and shall be subject to audit by the commission;

(g.5) Converting funds of others, diverting funds of others without proper authorization, commingling funds of others with the broker's own funds, or failing to keep such funds of others in an escrow or a trustee account with some bank or recognized depository in this state, which account may be any type of checking, demand, passbook, or statement account insured by an agency of the United States government, and to so keep records relative to the deposit which contain such information as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commission relative thereto, which records shall be subject to audit by the commission;

(h) Failing to provide the purchaser and seller of real estate with a closing statement of the transaction, containing such information as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commission or failing to provide a signed duplicate copy of the listing contract and the contract of sale or the preliminary agreement to sell to the parties thereto;

(i) Failing to maintain possession, for future use or inspection by an authorized representative of the commission, for a period of four years, of the documents or records prescribed by the rules and regulations of the commission or to produce such documents or records upon reasonable request by the commission or by an authorized representative of the commission;

(j) Paying a commission or valuable consideration for performing any of the functions of a real estate broker, as described in this part 1, to any person not licensed under this part 1; except that a licensed broker may pay a finder's fee or a share of any commission on a cooperative sale when such payment is made to a real estate broker licensed in another state or country. If a country does not license real estate brokers, then the payee must be a citizen or resident of said country and represent that the payee is in the business of selling real estate in said country.

(k) Disregarding or violating any provision of this part 1 or part 8 of this article, violating any reasonable rule or regulation promulgated by the commission in the interests of the public and in conformance with the provisions of this part 1 or part 8 of this article; violating any lawful commission orders; or aiding and abetting a violation of any rule, regulation, commission order, or provision of this part 1 or part 8 of this article;

(m) Conviction of, entering a plea of guilty to, or entering a plea of nolo contendere to any crime in article 3 of title 18, C.R.S.; parts 1, 2, 3, and 4 of article 4 of title 18, C.R.S.; part 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, or 9 of article 5 of title 18, C.R.S.; article 5.5 of title 18, C.R.S.; parts

1, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8 of article 6 of title 18, C.R.S.; parts 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of article 7 of title 18, C.R.S.; part 3 of article 8 of title 18, C.R.S.; article 15 of title 18, C.R.S.; article 17 of title 18, C.R.S.; section 18-18-404, 18-18-405, 18-18-406, 18-18-411, 18-18-412.5, 18-18-412.7, 18-18-412.8, 18-18-415, 18-18-416, 18-18-422, or 18-18-423, C.R.S., or any other like crime under Colorado law, federal law, or the laws of other states. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or other official record indicating that such plea was entered shall be conclusive evidence of such conviction or plea in any hearing under this part 1.

(m.5) Violating or aiding and abetting in the violation of the Colorado or federal fair housing laws;

(m.6) Failing to immediately notify the commission in writing of a conviction, plea, or violation pursuant to paragraph (m) or (m.5) of this subsection (1);

(n) Having demonstrated unworthiness or incompetency to act as a real estate broker by conducting business in such a manner as to endanger the interest of the public;

(o) In the case of a broker licensee, failing to exercise reasonable supervision over the activities of licensed employees;

(p) Procuring, or attempting to procure, a real estate broker's license or renewing, reinstating, or reactivating, or attempting to renew, reinstate, or reactivate, a real estate broker's license by fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit or by making a material misstatement of fact in an application for such license;

(q) Claiming, arranging for, or taking any secret or undisclosed amount of compensation, commission, or profit or failing to reveal to the licensee's principal or employer the full amount of such licensee's compensation, commission, or profit in connection with any acts for which a license is required under this part 1;

(r) Using any provision allowing the licensee an option to purchase in any agreement authorizing or employing such licensee to sell, buy, or exchange real estate for compensation or commission, except when such licensee, prior to or coincident with election to exercise such option to purchase, reveals in writing to the licensee's principal or employer the full amount of the licensee's profit and obtains the written consent of such principal or employer approving the amount of such profit;

(s) (I) Fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, or conversion of trust funds that results in the payment of any claim pursuant to part 3 of this article. This subparagraph (I) is repealed, effective when the last final judgment from any of the civil actions allowed pursuant to section 12-61-302 (2) becomes effective and any resulting claim has been paid according to law. The director of the division of real estate shall notify the revisor of statutes, in writing, when the condition specified in this paragraph (s) has been satisfied.

(II) Effective on and after the repeal of part 3 of this article, fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, or conversion of trust funds that results in the entry of a civil judgment for damages.

(t) Any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character than specified in this subsection (1), which constitutes dishonest dealing;

(u) Repealed.

(v) Having had a real estate broker's or a subdivision developer's license suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction, or having had any disciplinary action taken against the broker or subdivision developer in any other jurisdiction if the broker's or subdivision developer's action would constitute a violation of this subsection (1). A certified copy of the order of disciplinary action shall be prima facie evidence of such disciplinary action.

(w) Failing to keep records documenting proof of completion of the continuing education requirements in accordance with section 12-61-110.5 for a period of four years from the date of compliance with said section;

(x) (I) Violating any provision of section 12-61-113.2.

(II) In addition to any other remedies available to the commission pursuant to this title, after notice and a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., the commission may assess a penalty for a violation of section 12-61-113.2 or of any rule promulgated pursuant to section 12-61-113.2. The penalty shall be the amount of remuneration improperly paid and shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund.

(y) Within the last five years, having a license, registration, or certification issued by Colorado or another state revoked or suspended for fraud, deceit, material misrepresentation, theft, or the breach of a fiduciary duty, and such discipline denied the person authorization to practice as:

- (I) A mortgage broker or mortgage loan originator;
- (II) A real estate broker or salesperson;
- (III) A real estate appraiser, as defined by section 12-61-702 (5);
- (IV) An insurance producer, as defined by section 10-2-103 (6), C.R.S.;
- (V) An attorney;
- (VI) A securities broker-dealer, as defined by section 11-51-201 (2), C.R.S.;
- (VII) A securities sales representative, as defined by section 11-51-201 (14), C.R.S.;
- (VIII) An investment advisor, as defined by section 11-51-201 (9.5), C.R.S.; or
- (IX) An investment advisor representative, as defined by section 11-51-201 (9.6), C.R.S.

(1.5) Every person licensed pursuant to section 12-61-101 (2) (a) (X) shall give a prospective tenant a contract or receipt; and such contract or receipt shall include the address and telephone number of the real estate commission in prominent letters and shall state that the regulation of rental location agents is under the purview of the real estate commission.

(2) In the event a firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation operating under the license of a broker designated and licensed as representative of said firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation is guilty of any of the foregoing acts, the commission may suspend or revoke the right of the said firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation to conduct its business under the license of said broker, whether or not the designated broker had personal knowledge thereof and whether or not the commission suspends or revokes the individual license of said broker.

(3) Upon request of the commission, when any real estate broker is a party to any suit or proceeding, either civil or criminal, arising out of any transaction involving the sale or exchange of any interest in real property or out of any transaction involving a leasehold interest in the real property and when such broker is involved in such transaction in such capacity as a licensed broker, it shall be the duty of said broker to supply to the commission a copy of the complaint, indictment, information, or other initiating pleading and the answer filed, if any, and to advise the commission of the disposition of the case and of the nature and amount of any judgment, verdict, finding, or sentence that may be made, entered, or imposed therein.

(4) This part 1 shall not be construed to relieve any person from civil liability or criminal prosecution under the laws of this state.

(5) Complaints of record in the office of the commission and the results of staff investigations may, in the discretion of the commission, be closed to public inspection, except as provided by court order, during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges are served on a licensee.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (5) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(5) Complaints of record in the office of the commission and commission investigations, including commission investigative files, are closed to public inspection. Stipulations and final agency orders are public records subject to sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (5) is effective July 1, 2013.

(6) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct which, in the opinion of the commission, does not warrant formal action by the commission but which should not be dismissed as being without merit, the commission may send a letter of admonition by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the licensee against whom a complaint was made and a copy thereof to the person making the complaint, but the letter shall advise the licensee that the licensee has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after proven receipt, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based. If such request is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated, and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(7) All administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of real estate cash fund.

(8) Any application for licensure from a person whose license has been revoked shall not be considered until the passage of one year from the date of revocation.

(9) When the division of real estate becomes aware of facts or circumstances that fall within the jurisdiction of a criminal justice or other law enforcement authority upon investigation of the activities of a licensee, the division shall, in addition to the exercise of its authority under this part 1, refer and transmit such information, which may include originals or copies of documents and materials, to one or more criminal justice or other law enforcement authorities for investigation and prosecution as authorized by law.

Law reviews. For article, "Colorado 'Buyer Brokerage': Does it Still Exist After Velten v. Robertson?", see 55 U. Colo. L. Rev. 83 (1983). For article, "Affiliated Business Arrangements: Compliance with RESPA and H.B. 06-1141", see 35 Colo. Law. 65 (November 2006).

Terms "unworthiness" and "incompetency" are not unconstitutionally vague as used in subsection (1)(n). Eckley v. Colorado Real Estate Comm'n, 752 P.2d 68 (Colo. 1988).

Commission has jurisdiction over broker dealing for own account. Where a real estate broker is dealing in real estate for his own account, the Colorado real estate commission has jurisdiction over his acts and can suspend or revoke his license for proven violations of the licensing statute or of the commission's rules. Seibel v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 34 Colo. App. 415, 530 P.2d 1290 (1974).

Real estate agent has duty to act with utmost faith and loyalty. Under both the common law and applicable statutes, a real estate agent, in all dealings affecting the subject matter of his agency, has a fiduciary duty to act with the utmost faith and loyalty in behalf of his principal. This duty requires the agent to make a full and complete disclosure before he becomes the purchaser of property which is the subject of his agency with his principal. M.S.R., Inc. v. Lish, 34 Colo. App. 320, 527 P.2d 912 (1974).

Unless otherwise agreed, in all dealings affecting the subject matter of his agency, a real estate broker or salesman has a fiduciary duty to act with the utmost faith and loyalty in behalf of, and to act solely for the benefit of, his principal. Lestoque v. M.R. Mansfield Realty, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 32, 536 P.2d 1146 (1975).

Where real estate agents had a combined two-thirds interest in the buyer corporation, they did not act with the utmost loyalty to their principal, and, because they initially failed to advise their principal that they owned two-thirds of the buyer corporation, they did not make a full and complete disclosure of their interests to her. Since the agents in fact own a controlling interest in the buyer corporation, knowledge of the breach of their fiduciary duty as licensed real estate agents is imputed to the buyer. M.S.R., Inc. v. Lish, 34 Colo. App. 320, 527 P.2d 912 (1974).

Complete disclosure to and informed consent of principal required. The fiduciary duty of a real estate agent to act with faith and loyalty requires that the agent make a full and complete disclosure to, and obtain the informed consent from, the principal before the agent can sell his own property to the principal or can himself buy the principal's property. Lestoque v. M.R. Mansfield Realty, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 32, 536 P.2d 1146 (1975).

If there is no such disclosure or consent, there is a breach of duty. A sale by the real estate broker of his own property to the principal or purchase of the principal's property for his own without the informed knowledge and consent of the principal is a breach of duty, and, in such a transaction, if the agent makes a profit, he must account therefor to his principal. Lestoque v. M.R. Mansfield Realty, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 32, 536 P.2d 1146 (1975).

Accounting is required. Rule requiring real estate broker to account to principal if the agent makes a profit in violation of fiduciary duty applies regardless of whether there is any harm to the principal as a result of the self-dealing by the agent. In such event, the principal can disaffirm and avoid the deal or can ratify the deal and take the profits. Lestoque v. M.R. Mansfield Realty, Inc., 36 Colo. App. 32, 536 P.2d 1146 (1975).

Absent fiduciary duty, evidence of misconduct insufficient to suspend license. Absent a fiduciary duty incumbent on an agent, evidence of real estate broker's misconduct was insufficient to sustain a suspension of his license under subsections (1)(n) and (1)(t). Hiller v. Real Estate Comm'n, 627 P.2d 769 (Colo. 1981).

Fiduciary duty imposed on licensed brokers pursuant to paragraphs (g) and (g.5) of subsection (1) fall within the meaning of section 523 (a)(4) of the federal bankruptcy code. In re Currin, 55 Bankr. 928 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1985).

Subsection (1)(m) of this section, read together with § 24-5-101, does not authorize the commission to revoke a broker's license based solely on his or her conviction of a felony. The commission bears the burden of proving not only that the licensee was convicted of a felony, but also that he or she has not been rehabilitated. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n v. Bartlett, 272 P.3d 1099 (Colo. App. 2011).

Failure to provide purchaser with sufficiently detailed closing statement in violation of rule E-5(b) of the rules of the real estate commission was violation of subsections (1)(h) and (1)(n). Eckley v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 752 P.2d 68 (Colo. 1988).

Failure to properly deposit escrow funds in violation of subsection (1)(g.5) and rule E-1 of the rules of the real estate commission was incompetency and unworthiness in violation of subsection (1)(n). Eckley v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 752 P.2d 68 (Colo. 1988).

Application of disciplinary sections. The disciplinary sections apply even when the broker is selling or buying his own property. Hammer v. Real Estate Comm'n, 40 Colo. App. 260, 576 P.2d 191 (1977).

Disciplinary action of real estate commission was not arbitrary or capricious. Order of real estate commission suspending license of broker in reliance upon hearing officer's finding that broker's failure to disclose financial records, making material misrepresentations, failure to deposit trust funds into escrow account, failure to provide sufficiently detailed closing statement and other misconduct constituted a violation of subsection (1)(n) was neither arbitrary nor capricious. Eckley v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 752 P.2d 68 (Colo. 1988).

The imposition of sanctions is a discretionary function that cannot be overturned unless it is an abuse of that discretion. As long as the record as a whole provides sufficient evidence that the penalty is not manifestly excessive in relation to the misconduct and the public need, the penalty will be upheld. The "reasonable basis" standard does not apply to the review of an agency's imposition of sanctions. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n v. Hanegan, 947 P.2d 933 (Colo. 1997).

The commission is not required to impose the same disciplinary sanction in all comparable cases. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n v. Bartlett, 272 P.3d 1099 (Colo. App. 2011).

Real estate commission may discipline real estate agents for related activities that do not require a license. Hart v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 702 P.2d 763 (Colo. App. 1985).

Violation of requirements of this section may not be vindicated by action of another agency. The fact that liquor license authority issued license based upon certain documents does not cure violations of this section represented by those documents. Eckley v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 752 P.2d 68 (Colo. 1988).

Private cause of action not inferred. In light of enforcement procedures provided in this section, coupled with lack of legislative intent authorizing a private cause of action, such a cause of action must not be inferred. Holter v. Moore and Co., 681 P.2d 962 (Colo. App. 1983).

Applied in Holter v. Moore & Co., 702 F.2d 854 (10th Cir. 1983); Hart v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 702 P.2d 763 (Colo. App. 1985).

12-61-113.2. Affiliated business arrangements - definitions - disclosures - enforcement and penalties - reporting - rules - investigation information shared with the division of insurance. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Affiliated business arrangement” means an arrangement in which:

(I) A provider of settlement services or an associate of a provider of settlement services has either an affiliate relationship with or a direct beneficial ownership interest of more than one percent in another provider of settlement services; and

(II) A provider of settlement services or the associate of a provider directly or indirectly refers settlement service business to another provider of settlement services or affirmatively influences the selection of another provider of settlement services.

(b) “Associate” means a person who has one or more of the following relationships with a person in a position to refer settlement service business:

(I) A spouse, parent, or child of such person;

(II) A corporation or business entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such person;

(III) An employer, officer, director, partner, franchiser, or franchisee of such person, including a broker acting as an independent contractor; or

(IV) Anyone who has an agreement, arrangement, or understanding with such person, the purpose or substantial effect of which is to enable the person in a position to refer settlement service business to benefit financially from referrals of such business.

(c) “Settlement service” means any service provided in connection with a real estate settlement including, but not limited to, the following:

(I) Title searches;

(II) Title examinations;

(III) The provision of title certificates;

(IV) Title insurance;

(V) Services rendered by an attorney;

(VI) The preparation of title documents;

(VII) Property surveys;

(VIII) The rendering of credit reports or appraisals;

(IX) Real estate appraisal services;

(X) Home inspection services;

(XI) Services rendered by a real estate broker;

(XII) Pest and fungus inspections;

(XIII) The origination of a loan;

(XIV) The taking of a loan application;

(XV) The processing of a loan;

(XVI) Underwriting and funding of a loan;

(XVII) Escrow handling services;

(XVIII) The handling of the processing; and

(XIX) Closing of settlement.

(2) (a) An affiliated business arrangement is permitted where the person referring business to the affiliated business arrangement receives payment only in the form of a return on an investment and where it does not violate the provisions of section 12-61-113.

(b) If a licensee or the employing broker of a licensee is part of an affiliated business arrangement when an offer to purchase real property is fully executed, the licensee shall disclose to all parties to the real estate transaction the existence of the arrangement. The disclosure shall be written, shall be signed by all parties to the real estate transaction, and shall comply with the federal “Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974”, as amended, 12 U.S.C. sec. 2601 et seq.

(c) A licensee shall not require the use of an affiliated business arrangement or a particular provider of settlement services as a condition of obtaining services from that licensee for any settlement service. For the purposes of this paragraph (c), “require the use” shall have the same meaning as “required use” in 24 CFR 3500.2 (b).

(d) No licensee shall give or accept any fee, kickback, or other thing of value pursuant to any agreement or understanding, oral or otherwise, that business incident to or part of a settlement service involving an affiliated business arrangement shall be referred to any provider of settlement services.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit payment of a fee to:

(I) An attorney for services actually rendered;

(II) A title insurance company to its duly appointed agent for services actually performed in the issuance of a policy of title insurance;

(III) A lender to its duly appointed agent for services actually performed in the making of a loan.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit payment to any person of:

(I) A bona fide salary or compensation or other payment for goods or facilities actually furnished or for services actually performed;

(II) A fee pursuant to cooperative brokerage and referral arrangements or agreements between real estate brokers.

(g) It shall not be a violation of this section for an affiliated business arrangement:

(I) To require a buyer, borrower, or seller to pay for the services of any attorney, credit reporting agency, or real estate appraiser chosen by the lender to represent the lender's interest in a real estate transaction; or

(II) If an attorney or law firm represents a client in a real estate transaction and issues or arranges for the issuance of a policy of title insurance in the transaction directly as agent or through a separate corporate title insurance agency that may be established by that attorney or law firm and operated as an adjunct to his or her law practice.

(h) No person shall be liable for a violation of this section if such person proves by a preponderance of the evidence that such violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding maintenance of procedures that are reasonably adopted to avoid such error.

(3) On and after July 1, 2006, a licensee shall disclose at the time the licensee enters into or changes an affiliated business arrangement, in a form and manner acceptable to the commission, the names of all affiliated business arrangements to which the licensee is a party. The disclosure shall include the physical locations of the affiliated businesses.

(4) On and after July 1, 2006, an employing broker, in a form and manner acceptable to the commission, shall at least annually disclose the names of all affiliated business arrangements to which the employing broker is a party. The disclosure shall include the physical locations of the affiliated businesses.

(5) The commission may promulgate rules concerning the creation and conduct of an affiliated business arrangement, including, but not limited to, rules defining what constitutes a sham affiliated business arrangement. The commission shall adopt the rules, policies, or guidelines issued by the United States department of housing and urban development concerning the federal "Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974", as amended, 12 U.S.C. sec. 2601 et seq. Rules adopted by the commission shall be at least as stringent as the federal rules and shall ensure that consumers are adequately informed about affiliated business arrangements. The commission shall consult with the insurance commissioner pursuant to section 10-11-124 (2), C.R.S., concerning rules, policies, or guidelines the insurance commissioner adopts concerning affiliated business arrangements. Neither the rules promulgated by the commissioner nor the real estate commission may create a conflicting regulatory burden on an affiliated business arrangement.

(6) The division may share information gathered during an investigation of an affiliated business arrangement with the division of insurance.

12-61-114. Hearing - administrative law judge - review - rule-making authority.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all proceedings before the commission with respect to disciplinary actions and denial of licensure under this part 1 and part 8 of this article and certifications issued under part 4 of this article shall be conducted by an administrative law judge pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) Such proceedings shall be held in the county where the commission has its office or in such other place as the commission may designate. If the licensee is an employed broker, the commission shall also notify the broker employing the licensee by mailing, by first-class mail, a copy of the written notice required under section 24-4-104 (3), C.R.S., to the employing broker's last-known business address.

(3) An administrative law judge shall conduct all hearings for denying, suspending, or revoking a license or certificate on behalf of the commission, subject to appropriations made to the department of personnel. Each administrative law judge shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S. The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing pursuant to the provisions of sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S. No license shall be denied, suspended, or revoked until the commission has made its decision by a majority vote.

(4) The decision of the commission in any disciplinary action or denial of licensure under this section is subject to review by the court of appeals by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. In order to effectuate the purposes of parts 1, 3, 4, and 8 of this article, the commission has the power to promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. The commission may appear in court by its own attorney.

(5) Pursuant to said proceeding, the court has the right, in its discretion, to stay the execution or effect of any final order of the commission; but a hearing shall be held affording the parties an opportunity to be heard for the purpose of determining whether the public health, safety, and welfare would be endangered by staying the commission's order. If the court determines that the order should be stayed, it shall also determine at said hearing the amount of the bond and adequacy of the surety, which bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by such petitioner of all obligations as a real estate broker and upon the prompt payment of all damages arising from or caused by the delay in the taking effect of or enforcement of the order complained of and for all costs that may be assessed or required to be paid in connection with such proceedings.

(6) In any hearing conducted by the commission in which there is a possibility of the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license because of the conviction of a felony or of a crime involving moral turpitude, the commission shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

12-61-118. Acts of third parties - broker's liability. Any unlawful act or violation of any of the provisions of this part 1 upon the part of an employee, officer, or member of a licensed real estate broker shall not be cause for disciplinary action against a real estate broker, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commission that the real estate broker had actual knowledge of the unlawful act or violation or had been negligent in the supervision of employees.

12-61-119. Violations. Any natural person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation violating the provisions of this part 1 by acting as real estate broker in this state without having obtained a license or by acting as real estate broker after the broker's license has been revoked or during any period for which said license may have been suspended is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, if a natural person, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment and, if an entity, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars. A second violation, if by a natural person, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

To act without a license is made a criminal offense by this section. Cary v. Borden Co., 153 Colo. 344, 386 P.2d 585 (1963).

12-61-120. Subpoena compelling attendance of witnesses and production of records and documents. The commission, the director for the commission, or the administrative law judge appointed for hearings may issue a subpoena compelling the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, or records pursuant to an investigation or hearing of such commission. Such subpoenas shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued by district courts and shall be issued without discrimination between public or private parties requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents at hearings. If a person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the commission, the director, or the appointed administrative law judge, the commission may petition the district court having jurisdiction for issuance of a subpoena in the premises, and the court shall, in a proper case, issue its subpoena. Any person who refuses to obey such subpoena shall be punished as provided in section 12-61-121.

BROKERS' COMMISSIONS

12-61-201. When entitled to commission. No real estate agent or broker is entitled to a commission for finding a purchaser who is ready, willing, and able to complete the purchase of real estate as proposed by the owner until the same is consummated or is defeated by the refusal or neglect of the owner to consummate the same as agreed upon.

When broker entitled to commission. The general rule is that a real estate broker, under a valid listing agreement, is entitled to recover a commission (1) when he produces a purchaser who is ready, willing, and able to purchase the property upon the terms designated by the principal, and (2) he is the efficient agent or procuring cause of the sale. Circle T Corp. v. Deerfield, 166 Colo. 238, 444 P.2d 404 (1968); Muck v. McKanna, 687 P.2d 1326 (Colo. App. 1984); Harding v. Lucero, 721 P.2d 695 (Colo. App. 1986); Real Equity Diversification v. Coville, 744 P.2d 756 (Colo. App. 1987); In re Ruetz, 317 B.R. 549 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2004).

Where a vendor refuses to consummate a transaction, and a deal fails because of such refusal, a broker is entitled to his commission. Gerbaz v. Hulsey, 132 Colo. 359, 288 P.2d 357 (1955).

When plaintiffs produced a purchaser ready, willing, and able to purchase the listed property in accordance with the terms and conditions prescribed by the owners, they were entitled to their commission. McCullough v. Thompson, 133 Colo. 352, 295 P.2d 221 (1956); Watson v. United Farm Agency, Inc., 165 Colo. 439, 439 P.2d 738 (1968).

If the actions of the lessor, or his neglect, defeated consummation of this lease, he is not to be relieved of his liability to pay the broker. M.R. Mansfield Realty, Inc. v. Sunshine, 38 Colo. App. 334, 561 P.2d 342 (1976), aff'd, 195 Colo. 95, 575 P.2d 847 (1978).

A broker is entitled to his commission if he produces a ready, willing, and able purchaser, even if the vendor, prior to execution of a contract, refuses to consummate the transaction and the deal fails because of such refusal. Colo. Inv. Servs., Inc., v. Hager, 685 P.2d 1371 (Colo. App. 1984).

Broker entitled to commission where the owner and the purchaser thereafter conduct further negotiations resulting in a change of the terms. Brewer v. Williams, 147 Colo. 146, 362 P.2d 1033 (1961).

The broker must find the purchaser and the sale must proceed from his efforts acting as broker. Bradley Realty Inv. Co. v. Schwartz, 145 Colo. 65, 357 P.2d 638 (1960).

There is no presumption that purchaser is ready, willing, and able to purchase. Horton-Cavey Realty Co. v. Reese, 34 Colo. App. 323, 527 P.2d 914 (1974).

Burden of proof on agent. Real estate agent had the burden to establish not only its authority to act as the sales agent, but also that plaintiff had produced a purchaser who was ready, able, and willing to purchase on the terms proposed by sellers. Horton-Cavey Realty Co. v. Reese, 34 Colo. App. 323, 527 P.2d 914 (1974).

Broker's right to receive the brokerage commission depends upon the terms of the listing agreement and the duties actually performed by the broker. Watson v. United Farm Agency, Inc., 165 Colo. 439, 439 P.2d 738 (1968).

The right to collect a commission is inchoate until the deal closes or the seller refuses or neglects to complete the deal. The contingent or inchoate nature of that interest does not negate the broker or agent's right to receive a commission if the contingencies are satisfied. In re Ruetz, 317 B.R. 549 (Bankr. D. Colo. 2004).

Where by the agreement, the owners expressly agree to do certain things, and the broker does not expressly agree to do anything, courts uniformly hold that such a document is not a binding contract until some service is rendered by the broker looking to the sale of the property. Circle T Corp. v. Deerfield, 166 Colo. 238, 444 P.2d 404 (1968).

A broker who had a nonexclusive listing of property, and who failed to produce a purchaser, ready, willing, and able to buy the listed property upon terms satisfactory to the owner or upon any terms suggested by the owner, was not entitled to a commission upon the sale of the property by another broker. Ginsberg v. Frankenberg, 133 Colo. 382, 295 P.2d 1036 (1956).

Where the list furnished to the broker was not a written listing agreement, this meant that the seller had the privilege of refusing to accept the offer to purchase tendered by the broker on behalf of his client, and it therefore follows that no commission was due. Stavely v. Johnson, 157 Colo. 56, 400 P.2d 922 (1965).

A contract of employment may be oral or may be implied from the particular circumstances of the case. Brewer v. Williams, 147 Colo. 146, 362 P.2d 1033 (1961); Fletcher v. Garrett, 167 Colo. 60, 445 P.2d 401 (1968);

Harding v. Lucero, 721 P.2d 695 (Colo. App. 1986).

Where an antecedent oral listing agreement which was subsequently modified in writing was source of brokers' employment and was not dependent upon a particular transaction, such agreement governed two separate and unrelated transactions by which property was sold to purchaser procured by brokers. Harding v. Lucero, 721 P.2d 695 (Colo. App. 1986).

The circumstances from which a contract may be implied seem to be two: first, that the broker or agent has rendered services, and is permitted to do so in such a manner as to indicate that he expected to be paid for these services; and second, that the services are beneficial to the party sought to be made liable. Chambers v. Shivers, 31 Colo. App. 16, 497 P.2d 327 (1972).

The broker's right to remuneration for his service must be predicated on contractual relations existing between himself and the person against whom the alleged right is sought to be enforced. Chambers v. Shivers, 31 Colo. App. 16, 497 P.2d 327 (1972).

Where plaintiff broker failed to show that she had an expectation of being paid a commission by defendant, such failure is fatal to her claim of the existence of an implied contract, and she is not entitled to a commission. Chambers v. Shivers, 31 Colo. App. 16, 497 P.2d 327 (1972).

Absent contract so specifying, one cannot claim broker's commission for merely participating in negotiating or closing transaction between ready buyer and willing seller since such services, as matter of law, are not procuring or efficient cause of sale. Stank v. Michaelson, 32 Colo. App. 75, 506 P.2d 757 (1973).

Where buyer planned to purchase specific property before he contacted plaintiff, and all plaintiff did was assist buyer in completing plan to purchase property, and where plaintiff was not efficient agent or procuring cause of sale, plaintiff was not entitled to broker's commission in absence of contract so specifying. Stank v. Michaelson, 32 Colo. App. 75, 506 P.2d 757 (1973).

A broker cannot recover his fee where the principals merely conclude an executory contract, performance of which depends upon fulfillment of an express condition precedent, but the broker's right to the commission could not be defeated by the owner's failure to perform an unambiguous promise according to the agreed terms of sale. Watson v. United Farm Agency, Inc., 165 Colo. 439, 439 P.2d 738 (1968).

Where the fee is contingent upon the result achieved, the broker is entitled to receive the fee agreed upon regardless of the amount of time spent. Bamford v. Cope, 31 Colo. App. 161, 499 P.2d 639 (1972).

A broker who participates in a transaction resulting in the sale of property without authorization from the seller to act as his agent is not entitled to a commission from the seller. Chambers v. Shivers, 31 Colo. App. 16, 497 P.2d 327 (1972).

Where variation between offer and listing is substantial, seller is at liberty to reject offer without explanation, and the broker may not use the failure to state specific objections as grounds for claiming a commission. Horton-Cavey Realty Co. v. Reese, 34 Colo. App. 323, 527 P.2d 914 (1974).

Where an offer contains substantial additions to or variations from the terms of the listing agreement, the broker is not entitled to a commission, because he failed to perform according to the terms of his employment contract. Regardless of whether the seller is rejecting the offer because of the variations or simply because it has decided not to sell, the broker's duty to submit an offer which substantially meets the terms of the listing agreement remains unfulfilled. Colo. City Dev. Co. v. Jones-Healy Realty, Inc., 195 Colo. 114, 576 P.2d 160 (1978).

A seller may not defeat a broker's right to a commission by rejecting an offer solicited by his broker, without explanation, when the variations between the listing and the offer are of a minor nature. The basis for this rule is that the broker should be given an opportunity to rectify minor variations in order to earn his commission and the premise is that the broker may well be able to obtain concessions on minor problems from the prospective buyer. Horton-Cavey Realty Co. v. Reese, 34 Colo. App. 323, 527 P.2d 914 (1974).

A realty company could recover a brokerage commission under an exclusive listing although it knew that the property stood in joint tenancy and did not secure the signature of one of the joint tenants on the exclusive listing agreement where the agreement was an extension of an earlier agreement which had been signed by both joint tenants, and the husband acted as an agent for his wife in signing the extension agreement who, by her acts and conduct, adopted and ratified the act of her husband. Helgerson v. Fort Collins Realty, Inc., 28 Colo. App. 180, 471 P.2d 630 (1970).

Vendor who does not commit bad faith or culpable conduct is not liable for commission, if sale does not go through and further negotiations between vendor and broker's client result in transaction not contemplated by terms of listing agreement. Harding v. Lucero, 721 P.2d 695 (Colo. App. 1986).

Even though vendor may have breached exclusive listing agreement with real estate agent, agent was not entitled to commission because vendor's sale of the property to partnership of which he was member is not a "sale or exchange" of the property. Cooley Inv. Co. v. Jones, 780 P.2d 29 (Colo. App. 1989).

Purchases by employee of realty firm. Where an employee of a realty firm makes an offer to purchase property which is the subject of that firm's listing with the seller, the realty firm must establish that a full disclosure was made to the seller regarding the employment relationship; and that, following this disclosure, the seller consented to sell to the employee. Horton-Cavey Realty Co. v. Reese, 34 Colo. App. 323, 527 P.2d 914 (1974).

A real estate broker is not entitled to a commission for a sale where the purchaser failed to perform on stipulated date, and the broker's contract with the vendor stated that time was of the essence. Dunton v. Stemme, 117 Colo. 327, 187 P.2d 593 (1947).

Where there is competent evidence from which the trier of the facts may find that a contract of employment was entered into, and that pursuant thereto the broker produced a purchaser ready, willing, and able to buy on the terms and at the price set by the vendor, and that the broker was the efficient agent or procuring cause of the sale, a finding in accordance therewith will not be disturbed. Palmer v. Gleason, 154 Colo. 145, 389 P.2d 90 (1964).

Evidence to establish broker's right to commission held sufficient. Brand v. Merritt, 15 Colo. 286, 25 P. 175 (1890); Chambers v. Shivers, 31 Colo. App. 16, 497 P.2d 327 (1972).

Ordinarily, a broker suing on a contract providing for a fixed commission is entitled to that commission or nothing, because employment contracts with fixed commissions or salaries involve liquidated sums and therefore judgments in suits on them must be for the liquidated amounts or nothing, but the rule is rendered inapplicable where an erroneous verdict is induced by the conduct of defendant. Palmer v. Gleason, 154 Colo. 145, 389 P.2d 90 (1964).

Where an owner's termination of a lease was due to an unreasonable understanding of a lease provision, the termination constituted a refusal or neglect to consummate the contract as agreed upon, and the broker was entitled to his commission. Sunshine v. M.R. Mansfield Realty, Inc., 195 Colo. 95, 575 P.2d 847 (1978).

Where broker not entitled to commission. Where completion of a sale was not prevented through any fault of the sellers but because the broker told sellers "not to appear at the closing unless they came up with cash or certified funds" to pay the broker's fee, the broker himself thwarted the closing and is not entitled to a commission. Denver 1500, Inc. v. Wall, 43 Colo. App. 282, 602 P.2d 903 (1979).

Applied in Reese v. McVittie, 119 Colo. 29, 200 P.2d 390 (1948); Rankin v. McFerrin, 626

P.2d 720 (Colo. App. 1980); McGill Corp. v. Max Suburban, Inc. v. Widener, 633 P.2d 530 Werner, 631 P.2d 1178 (Colo. App. 1981); Re/ (Colo. App. 1981).

12-61-202. Objections on account of title. No real estate agent or broker is entitled to a commission when a proposed purchaser fails or refuses to complete his contract of purchase because of defects in the title of the owner, unless such owner, within a reasonable time, has said defects corrected by legal proceedings or otherwise.

Source: L. 15: p. 397, § 2. C.L. § 4853. CSA: C. 15, § 26. CRS 53: § 117-2-2. C.R.S. 1963: § 117-2-2.

12-61-203. When owner must perfect title. The owner shall not be required to begin legal or other proceedings for the correction of such title, until such agent or broker secures from the proposed purchaser an enforceable contract in writing, binding him to complete the purchase whenever the defects in the title are corrected.

12-61-203.5. Referral fees - interference with brokerage relationship. (1) No licensee under parts 1 to 4 of this article shall pay a referral fee unless reasonable cause for payment of the referral fee exists. A reasonable cause for payment means:

- (a) An actual introduction of business has been made;
 - (b) A contractual referral fee relationship exists; or
 - (c) A contractual cooperative brokerage relationship exists.
- (2) (a) No person shall interfere with the brokerage relationship of a licensee.
(b) As used in this subsection (2):

(I) “Brokerage relationship” means a relationship entered into between a broker and a buyer, seller, landlord, or tenant under which the broker engages in any of the acts set forth in section 12-61-101 (2). A brokerage relationship is not established until a written brokerage agreement is entered into between the parties or is otherwise established by law.

(II) “Interference with the brokerage relationship” means demanding a referral fee from a licensee without reasonable cause.

(III) “Referral fee” means any fee paid by a licensee to any person or entity, other than a cooperative commission offered by a listing broker to a selling broker or vice versa.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a violation of any provision of this section may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction. The prevailing party in any such action shall be entitled to actual damages and, in addition, the court may award an amount up to three times the amount of actual damages sustained as a result of any such violation plus reasonable attorney fees.

PART 3

RECOVERY FUND

Editor’s note: This part 3 was numbered as article 3 of chapter 117, C.R.S. 1963. The provisions of this part 3 were repealed and reenacted in 1995, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 3 prior to 1995, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume.

12-61-302. Limitation on payments out of the real estate cash fund - repeal.

(1) No payment shall be made from the general fund pursuant to this part 3 unless:

(a) The applicant has notified the commission, in writing, of the commencement of a civil action for a judgment that may result in an application for recovery from the fund. Such written notice shall be given no later than ninety days after commencement of the civil action.

(b) The revenues, if any, transferred to the division of real estate cash fund pursuant to subsection (11) of this section have first been exhausted. As used in this part 3, "fund" shall mean in the first instance such revenues transferred pursuant to subsection (11) of this section and then, if such revenues have been exhausted, the general fund.

(2) No payment shall be made from the fund unless the underlying civil action, on the basis of which payment from the fund is sought, was commenced within the time period prescribed in section 13-80-103, C.R.S., and by thirty days after May 27, 2005.

(3) (a) No payment shall be made from the fund unless the order of judgment in the underlying civil action contains specific findings of fact and conclusions of law that the licensed real estate broker or salesperson committed negligence, fraud, willful misrepresentation, or conversion of trust funds.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), no payment for negligence shall be made from the fund if said licensed real estate broker or salesperson had in effect a complying policy of errors and omissions insurance coverage pursuant to section 12-61-103.6 at the time of the negligent act or omission.

(4) The fund shall be liable to pay only for reimbursement of actual and direct out-of-pocket losses, court costs and reasonable attorney fees that remain unpaid on the judgment, and postjudgment interest as provided by law. The fund shall not be liable for the payment of prejudgment interest of any kind.

(5) The fund shall not be liable for losses attributable to pain and suffering or mental anguish.

(6) Attorney fees recoverable pursuant to this section shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the amount of actual and direct out-of-pocket losses paid from the fund.

(7) The fund shall be liable only for claims based on judgments against natural persons.

(8) The fund shall not be subject to a claim by a licensee involving a transaction in which the applicant performed acts for which a broker's or salesperson's license is required.

(9) Notwithstanding any provision of this part 3 to the contrary, the liability of the fund shall not exceed:

(a) For applications filed after July 1, 1987, and before July 1, 1991, fifteen thousand dollars per claimant;

(b) For applications filed on or after July 1, 1991, and before July 1, 1995, fifteen thousand dollars per transaction, regardless of the number of persons aggrieved or the number of real estate licensees or parcels of real estate involved in such transactions;

(c) For applications filed on or after July 1, 1995, and before July 1, 1999, twenty thousand dollars per transaction, regardless of the number of persons aggrieved, the number of parcels, or the number of real estate licensees involved in such transaction;

(c.5) For applications filed on or after July 1, 1999, fifty thousand dollars per transaction, regardless of the persons aggrieved, the number of parcels, or the number of real estate licensees involved in such transactions;

(d) One hundred fifty thousand dollars for any one licensee, regardless of the number of judgments entered against the licensee, parcels of real estate involved, number of licensees involved, or number of persons aggrieved in such transactions.

(10) (a) If the validly filed applications exceed the limitation on liability set forth in paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (9) of this section, then payment from the fund shall be distributed among such applicants in the ratio that their respective claims bear to the aggregate of such valid claims or in such other manner as a court of record may deem equitable. Distribution of such moneys shall be among the persons entitled to share therein without regard to the order of priority in which their respective judgments may have been obtained or their applications may have been filed.

(b) If the commission issues an administrative order which directs payment from the fund in accordance with section 12-61-303 and this subsection (10), any prospective applicant affected by such order may file a petition with the appropriate court pursuant to section 12-61-304. In that proceeding, the commission may then move the court for an order consolidating or joining all applicants and prospective applicants whose judgments have been entered against a common licensee judgment debtor into one action so that the respective rights of all such applicants may be equitably adjudicated and settled.

(11) (a) The unexpended and unencumbered balance of the real estate recovery fund, as such fund existed prior to its repeal, shall be transferred to the division of real estate cash fund.

(b) This part 3 is repealed, effective when the last final judgment from any of the civil actions allowed pursuant to subsection (2) of this section becomes effective and any resulting claim has been paid according to law. The director of the division of real estate shall notify the revisor of statutes when the condition specified in this paragraph (b) has been satisfied.

Editor's note: Section 2 of chapter 177, Session Laws of Colorado 2005, provided that the repeal of part 3 of article 61 of title 12, as provided for in subsection (11)(b), shall be effective when the last final judgment from any of the civil actions allowed pursuant to subsection (2) becomes effective, any resulting claim has been paid according to law, and the director of the division of real estate has notified the revisor of statutes that said conditions have been satisfied. As of the publication date, the revisor of statutes has not received notice from the director of the division of real estate.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1995 repeal and reenactment of this part 3.

The fund was established to protect innocent purchasers of real estate from financially unstable brokers or salesmen who are guilty of fraudulent conduct. Richards v. Income Realty & Mtg., Inc., 654 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1982); Johns v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 697 P.2d 410 (Colo. App. 1984).

This section provides relief only for those who obtain a judgment against a licensed broker or salesman on the grounds of negligence, fraud, willful misrepresentation, deceit, or conversion of trust funds. Where plaintiff's judgments are based on breach of contract, he is ineligible for relief from the fund. Short v. Day, 708 P.2d 488 (Colo. App. 1985).

Definition of real estate broker to be liberally construed for purposes of determining who may be reimbursed from the real estate recovery fund because of the remedial purposes of the fund. Moeller v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 759 P.2d 697 (Colo. 1988).

Payment may not be obtained to satisfy certain judgments. Payment may not be obtained from the Colorado real estate recovery fund to satisfy a judgment entered against a corporation and its president as the result of fraud committed in connection with a contract to erect a residence upon the property of the plaintiffs. Lemler v. Real Estate Comm'n, 38 Colo. App. 489, 558 P.2d 591 (1976).

When secretary of state deemed agent for service. A real estate salesman, licensed at the time the claim for relief arose and upon whom service may not be made with reasonable diligence, may be deemed to have appointed the secretary of state as his agent for service of process although he is no longer licensed in Colorado. Chetelat v. District Court, 196 Colo. 473, 586 P.2d 1335 (1978).

Recovery is not precluded simply because the property sold belonged to the real estate salesman. Johns v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 697 P.2d 410 (Colo. App. 1984).

12-61-303. Simplified procedure - application for administrative order for payment from the fund - rules. (1) A person who obtains a final judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction against a real estate broker or salesperson may file a verified application with the Colorado real estate commission for an administrative order for payment from the fund of any amount remaining unpaid on the judgment. The burden shall be upon such applicant to show the validity of the application under this part 3 and to provide the commission with such information as the commission may deem necessary to determine the validity of the application.

(2) The application shall be made on a form provided by the commission, which form shall be sufficient to provide the applicant with a reasonable opportunity to show compliance with this part 3 and shall require that the applicant submit the following information:

- (a) The name, address, and telephone number of the applicant;
- (b) If the applicant is represented by an attorney, the name, business address, telephone number, and Colorado supreme court registration number of the attorney;
- (c) Identification of the underlying judgment forming the basis of the application, including the named parties, case number, and court entering judgment;
- (d) The amount of the claim and an explanation of the applicant's computation of the claim; and
- (e) Any other information the commission reasonably deems necessary to determine the validity of the application.

(3) The form provided to the applicant by the commission shall contain, in a prominent place, the following notice to the licensee judgment debtor:

NOTICE: Based on a judgment entered against you in the above-captioned matter, an application for an administrative order directing payment has been filed with the real estate commission.

If the real estate commission issues an administrative order for payment, your real estate license will automatically be revoked when the order is issued and payment is made to the applicant. Any subsequent application for a license shall not be granted until the amount paid has been reimbursed, plus interest at the statutory rate, and the passage of one year from the date of revocation.

If you wish to object to the application, you must file a written objection, setting forth the specific grounds for such objection, with the commission within thirty days after having been served with a copy of the application. If you do not file a written objection, you waive your right to defend against the claim.

(4) The applicant shall also be required to show that:

- (a) There is no collusion between the applicant and the judgment debtor or any other person liable to the applicant in the transaction for which the applicant seeks payment from the fund;
- (b) The judgment debtor was licensed as a real estate broker or salesperson at the time of the transaction;
- (c) The judgment debtor was acting in a real estate transaction as a real estate broker or salesperson, performing acts for which a real estate broker's or salesperson's license is required under this article, or that the transaction involved acts for which a real estate license was required and the judgment debtor was acting as a principal, not an agent, in that transaction;
- (d) The judgment debtor committed fraud, willful misrepresentation, or conversion of trust funds;

(d.5) The judgment debtor committed negligence and did not, at the time of the negligent act or omission, have in effect a complying policy of errors and omissions insurance coverage pursuant to section 12-61-103.6;

(e) The application was not filed more than one year after finality of the judgment against the judgment debtor, including appeals;

(f) The applicant has reasonably sought to obtain a judgment against all persons and entities that are liable to the applicant for losses suffered in the transaction upon which the fund claim is based;

(g) The applicant has made reasonable searches and inquiries to ascertain whether there exists real or personal property or other assets available to satisfy the judgment in the underlying civil action and has undertaken reasonable legal means to reach such assets or other property in satisfaction of the judgment;

(h) The judgment debtor has been served with a copy of the application as required by subsection (5) of this section.

(5) When any person files an application with the commission requesting the issuance of an administrative order for payment from the fund, a copy of the verified application including the notice required by subsection (3) of this section and any other documents filed with the application shall be served upon the licensee judgment debtor by the applicant within twenty days after the date upon which the application is filed. A certificate or affidavit of such service shall be filed with the commission. Service upon a licensee judgment debtor shall be made according to the Colorado rules of civil procedure and subsection (6) of this section.

(6) (a) Service upon any real estate broker who is licensed or who renews a license under part 1 of this article on or after January 1, 2008, and upon whom personal service cannot be made with reasonable diligence shall be upon the registered agent of such real estate broker. If the real estate broker has no registered agent, the registered agent is not located under its registered agent name at its registered agent address, or the registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the real estate broker may be served by registered mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the entity at its principal address. Service is perfected under this subsection (6) at the earliest of:

(I) The date the real estate broker receives the process, notice, or demand;

(II) The date shown on the return receipt, if signed by or on behalf of the real estate broker; or

(III) Five days after mailing.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2008, p. 498, § 6, effective April 17, 2008.)

(7) The judgment debtor shall have thirty days after being served with the application within which to file a written objection to payment from the fund by the commission. Such objection shall be served upon the commission in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure and shall clearly set forth the grounds upon which the objection is made. Failure to file such an objection shall constitute waiver of any right to proceed under section 12-61-304.

(8) (a) If the commission determines that an application is complete and valid, the commission may, by administrative order:

(I) Pay the requested amount or such lesser amount as the commission may deem appropriate;

(II) Settle the claim with the applicant for an appropriate agreed amount; or

(III) Deny the application on the grounds that the application does not demonstrate compliance with this part 3.

(b) Such administrative determination shall be promptly made by the commission or its designee in writing in the form of an administrative order and, if the application is denied, setting forth the general grounds therefor.

(c) Such administrative order shall be sent by regular mail to the applicant and the judgment debtor at their last known addresses according to records of the commission.

(9) The commission may adopt rules implementing this part 3 in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1995 repeal and reenactment of this part 3.

Notice requirement mandatory. Subsection (1) imposes a mandatory burden on a person to affirmatively give notice to the commission at the time he commences an action which might subsequently impact the real estate recovery fund. Since the fund creates a right against a state agency not existing at common law and requires that certain conditions be met by persons seeking its benefits, strict compliance with such statutory conditions, including notice, is mandatory. Slabey v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 762 P.2d 734 (Colo. App. 1988); Albrecht v. Parker, 802 P.2d 1151 (Colo. App. 1990).

1987 amendments which provided for procedural requirements to enforce previously vested rights were applied retroactively since that was the legislative intent. Davis v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 796 P.2d 40 (Colo. App. 1990).

Notices of court proceedings need to be served by the judgment creditor and not by the commission. Davis v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 796 P.2d 40 (Colo. App. 1990).

Trial court properly dismissed action because the judgment debtor had not been given statutory notice. Davis v. Colo. Real Estate Comm'n, 796 P.2d 40 (Colo. App. 1990).

Payment may not be obtained to satisfy certain judgments. Payment may not be obtained from the Colorado real estate recovery fund to satisfy a judgment entered against a corporation and its president as the result of fraud committed in connection with a contract to erect a residence upon the property of the plaintiffs. Lemler v. Real Estate Comm'n, 38 Colo. App. 489, 558 P.2d 591 (1976).

Commission's findings not introduced into evidence are not binding. Findings of the commission, when attached to the plaintiff's motion to make the commission a party, but not introduced into evidence at the hearing and not referred to by the trial court in its findings, are not evidence in a case and are not binding on the trial court. Tenderfoot Mt. Props. v. Jones, 626 P.2d 703 (Colo. App. 1980).

12-61-304. Procedure upon objection to payment or denial of application. (1) If the commission issues an administrative order that denies an application for payment from the fund in whole or in part, the applicant may file a verified petition for payment from the fund in the court that entered the judgment on which the application is based. When an applicant files such a petition, the applicant shall serve a copy of the verified petition, including the notice required by subsection (2) of this section upon the real estate commission and upon the licensee judgment debtor in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure and section 12-61-303 (6). A certificate or affidavit of such service shall be filed with the court.

(2) When a petition is filed with the court pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the petition shall be accompanied by a notice that shall state as follows:

NOTICE: Based on a judgment entered against you in the above-captioned matter, a petition for an order directing payment has been filed with the court.

If the real estate commission makes a payment pursuant to a court order based upon this petition, your real estate license will automatically be revoked when the court order becomes final and payment is made. Any subsequent application for a license shall not be granted until the amount paid has been reimbursed, plus interest at the statutory rate, and the passage of one year from the date of revocation.

If you wish to defend against this claim, you must file a written response with the court and mail a copy to the party filing the petition and to the real estate commission within thirty days after having been served with this notice. If you do not file a written response, you waive your right to defend against the claim.

(3) If the judgment debtor files an objection to the issuance of an administrative order for payment from the fund in accordance with section 12-61-303 (7) and the commission issues an administrative order directing payment from the fund, the judgment debtor may file a verified petition objecting to payment from the fund in the court that entered the judgment on which the application was based. When a judgment debtor files such a petition, the judgment debtor shall serve a copy of the petition upon the real estate commission and the applicant in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure. A certificate or affidavit of such service shall be filed with the court.

(4) A petition filed with a court pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be in the form of a pleading and shall comply with the rules of procedure applicable to the court in which it is filed. Such petition shall be filed in the appropriate court no later than thirty days from the date upon which the administrative order is mailed by the commission pursuant to section 12-61-303 (8). The petition shall be accompanied by a verified copy of the application form and any attached documents that were filed with the commission.

(5) The real estate commission and any person served with a petition pursuant to this section shall have thirty days after service of the petition within which to file a written answer. The court shall thereafter set the matter for hearing.

(6) At a hearing under subsection (5) of this section, the party filing the petition shall be required to show compliance, or lack thereof, with sections 12-61-302 to 12-61-304. Such hearing shall be on the merits of the application and shall not be in the nature of judicial review of the administrative order issued by the commission or of the procedure employed in issuing such order.

12-61-305. Commission may defend against petition - burden of proof - presumption - compromise of claims. The real estate commission may, on behalf of the fund, defend against a petition filed pursuant to section 12-61-304 and shall have recourse to all appropriate means of defense and appeal, including examination of witnesses and the right to relitigate any issues that were material and relevant to the proceeding against the fund and that were finally adjudicated in the underlying action on which the judgment in favor of the applicant was based. If such judgment was by default, stipulation, or consent, or whenever the action against the licensee judgment debtor was defended by a trustee in bankruptcy, the applicant shall have the burden of producing evidence of, and the burden of proving, the negligence, fraud, willful misrepresentation, or conversion of trust funds by the licensee judgment debtor; otherwise, the judgment shall create a rebuttable presumption of the negligence, fraud, willful misrepresentation, or conversion of trust funds by the licensee, and such presumption shall affect the burden of producing evidence. The real estate commission may, subject to court approval, settle a claim based upon the petition of an applicant and shall not be bound by any prior compromise of the judgment debtor.

ANNOTATION

This section does not, on its face, conflict with 11 U.S.C. § 525 of the federal bankruptcy code which prohibits the suspension or revocation of a license solely because person has not paid debt which was discharged in bankruptcy. Payment from the fund because of the debt may trigger a suspension or revocation hearing but factors other than the nonpayment of the debt must be present in order to suspend or revoke the license. In re Fasse, 40 Bankr. 198 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1984); In re Phillips, 40 Bankr. 194 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1984) (decided under § 12-61-304 as it existed prior to the 1995 repeal and reenactment of this part 3).

12-61-306. Defense against petition - conclusive adjudication of issues. The judgment debtor may defend an action against the fund and shall have recourse to all appropriate means of defense and appeal, including examination of witnesses; except that matters finally adjudicated in the underlying action, including, but not limited to, the issues of negligence, fraud, willful misrepresentation, or conversion of trust funds, are conclusive against both the licensee judgment debtor and the applicant and may not be relitigated.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under § 12-61-305 as it existed prior to the 1995 repeal and reenactment of this part 3.

This section is unconstitutional when applied to bankruptcy debtor proceedings under federal bankruptcy law because it violates the supremacy clause of the United States constitution. In compelling repayment to the recovery fund or in the alternative, automatic loss of license and livelihood, this section appears to frustrate and defeat the federal law granting debtors a "fresh start". In re Harris, 85 Bankr. 858 (Bankr. D. Colo. 1988).

Applied in Tenderfoot Mt. Props. v. Jones, 626 P.2d 703 (Colo. App. 1980).

12-61-307. Automatic revocation of license - reinstatement. (1) Should the real estate commission pay from the fund any amount in settlement of a claim or toward satisfaction of a judgment against a licensed broker or salesperson, either by administrative order or by order of the court, the license of the broker or salesperson shall be automatically revoked upon the final date of such order.

(2) No such broker or salesperson shall be eligible to be licensed again until such broker or salesperson has repaid in full, plus interest at the statutory rate, the amount paid from the fund on the broker or salesperson's account and one year has passed from the date of revocation.

12-61-308. Distribution from fund - fund insufficient to pay claims - delayed distribution authorized. (1) Upon the issuance by the commission of an administrative order directing that payment be made out of the fund, or upon the entry of such an order by a court of competent jurisdiction, the controller is authorized to draw a warrant for the payment of the same upon a voucher approved by the real estate commission, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same out of the fund.

(2) If at any time the balance remaining in the fund is insufficient to satisfy any duly authorized claim or portion thereof, the real estate commission, when sufficient money has been deposited in the fund, shall satisfy such unpaid claims or portions thereof, in the order that such claims or portions thereof were originally filed, plus accumulated interest at the rate of four percent per year.

(3) After an administrative order for payment from the fund has been issued by the commission, the commission may delay payment in order to allow the filing periods in section 12-61-304 to expire. In the event that a petition is filed pursuant to section 12-61-304, payment pursuant to the administrative order shall be withheld pending the outcome of the court proceeding on the petition.

12-61-309. Subrogation of rights. (1) When, upon administrative order of the real estate commission or of any court, the real estate commission has made payment from the fund to an applicant, the real estate commission shall be subrogated to the rights of the applicant with respect to the amount so paid.

(2) Up to an amount equal to five percent of the payment to an applicant may be drawn from the fund and expended by the real estate commission for the purpose of enforcing the rights of a particular applicant to which the commission is subrogated pursuant to this section.

PART 4

SUBDIVISIONS

Cross references: (1) For additional definitions relating to this part, see § 38-30-150.

(2) For regulation of subdivisions by planning commissions, see part 1 of article 28 of title 30 and part 2 of article 23 of title 31.

12-61-401. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Commission” means the real estate commission established under section 12-61-105.

(2) “Developer” means any person, as defined in section 2-4-401 (8), C.R.S., which participates as owner, promoter, or sales agent in the promotion, sale, or lease of a subdivision or any part thereof.

(2.5) “HOA” or “homeowners’ association” means an association or unit owners’ association formed before, on, or after July 1, 1992, as part of a common interest community as defined in section 38-33.3-103, C.R.S.

(3) (a) “Subdivision” means any real property divided into twenty or more interests intended solely for residential use and offered for sale, lease, or transfer.

(b) (I) The term “subdivision” also includes:

(A) The conversion of an existing structure into a common interest community of twenty or more residential units, as defined in article 33.3 of title 38, C.R.S.;

(B) A group of twenty or more time shares intended for residential use; and

(C) A group of twenty or more proprietary leases in a cooperative housing corporation, as defined in article 33.5 of title 38, C.R.S.

(II) The term “subdivision” does not include:

(A) The selling of memberships in campgrounds;

(B) Bulk sales and transfers between developers;

(C) Property upon which there has been or upon which there will be erected residential buildings that have not been previously occupied and where the consideration paid for such property includes the cost of such buildings;

(D) Lots which, at the time of closing of a sale or occupancy under a lease, are situated on a street or road and street or road system improved to standards at least equal to streets and roads maintained by the county, city, or town in which the lots are located; have a feasible plan to provide potable water and sewage disposal; and have telephone and electricity facilities and systems adequate to serve the lots, which facilities and systems are installed and in place on the lots or in a street, road, or easement adjacent to the lots and which facilities and systems comply with applicable state, county, municipal, or other local laws, rules, and regulations; or any subdivision that has been or is required to be approved after September 1, 1972, by a regional, county, or municipal planning authority pursuant to article 28 of title 30 or article 23 of title 31, C.R.S.;

(E) Sales by public officials in the official conduct of their duties.

(4) “Time share” means a time share estate, as defined in section 38-33-110 (5), C.R.S., or a time share use, but the term does not include group reservations made for convention purposes as a single transaction with a hotel, motel, or condominium owner or association. For the purposes of this subsection (4), “time share use” means a contractual or membership right of occupancy (which cannot be terminated at the will of the owner) for life or for a term of years, to the recurrent, exclusive use or occupancy of a lot, parcel, unit, or specific or nonspecific segment of real property, annually or on some other periodic basis, for a period of time that has been or will be allotted from the use or occupancy periods into which the property has been divided.

12-61-402. Registration required. (1) Unless exempt under the provisions of section 12-61-401 (3), a developer, before selling, leasing, or transferring or agreeing or negotiating to sell, lease, or transfer, directly or indirectly, any subdivision or any part thereof, shall register pursuant to this part 4.

(2) Upon approval by the commission, a developer who has applied for registration pursuant to section 12-61-403 may offer reservations in a subdivision during the pendency of such application and until such application is granted or denied if the fees for such reservations are held in trust by an independent third party and are fully refundable.

The purpose of the general assembly is to eliminate fraudulent promotions, and this is a proper exercise of the police power, which may be exercised not only to protect the health, safety, and morals of the public, but also to safeguard the public from financial loss caused by the fraud of others. People v. Maxwell, 162 Colo. 495, 427 P.2d 310 (1967).

The registration of subdivision developers statute requires that subdivision developers of a tract containing a group of 20 or more building sites not intended for commercial or industrial use must apply to the real estate commission and receive a certificate of registration as a subdivision developer before engaging in the promotion and sale of the sites. People v. Maxwell, 162 Colo. 495, 427 P.2d 310 (1967).

12-61-403. Application for registration. (1) Every person who is required to register as a developer under this part 4 shall submit to the commission an application which contains the information described in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. If such information is not submitted, the commission may deny the application for registration. If a developer is currently regulated in another state that has registration requirements substantially equivalent to the requirements of this part 4 or that provide substantially comparable protection to a purchaser, the commission may accept proof of such registration along with the developer's disclosure or equivalent statement from the other state in full or partial satisfaction of the information required by this section. In addition, the applicant shall be under a continuing obligation to notify the commission within ten days of any change in the information so submitted, and a failure to do so shall be a cause for disciplinary action.

(2) (a) Registration information concerning the developer shall include:

(I) The principal office of the applicant wherever situate;

(II) The location of the principal office and the branch offices of the applicant in this state;

(III) Repealed.

(IV) The names and residence and business addresses of all natural persons who have a twenty-four percent or greater financial or ultimate beneficial interest in the business of the developer, either directly or indirectly, as principal, manager, member, partner, officer, director, or stockholder, specifying each such person's capacity, title, and percentage of ownership. If no natural person has a twenty-four percent or greater financial or beneficial interest in the business of the developer, the information required in this subparagraph (IV) shall be submitted regarding the natural person having the largest single financial or beneficial interest.

(V) The length of time and the locations where the applicant has been engaged in the business of real estate sales or development;

(VI) Any felony of which the applicant has been convicted within the preceding ten years. In determining whether a certificate of registration shall be issued to an applicant who has been convicted of a felony within such period of time, the commission shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(VII) The states in which the applicant has had a license or registration similar to the developer's registration in this state granted, refused, suspended, or revoked or is currently the subject of an investigation or charges that could result in refusal, suspension, or revocation;

(VIII) Whether the developer or any other person financially interested in the business of the developer as principal, partner, officer, director, or stockholder has engaged in any activity that would constitute a violation of this part 4.

(b) If the applicant is a corporate developer, a copy of the certificate of authority to do business in this state or a certificate of incorporation issued by the secretary of state shall accompany the application.

(3) Registration information concerning the subdivision shall include:

(a) The location of each subdivision from which sales are intended to be made;

(b) The name of each subdivision and the trade, corporate, or partnership name used by the developer;

(c) Evidence or certification that each subdivision offered for sale or lease is registered or will be registered in accordance with state or local requirements of the state in which each subdivision is located;

(d) Copies of documents evidencing the title or other interest in the subdivision;

(e) If there is a blanket encumbrance upon the title of the subdivision or any other ownership, leasehold, or contractual interest that could defeat all possessory or ownership rights of a purchaser, a copy of the instruments creating such liens, encumbrances, or interests, with dates as to the recording, along with documentary evidence that any beneficiary, mortgagee, or trustee of a deed of trust or any other holder of such ownership, leasehold, or contractual interest will release any lot or time share from the blanket encumbrance or has subordinated its interest in the subdivision to the interest of any purchaser or has established any other arrangement acceptable to the real estate commission that protects the rights of the purchaser;

(f) A statement that standard commission-approved forms will be used for contracts of sale, notes, deeds, and other legal documents used to effectuate the sale or lease of the subdivision or any part thereof, unless the forms to be used were prepared by an attorney representing the developer;

(g) A true statement by the developer that, in any conveyance by means of an installment contract, the purchaser shall be advised to record the contract with the proper authorities in the jurisdiction in which the subdivision is located. In no event shall any developer specifically prohibit the recording of the installment contract.

(h) A true statement by the developer of the provisions for and availability of legal access, sewage disposal, and public utilities, including water, electricity, gas, and telephone facilities, in the subdivision offered for sale or lease, including whether such are to be a developer or purchaser expense;

(i) A true statement as to whether or not a survey of each lot, site, or tract offered for sale or lease from such subdivision has been made and whether survey monuments are in place;

(i.5) A true statement by the developer as to whether or not a common interest community is to be or has been created within the subdivision and whether or not such common interest community is or will be a small cooperative or small and limited expense planned community created pursuant to section 38-33.3-116, C.R.S.;

(j) A true statement by the developer concerning the existence of any common interest community association, including whether the developer controls funds in such association.

(3.5) The commission may disapprove the form of the documents submitted pursuant to paragraph (f) of subsection (3) of this section and may deny an application for registration until such time as the applicant submits such documents in a form that is satisfactory to the commission.

(4) Repealed.

(5) Each registration shall be accompanied by fees established pursuant to section 12-61-111.5.

Editor's note: Amendments to this section and subsection (2) by Senate Bill 79-457 and House Bill 79-1231 were harmonized.

12-61-404. Registration of developers. (1) The commission shall register all applicants who meet the requirements of this part 4 and provide each applicant so registered with a certificate indicating that the developer named therein is registered in the state of Colorado as a subdivision developer. The developer which will sign as seller or lessor in any contract of sale, lease, or deed purporting to convey any site, tract, lot, or divided or undivided interest from a subdivision shall secure a certificate before offering, negotiating, or agreeing to sell, lease, or transfer before such sale, lease, or transfer is made. If such person or entity is acting only as a trustee, the beneficial owner of the subdivision shall secure a certificate. A certificate issued to a developer shall entitle all sales agents and employees of such developer to act in the capacity of a developer as agent for such developer. The developer shall be responsible for all actions of such sales agents and employees.

(2) All certificates issued under this section shall expire on December 31 following the date of issuance. In the absence of any reason or condition under this part 4 that might warrant the denial or revocation of a registration, a certificate shall be renewed by payment of a renewal fee established pursuant to section 12-61-111.5. A registration that has expired may be reinstated within two years after such expiration upon payment of the appropriate renewal fee if the applicant meets all other requirements of this part 4.

(3) All fees collected under this part 4 shall be deposited in accordance with section 12-61-111.

(4) With regard to any subdivision for which the information required by section 12-61-403 (3) has not been previously submitted to the commission, each registered developer shall register such subdivision by providing the commission with such information before sale, lease, or transfer, or negotiating or agreeing to sell, lease, or transfer, any such subdivision or any part thereof.

12-61-405. Refusal, revocation, or suspension of registration - letter of admonition - probation. (1) The commission may impose an administrative fine not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars for each separate offense; may issue a letter of admonition; may place a registrant on probation under its close supervision on such terms and for such time as it deems appropriate; and may refuse, revoke, or suspend the registration of any developer or registrant if, after an investigation and after notice and a hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-104, C.R.S., the commission determines that the developer or any director, officer, or stockholder with controlling interest in the corporation:

(a) Has used false or misleading advertising or has made a false or misleading statement or a concealment in his application for registration;

(b) Has misrepresented or concealed any material fact from a purchaser of any interest in a subdivision;

(c) Has employed any device, scheme, or artifice with intent to defraud a purchaser of any interest in a subdivision;

(d) Has been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a crime involving fraud, deception, false pretense, theft, misrepresentation, false advertising, or dishonest dealing in any court;

(e) Has disposed of, concealed, diverted, converted, or otherwise failed to account for any funds or assets of any purchaser of any interest in a subdivision or any homeowners' association under the control of such developer or director, officer, or stockholder;

(f) Has failed to comply with any stipulation or agreement made with the commission;

(g) Has failed to comply with or has violated any provision of this article, including any failure to comply with the registration requirements of section 12-61-403, or any lawful rule or regulation promulgated by the commission under this article;

(h) (Deleted by amendment, L. 89, p. 740, § 17, effective July 1, 1989.)

(i) Has refused to honor a buyer's request to cancel a contract for the purchase of a time share or subdivision or part thereof if such request was made within five calendar days after execution of the contract and was made either by telegram, mail, or hand delivery. A request is considered made if by mail when postmarked, if by telegram when filed for telegraphic transmission, or if by hand delivery when delivered to the seller's place of business. No developer shall employ a contract that contains any provision waiving a buyer's right to such a cancellation period.

(j) Has committed any act that constitutes a violation of the "Colorado Consumer Protection Act", article 1 of title 6, C.R.S.;

(k) Has employed any sales agent or employee who violates the provisions of this part 4;

(l) Has used documents for sales or lease transactions other than those described in section 12-61-403 (3) (f);

(m) Has failed to disclose encumbrances to prospective purchasers or has failed to transfer clear title at the time of sale, if the parties agreed that such transfer would be made at that time.

(1.5) A disciplinary action relating to the business of subdivision development taken by any other state or local jurisdiction or the federal government shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action, including denial of registration, under this part 4. This subsection (1.5) shall apply only to such disciplinary actions as are substantially similar to those set out as grounds for disciplinary action or denial of registration under this part 4.

(2) Any hearing held under this section shall be in accordance with the procedures established in sections 24-4-105 and 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(2.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the commission, does not initially warrant formal action by the commission but which should not be dismissed as being without merit, the commission may send a letter of admonition by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the registrant who is the subject of the complaint or investigation and a copy thereof to any person making such complaint. Such letter shall advise the registrant that he has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after proven receipt, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated against him to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based. If such request is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated, and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(3) All administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of real estate cash fund.

Serving the period of suspension of registration under this section does not render the appeal of a suspension decision moot due to the possible injury to good will and reputation the public nature of such a decision can cause. Coronado Dev. Corp. v. Real Estate Comm'n, 40 Colo. App. 328, 574 P.2d 514 (1978).

Penal standards need specificity in order to be imposed. While the state needs to define offensive conduct of subdividers in language broad enough to allow revocation of a license where the public is being harmed, penalties cannot be imposed for violations of a standard whose meaning is dependent upon surmise or conjecture or uncontrolled application by the board imposing the penalty, and where ambiguous criteria such as "reputation" and "unethical practices" are sought to be the basis of a license revocation, they must be struck down as unconstitutionally void. LDS, Inc. v. Healy, 197 Colo. 19, 589 P.2d 490 (1979) (decided under former law).

12-61-406. Powers of commission - injunction - rules. (1) The commission may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order enjoining any act or practice which constitutes a violation of this part 4, and, upon a showing that a person is engaging or intends to engage in any such act or practice, an injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate order shall be granted by such court, regardless of the existence of another remedy therefor. Any notice, hearing, or duration of any injunction or restraining order shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(1.2) The commission may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of receiver if it determines that such appointment is necessary to protect the property or interests of purchasers of a subdivision or part thereof.

(1.5) The commission shall issue or deny a certificate or additional registration within sixty days from the date of receipt of the application by the commission. The commission may make necessary investigations and inspections to determine whether any developer has violated this part 4 or any lawful rule or regulation promulgated by the commission. If, after an application by a developer has been submitted pursuant to section 12-61-403 or information has been submitted pursuant to section 12-61-404, the commission determines that an inspection of a subdivision is necessary, it shall complete the inspection within sixty days from the date of filing of the application or information, or the right of inspection is waived and the lack thereof shall not be grounds for denial of a registration.

(1.6) The commission, the director for the commission, or the administrative law judge appointed for a hearing may issue a subpoena compelling the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, or records pursuant to an investigation or hearing of such commission. Any such subpoena shall be served in the same manner as for subpoenas issued by district courts.

(2) The commission has the power to make any rules necessary for the enforcement or administration of this part 4.

(2.5) The commission shall adopt, promulgate, amend, or repeal such rules and regulations as are necessary to:

(a) Require written disclosures to any purchasers as provided in subsection (3) of this section and to prescribe and require that standardized forms be used by subdivision developers in connection with the sale or lease of a subdivision or any part thereof, except as otherwise provided in section 12-61-403 (3) (f); and

(b) Require that developers maintain certain business records for a period of at least seven years.

(3) The commission may require any developer to make written disclosures to purchasers in their contracts of sale or by separate written documents if the commission finds that such disclosures are necessary for the protection of such purchasers.

(4) The commission or its designated representative may audit the accounts of any homeowner association the funds of which are controlled by a developer.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For comment, "State and Local Regulation of Timesharing in Colorado", see 56 U. Colo. L. Rev. 289 (1985).

12-61-406.5. HOA information and resource center - creation - duties - rules - cash fund - repeal. (1) There is hereby created, within the division of real estate, the HOA information and resource center, the head of which shall be the HOA information officer. The HOA information officer shall be appointed by the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

(2) The HOA information officer shall be familiar with the "Colorado Common Interest Ownership Act", article 33.3 of title 38, C.R.S., also referred to in this section as the "act". No person who is or, within the immediately preceding ten years, has been licensed by or registered with the division of real estate or who owns stocks, bonds, or any pecuniary interest in a corporation subject in whole or in part to regulation by the division of real estate shall be appointed as HOA information officer. In addition, in conducting the search for an appointee, the executive director of the division of real estate shall place a high premium on candidates who are balanced, independent, unbiased, and without any current financial ties to an HOA board or board member or to any person or entity that provides HOA management services. After being appointed, the HOA information officer shall refrain from engaging in any conduct or relationship that would create a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest.

(3) (a) The HOA information officer shall act as a clearing house for information concerning the basic rights and duties of unit owners, declarants, and unit owners' associations under the act.

(b) The HOA information officer:

(I) May employ one or more assistants, up to a maximum of 1.0 FTE, as may be necessary to carry out his or her duties; and

(II) Shall track inquiries and complaints and report annually to the director of the division of real estate regarding the number and types of inquiries and complaints received.

(4) The operating expenses of the HOA information and resource center shall be paid from the HOA information and resource center cash fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund shall consist of annual registration fees paid by unit owners' associations and collected by the division of real estate pursuant to section 38-33.3-401,

C.R.S. Interest earned on moneys in the fund shall remain in the fund, and any unexpended and unencumbered moneys in the fund at the end of any fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund or any other fund. Payments from the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation.

(5) The director of the division of real estate may adopt rules as necessary to implement this section and section 38-33.3-401, C.R.S. This subsection (5) shall not be construed to confer additional rule-making authority upon the director for any other purpose.

(6) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2020. Prior to such repeal, the HOA information and resource center and the HOA information officer's powers and duties under this section shall be reviewed in accordance with section 24-34-104, C.R.S.

12-61-702. Definitions. As used in this part 7, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Appraisal”, “appraisal report”, or “real estate appraisal” means a written analysis, opinion, or conclusion relating to the nature, quality, value, or utility of specified interests in, or aspects of, identified real estate. Such terms include a valuation, which is an opinion of the value of real estate, and an analysis, which is a general study of real estate not specifically performed only to determine value; except that such terms include any valuation completed by any appraiser employee of a county assessor as defined in section 39-1-102 (2), C.R.S. Such terms do not include an analysis, valuation, opinion, conclusion, notation, or compilation of data by an officer, director, or regular salaried employee of a financial institution or its affiliate, made for internal use only by the said financial institution or affiliate, concerning an interest in real estate that is owned or held as collateral by the said financial institution or affiliate which is not represented or deemed to be an appraisal except to the said financial institution, the agencies regulating the said financial institution, and any secondary markets that purchase real estate secured loans. Any such appraisal prepared by an officer, director, or regular salaried employee of said financial institution who is not registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 shall contain a written notice that the preparer is not registered, licensed, or certified as an appraiser under this part 7.

Editor’s note: This version of subsection (1) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(1) “Appraisal”, “appraisal report”, or “real estate appraisal” means a written or oral analysis, opinion, or conclusion relating to the nature, quality, value, or utility of specified interests in, or aspects of, identified real estate that is transmitted to the client upon the completion of an assignment. These terms include a valuation, which is an opinion of the value of real estate, and an analysis, which is a general study of real estate not specifically performed only to determine value; except that the terms include a valuation completed by an appraiser employee of a county assessor as defined in section 39-1-102 (2), C.R.S. The terms do not include an analysis, valuation, opinion, conclusion, notation, or compilation of data by an officer, director, or regular salaried employee of a financial institution or its affiliate, made for internal use only by the financial institution or affiliate, concerning an interest in real estate that is owned or held as collateral by the financial institution or affiliate and that is not represented or deemed to be an appraisal except to the financial institution, the agencies regulating the financial institution, and any secondary markets that purchase real estate secured loans. An appraisal prepared by an officer, director, or regular salaried employee of a financial institution who is not registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 shall contain a written notice that the preparer is not registered, licensed, or certified as an appraiser under this part 7.

Editor’s note: This version of subsection (1) is effective July 1, 2013.

(1.5) (a) “Appraisal management company” means, in connection with valuing properties collateralizing mortgage loans or mortgages incorporated into a securitization, any external third party authorized either by a creditor in a consumer credit transaction secured by a consumer’s principal dwelling that oversees a network or panel of licensed or certified appraisers or by an underwriter of, or other principal in, the secondary mortgage markets that oversees a network or panel of licensed or certified appraisers.

(b) “Appraisal management company” does not include:

(I) A corporation, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, or other entity that directly performs appraisal services;

(II) A corporation, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, or other entity that does not contract with appraisers for appraisal services, but solely distributes orders to a client-selected panel of appraisers; and

(III) A mortgage company, or its subsidiary, that manages a panel of appraisers who are engaged to provide appraisal services on mortgage loans either originated by the mortgage company or funded by the mortgage company with its own funds.

Editor's note: Subsection (1.5) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2) "Board" means the board of real estate appraisers created in section 12-61-703.

(2.1) "Client" means the party or parties who engage an appraiser or an appraisal management company for a specific assignment.

Editor's note: Subsection (2.1) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2.3) "Commission" means the conservation easement oversight commission created in section 12-61-721 (1).

(2.5) "Consulting services" means services performed by an appraiser that do not fall within the definition of an "independent appraisal" in subsection (4.5) of this section. "Consulting services" includes, but is not limited to, marketing, financing and feasibility studies, valuations, analyses, and opinions and conclusions given in connection with real estate brokerage, mortgage banking, and counseling and advocacy in regard to property tax assessments and appeals thereof; except that, if in rendering such services the appraiser acts as a disinterested third party, the work shall be deemed an independent appraisal and not a consulting service. Nothing in this subsection (2.5) shall be construed to preclude a person from acting as an expert witness in valuation appeals.

(3) "Director" means the director of the division of real estate.

(4) "Division" means the division of real estate.

(4.3) "Financial institution" means any "bank" or "savings association" as such terms are defined in 12 U.S.C. sec. 1813, any state or industrial bank incorporated under title 11, C.R.S., any state or federally chartered credit union, or any company which has direct or indirect control over any of such entities.

(4.5) "Independent appraisal" means an engagement for which an appraiser is employed or retained to act as a disinterested third party in rendering an unbiased analysis, opinion, or conclusion relating to the nature, quality, value, or utility of specified interests in or aspects of identified real estate.

(5) (a) "Real estate appraiser" or "appraiser" means any person who provides for a fee or a salary an opinion of the nature, quality, value, or utility of an interest in, or aspect of, identified real estate and includes one who estimates value and who possesses the necessary qualifications, ability, and experience to execute or direct the appraisal of real property.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(a) "Real estate appraiser" or "appraiser" means a person who provides an estimate of the nature, quality, value, or utility of an interest in, or aspect of, identified real estate and includes one who estimates value and who possesses the necessary qualifications, ability, and experience to execute or direct the appraisal of real property.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective July 1, 2013.

(b) "Real estate appraiser" does not include:

(I) Any person who conducts appraisals strictly of personal property;

(II) Any person licensed as a broker pursuant to part 1 of this article who provides an opinion of value that is not represented as an appraisal and is not used for purposes of obtaining financing;

(III) Any person licensed as a certified public accountant pursuant to article 2 of this title, and otherwise regulated, provided such opinions of value for real estate are not represented as an appraisal;

(IV) Any corporation, which is acting through its officers or regular salaried employees, when conducting a valuation of real estate property rights owned, to be purchased, or sold by the corporation;

(V) Any person who conducts appraisals strictly of water rights or of mineral rights;

(VI) Any right-of-way acquisition agent employed by a public entity who provides an opinion of value that is not represented as an appraisal when the property being valued is five thousand dollars or less;

(VII) Any officer, director, or regular salaried employee of a financial institution or its affiliate who makes, for internal use only by the said financial institution or affiliate, an analysis, evaluation, opinion, conclusion, notation, or compilation of data with respect to an appraisal so long as such person does not make a written adjustment of the appraisal's conclusion as to the value of the subject real property;

(VIII) Any officer, director, or regular salaried employee of a financial institution or its affiliate who makes such an internal analysis, valuation, opinion, conclusion, notation, or compilation of data concerning an interest in real estate that is owned or held as collateral by the financial institution or its affiliate.

ANNOTATION

This section does not prohibit a person licensed as a real estate broker from testifying as to an opinion of value before the Colorado state board of assessment appeals so long as such opinion is not represented as an appraisal. Miller v. Boulder County Bd. of Equaliz., 990 P.2d 1114 (Colo. App. 1998).

A real estate broker may be qualified as an expert witness before the Colorado state board of assessment appeals as to value of a car dealership so long as such broker's opinion is not represented as an appraisal. Miller v. Boulder County Bd. of Equaliz., 990 P.2d 1114 (Colo. App. 1998).

Based on the comprehensive legislative structure regulating them, real estate appraisers practice a profession involving knowledge or skill, and their conduct should be judged according to the tenets of their field. Therefore, a buyer's negligence claim against real estate appraisers for inaccurate appraisals involved professional negligence. Hice v. Lott, 223 P.3d 139 (Colo. App. 2009).

Establishing a standard of care in a professional negligence case normally requires an expert to explain it because ordinary persons are not conversant with it. The issue of whether a dwelling was a "mobile home" or a "modular home", and the effect of that determination on the dwelling's appraised value, were beyond the experience of ordinary jurors, even when assisted by generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice. Thus, expert testimony was necessary to establish the standard of care an appraiser must employ when appraising a structure that may be a "mobile home". Hice v. Lott, 223 P.3d 139 (Colo. App. 2009).

12-61-703. Board of real estate appraisers - creation - compensation - immunity - repeal of part. (1) There is hereby created in the division a board of real estate appraisers consisting of seven members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. Of such members, three shall be licensed or certified appraisers, one of whom shall have expertise in eminent domain matters, one shall be a county assessor in office, one shall be an officer or employee of a commercial bank experienced in real estate lending, and two shall be members of the public at large not engaged in any of the businesses represented by the other members of the board. Of the members of the board appointed for terms beginning July 1, 1990, the commercial bank member, the county assessor member, and two of the appraiser members shall be appointed for terms of three years, and the public member and the remaining appraiser members shall be appointed for terms of one year. Members of the board appointed after July 1, 1990, shall hold office for a term of three years. The additional public member of the board of real estate appraisers authorized by this subsection (1) shall not be appointed before the earliest date on which one of the four appraiser members' terms expires after July 1, 1996. In the event of a vacancy by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, the governor shall appoint a member to fill the unexpired term. The governor shall have the authority to remove any member for misconduct, neglect of duty, or incompetence.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective until July 1, 2013.

The governor has the authority to remove any member for misconduct, neglect of duty, or incompetence.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2) The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions under the division as if transferred thereto by a type 1 transfer as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.

(2.5) (a) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that the organization of the board under the division as a type 1 agency will provide the autonomy necessary to avoid potential conflicts of interest between the responsibility of the board in the regulation of real estate appraisers and the responsibility of the division in the regulation of real estate brokers and salesmen. The general assembly further finds, determines, and declares that the placement of the board as a type 1 agency under the division is consistent with the organizational structure of state government.

(b) and (c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 1190, § 3, effective July 1, 1996.)

(3) Each member of the board shall receive the same compensation and reimbursement of expenses as those provided for members of boards and commissions in the division of professions and occupations pursuant to section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S. Payment for all such per diem compensation and expenses shall be made out of annual appropriations from the division of real estate cash fund provided for in section 12-61-705.

(4) Members of the board, consultants, and expert witnesses shall be immune from suit in any civil action based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts they performed in good faith pursuant to this part 7.

(5) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, and actions of the board shall require a vote of a majority of such members present in favor of the action taken.

(6) This part 7 is repealed, effective July 1, 2013. Prior to such repeal, the board of real estate appraisers shall be reviewed as provided in section 24-34-104, C.R.S.

12-61-704. Powers and duties of the board. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties imposed upon it by law, the board has the following powers and duties:

(a) To promulgate and amend, as necessary, rules and regulations pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., for the implementation and administration of this part 7 and as required to comply with the federal “Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments”, Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, and with any requirements imposed by amendments to such federal law. The board shall not establish any requirements that are more stringent than the requirements of any applicable federal law.

(b) To charge application, examination, and registration, license, and certificate renewal fees established pursuant to section 12-61-111.5 from all applicants for registration, licensure, certification, examination, and renewal under this part 7. No fees received from applicants seeking registration, licensure, certification, examination, or renewal shall be refunded.

(c) (I) To keep all records of proceedings and activities of the board conducted under authority of this part 7, which records shall be open to public inspection at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by rules and regulations formulated by the board.

(II) The board shall not be required to maintain or preserve licensing history records of any person licensed or certified under the provisions of this part 7 for any period of time longer than seven years.

Editor’s note: This version of paragraph (c) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(c) (I) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2012.)

(II) The board is not required to maintain or preserve licensing history records of a person licensed or certified under this part 7 for a period of time longer than seven years. Complaints of record in the office of the board and board investigations, including board investigative files, are closed to public inspection. Stipulations and final agency orders are public record and subject to sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S.

Editor’s note: This version of paragraph (c) is effective July 1, 2013.

(d) Through the department of regulatory agencies and subject to appropriations made to the department of regulatory agencies, to employ administrative law judges on a full-time or part-time basis to conduct any hearings required by this part 7. Such administrative law judges shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S.

(e) To issue, deny, or refuse to renew a registration, license, or certificate pursuant to this part 7;

(f) To take disciplinary actions in conformity with this part 7;

(g) To delegate to the director the administration and enforcement of this part 7 and the authority to act on behalf of the board on such occasions and in such circumstances as the board directs;

(h) (I) To develop, purchase, or contract for any examination required for the administration of this part 7, to offer each such examination at least twice a year or, if demand warrants, at more frequent intervals, and to establish a passing score for each examination that reflects a minimum level of competency;

(II) If study materials are developed by a testing company or other entity, the board shall make such materials available to persons desiring to take examinations pursuant to this part 7. The board may charge fees for such materials to defray any costs associated with making such materials available.

(i) In compliance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., to make investigations, subpoena persons and documents, which subpoenas may be enforced by a court of competent jurisdiction if not obeyed, hold hearings, and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise of the board’s power under this part 7;

(j) Pursuant to sec. 1119 (b) of Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, to apply, if necessary, for a federal waiver of the requirement relating to certification or licensing of a person to perform appraisals and to make the necessary written determinations specified in said section for purposes of making such application.

(k) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation is violating this part 7, to enter an order requiring the individual or appraisal management company to cease and desist the violations.

12-61-706. Qualifications for registration, licensing, and certification of appraisers - continuing education - rules. (1) (a) The board shall, by rule, prescribe requirements for the initial registration, licensing, or certification of persons under this part 7 to meet the requirements of the federal “Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments”, Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989” and shall develop, purchase, or contract for examinations to be passed by applicants. The board shall not establish any requirements for initial registration, licensing, or certification that are more stringent than the requirements of any applicable federal law; except that all applicants shall pass an examination offered by the board. If there is no applicable federal law, the board shall consider and may use as guidelines the most recent available criteria published by the appraiser qualifications board of the appraisal foundation or its successor organization.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(a) The board shall, by rule, prescribe requirements for the initial registration, licensing, or certification of persons under this part 7 to meet the requirements of the “Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments”, Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, as amended, and shall develop, purchase, or contract for examinations to be passed by applicants. The board shall not establish any requirements for initial registration, licensing, or certification that are more stringent than the requirements of any applicable federal law; except that all applicants shall pass an examination offered by the board. If there is no applicable federal law, the board shall consider and may use as guidelines the most recent available criteria published by the appraiser qualifications board of the appraisal foundation or its successor organization.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective July 1, 2013.

(b) The four levels of appraiser licensure, pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), shall be defined as follows:

(I) “Certified general appraiser” means an appraiser meeting the requirements set by the board for general certification;

(II) “Certified residential appraiser” means an appraiser meeting the requirements set by the board for residential certification;

(III) “Licensed appraiser” means an appraiser meeting the requirements set by the board for a license;

(IV) “Registered appraiser” means an appraiser meeting the requirements set by the board for registration.

(2) The board shall, by rule, prescribe continuing education requirements for persons registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 as needed to meet the requirements of the federal “Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments”, Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”. The board shall not establish any continuing education requirements that are more stringent than the requirements of any applicable law; except that all persons registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 shall be subject to continuing education requirements. If there is no applicable federal law, the board shall consider and may use as guidelines the most recent available criteria published by the appraiser qualifications board of the appraisal foundation or its successor organization. The board shall not grant continuing education credits for attendance at the board’s meetings.

Editor’s note: This version of subsection (2) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(2) The board shall, by rule, prescribe continuing education requirements for persons registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 as needed to meet the requirements of the “Real Estate Appraisal Reform Amendments”, Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, as amended. The board shall not establish any continuing education requirements that are more stringent than the requirements of any applicable law; except that all persons registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 are subject to continuing education requirements. If there is no applicable federal law, the board shall consider and may use as guidelines the most recent available criteria published by the appraiser qualifications board of the appraisal foundation or its successor organization.

Editor’s note: This version of subsection (2) is effective July 1, 2013.

(3) Any provision of this section to the contrary notwithstanding, the criteria established by the board for the registration, licensing, or certification of appraisers pursuant to this part 7 shall not include membership or lack of membership in any appraisal organization.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 1192, § 5, effective July 1, 1996.)

(5) (a) Subject to section 12-61-714 (2), all appraiser employees of county assessors shall be registered, licensed, or certified as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. Obtaining and maintaining a registration, license, or certificate under any one of said subsections (1) and (2) shall entitle an appraiser employee of a county assessor to perform all real estate appraisals required to fulfill such person’s official duties.

(b) Appraiser employees of county assessors who are employed to appraise real property shall be subject to all provisions of this part 7; except that appraiser employees of county assessors who are employed to appraise real property shall not be subject to disciplinary actions by the board on the ground that they have performed appraisals beyond their level of competency when appraising real estate in fulfillment of their official duties. County assessors, if registered, licensed, or certified as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, shall not be subject to disciplinary actions by the board on the ground that they have performed appraisals beyond their level of competency when appraising real estate in fulfillment of their official duties.

(c) All reasonable costs incurred by an appraiser employee of a county assessor to obtain and maintain a registration, license, or certificate pursuant to this section shall be paid by the county.

(6) to (8) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 1192, § 5, effective July 1, 1996.)

(9) The board shall not issue an appraiser’s license as referenced in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section unless the applicant has at least twelve months appraisal experience.

(10) The board shall not issue a registration, license, or certification until the applicant establishes that he or she is truthful and honest and has good moral character and submits a set of fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Each person submitting a set of fingerprints shall pay the fee established by the Colorado bureau of investigation for conducting the fingerprint-based criminal history record check to the bureau. Upon completion of the criminal history record check, the bureau shall forward the results to the board. The board may require a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable. The board may deny an application for registration, licensure, or certification based on the outcome of the criminal history record check and may establish criminal history requirements more stringent than those established by any applicable federal law.

ANNOTATION

This section is unconstitutional as applied to county assessors. The qualifications for county officers that are specified in article XIV, § 10 of the Colorado Constitution are exclusive. Thus, the general assembly does not have authority to require additional qualifications, including licensure. Reale v. Bd. of Real Estate Appraisers, 880 P.2d 1205 (Colo. 1994).

Based on the comprehensive legislative structure regulating them, real estate appraisers practice a profession involving knowledge or skill, and their conduct should be judged according to the tenets of their field. Therefore, a buyer's negligence claim against real estate appraisers for inaccurate appraisals involved professional negligence. Hice v. Lott, 223 P.3d 139 (Colo. App. 2009).

Establishing a standard of care in a professional negligence case normally requires an expert to explain it because ordinary persons are not conversant with it. The issue of whether a dwelling was a "mobile home" or a "modular home", and the effect of that determination on the dwelling's appraised value, were beyond the experience of ordinary jurors, even when assisted by generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice. Thus, expert testimony was necessary to establish the standard of care an appraiser must employ when appraising a structure that may be a "mobile home". Hice v. Lott, 223 P.3d 139 (Colo. App. 2009).

12-61-706.3. Appraisal management companies - application for license - exemptions. (1) An applicant shall apply for a license as an appraisal management company, or as a controlling appraiser, to the board in a manner prescribed by the board.

(2) The board may grant appraisal management company licenses to individuals, partnerships, limited liability companies, or corporations. A partnership, limited liability company, or corporation, in its application for a license, shall designate a controlling appraiser who is actively certified in a state recognized by the appraisal subcommittee of the federal financial institutions examinations council or its successor entity. The controlling appraiser is responsible for the licensed practices of the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation and all persons employed by the entity. The application of the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation and the application of the appraiser designated by it as the controlling appraiser shall be filed with the board. The board has jurisdiction over the appraiser so designated and over the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation.

(3) The board shall not issue a license to any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation unless and until the appraiser designated by the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation as controlling appraiser and each individual that owns more than ten percent of the entity establishes that he or she is truthful and honest and has good moral character and submits a set of fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. Each person submitting a set of fingerprints shall pay the fee established by the Colorado bureau of investigation for conducting the fingerprint-based criminal history record check to the bureau. Upon completion of the criminal history record check, the bureau shall forward the results to the board. The board may require a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable. The board may deny an application for licensure or refuse to renew a license based on the outcome of the criminal history record check. The board may require criminal history requirements more stringent than those established by any applicable federal law.

(4) The board shall not issue a license to any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation if the appraiser designated by the entity as controlling appraiser has previously had, in any state, an appraiser registration, license, or certificate refused, denied, cancelled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked. A disciplinary action resulting in refusal, denial, cancellation, surrender in lieu of revocation, or revocation relating to a registration, license, or certification as an appraiser registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 or any related occupation in any other state, territory, or country for disciplinary reasons is prima facie evidence of grounds for denial of a license by the board.

(5) The board shall not issue a license to any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation if it is owned, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by any person who has had, in any state, an appraiser license, registration, or certificate refused, denied, cancelled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked. A disciplinary action resulting in refusal, denial, cancellation, surrender in lieu of revocation, or revocation relating to a license, registration, or certification as an appraiser licensed, registered, or certified under this part 7 or any related occupation in any other state, territory, or country for disciplinary reasons is prima facie evidence of grounds for denial of a license by the board.

(6) The board may deny an application for a license for any partnership, limited liability company, or corporation if the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation has previously had a license surrendered in lieu of revocation or revoked. A disciplinary action resulting in the surrender in lieu of revocation or the revocation of a license as an appraisal management company under this part 7 or any related occupation in any other state, territory, or country for disciplinary reasons may be deemed to be prima facie evidence of grounds for denial of a license by the board.

(7) Each appraisal management company must maintain a definite place of business. If the appraisal management company is domiciled in another state, the appraiser designated by the appraisal management company as controlling appraiser is responsible for supervising all licensed activities that occur in Colorado. All licensed actions occurring within the state of Colorado must occur under the name under which the appraisal management company is licensed or its trade name adopted in accordance with Colorado law.

(8) An application that is submitted for an appraisal management company that is:

(a) A partnership must be properly registered with the Colorado department of revenue or properly filed with the Colorado secretary of state and in good standing, proof of which shall be included in the application. If an assumed or trade name is to be used, it must be properly filed with the Colorado department of revenue or filed and accepted by the Colorado secretary of state, proof of which will be included with the application.

(b) A limited liability company must be properly registered with the Colorado secretary of state and in good standing, proof of which must be included with the application. If an assumed or trade name is to be used, it must be properly filed with the Colorado secretary of state, proof of which must be included with the application.

(c) A corporation must be registered as a foreign corporation or properly incorporated with the Colorado secretary of state and in good standing, proof of which must be included with the application. If an assumed or trade name is to be used, it must be properly filed with the Colorado secretary of state, proof of which must be included with the application.

(9) Financial institutions and appraisal management company subsidiaries that are owned and controlled by the financial institution and regulated by a federal financial institution regulatory agency are not required to register with or be licensed by the board. This exemption includes a panel of appraisers who are engaged to provide appraisal services and are administered by a financial institution regulated by a federal financial regulatory agency.

12-61-706.5. Errors and omissions insurance - duties of the division - certificate of coverage - group plan made available - rules. (1) Every licensee under this part 7, except an appraiser who is employed by a state or local governmental entity or an inactive appraiser or appraisal management company, shall maintain errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under this part 7. The division shall make the errors and omissions insurance available to all licensees by contracting with an insurer for a group policy after a competitive bid process in accordance with article 103 of title 24, C.R.S. A group policy obtained by the division shall be available to all licensees with no right on the part of the insurer to cancel any licensee. A licensee may obtain errors and omissions insurance independently if the coverage complies with the minimum requirements established by the division.

(2) (a) If the division is unable to obtain errors and omissions insurance coverage to insure all licensees who choose to participate in the group program at a reasonable annual premium, as determined by the division, a licensee shall independently obtain the errors and omissions insurance required by this section.

(b) The division shall solicit and consider information and comments from interested persons when determining the reasonableness of annual premiums.

(3) The division shall determine the terms and conditions of coverage required under this section based on rules promulgated by the board. Each licensee shall be notified of the required terms and conditions at least thirty days before the annual premium renewal date as determined by the division. Each licensee shall file a certificate of coverage showing compliance with the required terms and conditions with the division by the annual premium renewal date, as determined by the division.

(4) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred upon the board by this part 7, the board is authorized and directed to adopt such rules as it deems necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this section.

12-61-706.7. Bond required. (1) An applicant for an appraisal management company license shall post with the board a surety bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars before a license may be issued by the board. A licensed appraisal management company shall maintain the required bond at all times.

(2) The surety bond shall require the surety to provide notice to the board within thirty days if payment is made from the surety bond or if the bond is cancelled.

12-61-707. Expiration of licenses - renewal - penalties. (1) (a) All registrations, licenses, or certificates shall expire pursuant to a schedule established by the director and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to this section. Upon compliance with this section and any applicable rules of the board regarding renewal, including the payment of a renewal fee plus a reinstatement fee established pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1), the expired registration, license, or certificate shall be reinstated. No real estate appraiser's registration, license, or certificate that has not been renewed for a period greater than two years shall be reinstated, and such person shall be required to make new application for registration, licensure, or certification.

(b) A person who fails to renew his or her registration, license, or certificate prior to the applicable renewal date may have it reinstated if the person does any one of the following:

Editor's note: This version of the introductory portion to paragraph (b) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(b) A person who fails to renew his or her real estate appraiser's registration, license, or certificate before the applicable renewal date may have it reinstated if the person does any one of the following:

Editor's note: This version of the introductory portion to paragraph (b) is effective July 1, 2013.

(I) Makes proper application, within thirty-one days after the date of expiration, by payment of the regular three-year renewal fee; or

(II) If proper application is made more than thirty-one days, but within one year, after the date of expiration, by payment of the regular three-year renewal fee and payment of a reinstatement fee equal to one-third the regular three-year renewal fee; or

(III) If proper application is made more than one year, but within two years, after the date of expiration, by payment of the regular three-year renewal fee and payment of a reinstatement fee equal to two-thirds the regular three-year renewal fee.

(2) In the event the federal registry fee to be collected by the board and transmitted to the federal financial institutions examination council is adjusted during the period prior to expiration of a license or certificate, the board shall collect the amount of the increase in such fee from the holder of the license or certificate and shall forward such amount to the said council on an annual basis.

(3) (a) If the applicant has complied with this section and any applicable rules and regulations of the board regarding renewal, except for the continuing education requirements pursuant to section 12-61-706, the licensee may renew the license on inactive status. An inactive license may be activated if the licensee submits written certification of compliance with section 12-61-706 for the previous licensing period. The board may adopt rules establishing procedures to facilitate such a reactivation.

(b) The holder of an inactive license shall not perform a real estate appraisal in conjunction with a debt instrument that is federally guaranteed, in the federal secondary market, or regulated pursuant to title 12, U.S.C.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (b) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(b) The holder of an inactive license shall not perform a real estate appraisal or appraisal management duties in conjunction with a debt instrument that is federally guaranteed, in the federal secondary market, or regulated pursuant to title 12, U.S.C.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (b) is effective July 1, 2013.

(c) The holder of an inactive license shall not hold himself or herself out as having an active license pursuant to this part 7.

(4) At the time of renewal or reinstatement, every registrant, licensee, and certificate holder, and each person or individual that owns more than ten percent of an appraisal management company, under this part 7 shall submit a set of fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation, if the person has not previously done so for issuance of a registration, license, or certification by the board. Each person submitting a set of fingerprints shall pay the fee established by the Colorado bureau of investigation for conducting the fingerprint-based criminal history record check to the bureau. The bureau shall forward the results to the board. The board may require a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable. The board may refuse to renew or reinstate a registration, license, or certification based on the outcome of the criminal history record check.

12-61-708. Licensure or certification by endorsement - temporary practice.

(1) The board may issue a license or certification to an appraiser by endorsement to engage in the occupation of real estate appraisal to any applicant who has a license, registration, or certification in good standing as a real estate appraiser under the laws of another jurisdiction if:

(a) The applicant presents proof satisfactory to the board that, at the time of application for a Colorado registration, license, or certificate by endorsement, the applicant possesses credentials and qualifications which are substantially equivalent to the requirements of this part 7; or

(b) The jurisdiction that issued the applicant a license or certificate to engage in the occupation of real estate appraisal has a law similar to this subsection (1) pursuant to which it licenses or certifies persons who are licensed real estate appraisers in this state.

(1.2) The board may specify by rules and regulations what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications and the manner in which credentials and qualifications of an applicant will be reviewed by the board.

(2) Pursuant to section 1122 (a) of Title XI of the federal "Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989", the board shall recognize, on a temporary basis, the license or certification of an appraiser issued by another state if:

(a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 96, p. 1194, § 6, effective July 1, 1996.)

(b) The appraiser's business is of a temporary nature; and

(c) The appraiser applies for and is granted a temporary practice permit by the board.

12-61-709. Denial of registration, license, or certificate - renewal. (1) The board is empowered to determine whether an applicant for registration, licensure, or certification possesses the necessary qualifications for registration, licensure, or certification required by this part 7. The board may consider such qualities as the applicant's truthfulness and honesty and whether the applicant has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(1) The board is empowered to determine whether an applicant for registration, licensure, or certification possesses the necessary qualifications for registration, licensure, or certification required by this part 7. The board may consider such qualities as the applicant's truthfulness, honesty, and moral character, and whether the applicant has been convicted of a crime. As used in this subsection (1), "applicant" includes any individual who owns, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, an appraisal management company and any appraiser designated as a controlling appraiser by a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation acting as an appraisal management company.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2) If the board determines that an applicant does not possess the applicable qualifications required by this part 7, or such applicant has violated any provision of this part 7 or the rules and regulations promulgated by the board or any board order, the board may deny the applicant a registration, license, or certificate or deny the renewal or reinstatement of a registration, license, or certificate pursuant to section 12-61-707; and, in such instance, the board shall provide such applicant with a statement in writing setting forth the basis of the board's determination that the applicant does not possess the qualifications or professional competence required by this part 7. Such applicant may request a hearing on such determination as provided in section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.

12-61-710. Prohibited activities - grounds for disciplinary actions - procedures - repeal. (1) A real estate appraiser is in violation of this part 7 if the appraiser:

(a) Has been convicted of a felony or has had accepted by a court a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony if the felony is related to the ability to act as a real property appraiser. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be conclusive evidence of such conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(b) Has violated, or attempted to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisted in or abetted the violation of, or conspired to violate any provision or term of this part 7 or rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this part 7 or any order of the board established pursuant to this part 7;

(c) Has accepted any fees, compensation, or other valuable consideration to influence the outcome of an appraisal;

(d) Has used advertising which is misleading, deceptive, or false;

(e) Has used fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license or certificate under this part 7;

(f) Has conducted an appraisal in a fraudulent manner or used misrepresentation in any such activity;

(g) Has acted or failed to act in a manner which does not meet the generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice as adopted by the board by rule and regulation. A certified copy of a malpractice judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction shall be conclusive evidence of such act or omission, but evidence of such act or omission shall not be limited to a malpractice judgment.

(h) Has performed appraisal services beyond his level of competency;

(i) Has been subject to an adverse or disciplinary action in another state, territory, or country relating to a license, certificate, registration, or other authorization to practice as an appraiser. A disciplinary action relating to a registration, license, or certificate as an appraiser registered, licensed, or certified under this part 7 or any related occupation in any other state, territory, or country for disciplinary reasons shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action or denial of licensure or certification by the board. This paragraph (i) shall apply only to violations based upon acts or omissions in such other state, territory, or country that are also violations of this part 7.

(j) Has failed to disclose in the appraisal report the fee paid to the appraiser for a residential real property appraisal if the appraiser was engaged by an appraisal management company to complete the assignment.

Editor's note: Paragraph (j) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2) If an applicant, a registrant, a licensee, or a certified person has violated any of the provisions of this section, the board may deny or refuse to renew any registration, license, or certificate, or, as specified in subsections (2.5) and (5) of this section, revoke or suspend any registration, license, or certificate, issue a letter of admonition to a licensee or certified person, place a registrant, licensee, or certified person on probation, or impose public censure.

(2.5) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct by a registered, licensed, or certified appraiser that in the opinion of the board does not warrant formal action by the board but should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may send a letter of admonition by certified mail to the appraiser against whom a complaint was made. The letter shall advise the appraiser of the right to make a written request, within twenty days after receipt of the letter of admonition, to the board to begin formal disciplinary proceedings as provided in this section to adjudicate the conduct or acts on which the letter was based.

(3) A proceeding for discipline of a registrant, licensee, or certified person may be commenced when the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a registrant, licensee, or certified person has committed any act or failed to act pursuant to the grounds established in subsection (1) of this section or when a request for a hearing is timely made under subsection (2.5) of this section.

(4) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) As authorized in subsection (2) of this section, disciplinary actions by the board may consist of the following:

(a) Revocation of a registration, license, or certificate. (I) Revocation of a registration, license, or certificate by the board shall mean that the registered, licensed, or certified person shall surrender his or her registration, license, or certificate immediately to the board.

(II) Any person whose registration, license, or certificate to practice is revoked is rendered ineligible to apply for any registration, license, or certificate issued under this part 7 until more than two years have elapsed from the date of surrender of the registration, license, or certificate. Any reapplication after such two-year period shall be treated as a new application.

(b) Suspension of a license. Suspension of a license or certificate by the board shall be for a period to be determined by the board.

(c) Probationary status. Probationary status may be imposed by the board. If the board places a licensee or certified person on probation, it may include such conditions for continued practice as the board deems appropriate to assure that the licensee or certified person is otherwise qualified to practice in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of professional appraisal practice as adopted by rule and regulation of the board, including any or all of the following:

(I) The taking by him of such courses of training or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found in the hearing;

(II) Such review or supervision of his practice as may be necessary to determine the quality of his practice and to correct deficiencies therein; and

(III) The imposition of restrictions upon the nature of his appraisal practice to assure that he does not practice beyond the limits of his capabilities.

(e) Public censure. If after notice and hearing the director or the director's designee determines that the licensee has committed any of the acts specified in this section, the board may impose public censure.

(6) In addition to any other discipline imposed pursuant to this section, any person who violates the provisions of this part 7 or the rules and regulations of the board promulgated pursuant to this article may be penalized by the board upon a finding of a violation pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., as follows:

(a) In the first administrative proceeding against any person, a fine of not less than three hundred dollars but not more than five hundred dollars per violation;

(b) In any subsequent administrative proceeding against any person for transactions occurring after a final agency action determining that a violation of this part 7 has occurred, a fine of not less than one thousand dollars but not more than two thousand dollars.

(7) (a) Complaints of record in the office of the board and the results of staff investigations shall be closed to public inspection during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges are served on a licensee, except as provided by court order. Complaints of record that are dismissed by the board and the results of investigation of such complaints shall be closed to public inspection, except as provided by court order. The board's records shall be subject to sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S., regarding public records and confidentiality.

(b) This subsection (7) is repealed, effective July 1, 2013.

(8) Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding before the board pursuant to this article shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such action.

(9) (a) Any board member having an immediate personal, private, or financial interest in any matter pending before the board shall disclose the fact to the board and shall not vote upon such matter.

(b) This subsection (9) is repealed, effective July 1, 2013.

(10) Any registrant, licensee, or certified person having direct knowledge that any person has violated any of the provisions of this part 7 shall report such knowledge to the board.

(11) The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the imposition of any discipline as provided in this section may reconsider its prior action and reinstate or restore such registration, license, or certificate or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto shall rest in the sole discretion of the board.

ANNOTATION

Prohibition of disclosure of records during an investigation set forth in subsection (7) does not expressly make such records subject to disclosure when the investigation is complete. Only by negative implication would subsection (7) imply a disclosure requirement, and any disclosure is expressly subject to the disclosure provision of the Colorado Open Records Act. Land Owners United, LLC v. Waters, __ P.3d __ (Colo. App. 2011).

12-61-710.5. Appraisal management companies - prohibited activities - grounds for disciplinary actions - procedures - rules. (1) The board, upon its own motion, may, and upon the complaint in writing of any person, shall, investigate the activities of a licensed appraisal management company; an appraiser designated as a controlling appraiser by a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation acting as an appraisal management company; or a person or entity who assumes to act in that capacity within the state. The board, upon a finding of a violation, may impose an administrative fine not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars for each separate offense and censure a licensee, place the licensee on probation and set the terms of probation, or temporarily suspend or permanently revoke a license when the licensee has performed, is performing, or is attempting to perform any of the following acts:

(a) Failing to exercise due diligence when hiring or engaging a real estate appraiser to ensure that the real estate appraiser is appropriately credentialed by the board and competent to perform the assignment;

(b) Requiring an appraiser to indemnify the appraisal management company against liability, damages, losses, or claims other than those arising out of the services performed by the appraiser, including performance or nonperformance of the appraiser's duties and obligations, whether as a result of negligence or willful misconduct;

(c) Influencing or attempting to influence the development, reporting, result, or review of a real estate appraisal or the engagement of an appraiser through coercion, extortion, collusion, compensation, inducement, intimidation, bribery, or in any other manner. This prohibition shall not be construed as prohibiting an appraisal management company from requesting an appraiser to:

(I) Consider additional, appropriate property information;

(II) Provide further detail, substantiation, or explanation for the appraiser's value conclusion; or

(III) Correct errors in the appraisal report.

(d) Prohibiting an appraiser, in the completion of an appraisal service, from communicating with the client, any intended users, real estate brokers, tenants, property owners, management companies, or any other entities whom the appraiser reasonably believes has information pertinent to the completion of an appraisal assignment; except that this provision does not apply to communications between an appraiser and an appraisal management company's client if such client has adopted an explicit policy prohibiting such communication. If the client has adopted an explicit policy prohibiting communication by the appraiser with the client, communication by an appraiser to the client must be made in writing and submitted to the appraisal management company.

(e) Altering or modifying a completed appraisal report without the authoring appraiser's knowledge and written consent, and the consent of the intended user, except to modify the format of the report solely for transmission to the client and in a manner acceptable to the client;

(f) Requiring an appraiser to provide access to the appraiser's electronic signature to the appraisal management company;

(g) Failing to validate or verify that the work completed by an appraiser who is hired or engaged by the appraisal management company complies with state and federal regulations, including the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice, by conducting an annual audit of a random sample of the appraisals received within the previous year by the appraisal management company. The board shall establish annual appraisal review requirements by rule and shall solicit and consider information and comments from interested persons.

(h) Failing to make payment to an appraiser within sixty days after completion of the appraisal, unless otherwise agreed or unless the appraiser has been notified in writing that a bona fide dispute exists regarding the performance or quality of the appraisal;

(i) Failing to perform the terms of a written agreement with an appraiser hired or engaged to complete an appraisal assignment;

(j) Failing to disclose to an appraiser, at the time of engagement, the identity of the client;

(k) Using an appraisal report for a client other than the one originally contracted with, without the original client's written consent;

(l) Failing to maintain possession of, for future use or inspection by the board, for a period of at least five years or at least two years after final disposition of any judicial proceeding in which a representative of the appraisal management company provided testimony related to the assignment, whichever period expires last, the documents or records prescribed by the rules of the board or to produce such documents or records upon reasonable request by the board;

(m) Having been convicted of, entering a plea of guilty to, entering an Alford plea, or entering a plea of nolo contendere to any misdemeanor or felony relating to the conduct of an appraisal, theft, embezzlement, bribery, fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit, or any other like crime under Colorado law, federal law, or the laws of other states. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or other official record indicating that such a plea was entered is conclusive evidence of such conviction or plea in any hearing under this part 7.

(n) Having been the subject of an adverse or disciplinary action in another state, territory, or country relating to a license, registration, certification, or other authorization to practice as an appraisal management company. A disciplinary action relating to a registration, license, or certificate as an appraisal management company under this part 7 or any related occupation in any other state, territory, or country for disciplinary reasons is prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action or denial of a registration, license, or certification by the board. This paragraph (n) applies only to violations based upon acts or omissions in such other state, territory, or country that would violate this part 7 if committed in Colorado.

(o) Violating the “Colorado Consumer Protection Act”, article 1 of title 6, C.R.S.;

(p) Procuring, or attempting to procure, an appraisal management company license or renewing, reinstating, or reactivating, or attempting to renew, reinstate, or reactivate, an appraisal management company license by fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit or by making a material misstatement of fact in an application for a license;

(q) Knowingly misrepresenting or making false promises through agents, advertising, or otherwise;

(r) Failing to disclose to a client the fee amount paid to the appraiser hired or engaged to complete the appraisal upon completion of the assignment; or

(s) Disregarding, violating, or abetting, directly or indirectly, in the violation of any provision of this part 7, any rule promulgated by the board pursuant to this part 7, or any order of the board established pursuant to this part 7.

(2) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may send a letter of admonition by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the licensee against whom the complaint was made. The letter shall advise the licensee of the right to make a written request, within twenty days after receipt of the letter of admonition, to the board to begin formal disciplinary proceedings as provided in this section to adjudicate the conduct or acts on which the letter was based.

(3) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the “State Administrative Procedure Act”, article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(4) If a partnership, limited liability company, or corporation operating under the license of an appraiser designated and licensed as a controlling appraiser by the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation is guilty of any of the foregoing acts, the board may suspend or revoke the right of the partnership, limited liability company, or corporation to conduct its business under the license of the controlling appraiser, whether or not the controlling appraiser had personal knowledge thereof and whether or not the board suspends or revokes the individual license of the controlling appraiser.

(5) This part 7 shall not be construed to relieve any person from civil liability or criminal prosecution under the laws of this state.

(6) A registrant, licensee, or certified person having direct knowledge that a person or licensed partnership, limited liability company, or corporation has violated this part 7 shall report such knowledge to the board.

(7) The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the imposition of discipline as provided in this section, may reconsider its prior action and reinstate or restore a license or terminate probation or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any further action or the holding of a hearing with respect to the action rests in the sole discretion of the board.

12-61-712. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful for any person to:

(a) Violate any provision of section 12-61-710 (1) (c), (1) (e), or (1) (f), or to perform a real estate appraisal in conjunction with a debt instrument that is federally guaranteed or in the federal secondary market or regulated pursuant to title 12, U.S.C., without first having obtained a registration, license, or certificate from the board pursuant to this part 7;

(b) Accept a fee for an independent appraisal assignment that is contingent upon:

(I) The reporting of a predetermined analysis, opinion, or conclusion; or

(II) The analysis, opinion, or conclusion reached; or

(III) The consequences resulting from the analysis, opinion, or conclusion;

(c) Misrepresent a consulting service as an independent appraisal;

(d) Fail to disclose, in connection with a consulting service for which a contingent fee is or will be paid, the fact that a contingent fee is or will be paid.

(2) Any person who violates any provision of subsection (1) of this section commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S. Any person who subsequently violates any provision of subsection (1) of this section within five years after the date of a conviction for a violation of subsection (1) of this section commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(3) A person who represents property owners as an advocate in tax or valuation protests and appeals pursuant to title 39, C.R.S., shall be exempt from the licensing requirements of this part 7.

ANNOTATION

Appraiser cannot present expert testimony in a property valuation proceeding under a contingent fee arrangement. City and County of Denver v. Bd. of Assessment Appeals, 947 P.2d 1373 (Colo. 1997).

A contingent fee is prohibited in all property valuation proceedings including proceedings that do not involve a federal transaction. City and County of Denver v. Bd. of Assessment Appeals, 947 P.2d 1373 (Colo. 1997).

A contingent fee is prohibited even if the individual appraiser testifying as an expert witness is a salaried employee of a party to a contingent fee agreement who did not personally execute the contingent fee agreement and would not receive fees from the agreement. This avoids the absurd result of allowing firms that employ appraisers to accept contingent fees while prohibiting individual appraisers from doing so. City and County of Denver v. Bd. of Assessment Appeals, 947 P.2d 1373 (Colo. 1997).

Proper remedy where an appraiser improperly gives expert testimony pursuant to a contingent fee agreement in a property valuation proceeding before the board of assessment appeals is a remand for de novo proceedings. City and County of Denver v. Bd. of Assessment Appeals, 947 P.2d 1373 (Colo. 1997).

Notwithstanding a contingent fee arrangement, the board of assessment appeals properly admitted documentary evidence and testimony presented by taxpayer's expert witness as a consulting service. Such evidence was admissible in board of assessment appeals hearings if there has been proper disclosure of the contingent fee arrangement and the nature of the appraiser's work. FirstBank Longmont v. Boulder County Bd. of Equaliz., 990 P.2d 1109 (Colo. App. 1999).

12-61-712.5. Appraisal management company license required - violations - injunction. (1) Except as provided in section 12-61-706.3 (9), it is unlawful for any person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation to engage in the business of appraisal management in this state without first having obtained a license from the board. No person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation shall be granted a license until compliance with this part 7 is established.

(2) The board may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for an order enjoining an act or practice that constitutes a violation of this part 7, and, upon a showing that a person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation is engaging or intends to engage in any such act or practice, an injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate order shall be granted by the court regardless of the existence of another remedy therefor. Any notice, hearing, or duration of an injunction or restraining order shall be made in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(3) Any person, partnership, limited liability company, or corporation violating this part 7 by acting as an appraisal management company without having obtained a license or by acting as an appraisal management company after the appraisal management company's license has been revoked or during any period for which the license was suspended is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, if a natural person, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment and, if an entity, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars. A second violation, if by a natural person, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

12-61-713. Injunctive proceedings. (1) The board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, through the attorney general of the state of Colorado, apply for an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction to perpetually enjoin any person from committing any act prohibited by the provisions of this part 7.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(1) The board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, through the attorney general of the state of Colorado, apply for an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction to perpetually enjoin a person or appraisal management company from committing an act prohibited by this part 7.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (1) is effective July 1, 2013.

(2) Such injunctive proceedings shall be in addition to and not in lieu of all penalties and other remedies provided in this part 7.

(3) When seeking an injunction under this section, the board shall not be required to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from a continued violation.

12-61-714. Special provision for appraiser employees of county assessors. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, unless a federal waiver is applied for and granted pursuant to section 12-61-704 (1) (j), on and after July 1, 1997, any person acting as a real estate appraiser in this state in conjunction with a debt instrument that is federally guaranteed or in the federal secondary market or regulated pursuant to title 12, U.S.C., shall be registered, licensed, or certified as provided in this part 7, and, on and after said date, no person shall practice in conjunction with a debt instrument that is federally guaranteed or in the federal secondary market or regulated pursuant to title 12, U.S.C., without such a registration, license, or certificate or hold himself or herself out to the public as a registered, licensed, or certified real estate appraiser unless registered, licensed, or certified pursuant to this part 7.

(2) Any appraiser employee of any county assessor who is employed to appraise real property shall be registered, licensed, or certified as provided in this part 7 and shall have two years from the date of taking office or the beginning of employment to comply with the provisions of this part 7.

ANNOTATION

This section is unconstitutional as applied to county assessors. The qualifications for county officers that are specified in article XIV, § 10 of the Colorado Constitution are exclusive.

Thus, the general assembly does not have authority to require additional qualifications, including licensure. Reale v. Bd. of Real Estate Appraisers, 880 P.2d 1205 (Colo. 1994).

12-61-715. Duties of board under federal law. (1) The board shall:

(a) Transmit to the appraisal subcommittee of the federal financial institutions examinations council, no less than annually, a roster listing individuals who have received a certificate or license as provided in this part 7;

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(a) Transmit to the appraisal subcommittee of the federal financial institutions examinations council or its successor entity, no less than annually, a roster listing individuals and appraisal management companies who have received a certificate or license as provided in this part 7;

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective July 1, 2013.

(b) Collect from individuals who have received a certificate or license as provided in this part 7 an annual registry fee of not more than twenty-five dollars, unless the appraisal subcommittee of the federal financial institutions examinations council adjusts the fee up to a maximum of fifty dollars and transmit such fee to the federal financial institutions examinations council on an annual basis; and

12-61-716. Business entities. (1) A corporation, partnership, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, credit union, or other business entity may provide appraisal services if such appraisal is prepared by individuals registered, certified, or licensed in accordance with this part 7. An individual who is not a registered, certified, or licensed appraiser may assist in the preparation of an appraisal if:

(a) The assistant is under the direct supervision of a registered, certified, or licensed appraiser; and

(b) The final appraisal document is approved and signed by an individual who is a registered, certified, or licensed appraiser.

12-61-717. Provisions found not to comply with federal law null and void - severability. If any provision of this part 7 is found by a court of competent jurisdiction or by the appropriate federal agency not to comply with any provision of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, such provision shall be null and void, but the remaining provisions of this part 7 shall be valid unless such remaining provisions alone are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent of this part 7.

Editor’s note: This version of this section is effective until July 1, 2013.

12-61-717. Provisions found not to comply with federal law null and void - severability. (1) If any provision of this part 7 is found by a court of competent jurisdiction or by the appropriate federal agency not to comply with any provision of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, as amended, such provision is null and void, but the remaining provisions of this part 7 are valid unless the remaining provisions alone are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent of this part 7.

(2) If the regulation of appraisal management companies is repealed from Title XI of the federal “Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989”, as amended, the board’s jurisdiction over these entities is also repealed. Before such repeal, the division shall review the regulation of appraisal management companies as provided in section 24-34-104, C.R.S. If the board’s jurisdiction is repealed, the director shall notify the revisor of statutes of the date of the repeal.

12-61-718. Scope of article - regulated financial institutions - de minimis exemption. (1) (a) This article shall not apply to an appraisal relating to any real estate-related transaction or loan made or to be made by a financial institution or its affiliate if such real estate-related transaction or loan is excepted from appraisal regulations established by the primary federal regulator of said financial institution and the appraisal is performed by:

(I) An officer, director, or regular salaried employee of the financial institution or its affiliate; or

(II) A real estate broker licensed under this article with whom said institution or affiliate has contracted for performance of the appraisal.

(b) Such appraisal shall not be represented or deemed to be an appraisal except to the said financial institution, the agencies regulating the said financial institution, and any secondary markets that purchase real estate secured loans. Such appraisal shall contain a written notice that the preparer is not registered, licensed, or certified as an appraiser under this part 7. Nothing in this subsection (1) shall be construed to exempt a person registered, licensed, or certified as an appraiser under this part 7 from regulation as provided in this part 7.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the ability of any federal or state regulator of a financial institution to require the financial institution to obtain appraisals as specified by the regulator.

(3) Repealed.

12-61-719. Conservation easement appraisals - fund created. (1) Any appraiser who conducts an appraisal for a conservation easement shall submit a copy of the completed appraisal to the division within thirty days following the completion of the appraisal. For purposes of this section, "completion of the appraisal" shall mean that the certification page, as defined in the uniform standards for professional appraisal practice, promulgated by the appraisal standards board, shall have been signed by the appraiser and the appraisal has been delivered to the client of the appraiser. The appraisal shall be accompanied by an affidavit from the appraiser that includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(a) A statement specifying the value of the unencumbered property and the total value of the conservation easement in gross along with details of what methods the appraiser used to determine these values;

(b) If the appraisal separately allocates the values of sand and gravel, minerals, water, or improvements, a statement of the separate value of the sand and gravel, minerals, water, or improvements before and after the conservation easement in gross is granted;

(c) An acknowledgment specifying whether a subdivision analysis was used to establish the conservation value in the appraisal;

(d) A statement clarifying whether or not the landowner or a family member as defined in section 267 (c) (4) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, owns other property contiguous to the property encumbered by the appraised conservation easement or owns other property, of which the value may be increased by the donation of the property encumbered by the appraised conservation easement, whether contiguous or not, owned by the landowner or related person as defined in section 267 (b) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended;

(e) A statement specifying how the appraiser satisfies the qualified appraiser and licensing requirements set forth in section 39-22-522 (3.3), C.R.S.;

(f) A statement verifying the date and method by which the appraiser has met any specified classroom education requirements established by the board for conservation easement appraisals pursuant to subsection (7) of this section; and

(g) A statement specifying the number of previous conservation easement appraisals conducted by the appraiser.

(2) An affidavit submitted in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be in a form approved by the board. The board shall have the authority to promulgate rules concerning the form and content of the affidavit. Such rules shall be promulgated in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. A copy of the affidavit and the completed appraisal shall be provided to the landowner.

(3) The division shall review the information submitted in accordance with this section to ensure that it is complete and shall record and maintain the information submitted as part of the affidavit in an electronic database. The division shall have the authority to share the information with the department of revenue. Notwithstanding the provisions of part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., the division's custodian of records shall deny the right of inspection of any appraisal, affidavit, or other record related to information submitted in accordance with the provision of this section unless and until such time as the division files a notice of charges related to the information.

(4) The board in its discretion may, or upon receiving a written complaint from any person shall, investigate the activities of any appraiser who submits any information in accordance with the provisions of this section. The investigation shall consider whether the appraiser complied with the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice and any other provision of law. In conducting the investigation, the division shall have the authority to consult with the commission.

(5) If the board determines that a material violation of the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice or a substantial misstatement of value has occurred in any appraisal submitted in accordance with this section, the board shall notify the department of revenue regarding the appraisal and provide the department with a copy of the appraisal and a summary of the division's findings.

(6) If an appraiser fails to file an appraisal, affidavit, or other information as required by this section, the board shall have the authority to take disciplinary action as provided in section 12-61-710.

(7) The board shall have the authority to establish classroom education and experience requirements for an appraiser who prepares an appraisal for a conservation easement pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S. Such requirements shall be established to ensure that appraisers have a sufficient amount of training and expertise to accurately prepare appraisals that comply with the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice and any other provision of law related to the appraisal of conservation easements. A credit for a conservation easement shall not be allowed unless the appraiser who prepared the appraisal of the easement met all requirements established in accordance with this subsection (7) in effect at the time the appraisal was completed.

(8) Any appraiser who submits a copy of an appraisal to the division in accordance with the requirements of this section shall pay the division a fee as prescribed by the division. The fee shall cover the costs of the division in administering the requirements of this section. The division shall have the authority to accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations for the purposes of this section. The state treasurer shall credit fees, gifts, grants, and donations to the conservation easement appraisal review fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the fund shall be annually appropriated to the division for the purposes of implementing and administering this section and shall not revert to the general fund at the end of any fiscal year. The fund shall be maintained in accordance with section 24-75-402, C.R.S. On or before January 1, 2009, and on or before each January 1 thereafter, the division shall certify to the general assembly the amount of the fee prescribed by the division pursuant to this subsection (8).

12-61-720. Certification of conservation easement holders - fund created - rules - repeal. (1) The division shall, in consultation with the commission created in section 12-61-721, establish and administer a certification program for qualified organizations under section 170 (h) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, as amended, that hold conservation easements for which a tax credit is claimed pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S. The purpose of the program shall be to:

(a) Establish minimum qualifications for certifying organizations that hold conservation easements to encourage professionalism and stability; and

(b) Identify fraudulent or unqualified applicants as defined by the rules of the division to prevent them from becoming certified by the program.

(2) The certification program shall be established and commence accepting applications for certification no later than January 1, 2009. The division shall conduct a review of each application and consider the recommendations of the commission before making a final determination to grant or deny certification. In reviewing an application and in granting certification, the division and the commission may consider:

(a) The applicant’s process for reviewing, selecting, and approving a potential conservation easement;

(b) The applicant’s stewardship practices and capacity, including the ability to maintain, monitor, and defend the purposes of the easement;

(c) An audit of the applicant’s financial records;

(d) The applicant’s system of governance and ethics regarding conflicts of interest and transactions with related parties as described in section 267 (b) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, as amended, donors, board members, and insiders. For purposes of this paragraph (d), “insiders” means board and staff members, substantial contributors, parties related to those above, those who have an ability to influence decisions of the organization, and those with access to information not available to the general public.

(e) Any other information deemed relevant by the division or the commission; and

(f) The unique circumstances of the different entities to which this certification applies as set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

(3) At the time of submission of an application, and each year the entity is certified pursuant to this section, the applicant shall pay the division a fee as prescribed by the division. The fee shall cover the costs of the division and the commission in administering the certification program for entities that hold conservation easements for which tax credits are claimed pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S. The division shall have the authority to accept and expend gifts, grants, and donations for the purposes of this section. The state treasurer shall credit fees, gifts, grants, and donations collected pursuant to this subsection (3) to the conservation easement holder certification fund, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury. Moneys in the fund shall be annually appropriated to the division for the purposes of implementing and administering this section and shall not revert to the general fund at the end of any fiscal year. The fund shall be maintained in accordance with section 24-75-402, C.R.S. On or before January 1, 2009, and on or before each January 1 thereafter, the division shall certify to the general assembly the amount of the fee prescribed by the division pursuant to this subsection (3).

(4) The certification program shall apply to:

(a) Nonprofit entities holding easements on property with conservation values consisting of recreation or education, protection of environmental systems, or preservation of open space;

(b) Nonprofit entities holding easements on property for historic preservation; and

(c) The state and any municipality, county, city and county, special district, or other political subdivision of the state that holds an easement.

(5) The certification program may contain a provision allowing for the expedited or automatic certification of an entity that is currently accredited by national land conservation organizations that are broadly accepted by the conservation industry.

(6) The commission shall meet at least quarterly and make recommendations to the division regarding the certification program. The division shall have the authority to determine whether an applicant for certification possesses the necessary qualifications for certification required by the rules adopted by the division. If the division determines that an applicant does not possess the applicable qualifications for certification or that the applicant has violated any provision of this part 7, the rules promulgated by the division, or any division order, the division may deny the applicant a certification or deny the renewal of a certification; and, in such instance, the division shall provide the applicant with a statement in writing setting forth the basis of the division's determination. The applicant may request a hearing on the determination as provided in section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S. The division shall notify successful applicants in writing. An applicant that is not certified may reapply for certification in accordance with procedures established by the division.

(7) The division shall implement the certification program in a manner that either commences accepting applications for certification:

(a) At the same time for all types of entities that hold conservation easements; or

(b) During the first year of the program for entities described in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section and during the second year of the program for entities described in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (4) of this section, and other entities.

(8) Beginning one year after the division commences accepting applications to certify the type of entity that holds a conservation easement in accordance with the provisions of subsection (7) of this section, a tax credit may be claimed for the easement pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S., only if the entity has been certified in accordance with the provisions of this section at the time the donation of the easement is made. The division shall make information available to the public concerning the date that it commences accepting applications for entities that hold conservation easements and the requirements of this subsection (8).

(9) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1014), ch. 1, p. 1, § 2, effective August 5, 2009.)

(10) The division shall maintain and update an online list that can be accessed by the public of the organizations that have applied for certification and whether each has been certified, rejected for certification, or had its certification revoked or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(11) The division shall have the authority to investigate the activities of any entity that is required to be certified pursuant to this section and to impose discipline for noncompliance, including but not limited to the suspension or revocation of a certification or the imposition of fines. The division shall have the authority to promulgate rules for the certification program and discipline authorized by this section. Such rules shall be promulgated in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(12) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(a) Affect any tax credit that was claimed pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S., prior to the time certification was required by this section; or

(b) Require the certification of an entity that holds a conservation easement for which a tax credit is not claimed pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S.

(13) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2018.

12-61-721. Conservation easement oversight commission - created - repeal.

(1) There is hereby created in the division a conservation easement oversight commission consisting of nine members as follows:

(a) One member representing the great outdoors Colorado program shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the state board of the great outdoors Colorado trust fund established in article XXVII of the state constitution;

(b) One member representing the department of natural resources shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the executive director of the department;

(c) One member representing the department of agriculture shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the executive director of the department;

(d) Six members appointed by the governor as follows with at least one member with the following qualifications or representing the following interests:

(I) A local land trust;

(II) A statewide or national land trust;

(III) A local government open space or land conservation agency;

(IV) An historic preservation organization with experience in easements on properties of historical significance;

(V) A certified general appraiser with experience in conservation easements who meets any classroom education and experience requirements established by the board in accordance with section 12-61-719; and

(VI) A landowner that has donated a conservation easement in Colorado.

(2) In making appointments to the commission, the governor shall consult with the three members of the commission appointed pursuant to paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1) of this section and with appropriate organizations representing the particular interest or area of expertise that the appointee represents. Not more than three of the governor's appointees serving at the same time shall be from the same political party. In making the initial appointments, the governor shall appoint three members for terms of two years. All other appointments by the governor shall be for a term of three years. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms. In the event of a vacancy by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, the governor shall appoint a member to fill the unexpired term. The governor shall have the authority to remove any member for misconduct, neglect of duty, or incompetence.

(3) (a) The commission shall advise the division and the department of revenue regarding conservation easements for which a state income tax credit is claimed pursuant to section 39-22-522, C.R.S. At the request of the division or the department, the commission shall review conservation easement transactions, applications, and other documents and advise the division and the department regarding conservation values consistent with section 170 (h) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, the capacity of conservation easement holders, and the integrity and accuracy of conservation easement transactions related to the tax credits.

(b) On or before July 1, 2011, and on a quarterly basis thereafter, the commission shall provide a report to the joint budget committee and the finance committees of the general assembly describing the number of credits for which the executive director of the department of revenue has sought the advice of the commission pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), the date any such advice was sought, the number of credits for which the commission provided advice to the executive director, and the date any such advice was provided.

(4) The commission shall meet not less than once each quarter to review applications for conservation easement holder certification submitted in accordance with section 12-61-720 and to review any other issues referred to the commission by the division, the department of revenue, or any other state entity. The division shall convene the meetings of the commission and provide staff support as requested by the commission. A majority of the members of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, and actions of the commission shall require a vote of a majority of such members present in favor of the action taken.

(5) On or before January 1, 2009, the commission shall establish a conflict of interest policy to ensure that any member of the commission shall be disqualified from performing any act that conflicts with a private pecuniary interest of the member or from participating in the deliberation or decision-making process for certification for an applicant represented by such member.

(6) Each member of the commission shall receive the same compensation and reimbursement of expenses as those provided for members of boards and commissions in the division of professions and occupations pursuant to section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S. Payment for all such per diem compensation and expenses shall be made out of annual appropriations from the conservation easement holder certification fund created in section 12-61-720 (3).

(6.5) Commission members shall be immune from liability in accordance with the provisions of the “Colorado Governmental Immunity Act”, article 10 of title 24, C.R.S.

(7) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2018. Prior to such repeal, the commission shall be reviewed as provided in section 24-34-104, C.R.S.

12-61-722. Conservation easement tax credit certificates. (1) The division shall receive claims from and issue certificates to certified conservation easement holders for income tax credits for conservation easements donated during the 2011, 2012, and 2013 calendar years in accordance with the provisions of section 39-22-522 (2.5), C.R.S. Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict or limit the authority of the division to enforce the provisions of this part 7. The division may promulgate rules in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., for the issuance of the certificates. In promulgating any such rules, the division may include but shall not be limited to provisions governing the following:

- (a) The review of the tax credit certificate;
- (b) The administration and financing of the certification process;
- (c) The notification to the public regarding the aggregate amount of certificates that have been issued and that are on the wait list;
- (d) The notification to the taxpayer, the entity to which the easement was granted, and the department of revenue regarding the certificates issued; and
- (e) Any other matters related to administering the provisions of section 39-22-522 (2.5), C.R.S.

PART 8

BROKERAGE RELATIONSHIPS

Law reviews: For article, “The New Brokerage Legislation: The Demise of ‘Agency By Surprise’”, see 22 Colo. Law. 1919 (1993); for article, “Designated Brokerage: Colorado Real Estate Agency Law Evolves Again”, see 32 Colo. Law. 11 (March 2003).

12-61-801. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that the public will best be served through a better understanding of the public’s legal and working relationships with real estate brokers and by being able to engage any such real estate broker on terms and under conditions that the public and the real estate broker find acceptable. This includes engaging a broker as a single agent or transaction-broker. Individual members of the public should not be exposed to liability for acts or omissions of real estate brokers that have not been approved, directed, or ratified by such individuals. Further, the public should be advised of the general duties, obligations, and responsibilities of the real estate broker they engage.

(2) This part 8 is enacted to govern the relationships between real estate brokers and sellers, landlords, buyers, and tenants in real estate transactions.

Source: L. 93: Entire part added, p. 979, § 1, effective January 1, 1994. L. 2002: (1) amended, p. 1056, § 1, effective January 1, 2003.

ANNOTATION

With this statute, Colorado was the first state to create a non-agent real estate broker. Sussman v. Stoner, 143 F. Supp. 2d 1232 (D. Colo. 2001).

By its terms, the statute does not impose upon a transaction-broker a duty to keep track of land or water values once land is under contract, or a duty to inform a seller that his land or water is worth more than the asking price. Sussman v. Stoner, 143 F. Supp. 2d 1232 (D. Colo. 2001).

Nor does it require that a transaction-broker advise a party that it is not in his or her best interest to accept a given offer. Such requirements are in conflict with the plain terms of the statute. Sussman v. Stoner, 143 F. Supp. 2d 1232 (D. Colo. 2001).

Section 12-61-807(1) clearly states that the transaction-broker is not an agent for either party, nor, according § 12-61-802(6), an advocate for the interests of any party to the transaction. Sussman v. Stoner, 143 F. Supp. 2d 1232 (D. Colo. 2001); Hoff & Leigh, Inc. v. Byler, 62 P.3d 1077 (Colo. App. 2002).

The statute also specifically forbids the broker from disclosing certain information that would give either side a negotiation advantage. Consequently, the broker may not disclose that a buyer is willing to accept less than stated, that a seller is willing to pay more than offered, motivating factors for the purchase or sale, or financing terms which a party might accept. Sussman v. Stoner, 143 F. Supp. 2d 1232 (D. Colo. 2001).

12-61-802. Definitions. As used in this part 8, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Broker” shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 12-61-101 (2), except as otherwise specified in this part 8.

(1.3) “Customer” means a party to a real estate transaction with whom the broker has no brokerage relationship because such party has not engaged or employed a broker.

(1.5) “Designated broker” means an employing broker or employed broker who is designated in writing by an employing broker to serve as a single agent or transaction-broker for a seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant in a real estate transaction. “Designated broker” does not include a real estate brokerage firm that consists of only one licensed natural person.

(2) “Dual agent” means a broker who, with the written informed consent of all parties to a contemplated real estate transaction, is engaged as a limited agent for both the seller and buyer or both the landlord and tenant.

(3) “Limited agent” means an agent whose duties and obligations to a principal are only those set forth in section 12-61-804 or 12-61-805, with any additional duties and obligations agreed to pursuant to section 12-61-803 (5).

(4) “Single agent” means a broker who is engaged by and represents only one party in a real estate transaction. A single agent includes the following:

(a) “Buyer’s agent”, which means a broker who is engaged by and represents the buyer in a real estate transaction;

(b) “Landlord’s agent”, which means a broker who is engaged by and represents the landlord in a leasing transaction;

(c) “Seller’s agent”, which means a broker who is engaged by and represents the seller in a real estate transaction; and

(d) “Tenant’s agent”, which means a broker who is engaged by and represents the tenant in a leasing transaction.

(5) “Subagent” means a broker engaged to act for another broker in performing brokerage tasks for a principal. The subagent owes the same obligations and responsibilities to the principal as does the principal’s broker.

(6) “Transaction-broker” means a broker who assists one or more parties throughout a contemplated real estate transaction with communication, interposition, advisement, negotiation, contract terms, and the closing of such real estate transaction without being an agent or advocate for the interests of any party to such transaction. Upon agreement in writing pursuant to section 12-61-803 (2) or a written disclosure pursuant to section 12-61-808 (2) (d), a transaction-broker may become a single agent.

ANNOTATION

Although this statute still allows a broker to act as an agent for a buyer or seller, unless a different relationship is established by the parties in writing, it is presumed that a broker is acting as a nonagent transaction-broker. Sussman v. Stoner, 143 F. Supp. 2d 1232 (D. Colo. 2001); Hoff & Leigh, Inc. v. Byler, 62 P.3d 1077 (Colo. App. 2002).

12-61-803. Relationships between brokers and the public. (1) When engaged in any of the activities enumerated in section 12-61-101 (2), a broker may act in any transaction as a single agent or transaction-broker. The broker's general duties and obligations arising from that relationship shall be disclosed to the seller and the buyer or to the landlord and the tenant pursuant to section 12-61-808.

(2) A broker shall be considered a transaction-broker unless a single agency relationship is established through a written agreement between the broker and the party or parties to be represented by such broker.

(3) A broker may work with a single party in separate transactions pursuant to different relationships including, but not limited to, selling one property as a seller's agent and working with that seller in buying another property as a transaction-broker or buyer's agent, but only if the broker complies with this part 8 in establishing the relationships for each transaction.

(4) A broker licensed pursuant to part 1 of this article, whether acting as a single agent or transaction-broker, may complete standard forms including those promulgated by the Colorado real estate commission and may advise the parties as to effects thereof if the broker is performing the activities enumerated or referred to in section 12-61-101 (2) in the transaction in which the forms are to be used. In any such transaction, the broker shall advise the parties that the forms have important legal consequences and that the parties should consult legal counsel before signing such forms.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall prohibit the public from entering into written contracts with any broker which contain duties, obligations, or responsibilities which are in addition to those specified in this part 8.

(6) (a) If a real estate brokerage firm has more than one licensed natural person, the employing broker or an individual broker employed or engaged by that employing broker shall be designated to work with the seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant as a designated broker. The employing broker may designate more than one of its individual brokers to work with a seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant.

(b) The brokerage relationship established between the seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant and a designated broker, including the duties, obligations, and responsibilities of that relationship, shall not extend to the employing broker nor to any other broker employed or engaged by that employing broker who has not been so designated and shall not extend to the firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, corporation, or other entity that employs such broker.

(c) A real estate broker may have designated brokers working as single agents for a seller or landlord and a buyer or tenant in the same real estate transaction without creating dual agency for the employing real estate broker, or any broker employed or engaged by that employing real estate broker.

(d) An individual broker may be designated to work for both a seller or landlord and a buyer or tenant in the same transaction as a transaction-broker for both, as a single agent for the seller or landlord treating the buyer or tenant as a customer, or as a single agent for a buyer or tenant treating the seller or landlord as a customer, but not as a single agent for both. The applicable designated broker relationship shall be disclosed in writing to the seller or landlord and buyer or tenant in a timely manner pursuant to rules promulgated by the real estate commission.

(e) A designated broker may work with a seller or landlord in one transaction and work with a buyer or tenant in another transaction.

(f) When a designated broker serves as a single agent pursuant to section 12-61-804 or 12-61-805, there shall be no imputation of knowledge to the employing or employed broker who has not been so designated.

(g) The extent and limitations of the brokerage relationship with the designated broker shall be disclosed to the seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant working with that designated broker pursuant to section 12-61-808.

(7) No seller, buyer, landlord, or tenant shall be vicariously liable for a broker's acts or omissions that have not been approved, directed, or ratified by such seller, buyer, landlord, or tenant.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the employing broker's or firm's responsibility to supervise licensees employed by such broker or firm nor to shield such broker or firm from vicarious liability.

12-61-804. Single agent engaged by seller or landlord. (1) A broker engaged by a seller or landlord to act as a seller's agent or a landlord's agent is a limited agent with the following duties and obligations:

- (a) To perform the terms of the written agreement made with the seller or landlord;
- (b) To exercise reasonable skill and care for the seller or landlord;
- (c) To promote the interests of the seller or landlord with the utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity, including, but not limited to:
 - (I) Seeking a price and terms which are acceptable to the seller or landlord; except that the broker shall not be obligated to seek additional offers to purchase the property while the property is subject to a contract for sale or to seek additional offers to lease the property while the property is subject to a lease or letter of intent to lease;
 - (II) Presenting all offers to and from the seller or landlord in a timely manner regardless of whether the property is subject to a contract for sale or a lease or letter of intent to lease;
 - (III) Disclosing to the seller or landlord adverse material facts actually known by the broker;
 - (IV) Counseling the seller or landlord as to any material benefits or risks of a transaction which are actually known by the broker;
 - (V) Advising the seller or landlord to obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the broker knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of such broker;
 - (VI) Accounting in a timely manner for all money and property received; and
 - (VII) Informing the seller or landlord that such seller or landlord shall not be vicariously liable for the acts of such seller's or landlord's agent that are not approved, directed, or ratified by such seller or landlord.
- (d) To comply with all requirements of this article and any rules promulgated pursuant to this article; and
- (e) To comply with any applicable federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances including fair housing and civil rights statutes or regulations.

(2) The following information shall not be disclosed by a broker acting as a seller's or landlord's agent without the informed consent of the seller or landlord:

- (a) That a seller or landlord is willing to accept less than the asking price or lease rate for the property;
- (b) What the motivating factors are for the party selling or leasing the property;

(c) That the seller or landlord will agree to financing terms other than those offered;
(d) Any material information about the seller or landlord unless disclosure is required by law or failure to disclose such information would constitute fraud or dishonest dealing; or

(e) Any facts or suspicions regarding circumstances which may psychologically impact or stigmatize any real property pursuant to section 38-35.5-101, C.R.S.

(3) (a) A broker acting as a seller's or landlord's agent owes no duty or obligation to the buyer or tenant; except that a broker shall, subject to the limitations of section 38-35.5-101, C.R.S., concerning psychologically impacted property, disclose to any prospective buyer or tenant all adverse material facts actually known by such broker. Such adverse material facts may include but shall not be limited to adverse material facts pertaining to the title and the physical condition of the property, any material defects in the property, and any environmental hazards affecting the property which are required by law to be disclosed.

(b) A seller's or landlord's agent owes no duty to conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of the buyer or tenant and owes no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any statement made by such seller or landlord or any independent inspector.

(4) A seller's or landlord's agent may show alternative properties not owned by such seller or landlord to prospective buyers or tenants and may list competing properties for sale or lease and not be deemed to have breached any duty or obligation to such seller or landlord.

(5) A designated broker acting as a seller's or landlord's agent may cooperate with other brokers but may not engage or create any subagents.

ANNOTATION

Broker breached its duty of loyalty by pressuring its principal to sell the property subject to the parties' listing contract and by failing to disclose information material to the contract. Mabry v. Tom Stanger & Co., 33 P.3d 1206 (Colo. App. 2001).

Certificate of review required by § 13-20-602 is not a prerequisite to a lawsuit based on a licensed real estate broker's alleged violation of subsection (3)(a) of this section. Expert testimony would not ordinarily be necessary to prove such a claim. Baumgarten v. Coppage, 15 P.3d 304 (Colo. App. 2000).

12-61-805. Single agent engaged by buyer or tenant. (1) A broker engaged by a buyer or tenant to act as a buyer's or tenant's agent shall be a limited agent with the following duties and obligations:

(a) To perform the terms of the written agreement made with the buyer or tenant;
(b) To exercise reasonable skill and care for the buyer or tenant;
(c) To promote the interests of the buyer or tenant with the utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity, including, but not limited to:

(I) Seeking a price and terms which are acceptable to the buyer or tenant; except that the broker shall not be obligated to seek other properties while the buyer is a party to a contract to purchase property or while the tenant is a party to a lease or letter of intent to lease;

(II) Presenting all offers to and from the buyer or tenant in a timely manner regardless of whether the buyer is already a party to a contract to purchase property or the tenant is already a party to a contract or a letter of intent to lease;

(III) Disclosing to the buyer or tenant adverse material facts actually known by the broker;

(IV) Counseling the buyer or tenant as to any material benefits or risks of a transaction which are actually known by the broker;

(V) Advising the buyer or tenant to obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the broker knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of such broker;

(VI) Accounting in a timely manner for all money and property received; and

(VII) Informing the buyer or tenant that such buyer or tenant shall not be vicariously liable for the acts of such buyer's or tenant's agent that are not approved, directed, or ratified by such buyer or tenant;

(d) To comply with all requirements of this article and any rules promulgated pursuant to this article; and

(e) To comply with any applicable federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances including fair housing and civil rights statutes or regulations.

(2) The following information shall not be disclosed by a broker acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent without the informed consent of the buyer or tenant:

(a) That a buyer or tenant is willing to pay more than the purchase price or lease rate for the property;

(b) What the motivating factors are for the party buying or leasing the property;

(c) That the buyer or tenant will agree to financing terms other than those offered;

(d) Any material information about the buyer or tenant unless disclosure is required by law or failure to disclose such information would constitute fraud or dishonest dealing; or

(e) Any facts or suspicions regarding circumstances which would psychologically impact or stigmatize any real property pursuant to section 38-35.5-101, C.R.S.

(3) (a) A broker acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent owes no duty or obligation to the seller or landlord; except that such broker shall disclose to any prospective seller or landlord all adverse material facts actually known by the broker including but not limited to adverse material facts concerning the buyer's or tenant's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction and whether the buyer intends to occupy the property to be purchased as a principal residence.

(b) A buyer's or tenant's agent owes no duty to conduct an independent investigation of the buyer's or tenant's financial condition for the benefit of the seller or landlord and owes no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by such buyer or tenant or any independent inspector.

(4) A buyer's or tenant's agent may show properties in which the buyer or tenant is interested to other prospective buyers or tenants without breaching any duty or obligation to such buyer or tenant. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a buyer's or tenant's agent from showing competing buyers or tenants the same property and from assisting competing buyers or tenants in attempting to purchase or lease a particular property.

(5) A broker acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent owes no duty to conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of the buyer or tenant and owes no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the seller, landlord, or independent inspectors; except that nothing in this subsection (5) shall be construed to limit the broker's duties and obligations imposed pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(6) A broker acting as a buyer's or tenant's agent may cooperate with other brokers but may not engage or create any subagents.

12-61-807. Transaction-broker. (1) A broker engaged as a transaction-broker is not an agent for either party.

(2) A transaction-broker shall have the following obligations and responsibilities:

(a) To perform the terms of any written or oral agreement made with any party to the transaction;

(b) To exercise reasonable skill and care as a transaction-broker, including, but not limited to:

(I) Presenting all offers and counteroffers in a timely manner regardless of whether the property is subject to a contract for sale or lease or letter of intent;

(II) Advising the parties regarding the transaction and suggesting that such parties obtain expert advice as to material matters about which the transaction-broker knows but the specifics of which are beyond the expertise of such broker;

(III) Accounting in a timely manner for all money and property received;

(IV) Keeping the parties fully informed regarding the transaction;

(V) Assisting the parties in complying with the terms and conditions of any contract including closing the transaction;

(VI) Disclosing to all prospective buyers or tenants any adverse material facts actually known by the broker including but not limited to adverse material facts pertaining to the title, the physical condition of the property, any defects in the property, and any environmental hazards affecting the property required by law to be disclosed;

(VII) Disclosing to any prospective seller or landlord all adverse material facts actually known by the broker including but not limited to adverse material facts pertaining to the buyer's or tenant's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction and the buyer's intent to occupy the property as a principal residence; and

(VIII) Informing the parties that as seller and buyer or as landlord and tenant they shall not be vicariously liable for any acts of the transaction-broker;

(c) To comply with all requirements of this article and any rules promulgated pursuant to this article; and

(d) To comply with any applicable federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations, or ordinances including fair housing and civil rights statutes or regulations.

(3) The following information shall not be disclosed by a transaction-broker without the informed consent of all parties:

(a) That a buyer or tenant is willing to pay more than the purchase price or lease rate offered for the property;

(b) That a seller or landlord is willing to accept less than the asking price or lease rate for the property;

(c) What the motivating factors are for any party buying, selling, or leasing the property;

(d) That a seller, buyer, landlord, or tenant will agree to financing terms other than those offered;

(e) Any facts or suspicions regarding circumstances which may psychologically impact or stigmatize any real property pursuant to section 38-35.5-101, C.R.S.; or

(f) Any material information about the other party unless disclosure is required by law or failure to disclose such information would constitute fraud or dishonest dealing.

(4) A transaction-broker has no duty to conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of the buyer or tenant and has no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the seller, landlord, or independent inspectors.

(5) A transaction-broker has no duty to conduct an independent investigation of the buyer's or tenant's financial condition or to verify the accuracy or completeness of any statement made by the buyer or tenant.

(6) A transaction-broker may do the following without breaching any obligation or responsibility:

(a) Show alternative properties not owned by the seller or landlord to a prospective buyer or tenant;

(b) List competing properties for sale or lease;

(c) Show properties in which the buyer or tenant is interested to other prospective buyers or tenants; and

(d) Serve as a single agent or transaction-broker for the same or for different parties in other real estate transactions.

(7) There shall be no imputation of knowledge or information between any party and the transaction-broker or among persons within an entity engaged as a transaction-broker.

(8) A transaction-broker may cooperate with other brokers but shall not engage or create any subagents.

Source: L. 93: Entire part added, p. 986, § 1, effective January 1, 1994. L. 2002: (6)(d) and (8) amended, p. 1061, § 7, effective January 1, 2003.

ANNOTATION

A transaction-broker has certain statutory obligations and responsibilities as expressed in subsections (2) and (3). Hoff & Leigh, Inc. v. Byler, 62 P.3d 1077 (Colo. App. 2002).

Although the statute enumerates the obligations and responsibilities of a transaction-broker, it does not prescribe a remedy for nonperformance of these obligations. Hoff & Leigh, Inc. v. Byler, 62 P.3d 1077 (Colo. App. 2002).

A transaction broker has no duty to investigate whether an assertion is true. The statute clearly states that a transaction broker is under no duty to independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the seller or independent inspectors for the benefit of the buyer. Barfield v. Hall Realty, Inc., 232 P.3d 286 (Colo. App. 2010).

12-61-808. Broker disclosures. (1) (a) Any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, association, or corporation acting as a broker shall adopt a written office policy that identifies and describes the relationships offered to the public by such broker.

(b) A broker shall not be required to offer or engage in any one or in all of the brokerage relationships enumerated in section 12-61-804, 12-61-805, or 12-61-807.

(c) Written disclosures and written agreements required by subsection (2) of this section shall contain a statement to the seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant that different brokerage relationships are available that include buyer agency, seller agency, or status as a transaction-broker. Should the seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant request information or ask questions concerning a brokerage relationship not offered by the broker pursuant to the broker's written office policy enumerated in subsection (1) (a) of this section, the broker shall provide to the party a written definition of that brokerage relationship that has been promulgated by the Colorado real estate commission.

(d) Disclosures made in accordance with this part 8 shall be sufficient to disclose brokerage relationships to the public.

(2) (a) (I) Prior to engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 12-61-101 (2), a transaction-broker shall disclose in writing to the party to be assisted that such broker is not acting as agent for such party and that such broker is acting as a transaction-broker.

(II) As part of each relationship entered into by a broker pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a), written disclosure shall be made which shall contain a signature block for the buyer, seller, landlord, or tenant to acknowledge receipt of such disclosure. Such disclosure and acknowledgment, by itself, shall not constitute a contract with the broker. If such buyer, seller, landlord, or tenant chooses not to sign the acknowledgment, the broker shall note that fact on a copy of the disclosure and shall retain such copy.

(III) If the transaction-broker undertakes any obligations or responsibilities in addition to or different from those set forth in section 12-61-807, such obligations or responsibilities shall be disclosed in a writing which shall be signed by the involved parties.

(b) Prior to engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 12-61-101 (2), a broker intending to establish a single agency relationship with a seller, landlord, buyer, or tenant shall enter into a written agency agreement with the party to be represented. Such agreement shall disclose the duties and responsibilities specified in section 12-61-804 or 12-61-805, as applicable. Notice of the single agency relationship shall be furnished to any prospective party to the proposed transaction in a timely manner.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2002, p. 1061, § 8, effective January 1, 2003.)

(d) (I) Prior to engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 12-61-101 (2), a broker intending to work with a buyer or tenant as an agent of the seller or landlord shall provide a written disclosure to such buyer or tenant that shall contain the following:

(A) A statement that the broker is an agent for the seller or landlord and is not an agent for the buyer or tenant;

(B) A list of the tasks that the agent intends to perform for the seller or landlord with the buyer or tenant; and

(C) A statement that the buyer or tenant shall not be vicariously liable for the acts of the agent unless the buyer or tenant approves, directs, or ratifies such acts.

(II) The written disclosure required pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d), shall contain a signature block for the buyer or tenant to acknowledge receipt of such disclosure. Such disclosure and acknowledgment, by itself, shall not constitute a contract with the broker. If the buyer or tenant does not sign such disclosure, the broker shall note that fact on a copy of such disclosure and retain such copy.

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2002, p. 1061, § 8, effective January 1, 2003.)

(f) A broker who has already established a relationship with one party to a proposed transaction shall advise at the earliest reasonable opportunity any other potential parties or their agents of such established relationship.

(g) (I) Prior to engaging in any of the activities enumerated in section 12-61-101 (2), the seller, buyer, landlord, or tenant shall be advised in any written agreement with a broker that the brokerage relationship exists only with the designated broker, does not extend to the employing broker or to any other brokers employed or engaged by the employing broker who are not so designated, and does not extend to the brokerage company.

(II) Nothing in this paragraph (g) shall be construed to limit the employing broker's or firm's responsibility to supervise licensees employed by such broker or firm nor to shield such broker or firm from vicarious liability.

L. 2008: (2)(a)(I), (2)(b), IP(2)(d)(I), and (2)(g)(I) amended, p. 509, § 25, effective April 17.

12-61-809. Duration of relationship. (1) (a) The relationships set forth in this part 8 shall commence at the time that the broker is engaged by a party and shall continue until performance or completion of the agreement by which the broker was engaged.

(b) If the agreement by which the broker was engaged is not performed or completed for any reason, the relationship shall end at the earlier of the following:

(I) Any date of expiration agreed upon by the parties;

(II) Any termination or relinquishment of the relationship by the parties; or

(III) One year after the date of the engagement.

(2) (a) Except as otherwise agreed to in writing and pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), a broker engaged as a seller's agent or buyer's agent owes no further duty or obligation after termination or expiration of the contract or completion of performance.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), a broker shall be responsible after termination or expiration of the contract or completion of performance for the following:

(I) Accounting for all moneys and property related to and received during the engagement; and

(II) Keeping confidential all information received during the course of the engagement which was made confidential by request or instructions from the engaging party unless:

(A) The engaging party grants written consent to disclose such information;

(B) Disclosure of such information is required by law; or

(C) The information is made public or becomes public by the words or conduct of the engaging party or from a source other than the broker.

(3) Except as otherwise agreed to in writing, a transaction-broker owes no further obligation or responsibility to the engaging party after termination or expiration of the contract for performance or completion of performance; except that such broker shall account for all moneys and property related to and received during the engagement.

ANNOTATION

The terms of a brokerage agreement govern the duration of the relationship between the parties to the agreement, and the one-year limitation applies only to those agreements as to which there has not been completion of performance in accordance with their terms. Where performance had begun and was continuing at the end of the first year of an agreement structured with a one-year term and two automatic renewal periods, completion of performance within the terms of the agreement was still capable of being achieved. Only in the absence of completion of performance within the terms of the agreement do statutory alternatives apply. Prop. Asset Brokerage, LLC v. Magna Assocs. Liquidating Trust, 992 P.2d 654 (Colo. App. 1999).

Broker's obligations extended past the expiration of the exclusive listing agreement and continued until the performance or completion of the agreement; thus, the broker's relationship to the engaging party was not converted to a transaction-broker and the broker continued to owe the engaging party the duties owed by a seller's agent. Mabry v. Tom Stanger & Co., 33 P.3d 1206 (Colo. App. 2001).

12-61-810. Compensation. (1) In any real estate transaction, the broker's compensation may be paid by the seller, the buyer, the landlord, the tenant, a third party, or by the sharing or splitting of a commission or compensation between brokers.

(2) Payment of compensation shall not be construed to establish an agency relationship between the broker and the party who paid such compensation.

(3) A seller or landlord may agree that a transaction-broker or single agent may share the commission or other compensation paid by such seller or landlord with another broker.

(4) A buyer or tenant may agree that a single agent or transaction-broker may share the commission or other compensation paid by such buyer or tenant with another broker.

(5) A buyer's or tenant's agent shall obtain the written approval of such buyer or tenant before such agent may propose to the seller's or landlord's agent that such buyer's or tenant's agent be compensated by sharing compensation paid by such seller or landlord.

(6) Prior to entering into a brokerage or listing agreement or a contract to buy, sell, or lease, the identity of those parties, persons, or entities paying compensation or commissions to any broker shall be disclosed to the parties to the transaction.

(7) A broker may be compensated by more than one party for services in a transaction, if those parties have consented in writing to such multiple payments prior to entering into a contract to buy, sell, or lease.

12-61-811. Violations. The violation of any provision of this part 8 by a broker constitutes an act pursuant to section 12-61-113 (1) (k) for which the real estate commission may investigate and take administrative action against any such broker pursuant to sections 12-61-113 and 12-61-114.

PART 9

MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATORS

12-61-901. Short title. This part 9 shall be known and may be cited as the "Mortgage Loan Originator Licensing and Mortgage Company Registration Act".

Source: L. 2006: Entire part added, p. 1581, § 1, effective July 1. L. 2007: Entire section amended, p. 1731, § 3, effective January 1, 2008. L. 2009: Entire part amended, (HB 09-1085), ch. 303, p. 1611, § 1, effective August 5. L. 2010: Entire section amended, (HB 10-1141), ch. 280, p. 1283, § 2, effective August 11.

12-61-902. Definitions. As used in this part 9, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Affiliate” means a person who, directly or indirectly, through intermediaries controls, is controlled by, or is under the common control of another person addressed by this part 9.

(1.2) “Affordable housing dwelling unit” means an affordable housing dwelling unit as defined in section 29-26-102, C.R.S.

(1.3) “Board” means the board of mortgage loan originators created in section 12-61-902.5.

(1.5) “Borrower” means any person who consults with or retains a mortgage loan originator in an effort to obtain or seek advice or information on obtaining or applying to obtain a residential mortgage loan for himself, herself, or persons including himself or herself, regardless of whether the person actually obtains such a loan.

(1.7) “Community development organization” means any community housing development organization or community land trust as defined by the federal “Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act of 1990” or a community-based development organization as defined by the federal “Housing and Community Development Act of 1974”, that is also either a private or public nonprofit organization that is exempt from taxation under section 501 (a) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986” pursuant to section 501 (c) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (a) and 501 (c), and that receives funding from the United States department of housing and urban development, Colorado division of housing, Colorado housing and finance authority, or United States department of agriculture rural development, or through a grantee of the United States department of housing and urban development, purely for the purpose of community housing development activities.

(2) “Depository institution” has the same meaning as set forth in the “Federal Deposit Insurance Act”, 12 U.S.C. sec. 1813 (c), and includes a credit union.

(3) “Director” means the director of the division of real estate.

(4) “Division” means the division of real estate.

(4.3) “Dwelling” shall have the same meaning as set forth in the federal “Truth in Lending Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1602 (v).

(4.5) “Federal banking agency” means the board of governors of the federal reserve system, the comptroller of the currency, the director of the office of thrift supervision, the national credit union administration, or the federal deposit insurance corporation.

(4.6) “HUD-approved housing counseling agency” means an agency that is either a private or public nonprofit organization that is exempt from taxation under section 501 (a) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986” pursuant to section 501 (c) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (a) and 501 (c), and approved by the United States department of housing and urban development, in accordance with the housing counseling program handbook section 7610.1 and 24 CFR 214.

(4.7) “Individual” means a natural person.

(4.9) (a) “Loan processor or underwriter” means an individual who performs clerical or support duties at the direction of, and subject to supervision by, a state-licensed loan originator or a registered loan originator.

(b) As used in this subsection (4.9), “clerical or support duties” includes duties performed after receipt of an application for a residential mortgage loan, including:

(I) The receipt, collection, distribution, and analysis of information commonly used for the processing or underwriting of a residential mortgage loan; and

(II) Communicating with a borrower to obtain the information necessary to process or underwrite a loan, to the extent that the communication does not include offering or negotiating loan rates or terms or counseling consumers about residential mortgage loan rates or terms.

(5) "Mortgage company" means a person other than an individual who, through employees or other individuals, takes residential loan applications or offers or negotiates terms of a residential mortgage loan.

(5.5) "Mortgage lender" means a lender who is in the business of making residential mortgage loans if:

(a) The lender is the payee on the promissory note evidencing the loan; and

(b) The loan proceeds are obtained by the lender from its own funds or from a line of credit made available to the lender from a bank or other entity that regularly loans money to lenders for the purpose of funding mortgage loans.

(6) (a) "Mortgage loan originator" means an individual who:

(I) Takes a residential mortgage loan application; or

(II) Offers or negotiates terms of a residential mortgage loan.

(b) "Mortgage loan originator" does not include:

(I) An individual engaged solely as a loan processor or underwriter;

(II) A person that only performs real estate brokerage or sales activities and is licensed or registered pursuant to part 1 of this article, unless the person is compensated by a mortgage lender or a mortgage loan originator;

(III) A person solely involved in extensions of credit relating to time share plans, as defined in 11 U.S.C. sec. 101 (53D);

(IV) An individual who is servicing a mortgage loan; or

(V) A person that only performs the services and activities of a dealer, as defined in section 24-32-3302, C.R.S.

(6.3) "Nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry" means a mortgage licensing system developed pursuant to the federal "Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008", 12 U.S.C. sec. 5101 et seq., to track the licensing and registration of mortgage loan originators and that is established and maintained by:

(a) The conference of state bank supervisors and the American association of residential mortgage regulators, or their successor entities; or

(b) The secretary of the United States department of housing and urban development.

(6.5) "Nontraditional mortgage product" means a mortgage product other than a thirty-year, fixed-rate mortgage.

(7) "Originate a mortgage" means to act, directly or indirectly, as a mortgage loan originator.

(7.5) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, company, limited liability company, partnership, firm, association, or other legal entity.

(7.6) "Quasi-government agency" means an agency that is either a private or public nonprofit organization that is exempt from taxation under section 501 (a) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" pursuant to section 501 (c) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (a) and 501 (c), and was created to operate in accordance with article 4 of title 29, C.R.S., as a public housing authority.

(7.7) "Real estate brokerage activity" means an activity that involves offering or providing real estate brokerage services to the public, including, without limitation:

(a) Acting as a real estate agent or real estate broker for a buyer, seller, lessor, or lessee of real property;

(b) Bringing together parties interested in the sale, purchase, lease, rental, or exchange of real property;

(c) Negotiating, on behalf of any party, any portion of a contract relating to the sale, purchase, lease, rental, or exchange of real property, other than matters related to financing for the transaction;

(d) Engaging in an activity for which a person engaged in the activity is required under applicable law to be registered or licensed as a real estate agent or real estate broker; or

(e) Offering to engage in any activity, or act in any capacity related to such activity, described in this subsection (7.7).

(8) "Residential mortgage loan" means a loan that is primarily for personal, family, or household use and that is secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, or other equivalent, consensual security interest on a dwelling or residential real estate upon which is constructed or intended to be constructed a single-family dwelling or multiple-family dwelling of four or fewer units.

(9) "Residential real estate" means any real property upon which a dwelling is or will be constructed.

(9.5) "Self-help housing organization" means a private or public nonprofit organization that is exempt from taxation under section 501 (a) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986" pursuant to section 501 (c) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (a) and 501 (c), and that purely originates residential mortgage loans with interest rates no greater than zero percent for borrowers who have provided part of the labor to construct the dwelling securing the loan or that receives funding from the United States department of agriculture rural development section 502 mutual self-help housing program for borrowers that have provided part of the labor to construct the dwelling securing the loan.

(10) "Servicing a mortgage loan" means collecting, receiving, or obtaining the right to collect or receive payments on behalf of a mortgage lender, including payments of principal, interest, escrow amounts, and other amounts due on obligations due and owing to the mortgage lender.

(11) "State-licensed loan originator" means an individual who is:

(a) A mortgage loan originator or engages in the activities of a mortgage loan originator;

(b) Not an employee of a depository institution or a subsidiary that is:

(I) Owned and controlled by a depository institution; and

(II) Regulated by a federal banking agency;

(c) Licensed or required to be licensed pursuant to this part 9; and

(d) Registered as a state-licensed loan originator with, and maintains a unique identifier through, the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry.

(12) "Unique identifier" means a number or other identifier assigned to a mortgage loan originator pursuant to protocols established by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry.

12-61-902.5. Board of mortgage loan originators - creation - compensation - enforcement of part after board creation - immunity. (1) There is hereby created in the division a board of mortgage loan originators, consisting of five members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. Of the members, three shall be licensed mortgage loan originators and two shall be members of the public at large not engaged in mortgage loan origination or mortgage lending. Of the members of the board appointed for terms beginning on and after August 11, 2010, two of the members appointed as mortgage loan originators and one of the members appointed as a member of the public at large shall be appointed for terms of two years, and one of the members appointed as a mortgage loan originator and one of the members appointed as a member of the public at large shall serve for terms of four years. Thereafter, members of the board shall hold office for a term of four years. In the event of a vacancy by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, the governor shall appoint a member to fill the unexpired term. The governor shall have the authority to remove any member for misconduct, neglect of duty, or incompetence.

(2) (a) The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions under the department of regulatory agencies as if transferred to the department by a type 1 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the “Administrative Organization Act of 1968”, article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part 9, on and after the creation of the board by this section, the board shall exercise all of the rule-making, enforcement, and administrative authority of the director set forth in this part 9. The board has the authority to delegate to the director any enforcement and administrative authority under this part 9 that the board deems necessary and appropriate. If the board delegates any enforcement or administrative authority under this part 9 to the director, the director shall only be entitled to exercise such authority as specifically delegated in writing to the director by the board.

(3) Each member of the board shall receive the same compensation and reimbursement of expenses as those provided for members of boards and commissions in the division of professions and occupations pursuant to section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S. Payment for all per diem compensation and expenses shall be made out of annual appropriations from the mortgage loan originator licensing cash fund created in section 12-61-908.

(4) Members of the board, consultants, and expert witnesses shall be immune from suit in any civil action based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts they performed in good faith pursuant to this part 9.

(5) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, and actions of the board shall require a vote of a majority of the members present in favor of the action taken.

(6) (a) All rules promulgated by the director prior to August 11, 2010, shall remain in full force and effect until repealed or modified by the board. The board shall have the authority to enforce any previously promulgated rules of the director under this part 9 and any rules promulgated by the board.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect any action taken by the director prior to August 11, 2010. No person who, on or before August 11, 2010, holds a license issued under this part 9 shall be required to secure an additional license under this part 9, but shall otherwise be subject to all the provisions of this part 9. A license previously issued shall, for all purposes, be considered a license issued by the board under this part 9.

12-61-903. License required - rules. (1) (a) On or after August 5, 2009, unless licensed by the board, an individual shall not originate a mortgage, offer to originate a mortgage, act as a mortgage loan originator, or offer to act as a mortgage loan originator. On or after December 31, 2010, unless licensed by the board and registered with the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry as a state-licensed loan originator, an individual shall not originate or offer to originate a mortgage or act or offer to act as a mortgage loan originator.

(b) On and after January 1, 2010, a licensed mortgage loan originator shall apply for license renewal in accordance with subsection (4) of this section every calendar year as determined by the board by rule.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1085), ch. 303, p. 1615, § 1, effective August 5, 2009.)

(1.5) An independent contractor may not engage in residential mortgage loan origination activities as a loan processor or underwriter unless the independent contractor is a state-licensed loan originator.

(2) An applicant for initial licensing as a mortgage loan originator shall submit to the board the following:

(a) A criminal history record check in compliance with subsection (5) of this section;

(b) A disclosure of all administrative discipline taken against the applicant concerning the categories listed in section 12-61-905 (1) (c); and

(c) The application fee established by the board in accordance with section 12-61-908.

(3) (a) In addition to the requirements imposed by subsection (2) of this section, on or after August 5, 2009, each individual applicant for initial licensing as a mortgage loan originator shall have satisfactorily completed a mortgage lending fundamentals course approved by the board and consisting of at least nine hours of instruction in subjects related to mortgage lending. In addition, the applicant shall have satisfactorily completed a written examination approved by the board.

(b) The board may contract with one or more independent testing services to develop, administer, and grade the examinations required by paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) and to maintain and administer licensee records. The contract may allow the testing service to recover from applicants its costs incurred in connection with these functions. The board may contract separately for these functions and may allow the costs to be collected by a single contractor for distribution to other contractors.

(c) The board may publish reports summarizing statistical information prepared by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry relating to mortgage loan originator examinations.

(4) An applicant for license renewal shall submit to the board the following:

(a) A disclosure of all administrative discipline taken against the applicant concerning the categories listed in section 12-61-905 (1) (c); and

(b) The renewal fee established by the board in accordance with section 12-61-908.

(5) (a) Prior to submitting an application for a license, an applicant shall submit a set of fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation. Upon receipt of the applicant's fingerprints, the Colorado bureau of investigation shall use the fingerprints to conduct a state and national criminal history record check using records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation. All costs arising from such criminal history record check shall be borne by the applicant and shall be paid when the set of fingerprints is submitted. Upon completion of the criminal history record check, the bureau shall forward the results to the board. The board may acquire a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable.

(b) If the board determines that the criminal background check provided by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry is a sufficient method of screening license applicants to protect Colorado consumers, the board may, by rule, authorize the use of that criminal background check instead of the criminal history record check otherwise required by this subsection (5).

(5.5) (a) On and after January 1, 2010, in connection with an application for a license as a mortgage loan originator, the applicant shall furnish information concerning the applicant's identity to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry. The applicant shall furnish, at a minimum, the following:

(I) Fingerprints for submission to the federal bureau of investigation and any government agency or entity authorized to receive fingerprints for a state, national, or international criminal history record check; and

(II) Personal history and experience, in a form prescribed by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry, including submission of authorization for the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry to obtain:

(A) An independent credit report from the consumer reporting agency described in the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681a (p); and

(B) Information related to any administrative, civil, or criminal findings by a government jurisdiction.

(b) An applicant is responsible for paying all costs arising from a criminal history record check and shall pay such costs upon submission of fingerprints.

(c) The board may acquire a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable.

(5.7) Any individual who obtains a license pursuant to this part 9 prior to January 1, 2010, shall furnish at least the following information concerning the individual's identity to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry:

(a) Fingerprints for submission to the federal bureau of investigation and any government agency or entity authorized to receive fingerprints for a state, national, or international criminal history record check; and

(b) Personal history and experience in a form prescribed by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry, including submission of authorization for the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry to obtain:

(I) An independent credit report from the consumer reporting agency described in the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681a (p); and

(II) Information related to any administrative, civil, or criminal findings by a government jurisdiction.

(6) Before granting a license to an applicant, the board shall require the applicant to post a bond as required by section 12-61-907.

(7) The board shall issue or deny a license within sixty days after:

(a) The applicant has submitted the requisite information to the board and the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry, including, but not limited to, the completed application, the application fee, and proof that the applicant has posted a surety bond and obtained errors and omissions insurance; and

(b) The board receives the completed criminal history record check and all other relevant information or documents necessary to reasonably ascertain facts underlying the applicant's criminal history.

(8) (a) The board may require, as a condition of license renewal on or after January 1, 2009, continuing education of licensees for the purpose of enhancing the professional competence and professional responsibility of all licensees.

(b) Continuing professional education requirements shall be determined by the board by rule; except that licensees shall be required to complete at least eight credit hours of continuing education each year. The board may contract with one or more independent service providers to develop, review, or approve continuing education courses. The contract may allow the independent service provider to recover from licensees its costs incurred in connection with these functions. The board may contract separately for these functions and may allow the costs to be collected by a single contractor for distribution to other contractors.

(9) (a) The board may require contractors and prospective contractors for services under subsections (3) and (8) of this section to submit, for the board's review and approval, information regarding the contents and materials of proposed courses and other documentation reasonably necessary to further the purposes of this section.

(b) The board may set fees for the initial and continuing review of courses for which credit hours will be granted. The initial filing fee for review of materials shall not exceed five hundred dollars, and the fee for continued review shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars per year per course offered.

(10) The board may adopt reasonable rules to implement this section. The board may adopt rules necessary to implement provisions required in the federal "Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008", 12 U.S.C. sec. 5101 et seq., and for participation in the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry.

(11) In order to fulfill the purposes of this part 9, the board may establish relationships or contracts with the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry or other entities designated by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry to collect and maintain records and process transaction fees or other fees related to licensees or other persons subject to this part 9.

(12) The board may use the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry as a channeling agent for requesting information from or distributing information to the department of justice, a government agency, or any other source.

12-61-903.1. Registration required - rules. (1) On or after January 1, 2011, each mortgage company shall register with the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry, unless exempted by rule by the board, and shall renew such registration each calendar year based on the following criteria:

- (a) (I) The mortgage company is legally operating in the state of Colorado in accordance with standards determined and administered by the Colorado secretary of state; and
- (II) The mortgage company is not legally barred from operating in Colorado.
- (b) Sole proprietors, general partnerships, and other mortgage companies not otherwise required to register with the secretary of state shall register using a trade name.

12-61-903.3. License or registration inactivation. (1) The board may inactivate a state license or a registration with the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry when a licensee has failed to:

- (a) Comply with the surety bond requirements of sections 12-61-903 (6) and 12-61-907;
- (b) Comply with the errors and omissions insurance requirement in section 12-61-903.5 or any rule of the board that directly or indirectly addresses errors and omissions insurance requirements;
- (c) Maintain current contact information, surety bond information, or errors and omissions insurance information as required by this part 9 or by any rule of the board that directly or indirectly addresses such requirements;
- (d) Respond to an investigation or examination;
- (e) Comply with any of the education or testing requirements set forth in this part 9 or in any rule of the board that directly or indirectly addresses education or testing requirements; or
- (f) Register with and provide all required information to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry.

12-61-903.5. Errors and omissions insurance - duties of the board - certificate of coverage - when required - group plan made available - effect. (1) (a) Every licensee under this part 9 shall maintain errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under this part 9.

- (b) The requirements of this subsection (1) shall not apply to:
 - (I) A mortgage loan originator with an inactive license or registration; or
 - (II) An attorney licensed as a loan originator who maintains a policy of professional malpractice insurance that provides coverage for errors and omissions for activities of the attorney licensee regulated by this part 9.
- (2) The board shall determine the terms and conditions of coverage required under this section, including the minimum limits of coverage, the permissible deductible, and permissible exemptions. Each licensee subject to the requirements of this section shall maintain evidence of coverage, in a manner satisfactory to the board, demonstrating continuing compliance with the required terms.

Editor's note: This version of this section is effective until July 1, 2013.

12-61-903.5. Errors and omissions insurance - duties of the board - certificate of coverage - when required - group plan made available - effect - rules. (1) Every licensee under this part 9, except an inactive mortgage loan originator or an attorney licensee who maintains a policy of professional malpractice insurance that provides coverage for errors and omissions insurance for their activities as a licensee under this part 9, shall maintain errors and omissions insurance to cover all activities contemplated under this part 9. The division shall make the errors and omissions insurance available to all licensees by contracting with an insurer for a group policy after a competitive bid process in accordance with article 103 of title 24, C.R.S. A group policy obtained by the division must be available to all licensees with no right on the part of the insurer to cancel a licensee. A licensee may obtain errors and omissions insurance independently if the coverage complies with the minimum requirements established by the division.

(2) (a) If the division is unable to obtain errors and omissions insurance coverage to insure all licensees who choose to participate in the group program at a reasonable annual premium, as determined by the division, a licensee shall independently obtain the errors and omissions insurance required by this section.

(b) The division shall solicit and consider information and comments from interested persons when determining the reasonableness of annual premiums.

(3) The division shall determine the terms and conditions of coverage required under this section based on rules promulgated by the board. Each licensee shall be notified of the required terms and conditions at least thirty days before the annual premium renewal date as determined by the division. Each licensee shall file a certificate of coverage showing compliance with the required terms and conditions with the division by the annual premium renewal date, as determined by the division.

(4) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred upon the board by this part 9, the board shall adopt such rules as it deems necessary or proper to carry out this section.

12-61-903.7. License renewal. (1) In order for a licensed mortgage loan originator to renew a license issued pursuant to this part 9, the mortgage loan originator shall:

(a) Continue to meet the minimum standards for issuance of a license pursuant to this part 9;

(b) Satisfy the annual continuing education requirements set forth in section 12-61-903 (8) and in rules adopted by the board; and

(c) Pay applicable license renewal fees.

(2) If a licensed mortgage loan originator fails to satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section for license renewal, the mortgage loan originator's license shall expire. The board shall adopt rules to establish procedures for the reinstatement of an expired license consistent with the standards established by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry.

12-61-904. Exemptions - rules. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 12-61-911, this part 9 does not apply to the following, unless otherwise determined by the federal bureau of consumer financial protection or the United States department of housing and urban development:

(a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1141), ch. 280, p. 1289, § 10, effective August 11, 2010.)

(b) With respect to a residential mortgage loan, a person, estate, or trust that provides mortgage financing for the sale of no more than three properties in any twelve-month period to purchasers of such properties, each of which is owned by such person, estate, or trust and serves as security for the loan;

(c) A bank and a savings association as these terms are defined in the "Federal Deposit Insurance Act", a subsidiary that is owned and controlled by a bank or savings association, employees of a bank or savings association, employees of a subsidiary that is owned and controlled by a bank or savings association, credit unions, and employees of credit unions;

(d) An attorney who renders services in the course of practice, who is licensed in Colorado, and who is not primarily engaged in the business of negotiating residential mortgage loans;

(e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1716, § 2, effective June 1, 2007, and p. 1734, § 6, effective January 1, 2008.)

(f) A person who:

(I) Funds a residential mortgage loan that has been originated and processed by a licensed person or by an exempt person;

(II) Does not solicit borrowers in Colorado for the purpose of making residential mortgage loans; and

(III) Does not participate in the negotiation of residential mortgage loans with the borrower, except for setting the terms under which a person may buy or fund a residential mortgage loan originated by a licensed or exempt person;

(g) A loan processor or underwriter who is not an independent contractor and who does not represent to the public that the individual can or will perform any activities of a mortgage loan originator. As used in this paragraph (g), "represent to the public" means communicating, through advertising or other means of communicating or providing information, including the use of business cards, stationery, brochures, signs, rate lists, or other promotional items, that the individual is able to provide a particular service or activity for a consumer.

(h) To the extent that it is providing programs benefitting affordable housing dwelling units, an agency of the federal government, the Colorado government, or any of Colorado's political subdivisions or employees of an agency of the federal government, of the Colorado government, or of any of Colorado's political subdivisions;

(i) Quasi-government agencies, HUD-approved housing counseling agencies, or employees of quasi-government agencies or HUD-approved housing counseling agencies;

(j) Community development organizations or employees of community development organizations;

(k) Self-help housing organizations or employees of self-help housing organizations or volunteers acting as an agent of self-help housing organizations.

(2) The exemptions in subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to persons acting beyond the scope of such exemptions.

(3) The board may adopt reasonable rules modifying the exemptions in this section in accordance with rules adopted by the federal bureau of consumer financial protection or the United States department of housing and urban development.

12-61-904.5. Originator's relationship to borrower - rules. (1) A mortgage loan originator shall have a duty of good faith and fair dealing in all communications and transactions with a borrower. Such duty includes, but is not limited to:

(a) The duty to not recommend or induce the borrower to enter into a transaction that does not have a reasonable, tangible net benefit to the borrower, considering all of the circumstances, including the terms of a loan, the cost of a loan, and the borrower's circumstances;

(b) The duty to make a reasonable inquiry concerning the borrower's current and prospective income, existing debts and other obligations, and any other relevant information and, after making such inquiry, to make his or her best efforts to recommend, broker, or originate a residential mortgage loan that takes into consideration the information submitted by the borrower, but the mortgage loan originator shall not be deemed to violate this section if the borrower conceals or misrepresents relevant information; and

(c) The duty not to commit any acts, practices, or omissions in violation of section 38-40-105, C.R.S.

(2) For purposes of implementing subsection (1) of this section, the board may adopt rules defining what constitutes a reasonable, tangible net benefit to the borrower.

(3) A violation of this section constitutes a deceptive trade practice under the "Colorado Consumer Protection Act", article 1 of title 6, C.R.S.

12-61-905. Powers and duties of the board. (1) The board may deny an application for a license, refuse to renew, or revoke the license of an applicant or licensee who has:

(a) Filed an application with the board containing material misstatements of fact or omitted any disclosure required by this part 9;

(b) Within the last five years, been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a crime involving fraud, deceit, material misrepresentation, theft, or the breach of a fiduciary duty, except as otherwise set forth in this part 9;

(c) Except as otherwise set forth in this part 9, within the last five years, had a license, registration, or certification issued by Colorado or another state revoked or suspended for fraud, deceit, material misrepresentation, theft, or the breach of a fiduciary duty, and such discipline denied the person authorization to practice as:

(I) A mortgage broker or a mortgage loan originator;

(II) A real estate broker, as defined by section 12-61-101 (2);

(III) A real estate salesperson;

(IV) A real estate appraiser, as defined by section 12-61-702 (5);

(V) An insurance producer, as defined by section 10-2-103 (6), C.R.S.;

(VI) An attorney;

(VII) A securities broker-dealer, as defined by section 11-51-201 (2), C.R.S.;

(VIII) A securities sales representative, as defined by section 11-51-201 (14), C.R.S.;

(IX) An investment advisor, as defined by section 11-51-201 (9.5), C.R.S.; or

(X) An investment advisor representative, as defined by section 11-51-201 (9.6), C.R.S.;

(d) Been enjoined within the immediately preceding five years under the laws of this or any other state or of the United States from engaging in deceptive conduct relating to the brokering of or originating a mortgage loan;

(e) Been found to have violated the provisions of section 12-61-910.2;

(f) Been found to have violated the provisions of section 12-61-911;

(g) Had a mortgage loan originator license or similar license revoked in any jurisdiction; except that a revocation that was subsequently formally nullified shall not be deemed a revocation for purposes of this section;

(h) At any time preceding the date of application for a license or registration, been convicted of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony in a domestic, foreign, or military court if the felony involved an act of fraud, dishonesty, breach of trust, or money laundering; except that, if the individual obtains a pardon of the conviction, the individual shall not be deemed convicted for purposes of this paragraph (h);

(i) Been convicted of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony within the seven years immediately preceding the date of application for a license or registration;

(j) Not demonstrated financial responsibility, character, and general fitness to command the confidence of the community and to warrant a determination that the individual will operate honestly, fairly, and efficiently, consistent with the purposes of this part 9;

(k) Not completed the prelicense education requirements set forth in section 12-61-903 and any applicable rules of the board; or

(l) Not passed a written examination that meets the requirements set forth in section 12-61-903 and any applicable rules of the board.

(2) The board may investigate the activities of a licensee or other person that present grounds for disciplinary action under this part 9 or that violate section 12-61-910 (1).

(3) (a) If the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a mortgage loan originator is no longer qualified under subsection (1) of this section, the board may summarily suspend the mortgage loan originator's license pending a hearing to revoke the license. A summary suspension shall conform to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) The board shall suspend the license of a mortgage loan originator who fails to maintain the bond required by section 12-61-907 until the licensee complies with such section.

(4) The board or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., shall conduct disciplinary hearings concerning mortgage loan originators and mortgage companies. Such hearings shall conform to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), an individual whose license has been revoked shall not be eligible for licensure for two years after the effective date of the revocation.

(b) If the board or an administrative law judge determines that an application contained a misstatement of fact or omitted a required disclosure due to an unintentional error, the board shall allow the applicant to correct the application. Upon receipt of the corrected and completed application, the board or administrative law judge shall not bar the applicant from being licensed on the basis of the unintentional misstatement or omission.

(6) (a) The board or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing or investigation conducted by the board or an administrative law judge. The board may request any information relevant to the investigation, including, but not limited to, independent credit reports obtained from a consumer reporting agency described in the federal "Fair Credit Reporting Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1681a (p).

(b) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed witness resides or conducts business may issue an order requiring the witness to appear before the board or administrative law judge; produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, testimony, or materials in question; or both. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished as a contempt of court. The board or an administrative law judge may apply for such order.

(c) The licensee or individual who, after an investigation under this part 9, is found to be in violation of a provision of this part 9 shall be responsible for paying all reasonable and necessary costs of the division arising from subpoenas or requests issued pursuant to this subsection (6), including court costs for an action brought pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (6).

(7) (a) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that an individual is violating this part 9, including but not limited to section 12-61-910 (1), the board may enter an order requiring the individual to cease and desist such violations.

(b) The board, upon its own motion, may, and, upon the complaint in writing of any person, shall, investigate the activities of any licensee or any individual who assumes to act in such capacity within the state. In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this part 9, any individual violating any provision of this part 9 or any rules promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined upon a finding of misconduct by the board as follows:

(I) In the first administrative proceeding, a fine not in excess of one thousand dollars per act or occurrence;

(II) In a second or subsequent administrative proceeding, a fine not less than one thousand dollars nor in excess of two thousand dollars per act or occurrence.

(c) All fines collected pursuant to this subsection (7) shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the mortgage company and loan originator licensing cash fund created in section 12-61-908.

(8) The board shall keep records of the individuals licensed as mortgage loan originators and of disciplinary proceedings. The records kept by the board shall be open to public inspection in a reasonable time and manner determined by the board.

(9) (a) The board shall maintain a system, which may include, without limitation, a hotline or web site, that gives consumers a reasonably easy method for making complaints about a mortgage loan originator.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1085), ch. 303, p. 1621, § 1, effective August 5, 2009.)

(10) The board shall promulgate rules to allow licensed mortgage loan originators to hire unlicensed mortgage loan originators under temporary licenses. If an unlicensed mortgage loan originator has initiated the application process for a license, he or she shall be assigned a temporary license for a reasonable period until a license is approved or denied. The licensed mortgage loan originator who employs an unlicensed mortgage loan originator shall be held responsible under all applicable provisions of law, including without limitation this part 9 and section 38-40-105, C.R.S., for the actions of the unlicensed mortgage loan originator to whom a temporary license has been assigned under this subsection (10).

12-61-905.1. Powers and duties of the board over mortgage companies - fines - rules. (1) With respect to mortgage companies, the board may deny an application for registration; refuse to renew, suspend, or revoke the registration; enter cease-and-desist orders; and impose fines as set forth in this section as follows:

(a) If the board has reasonable cause to believe a person is acting without a license or registration;

(b) If the mortgage company fails to maintain possession, for future use or inspection by an authorized representative of the board, for a period of four years, of the documents or records prescribed by the rules of the board or to produce such documents or records upon reasonable request by the board or by an authorized representative of the board;

(c) If the mortgage company employs or acts through individuals subject to its control who are unlicensed at the time of hire and not in the process of becoming licensed, who are required to be licensed pursuant to this part 9, or if the mortgage company, after notice, continues to employ or act through individuals subject to its control whose required licenses are not valid; or

(d) If the mortgage company directs, makes, or causes to be made, in any manner, a false or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, points, or other financing terms or conditions for a residential mortgage loan, engages in bait and switch advertising as that term is used in section 6-1-105 (1) (n), C.R.S., or violates any rule of the board that directly or indirectly addresses advertising requirements.

(2) (a) The board upon its own motion or upon the complaint in writing of any person may investigate the activities of any registered mortgage company or any mortgage company that is acting in a capacity that requires registration pursuant to this part 9.

(b) The board may fine a mortgage company that has violated this section or any rules promulgated pursuant to this section as follows:

(I) In the first administrative proceeding, a fine not in excess of one thousand dollars per act or occurrence;

(II) In a second or subsequent administrative proceeding, a fine not in excess of two thousand dollars per act or occurrence.

(c) All fines collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the mortgage company and loan originator licensing cash fund created in section 12-61-908.

(3) The board may adopt reasonable rules for implementing this section.

(4) Nothing in this section automatically imputes a violation to the mortgage company if a licensed agent or employee, or an individual agent or employee who is required to be licensed, violates any other provision of this part 9.

12-61-905.5. Disciplinary actions - grounds - procedures - rules. (1) The board, upon its own motion or upon the complaint in writing of any person, may investigate the activities of any mortgage loan originator. The board has the power to impose an administrative fine in accordance with section 12-61-905, deny a license, censure a licensee, place the licensee on probation and set the terms of probation, order restitution, order the payment of actual damages, or suspend or revoke a license when the board finds that the licensee or applicant has performed, is performing, or is attempting to perform any of the following acts:

(a) Knowingly making any misrepresentation or knowingly making use of any false or misleading advertising;

(b) Making any promise that influences, persuades, or induces another person to detrimentally rely on such promise when the licensee could not or did not intend to keep such promise;

(c) Knowingly misrepresenting or making false promises through agents, salespersons, advertising, or otherwise;

(d) Violating any provision of the "Colorado Consumer Protection Act", article 1 of title 6, C.R.S., and, if the licensee has been assessed a civil or criminal penalty or been subject to an injunction under said act, the board shall revoke the licensee's license;

(e) Acting for more than one party in a transaction without disclosing any actual or potential conflict of interest or without disclosing to all parties any fiduciary obligation or other legal obligation of the mortgage loan originator to any party;

(f) Representing or attempting to represent a mortgage loan originator other than the licensee's principal or employer without the express knowledge and consent of that principal or employer;

(g) In the case of a licensee in the employ of another mortgage loan originator, failing to place, as soon after receipt as is practicably possible, in the custody of that licensed mortgage loan originator-employer any deposit money or other money or fund entrusted to the employee by any person dealing with the employee as the representative of that licensed mortgage loan originator-employer;

(h) Failing to account for or to remit, within a reasonable time, any moneys coming into his or her possession that belong to others, whether acting as a mortgage loan originator, real estate broker, salesperson, or otherwise, and failing to keep records relative to said moneys, which records shall contain such information as may be prescribed by the rules of the board relative thereto and shall be subject to audit by the board;

(i) Converting funds of others, diverting funds of others without proper authorization, commingling funds of others with the licensee's own funds, or failing to keep such funds of others in an escrow or a trustee account with a bank or recognized depository in this state, which account may be any type of checking, demand, passbook, or statement account insured by an agency of the United States government, and to keep records relative to the deposit that contain such information as may be prescribed by the rules of the board relative thereto, which records shall be subject to audit by the board;

(j) Failing to provide the parties to a residential mortgage loan transaction with such information as may be prescribed by the rules of the board;

(k) Unless an employee of a duly registered mortgage company, failing to maintain possession, for future use or inspection by an authorized representative of the board, for a period of four years, of the documents or records prescribed by the rules of the board or to produce such documents or records upon reasonable request by the board or by an authorized representative of the board;

(l) Paying a commission or valuable consideration for performing any of the functions of a mortgage loan originator, as described in this part 9, to any person who is not licensed under this part 9 or is not registered in compliance with the federal "Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008", 12 U.S.C. sec. 5101 et seq.;

(m) Disregarding or violating any provision of this part 9 or any rule adopted by the board pursuant to this part 9; violating any lawful orders of the board; or aiding and abetting a violation of any rule, order of the board, or provision of this part 9;

(n) Conviction of, entering a plea of guilty to, or entering a plea of nolo contendere to any crime in article 3 of title 18, C.R.S., in parts 1 to 4 of article 4 of title 18, C.R.S., in article 5 of title 18, C.R.S., in part 3 of article 8 of title 18, C.R.S., in article 15 of title 18, C.R.S., in article 17 of title 18, C.R.S., or any other like crime under Colorado law, federal law, or the laws of other states. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or other official record indicating that such plea was entered shall be conclusive evidence of such conviction or plea in any hearing under this part 9.

(o) Violating or aiding and abetting in the violation of the Colorado or federal fair housing laws;

(p) Failing to immediately notify the board in writing of a conviction, plea, or violation pursuant to paragraph (n) or (o) of this subsection (1);

(q) Having demonstrated unworthiness or incompetency to act as a mortgage loan originator by conducting business in such a manner as to endanger the interest of the public;

(r) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1085), ch. 303, p. 1625, § 1, effective August 5, 2009.)

(s) Procuring, or attempting to procure, a mortgage loan originator's license or renewing, reinstating, or reactivating, or attempting to renew, reinstate, or reactivate, a mortgage loan originator's license by fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit or by making a material misstatement of fact in an application for such license;

(t) Claiming, arranging for, or taking any secret or undisclosed amount of compensation, commission, or profit or failing to reveal to the licensee's principal or employer the full amount of such licensee's compensation, commission, or profit in connection with any acts for which a license is required under this part 9;

(u) Exercising an option to purchase in any agreement authorizing or employing such licensee to sell, buy, or exchange real estate for compensation or commission except when such licensee, prior to or coincident with election to exercise such option to purchase, reveals in writing to the licensee's principal or employer the full amount of the licensee's profit and obtains the written consent of such principal or employer approving the amount of such profit;

(v) Fraud, misrepresentation, deceit, or conversion of trust funds that results in the payment of any claim pursuant to this part 9 or that results in the entry of a civil judgment for damages;

(w) Any other conduct, whether of the same or a different character than specified in this subsection (1), that evinces a lack of good faith and fair dealing;

(x) Having had a mortgage loan originator's license suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction or having had any disciplinary action taken against the mortgage loan originator in any other jurisdiction. A certified copy of the order of disciplinary action shall be prima facie evidence of such disciplinary action.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (HB 09-1085), ch. 303, p. 1625, § 1, effective August 5, 2009.)

(3) Upon request of the board, when any mortgage loan originator is a party to any suit or proceeding, either civil or criminal, arising out of any transaction involving a residential mortgage loan and the mortgage loan originator participated in the transaction in his or her capacity as a licensed mortgage loan originator, the mortgage loan originator shall supply to the board a copy of the complaint, indictment, information, or other initiating pleading and the answer filed, if any, and advise the board of the disposition of the case and of the nature and amount of any judgment, verdict, finding, or sentence that may be made, entered, or imposed therein.

(4) This part 9 shall not be construed to relieve any person from civil liability or criminal prosecution under the laws of this state.

(5) Complaints of record in the office of the board and the results of staff investigations shall be closed to public inspection during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges are served on a licensee, except as provided by court order. Complaints of record that are dismissed by the board and the results of investigation of such complaints shall be closed to public inspection, except as provided by court order. The board's records shall be subject to sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S., regarding public records and confidentiality.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (5) is effective until July 1, 2013.

(5) Complaints of record in the office of the board and board investigations, including board investigative files, are closed to public inspection. Stipulations and final agency orders are public record and subject to sections 24-72-203 and 24-72-204, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This version of subsection (5) is effective July 1, 2013.

(6) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may send a letter of admonition by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the licensee against whom a complaint was made and a copy of the letter of admonition to the person making the complaint, but the letter shall advise the licensee that the licensee has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after proven receipt, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based. If such request is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated, and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(7) All administrative fines collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the mortgage company and loan originator licensing cash fund created in section 12-61-908.

(8) (a) The board shall not consider an application for licensure from an individual whose license has been revoked until two years after the date of revocation.

(b) If an individual's license was suspended or revoked due to conduct that resulted in financial loss to another person, no new license shall be granted, nor shall a suspended license be reinstated, until full restitution has been made to the person suffering such financial loss. The amount of restitution shall include interest, reasonable attorney fees, and costs of any suit or other proceeding undertaken in an effort to recover the loss.

(9) When the board or the division becomes aware of facts or circumstances that fall within the jurisdiction of a criminal justice or other law enforcement authority upon investigation of the activities of a licensee, the board or division shall, in addition to the exercise of its authority under this part 9, refer and transmit such information, which may include originals or copies of documents and materials, to one or more criminal justice or other law enforcement authorities for investigation and prosecution as authorized by law.

12-61-905.6. Hearing - administrative law judge - review - rules. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all proceedings before the board with respect to disciplinary actions and denial of licensure under this part 9, at the discretion of the board, may be conducted by an authorized representative of the board or an administrative law judge pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) Proceedings shall be held in the county where the board has its office or in such other place as the board may designate. If the licensee is employed by another licensed mortgage loan originator or by a real estate broker, the board shall also notify the licensee's employer by mailing, by first-class mail, a copy of the written notice required under section 24-4-104 (3), C.R.S., to the employer's last-known business address.

(3) The board, an authorized representative of the board, or an administrative law judge shall conduct all hearings for denying, suspending, or revoking a license or certificate on behalf of the board, subject to appropriations made to the department of personnel. Each administrative law judge shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S. The administrative law judge shall conduct the hearing in accordance with sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S. No license shall be denied, suspended, or revoked until the board has made its decision.

(4) The decision of the board in any disciplinary action or denial of licensure under this section is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals. In order to effectuate the purposes of this part 9, the board has the power to promulgate rules pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) In a judicial review proceeding, the court may stay the execution or effect of any final order of the board; but a hearing shall be held affording the parties an opportunity to be heard for the purpose of determining whether the public health, safety, and welfare would be endangered by staying the board's order. If the court determines that the order should be stayed, it shall also determine at the hearing the amount of the bond and adequacy of the surety, which bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by such petitioner of all obligations as a mortgage loan originator and upon the prompt payment of all damages arising from or caused by the delay in the taking effect of or enforcement of the order complained of and for all costs that may be assessed or required to be paid in connection with such proceedings.

(6) In any hearing conducted by the board or an authorized representative of the board in which there is a possibility of the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license because of the conviction of a felony or of a crime involving moral turpitude, the board or its authorized representative shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

12-61-905.7. Subpoena - misdemeanor. (1) The board or the administrative law judge appointed for hearings may issue subpoenas, as described in section 12-61-905 (6), which shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued by district courts and shall be issued without discrimination between public or private parties requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents at hearings.

(2) Any person who willfully fails or neglects to appear and testify or to produce books, papers, or records required by subpoena, duly served upon him or her in any matter conducted under this part 9, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days for each such offense, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day such person so refuses or neglects constitutes a separate offense.

12-61-907. Bond required. (1) Before receiving a license, an applicant shall post with the board a surety bond in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars or such other amount as may be prescribed by the board by rule. A licensed mortgage loan originator shall maintain the required bond at all times.

(2) The surety shall not be required to pay a person making a claim upon the bond until a final determination of fraud, forgery, criminal impersonation, or fraudulent representation has been made by a court with jurisdiction.

(3) The surety bond shall require the surety to provide notice to the board within thirty days if payment is made from the surety bond or if the bond is cancelled.

12-61-908. Fees - cash fund - created. (1) The board may set the fees for issuance and renewal of licenses and registrations under this part 9. The fees shall be set in amounts that offset the direct and indirect costs of implementing this part 9 and section 38-40-105, C.R.S. The moneys collected pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the state treasurer, who shall credit them to the mortgage company and loan originator licensing cash fund.

(2) There is hereby created in the state treasury the mortgage company and loan originator licensing cash fund. Moneys in the fund shall be spent only to implement this part 9 and section 38-40-105, C.R.S., and shall not revert to the general fund at the end of the fiscal year. The fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly.

(3) For the 2009-10 fiscal year, the division is authorized to expend up to one hundred twelve thousand dollars or such other amount as may be appropriated by the general assembly from the mortgage company and loan originator licensing cash fund for purposes of paying the development costs assessed by the conference of state bank supervisors, or its successor organization, for participating in the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry. However, the board shall use its discretion in determining whether expenditure of these moneys is necessary for compliance with the federal "Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008" or participation in the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry.

12-61-910. Violations - injunctions. (1) (a) Any individual violating this part 9 by acting as a mortgage loan originator in this state without having obtained a license or by acting as a mortgage loan originator after that individual's license has been revoked or during any period for which said license may have been suspended is guilty of a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.; except that, if the violator is not a natural person, the violator shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars.

(b) Each residential mortgage loan negotiated or offered to be negotiated by an unlicensed person shall be a separate violation of this subsection (1).

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 1742, 11, effective January 1, 2008.)

(3) The board may request that an action be brought in the name of the people of the state of Colorado by the attorney general or the district attorney of the district in which the violation is alleged to have occurred to enjoin a person from engaging in or continuing the violation or from doing any act that furthers the violation. In such an action, an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as is deemed proper by the court. The notice, hearing, or duration of an injunction or restraining order shall be made in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure.

(4) A violation of this part 9 shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any mortgage.

12-61-910.2. Prohibited conduct - influencing a real estate appraisal. (1) A mortgage loan originator shall not, directly or indirectly, compensate, coerce, or intimidate an appraiser, or attempt, directly or indirectly, to compensate, coerce, or intimidate an appraiser, for the purpose of influencing the independent judgment of the appraiser with respect to the value of a dwelling offered as security for repayment of a residential mortgage loan. This prohibition shall not be construed as prohibiting a mortgage loan originator from requesting an appraiser to:

(a) Consider additional, appropriate property information;

(b) Provide further detail, substantiation, or explanation for the appraiser's value conclusion; or

(c) Correct errors in the appraisal report.

12-61-910.4. Nontraditional mortgage products - consumer protections - rules - incorporation of federal interagency guidance. The board shall adopt rules governing the marketing of nontraditional mortgage products by mortgage loan originators. In adopting such rules, the board shall incorporate appropriate provisions of the final "Interagency Guidance on Nontraditional Mortgage Product Risks" released on September 29, 2006, by the office of the comptroller of the currency and the office of thrift supervision in the federal department of the treasury, the board of governors of the federal reserve system, the federal deposit insurance corporation, and the national credit union administration, as such publication may be amended.

12-61-911. Prohibited conduct - fraud - misrepresentation - conflict of interest - rules. (1) A mortgage loan originator, including a mortgage loan originator otherwise exempted from this part 9 by section 12-61-904 (1) (b), shall not:

(a) Directly or indirectly employ any scheme, device, or artifice to defraud or mislead borrowers or lenders or to defraud any person;

(b) Engage in any unfair or deceptive practice toward any person;

(c) Obtain property by fraud or misrepresentation;

(d) Solicit or enter into a contract with a borrower that provides in substance that the mortgage loan originator may earn a fee or commission through the mortgage loan originator's "best efforts" to obtain a loan even though no loan is actually obtained for the borrower;

(e) Solicit, advertise, or enter into a contract for specific interest rates, points, or other financing terms unless the terms are actually available at the time of soliciting, advertising, or contracting from a lender with whom the mortgage loan originator maintains a written correspondent or loan agreement under section 12-61-913;

(f) Fail to make a disclosure to a loan applicant or a noninstitutional investor as required by section 12-61-914 and any other applicable state or federal law;

(g) Make, in any manner, any false or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, points, or other financing terms or conditions for a residential mortgage loan or engage in "bait and switch" advertising;

(h) Negligently make any false statement or knowingly and willfully make any omission of material fact in connection with any reports filed by a mortgage loan originator or in connection with any investigation conducted by the division;

(i) Advertise any rate of interest without conspicuously disclosing the annual percentage rate implied by such rate of interest;

(j) Fail to comply with any requirement of the federal “Truth in Lending Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1601 and Regulation Z, 12 CFR 226; the “Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974”, 12 U.S.C. sec. 2601 and Regulation X, 24 CFR 3500; the “Equal Credit Opportunity Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1691 and Regulation B, 12 CFR 202.9, 202.11, and 202.12; Title V, Subtitle A of the financial services modernization act of 1999 (known as the “Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act”), 12 U.S.C. secs. 6801 to 6809; the federal trade commission’s privacy rules, 16 CFR 313-314, mandated by the “Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act”; the “Home Mortgage Disclosure Act of 1975”, 12 U.S.C. sec. 2801 et seq. and Regulation C, home mortgage disclosure, 12 CFR 203; the “Federal Trade Commission Act”, 15 U.S.C. sec. 45(a); the “Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act”, 15 U.S.C. secs. 6101 to 6108; and the federal trade commission telephone sales rule, 16 CFR 310, as amended, in any advertising of residential mortgage loans or any other applicable mortgage loan originator activities covered by the acts. The board may adopt rules requiring mortgage loan originators to comply with other applicable federal statutes and regulations.

(k) Fail to pay a third-party provider, no later than thirty days after the recording of the loan closing documents or ninety days after completion of the third-party service, whichever comes first, unless otherwise agreed or unless the third-party service provider has been notified in writing that a bona fide dispute exists regarding the performance or quality of the third-party service;

(l) Collect, charge, attempt to collect or charge, or use or propose any agreement purporting to collect or charge any fee prohibited by section 12-61-914 or 12-61-915; or

(m) Fail to comply with any provision of this part 9 or any rule adopted pursuant to this part 9.

12-61-911.5. Acts of employee - mortgage loan originator’s liability. An unlawful act or violation of this part 9 upon the part of an agent or employee of a licensed mortgage loan originator shall not be cause for disciplinary action against a mortgage loan originator unless it appears that the mortgage loan originator knew or should have known of the unlawful act or violation or had been negligent in the supervision of the agent or employee.

12-61-912. Dual status as real estate broker - requirements. (1) Unless a mortgage loan originator complies with both subsections (2) and (3) of this section, he or she shall not act as a mortgage loan originator in any transaction in which:

(a) The mortgage loan originator acts or has acted as a real estate broker or salesperson; or

(b) Another person doing business under the same licensed real estate broker acts or has acted as a real estate broker or salesperson.

(2) Before providing mortgage-related services to the borrower, a mortgage loan originator shall make a full and fair disclosure to the borrower, in addition to any other disclosures required by this part 9 or other laws, of all material features of the loan product and all facts material to the transaction.

(3) (a) A real estate broker or salesperson licensed under part 1 of this article who also acts as a mortgage loan originator shall carry on such mortgage loan originator business activities and shall maintain such person's mortgage loan originator business records separate and apart from the real estate broker or sales activities conducted pursuant to part 1 of this article. Such activities shall be deemed separate and apart even if they are conducted at an office location with a common entrance and mailing address if:

- (I) Each business is clearly identified by a sign visible to the public;
- (II) Each business is physically separated within the office facility; and
- (III) No deception of the public as to the separate identities of the broker business firms results.

(b) This subsection (3) shall not require a real estate broker or salesperson licensed under part 1 of this article who also acts as a mortgage loan originator to maintain a physical separation within the office facility for the conduct of its real estate broker or sales and mortgage loan originator activities if the board determines that maintaining such physical separation would constitute an undue financial hardship upon the mortgage loan originator and is unnecessary for the protection of the public.

12-61-913. Written contract required - effect. (1) Every contract between a mortgage loan originator and a borrower shall be in writing and shall contain the entire agreement of the parties.

(2) A mortgage loan originator shall have a written correspondent or loan agreement with a lender before any solicitation of, or contracting with, any member of the public.

Source: L. 2007: Entire section added, p. 1720, § 7, effective June 1. L. 2009: Entire part amended, (HB 09-1085), ch. 303, p. 1634, § 1, effective August 5.

12-61-914. Written disclosure of fees and costs - contents - limits on fees - lock-in agreement terms - rules. (1) Within three business days after receipt of a loan application or any moneys from a borrower, a mortgage loan originator shall provide to each borrower a full written disclosure containing an itemization and explanation of all fees and costs that the borrower is required to pay in connection with obtaining a residential mortgage loan, specifying the fee or fees that inure to the benefit of the mortgage loan originator. A good-faith estimate of a fee or cost shall be provided if the exact amount of the fee or cost is not determinable. Except as required by paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section, this subsection (1) shall not be construed to require disclosure of the distribution or breakdown of loan fees, discounts, or points between the mortgage loan originator and any mortgage lender or investor.

(2) The written disclosure shall contain the following information:

(a) The annual percentage rate, finance charge, amount financed, total amount of all payments, number of payments, amount of each payment, amount of points or prepaid interest, and the conditions and terms under which any loan terms may change between the time of disclosure and closing of the loan. If the interest rate is variable, the written disclosure shall clearly describe the circumstances under which the rate may increase, any limitation on the increase, the effect of an increase, and an example of the payment terms resulting from an increase.

(b) The itemized costs of any credit report, appraisal, title report, title insurance policy, mortgage insurance, escrow fee, property tax, insurance, structural or pest inspection, and any other third-party provider's costs associated with the residential mortgage loan;

(c) If applicable, the amount of any commission or other compensation to be paid to the mortgage loan originator, including the manner in which the commission or other compensation is calculated and the relationship of the commission or other compensation to the cost of the loan received by the borrower;

(d) If applicable, the cost, terms, duration, and conditions of a lock-in agreement and whether a lock-in agreement has been entered, whether the lock-in agreement is guaranteed by the mortgage loan originator or lender, and, if a lock-in agreement has not been entered, disclosure in a form acceptable to the board that the disclosed interest rate and terms are subject to change;

(e) A statement that, if the borrower is unable to obtain a loan for any reason, the mortgage loan originator must, within five days after a written request by the borrower, give copies of each appraisal, title report, and credit report paid for by the borrower to the borrower and transmit the appraisal, title report, or credit report to any other mortgage loan originator or lender to whom the borrower directs the documents to be sent;

(f) Whether and under what conditions any lock-in fees are refundable to the borrower; and

(g) A statement providing that moneys paid by the borrower to the mortgage loan originator for third-party provider services are held in a trust account and any moneys remaining after payment to third-party providers will be refunded.

(3) If, after the written disclosure is provided under this section, a mortgage loan originator enters into a lock-in agreement with a borrower or represents to the borrower that the borrower has entered into a lock-in agreement, the mortgage loan originator shall deliver or send by first-class mail to the borrower a written confirmation of the terms of the lock-in agreement within three days, including Saturdays, after the agreement is entered or the representation is made. The written confirmation shall include a copy of the disclosure made under paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), a mortgage loan originator shall not charge any fee that inures to the benefit of the mortgage loan originator and that exceeds the fee disclosed on the written disclosure pursuant to this section unless:

(I) The need to charge the fee was not reasonably foreseeable at the time the written disclosure was provided; and

(II) The mortgage loan originator has provided to the borrower, at least three business days prior to the signing of the loan closing documents, a clear written explanation of the fee and the reason for charging a fee exceeding that which was previously disclosed.

(b) If the borrower's closing costs on the final settlement statement, excluding prepaid escrowed costs of ownership as defined by the board by rule, do not exceed the total closing costs in the most recent good-faith estimate, excluding prepaid escrowed costs of ownership, no other disclosures shall be required by this subsection (4).

12-61-915. Fee, commission, or compensation - when permitted - amount. (1) Except as otherwise permitted by subsection (2) or (3) of this section, a mortgage loan originator shall not receive a fee, commission, or compensation of any kind in connection with the preparation or negotiation of a residential mortgage loan unless a borrower actually obtains a loan from a lender on the terms and conditions agreed to by the borrower and mortgage loan originator.

(2) If the mortgage loan originator has obtained for the borrower a written commitment from a lender for a loan on the terms and conditions agreed to by the borrower and the mortgage loan originator, and the borrower fails to close on the loan through no fault of the mortgage loan originator, the mortgage loan originator may charge a fee, not to exceed three hundred dollars, for services rendered, preparation of documents, or transfer of documents in the borrower's file that were prepared or paid for by the borrower if the fee is not otherwise prohibited by the federal "Truth in Lending Act", 15 U.S.C. sec. 1601, and Regulation Z, 12 CFR 226, as amended.

(3) A mortgage loan originator may solicit or receive fees for third-party provider goods or services in advance. Fees for any goods or services not provided shall be refunded to the borrower, and the mortgage loan originator may not charge more for the goods and services than the actual costs of the goods or services charged by the third-party provider.

12-61-916. Confidentiality. (1) Except as otherwise provided in the federal “Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008”, 12 U.S.C. sec. 5111, the requirements under any federal law or law of this state regarding privacy or confidentiality of any information or material provided to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry, and any privilege arising under federal or state law, including the rules of any federal or state court with respect to such information or material, shall apply to the information or material after it has been disclosed to the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry. The information or material may be shared with all state and federal regulatory officials with mortgage industry oversight authority without the loss of privilege or confidentiality protections provided by federal or state law.

(2) The board may enter into agreements with other government agencies, the conference of state bank supervisors, the American association of residential mortgage regulators, or other associations representing government agencies as established by rule.

(3) Information or material that is subject to privilege or confidentiality pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not be subject to the following:

(a) Disclosure under a federal or state law governing the disclosure to the public of information held by an officer or agency of the federal government or the respective state; or

(b) Subpoena, discovery, or admission into evidence in any private civil action or administrative process, unless with respect to a privilege held by the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry regarding the information or material, the person to whom the information or material pertains waives the privilege, in whole or in part.

12-61-919. Repeal of part. (1) This part 9 is repealed, effective July 1, 2013.

(2) Prior to its repeal, the department of regulatory agencies shall review the licensing of mortgage loan originators and the registration of mortgage companies in accordance with section 24-34-104, C.R.S. The department shall include in its review of mortgage loan originators and mortgage companies an analysis of the number and types of complaints made about mortgage loan originators and mortgage companies and whether the licensing of mortgage loan originators and the registration of mortgage companies correlates with public protection from fraudulent activities in the residential mortgage loan industry.

- (2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 91, p. 1467, § 1, effective July 1, 1991.)

- (3) “Artificial insemination” means the collection of semen and the fertilization of, or attempted fertilization of, the ova of the female animal by placing or implanting, by artificial means, in the genital tract of the female animal the semen obtained from the male animal which will subsequently be used, or attempted to be used, to impregnate the female.

- (4) “Board” means the state board of veterinary medicine.

- (4.3) “Client” means the patient’s owner, the owner’s agent, or a person responsible for the patient.

- (4.5) “Complainant” means the board or any other person who initiates a proceeding.

- (5) “Direct supervision” means the supervising licensed veterinarian is readily available on the premises where the patient is being treated.

(5.1) "Dispense" means to provide a drug or device, other than by distribution, bearing a label stating the name of the veterinarian, the date dispensed, directions for use, all cautionary statements, withdrawal time, if appropriate, the identity of the animal, and the owner's name.

(5.2) "Distribute" or "distribution" means to provide a drug or device in the manufacturer's original package to the client-patient.

(6) "Hearing" means any proceeding initiated before the board in which the legal rights, duties, privileges, or immunities of a specific party or parties are determined.

(6.5) "Immediate supervision" means the supervising licensed veterinarian and any person being supervised are in direct contact with the patient.

(7) "License" means any grant of authority issued by the board to a person to engage in the practice of veterinary medicine.

(8) (Deleted by amendment, L. 91, p. 1467, § 1, effective July 1, 1991.)

(9) "Licensed veterinarian" means a person licensed pursuant to this article.

(9.5) "Ova transplantation" means a technique by which fertilized embryos are collected from a donor female and transferred to a recipient female that serves as a surrogate mother for the remainder of the pregnancy.

(9.7) "Patient" means an animal that is examined or treated by a licensed veterinarian and includes herds, flocks, litters, and other groups of animals.

(10) "Practice of veterinary medicine" means any of the following:

(a) The diagnosing, treating, correcting, changing, relieving, or preventing of animal disease, deformity, defect, injury, or other physical or mental conditions, including the prescription or administration of any drug, medicine, biologic, apparatus, application, anesthetic, or other therapeutic or diagnostic substance or technique and the use of any manual or mechanical procedure for artificial insemination, for ova transplantation, for testing for pregnancy, or for correcting sterility or infertility or to render advice or recommendation with regard thereto;

(b) The representation, directly or indirectly, publicly or privately, of an ability and willingness to do an act described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (10);

(c) The use of any title, words, abbreviation, or letters in a manner or under circumstances which induce the belief that a person using them is qualified to do any act described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (10);

(d) The application of principles of environmental sanitation, food inspection, environmental pollution control, animal nutrition, zoonotic disease control, and disaster medicine as applied to an act described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (10).

(11) "Respondent" means any person against whom a proceeding is initiated.

(12) "Rule" means any regulation, standard, or statement of policy adopted by the board to implement, interpret, or clarify the law which it enforces and administers and which governs its duties, functions, organization, and procedure.

(13) "School of veterinary medicine" means any veterinary school or department of a legally organized college or university whose course of study in the art and science of veterinary medicine has been approved by the board.

(14) "Unprofessional or unethical conduct" includes, but is not limited to, conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public, false or misleading advertising, obtaining any fee or compensation by fraud or misrepresentation, sharing office space with any person illegally practicing veterinary medicine, employing either indirectly or directly any unlicensed person to practice veterinary medicine or to render any veterinary services except as provided in this article, or the violation of any rules adopted by the board which provide a code of professional ethics to be followed and carried out by persons licensed under this article.

(15) "Veterinarian" means a person who has received a doctor's degree in veterinary medicine, or its equivalent, from a school of veterinary medicine.

(15.5) "Veterinarian-client-patient relationship" means that relationship established when:

(a) The veterinarian has assumed the responsibility for making medical judgments regarding the health of an animal and the need for medical treatment, and the owner or other caretaker has agreed to follow the instruction of the veterinarian;

(b) There is sufficient knowledge of an animal by the veterinarian to initiate at least a general or preliminary diagnosis of the medical condition of the animal, which means that the veterinarian has recently seen and is personally acquainted with the keeping and care of the animal by virtue of an examination of the animal or by medically appropriate and timely visits to the premises where the animal is kept; and

(c) The practicing veterinarian is readily available, or has arranged for emergency coverage, for follow-up evaluation in the event of adverse reactions or failure of the treatment regimen.

(16) "Veterinary medicine" includes veterinary surgery, obstetrics, dentistry, and all other branches or specialties of animal medicine.

(17) "Veterinary premises" or "premises" means any veterinary office, hospital, clinic, or temporary location in which veterinary medicine is being practiced by or under the direct or immediate supervision of a licensed veterinarian.

(18) "Veterinary student" is a veterinary medical student who is enrolled in a school of veterinary medicine.

(19) "Veterinary student preceptor" is a veterinary medical student enrolled in a preceptor program in a school of veterinary medicine which has such a program.

12-64-104. License requirements and exceptions - definitions - rules. (1) No person may practice veterinary medicine in this state if the person is not a licensed veterinarian. No person may practice artificial insemination or ova transplantation of cattle or other animal species in this state except in accordance with section 12-64-105 (9) (c). This article does not prohibit:

(a) An employee of the federal, state, or local government from performing his or her official duties;

(b) A person who is a regular student in an approved school of veterinary medicine from performing duties or actions assigned by his or her instructors or working under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian;

(c) A person from advising with respect to, or performing acts which are, accepted livestock management practices;

(d) A veterinarian regularly licensed in another state from consulting with a licensed veterinarian in this state;

(e) Any merchant or manufacturer from selling, at his or her regular place of business, medicines, feed, appliances, or other products used in the prevention or treatment of animal diseases;

(f) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (f) and subject to subsection (2) of this section, the owner of an animal and the owner's employees from caring for and treating the animal belonging to such owner.

(II) Subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (f) does not apply in cases where the ownership of the animal was transferred for purposes of circumventing this article or where the primary reason for hiring the employee is to circumvent this article.

(g) A person from lecturing or giving instructions or demonstrations at a school of veterinary medicine or in connection with a continuing education course or seminar for veterinarians;

(h) Any person from selling or applying any pesticide, insecticide, or herbicide;

(i) Any person from engaging in bona fide scientific research which reasonably requires experimentation involving animals or commercial production of biologics or animal medicines;

(j) Any person from performing duties other than diagnosis, prescription, surgery, or initiating treatment under the direction and supervision of a licensed veterinarian who shall be responsible for such person's performance;

(k) A veterinary student or veterinary student preceptor from performing those acts permitted by this article;

(l) Any person otherwise appropriately licensed or approved by the state from performing the functions described in section 12-64-103 (10) (d);

(m) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-091), ch. 207, p. 883, § 4, effective July 1, 2011.)

(o) Any person from performing massage on an animal in accordance with section 12-35.5-110 (1) (f);

(p) The practice of animal chiropractic pursuant to section 12-33-127;

(q) The practice of animal physical therapy pursuant to section 12-41-113 (4);

(r) Any person from assisting in a surgical procedure under the immediate supervision of a licensed veterinarian, who is responsible for the person's performance.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section and except as permitted by paragraph (j) of subsection (1) of this section, a person who is not a licensed veterinarian shall not administer, distribute, dispense, or prescribe prescription drugs. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), a licensed veterinarian must have a veterinarian-client-patient relationship with the animal and its owner or other caretaker in order to administer, distribute, dispense, or prescribe prescription drugs to or for an animal.

(b) (I) In an emergency situation where a licensed veterinarian who has a veterinarian-client-patient relationship prescribes a prescription drug that the licensed veterinarian does not have in stock and is not available at a local pharmacy, another licensed veterinarian who does not have a veterinarian-client-patient relationship with the animal and owner or other caretaker may administer, distribute, or dispense the prescription drug to the animal based on the examining veterinarian's expertise and veterinarian-client-patient relationship.

(II) The board shall adopt rules defining what constitutes an emergency situation under which this paragraph (b) would apply, including a requirement that failure to administer, distribute, or dispense the prescription drug threatens the health and well-being of the animal and requiring detailed records documenting the emergency circumstances that include at least the following:

(A) A requirement that the examining veterinarian with the veterinarian-client-patient relationship document the emergency and the immediate need for the prescription drug;

(B) A requirement that the examining veterinarian with the veterinarian-client-patient relationship document his or her efforts to obtain the prescription drug from a local pharmacy, including documentation of contact with at least one pharmacy in the general proximity of the examination location that does not have the prescription drug immediately available; and

(C) A requirement that the licensed veterinarian who administers, distributes, or dispenses the prescription drug document the date the prescription is administered, distributed, or dispensed.

(III) A veterinarian who administers, distributes, dispenses, or prescribes a prescription drug in accordance with this paragraph (b) is not subject to discipline pursuant to section 12-64-111 (1) (aa) if the veterinarian satisfies the requirements of this paragraph (b) and the rules adopted by the board.

12-64-105. Board of veterinary medicine - creation - powers. (1) The governor shall appoint a state board of veterinary medicine consisting of seven members. Each member shall be appointed for a term of four years. The governor shall appoint members of the board from qualified persons as described in subsection (2) of this section. The governor shall appoint members to fill vacancies on the board caused by death, resignation, or removal for the balance of the unexpired term. No person shall serve more than two consecutive four-year terms. A person appointed to serve out the balance of an unexpired term may be reappointed for an additional consecutive four-year term. Members of the board may remain on the board until a successor is appointed.

(2) The governor shall appoint five members to the board who are graduates of a school of veterinary medicine, who are residents of this state, and who have been licensed to practice veterinary medicine in this state for the five years preceding the time of the appointment. The governor shall appoint two members to the board from the public at large who have no financial or professional association with the veterinary profession.

(3) Repealed.

(5) The governor may remove a member of the board for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty or other sufficient cause.

(6) The board shall meet at least once each quarter during the year at a time and place fixed by the board. Other meetings may be called from time to time by the president of the board. Except as otherwise provided, a majority of the board constitutes a quorum. Meetings shall be conducted as provided in article 6 of title 24, C.R.S.

(8) All moneys collected or received by the board, except as provided in section 12-64-111 (4), shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for the expenditures of the board incurred in the performance of its duties under this article, which expenditures shall be made from such appropriations upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law.

(9) The board has the power to:

(a) Examine and determine the qualifications and fitness of applicants for a license to practice veterinary medicine in this state;

(b) Issue, renew, deny, suspend, or revoke licenses to practice veterinary medicine in the state or otherwise discipline or fine, or both, licensees consistent with this article and the rules adopted by the board under this article;

(c) Regulate artificial insemination and ova transplantation of cattle or other animal species by establishing rules and regulations for standards of practice, including rules relating to methods and procedures for safe artificial insemination and ova transplantation;

(d) Establish, pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and publish annually a schedule of fees for licensing and registration of veterinarians. The board shall base the fee on its anticipated financial requirements for the year.

(e) (I) Conduct investigations;

(II) Administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection (9).

(III) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board and with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(f) Hold hearings on all matters properly brought before the board. An administrative law judge may conduct all hearings for denying, suspending, or revoking a license or for any other similar matter properly brought before the board and assigned by the board to the administrative law judge, subject to appropriations made to the department of personnel. An administrative law judge shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S. Disciplinary and punitive actions of the board shall be made public.

(h) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-091), ch. 207, p. 889, § 9, effective July 1, 2011.)

(i) Bring proceedings in the courts for the enforcement of this article or any regulations made by the board;

(j) Adopt, amend, or repeal rules necessary for the administration and enforcement of this article. The board shall adopt rules to establish a uniform system and schedule of fines that it may impose on licensees for violations of this article or of rules adopted pursuant to this article.

(k) (Deleted by amendment, L. 91, p. 1469, § 3, effective July 1, 1991.)

(l) Issue a cease-and-desist order;

(m) Impose fines against corporations in accordance with section 12-64-123 (2).

(10) The board may, at any time, inspect veterinary premises to assure that they are clean and sanitary.

(11) The powers of the board are granted to enable the board to effectively supervise the practice of veterinary medicine and are to be construed liberally to accomplish this objective.

(13) The board shall consult with the state physical therapy board created in section 12-41-103.3 concerning rules that the director intends to adopt with regard to physical therapy of animals.

12-64-107. Application for license - qualifications. (1) Any person twenty-one years of age or older desiring a license to practice veterinary medicine in this state shall apply for the license in a manner approved by the board.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 91, p. 1470, 5, effective July 1, 1991.)

(3) In the application for licensure, the applicant shall demonstrate that he or she has:

(a) (I) Graduated from an accredited school of veterinary medicine; or

(II) Graduated from a nonaccredited school of veterinary medicine and received a certificate from a national program approved by the board that assesses educational equivalency of graduates from nonaccredited schools of veterinary medicine; and

(b) Passed an examination approved by the board by rule.

(4) The board may deny a license or may grant a license subject to terms of probation if the board determines that an applicant for a license:

(a) Does not possess the qualifications required by this article;

(b) Has engaged in conduct that constitutes grounds for discipline pursuant to section 12-64-111 (1);

(c) Has been disciplined in another state or jurisdiction with respect to his or her license to practice veterinary medicine in that state or jurisdiction; or

(d) Has not actively practiced veterinary medicine for the two-year period immediately preceding the date of receipt of the application or has not otherwise maintained continued competence, as determined by the board.

(5) If the board denies a license to an applicant or grants a license subject to terms of probation, the applicant may seek review of the board's decision pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.; except that, by accepting a license that is subject to probationary terms, the applicant waives any remedies available pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.

12-64-107.5. Academic license. (1) A veterinarian who is employed at a school of veterinary medicine in this state and who practices veterinary medicine in the course of his or her employment responsibilities shall either apply, in a manner approved by the board, for an academic license in accordance with this section or shall otherwise become licensed pursuant to sections 12-64-107 and 12-64-108.

(2) A person who applies for an academic license shall submit proof to the board that he or she:

(a) Graduated from a school of veterinary medicine located in the United States or another country; and

(b) Is employed by an accredited school of veterinary medicine in this state.

(3) An applicant for an academic license shall not be required to comply with the requirements of sections 12-64-107 and 12-64-108.

(4) An academic license shall authorize the licensee to practice veterinary medicine only while engaged in the performance of his or her official duties as a university employee. An academic licensee may not use an academic license to practice veterinary medicine outside of his or her academic responsibilities.

(5) In addition to the requirements of this section, an applicant for an academic license shall complete all procedures for academic licensing established by the board to become licensed.

12-64-110. License renewal.

(1) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1859, § 118, effective August 4, 2004.)

(2) All licenses must be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for renewal and fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, the license expires. A person whose license expires is subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(3) The board, by rule, may waive a licensed veterinarian's renewal fee while he or she is on active duty with any branch of the armed services of the United States. The period during which the renewal fee is waived cannot exceed the longer of three years or the duration of a national emergency.

(4) (a) In order to obtain license renewal, each licensee, except as otherwise provided, must complete a board-approved veterinary continuing educational program of at least thirty-two hours biennially. The courses may be taken at any time during the period since the license was last renewed and before the license is due to be renewed. The licensee shall provide satisfactory proof of the completion of all delinquent continuing education requirements. For good cause, the board may prescribe the type and character of continuing education courses to be taken by any doctor of veterinary medicine in order to comply with the requirements of this article.

(b) The board shall have the authority to excuse licensees, as groups or individuals, from biennially continuing educational requirements for a good and sufficient reason.

(c) The board may employ qualified personnel to aid in the implementation of this section.

12-64-110.5. Inactive license. (1) Upon notice to the board, a person licensed to practice veterinary medicine shall have his or her license transferred to inactive status. If a person whose license is in inactive status wishes to resume the practice of veterinary medicine, he or she shall apply to the board in a form and manner approved by the board and shall demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the board, continued competency to practice veterinary medicine. The board may approve the application and issue a license or may deny the application pursuant to section 12-64-107 (4).

(2) The board may pursue disciplinary proceedings pursuant to section 12-64-111 against a veterinarian whose license is in inactive status pursuant to this section for conduct that violates this article that the person engages in while in inactive status.

12-64-111. Discipline of licensees. (1) Upon receipt of a signed complaint by a complainant or upon its own motion, the board may proceed to a hearing in conformity with section 12-64-112. After a hearing, and by a concurrence of a majority of members, the board may deny a license to an applicant or revoke or suspend the license of, place on probation, or otherwise discipline or fine, a licensed veterinarian for any of the following reasons:

(a) Violation of any of the provisions of this article or any of the rules of the board;

(b) Fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in attempting to obtain or in obtaining a license;

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-091), ch. 207, p. 890, § 10, effective July 1, 2011.)

(d) Fraud, deception, misrepresentation, or dishonest or illegal practices in or connected with the practice of veterinary medicine;

- (e) Misrepresentation in the inspection of food for human consumption;
- (f) Fraudulent issuance or use of any health certificate, vaccination certificate, test chart, or blank form used in the practice of veterinary medicine to prevent the dissemination of animal disease, transportation of diseased animals, or the sale of inedible products of animal origin for human consumption;
- (g) Fraud or dishonesty in the application or reporting of any test for disease in animals;
- (h) Failure to keep veterinary premises and equipment in a clean and sanitary condition;
- (i) Refusal to permit the board to inspect veterinary premises during business hours;
- (j) Use of advertising or solicitation which is false or misleading;
- (k) Incompetence, negligence, or other malpractice in the practice of veterinary medicine;
- (l) Unprofessional or unethical conduct or engaging in practices in connection with the practice of veterinary medicine that are in violation of generally accepted standards of veterinary practice as defined in this article or prescribed by the rules of the board;
- (m) Willful making of any false statement as to any material matter in any oath or affidavit which is required by this article;
- (n) (Deleted by amendment, L. 91, p. 1474, § 10, effective July 1, 1991.)
- (o) Conviction of a charge of cruelty to animals;
- (p) Conviction of a violation of the "Uniform Controlled Substances Act of 1992", article 18 of title 18, C.R.S., the federal "Controlled Substances Act", or the federal "Controlled Substances Import and Export Act", or any of them;
- (q) Conviction of a crime in the courts of this state or of a crime in any other state, any territory, or any other country for an offense related to the conduct regulated by this article, regardless of whether the sentence is deferred. For the purposes of this paragraph (q), a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere accepted by the court shall be considered as a conviction.
- (r) Conviction upon charges which involve the unlawful practice of veterinary medicine, and, based upon a record of such conviction, without any other testimony, the board may take temporary disciplinary action, even though an appeal for review by a higher court may be pending;
- (s) Permitting another to use his or her license for the purpose of treating or offering to treat sick, injured, or afflicted animals;
- (t) Practicing veterinary medicine under a false or assumed name, or impersonating another practitioner of a like, similar, or different name;
- (u) Maintenance of a professional or business connection with any other person who continues to violate any of the provisions of this article or rules of the board after ten days following receipt of the board's written request for termination of such connection;
- (v) Habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol beverages, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;
- (w) A determination that he or she is mentally incompetent by a court of competent jurisdiction and such court has entered, pursuant to part 3 or part 4 of article 14 of title 15 or section 27-65-109 (4) or 27-65-127, C.R.S., an order specifically finding that the mental incompetency is of such a degree that he or she is incapable of continuing to practice veterinary medicine;
- (x) Engaging in the practice of veterinary medicine while in inactive status or while the person's license is expired;
- (y) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-091), ch. 207, p. 890, § 10, effective July 1, 2011.)
- (z) Failing to report a known violation of any of the provisions of this section;
- (aa) Administering, dispensing, distributing, or prescribing any prescription drug other than in the course of a veterinarian-client-patient relationship, except in accordance with section 12-64-104 (2) (b);
- (bb) An act or omission which fails to meet generally accepted standards of veterinary practice;
- (cc) Practicing or performing services beyond a licensee's scope of competence;
- (dd) Engaging in any act prohibited in article 42.5 of this title;
- (ee) Failure to respond to a complaint against the licensed veterinarian;

- (ff) Failure to provide to the board an updated mailing address and other contact information as required by the board within thirty days after a change in the information;
- (gg) Failure to properly supervise a veterinary student or veterinary staff;
- (hh) Failure to provide a written prescription to a wholesaler within three business days after issuing an oral prescription order, as required by section 12-42.5-118 (3) (b).

(1.5) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(1.7) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

(2) The record of conviction of a felony in a court of competent jurisdiction shall be sufficient evidence for such disciplinary action to be taken as may be deemed proper by the board. For the purposes of this article, a conviction shall be deemed to be a conviction which has been upheld by the highest appellate court having jurisdiction or a conviction upon which the time for filing an appeal has passed.

(2.5) With respect to denying the issuance of a veterinary license or to taking disciplinary action against a veterinarian, the board may accept as prima facie evidence of grounds for such action any federal or state action taken against a veterinarian from another jurisdiction if the violation which prompted the disciplinary action in such jurisdiction would constitute grounds for disciplinary action under this section.

(3) Repealed.

(4) In addition to any other penalty that may be imposed pursuant to this section, any person violating any provision of this article or any rules promulgated pursuant to this article may be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for any such violation. Any moneys collected pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the moneys to the general fund.

(5) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(6) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person or on the board's own motion, that a licensed veterinarian is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order must set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(7) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person or on the board's own motion, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to the person an order to show cause why the board should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (7) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (7). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (7) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (7), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(8) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(9) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(10) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(11) The board may suspend the license of a veterinarian who fails to comply with an order of the board issued in accordance with this section. The board may impose the license suspension until the licensee complies with the board's order.

12-64-114. Unauthorized practice - penalties. (1) No person who practices veterinary medicine without a currently valid license may receive any compensation for services so rendered.

(2) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice veterinary medicine without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(3) The board or a citizen of this state may bring an action to enjoin a person from practicing veterinary medicine without a currently valid license. If the court finds that the person is violating, or is threatening to violate, this article, it may enter an injunction restraining him or her from such unlawful acts.

(4) The successful maintenance of an action based on any one of the remedies set forth in this section shall in no way prejudice the prosecution of an action based on any other of the remedies.

12-64-115. Abandonment of animals. (1) An animal placed in the custody of a licensed veterinarian for treatment, boarding, or other care that is unclaimed by its owner or his or her agent for more than ten days after written notice, by certified mail, return receipt requested, is given to the addressee at his or her last-known address is deemed to be abandoned and may be turned over to the nearest humane society or animal shelter or disposed of in a manner deemed appropriate by the custodian.

(2) The giving of notice to the owner, or the agent of the owner, of such animal by the licensed veterinarian, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, shall relieve the licensed veterinarian and any custodian to whom such animal may be given of any further liability for disposal. Such procedure by the licensed veterinarian shall not constitute grounds for disciplining procedure under this article.

(3) For the purpose of this article, the term “abandoned” means to forsake entirely, or to neglect or refuse to provide or perform the legal obligations for care and support of an animal by its owner, or his or her agent. Abandonment constitutes the relinquishment of all rights and claims by the owner to the animal.

12-64-116. Veterinary students. (1) All duties performed by a veterinary student must be under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian. If the student does not conform to the following requirements, the licensed veterinarian is in violation of this article. A veterinary student may:

(a) Administer drugs only under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian; and
(b) Perform surgery, only if he or she is competent and has the necessary training and experience, under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian.

(c) and (d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-091), ch. 207, p. 897, § 23, effective July 1, 2011.)

(2) It is unlawful for a veterinary student to participate in the operation of a branch office, clinic, or allied establishment unless the veterinary student is under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian.

12-64-120. Veterinary records in custody of animal care providers - definition - rules. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires, “animal care provider” means any veterinary practice or veterinary hospital, including the veterinary teaching hospital at Colorado state university, that provides veterinary care or treatment to animals.

(2) Animal care providers shall make available the veterinary records in their custody as follows:

(a) The owner of an animal or the owner’s designated representative shall have reasonable access to such animal’s records for inspection;

(b) The owner or the owner’s designated representative may obtain a summary of such animal’s records upon request, following termination of care or treatment; and

(c) Copies of veterinary records, including digital records, digital images, diagnostic quality X rays, CT SCANS, MRIs, or other films, shall be furnished to:

(I) The owner or the owner’s designated representative upon payment of reasonable costs; and

(II) Local law enforcement authorities and the bureau of animal protection in the department of agriculture in connection with an investigation of animal cruelty pursuant to section 18-9-202, C.R.S., or animal fighting pursuant to section 18-9-204, C.R.S.

(3) (a) Records concerning an animal’s care are available to the public unless a veterinary-patient-client privilege exists with respect to such animal, as provided in section 24-72-204 (3) (a) (XIV), C.R.S.

(b) All practicing veterinarians in this state shall maintain accurate records for every new or existing veterinarian-client-patient relationship as defined in section 12-64-103

(15.5). In the animal patient records, the licensed veterinarian shall justify and describe the assessment, diagnosis, and treatment administered or prescribed and all medications and dosages prescribed in a legible, written, printed, or electronically prepared document that is unalterable. The licensed veterinarian shall prepare the records in a manner that allows any subsequent evaluation of the same animal patient record to yield comprehensive medical, patient, and veterinarian identifying information. Licensed veterinarians shall maintain animal patient records for a minimum of three years after the animal patient's last medical examination.

(c) The board shall promulgate rules including, but not limited to, criteria by which animal patient records may be adapted in the case of herds, flocks, litters, large volume, or specialty veterinary practices and identify exceptions to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), if necessary, for veterinarians rendering emergency care or treatment.

12-64-121. Reporting requirements - immunity for reporting - veterinary-patient-client privilege inapplicable. (1) A licensed veterinarian who, during the course of attending or treating an animal, has reasonable cause to know or suspect that the animal has been subjected to cruelty in violation of section 18-9-202, C.R.S., or subjected to animal fighting in violation of section 18-9-204, C.R.S., shall report or cause a report to be made of the animal cruelty or animal fighting to a local law enforcement agency or the bureau of animal protection.

(2) A licensed veterinarian shall not knowingly make a false report of animal cruelty or animal fighting to a local law enforcement agency or to the bureau of animal protection.

(3) A licensed veterinarian who willfully violates the provisions of subsection (1) or (2) of this section commits a class 1 petty offense, punishable as provided in section 18-1.3-503, C.R.S.

(4) A licensed veterinarian who in good faith reports a suspected incident of animal cruelty or animal fighting to the proper authorities in accordance with subsection (1) of this section shall be immune from liability in any civil or criminal action brought against the veterinarian for reporting the incident. In any civil or criminal proceeding in which the liability of a veterinarian for reporting an incident described in subsection (1) of this section is at issue, the good faith of the veterinarian shall be presumed.

(5) The veterinary-patient-client privilege described in section 24-72-204 (3) (a) (XIV), C.R.S., may not be asserted for the purpose of excluding or refusing evidence or testimony in a prosecution for an act of animal cruelty under section 18-9-202, C.R.S., or for an act of animal fighting under section 18-9-204, C.R.S.

12-64-122. Corporate structure for the practice of veterinary medicine - definitions. (1) A licensed veterinarian shall not practice veterinary medicine in or through a corporation except in accordance with this section.

(2) One or more persons may form or own shares in a corporation for the practice of veterinary medicine if the corporation is organized and operated in accordance with this section. A corporation formed pursuant to this section may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado.

(3) The practice of veterinary medicine by a corporation pursuant to this section must be performed by or under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian. Lay directors, officers, and shareholders of the corporation shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over the independent medical judgment of licensed veterinarians performing or supervising the practice of veterinary medicine by or on behalf of the corporation.

(4) The corporation shall not engage in any act or omission that, if engaged in by a licensed veterinarian employed by the corporation, would violate section 12-64-111 (1). A violation of section 12-64-111 (1) is grounds for the board to discipline a licensee pursuant to section 12-64-111.

(5) Nothing in this section diminishes or changes the obligation of each licensed veterinarian employed by the corporation to conduct his or her practice so as not to violate section 12-64-111 (1). A licensed veterinarian who, by act or omission, causes the corporation to act or fail to act in a way that violates section 12-64-111 (1) or any provision of this section is personally responsible for such act or omission and is subject to discipline for the act or omission.

(6) Nothing in this section modifies the veterinarian-patient-client privilege specified in section 24-72-204 (3) (a) (XIV), C.R.S.

(7) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Corporation" means a domestic entity, as defined in section 7-90-102 (13), C.R.S., a foreign entity, as defined in section 7-90-102 (23), C.R.S., registered to do business in Colorado, or a sole proprietorship.

(b) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(c) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

12-64-124. Veterinarian peer health assistance program - fees - administration - rules. (1) (a) On and after July 1, 2011, as a condition of licensure and renewal in this state, every veterinarian applying for a new license or to renew his or her license shall pay to the board, for use by the administering entity selected by the board pursuant to this subsection (1), an amount not to exceed forty dollars per year, which maximum amount may be adjusted on January 1, 2012, and annually thereafter by the board to reflect changes in the United States bureau of statistics consumer price index for the Denver-Boulder consolidated metropolitan statistical area for all urban consumers or goods, or its successor index. The board shall forward the fee to the chosen administering entity for use in supporting designated providers selected by the board to provide assistance to veterinarians needing help in dealing with physical, emotional, or psychological conditions that may be detrimental to their ability to practice veterinary medicine.

(b) The board shall select one or more peer health assistance programs as designated providers. To be eligible for designation by the board, a peer health assistance program must:

(I) Provide for the education of veterinarians with respect to the recognition and prevention of physical, emotional, and psychological conditions and provide for intervention when necessary or under circumstances established by the board by rule;

(II) Offer assistance to a veterinarian in identifying physical, emotional, or psychological conditions;

(III) Evaluate the extent of physical, emotional, or psychological conditions and refer the veterinarian for appropriate treatment;

(IV) Monitor the status of a veterinarian who has been referred for treatment;

(V) Provide counseling and support for the veterinarian and for the family of any veterinarian referred for treatment;

(VI) Agree to receive referrals from the board; and

(VII) Agree to make its services available to all licensed Colorado veterinarians.

(c) The board may select an entity to administer the veterinarian peer health assistance program. An administering entity must be a nonprofit private foundation that is qualified under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and that is dedicated to providing support for charitable, benevolent, educational, and scientific purposes that are related to veterinary medicine, veterinary medical education, veterinary medical research and science, and other veterinary medical charitable purposes.

(d) The administering entity shall:

(I) Distribute the moneys collected by the board, less expenses, to the designated provider, as directed by the board;

(II) Provide an annual accounting to the board of all amounts collected, expenses incurred, and amounts disbursed; and

(III) Post a surety performance bond in an amount specified by the board to secure performance under the requirements of this section. The administering entity may recover the actual administrative costs incurred in performing its duties under this section in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount collected.

(e) The board shall collect the required annual payments payable to the administering entity for the benefit of the administering entity and shall transfer all such payments to the administering entity. All required annual payments collected or due to the board for each fiscal year are custodial funds that are not subject to appropriation by the general assembly, and the distribution of payments to the administering entity or expenditure of the payments by the administering entity does not constitute state fiscal year spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(2) (a) Any veterinarian who is referred by the board to a peer health assistance program shall enter into a stipulation with the board pursuant to section 12-64-111 (8) prior to participating in the program. The agreement must contain specific requirements and goals to be met by the participant, including the conditions under which the program will be successfully completed or terminated, and a provision that a failure to comply with the requirements and goals are to be promptly reported to the board and that such failure will result in disciplinary action by the board.

(b) Notwithstanding sections 12-64-111 and 24-4-104, C.R.S., the board may immediately suspend the license of any veterinarian who is referred to a peer health assistance program by the board and who fails to attend or to complete the program. If the veterinarian objects to the suspension, he or she may submit a written request to the board for a formal hearing on the suspension within ten days after receiving notice of the suspension, and the board shall grant the request. In the hearing, the veterinarian bears the burden of proving that his or her license should not be suspended.

(c) Any veterinarian who self-refers and is accepted into a peer health assistance program shall affirm that, to the best of his or her knowledge, information, and belief, he or she knows of no instance in which he or she has violated this article or the rules of the board, except in those instances affected by the veterinarian's physical, emotional, or psychological conditions.

(3) Nothing in this section creates any liability on the board or the state of Colorado for the actions of the board in making grants to peer health assistance programs, and no civil action may be brought or maintained against the board or the state for an injury alleged to have been the result of the activities of any state-funded peer health assistance program or the result of an act or omission of a veterinarian participating in or referred by a state-funded peer health assistance program. However, the state remains liable under the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S., if an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a veterinarian participating in or referred by a state-funded peer health assistance program occurred while such veterinarian was performing duties as an employee of the state.

(4) The board may promulgate rules necessary to implement this section.

12-70-101. Inactive license - rights and responsibilities. (1) Persons licensed (which for purposes of this article shall include persons referred to as certified) to practice any profession or occupation under this title for which postgraduate study or attendance at educational institutions is required in order to obtain renewal of such licenses may have their names transferred to an inactive licensees category under this section. Every board authorized under this title to issue licenses shall maintain a list of inactive licensees, and upon written notice to such board, any such licensee shall not be required to comply with any postgraduate educational requirements so long as such licensee remains inactive in the profession or occupation. Each such inactive licensee shall continue to meet the normal registration requirements imposed upon his profession or occupation.

(2) Such inactive status shall be noted on the face of any license issued while the licensee remains inactive. Should such person wish to resume the practice of his profession or occupation after being placed on an inactive list, he shall file a proper application therefor, pay the registration renewal fee, and meet any postgraduate study or in-service requirements which the governing board may determine to be applicable to such resumption of practice.

(3) Engaging in the practice of a profession or occupation while on inactive status pursuant to this article may be grounds for revocation.
